19 BY THE COURT: To each of those charges, how 20 does he plead - guilty or not guilty?

21 BY THE DEFENDANT: Not guilty.

22 BY THE COURT: On each charge; is that correct?

23 BY MR. BILLY GILMORE: That's correct.

24 BY THE COURT: Mr. Gilmore, the two Mr.
25 Gilmores, which one of y'all is going to act as lead
26 counsel in this case?

27 BY MR. JOHN GILMORE: I am, Your Honor.

28 BY THE COURT: All right. My understanding is 29 y'all have been furnished discovery or will be today?

1 BY MR. EVANS: Will be today, Your Honor.

2 BY MR. JOHN GILMORE: Your Honor, we also have a
3 prepared motion for discovery and an order prepared.

4 BY THE COURT: Okay. I tell you what let's do
5 then. I will consider that shortly. Well, let me see it
6 now.

7 BY MR. JOHN GILMORE: They have the filed copy.
8 This is a copy.

9 BY THE COURT: Have y'all examined the motion?

10 BY MR. EVANS: No, sir.

11 BY THE COURT: Okay, I'm going to give y'all an 12 opportunity to look at the Motion. I'm going to set some 13 deadlines today for reciprocal discovery and motions and 14 let them examine those, these motions, and then we will 15 sit down and we will go over some deadlines on what we 16 have got to do to get the case to trial. Okay?

17 BY MR. JOHN GILMORE: Thank you, Your Honor.

18 BY THE COURT: That is it for now. Y'all don't 19 leave though because we are going to talk. Mr. Hill, what 20 is next?

1 (ON NOVEMBER 14, 1997, PROCEEDINGS WERE HAD IN
2 KOSCIUSKO, MISSISSIPPI, BEFORE JUDGE CLARENCE E. MORGAN, III, 3 CIRCUIT JUDGE, WHEREIN DEFENDANT MADE A MOTION FOR NEW TRIAL IN 4 ANOTHER CASE INVOLVING THIS SAME DEFENDANT, LEE COUNTY CAUSE
5 NUMBER CR97-369, WHICH WAS FOLLOWED BY A MOTION IN THE PRESENT
6 CASE UNDER CONSIDERATION, THEN KNOWN AS LEE COUNTY CIRCUIT
7 CAUSE NUMBER CR97-372.

8 PRESENT AT THIS HEARING REPRESENTING THE STATE WERE:
9 HON. DOUG EVANS AND HON. WALTER BLECK, DISTRICT ATTORNEY AND 10 ASSISTANT DISTRICT ATTORNEY, P. O. BOX 1262, GRENADA,
11 MISSISSIPPI 38901.

12 REPRESENTING THE DEFENDANT AT THIS HEARING WERE:
13 HON. JOHN GILMORE, ATTORNEY AT LAW, P. O. BOX 151, DURANT, 14 MISSISSIPPI 39063 AND HON. BILLY GILMORE, ATTORNEY AT LAW, P.
15 O. BOX 629, LEXINGTON, MISSISSIPPI 39095, AND THE DEFENDANT
16 HIMSELF WAS PRESENT.

17 THIS TRANSCRIPT PICKS UP AFTER THE MOTION FOR NEW 18 TRIAL IN CAUSE NUMBER CR97-369 WITH THE MOTION TO WITHDRAW
19 CHANGE OF VENUE FILED IN THE PRESENT CAUSE, CR97-372:)

20 BY THE COURT: Have y'all got further motions?

21 BY MR. JOHN GILMORE: Yes, Your Honor.

22 (Documents handed to State's Counsel and to the 23 Court.)

24 BY MR. JOHN GILMORE: We have two further
25 motions, but I think they are going to be in the 26 three remaining cause numbers.

27 BY THE COURT: Okay.

28 BY MR. JOHN GILMORE: Your Honor, in cause
29 number CR97-370, CR97-371, and 97-372 the Defendants

1 would like to enter a Motion to Withdraw the Change
2 of Venue and to rescind the order changing it to Lee
3 County. The reason that it was changed in the first 4 place was because of the pretrial publicity in 5 Montgomery County. Since that time, Lee County has 6 received substantial media since the previous trial
7 in CR97-369. We do not feel that the Defendant can
8 get a fair and impartial trial in Lee County.
9 It has been publicized throughout the state. The 10 reasons for changing it to Lee County in the first
11 place are now invalid since it has been saturated
12 with more media in Lee County probably than in 13 Montgomery County since then because of the 14 television stations that ran the coverage of the last 15 trial, the radio stations, and also the newspapers.
16 It was thoroughly covered. The trial was thoroughly
17 covered in Lee County.

18 We feel that by moving it back to Montgomery
19 County, it would save the county additional costs.
20 It'll save the Defense additional costs. There is 21 absolutely no reason to keep it in Lee County. If it
22 is not moved back to Lee [sic] County, we anticipate
23 having to file another change of venue motion, and I
24 don't know where this Court will be able to find a
25 place in the state that has not previously heard
26 about this case. We feel that if it's moved back to 27 Montgomery County, a lot of time and expense will be 28 saved by having to go up to, all the way to Tupelo to 29 argue motions, select the jury. In addition, the

1 cost that the Defense and the State has having room
2 and board up there in Montgomery County, we will all
3 be closer to home and won't have that extra expense
4 that the Defendant will have to incur as well as the 5 State.

6 BY THE COURT: Of course, expense is not the 7 object, is it, Mr. Gilmore? Getting this man a fair
8 and impartial trial is what this is all about, isn't
9 it?

10 BY MR. JOHN GILMORE: Yes, Your Honor. But that 11 is just one of the benefits of moving it back to 12 Montgomery County.

13 (Defense Counsel confer briefly.)

14 BY MR. JOHN GILMORE: And also, in Montgomery
15 County-- I mean in Lee County there has already been,
16 I believe, 350 people pulled that now, I am sure,
17 have knowledge of the case because they were polled
18 and questioned in voir dire. We feel that that would 19 substantially limit the number of available persons
20 having to go back up there and draw another venire.

21 BY THE COURT: What about the Simon case?

22 BY MR. JOHN GILMORE: Simon case?

23 BY THE COURT: Uh-hum.

24 BY MR. JOHN GILMORE: I'm--

25 BY MR. EVANS: 633 So.2d 407.

26 BY MR. JOHN GILMORE: If you will elaborate. I
27 think I am aware of that case, but I'm not sure if we 28 are thinking about the same one.

29 BY THE COURT: It says when venue is changed,

1           it's changed, and there is no right to have it moved
2           back just because you didn't like the results of the
3           trial.

4           BY MR. JOHN GILMORE: Well, Your Honor, that is 5           not the reason that we are trying to get it moved
6           back.

7           BY THE COURT: Well, why is it you are trying to 8           get it moved back?

9           BY MR. JOHN GILMORE: Well, we are trying to get 10          it moved back so that a fair and impartial jury can 11          be drawn.

12          BY THE COURT: But you filed no affidavits with 13          this Motion showing that there is, where anybody has 14          said that he can't get a fair and impartial trial.
15          That is merely you saying that. There was publicity
16          up there the first time.

17          BY MR. JOHN GILMORE: Your Honor, the Rules
18          require the affidavits in a change of venue. This is 19          a motion to rescind that change of venue.

20          BY THE COURT: Once venue is changed, it's 21          changed. This is a Lee County case now. It's not a 22          Montgomery County case. It is a Lee County case. To 23          change it from there, you must have a motion for 24          change of venue. In any event, you would have to 25          have something to rely on other than your statements
26          that there has been a lot of publicity about the 27          case. There was a lot of publicity before. We got a
28          jury the first day and I think had opening statements
29          the first day. So without any more proof than that,

1 I don't see what grounds you have got, Mr. Gilmore.

2 BY MR. JOHN GILMORE: Your Honor, we will
3 provide affidavits and witnesses if necessary. We 4 didn't-- we thought that the Court would take
5 judicial notice because they definitely knew, y'all
6 are definitely aware of the extensive media that--

7 BY THE COURT: --But that is not the test. The 8 test is not that it was covered by the media no more
9 than it was in the first trial. The test is 10 whether-- what, there must have been 30 or 40 folks
11 on that panel before had heard of the case, and that 12 doesn't exclude them. The question is whether or not 13 they have formed an opinion and whether or not they 14 can be fair and impartial jurors. That is the test.
15 You have got nothing before me that says anybody in 16 Lee County has done that.

17 BY MR. JOHN GILMORE: Yes, Your Honor. Well, we 18 would like--

19 BY THE COURT: --That Motion is overruled.

20 BY MR. BILLY GILMORE: Could we continue the 21 motion until you secure that?

22 BY THE COURT: No, you can file another one.
23 That Motion is overruled. I don't think this motion,
24 there is such a motion as a motion to withdraw change
25 of venue. I think if you want it changed, you have 26 got to file a change of venue motion. So that Motion
27 is overruled.

28 BY MR. JOHN GILMORE: Your Honor, we are going 29 to not argue the other motion at this time. We are

1 going to present it to the Court at a later point.

2 BY THE COURT: The double jeopardy motion?

3 BY MR. JOHN GILMORE: Yes, Your Honor.

4 BY THE COURT: Okay. Anything else?

5 BY MR. JOHN GILMORE: No, Your Honor.

6 BY THE COURT: Okay. See y'all on the 3rd of 7 December at 10 o'clock in Tupelo.

8 BY MR. BILLY GILMORE: Your Honor, we will 9 probably get back about hearing some motions before
10 then.

11 BY THE COURT: No, I'm not going to hear any 12 more motions on this case until December the 3rd in 13 Tupelo. We will hear whatever motions you have got 14 on that day after we-- well, at such time-- we are 15 going to get the jury that day-- I mean pull a venire
16 on that day. We will also hear those motions some 17 time on that day, so everybody just be prepared to be 18 there. Okay.

1 (ON DECEMBER 3, 1997, PROCEEDINGS WERE HAD IN
2 THE LEE COUNTY COURTHOUSE IN TUPELO, MISSISSIPPI, IN CAUSE
3 NUMBER CR97-372 WITH JUDGE CLARENCE E. MORGAN, III PRESIDING.
4 APPEARANCES WERE AS FOLLOWS: REPRESENTING THE STATE OF 5 MISSISSIPPI WERE HON. DOUG EVANS AND HON. KEVIN HORAN;
6 REPRESENTING THE DEFENDANT WERE HON. BILLY GILMORE, HON. JOHN
7 GILMORE, AND HON. HARVEY C. FREELON. THE DEFENDANT WAS ALSO 8 PRESENT.)

9 BY THE COURT: Mr. Freelon, let me see your 10 motion. I don't think I have.

11 (Pause while the Court reads.)

12 BY THE COURT: I don't know what order will be 13 the most appropriate way. Is this the only motion
14 that is filed right now?

15 BY MR. FREELON: Yes. I'm sorry, Your Honor.
16 Notice of Appearance and this Motion is the only 17 motion that is filed at the present time. We do have 18 several forthcoming.

19 BY THE COURT: Okay. All right, let's hear that 20 motion first.

21 BY MR. FREELON: First of all, I need to--

22 BY THE COURT: --Well, I tell you what. Have 23 y'all filed a motion?

24 BY MR. BILLY GILMORE: No, Your Honor. We first
25 became aware of this yesterday.

26 BY THE COURT: Okay.

27 BY MR. BILLY GILMORE: But we will make an ore
28 tenus motion if that's what the Court--

29 BY THE COURT: --No, it has to be done in

1 writing. So the only motion before me is a Motion
2 for a Continuance of the Selection. We are here
3 today to select the venire only, to draw the number
4 of names, which is 350, by Court order that will
5 serve as the panel, the venire, from which a jury
6 will be selected in this case, this case being set
7 for January the 26th, 1998. This is a Motion for 8 Continuance for that, to postpone the simple drawing
9 of the venire. All right, Mr. Freelon.

10 BY MR. FREELON: Well, Your Honor, I guess can 11 you make a ruling, an oral ruling that the law
12 offices of Lumumba and Freelon, Chokwe Lumumba and 13 Harvey Freelon, the Notice of Appearance will at 14 least be entered into order because I am filing a
15 Notice of Appearance as well?

16 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir. The Court notes that 17 there are additional lawyers in this case now and 18 that the firm of Freelon and Lumumba; is that right?

19 BY MR. FREELON: Yes, sir.

20 BY THE COURT: That is the firm name, okay.
21 Harvey C. Freelon and Chokwe Lumumba are now also 22 attorneys in this cause.

23 BY MR. FREELON: Correct.

24 BY THE COURT: And that firm has filed this
25 motion.

26 BY MR. FREELON: Yes. First of all, Your Honor,
27 once again, good evening to the Court. The Motion
28 for Continuance for the Date for the Selection of the 29 Special Venire; this Motion, of course, as you can

1           see, is filed based upon the fact that we as a law
2           firm was retained a couple of days ago; I guess on 3           Monday. And on Tuesday after speaking with the 4           learned District Attorney on yesterday, I realized
5           that the special venire would be called on today.
6           Now and after speaking with the attorneys presently
7           present here at the table today, we realize that 8           there are several motions that has to be filed in 9           this matter. One of those motions, Your Honor, is a 10          change of venue. Now I don't know what has been 11          decided in the past on the change of venue, on the 12          venue issue at all. But we do know that we will be 13          filing a motion for change of venue as well as there
14          will be other motions that will be filed dealing with 15          the death penalty, dealing with the capital murder
16          case, but more specifically, the change of venue.
17          We feel if the Court today go ahead with the special
18          venire, that would prejudice any motion for the 19          change of venue we may have in the future so--

20                BY THE COURT: --Why would that, Mr. Freelon?
21                Why would it prejudice that?

22                BY MR. FREELON: Your Honor, once you pick the 23                special venire, you are saying to this Court that we 24                are going to have this case over here, Your Honor.
25                We are going to have-- you are saying, to me you are 26                saying that now that I have gone ahead and picked the 27                special venire, there is no need in having a motion
28                for a change of venue.

29                BY THE COURT: Well, what if we got into voir

1           dire and found that we could not get a fair and
2           impartial jury here? I could change it then,
3           couldn't I?

4           BY MR. FREELON: Well, Your Honor, I think we 5           can also make that determination before we got into 6           venire.

7           BY THE COURT: Well, you may, but you can also
8           do it at that time. So you are not, how are you
9           prejudiced? If I can do it at the last instance, how 10          are you prejudiced by me--

11          BY MR. FREELON: --Well, Your Honor, only there
12          are what we call economies for the judicial system,
13          Your Honor. Why should we have to go to the 14          unnecessary time of doing that, Your Honor? I
15          mean--

16          BY THE COURT: Well, we don't know that it is 17          unnecessary yet.

18          BY MR. FREELON: Your Honor, but once we-- well, 19          why don't we do the change of venue, and once we have 20          the change of venue motion, Your Honor, it may very 21          well be unnecessary. What we are trying to do, Your 22          Honor, is to stop that from happening. And that is 23          the reason we are saying just in the economies for 24          this Court alone, Your Honor, for judicial economy.
25          It seems like to me the most logical step would be to 26          have the motion for a change of venue, let you rule
27          on your motion for change of venue, and then we come
28          back at a later date, and we can pick the special 29          venire. But it seems like for the logical steps is

1           concerned, it's-- let's have a motion day and come
2           back to this courtroom, and let's deal with, we can
3           deal with the change in venue, special venire at that 4           point in time. How would it prejudice this Court if
5           we continue this special venire, Your Honor?

6           BY THE COURT: Okay, I can tell you right now.
7           This case is set for January 26, 1998. It takes-- we 8           have sent out the summons on the previous case six
9           weeks before because the Court has ordered that a
10          questionnaire go out with the jury summons for them
11          to answer so that both counsel can have the benefits
12          of what is in that questionnaire. In order for that,
13          in order for that to go out and be done and for the 14          Clerk to be able to do her business, it is important
15          that we do this today and not at some later date. If 16          we have to draw the venire, another venire, we will 17          just have to draw another venire. But with this case
18          set January the 26th, for you to be able to get the 19          benefits of the Court orders that I have already 20          ordered at the instance of the Defendant and his 21          Counsel, it's necessary that the venire be drawn
22          today unless you can show me some way that you are 23          prejudiced by this.

24          BY MR. FREELON: Well, Your Honor, I will be 25          more than-- first of all, Your Honor, another motion
26          will be filed to continue this case.

27          BY THE COURT: We will hear that when you file
28          it. It hasn't been filed yet.

29          BY MR. FREELON: But that motion will be, that

1 motion is forthcoming as well, so you are looking
2 out-- you are stating to me you are looking out for
3 the benefit of the Defendant because you don't want,
4 you wants to go head on and file the special venire
5 now so we can get the questionnaire out so we can 6 have the jury trial, so we can have the trial in 7 January. Well, Your Honor, right now we will consent
8 to continuing the case, and you would not have to do
9 the Defendant that type of favor. We can agree to 10 continue the case right now.

11 BY THE COURT: I'm sure you can, but I'm not 12 going to continue the case until there is some reason
13 for it.

14 BY MR. FREELON: Okay, we will file those 15 motions for those reasons.

16 BY THE COURT: All right, sir.

17 BY MR. FREELON: Well, Your Honor, my--

18 BY THE COURT: And let me say this. Just 19 because y'all just got hired is not going to be 20 grounds for a continuance from this Court. Now you
21 need to understand that right now.

22 BY MR. FREELON: I understand that. What is 23 going to be grounds for a continuance is that our 24 schedule is busy. At the same time, Your Honor, in 25 the interest of justice--

26 BY THE COURT: --Well, you may have to--

27 BY MR. FREELON: --in preparing for this case,
28 Your Honor, in the interest of justice in preparing
29 for this case is one of the reasons we will be filing

1           for a continuance as well as the other events and
2           things that we have to do. We have to go through the 3           transcript and everything else, but we will address
4           that issue at that point in time, Your Honor, and you
5           can make a ruling--

6           BY THE COURT: --No, I'm going to address some of 7           it today. Okay, go ahead.

8           BY MR. FREELON: You can go ahead, Your Honor.

9           BY THE COURT: No, go ahead and finish your
10          argument.

11          BY MR. FREELON: Well, for this Court, I have 12          stated my argument for this Court, and I do think
13          that in the interest of justice that this special
14          venire should be continued until the counsels in this 15          case have time to bring forth their motion and 16          especially a motion for a change of venue on this 17          matter. Thank you, Your Honor.

18          BY THE COURT: Okay. Let the record reflect 19          first there has been one change of venue filed in 20          each of these causes originally. That motion was 21          granted, and this cause was changed, the venue was 22          changed to Lee County. There has been another motion
23          of similar nature filed within the last two weeks,
24          and the Court has already ruled on that and elected
25          not to change the venue based on that motion
26          already. And the Defendant is entitled to file such 27          other motions for change of venue as it will, but 28          this case is now set for January 26, 1998. And until 29          that date is changed, we are going to proceed as we

1 have in these other cases.

2 This Motion for a Continuance for a Date of 3 Selection of Special Jury Venire is denied, and we
4 are going to select it today. Ms. Loftin, when do
5 you expect the jury summonses to go out? When did we 6 talk about?

7 BY MS. LOFTIN, CIRCUIT CLERK: Well, we have got 8 most of it ready. We have got the copies made and 9 everything.

10 BY THE COURT: Okay.

11 BY MS. LOFTIN: So you just give us a day, or we 12 can get a letter--

13 BY THE COURT: I believe we did it six weeks
14 before. Is that right, gentlemen?

15 BY MR. JOHN GILMORE: Yeah.

16 BY MS. LOFTIN: About 6 weeks before trial.

17 BY THE COURT: All right. While we are at it,
18 let's address some other things. Any other motions
19 in this case have to be filed by January the 1st. We 20 will have a hearing on those motions within ten days
21 of that date.

22 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, just for 23 clarification, one thing I would like clear in the 24 record, this Notice of Appearance is only in one
25 cause. I would like to know if Mr. Freelon and Mr.
26 Lumumba are also co-counsel on the other two counts
27 that are pending before this Court.

28 BY THE COURT: How many cases y'all represent 29 him on?

1 BY MR. FREELON: Your Honor, we are representing
2 the case that we have filed, cause number 97-372.

3 BY THE COURT: Okay, you do not represent him on 4 the other two cases?

5 BY MR. FREELON: No, we do not.

6 BY THE COURT: Okay. Do you represent him--
7 does your contract call for you to represent him on 8 appeal if it should be a conviction?

9 BY MR. FREELON: At the present time, Your 10 Honor, the contract does not call for representation
11 on appeal.

12 BY THE COURT: Just for trial?

13 BY MR. FREELON: Just for trial purposes.

14 BY THE COURT: All right. He has told you what 15 my policy is, I think; haven't you, Mr. Gilmore?
16 Well, not my policy; it's what the Supreme Court
17 said.

18 BY MR. FREELON: Your Honor.

19 BY THE COURT: Uh-hum; yes, sir.

20 BY MR. FREELON: May we get this motion date
21 moved up, please, sir, if we will, because I would 22 like to hear certain motions--

23 BY THE COURT: Before the first of January?
24 Sure.

25 BY MR. FREELON: I think that what you are 26 saying, they are due by January the 1st, but the 27 motion, actually the motion to have a hearing on the 28 motions will be two weeks after that. Am I--

29 BY THE COURT: --Well, no, it wouldn't. I just

1           said within the next ten days. If you file them on
2           January 1st, I can have it on January 2nd if you want
3           to. I don't know what day of the week that is.

4           BY MR. FREELON: Okay.

5           BY THE COURT: That time is your time.

6           BY MR. FREELON: All right, Your Honor. That's
7           what I needed to know.

8           BY MR. BILLY GILMORE: January 1st is on a
9           Thursday, I believe.

10          BY THE COURT: The 2nd is on a Friday.

11          BY MR. FREELON: That's good, Your Honor. But 12          you said by January; as long as the motion--

13          BY THE COURT: --Right. I wouldn't want to hear
14          it on the 2nd just for the simple fact that I won't 15          have a chance to see them nor would the State.

16          BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor--

17          BY THE COURT: --But if you can file them
18          quicker than that, I will have the hearing quicker
19          than that.

20          BY MR. EVANS: That's what I was going to say.
21          If they can file them earlier, we would have no
22          problem hearing them on that date, just so we have 23          time to look at them and prepare.

24          BY THE COURT: I have the whole month of 25          December at your disposal. But what I do want to do
26          is set some deadlines so I know, I want a cutoff
27          date.

28          BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, one other thing and I
29          know this really isn't--

1                   BY THE COURT: --Well, first, let me see about
2                   that.    Do you--

3                   BY MR. FREELON:  No, I understand.

4                   BY THE COURT:  That date suit you all right?

5                   BY MR. FREELON:  You are saying up to January
6                   the 1st, but I can come in--

7                   BY THE COURT: --Yeah, do you want until January
8                   1st to file them?

9                   BY MR. FREELON:  Right, but I can come in any 10                  time before that for hearing and file them before 11                  that and have the hearings anytime before that.

12                  BY THE COURT:  You probably can.  Now
13                  understand, I think-- yeah, I think that is 14                  possible.

15                  BY MR. FREELON:  Let me ask you; what is the--

16                  BY THE COURT:  --I don't have any court dates
17                  set, but, you know, how things go in the middle, in 18                  the last week in December.

19                  BY MR. FREELON:  Could you, I would like to 20                  inquire; what is the procedure as far as if this 21                  Court wanted to hold a hearing in another venue?  Is 22                  that not possible?

23                  BY THE COURT:  In another venue?

24                  BY MR. FREELON:  Well, just a hearing.

25                  BY THE COURT:  Yeah, but now I would assume your 26                  change of venue motion is almost going to have to be 27                  heard up here.

28                  BY MR. FREELON:  Well, that is true.

29                  BY THE COURT:  But your other motions, we will

1                   probably-- I mean we can hear them in other places.
2                   I have regularly in this case held them in other
3                   places.

4                   BY MR. FREELON: Yes, Your Honor.

5                   BY THE COURT: And so it's not-- why don't then
6                   I tentatively-- let me tell you what. Let me make 7                   y'all, y'all get those motions filed by the 31st of 8                   December.

9                   BY MR. FREELON: They will be.

10                  BY THE COURT: And let's have the hearing on 11                  them-- let's set the hearing tentatively on January 12                  the 5th. How about that? Okay?

13                  BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

14                  BY MR. FREELON: Yes, Your Honor.

15                  BY MR. BILLY GILMORE: Your Honor, where would 16                  that be, the other motions? Kosciusko?

17                  BY THE COURT: Yeah, we can have those in 18                  Kosciusko unless it's a change of venue. If it's a 19                  change of venue, which I assume -- I am trying to 20                  anticipate what you may do, but I assume that is 21                  going to take some witnesses. There will be some 22                  testimony, and if it is, it is going to necessarily,
23                  almost have to be from up here, so the change of 24                  venue will probably have to be here. But we could 25                  hear any of those other motions at any time in 26                  Kosciusko or Montgomery County.

27                  BY MR. FREELON: Why are you-- let me just ask
28                  the Court for a point of reference. Why are you
29                  assuming that the change of venue has to be here,

1 Your Honor? I mean I know we will be asking for a
2 venue to be changed from here. Is that prejudicial
3 to the Court to have it in another?

4 BY THE COURT: Well, no, it's not prejudicial to 5 the Court at all. I will have it wherever you want
6 to have it, but generally, a change of venue, unless 7 it's agreed upon, requires some proof. And maybe I
8 am assuming too much--

9 BY MR. FREELON: --No, I'm talking about--

10 BY THE COURT: --but it looks like most of the 11 proof would have to come from up here.

12 BY MR. FREELON: You are right, Your Honor.

13 BY THE COURT: I'm at your disposal wherever you
14 want me though. If you want to hear it -- but I need
15 to know.

16 BY MR. FREELON: Right; right.

17 BY THE COURT: We will set them for January the 18 5th, and y'all can let me know whether it suits to 19 have them up here or whether you want to have them in 20 Kosciusko or wherever. How about that? That all
21 right?

22 (No response).

23 BY THE COURT: Okay, they have got access to 24 y'all's files now; is that right?

25 BY MR. BILLY GILMORE: Yes, sir.

26 BY THE COURT: Okay, have you seen the file?

27 BY MR. FREELON: No, sir.

28 BY MR. BILLY GILMORE: Your Honor, we have only
29 met this morning. Mr. Flowers only found out about

1                   this a few minutes ago.

2                   BY THE COURT: I understand.

3                   BY MR. BILLY GILMORE: So it has been discussed
4 with Mr. Flowers. He is aware of what is going on.

5                   BY THE COURT: Okay. When can y'all give them
6 access to that file?

7                   BY MR. JOHN GILMORE: Immediately.

8                   BY MR. BILLY GILMORE: Most any time they are 9 ready for it.

10                  BY THE COURT: Mr. Freelon, when do you want to 11 see it?

12                  BY MR. FREELON: I would probably arrange a 13 meeting with them this week because they are in 14 Durant which is right down the highway from where we 15 are.

16                  BY THE COURT: I want you to go ahead and have 17 access, but I would like for you to go ahead and look
18 into it too so you know where we are. The transcript
19 in this case, the transcript of the previous case
20 will be on file up here not next week but the next
21 week. So you will have access to it, both of y'all.
22 There is some evidence here. You are entitled to 23 look at that today. The State, I believe, is 24 duplicating pictures?

25                  BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

26                  BY THE COURT: When were y'all going to furnish 27 those to them?

28                  BY MR. EVANS: They have already got copies.

29                  BY THE COURT: That's right. They have got

1 pictures of those in the file. Is there any evidence
2 in the Crime Lab?

3 BY MR. EVANS: No, sir.

4 BY THE COURT: Where is the other evidence
5 that-- is it just here or--

6 BY MR. EVANS: It's here. The only evidence
7 that is not here is evidence that we did not use, and 8 that is in custody of the Highway Patrol in 9 Greenwood. But everything that we used and intend to 10 use in the second trial as far as evidence is here.

11 BY THE COURT: Okay. Now, but they may want to 12 see that that you did not use.

13 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

14 BY THE COURT: Can you arrange that?

15 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir. It won't be any
16 problem.

17 BY THE COURT: Okay, when do you want to see
18 that, Mr. Freelon?

19 BY MR. FREELON: I will get together with Mr.
20 Evans and probably some time--

21 BY THE COURT: Okay, I would like that done
22 within the next two weeks.

23 BY MR. FREELON: That's fine.

24 BY MR. BILLY GILMORE: Your Honor, presuming we 25 are going with the first appeal, we are probably 26 going to need to keep everything we have got in the 27 file. There is going to have to be some duplication,
28 either from us or from Mr. Evans' office. I don't 29 think we can just give our file to the new counsel.

1                   BY THE COURT: No, you have got to appeal; I
2 agree. What I would like for you to do is give him
3 access to it, and then he can make what copies that 4 he wants.

5                   BY MR. BILLY GILMORE: That's fine; no problem.

6                   BY MR. FREELON: Your Honor, let me make one
7 more inquiry. I notice that you said the transcript
8 will be on file here. Will we have not have access
9 to have a copy of the transcript?

10                  BY THE COURT: Here is what happens. We file
11 the original and the copy will be filed here. That 12 is as a matter of law. The original is going to go
13 to the Supreme Court. The copy will be here, and you 14 will have access to it at any time that you want. If 15 you want to make a copy, you can.

16                  BY MR. FREELON: Okay.

17                  BY MR. BILLY GILMORE: Your Honor, since the 18 Court has ruled the Defendant is indigent as far as 19 purposes of appeal, could we not have a copy made at 20 the expense of the state?

21                  BY THE COURT: I have got some question to y'all
22 about that. I mean two weeks ago he said he was an 23 indigent. Now he has hired new counsel. I mean--

24                  BY MR. BILLY GILMORE: Well, you will have to 25 explain that to us too, Judge, because I don't know.

26                  BY THE COURT: What about that, Mr. Freelon? I
27 have declared him an indigent.

28                  BY MR. FREELON: Well, Your Honor, he is still-- 29 as far as we are concerned, he is still indigent

1 now.

2 BY THE COURT: Have y'all been paid?

3 BY MR. FREELON: It's not enough to consider
4 himself not an indigent, Your Honor.

5 BY THE COURT: Well, I mean are you retained
6 counsel? I sure didn't appoint you.

7 BY MR. FREELON: We have been retained by the 8 family members, Your Honor, because we are-- actually 9 what is going on, we have another case with the 10 family members, Your Honor, so we -- it's a case that 11 is totally separate from this defense case, and what 12 we decided to do because it is one of the cases that 13 we have -- we will try to work with them on this 14 case. Now on any capital murder cases that, because 15 we are not getting the amount of money that is 16 necessary for the expenses such as whether there is 17 an expert or a transcript or whatever it may be. We 18 are going to file motions - I can tell you that now -
19 to declare this person as indigent where we can have 20 those type of expert fees because we have not -- I
21 mean if we have to disclose any future contract, we 22 may have to do that, but I still consider him
23 indigent, Your Honor. This is more--

24 BY THE COURT: --But wait; have you been paid
25 anything? That is the question I have got.

26 BY MR. FREELON: Of course, Your Honor.

27 BY THE COURT: Okay, did that come from Mr.
28 Flowers?

29 BY MR. FREELON: No, it did not. And they do

1           have, they do-- and they are at the present time have 2           groups of people that is trying to raise money on his
3           behalf to try to help him out.

4           BY THE COURT: Okay. Due to the fact that both 5           lawyers, both firms are located a long distance from 6           Tupelo and it is necessary that that one-- well, that
7           one set of lawyers has got to have it for the appeal
8           and the other set of lawyers, all four lawyers need
9           it for the prosecution of these other cases, I'm 10          going to provide that one more copy be made. And I
11          tell you what let's do. I'm going to furnish, we 12          will furnish that to you, Mr. Gilmore, and then y'all
13          can make the appropriate copies for Mr. Freelon, or 14          Mr. Freelon can make a copy for himself.

15          BY MR. FREELON: That's good.

16          BY THE COURT: And he can have access to yours.
17          Okay?

18          BY MR. FREELON: That is good.

19          BY THE COURT: If you are going to have those-- 20          the motions that you just talked about having about 21          investigators and all that kind of stuff and 22          declaring him indigent for those purposes and all
23          like that, we need to go ahead and hear those. I
24          know you will have other motions, but it might be 25          necessary, it would probably be appropriate that we 26          hear those motions before the first of the year.

27          BY MR. FREELON: Your Honor, I plan on getting 28          all the motions as soon as possible, I mean very 29          soon.

1                   BY THE COURT: Okay.

2                   BY MR. FREELON: Any and all motions in this
3 case.

4                   BY THE COURT: Okay. Because if I allow that, I
5 mean if I were to allow an investigator, he would
6 have to have time to investigate.

7                   BY MR. FREELON: Absolutely.

8                   BY THE COURT: Okay. The State can prepare an 9 order setting the motion deadline for December 31st
10 and a hearing date for the 5th, and we will be 11 flexible about that if they are filed sooner.

12                  BY MR. HORAN: Who do we send it to for 13 approval, Your Honor?

14                  BY THE COURT: You can send it to me. It
15 doesn't have to be approved. Just draw it and send 16 it to me.

17                  BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, one thing I would 18 like to have clear in the record; even though this is 19 probably not the proper time to do it, I think it may 20 be necessary to do it now. Since Mr. Freelon has 21 mentioned about having conflicts, I would just like 22 something clear in the record today with it being 23 understood in the record that the very day that he 24 filed his notice of appearance he knew when this case
25 was set for trial.

26                  BY THE COURT: Well, let me say this. This case
27 was set, has been set for January the 26th, 1998, set
28 by his Counsel at that date. As at least of this 29 time, the new firm is associate counsel, and you will

1           have to arrange your schedule to accommodate this
2           case because it's set for January 26 until such time
3           as I continue it. I'm not going to continue it for a
4           prior setting.

5           BY MR. FREELON: Wait; wait. We are the 6           associate counsel, Your Honor? At this time we are 7           the associate counsel? Did I hear you--

8           BY THE COURT: --Well, you are associated 9           counsel. Let me put it a little different. No, you
10          are not associate counsel.

11          BY MR. FREELON: And you are making a ruling
12          that you will not set, continue a trial for a prior 13          setting? That is your ruling from the Court today?
14          I mean is that--

15          BY THE COURT: Yeah, my ruling is it is set for 16          January the 26th. They already have two Counsel that 17          have been hired on this case, and that is set with no
18          disagreement from them. If you take this case, you
19          take it subject to that date on January 26th. The 20          Supreme Court has ruled on that. All you have got to 21          do is look at those cases.

22          BY MR. FREELON: Well, Your Honor, there will be 23          a motion filed on this, and we will go on the record,
24          and you can make your ruling at that point in time,
25          and we can deal with that on appeal, whatever it may 26          be. Thank you.

27          BY THE COURT: Sure. That is fine. Anything
28          else?

29          BY MR. EVANS: Nothing from the State, Your

1 Honor.

2 BY THE COURT: Okay. Let's go downstairs and 3 pull the venire.

4 (WHEREUPON, THE COURT, ALL COUNSEL, AND THE
5 DEFENDANT WENT DOWNSTAIRS TO THE CIRCUIT CLERK'S OFFICE TO DRAW
6 THE SPECIAL VENIRE. THE CIRCUIT CLERK, JOYCE LOFTIN, AND 7 DEPUTY CLERK, CAROL HORTON, WERE ALSO PRESENT FOR THE
8 FOLLOWING:)

9 BY MR. FREELON: Before my client leaves, is 10 there any way I can speak to my client privately?

11 BY THE COURT: Sure. Sure can. Okay.

12 BY MS. LOFTIN: You ready? Okay.

13 BY THE COURT: Gentlemen, they are ready. She 14 is going to pull it on the computer.

15 (Mr. Freelon and Mr. John Gilmore confer
16 briefly. Ms. Horton is typing in the commands to the 17 computer for the jury to be drawn.)

18 BY MR. FREELON: Well, Your Honor, I'm going to 19 make for another second, I have already made one
20 objection in the form of a motion, but I do want to 21 make another objection. I do object to the pulling
22 of the special venire on today's date.

23 BY THE COURT: Okay, for what reason?

24 BY MR. FREELON: For the very reason that the 25 motion for change of venue has not been heard as of 26 yet.

27 BY THE COURT: Okay. That motion is overruled.
28 However, I reserve the right to revisit the change of 29 venue motion. The pulling of this special venire

1 will not affect the rights of the Defendant to file a
2 motion for change of venue nor for me to change it,
3 if the appropriate facts are presented to the Court.
4 Any other objection to the way she is pulling it?

5 BY MR. FREELON: No, let her proceed.

6 BY MS. LOFTIN: How many copies?

7 BY THE COURT: How many did we do last time?

8 BY MS. LOFTIN: How many did we do last time?
9 Do you remember? We did some extra ones.

10 BY MS. CAROL HORTON: We have to have three. It
11 seemed like I did them five copies; seemed like I did
12 eight; I can't remember.

13 BY MS. LOFTIN: Well, just do eight or ten; it
14 doesn't matter. Just go ahead and do ten.

15 BY MS. HORTON: What?

16 BY MS. LOFTIN: Ten, and we will have plenty.

17 BY MR. FREELON: This is picking it randomly;
18 correct?

19 BY MS. LOFTIN: Right.

20 BY MR. FREELON: Can I get around here, Your
21 Honor?

22 BY THE COURT: Sure, go right ahead.

23 BY MS. HORTON: When we start off at the first 24 of the year, we start off with jury number one, and 25 we have got to panel number 44. So that's where that 26 number comes in. We just have one jury box, number
27 one. We are picking 350, and it's picking it
28 randomly, and it will print it out randomly just like 29 it picks it and then an alphabetical list.

1 BY MS. LOFTIN: The way it's going to print it
2 is the way it picks it. It will not be alphabetized,
3 but she can do you an alphabetized list, and she will 4 do us an alphabetized list. But the list you are 5 going to see first of all is just exactly like it was 6 chosen or selected. She will show you. They are 7 picked at random. They are not in any kind of 8 order.

9 BY MR. FREELON: Will the last 350 that was 10 picked in the last venire be included in this one?

11 BY MS. LOFTIN: Oh, no, uh-uh. You mean the 12 last 350? No. What we do at the beginning of each 13 April, we select 10,000 names out of our jury, our 14 complete voter roll, and they are put in a wheel and 15 then we draw.

16 BY MS. HORTON: Here is the ones picked last 17 time. Wasn't October 13th the trial? It was jury
18 15.

19 BY MS. LOFTIN: That is number 15.

20 BY MS. HORTON: These are completely different
21 people. After they are pulled one time, we don't 22 pull them back out. Like we had 10,259 in the jury
23 wheel. We have already used 6,000 something. We 24 have got 4,000 something left.

25 BY MS. LOFTIN: This is our 44th panel.

26 BY MS. HORTON: Uh-hum, and I'm going to print
27 it now. It will print. Let me change my copies to 28 ten and change my date. And as soon as it's clear,
29 it will print it. The printer is in the next room in

1           there. It prints address labels to send each one.
2           That is pretty much it.

3                   (NOTE: Mr. Freelon stood and looked over Ms.
4           Horton's shoulder as she typed.)

5           BY MS. LOFTIN: You can come on in here if you
6           would like.

7                   (Mr. Freelon goes in the next room where the 8           printer was located. Off the record while waiting on 9           the printer).

10           BY MS. HORTON: It should be printing. Do you
11           hear it started printing?

12           BY MS. LOFTIN: No, it hasn't started yet.

13           BY MS. HORTON: You don't hear it yet?

14           BY MS. LOFTIN: I don't think it is. Yes, it
15           is. Now it is.

16           BY MS. HORTON: It'll take a good while to print
17           10 copies of 350.

18                   (Off the record while copies are printing.)

19           BY MS. LOFTIN: Here are the first five. Who 20           all needs one?

21                   (Hands copy to Mr. Evans, to John Gilmore, and 22           to Mr. Freelon.)

23           BY MS. LOFTIN: We are going to do an 24           alphabetized list. So just as soon as this list is 25           finished printing, we will do an alphabetized list.

26           BY THE COURT: Mr. Freelon, have you got any 27           other objection, any objections to--

28           BY MR. FREELON: No other objections.

29           BY THE COURT: Okay. You are through with the Court Reporter then?

BY MR. FREELON: Through with the Court
Reporter.

PROCEEDINGS ON DECEMBER 3, 1997 WERE CONCLUDED.

1 (COURT HAVING BEEN DULY OPENED ON JANUARY 5, 2 1998, AT APPROXIMATELY 10:00 A.M. IN TUPELO, MISSISSIPPI, THE
3 COURT PROCEEDED ON MOTION HEARING IN LEE COUNTY CIRCUIT COURT
4 CAUSE NUMBER CR97-372, WITH THE FOLLOWING COUNSEL PRESENT:
5 REPRESENTING THE STATE OF MISSISSIPPI WERE HONORABLE DOUG EVANS
6 AND HONORABLE KEVIN HORAN; REPRESENTING THE DEFENDANT WERE 7 HONORABLE CHOKWE LUMUMBA AND HONORABLE HARVEY FREELON.
8 HONORABLE JOHN GILMORE, FORMER COUNSEL FOR THE DEFENDANT, WAS 9 ALSO PRESENT AT THE BEGINNING OF THE HEARING. THE DEFENDANT
10 WAS ALSO PRESENT. PROCEEDINGS IN OPEN COURT WERE AS FOLLOWS:)

11 BY MR. JOHN GILMORE: May I proceed, Your
12 Honor?

13 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

14 BY MR. JOHN GILMORE: Your Honor, I am bringing 15 a motion on behalf of myself and my father, Billy 16 Gilmore, on a Motion to Withdraw. There has been 17 entered a Notice of Substitution of Counsel in this 18 cause. Mr. Chokwe Lumumba and Mr. Harvey C. Freelon
19 have entered an appearance. They have signed an 20 agreement that they are to be substituted as 21 counsel. The Defendant has requested that they be 22 named counsel and that we will withdraw in this
23 cause. We request that they be allowed to take over 24 the case and that myself and Mr. Billy J. Gilmore be 25 allowed to withdraw from this cause as attorneys of 26 record.

27 BY THE COURT: You are talking about for this 28 cause only?

29 BY MR. JOHN GILMORE: At this point, yes, Your

1 Honor.

2 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, we, of course, join in 4 that motion, and we have filed the Motion to 5 Substitute Counsel which in addition to other things,
6 also indicates that we believe it's a serious
7 possibility that prior counsel may need to be called
8 as witnesses in this case. And if that is the case,
9 they obviously could not be counsel and be called as 10 witnesses also. So we do join in the motion.

11 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, we would object to 12 the Gilmores being let out of this for several 13 reasons. The first reason is that they were paid to 14 represent the Defendant on four counts. This Court
15 has previously ruled that that contract was going to 16 be upheld, that they were in this case for all four 17 counts. The Defendant, to protect his rights, has an 18 absolute right to know that he has hired and paid all 19 four of these counts, and he has an absolute right to 20 have all four of them represented, and he does not 21 have to let anybody out. He has already paid the 22 Gilmores according to this Court to represent him in 23 this cause. That is one reason.

24 Another reason is it is my understanding from 25 our last hearing that Mr. Freelon said that he and 26 Mr. Lumumba had conflicts on the date that this case
27 has already been set. I know the Gilmores have no
28 conflicts because this case has been set for a
29 substantial period of time, and it would be improper

1 to let them out in effect to try to get a continuance
2 for the other counsel in this case where they have
3 already been in the case; they are prepared to go
4 forward with the case because they announced to the 5 Court probably seven or eight months ago that they 6 were ready and prepared to try all four cases at that
7 time.

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, we have joined at least
9 on behalf of the Defendant here and ourselves. First 10 of all, the Defendant is the one that is seeking this 11 motion. He is in support of this motion. The amount 12 of money which has been paid to counsel for the 13 representation of him is not an obstacle as far as 14 the Defendant sees in making this adjustment and 15 substituting his counsel. Indeed, speaking as a 16 person who has a little bit of experience in these 17 areas, from what I understand the amount of money he 18 was paid is, would be woefully inadequate to get 19 competent representation in four different cases at 20 four different times.

21 Of course, you can pay an attorney to do
22 anything, and the amount of money is certainly not 23 statutorily mandated to be in any particular amount.
24 But given the experience of what these cases take,
25 the kind of energy they take, the kind of commitment
26 they take, the kind of sacrifice that a counsel must 27 put into his office or his practice in order to 28 practice this case, and if he intends to be open
29 after the case is over, it would be absolutely

1 impossible for that kind of money to cover competent
2 representation for several separate cases as opposed
3 to cases that were all being tried at the same time.

4 But secondly and more importantly, counsel
5 perhaps did not respond to, and perhaps he didn't 6 respond to it if he didn't have a response to the 7 fact that now we are indicating that these attorneys
8 would be called as witnesses in this case. If the 9 attorneys are going to be called as witnesses in a
10 case, certainly our client, any interest our client
11 has got, the weight of that interest is much greater
12 in perspective to the question of being able to call
13 witnesses, witnesses which he has a statutory and a
14 constitutional right to compel to come forth. And so 15 that being the case, he does not need to have these 16 witnesses compromised by the fact that they are 17 representing this given case at this particular time,
18 and so I think that that almost ends all inquiry.

19 Secondly, we don't want to-- we want to consider 20 this motion on its own merits. We are not trying to 21 boot strap this motion with any kind of 22 considerations of whether this case should or should 23 not be continued. We have got a lot to say on that 24 question, a whole lot to say on that question. But 25 as far as this particular Motion is concerned, this 26 Motion is not to be boot strapped to any other
27 motion.

28 The reality is that there is a clear court cause
29 here, and I would think anybody would be treading on

1           very dangerous grounds in terms of an appellate
2           matter to stare into the face of an allegation that
3           we are going to call these men as witnesses and then
4           to force them to continue as his counsel and thereby
5           deprive him -- and I would indicate this.

6           Part of the issue that they would be witnesses
7           to relate very specifically to what I understand to 8           be witnesses which were presented at the last trial
9           who claimed to have heard this Defendant make a
10          statement while he was in custody. We believe that 11          the present counsel have information relevant to that 12          inquiry which would be persuasive in a hearing to 13          dismiss or to preclude these statements from coming
14          into evidence as well as, should that motion fail, be 15          persuasive in front of a jury on the issue of whether 16          or not these statements were actually made.

17          So, and that is just part of what we think that 18          their testimony would be relevant to. Several 19          witnesses who they have talked to made statements who 20          in some instances have now tried to compromise their 21          statements, and we would need impeachment of their 22          testimony at trial.

23          So, you know, I don't see where there would be 24          much of an issue on this, and it's not a question of 25          a fee. A fee is a very minor issue when it comes to 26          a question of a constitutional right to be properly
27          represented at trial and to have the ability to call
28          any possible witnesses.

29          BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, if I may in response

1 to that; I think opposing counsel well knows that you
2 can't come in the courtroom and just say we may call
3 somebody as a witness. If they anticipate calling
4 Defense Counsel Gilmores as witnesses in this case, I
5 would like to know today a proffer of the reason they 6 expect to call them, what they would expect them to 7 testify to. If they are going to be listed as 8 witnesses, I would request that that be furnished to 9 us immediately on discovery along with any statements
10 that they would expect to testify to because there
11 were no statements furnished to us in discovery prior 12 to this on any of these cases by the Gilmores. And 13 if they have any, that is going to be a discovery
14 violation that we would object to.

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, Judge, first of all, I
16 have already spoke to one of the issues they would
17 testify to, and secondly, I have indicated--

18 BY THE COURT: --What was that, Mr. Lumumba?

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: The issue of the statements
20 allegedly made by, in custody, in custody statements
21 allegedly made by our client to what we generally
22 call jailhouse snitches, people who generally either
23 are put there by the police in order to get 24 statements or who basically live off of--

25 BY THE COURT: --I understand all that. What 26 can they testify to?

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: They can testify to 28 conversations they with had with our clients before 29 and after and to his state of mind and to the

1           directions    that he was given and to the fact that
2           -- and we believe that their testimony would be
3           persuasive to the issue   that it was almost, it was 4           extremely unlikely that their client would have made
5           any kind of statements to any jailhouse snitches
6           given what he had been told and given what his 7           responses were to what he had been told.   But 8           secondly--

9           BY THE COURT:  --Let me ask you a question about 10          that if I may.

11          BY MR. LUMUMBA:  All right.

12          BY THE COURT:  How would that evidence, if they 13          can testify to that, if they are willing to testify
14          to that, how would that be admissible?

15          BY MR. LUMUMBA:  The conversation of what they 16          said to my client?

17          BY THE COURT:  Their conversations with their 18          client, how would that be relevant?

19          BY MR. LUMUMBA:  Right.  That is admissible.
20          The only reason that is not admissible is because the 21          client has a privilege, has an absolute
22          attorney-client privilege.

23          BY THE COURT:  Why wouldn't it be hearsay?

24          BY MR. LUMUMBA:  It's not what he-- what they 25          said to a person is not hearsay.  What they said to 26          the client is not hearsay.

27          BY THE COURT:  What the Gilmores said?

28          BY MR. LUMUMBA:  That's correct.

29          BY THE COURT:  Then why would it be relevant?

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: It would be relevant because it
2 would show what our client was aware of at the time
3 that these snitch conversations allegedly took place,
4 and I would, you know, indicate to the Court that in 5 this case I think you have one conversation which is 6 supposed to have taken place months after the client
7 was incarcerated at a time where he was well
8 represented, had had several conversations on this 9 issue. But the-- so that is relevant for that 10 reason.

11 But secondly, they have relevant testimony. I'm 12 not saying that they wrote statements down. Whether 13 they wrote statements down is another question, and 14 where you are talking about discovery violations to a 15 case where they have already had a conviction and 16 which is now headed for appeal, that strikes me as 17 being somewhat irrelevant too.

18 But irrespective of all that, we have an 19 absolute obligation to put on anyone who can impeach
20 witnesses who have statements which may be, who have 21 made statements in the past which are supported by 22 our client's case. Now let me say this. In the 23 conversations that we have had with the Gilmores, I
24 think there was at least two or three different cases
25 where that appears to be the case. We will, when 26 it's appropriate, provide the DA with that 27 information. We have just gotten in the case.

28 BY THE COURT: No, sir. You have been in a
29 month now.

1           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Which means we have just gotten
2           in the case. In death penalty case vernacular that 3           means we just got in the case. So the point is, is 4           that we have, you know, we have a transcript here. I
5           don't know; I can't pick it all up at the same time,
6           a fairly voluminous transcript which has to be read
7           in order to make all the determinations as well as 8           various different motions which have previously been 9           filed and a number of other documents which are in,
10          which are here before me in this box; some of it is 11          here. Part of it is here. So we have to be able to 12          analyze all of this information before we make our 13          final determinations on who we will call and who we 14          won't call. But what I'm telling this Court right
15          now is that our conversations with the Gilmores to 16          this point convinces us that they would be called as 17          witnesses.

18                 And then secondly, we don't have to say in order
19                 to make this a bona fide motion that we are 20                 absolutely for certain going to call anyone. The 21                 Defendant doesn't absolutely for certain have to have 22                 a case. So, you know, we don't have to throw in our 23                 right not to engage in presentation of evidence in 24                 order to make this, a motion. But what I am
25                 indicating to the Court is that clearly there is at 26                 least two areas where the Gilmores' testimony is 27                 relevant as far as present counsel is concerned.

28                 Secondly, there are, you know, I think they have 29                 made a motion to withdraw from the case. We are

1 prepared to represent the client. The client wants
2 us to represent him if I'm not mistaken. If there is
3 any question about that, he is open to inquiry. And 4 so we are prepared to get into the case.

5 And opposing counsel can't choose clients'
6 lawyers for any particular case. They can't decide
7 who is going to be his lawyer. They can't decide
8 when he will cease to have that person as his lawyer
9 or when he will want someone else. In fact, if I was 10 him, I would be almost ashamed to make that kind of a 11 stigma, to take that kind of position. It sounds as 12 if they have, you know, that they are trying to 13 choose the opposition. So what I would say is that 14 it is clear that this Motion should be granted.

15 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, as far as who 16 represents this case, I don't care. But the State is 17 prepared to go forward. We are ready to go forward.
18 I think the Defendant is entitled to have all four of 19 these lawyers that he has paid sit at counsel table
20 and assist him because he has paid all four of them.

21 BY THE COURT: Well, that is kind of something
22 for him to decide though, isn't it? I mean he--

23 BY MR. EVANS: No, sir, not when it comes to a
24 fraud to try to get a continuance in a case.

25 BY THE COURT: But nobody has asked for a
26 continuance in this case yet.

27 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

28 BY THE COURT: At this point in time, at this 29 point in time nobody has asked that.

1 BY MR. EVANS: One other point that I would like
2 to make which I am sure this Court is aware of:
3 Discovery has been furnished in this case in all four 4 cases, not just the case that has been tried, and for 5 opposing counsel, Mr. Lumumba, to come in here now
6 and say he doesn't have to give us discovery until he 7 decides he wants to, I believe he knows better than
8 that.

9 BY THE COURT: Well, I can assure you I'm going
10 to address that. One question for you, Mr. Lumumba.

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes, sir.

12 BY THE COURT: It may lead to more, but I'm 13 going to start with one. Mr. Freelon, when he was 14 here on the 3rd -- there is not a motion for 15 continuance filed in this case. He made some 16 statements to the Court at that time about conflicts
17 and whatever. I want to know from you whether or not 18 y'all have any conflicts with the date of January
19 26th.

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: There are other things which I
21 have scheduled which probably would conflict with 22 this date.

23 BY THE COURT: I mean trials.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: You are talking about the 26th
25 of January?

26 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

27 BY MR. FREELON: Do you want me to address that?

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Pardon?

29 BY MR. FREELON: Do you want me to address that?

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes, go ahead.

2 BY MR. FREELON: Well, Your Honor, how are you
3 doing, first of all this morning? I haven't had a
4 chance to speak to you today.

5 BY THE COURT: Good morning, Mr. Freelon.

6 BY MR. FREELON: Before that time, we had had--
7 of course, we do know that criminal matters always 8 come before civil matters. But I have personally, as 9 well as Mr. Lumumba - we are in practice together - a
10 civil matter that was pending probably three or four 11 days before this trial, and that civil matter may not 12 last but a day to a day and a half. But, of course,
13 there is preparation for that civil matter as well--

14 BY THE COURT: What day is it set for?

15 BY MR. FREELON: The 21st, the 21st and 22nd,
16 22nd and 23rd. But, of course, there is preparation
17 that goes into-- even though it's a civil matter, it
18 is preparation that goes into that civil matter. As 19 well, Your Honor, and the main thing is the 20 preparations for that civil matter as well as the 21 preparation for this criminal matter. And, of 22 course, like I stated in the motion to continue,
23 there are other matters.

24 BY THE COURT: I don't have a motion to 25 continue. Nobody filed one of those with me.

26 BY MR. FREELON: Your Honor, I sent you; I sent 27 you a package. That package should have a motion to 28 continue in it.

29 BY THE COURT: There is a Motion to Continue the

1 Motion Date.

2 BY MR. FREELON: And there is a Motion to
3 Continue as well, Your Honor.

4 BY THE COURT: Well, okay, it says hearing date,
5 okay.

6 BY MR. FREELON: There is a Motion to Continue
7 the Hearing Date as well as a Motion--

8 BY THE COURT: --But I thought that, hearing
9 date, I thought that was a Motion to Continue this
10 hearing.

11 BY MR. FREELON: It should have been two motions
12 in there, I thought.

13 BY THE COURT: Well, I didn't get the one about 14 continuing the trial. I don't think the State did
15 either.

16 BY MR. EVANS: I didn't. We didn't get one.

17 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, if we could, 18 whenever-- you know, last time we had a number of 19 motions, if the Court will give us some indication as 20 to the number or what order you are going to go in,
21 it may keep it simple for both parties to keep up
22 with these motions. I know last time you numbered
23 the motions before we got started, and I would ask
24 that you do that before we actually get involved in 25 the motions. It's hard for me to keep up with them.

26 BY THE COURT: Okay, well, just do the best you
27 can, Mr. Horan.

28 BY MR. HORAN: Well, I will try.

29 BY MR. FREELON: Your Honor, all right, I know

1           that I prepared a motion in the midst of all of these 2           motions in trying to, as you see, meet certain
3           deadlines and get these motions and try to find out
4           the different motions that has to be filed and
5           talking to the Gilmores in all their preparations. I
6           have filed -- I'm not going to say I filed it.
7           Obviously, you don't have it, and the State is saying
8           they don't have it, so I can't say that I filed a
9           motion, but I can certainly say that I have drafted
10          that motion. And whether that motion went in at the 11          time of all the other motions in the time of the 12          preparations for this trial, that is one of the 13          reasons we are going to be coming before this Court
14          to ask for that motion to be continued is because of 15          all the things that is going on. But I am certainly 16          sure that I drafted that motion, but because of the 17          voluminous amount of information that we have, it was 18          not properly mailed obviously to the State as well as 19          to the Judge.

20                BY THE COURT: Okay, well, maybe I can simplify 21          this. When this case, these cases were set back in,
22          I believe, November, they were set in a hearing in 23          Kosciusko for the 26th of January. Of course, you
24          Counsel took that knowing what that date was. Be 25          that as it may, all three cases were set for January
26          the 26th. Regardless of what that motion for a 27          continuance is in relation to, Mr. Freelon, then if 28          that gets continued, then we are going to try one of 29          the other two. So I don't know that it makes much

1 difference for us to pursue this any further.

2 I am going to grant the Motion to Withdraw in this
3 particular case only. And Mr. Gilmore, you are on 4 notice that if they are not ready to go to trial,
5 that you will be ready to go to trial on the 26th of 6 January.

7 BY MR. JOHN GILMORE: Yes, Your Honor. As far
8 as I know right now, they have only entered an 9 appearance and we are only requesting to withdraw in 10 this case.

11 BY THE COURT: I understand.

12 BY MR. JOHN GILMORE: If at some time in the 13 future that the Defendant does not wish us to 14 represent him on whichever case--

15 BY THE COURT: Well, we will just deal with that 16 when we get to it. As a matter of fact, I think we 17 have disposed of that motion. Let's move on to some 18 of the others. Okay?

19 BY MR. JOHN GILMORE: Thank you, Your Honor.

20 BY THE COURT: Okay. Now y'all want a 21 continuance and then you want to dismiss it because 22 he doesn't get a speedy trial? Which one of those 23 you want?

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Excuse me one second, Judge.

25 (Defense Counsel confer.)

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, yes; well, as far as,
27 there are several motions here. One of them was a
28 Motion to Dismiss for failure of a speedy trial, and 29 just since the Court has referenced that motion, let

1 me just say this about it and then move on. And I
2 think there is one which may take precedence over
3 that one, but our thinking is this: That this court
4 date in my understanding is set for the 26th of 5 January. We don't ask any kind of consideration for 6 any continuance that we get because I think the rules
7 are perfectly clear that from any time delay that we
8 cause that that cannot be considered in relationship
9 to a violation of a speedy trial motion.

10 But if my arithmetic is right and if my counting
11 is right, and sometimes it's not, but if it is, then 12 from the date of the arraignment of any of these 13 cases to the 26th is already a violation of the 270
14 day rule. So long before Harvey Freelon and Chokwe
15 Lumumba were ever thought of this case was set at a 16 date which basically constituted a violation of the 17 rule. My understanding is that these cases were, he 18 was arraigned on these cases in, I think, March of 19 19-- this is '98 coming up, so we must be talking
20 about '97.

21 BY THE COURT: Y'all may want to amend your 22 motion. Have y'all read it?

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Pardon?

24 BY THE COURT: Have y'all read your motion?

25 BY MR. FREELON: Yes, sir. Amend it in which 26 way?

27 BY THE COURT: Well, Stephanie Norton is not a
28 defendant.

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, all right.

1                   BY THE COURT: Computer glitch.

2                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, that is probably--

3                   BY THE COURT: The facts are, Mr. Lumumba, he 4 was, I think he was arraigned, probably you are 5 right, in March. It was before the April term of the 6 Montgomery County Court.

7                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Right. And as we count it,
8 January 26th means it is over 270 days beyond the 9 time. And there was a way that he could have been 10 tried for this case prior to the end of that period.
11 My understanding is that counsel predecessors made a
12 motion to reconsolidate the cases in order to try
13 them, and that motion was denied. And I understand
14 that the DA opposed that motion, if I'm not mistaken,
15 which meant that the DA, who had an obligation to 16 bring this case to trial before the 270 day rule was 17 up, was basically choosing not to do so when he 18 decided that he would not consolidate the cases and 19 take them to trial at the same time. But, if-- and 20 of course, as you know, I haven't read all this
21 transcript, so, you know, I am relying upon what I
22 have been told, and if those things are true, then I
23 think that there is a serious problem which has 24 nothing to do with a motion that we might have for 25 continuance.

26                   But the second thing is this, Judge. We did
27 have another motion which I think--

28                   BY THE COURT: --Well, let's just stick on one at 29 a time. I'm not quick enough to handle them both.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, all right.

2 BY THE COURT: Anything else on that motion?

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I don't have anything else on 4 that motion other than the fact also we think that
5 under the circumstances, particularly of separating
6 the counts, and this being a death penalty case, we 7 think all things considered this thing also violates
8 speedy trial rights as it relates to the Federal 9 Constitution, which I believe is the Barker v. Wingo
10 case, and due process rights. He should have been 11 tried on these cases at the same time. Drawing the 12 cases out adds to the inability of the Defendant to 13 bring forth competent defenses, compromises his 14 ability to have resources to defend his self from 15 case to case. It affects him in a number of 16 different ways and including - and this is one of the 17 things that we will, we would like to supplement at a
18 later date - could have even cost him some witnesses'
19 testimony, could have cost him, could have taken some 20 time which has caused witnesses to change their 21 testimony.

22 But in any event, that goes to the Barker v.
23 Wingo portion of the Motion because as the Court may 24 recall under the federal guidelines, you show not
25 only the time that it has taken, but the prejudice
26 which has accrued, and it's a requirement to show
27 some kind of prejudice. Prejudice has to do with the 28 loss of witnesses, has to do with the taxation of,
29 the continued taxation of, in this kind of defense,

1 of finances, resources, need to hire additional 2 attorneys.

3 But more importantly, going to the first part of 4 the Motion which has to do with just the State
5 requirements of the 270 days, there is no prejudice
6 needed to be shown, just that he violated the state
7 statute which says you have to be tried in 270 days,
8 and that has not happened in this case.

9 BY THE COURT: Okay. Go ahead.

10 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I think the Court
11 well knows on this case the process of how we got 12 here. The State never at any point asked for a 13 continuance in this case. The State has been 14 prepared from the day of arraignment to try this 15 case. This case was necessarily continued by the 16 Defense filing a Motion for Change of Venue. The 17 court date was agreed by all parties in this case
18 that it be tried in Tupelo on that date that it was 19 tried.

20 As I believe this Court knows - apparently Mr.
21 Lumumba doesn't - I was the one that filed the Motion
22 to Consolidate all four of the cases. Defense would 23 not agree to that, and after further looking at the 24 law and determining my motion should not have been 25 filed, we did file a Motion to Withdraw it. But that 26 was not a State motion. The Defense has never at any 27 point demanded a speedy trial because the trial was 28 being carried out as fast and judiciously as it could 29 by agreement with the Defense on every step through

1 the way.

2 So there can be no problem as far as the 270
3 days, and for Defense Counsel to come in here and say
4 we want you to rule on this other part, but we don't
5 wish to put on any proof at this time, I don't see
6 why they are even raising it.

7 BY MR. JOHN GILMORE: Your Honor, may I speak to
8 that?

9 BY THE COURT: No, you are not in this case any 10 more.

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, I can call him as a
12 witness if you would like, Judge, or else we can just 13 let him speak. But from my understanding is that,
14 now your record should speak for itself. But my 15 understanding is two fold. A: Of course, it was 16 the, these cases never would have been separate in 17 the first place had not the District Attorney decided 18 to get them on separate indictments of separate
19 counts. I'm not sure exactly what he did, but I
20 think he got separate indictments. He could have 21 taken it before the grand jury, and I think gotten 22 the indictments, all counts in one indictment.

23 But secondly, from my understanding of what
24 happened here, there was a Motion to Consolidate.
25 The Defense did not oppose the motion.

26 BY THE COURT: Do you have any authority for me
27 being able to consolidate them? I can tell you right
28 now why it didn't get consolidated.

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

1                   BY THE COURT: There is a case where, there was 2 two cases where two persons on the same crime were
3 jointly, they were indicted separately. Judge
4 Carlson consolidated that case. The Supreme Court
5 held there is no rule allowing such consolidation.
6 Reading that case, I would not allow the 7 consolidation because there is no such rule allowing 8 consolidation even if the Defendant wants it. Now if 9 you can find me some authority to that, I would be 10 glad to entertain that motion again. But the reason
11 I didn't do it was because the Supreme Court said I
12 could not do it.

13                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, but this is what I
14 understand occurred. Let me just mention-- just 15 correct me if my facts are wrong.

16                   BY THE COURT: Sure.

17                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: A: I believe that after the 18 District Attorney proceeded to the Grand Jury and got 19 separate indictments which therefore created a
20 consolidation problem for you; had that not happened,
21 you would have had no consolidation problem to start
22 off with. If they would have gotten one indictment 23 with several counts, which happens in most cases when 24 you are talking about one act -- this is not a
25 misdemeanor. This is not a speeding ticket. I know
26 down in municipal court they frequently have several 27 different acts that they put you on several different 28 case numbers for. That generally doesn't happen in 29 felonies. So that was a choice they made to start

1 off with.

2 But secondly, what occurred is that they made a
3 Motion to Consolidate. Once they made the Motion to 4 Consolidate, the Defense took no position if I'm not
5 mistaken.

6 BY THE COURT: That's correct.

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, he took no position at 8 all, so the Defense was no obstacle. And then I
9 understand - and I could be wrong - is that, I
10 thought the Court had consolidated the cases and 11 consolidated two of the cases; I'm sorry. The Court
12 actually consolidated two of the cases. The DA
13 changed his mind, decided he didn't want these cases
14 consolidated. He came back and made a motion to that 15 respect, and the Court unconsolidated the case. The 16 Defense at a later point moved to consolidate at 17 least two of the cases or all four of the cases; I'm 18 sorry; moved to consolidate all four of the cases,
19 and then that motion was denied.

20 So that's what I understand is the chain of 21 events, and, of course, the records will speak for 22 themselves, or I could put on Counsel who probably 23 has a fresher memory than us. But this is what we 24 have been told is that "A," the cases came separately
25 because the--

26 BY THE COURT: --You are correct. Your 27 statement is correct.

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. So if that's the case,
29 then everything I said when I first stood up here is

1 true.

2 BY THE COURT: Right, and everything I told you
3 is true too. I found that the Supreme Court said I
4 couldn't do that, so I undid it.

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, but don't they have to be 6 held to the -- but the Supreme Court didn't say that 7 the 207 rule would not apply because they have chose
8 to--

9 BY THE COURT: --Okay, well, I can get to that 10 point. Let's talk about the consolidation if you
11 have got anything else further on that.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I don't have anything further
13 on the consolidation, I don't believe. If I could,
14 one second. Let me see. I may have something.

15 (Defense Counsel confer.)

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: It was at least our 17 understanding from a Defense perspective, Judge, is 18 that what your ruling was is not that the Supreme 19 Court said you couldn't do it, but it was up to you.
20 And now that-- well, let me say this because I would 21 like to have a chance to visit that case if that is 22 key to the Judge because as we talk, my recollection
23 is refreshed on past prior law. I think that is the 24 state of law. I don't think there is any Supreme 25 Court law that says you cannot do it. I think there
26 is a Supreme Court case that says that it's 27 discretionary. That's what I think but--

28 BY THE COURT: --They told Judge Carlson he 29 couldn't do it and reversed him because he did it.

1           It's not exactly in point, but it's enough to where
2           they said that if it's not a rule allowing it, you
3           can't do it. Now I think maybe if it got up, that 4           they very well might say that it doesn't apply in 5           this particular case. But I don't know that, and so
6           I know we can try them separately. The Simon case
7           clearly indicates they can try them separately. So
8           that's what I have ruled, and that is -- anything
9           further on the speedy trial?

10           BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, it has nothing to do
11           with it, but I would like the record to be clear.
12           Opposing Counsel has stated that the Court entered an 13           order and then changed its ruling. That is not
14           correct as the Court knows. The parties, both sides
15           and the Judge agreed that two of the cases could be 16           consolidated. The Judge asked us to prepare an 17           order. Before the Court ever signed an order, we 18           researched it, found that the law did not authorize 19           consolidation. And at that point we moved to 20           withdraw our motion before an order had ever been 21           signed by the Judge in this case.

22           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, let me just say this.

23           BY THE COURT: But the record is going to speak
24           for itself on that. I think that is true, that I
25           never actually entered a written order. I think
26           there was an agreement to that effect. Everybody had 27           agreed, and I had agreed to enter the order to do it, 28           but it never was entered because this case was 29           presented to me before it was done. I think that is

1 right. But if that is not right, the record has got,
2 will reflect that.

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Right. Judge, I don't want to,
4 you know, be too insistent on this point, but let me
5 just say this. Before you make a decision on this 6 issue, our motion to continue the hearing and the 7 motion date, I think, takes precedent over this
8 discussion. And the reason why, you know, I feel 9 compelled to bring it up at this time is because 10 given enough time, we could certainly, first of all,
11 they can respond to our motion, and they can say
12 these things that they are trying to say now.

13 But secondly, we can be better informed as to 14 particularly what took place, although the Court does
15 acknowledge that at least the sequence that I stated
16 it in was what happened. But I think that that is 17 important for all the motions, not just this one. I
18 don't want to just center in on this one. I think 19 that we need to continue the motion dates in these 20 motions and to have the motions at another time.
21 There is another motion which had been filed which 22 really takes precedence--

23 BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, may we stick with 24 one motion at a time?

25 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir. I am just going to 26 hear one of these at a time, and then we will hear
27 the others.

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, I understand. Well, can 29 we raise them? There is at least two or three which

1 I think I can give you an argument why they should be
2 heard before the other ones, and then you can make a
3 decision which one we are going to--

4 BY THE COURT: --Well, tell me which ones they 5 are.

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, first of all, we filed a
7 Motion for Recusal. Now obviously, that seems to 8 take precedence.

9 BY THE COURT: Okay. I will hear that.

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. Okay, what we are 11 dealing with here is, as they have said in one case,
12 even the appearance of impropriety should be avoided
13 when we talk about judicial recusal. And that is the 14 case of Collins v. Dixie Transport, 543 So.2d--

15 BY THE COURT: --Okay, I have read your motion,
16 and of course, I am familiar with those cases.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Right.

18 BY THE COURT: Tell me what is impropriety you
19 are talking about that I have done or will do in this
20 case.

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, I think that the Court
22 has sentenced my client to death.

23 BY THE COURT: No, I didn't.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: You--

25 BY THE COURT: --The jury did it.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well.

27 BY THE COURT: Well, that is the law. The jury
28 did it.

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I know the jury reaches a

1 decision, but I think the Court still-- you don't sit
2 there and announce what the--

3 BY THE COURT: --I enter an order that is
4 mandatory on my part. The law requires me; I have no
5 alternative but to enter that order.

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Right. The Court has heard
7 basically similar motions to the motions which we
8 will assume will be argued in this case. The Court
9 has had to make rulings on evidence which will be 10 similar-- we are not talking about cases which are 11 similar; we are actually talking about cases which 12 are identical. These are the same causes. All four 13 of these cases are exactly the same cases, and so for 14 the Court to have already more or less determined
15 what its rulings are on these cases, and I'm not 16 saying -- that was your obligation. I'm not 17 suggesting to you that you could have done something
18 else. This is not a motion to recusal, and I think 19 that we should understand that the breadth of the 20 motion to recusal does not just deal with judges
21 having biases which they shouldn't have. It deals
22 with judges having biases regardless of whether they 23 should or should not have them.

24 In other words, this is not just a motion which 25 is geared toward somebody with racial bias or a bias
26 because they know somebody or did business with them
27 or have a relationship to them. It is a bias period, 28 however it is derived, and in many jurisdictions in 29 many states it is automatic that if you try--

1                   BY THE COURT: --What bias, Mr. Lumumba? I
2                   don't understand what you are talking about.

3                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: You have made decisions in this
4                   case.

5                   BY THE COURT: Well, that is not a bias.

6                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: It is a bias for the second
7                   case because in the second case unless you are really 8                   just trying one case here under four different titles
9                   so you can give out four different death penalties.
10                  What I'm saying here is that if this is as we contend 11                  it is and actually a separate case, then we are 12                  entitled to a separate decision on every motion. We 13                  cannot have the Judge who has already made up his 14                  mind on the motion come in and start deciding the 15                  same motions against us or for us, whatever the case
16                  may be. And so the question that I'm suggesting to 17                  you is that by the very nature of this being the 18                  identical facts that we are trying here, you have to 19                  be bias. You have to have made a decision. I think 20                  it is an elementary psychological principle that once 21                  one commits himself on a particular issue, that one 22                  tends to cling to that particular decision.

23                  And so what I'm saying is that the bias is 24                  there. I think it is inherent in the very nature of 25                  what is occurring here. I think that the problem
26                  here is, that we keep bumping into in this case and,
27                  you know, people may think that these are phantom
28                  issues I am throwing at them here, but I believe to 29                  the extent of the time we have had, we have given

1           them some consideration. And there has been a lot of 2           issues that people thought were phantom issues that
3           have reverberated to send these cases back to trial
4           courts on many courts especially when we are talking
5           about death penalty cases. This is a very serious
6           matter.

7           How many judges can you say in this state have 8           actually sat around and heard the identical case two 9           or three times, given the opportunity to sentence a
10          man to death four or five times in the same identical
11          fact situation, and the case has not been reversed?
12          You know, and they have moved for a recusal at any 13          point in time.

14          BY THE COURT: I don't know of any. Do you?

15          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, no, I doubt seriously
16          that it has happened, and in fact, what I was about 17          to share with the Court in many jurisdictions which 18          are under the same United States Constitution that we 19          are under, they automatically recuse the judge from 20          trying a case which, where the issues which are to be 21          discussed and the decisions which are to be made are 22          so closely associated.

23          And then they have in many jurisdictions an 24          automatic challenge. Any time the defendant stands
25          up and moves to recuse a judge in that kind of 26          situation, it's automatically granted. It's kind of 27          like a situation where the defendant has actually a 28          judicial peremptory where -- now we don't have those 29          systems here in this jurisdiction, but what I'm

1           trying to tell the Court is that the reasons for 2           those, reasons for those innovations in this various
3           jurisdiction have to do with the kind of concerns
4           that we have right here. So that's why we make the 5           motion, Judge.

6           BY MR. EVANS: Very briefly, Your Honor, because 7           I don't think this Motion calls for much argument.
8           These are separate cases, but I'm afraid that in the 9           State of Mississippi we are stuck with trying cases
10          under the same law in every case that we try. The 11          only thing that I can see in this Motion is that the 12          Defense Counsel does not agree with the Court's 13          interpretation of the law. That is the law in this 14          state.

15          These cases and these motions, also most of the 16          motions that have been filed in this particular case
17          were filed in all four cases to start with. This was 18          before the Court ever asked us to elect which case we 19          would try first. We have already, this Court has 20          already ruled on practically every motion that could 21          be ruled on in all four cases including the one that 22          we are here on today. Now for them to come up now
23          and say the Court is biased just because they don't 24          like the rulings that had been entered in these 25          opinions, I think is very improper.

26          BY THE COURT: Well, I can-- let's move on. If 27          I am wrong on the rulings I have made, the Supreme 28          Court is going to tell me so, and if the Defense has 29          any arguments in this case on those motions that I

1 have ruled on that is different from the argument
2 that was made by the Gilmores, then I will listen to 3 that and rule on it in that way. Other than that, if 4 it's the same argument, I will make the same ruling.
5 I overrule the Motion to Recuse myself.

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, Judge, so are you telling 7 us now that we are stuck to whatever arguments the 8 Gilmores made? I mean doesn't that sound like--

9 BY THE COURT: --If I have already ruled on the 10 motion, yes, sir; you are.

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, well, then how are we 12 being allowed to try this case new? What is new
13 about this case--

14 BY THE COURT: --Well, if it is nothing new--

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --other than the fact you can 16 give him another death penalty?

17 BY THE COURT: If there is nothing -- I am not 18 giving him any death penalty, Mr. Lumumba. The jury 19 does that.

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Whoever. The point that I'm 21 making--

22 BY THE COURT: --Okay, I am just trying-- I am
23 just going to be the one going to try this case,
24 okay. Now if you, if you will listen to what I
25 said--

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I heard it.

27 BY THE COURT: Okay, well, did you hear me say
28 that if you have arguments other than what the 29 Gilmores have made, then I will listen to those and

1 listen to what you have to say about them?

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: But that is the problem; see,
3 because we are in a new case where we have new 4 motions. It doesn't make any difference what the 5 Gilmores -- we are entitled to a fresh interpretation
6 and a fresh outlook on everything.

7 BY THE COURT: Sure; if you have got fresh
8 things to present to the Court, but I'm not going
9 back and redo those same motions that I have ruled on 10 just to do them over again. If you have got 11 something new to present, I will entertain them and 12 we will go back to them. But if you don't, those 13 rulings stand.

14 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, if I may, this is not 15 a new case.

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Right.

17 BY MR. EVANS: Just because they are in this 18 case now does not make it a new case.

19 BY THE COURT: I understand that, and I have 20 ruled. Let's move on to the next motion.

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: It's a new case because it's on 22 a different indictment.

23 BY THE COURT: No, it is a not a new case.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Is it a different indictment,
25 Judge?

26 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir. It is a different
27 indictment. There are four--

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --How can it be anything but 29 new?

1                   BY THE COURT: These cases, he was arraigned on
2 these cases in March. They have been pending since
3 March, so there is no new case. There just happens
4 to be new counsel. That doesn't change the status of 5 the case up to this point in relation to what has 6 been done in it already unless you have new things to 7 offer the Court. If you do, I am telling you I will
8 listen to them. If you don't, we are going to move
9 on to things-- we are not going to spend a lot of 10 time on things that we have already done and rehash
11 them. I'm not going to do that. I have ruled on 12 this Motion. I have overruled it; I mean I do not 13 sustain the Motion for me to recuse myself in this 14 matter. What is next?

15                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, on that Motion and 16 perhaps on some others, we would offer the Court an 17 opportunity to sign an order certifying this for 18 interlocutory appeal. I think it is a critical 19 question. I mean I think that we have clearly-- your 20 opinion is exactly 180 percent opposite of what we 21 think it ought to be, and I think that this is the 22 kind of motion that the Supreme Court -- and we both 23 acknowledge that probably there hasn't been any prior 24 experiences in Mississippi like this. So that being 25 the case, this is the exact same kind of case that we 26 need to take up to the Supreme Court to see what they 27 believe.

28                   BY THE COURT: All right, that Motion is 29 overruled. Let's move on to the other motions we

1 have got today.

2 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, again, I may be
3 wasting the Court's time, but just for the record, I
4 would like to point out in this particular district
5 there have been numerous capital murder cases where 6 the same judge has heard several different cases.

7 BY THE COURT: I know of one for sure.

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA: On the same facts?

9 BY MR. EVANS: On the same facts.

10 BY THE COURT: On the same facts, four different
11 trials.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: And counsel raised the issue
13 about recusal?

14 BY THE COURT: Oh, I don't know whether they did 15 or not. I was defense counsel for a while on one of 16 them.

17 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir; there was a motion to 18 recuse.

19 BY THE COURT: Was that motion raised? I
20 swapped jobs and had to get out.

21 (Defense Counsel confer.)

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: The second thing that we want
23 to bring to the Court's attention is the Motion to 24 Continue the Motion Date. The amount of material
25 which is present in this case, the amount of 26 witnesses that have to be talked to, it requires a 27 much extended, much more of an extended period of 28 preparation than we have been given.

29 BY THE COURT: Let's get to that one last.

1           Let's do that one at the end. I'm going to listen to
2           you on that, but I would rather do that after we hear
3           all these others. We are going to hear the motions
4           that are filed today.

5           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

6           BY THE COURT: I will entertain, I will talk, we
7           will talk some about any further motions that you
8           might have later on in this hearing, but I want to 9           move on to these substantive motions that y'all have 10          filed.

11          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, then what we should 12          understand then is that every motion that we have 13          filed should be put in a status of incomplete. We 14          don't believe that we have completely made a
15          presentation that has to be made in each motion
16          because of the circumstances that I would argue in 17          the motion for a continuance of the time. There has 18          not been sufficient time. So understanding that, I
19          don't mind making the arguments on motions
20          understanding that that is our position in this
21          case.

22          BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, we are wasting the 23          Court's time if--

24          BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Judge--

25          BY THE COURT: --Wait; wait; wait; one at a
26          time.

27          BY MR. EVANS: If I may address the Court just a
28          second in response--

29          BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Hold it; hold it.

1                   BY THE COURT: He is not through though.

2                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: When I get finished, then you
3 can talk.

4                   BY MR. EVANS: But he hasn't even gotten to his 5 motion yet. This is just in response to a
6 statement--

7                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: --It doesn't make any
8 difference what it is, he only gets the floor when I
9 get finished with the floor.

10                  BY THE COURT: Okay, we have got--

11                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Those are the rules.

12                  BY THE COURT: None of you get the floor until I 13 say you get the floor.

14                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, I had it.

15                  BY THE COURT: You have got it, all right.

16                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. Can we have about a five 17 or ten minute recess?

18                  BY THE COURT: Yes, that will be fine.

19                  (FOLLOWING A RECESS, MOTION PROCEEDINGS
20 CONTINUED ON 1/5/98 IN OPEN COURT WITH THE SAME
21 PERSONS PRESENT AS PREVIOUSLY NOTED:)

22                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: I think that we are, my client
23 has something he would like to let be known to the 24 Court, and this has to do with the remaining cases
25 which are awaiting trial. And I think it's important
26 for him to articulate this at this time. Mr. Curtis
27 Flowers.

28                  BY THE DEFENDANT, MR. FLOWERS: Your Honor, I
29 would like to terminate Mr. Gilmore and them from all

1 of my remaining cases that are awaiting trial.

2 BY THE COURT: Who is going to represent you
3 then?

4 BY THE DEFENDANT, MR. FLOWERS: Mr. Freelon and
5 Mr. Lumumba.

6 BY THE COURT: Okay, when they enter their
7 appearance in those two causes, then we will talk
8 about it.

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, I think it's-- so we 10 wanted to bring to the Court's attention of his 11 intention to do that. The second thing is I want to 12 bring this to the Court's attention. On our motion
13 for-- the motion that the Court just indicated it
14 wanted to decide this Motion to Continue the hearing
15 date, the motion date later on; is that correct?

16 BY THE COURT: Later today.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Later today, okay, all right.
18 The Court has denied the Motion for Recusal. We are 19 at this point arguing the Motion to Dismiss for 20 Violation of the Speedy Trial Rule both under state
21 law and under the Constitution of the United States.

22 BY THE COURT: Okay, I believe you have already 23 argued that, haven't you?

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Did you deny that?

25 BY THE COURT: I have not yet, but you moved on 26 before I could rule.

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, that is the motion that 28 we put before the Court at this time.

29 BY THE COURT: Okay, the Court finds that the

1 Defendant was arraigned in March at which time he was
2 represented by John and Billy Gilmore as retained
3 counsel. The Defendant requested to have sufficient
4 time to prepare this case for trial. The Court found
5 that sufficient time at that time was 60 days; set
6 motion deadlines and all deadlines where the case
7 would be ready for trial by the first of July. I
8 might be off a day or two on that, but it was around
9 the first of July, within 60 days of arraignment.
10 That was agreed to by both parties.

11 There was a deadline, I believe, after 30 days
12 for a Motion for Change of Venue to be filed. That 13 was filed within that time. The State did not
14 contest the Motion for Change of Venue. The Court
15 entered an order changing the venue to Lee County and 16 set this case for the 13th of October of 1997. That 17 date was satisfactory to both parties. All four
18 cases were set at that time, so the October 13th date
19 was set by agreement of the parties.

20 After presentation to the Court-- after the 21 Court presented the parties with that date, all
22 parties agreed to all four cases being set on October
23 the 13th. Obviously, the Court couldn't try but one 24 at a time at that time, and that first one was 25 tried. After that, the Court had a term of court in 26 October beginning right after that in Winston County
27 which took all the month of December or the first 28 week-- I mean all the month of November. And the 29 first week of December was, the Court had a full

1           schedule, and by that time opposing counsel-- I mean
2           new counsel had been retained, and they certainly 3           were not ready to go to trial in December. Nobody
4           has objected to the setting of January 26th date up
5           until this point today.

6           The Court finds that the 270 day rule has not 7           been violated and that that Motion to Dismiss because 8           of a lack of a speedy trial is not well taken and 9           should be overruled. Okay.

10          BY MR. LUMUMBA: So just so I am understanding
11          the Court correctly, the Court's position is, is that 12          it's pretty much just disregarding our presentation
13          as it relates to -- does the Court acknowledge that 14          these Counsel prior to us moved to consolidate these 15          cases prior to the last trial?

16          BY THE COURT: I thought I had already ruled on 17          that. I made a ruling that I could not consolidate.
18          I never consolidated them. The motion was filed. It
19          was agreed to verbally between all parties. Before
20          an order was entered, the State withdrew its Motion
21          to Consolidate. So that Motion was not sustained.
22          The Defendant then filed a Motion to Consolidate all 23          four counts into one count. I believe that is 24          right. Was that right, Mr. Gilmore?

25          BY MR. JOHN GILMORE: Yes, sir.

26          BY THE COURT: All four counts. Counsel at that 27          time could not furnish the Court with any authority
28          to do that, and the only authority that the Court
29          found concerning consolidation, while it was not

1 directly in point, stated that-- that case states,
2 the Supreme Court states that consolidation can't be
3 done without a rule. So since it was a discretionary
4 act on my part to begin with, if I couldn't-- if the
5 rules allowed it, it would be discretionary. So I
6 exercised my discretion and did not consolidate.

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, and the Court also 8 acknowledges, of course, that the DA exercised his 9 discretion in failing to put these in the same
10 indictment to start off with.

11 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir, but I understand from 12 the Simon case and other cases clearly indicate that 13 you can properly do that.

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: But the Simon case does not 15 address the question of whether they will excuse the 16 speedy trial violation when you choose to do that.

17 BY THE COURT: Somebody must have raised it
18 somewhere because they tried all four of them. They 19 tried them on all four counts.

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Differently, but I don't think 21 that issue was ever raised. So I just--

22 BY THE COURT: --Okay, well, we will see what
23 they will do with it, Mr. Lumumba.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. Is the Court assuming a
25 conviction in this case already?

26 BY THE COURT: No, sir, but you have been 27 talking about me giving the death penalty, so I am
28 just kind of going along with you.

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: All right, well, I suppose if

1 the Court had some other state of mind, it would
2 correct me, not just go along with what I'm saying.

3 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, may we get back to 4 the motion, not this junk?

5 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Get back to what?

7 BY MR. EVANS: The motions--

8 BY THE COURT: Well, let's get back to the 9 motions, Mr. Lumumba.

10 BY MR. EVANS: --what we are supposed to be here
11 for today.

12 BY THE COURT: I haven't prejudged this case one
13 way or another, and I remind you once again, I don't 14 decide this case. A jury does.

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Right. We have a Motion to 16 Suppress Witness Statements which will require that 17 the witnesses who testified against our client at 18 trial, the jailhouse snitches, that they be produced
19 to appear on the stand for evidentiary hearing.

20 BY THE COURT: All right, which one is that?
21 What is the title of it?

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: The Motion to Suppress Witness
23 Statements.

24 BY THE COURT: Okay, all right.

25 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, that Motion is not 26 properly filed. For a motion to suppress, the 27 defense has to put on proof of why this evidence is 28 not material, and again, as this Court knows,
29 apparently Defense Counsel does not know, these

1 witnesses were questioned on these specific areas on
2 the stand when they testified, and they clearly
3 covered all of these issues.

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We are entitled to a hearing
5 out of the presence of a jury on a motion to suppress
6 any time we raise one. We don't have to have a
7 showing to have a hearing other than to allege that
8 there was a violation of the Defendant's
9 constitutional rights, and that violation had to do
10 with the taking of a statement from him by people
11 connected with the State without the authority to do
12 so. We don't have to have a hearing before the 13 hearing. We are absolutely entitled to an 14 evidentiary hearing on this issue.

15 BY THE COURT: Do you have any witnesses you
16 want to put on?

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We have those two witnesses
18 that we want to put on.

19 BY THE COURT: Did you subpoena them for
20 today?

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No. And we didn't have to.
22 You hadn't granted the motion to have a suppression
23 hearing.

24 BY THE COURT: Oh, I did. I set all the motions
25 for today, Mr. Lumumba.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, you did not grant the 27 motion to have the hearing, and you did not set a 28 hearing date for the evidentiary hearing. We have 29 made a motion to either dismiss these statements

1 and/or to have an evidentiary hearing. You have not
2 granted either part of the motion. We are entitled
3 to the granting of the motion for the evidentiary
4 hearing which you haven't granted. Some courts put,
5 you know-- once they grant these motions, then they
6 schedule times for them.

7 BY THE COURT: This Court scheduled time for 8 them. It is called today.

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, this is not the day that 10 you scheduled for a hearing.

11 BY THE COURT: Mr. Lumumba, I know what I
12 schedule. Now your interpretation--

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Have you ordered--

14 BY THE COURT: --your interpretation may be 15 different.

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Have you ordered an evidentiary
17 hearing in this case?

18 BY THE COURT: Yeah, I ordered it for today.

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: An evidentiary hearing?

20 BY THE COURT: Uh-hum. I set all these motions
21 to be heard today.

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, no, no. This is not a
23 hearing of the motions--

24 BY THE COURT: --You want a motion for a
25 motion?

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No.

27 BY THE COURT: You have got a motion to have a
28 motion to suppress; is that what it is?

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, Your Honor. I have a

1 motion for an evidentiary hearing. Do you understand
2 what an evidentiary hearing is?

3 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir; I think so.

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: That's where you take people's
5 statements.

6 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: And if you understand that--

8 BY THE COURT: --Usually it takes witnesses.

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Is what you understand is that 10 what you have to do is order the evidentiary hearing
11 because see, if we were to bring the witnesses here,
12 then you would refuse to allow them to testify, then
13 we would have frivolously brought them; right? Okay?

14 BY THE COURT: No, sir. That is not correct.

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, my understanding is what 16 we are looking for is a hearing from these witnesses,
17 and we need adequate time to prepare which goes back
18 to the motion that I had already made to continue the 19 hearing and a motion date to interview witnesses and 20 to put them on the stand, and we want these witnesses
21 to testify. We are not waiving our right to have 22 them testify under any circumstances. And if it is 23 your-- and what we would expect the Court to do in a 24 rational ruling is to set an evidentiary hearing. If 25 the Court can't see fit to do that, then what we 26 would have to do is ask that the Court use its 27 offices to have these witnesses who are in jail, or I
28 don't know where they are. They may not be in jail
29 at this time.

1 (To Mr. Freelon) Are they in jail at this time?
2 They are not in jail at this time. Okay, is to give
3 an opportunity for us to subpoena the witnesses. We 4 have not had time to find the witnesses.

5 BY THE COURT: Have you looked?

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes. Actually we have.

7 BY THE COURT: What did you do?

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We have discussed it with 9 Counsel. Counsel has given us some leads as to where 10 he thought they might be.

11 BY THE COURT: Did you talk with the law
12 enforcement officers in Leflore County?

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, we didn't; we didn't talk
14 to law enforcement officers in Leflore County. No, 15 we didn't.

16 BY THE COURT: How about probation officers or 17 anybody like that?

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We had no reason to know that 19 we should talk to probation officers.

20 BY THE COURT: Well, they were both convicted, 21 weren't they?

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We did not know that they were 23 under any probationary status. The fact of the 24 business, we don't know, we don't know for sure that 25 they were convicted. No, we don't know that. We
26 don't know that. In fact, we know they got a deal
27 because they got out of jail once they testified.
28 What the deal was we are not quite sure.

29 BY MR. EVANS: That is a complete misstatement

1 of the facts in this case, Your Honor.

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, if we had a hearing--

3 BY THE COURT: --Well, I know what they are.

4 There is no jury here.

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: If we had a hearing, we could 6 find out what the facts are. Judge, what is it that 7 you are trying to accomplish here? Are you trying to 8 show the people in the audience here that you are 9 going to force this case to trial on the 26th no
10 matter what, even though it has been an inadequate
11 period of time? If that's what we want to put on 12 this record, then let it be said so we can stop
13 screwing around here.

14 The reality is, is that you have a multitude of 15 motions here. You have a whole box full of 16 information which needs to be inquired into. You
17 have got new counsel in the case, and even if we were 18 co-counsel with the other two gentlemen who are in 19 the case, we would be required to have sufficient
20 time to get ready for this case. We cannot try a
21 case based upon the knowledge that is in their head.
22 This gentleman here has hired us to try his case,
23 and should the Court not know it, and I don't mind
24 telling you, is that the Court when it looks at these 25 cases on appeal does not just merely look into 26 whether the cumulative number of lawyers in the case
27 had sufficient time to prepare, but whether the 28 lawyer that was essentially in charge of the case had 29 sufficient time to prepare. And that has not

1 occurred at this time.

2 So yes, this is our motion. We are alleging
3 that these witnesses were tainted by the, by the 4 relationship with the county and with the officers in 5 charge of this case, and that they were basically
6 plants set there to solicit information from our 7 client. And we are seeking a hearing on this issue.

8 BY THE COURT: Do you have any facts to support
9 that?

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes, we have facts to support
11 it. We know that they were in jail with our client.
12 We know that they took statements. They took 13 statements directly to the law enforcement officers.
14 We know that, in fact, that they were released from 15 jail earlier than they would have been.

16 BY MR. EVANS: No, they were not, Your Honor.
17 That is another misstatement of the facts--

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Excuse me--

19 BY MR. EVANS: --in this case--

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --when I get finished--

21 BY MR. EVANS: --and I wish if he was going to 22 make statements, he would at least tell the truth.

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --When I get finished-- how do
24 you-- do you run the court by letting one person talk
25 at a time?

26 BY THE COURT: I think I am going to run it all
27 right, Mr. Lumumba--

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --okay, well, excuse me--

29 BY THE COURT: --without your help or Mr.

1 Evans'.

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Excuse me, but what is not
3 going to happen is that people aren't going to keep 4 jumping up and interrupting me. That is what is not
5 going to happen. I will tell you that.

6 BY THE COURT: You are not going to interrupt me
7 either.

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, well, I'm not
9 interrupting you. If I recall correctly, I was 10 talking, and your man over here jumped up on me. Now
11 I think he needs to be, he needs to be set--

12 BY THE COURT: Mr. Lumumba, he is the District
13 Attorney. He is not my man.

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, all right. Well,
15 whatever he is, he doesn't jump up and interrupt me
16 when I'm talking. That is what doesn't happen. And 17 so the point is--

18 BY MR. EVANS: --If Mr. Lumumba would show a
19 little respect--

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --excuse me--

21 BY MR. EVANS: --for the Court and the District
22 Attorney, we may not have that, but if we don't, it
23 is going to get out of hand.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: The thing is, is that if you
25 are showing respect, then you don't jump up and 26 interrupt people. I haven't jumped up and 27 interrupted him. If that's what we do here, then I
28 will understand it, and I will continue to do it when 29 he speaks. But if that is not what we do, then he

1 needs to sit down and be quiet until I am finished
2 talking. I just need to know the rules, whatever
3 they are.

4 BY THE COURT: You know the rules. Just follow
5 them.

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. Am I, is that goes to 7 all of us? All of us have to follow the rules?

8 BY THE COURT: Sure.

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, all right. So that is my 10 motion. We want a motion for a hearing, and we would 11 like to have a date to call these witnesses.

12 BY THE COURT: Okay. I am going to set that one
13 aside. Go to your next one.

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We have a Notice of Defendant's
15 Withdrawal of Motion to Change Venue from Montgomery
16 County, to change venue from Montgomery County which 17 venue was changed to Lee County.

18 BY THE COURT: The motion has already been 19 granted and an order entered.

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, given the stature of this 21 case and the way the cases were developed, it seems 22 to me that what happened in this case is that you
23 tried one case up here. I don't think that that 24 compels us to try the second case up here, nor at the 25 time that the motions were granted, I am unclear as 26 to what the state of the record was as to whether the 27 people knew that these cases were going to be tried 28 separately and whether we knew that all of them were 29 going to be transferred to Montgomery County.

1           BY THE COURT: Well, you probably didn't know,
2 but everybody involved in this case knew that they
3 were all changed up here. Your client was present,
4 and there was an order entered in each case changing
5 venue up here. So there is no such thing as a notice
6 to withdraw a motion that has already been sustained.

7           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, there is such thing
8 because we filed one.

9           BY THE COURT: All right. Well, it is 10 overruled.

11           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. We would then make a
12 motion to change venue from Montgomery County-- Lee
13 County back to Montgomery County. At this particular 14 point in time, there is a number of reasons to do
15 so. Number one is that we have a situation here
16 where the case has been recently tried, and an amount
17 of prejudicial publicity exists in Lee County with 18 respect to this case. The case has been recently
19 tried. The case was frequently on the TV. It
20 resulted in a conviction. Jurors and any citizen in 21 this jurisdiction had access to that information and 22 have absorbed that information. You also had 23 newspaper articles in addition to the electronic 24 media which covered this case.

25           In addition, Judge, I think if I'm not mistaken,
26 this case was tried in front of an all white jury,
27 and Montgomery County provides an opportunity for 28 anybody who is concerned about getting racial 29 objectivity in the case to have a larger pool of

1           blacks. Blacks in Montgomery County is about 46
2           percent, I am told, and this is what the 1990 census
3           bears out and recent research in addition to the 1990
4           census as well as, whereas Lee County's percentage of 5           blacks in the county is only 20 percent.

6           So we would move to have the case returned to 7           Montgomery County. There can be no way where any,
8           where this could interfere with the administration of 9           the system of justice. The case has not been tried.
10          There has been no jury finally selected in this case,
11          and only in the last case was a jury actually 12          selected.

13                BY THE COURT: Have you got any authority for 14          where you get to select the venue?

15                BY MR. LUMUMBA: Do I have any authority where I 16          get to select the venue? I get to speak on the 17          venue.

18                BY THE COURT: No, you--

19                BY MR. LUMUMBA: --I don't get to change the 20          venue. I don't get to do anything.

21                BY THE COURT: Right. But you are asking me to 22          send it back to Montgomery County, so effectively you
23          are asking me to change it to a venue of your--

24                BY MR. LUMUMBA: --I have plenty of authority
25          which requires due process and fair and impartial
26          arbitration of the case.

27                BY THE COURT: I understand that.

28                BY MR. LUMUMBA: And so these are the things
29          that we put for you, before you to give you an

1 opportunity to do that. That is basically what all
2 motions are geared to do including the motion to 3 change of venue. We don't have the authority to 4 change the venue without your consent to it, and we
5 don't have the authority to put it in any given
6 place. But what this particular Motion is is to 7 return the venue back to where it originated, and 8 that was in Montgomery County. That is what this 9 Motion is and for reasons I have already stated.

10 BY THE COURT: Okay, anything else?

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Not on this Motion.

12 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, I would just like to 13 draw the Court's attention to Simon v. State.
14 Basically the same thing occurred in that case. The 15 case was transferred from Quitman County to Desoto
16 County. Counsel for the defendant didn't like the 17 venue. The Supreme Court ruled that once a venue has 18 been changed, that counsel for the Defendant, they 19 have waived any objection to where the venue is 20 unless they can show that a fair and impartial jury
21 cannot be selected from that particular venue.

22 There has been no attached affidavits nor any 23 allegation in the motion other than potential racial 24 bias, which this Court is aware of the fact that the 25 material witnesses against the Defendant were for the 26 most part black. Even though there was an all white
27 jury, there was every opportunity for this Defendant
28 to be tried by a fair and impartial jury of his peers
29 regardless of the race of the people on the jury.

1           The Supreme Court has held numerous times that 2           that is not the overwhelming factor that they are
3           going to consider. They look at the case as a whole
4           and determine whether or not the Defendant has 5           received a fair trial. Likewise, there has been
6           nothing stated into the record that the Defendant
7           could get a fair trial in Montgomery County. But
8           nonetheless, Simon v. State speaks on the issue
9           directly on point, and the State [sic] ought to deny
10          the Motion.

11           (Mr. Horan confers with Mr. Evans briefly.)

12          BY MR. LUMUMBA: I don't think Simon v. State
13          is--

14          BY MR. HORAN: --Your Honor, we have already, I
15          think we have already argued this Motion also 16          previously in Attala County. Then they wanted to get 17          a change of venue, and they argued initially that 18          they could not get a fair and impartial trial in 19          Montgomery County on their initial change of venue,
20          and there is nothing in the record today that they 21          could get a fair and impartial jury in Montgomery
22          County.

23          BY MR. LUMUMBA: There was never any decision
24          made that the fair and impartial jury could not be 25          had in Montgomery County. My understanding, it was 26          by agreement that the venue was changed. I
27          understand that the DA didn't oppose the motion. The 28          Court made no finding that there could not be a fair
29          and impartial jury in Montgomery County. If the

1 Court did, I would like to see the order. But the 2 Court didn't make a finding. The Court, because of 3 agreement, changed the venue, so there is no finding 4 that a fair and impartial jury could not be found in
5 Montgomery County.

6 Secondly, I don't think the Simon v. State is 7 apposite to this one. I think it is inapposite. The 8 situation in Simon v. State did not involve the 9 factors here which are the exact same incident in 10 separate indictments if I'm not mistaken. So Simon 11 v. State would not be a good case, a case study for 12 this particular case.

13 So the facts remain as stated, is that there is 14 nothing stopping this Court from changing the venue
15 back to Montgomery County. Race, hopefully all of us
16 would attempt to exclude racism as a phenomenon in 17 this case. The fact is that having black witnesses
18 has never obstructed people from having racial 19 decisions before; all right.

20 I know of some cases that white people have 21 complained about where they thought racism was 22 involved because the jury was too black. There is a
23 famous one. I think they call it O. J. Simpson.
24 Most of the witnesses in that case were white. At 25 least to the perception of the whites who complained
26 about that case, their view was, is that having white
27 witnesses didn't stop the blacks from being biased
28 toward O.J. and giving him the verdict which many of 29 the whites in the community didn't believe that he

1           deserved.

2           Irrespective of that, what we are trying to do
3 is to nullify that. Now, of course, we understand
4 that the DA used that as an advantage in the last
5 trial and probably wants to use it as an advantage in 6 this trial. But if we get a jurisdiction where there
7 is a significant black population, all we would be 8 doing is trying to cut down the possibility, and 9 judges have spoken from this freely from the bench
10 before. "I want to make sure that we don't have any 11 kind of racial bias in this case. I don't believe
12 there is going to be any; I believe in these jurors,
13 but I want to make sure." So they will work to put 14 you in a position where they don't exclude blacks
15 from the venire, for instance, for frivolous
16 reasons.

17           In some instances they will even share with you
18 in bench conferences on the issue: "I'm not going to 19 let this person go on this hardship excuse even 20 though it's marginal and I might let them go. What 21 I'm going to do here is I'm going to keep these 22 people in this pool, be it a black person or a white
23 person in a pool which is predominantly black or a
24 pool which is predominantly white, I'm going to keep 25 them in this pool so that there will be a fair
26 opportunity to choose from a cross section of the 27 community."

28           We are asking this Court to go beyond what it
29 may be absolutely mandated to do in any particular

1 case. There are cases which raise concern about
2 changing of venue to particular jurisdictions which
3 are much less proportionately black than the one that
4 the case is coming from. The case in question
5 actually-- there is a series of cases.

6 In one instance the Supreme Court decided a case
7 where they said that that is one of the things that 8 can be considered. In other words, whether the 9 jurisdiction that you are sending the case to is 10 proportionately the same racially and demographically
11 as the place that you are sending it from. And then 12 there is a case which comes out later that says that 13 that is not an absolute requirement. You don't have 14 to send it to a county which is demographically the 15 same.

16 But, you know, I should hope that the Court
17 doesn't have to have the Supreme Court give it an 18 order in order for it to do the fair thing. I think
19 it should be abundantly clear that it was difficult
20 to get any blacks on this jury up here because first 21 of all, you started with a low ratio of blacks in the 22 jury pool anyway, and I understand that the 23 prosecution saw fit to exclude a number of them
24 anyway, and then I guess some of them excluded
25 themselves. But for whatever reason, the point is,
26 is that, if that is going to be used as a con-
27 sideration, and I suggest that it does, that 28 consideration militates in favor of returning the 29 case to Montgomery County as well as the other

1           considerations which I put before this Court.

2           BY MR. HORAN: Nothing further, Your Honor.

3           BY THE COURT: The Court finds that the Simon
4           pretty well answered these questions, and contrary to 5           the position of the Defendant, they are of the Court,
6           and so the Court finds that racial demographics are 7           not something for it to consider. The fact that 8           change of venue has been changed, the Defendant is 9           not automatically entitled to a second change of 10          venue. He could possibly be entitled to a change of 11          venue if a proper showing is made. In order to make 12          that showing, one, motion for change of venue must be 13          filed with two statutory affidavits. Until such time
14          as the affidavits are filed, no presumption arises as 15          to whether or not, that the State must rebut, that he
16          could not get a fair trial here. There has been no
17          testimony before the Court that he cannot get a fair
18          trial in Lee County, and the Motion is overruled at 19          this time.

20          As I have done with the motion when I ruled on 21          it previously, I overrule the Motion at this time
22          because nothing has been presented to the Court that 23          would show that this person could not get a fair and 24          impartial trial in Lee County. However, if that is 25          presented to the Court or if during voir dire it
26          becomes apparent from the questioning of the venire
27          at that time that the Defendant cannot get a fair
28          trial in Lee County, the Court will sustain the 29          Motion for Change of Venue and move it to another

1 jurisdiction.

2 Okay. What is next?

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: The Defendant has a Motion for
4 Change of Venue.

5 BY THE COURT: I thought we just heard that.

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, that wasn't what I just 7 argued. I just argued a Motion to Change Venue from 8 Montgomery County-- no, a motion -- what I argued was 9 a Motion to Return the Venue to Montgomery County.
10 But my argument would be similar as it relates to a
11 Motion for a Change of Venue period.

12 BY THE COURT: All right, my ruling would be the 13 same. That Motion is overruled.

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: And there are several cases, by 15 the way, in the Motion that we read-- in the Motion
16 that we filed, I'm sorry, which in fact, do deal with 17 the issue of the Court can properly consider the 18 racial composition of the jury-- of the jurisdiction
19 in order to make a decision where it changes the 20 venue to. In fact, not only--

21 BY THE COURT: --Well, I didn't say I wouldn't 22 consider it, Mr. Lumumba. What I said was that, one,
23 you have not properly presented the motion--

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, it says--

25 BY THE COURT: --Wait a minute now. You don't 26 interrupt me either, okay? Two, you have put on no
27 evidence that this person could not get a fair trial
28 at this time. I am overruling this Motion at this 29 time. I am telling you at such time as you present

1 evidence to this Court that shows that he can't get a
2 fair and impartial trial in this county, I'm going to 3 sustain that Motion and move venue. But I'm not
4 going to do it until you do something. I am not
5 going to do it just because you filed an improper
6 motion.

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, I didn't file an improper
8 motion.

9 BY THE COURT: Well, it doesn't have the 10 statutory affidavits.

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I filed a proper motion.

12 BY THE COURT: Insufficient motion; excuse me.
13 How about that?

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No. Actually what I did, I
15 filed a motion sufficient to get the hearing date
16 continued and the motion day continued--

17 BY THE COURT: --We are not on that motion right
18 now--

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --which would have--

20 BY THE COURT: --We are on the Motion for Change
21 of Venue.

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Which would have allowed me to 23 have sufficient time to get the affidavits I needed
24 and things of that nature. But the point that I'm 25 making and I'm glad that I misheard the Court in its 26 earlier presentation because what the Court said in 27 its earlier presentation - and when it checks the 28 transcript, I think it will realize it - is that no
29 case has allowed you to consider the racial

1 composition when changing the venue.

2 BY THE COURT: I will consider anything that you
3 put before me. Let me tell you that right now. You
4 put it up there, and I will take it into account.

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, you should because that's 6 what the cases tell you to do.

7 BY THE COURT: I understand. That's what I'm
8 telling you I'm going to do.

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. We have a Motion for 10 Funds for Expert Assistance in the fields of 11 psychiatry, psychology, mitigation investigation, and 12 criminal investigations, shoe print analysis,
13 ballistics, and firearms analysis. We need experts
14 in all those areas. Essentially one of those experts
15 is what you call a mitigation expert or a mitigation
16 investigator. This is a person who will gather
17 information about the Defendant and have it prepared 18 to present at the sentencing stage should the 19 sentencing stage occur.

20 The first expert that we asked for speaks for 21 itself, expert in the area of psychiatry and 22 psychology. Then we need an investigator, just a
23 straight out investigator who will help us
24 investigate some of the facts of this case
25 particularly on the fairly limited time which the 26 Court has given this case to be set for trial at this 27 time. And then we need a person who is an expert in 28 shoe print analysis and ballistics and firearms
29 expert.

1           We do have experts who we are familiar with who
2           would be interested in helping in all these areas
3           should they have confirmation from the Court that it
4           is prepared to pay for this expertise. Psychology
5           and psychiatry, a Dr., uh-- we have a couple of 6           different doctors. One is Wood Hiatt, City of 7           Jackson, and the other one is Dr. Summers, and there
8           is actually a third doctor who is on Lakeview in the 9           City of Jackson whose name escapes me right now.

10          Mitigation experts: We have two from the State of 11          Alabama and one from the State of Mississippi, so we 12          would be able to use one of either of those. And we 13          have experts in various other areas which I have 14          indicated to the Court should the Court grant this
15          Motion.

16          BY MR. EVANS: Very briefly, Your Honor, we 17          discussed with opposing Counsel in this case and the 18          other three cases earlier the possibility that they 19          would hire experts in some of these areas. They 20          elected not to do that at that point. They could 21          have hired experts if they wanted to. They had ample
22          money to hire experts with. Obviously, instead of 23          just keeping the same two attorneys that they had,
24          they went out and spent money to hire two more
25          attorneys. They could have used that money to hire
26          experts if they wished. He was not indigent at that 27          point. He is not indigent now because he had money
28          to hire and has hired four separate lawyers to handle
29          this case. And to ask for the county to pay for

1 something that he could have paid instead of hiring
2 four counsel in this, would be improper and would be
3 asking for a burden to be placed on the county that 4 is not necessary.

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, let me be very clear--

6 BY MR. EVANS: --I'm not through yet.

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: All right.

8 (State's Counsel confer.)

9 BY MR. EVANS: Also, even if opposing Counsel
10 was entitled to this, which they are not, they have 11 to furnish to the Court who these experts would be,
12 what they would expect to call them for, and an 13 expected price of what they would charge for these.
14 That has not been done. But more specifically, he is 15 not entitled to them because he had funds and he 16 chose how he wanted to spend his money.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Actually, the last part of that 18 is incorrect. What would happen is that if the Court
19 was to grant this Motion, then we would have to 20 furnish information on the areas of how much the 21 experts would cost, what their expertise is, what 22 their vitae is to the Court in an ex parte hearing.
23 They would have nothing to say and nothing to do with 24 who we actually chose. It's inappropriate for them
25 to have even been involved in it just like we don't 26 choose their experts.

27 BY THE COURT: That is not what he is saying.

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, what he is saying is that 29 at this point in a public motion which is being

1 argued in a court, we are required to give that
2 information. They are not entitled to be present at 3 a hearing where that information is forthcoming just 4 like we are not entitled to determine what experts
5 they get although the county pays for them. The 6 county pays for their experts too. So they don't 7 have anything to say about who it is. They can argue
8 the proposition, if they like, that we are not 9 entitled to it, and that's what I will direct my 10 inquiry to or my response to.

11 First of all, let me say this, is that the 12 Defendant is indigent. The Defendant has no money,
13 has no job, has no way of paying anyone. The courts
14 have held because there is some kind of committee or 15 some kind of individual separate than the defendant
16 who is prepared to hire that defendant an attorney, 17 that does not deprive the defendant of the right as 18 an indigent to the appointment of experts which will 19 assist the defendant. And some cases have actually
20 held that even where you have a retained attorney,
21 there is a right to a second counsel. If the 22 defendant can't afford one or has not even hired the 23 first one, then he could be, in fact, entitled to 24 have a second one appointed.

25 But in any event, and here again, we have cited
26 a number of cases which I think backs all these 27 propositions that we are raising in the Motion
28 itself. But absolutely, this is an indigent
29 defendant. He has no money. If he ever had any, he

1           certainly doesn't have any at this point because of 2           where he has sat for the last significant period of 3           time. He has no job, has no way of hiring any of 4           these experts, and so we are asking the Court to do
5           it. What his mother or his father or his relatives
6           may be capable of doing is actually an irrelevant
7           consideration. But for the record, they don't have 8           the kind of resources which is necessary to hire any 9           of these experts either, and the experts are sorely
10          needed.

11                 So we would request the Court, and it may very 12          well be that the reason why the Defendant has 13          retained new counsel is because he decided that these 14          are the kinds of things that he needs for this case.
15          But that is up to the Defendant. He doesn't have to 16          air his linen out here in terms of what he wants his 17          counsel to do and what he doesn't want his counsel to 18          do and the reason why he chooses counsel. But no
19          inference can be made by the fact that counsel in the 20          last case didn't do these things, that he shouldn't 21          want them in this case. That is not a meritorious
22          argument.

23                 BY MR. EVANS: Very briefly, Your Honor; there
24          has been no showing in this Motion that any of the 25          experts that testified before this Court had any bias
26          or that anything in their testimony was incorrect.
27          Also, there has been no showing of any testimony or 28          evidence before this Court that any supposed expert
29          that they might dream up would say or could say

1 anything contrary to what testimony was already been
2 adduced at trial in this case which I think they have 3 to do to show that they are entitled to have one even 4 if the Defendant were indigent, which anyone that can
5 hire four attorneys is not indigent.

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well.

7 BY MR. EVANS: Also, Your Honor, where there
8 have been four and are four lawyers up to the point
9 that the Defendant now wants to release two of them,
10 he has hired them; they are there; he has paid them.
11 The Court has already ruled that they have got to do
12 what he wants. If they want somebody to go out and 13 question witnesses, there are four of them that can 14 go out and question anybody they want to.

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: At this point the Defendant
16 only has two lawyers because the Court has already 17 released two of them from this case.

18 BY THE COURT: From this case, right.

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, from this case and that's 20 the only case we are talking about; right?

21 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. Well, if that's the 23 case, then that argument is obviously misplaced
24 completely. But secondly, so is the criteria is that 25 in order to get an expert appointed, you have to be 26 able to afford an audience with an expert? Most 27 people who try cases know that experts don't come
28 free in their consultation. They don't come free in 29 analyzing facts. This is a novel idea which Counsel

1           has put before me, so I am looking for the case law
2           which supports this, that you have to be able to 3           afford an expert who will tell you he is going to 4           testify differently before you can hire an expert
5           today and come to court and testify. If that was the 6           case, then no indigent would ever have an expert.
7           Indigents ask for an expert on day one after the 8           indictment in many different jurisdictions, and they 9           get expert testimony in those jurisdictions. I think
10          that you are absolutely compelled in a death penalty
11          case to give it to them if they ask for it.

12                 And the situation is, is that we want experts
13          who will evaluate the evidence and tell us what their 14          testimony would be. We are then free, if we want to,
15          not to call the experts which, in fact, perhaps would 16          save the county some money. But the initial part of,
17          the initial benefit to an expert and the initial 18          reasons why courts appoint experts is so that the 19          expert can evaluate the evidence which is before it,
20          listen and read the testimony, if they can't listen
21          to it because they weren't in the case at that time,
22          read the testimony which prior experts have made, and 23          then give us an opinion. He cannot afford to hire an 24          expert to do that. So we are asking for the Court to 25          appoint experts who will do that, pay experts who 26          will do that, and then at that point we will 27          determine whether that expert should be called to 28          testify.

29                 The other thing that-- and that is one of the

1 reasons why it's an ex parte proceeding to even
2 establish an expert. So should we, for instance-- a
3 defendant is totally protected against incriminating
4 himself. So should we come up with an expert who 5 doesn't have anything that would help our case but
6 would only buttress the State's case for whatever
7 reason, then we are not required to call him. We are 8 not even required to expose who he is except to the 9 Court, and the Court is obligated not to expose it to 10 anybody else. So that is the law. Now what the 11 prosecutor is talking about I'm not quite certain,
12 but that is the law.

13 Now the other thing is that-- and that is the 14 law that is cited in this brief in any number of 15 cases. And so what we would say, the other thing is 16 the mitigation expert; the person who would gather 17 information, help us gather information on the 18 Defendant's background is extremely important. There
19 is people who have expertise in this area and do this 20 all the time. And so what we would need is a
21 mitigation expert--

22 BY THE COURT: --They have been, you have had 23 folks that testify as an expert? Courts have allowed 24 them to testify as an expert in the area of 25 mitigation?

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, no. They are 27 investigators, Judge. You have to understand what
28 I'm saying.

29 BY THE COURT: Okay.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: In answer to that question, the 2 second question is yes too. In some cases they have.

3 They have mitigation experts. Usually they are 4 people who, in many instances they are social 5 workers, or in some instances you have people who are 6 former penal institution directors that come in and 7 talk about mitigation. They are considered
8 mitigation experts, but I'm not even getting to 9 that. What I'm getting to is the fact that we are 10 entitled to a mitigation investigator. A mitigation
11 investigator would be a person who would accumulate
12 the facts which are necessary to make a cogent and an 13 important presentation at a sentencing stage in the 14 Defendant's behalf.

15 He has already had one sentencing hearing where 16 he didn't fare well, and so I think that that is a 17 sufficient indication that there is a possibility of 18 a possibility that he could go to a second sentence
19 hearing, sentencing hearing which would require this 20 Court to do this.

21 The only way that I have seen any cases upheld
22 where they denied this is where the Court says this 23 is not a real death penalty case. They really don't 24 expect this to go for a death penalty. The fact is 25 recently Judge Goza down in Madison County dismissed
26 the death penalty portion of a case, and that is the 27 only reason that the courts will uphold the denial of 28 the resources to do this unless you can show that the 29 man is a multimillionaire or he has sufficient

1 resources to hire them on his own.

2 And that is a showing which you definitely can't 3 do because first of all, Counsel doesn't know. We 4 can't bring experts in this case pro bono. I can 5 make that representation to the Court. Counsel has 6 no idea what kind of fees has been paid to us. I
7 don't know what he knows about the prior attorney.
8 You cannot go based upon the fact that we are in the 9 case. We may be in this case pro bono ourselves.
10 There is nothing on this record, nor is he entitled
11 to any information. The Court is entitled to a
12 hearing ex parte, if the Court wants to have a 13 hearing ex parte, if it wants to spend that kind of 14 time to find out that he has no money. But unless he 15 can prove that he has money, he has money to hire
16 experts, then his argument is frivolous.

17 BY THE COURT: What about, Mr. Lumumba, the case
18 law that says that you have to present to me the 19 names of these people that you want to hire, what 20 they are going to cost, how much time it will take,
21 and what they intend to testify to?

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We will present that to you, to 23 you alone in an ex parte hearing. And I think that 24 you will find in that case law that we are entitled
25 to an ex parte presentation on that issue.

26 BY THE COURT: Can you cite me that case?

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: If you could allow me to look
28 at my records, I will cite you a case before we leave
29 here. I will tell you that for sure.

1                   BY THE COURT: All right.

2                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: I will cite you that case
3 before we leave.

4                   BY THE COURT: What would the psychiatrist
5 testify to? You can tell me that.

6                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: I would have no way of knowing
7 exactly what a psychiatrist would testify to--

8                   BY THE COURT: --Well, do you anticipate an 9 insanity defense?

10                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: --until such time as the 11 psychiatrist has an opportunity to look at my client.

12                  BY THE COURT: Do you anticipate an insanity
13 defense?

14                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: I don't anticipate one nor do I
15 not anticipate one at this particular point in time.

16                  BY THE COURT: Well, the psychiatric part of it
17 would be more properly brought on a motion for 18 psychiatric examination. I might consider it at that 19 point, might.

20                  BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I have a couple of 21 things I would like to bring up when Mr. Lumumba is 22 through.

23                  BY THE COURT: Okay, let me look at the Motion 24 just a second.

25                               (Pause while the Court reads.)

26                  BY THE COURT: Do you intend to present these 27 things to me, Mr. Lumumba?

28                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Do I intend to present to you
29 people and what their prices would be?

1                   BY THE COURT: Yeah, what they are going to 2 investigate.

3                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes. Yes.

4                   BY THE COURT: When do you want to do that?

5                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: I would ask to be able to do
6 it, one second. (Defense Counsel confer.) We can do
7 it within two weeks, Judge. I mean probably shorter
8 than that, but certainly within two weeks period. We 9 can give you affidavits from people with their vitae
10 in it and what areas they would be examining.

11                   BY THE COURT: You understand now it has got to 12 be relevant to this case. The fact that they are 13 psychiatrists and they can testify folks that are 14 mentally ill is fine, but if it's not relevant to 15 this Defendant, and they have got a whole record to 16 look at, I don't see how you are going to make it
17 relevant to this Court.

18                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: If it is not relevant to this 19 case, then I really wouldn't want them anyway. Okay,
20 so anything that I would present to the Court would 21 be relevant to this case. If I am not mistaken, this 22 is a case where ballistics is at issue.

23                   BY THE COURT: I'm not sure about this case.

24                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, if I am persuaded to the 25 contrary, then certainly I won't need an expert. But 26 I understand this is a case where ballistics and 27 firearms is at issue. Clearly, there is a shoe print
28 issue.

29                   BY THE COURT: I can rule on the shoe print

1           issue. The shoe print testimony was something a lay
2           person could testify to. There was no expertise.
3           The guy happened to be an expert, but there was no
4           expertise required in his testimony.

5           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, what we would ask--

6           BY THE COURT: --So I deny the shoe print
7           expert.

8           BY MR. LUMUMBA: All right, well, then certainly 9           you are going to be willing to bar him from 10          testifying at the next trial because we don't want no
11          pretentiousness in terms of putting an expert person
12          who claims to be an expert up there to testify to 13          something that only a lay person would know.

14          BY THE COURT: I don't think he was qualified as 15          an expert as a matter of fact. Was he, Mr. Evans?

16          BY MR. EVANS: He has been. I'm not sure on 17          that particular case whether we asked for him to be 18          qualified as an expert or not.

19          BY THE COURT: There was one that was not. I
20          don't know whether he was qualified to that extent,
21          but as I recall the testimony, what he testified to,
22          that he found, he went to the scene and he found a
23          print, a bloody shoe print. He compared that with a
24          shoe print from a Nike shoe, which is something me
25          and you can do, and it was a similar print. He did
26          not say it was the same shoe or anything like that.

27          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, I know he didn't say it
28          was the same shoe. I know he didn't say that, but he 29          tried to testify; from what I understand, he

1 testified in such a fashion to suggest, you know,
2 there was a serious possibility it was the same
3 shoe. But the point I'm making--

4 BY THE COURT: --Well, he did that. He said
5 this shoe was probably made by a Nike.

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We will have no objection at 7 trial to a person testifying who actually went to the 8 scene, who actually saw something and actually 9 testifying to what he or she saw. We certainly are 10 going to have opposition to-- if we are being denied
11 an expert, we are going to have opposition to any 12 testimony, to anybody making any kind of expert
13 comparisons or anybody presenting their expert
14 credentials in court or anybody in any way presenting 15 themselves as an expert or giving expert testimony.
16 So I mean, but if the Court-- I think you made a
17 beautiful record for us to be able to stand on such a 18 motion should we have an opportunity or have the 19 necessity of doing so. So I don't have any argument
20 with that. If the Court is saying that no experts
21 are going to be allowed to testify on this issue,
22 then we don't need one.

23 BY THE COURT: Well, I didn't say that now. I'm 24 saying I'm not going to give you a shoe print expert
25 based on what I know. You can raise those objections
26 at the appropriate time to how he testifies, and 27 based on what I said, I may very well sustain your 28 objection. You are not giving up any objections to 29 that by my ruling now. I am just ruling that you are

1 not entitled to a shoe print expert based on what I
2 know about this case.

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, we will, what I would ask
4 the Court is to keep that, take that part of the 5 Motion with the rest of it under advisement, and we 6 will give you our presentation and affidavit and 7 refer you to what the expert in this, the so-called 8 expert in this previous case did testify to. And if 9 that is the Court's ruling at that time, then
10 certainly we will abide by whatever the Court says.

11 But the point is, is that the only thing that I
12 am saying, it don't seem like we should be able to do
13 this thing-- saying we should use the same yard
14 stick. Either we should have money to get an expert
15 and there is an expert issue here, or nobody should 16 have an expert. It seems to me it should be one way
17 or-- it should be both; it can't be both, one way on 18 the one hand and the other way on the other hand.

19 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor--

20 BY THE COURT: --Of course, that is not the 21 law.

22 BY MR. EVANS: Since opposing counsel stated
23 that they were not aware of the law, I would like to 24 state what the law is. This particular case is 25 dealing with psychiatry. It says, "A criminal 26 defendant does not have the right to a psychiatrist
27 of his choice or to receive funds to hire one of his 28 choice. Rather he has a right to a competent one."
29 Unless he can show that any expert that has testified

1 in this case was not competent, they are not entitled
2 to funds to hire any expert in any field, which they 3 cannot do.

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: What case is that?

5 BY MR. EVANS: Also, that particular case, the 6 particular cases that state that are Butler v. State,
7 608 So.2d 314; also Wiley v. State, 585 So.2d 660.
8 Also--

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Are either one of those death
10 penalty cases?

11 BY MR. EVANS: Also--

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --I don't think I am going to 13 get an answer to the question.

14 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, would you ask the 15 opposing counsel to shut up until I get through?

16 BY THE COURT: No, no, no, whoa now, Mr. Evans.
17 Let's don't do it that way.

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I'm sorry; I apologize. I was 19 acting a little bit like he was earlier.

20 BY THE COURT: Okay, you just have a seat.

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I apologize, but he--

22 BY THE COURT: Wait, Mr. Lumumba. He has still 23 got the floor. Then you are going to get to talk.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, excuse me.

25 BY MR. EVANS: Also, when no attempt is made to 26 use the insanity defense during the guilt phase, no
27 right to an independent mental examination exists.
28 That is also under Wiley v. State, 585 So.2d 660;
29 also Ladner v. State, 584 So.2d 743; also Pinkney v.

1           State, 538 So.2d 329; also Lanier v. State, 533 So.2d
2           473; also Nixon v. State, 533 So.2d 1078; also Ake v.
3           Oklahoma, 470 US 68. "Where insanity is not used as
4           a defense or is abandoned at trial, the trial court
5           may prohibit a mental health expert from testifying
6           during the guilt phase." That is Jackson v. State,
7           684 So.2d 1213.

8           Also, as further stated in Ake v. Oklahoma,
9           "When the State does not present mental health
10          experts during the sentence phase to establish future
11          dangerousness, the Defendant has no right to 12          independent mental health experts." That is also 13          cited in Nixon v. State, 533 So.2d 1078.

14          This would also apply to all of the other 15          experts in this case. Not only does the Defense have 16          to state who they expect to call, they have to 17          establish specifically, according to Harrison v.
18          State, 635 So.2d 894, along with a long list of other 19          cases, that the Defendant has a substantial need for 20          that expert. They are going to have to show two 21          different things. They are going to have to show
22          that the expert that has testified was wrong and that 23          they have some need in having some new expert because 24          if they cannot show that, then by all case law that I
25          have ever seen, as long as the expert is competent 26          that testified, they do not have a right for funds to 27          hire another expert.

28                 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge--

29                 BY MR. EVANS: And every case cited in here is a

1 death penalty case.

2 BY THE COURT: I gathered that.

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, well, let me say this.
4 I think the Court needs to read those cases. I have 5 read those cases too, and the position that he has 6 taken is absurd. There is no requirement that in 7 order for us to get an expert to examine these areas
8 that we have to prove that their expert was wrong.
9 How are we going to prove that their expert is wrong
10 unless we have an expert which is going to make an 11 inquiry into the area and give us information which 12 would suggest that that is the case? The reality
13 is--

14 BY THE COURT: --But you don't have any expert
15 that you are asking for that that would be the case
16 anyhow. There has been no psychiatrist testify.
17 There has certainly been no mitigation expert
18 testify--

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --We have--

20 BY THE COURT: --Wait a minute; let me finish.
21 There is-- what is the other one you want?

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Go ahead. I will let you
23 interrupt me.

24 BY THE COURT: Well, I don't think I did, Mr.
25 Lumumba.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: That is quite all right. Go
27 ahead; it's okay. I am not concerned.

28 BY THE COURT: There is a ballistics and 29 firearms expert. Uh, oh, well.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes, there was a ballistics and 2 firearms expert testified at the trial if I'm not
3 mistaken.

4 BY THE COURT: What authority do you have that
5 this is an in camera hearing?

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: There is a whole motion on this
7 issue, Judge.

8 BY THE COURT: I realize that; I want the case.

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --where we request that the-- 10 do you want to give me ten minutes to get it?

11 BY THE COURT: No, sir. I would like for you to 12 have it now.

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I need ten minutes to get it.
14 If you really want it, then I can get it in ten
15 minutes.

16 BY THE COURT: Well, you are going to have to 17 have it before I do an in camera hearing.

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well.

19 BY THE COURT: We will break for lunch; be back
20 at 1 o'clock. Any other case law you have got that 21 you want to cite to me, I wish you would have 22 prepared by then.

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Do you want to read these 24 motions because I have cited quite a few case law?

25 BY THE COURT: Yeah, I want to see them. I have 26 read the motions.

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: It's at least twenty cases
28 cited in this Motion.

29 (FOLLOWING THE NOON RECESS ON 1/5/98, MOTION

1 PROCEEDINGS CONTINUED WITH ALL COUNSEL AND THE 2 DEFENDANT PRESENT AS FOLLOWS:)

3 BY THE COURT: Let me see y'all on another
4 matter; you too, Mr. Evans. You can shut the door.
5 We will have to have it shut.

6 BY MR. JOHN JOHNSON: It will be warmer.

7 BY THE COURT: That's okay.

8 (Conference at the bench on another matter after 9 which there was the following:)

10 BY THE COURT: Okay, where are we?

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, Judge, you had asked me
12 to get some cases to basically convince you that we 13 were entitled to the kind of hearing that you just 14 held with the prosecution at the bench in ex parte
15 hearing. Now I don't know, of course, if that 16 hearing was ex parte on our case, but it was ex parte
17 on somebody's case, and that is the kind of hearing
18 we are talking about, a hearing where we can sit and 19 talk to you where the other side is not entitled to 20 be present. Just like the other side of whatever
21 case you just got finished discussing wasn't present
22 when you talked to them.

23 The case is Ake v. Oklahoma, 470 US 82. Ake v.
24 Oklahoma essentially says that the reason why these 25 hearings should be ex parte when they relate to a
26 capital murder case and they come to the question of 27 what experts the defense is seeking to use is because 28 of the very nature of the offer of proof in order to 29 convince the Court that the expert needs to be called

1 is a showing which could reveal the mental processes,
2 the thinking of the defense team and compromise their
3 ability to have those things not disclosed.

4 BY THE COURT: That is 470 US 82?

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: 470 US 82.

6 BY THE COURT: Okay.

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I think Counsel cited it in 8 support of something else. Yeah, but it's actually 9 470 US 68, but I think what we are talking about is 10 at 82 in that case.

11 Now the other case we have is Johnston, spelled 12 with an S-T-O-N, v. State, and what we do have on 13 Johnston v. State, we don't believe that Johnston v.
14 State was a published opinion, but the Supreme Court
15 number on it is 90 M-0271.

16 BY THE COURT: But if it's not published, you
17 can't cite it.

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, let me tell you what the 19 Johnston v. State case said because even though you
20 can't--

21 BY THE COURT: --Well, the Supreme Court said and 22 the Rules say you can't do that.

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, the Rule doesn't say I
24 can't discuss the case.

25 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir; it does.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, let me-- pardon?

27 (Defense Counsel confer briefly.)

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Johnston v. State, I believe 29 they may have, my counsel says that they actually

1           have cited it already. Well, let me tell you this,
2           Judge. I am going to tell you what I believe would
3           happen, and there is a case called Johnston v. State
4           that supports this scenario.

5           BY THE COURT: Well, not if it can't be cited,
6           it doesn't support it.

7           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, let me say this.
8           Basically in a situation where the defense sought
9           psychiatrist's testimony and made an appeal
10          interlocutory to the Court of Appeals, in fact, the 11          Court of Appeals to the Supreme Court actually,
12          indicating that they felt they had a right to make an 13          ex parte showing of their need for psychiatrists, the 14          Supreme Court refused - and that's the only reason I
15          cite it - but they refused to grant the interlocutory
16          appeal. That's what they did. They said it wasn't 17          necessary, but they sent an order to the trial judge
18          ordering the trial judge to grant an ex parte hearing
19          in the matter, indicating by the order that the 20          defense had a right to an ex parte hearing on the
21          question.

22          So those are the things which I believe the 23          Court should be interested in. Now, you know, you
24          know, if I-- I mean, you know, this man's life here
25          is at stake, so really to be quite honest with you,
26          Judge, I am here to represent him. And I am here to 27          be clear and to be honest and to put the things on 28          the record which need to be put on the record. And 29          if the Court really wants to know the state of the

1 law, then it will learn the state of the law
2 irrespective of whether the case is published or 3 not.

4 BY THE COURT: It's not the law though, Mr.
5 Lumumba. If you can't cite it, it not stare
6 decisis.

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Ake v. Oklahoma is the law and 8 even if--

9 BY THE COURT: --Okay, but the other, the 10 Johnston case is not.

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: And even if Johnston v. State
12 is not stare decisis, it is still something that 13 would inform a court that wanted to be informed. In 14 fact, the Court's statement that the Court made to me
15 is an amazing statement. As long as I have been 16 practicing, and I have been practicing since 1976; I
17 practiced in over ten different states and all before
18 all kinds of courts in all kinds of jurisdiction.
19 Never has any court ever told me, don't tell me about 20 that case because it's not cited. Judges usually 21 want to know as opposed to not want to know, unless 22 they have some other kind of agenda on hand. Now
23 what I'm trying--

24 BY THE COURT: --That must be what the Supreme 25 Court had in mind when they passed a rule saying that 26 you couldn't cite--

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Well, that is cute, Judge,
28 but at the same time the question I am concerned 29 about is whether or not you really want to know what

1 the law is.

2 BY THE COURT: It's not the law, Mr. Lumumba.

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I'm trying to provide you with 4 what the Court-- don't you think it's somewhat
5 instructive, what the Court did--

6 BY THE COURT: It's not the law.

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: It is instructive and do you
8 want to be informed?

9 BY THE COURT: Not on a case that cannot be 10 cited.

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Or do you already have some 12 prearranged decision of what you are going to do in 13 this case?

14 BY THE COURT: I want you to instruct me on the 15 law in the cases that are the law that can be cited.

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, I have just instructed
17 you on the law in Ake v. Oklahoma. Now what you 18 should have been a little more concerned about is the 19 fact that they read the same case to you and didn't
20 see fit to point out to you that that is the case
21 that stands for the exact proposition that you were 22 seeking guidance on. Usually the Court would be a
23 little more concerned about that, but since it's not,
24 the situation that I'm saying to you at this point is 25 that it's clear that we have a right to have an ex
26 parte hearing.

27 Also, I want to make it absolutely perfectly
28 clear although you have chosen, not us, you have 29 chosen to set the dates that were set. You have also

1           chosen to go, especially the motion dates is what I'm 2           talking about. You have chosen to put our motion for 3           a continuation of the motion hearing dates at the 4           end. The reason why we asked for that motion is 5           because we understood that it was some things that we 6           needed to do to support various motions in order to 7           be a bit more persuasive on them.

8           So that's a motion which needs to be granted
9           because certainly you would not want to be in a
10          position to have somebody go to trial and be 11          inappropriately represented, and I'm going to state
12          here for the record there is no way that any court
13          should ask any attorney to go to trial two months
14          after they have entered into a case and with this 15          kind of voluminous transcript and other information
16          and the other kind of things which are necessary to 17          do in a death penalty case. And so, and what this 18          Court should be concerned about is this gentleman
19          here getting effective representation. And so what 20          I'm suggesting to the Court is that motion should be 21          granted.

22          I am also suggesting that it should be granted,
23          and in fact, we should be allowed to make a
24          presentation of Ake, not of Ake, but presentation of 25          affidavits and of an ex parte presentation like you
26          just had with the other counsel at the bench without 27          the other side present.

28          I'm sorry that the Court sees it necessary to 29          sigh and, you know--

1                   BY THE COURT: I didn't sigh.

2                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: And apparently--

3                   BY THE COURT: --I'm not sighing, Mr. Lumumba.
4 I am listening to every word you say. I just leaned
5 back in my chair. Is that okay?

6                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. Well, I like, you know,
7 when I argue to a judge, I like to be a little more
8 confident that they are really, you know, there
9 objectively, impartially.

10                  BY THE COURT: Good; I want you to be.

11                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: You know, this kind of stuff
12 like, (Counsel sits down in his chair and folds his 13 arms.) You know, that doesn't encourage my faith in 14 the system of justice or in the Court that I'm--

15                  BY THE COURT: --Well, I'm sorry, Mr. Lumumba,
16 if I offended you; I apologize. Please proceed.

17                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: All right, don't worry about my 18 personal predilections. I'm not so thinly offended.
19 I mean I have been before people who weren't always 20 impartial before, but I think it is important for 21 Mr., for the gentleman's case right here, for our 22 Defendant's case. Okay, but in any event, that is 23 our offer as far as this issue is concerned.

24                  BY MR. EVANS: May I ask the Court what we are 25 even on any more?

26                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well--

27                  BY MR. EVANS: --I'm asking the Court a
28 question.

29                  BY THE COURT: I asked him to give me some

1 precedent for an in camera hearing on this matter and
2 which he did according to-- I need to read that
3 Oklahoma case and see what it says. But he has cited
4 some authority for that, and that's what I asked him
5 to do.

6 So okay, before we go any further on this, it's 7 apparent to the Court that I'm going to have to have 8 an additional hearing before trial on these matters.

9 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, may I interrupt the 10 Court just a second?

11 BY THE COURT: I'm not going to quit here. We 12 are going to finish--

13 BY MR. EVANS: --No, sir. It's on something I
14 think I need to put in the record. I would just like 15 to make sure that it's clear in the record that what 16 the Court had asked the District Attorney and 17 Assistant District Attorney about while ago had 18 absolutely nothing to do with this case because I
19 don't want them to come back later and say there was 20 a bench conference that was being held outside the 21 record of what the Court Reporter was taking down
22 about this case.

23 BY THE COURT: That conference was in relation
24 to Blakely v. State on a motion for post conviction
25 relief that is to be heard by this Court at 1 o'clock
26 on Wednesday. It has absolutely nothing to do with 27 anything here, but just so the record is clear, I
28 informed the State that I was going to enter an 29 order, for them to file an answer pursuant to statute

1 on that, and told them that we are going to have the
2 hearing at 1 o'clock on Wednesday unless they object
3 to having it that early. And all I was doing is 4 telling them what is going to happen, what they have 5 to do pursuant to statute. That is all that was
6 about.

7 Okay, you said you could hear this stuff within 8 two weeks?

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I said that I could get you as 10 far as the affidavits that you are requiring us to 11 get, which I don't have any problem with getting, we 12 can get those affidavits within two weeks as to the 13 experts in question; yes, that's what I'm saying.

14 BY THE COURT: Okay, all right. We also have 15 got the Motion to Suppress Witness Statements. You
16 want an evidentiary hearing on that, I believe; isn't
17 that correct?

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: That's correct, Judge. We want
19 an evidentiary hearing on that. That is true.

20 BY THE COURT: Linda, do you have my schedule?

21 BY THE COURT REPORTER: I have a calendar. I
22 don't know if it has everything.

23 (Pause while Court looks at calendar.)

24 BY THE COURT: What days have y'all got open
25 during the next two weeks?

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Today is the 5th. I would be 27 available on the 19th.

28 BY THE COURT: That is not-- well, that is 29 within two weeks.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: That is a Monday; right?

2 BY THE COURT: Rico is set for that, isn't it?

3 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

4 BY THE COURT: I have a case that has to be
5 tried on that day.

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. We can do something on 7 the 20th.

8 BY MR. FREELON: I have a trial the 20th.

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: (To Mr. Freelon) Who has a
10 trial on the 20th? You do? Okay, I'm sorry.
11 Scratch the 20th. Co-counsel has a trial on the 20th
12 (To Mr. Freelon) Is it going to be over by the 21st?

14 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, I think Rico is set
15 that Friday, is it not, the 16th?

16 BY THE COURT: I think it was on a Friday too;
17 that's true.

18 BY MR. HORAN: It's the 16th, I believe, Your
19 Honor.

20 BY THE COURT: We might-- okay, you can do it on 21 the 19th?

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, I can have the 23 affidavits, and we can have the evidentiary hearing
24 on the 19th. I'm sorry; hold on one second.

25 (Defense Counsel confer briefly.)

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I'm sorry; is that a holiday?

27 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir; it is.

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, the 20th; the 20th he has 29 a trial. The 22nd is fine-- 21st, I'm sorry; 21st is

1 fine. 21st is a Wednesday. Actually, I could even
2 do it on the 22nd. I cannot do it on the 23rd. I
3 can do it on that Friday which is the 24th.

4 BY THE COURT: That is Saturday. You don't want
5 to do it on Saturday.

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, I'm sorry.

7 BY THE COURT: We can, but I would just as soon
8 not to.

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, no, you are right. I can
10 do it the 21st or 22nd. I cannot do it on the 23rd
11 which is a sentencing day for somebody in Hinds
12 County. Y'all remember what we have got set the 13 22nd?

14 BY MR. EVANS: No, sir. I know starting the 15 12th we are in court in both Webster and Grenada
16 County, and cases have been set in both of them. As 17 far as, I would have to check to make sure what is 18 set.

19 BY THE COURT: I'm going to give you that 20 opportunity, but I am, of course, in the same bind.

21 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

22 BY THE COURT: And they are too.

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Starting what days, you say?

24 BY MR. EVANS: 12th.

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA: 12th; okay, let me say this.
26 We don't object if the Court doesn't object, as long
27 as we just know where to subpoena people to, to 28 having a hearing in a different county.

29 BY THE COURT: We are going to do that. We will

1 do that. It depends-- let me, I might look at my
2 calendar. We are either going to have to do it in 3 Webster County or Attala County, one of the two.

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Attala, or what is the other
5 one?

6 BY THE COURT: Webster. I'm in court in
7 Webster, and I will just have to see what is going to 8 happen up there. Okay, we will check all that before
9 we leave here today. Now we have got some other
10 stuff that we can hear though. All right, I can 11 speed up some of this for you. I will let you say
12 anything you want to say about it, Mr. Lumumba, but 13 let me give you what my ideas about some of these.
14 On your Motion for Additional Peremptory Challenges,
15 that is a motion that I have already ruled on, and I
16 have overruled the Motion, but I have overruled it
17 with the provision that should the facts indicate at 18 voir dire that there is the necessity for additional 19 peremptory challenges, I will grant that based on the 20 facts as presented. So I think it's-- but I will 21 hear from you if you want to make additional argument
22 on that.

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I don't have any additional 24 argument other than I would just use this as an 25 example of-- I mean given the Court's already having 26 ruled on it and given the Court's determination it
27 wouldn't recuse itself, there is nothing else that I
28 feel I can say other than what is in the Motion
29 itself.

1           But I would indicate to the Court two things:
2           A) that we will, we do think that is one of the 3           reasons why we should not have the same Court making
4           the decision on this case because you have ruled on 5           something in another case; and number two, which we 6           will further illuminate at a subsequent time as the 7           Court has invited us to do, at this time this case is 8           a little bit different standing. There has been a
9           trial in this jurisdiction already, and we will show
10          the Court that people have-- this case is much more
11          well known in this jurisdiction than it was back when 12          this Court, this Motion was initially considered. I
13          am assuming this Motion was initially considered
14          before the first trial.

15                BY THE COURT: It was.

16                BY MR. LUMUMBA: So those are the only things I
17          would add.

18                BY THE COURT: Okay. Well, that is in line with 19          what my ruling is, that if those facts are developed,
20          then I will allow additional peremptory challenges
21          for both sides.

22                BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, again for clarify in 23          the record, I would just like to make it clear that 24          not only has the Court ruled on this particular
25          Motion in another case, but the Court has already 26          ruled on it on this particular case also.

27                BY THE COURT: I know, but I think that was my 28          ruling then.

29                BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

1                   BY THE COURT: Was that I would overrule it at 2                   the time with reserving the right to entertain it
3                   again if the facts supported it.

4                   Okay, on your Motion to Preclude Admission of 5                   Gruesome and Highly Prejudicial Color Photographs of 6                   the Deceased, there are going to be some of those 7                   admissible, but I think at the last hearing, at the 8                   last trial there were only three or four. I'm going 9                   to sustain that Motion to a certain extent. All the 10                  photographs that they have will not be admitted. I 11                  guess we will just have to sit down and go over those 12                  photographs, Mr. Lumumba, as to which ones they are 13                  going to ask to be admitted and which ones you are 14                  going to object to.

15                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Right. Yes, and I agree with 16                  that, and I would ask the Court just if they can show
17                  us the ones that they specifically plan to admit, 18                  then we can make specific objections to those 19                  specific photographs.

20                  BY THE COURT: Okay, then why don't we do that 21                  on the day that we are going to have this other
22                  hearing.

23                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

24                  BY THE COURT: Okay, you have got a Motion for 25                  Discovery of Information Regarding State's Experts.

26                  BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, as to that Motion, 27                  that Motion has previously been brought up. It was 28                  agreed at that time that the State would and did
29                  furnish curriculum vitae on all experts, all field

1 notes that were used, all results, all experts. All
2 of that has already been available, given, furnished
3 to the Defense, and I would assume at this point they 4 have picked up their copies of the discovery.

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Let me, and perhaps if we may,
6 Judge, maybe what this will do is if we join-- I
7 think we have also made a Motion for Discovery of 8 Information Necessary to Receive a Fair Trial. I
9 imagine our argument would be the same for both of 10 these motions, and their response is probably going
11 to be the same. If you want to, we can entertain
12 these both at the same time.

13 BY THE COURT: That would be fine.

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Essentially, our position is 15 this. It's a legal position, but then there is a
16 practical side of it, and we are willing to work
17 within reason. The legal position is that since the 18 attorney Gilmores are no longer on this particular 19 case, then anything they were given does not mean we 20 were given it, and we are entitled to have all
21 discovery given to us.

22 Now the practical side of it is this, is that 23 there is a lot of material, okay, a lot of material.
24 It is very costly to reproduce it. I don't, we don't 25 mind reproducing what we can, and we will be willing 26 to work with them. But I would like to be able to 27 come to the State and ask for specific things and be 28 able to get them where the cost of reproduction is 29 going to be beyond the realm of the possible or be

1           very expensive.

2           But the second thing is this; the second thing
3           is this. We also don't want to be responsible for 4           anything that for whatever reason didn't get to us.
5           Okay, now what I'm saying to you on this matter is 6           the Gilmores, I am sure, have taken care of stuff.
7           They have given us a lot of stuff. But I want to be
8           able to check and make sure that I have everything
9           that the State has which is generated. I don't want
10          them to use as a reason for us not having something,
11          well, we gave it to the Gilmores, so therefore you
12          should have it. I don't think that that is the way
13          that works.

14          I think that we filed a fresh motion, and as new 15          attorneys, we are entitled to have everything. But 16          we will be willing to go over with them what they 17          have to offer versus what we have. And if we have 18          it, if we can reproduce it, then I don't have any 19          problem with it. But if we don't have it, number 20          one, or number two, if it's voluminous like, for 21          instance, the transcript of the previous trial --
22          actually my co-counsel tells me that you actually 23          ordered both of us to have a copy of that.

24                BY THE COURT: No, I didn't.

25                BY MR. LUMUMBA: Oh, you didn't? Okay. I
26                thought you did.

27                BY THE COURT: No, sir.

28                BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, well, those are my areas
29                of concern. A), where things are voluminous and B),

1           where we might not have it. I do want to have the 2           opportunity to go over with them if they can tell me,
3           go over with them what they have. If we have it, I'm 4           not going to require them to give it to us, but if we 5           don't have it, then it's a problem.

6           BY THE COURT: Okay, you are entitled to 7           everything you are entitled to under discovery. I
8           think that has been furnished. I don't know
9           whether-- did y'all get a receipt from them when
10          you--

11          BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir; we did and also it's my 12          understanding that John Gilmore furnished on December
13          the 10th all the discovery to the Counsel that are 14          now in the case. They have the discovery. All they 15          have got to do is check it with the court file on 16          what we are showing that we gave on discovery. If 17          there is anything in there that they are saying they 18          don't have, we can discuss it. But it's ridiculous
19          to even think about asking that it be furnished again
20          when it's already been furnished once.

21          BY THE COURT: I'm not going to do that. Mr.
22          Gilmore, you have signed a receipt saying that you
23          got all the discovery; is that correct?

24          BY MR. JOHN GILMORE: I don't recall signing a
25          receipt for every particular item of discovery.

26          BY MR. EVANS: The certificate has been mailed 27          and filed on all of them. Some were signed and some 28          weren't.

29          BY THE COURT: Okay. I need a certificate from

1           you, Mr. Gilmore, in the file saying that you have
2           delivered everything that the District Attorney has
3           delivered to you to new counsel. And then, Mr.
4           Lumumba, you can check that, and if you find that
5           there is something missing, then you let the Court
6           know, and we will see about getting it to you.

7           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can I ask the Court a
8           question? If that is the case, then how is Mr.
9           Gilmore supposed to proceed, assuming he needs all
10          the discovery items which he may not, for appeal?
11          But certainly, he is going to need the transcript,
12          and he may need some discovery. How is he to proceed
13          with a-- because at the state of things are right now
14          I think you have given us everything he has got, I
15          think. He may, he can correct me. But if that is 16          true, then he has nothing to work with, not only for,
17          he certainly has nothing to work with for his appeal,
18          and he has nothing to work with for a--

19          BY THE COURT: Well, then he can make copies and 20          keep what he needs. Y'all are both retained
21          counsel. I'm not going to require the state to 22          provide any more than what they have to provide. If 23          y'all want five or six copies, make five or six
24          copies.

25          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Let me say I think both Mr.
26          Gilmore's firm and my firm is doing a service not 27          only to this client but to the community. I'm not 28          sure if we wouldn't get paid more if we were assigned
29          counsel. But the reality is that, I mean I think

1           that, you know, I am asking the Court for some
2           consideration on this voluminous endeavor here. You
3           know what I'm saying?

4           BY THE COURT: The Court has already furnished
5           an extra transcript of this trial which is not
6           required. I did that in the interest of having, so
7           both counsel could have read it by this time and be 8           ready for trial. I also required that all that 9           discovery be delivered, I believe, by the 10th which 10          I gather, Mr. Gilmore, has been done; is that right?

11          BY MR. JOHN GILMORE: Yes, sir.

12          BY THE COURT: Okay. And if you have got it
13          all, I'm not going to make anybody else make any more
14          copies of it.

15          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, you have our exception to 16          that ruling, Judge.

17          BY THE COURT: Sure.

18          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, and then I think that one
19          of these motions we listed the amount of material.
20          (To Mr. Freelon) Did we list how much material? All
21          right.

22          Okay, and so if that is not adequately done in 23          the motion, I will repeat, but I want the record to 24          show that we are talking about probably thousands of 25          pages here. You know, that's a lot--

26          BY THE COURT: --But you have it, don't you?

27          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, it's not a question we 28          have it. First of all, it's a question of whether 29          both counsel can use it, whether we can reproduce it,

1           whether we can reproduce it at a cost which is
2           rational given the kind of sacrifices we have to do
3           with this case, whether we can effectively,
4           effectively negotiate the things that we have to do
5           in order to be effective counsel in this case. That 6           is the issue.

7           BY MR. EVANS:  --Your Honor--

8           BY MR. LUMUMBA:  --And I am suggesting to you
9           that the volume of information makes that impossible
10          to do, but having said that, if the Court wants to go
11          ahead and do something different, it's okay.

12          BY THE COURT:  Do you have the, do you have that 13          stuff in your possession?

14          BY MR. LUMUMBA:  I have it in my possession
15          right now.

16          BY THE COURT:  Then what is your objection?

17          BY MR. LUMUMBA:  I don't know that I have all of 18          it.  I have what Mr. Gilmore gave me.

19          BY THE COURT:  Okay, well, what is your
20          objection?

21          BY MR. LUMUMBA:  My objection--

22          BY THE COURT:  --If you have got it all, what is 23          your objection?

24          BY MR. LUMUMBA:  My objection is he has asked
25          for it back.  He has asked for it back, and I think
26          that as an attorney--

27          BY THE COURT:  --Well, that is between you and 28          Mr. Gilmore.

29          BY MR. LUMUMBA:  Well, it's a little more than

1           that. As a member of the Bar, I feel compelled to 2           try to get it back to him if I can knowing that he
3           has a responsibility to do an appeal, that he has a
4           responsibility to try two more cases at this moment;
5           you know what I'm saying.

6           BY THE COURT: Well, I thought y'all were going
7           to be in the other two.

8           BY MR. LUMUMBA: We haven't, that hasn't been 9           resolved, nor do I think that that is-- and even if 10          all four of us was in the case at the same time, all 11          four of us would need a copy of the material, at 12          least two copies of the material to each office.

13          BY THE COURT: That Motion, well, it's sustained
14          in that the State is required to deliver discovery to 15          Defense Counsel, which the Court finds at this time
16          the State represents, as does Mr. Gilmore, that has 17          been done in this case. So they have copies and, in 18          fact, Mr. Lumumba states that he is in the possession
19          of it. So I don't know that there is anything for 20          the Court to rule on. Those motions are 21          self-sustaining, I guess, so anything, I have heard
22          all I want to hear on this--

23          BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Okay, well, now I am just
24          saying--

25          BY THE COURT: --Let's move on.

26          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Just to make clear what I am
27          saying. I am in possession of what Mr. Gilmore gave 28          me. Now whether Mr. Gilmore has given me everything
29          he got from the State or whether the State gave him

1 everything they had, we make no representation on 2 that whatsoever.

3 BY THE COURT: I understand. And if you find
4 out that he has not, you let me know, and we will see
5 that you get it.

6 Okay, there is a Notice for Aggravating
7 Circumstances and for Disclosure of Evidence
8 Supporting Mitigating Circumstances. I know you did
9 it in the first case. I don't know whether y'all
10 have done it in this case or not.

11 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, we have supplied
12 notice of aggravating circumstances for all cases.

13 BY MR. HORAN: If we haven't, we will get that 14 out. I know we have though.

15 BY MR. EVANS: It's the same notice for all
16 cases.

17 BY THE COURT: Armed robbery? And there were 18 two; there were two as I recall.

19 BY MR. EVANS: Actually three.

20 BY THE COURT: Okay.

21 BY MR. JOHN GILMORE: Y'all withdrew one if I'm 22 not mistaken.

23 BY MR. EVANS: At trial on that case, but all of 24 them were offered as far as all cases, noticed.

25 BY THE COURT: Notice has been furnished in all
26 four cases?

27 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

28 BY THE COURT: Okay. That Motion is sustained.
29 The Court takes note that it has been done.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We can't represent that it has
2 been done because I haven't seen it yet.

3 BY THE COURT: I understand you can't.

4 BY MR. EVANS: Can you furnish it to them, Mr.
5 Gilmore?

6 BY MR. JOHN GILMORE: It should be--

7 BY MR. HORAN: --I will do another one, Your 8 Honor. If you want me to have it out this afternoon,
9 I will do it.

10 BY THE COURT: That will be fine. You can do
11 another one. That will take care of that. But Mr.
12 Gilmore, you understand you are under an obligation
13 to furnish co-counsel or former co-counsel with 14 everything that you have got that is relevant to this
15 case.

16 BY MR. JOHN GILMORE: Yes, Your Honor.

17 BY THE COURT: Okay, the Motion for Individual
18 Sequestered Voir Dire.

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, this is a case where 20 there will be considerable issues to be raised as to 21 publicity. My understanding here again is that you
22 had publicity on every day of this trial. The 23 citizenry in general of Lee County certainly would 24 have had no reason not to look at it. These are the 25 same people you are going to ask to come in here and 26 be jurors. Some of the publicity was probably 27 inaccurate. Some of it may have reflected what was 28 being said in court, but in any instance, it would 29 have all created circumstances where a number of

1 citizens may have prejudged the case.

2 One of the reasons you have individual
3 sequestered voir dire is so whatever one individual's 4 prejudices might be or prejudgments might be that
5 they don't contaminate the whole jury. So we think
6 that we should take each juror at a time, one at a
7 time, inquire into what they have heard and what
8 impact that would have had on them. The other thing
9 I would suggest is as to the most effective way to 10 Witherspoon the case in terms of voir dire as to who 11 would automatically give the death penalty as well as 12 to any voir dire that the State may wish to do on the 13 questioning of who could in any circumstances give 14 it, give the death penalty.

15 So this, we have questionnaires. We have 16 particular questions to ask particular jurors based 17 upon what they said in their questionnaires. So that 18 is, so for those reasons and for all the reasons
19 listed in this Motion which I had filed before the 20 Court, we would ask that there be individual
21 sequestered voir dire.

22 I might add to the Court that hundreds of 23 questions, questionnaires went out, I guess, in the 24 first trial.

25 BY THE COURT: They have in this trial.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Pardon?

27 BY THE COURT: They have been in this trial.

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, and in the first trial I
29 think you sent out questionnaires too; is that

1 correct?

2 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, and so what you have here
4 now, hundreds, plus hundreds because you have two
5 trials, times hundreds because for every person that 6 got a questionnaire, you need to multiply that by the 7 people they come into contact with and they share the 8 questionnaire with or they talk to about the case,
9 and jurors who have now served on this case or who 10 were prospectively sitting as part of the venire to 11 possibly serve on this case, they have relatives.
12 They have friends; they have people. So you have a 13 county which is pretty well saturated with 14 information and relationships to this case.

15 In order to adequately guard against that, we 16 think individual sequestered voir dire is the best
17 method. So that's why we are asking for it.

18 BY THE COURT: Any response?

19 BY MR. EVANS: Just that I don't think it's 20 necessary, Your Honor. We have-- both Counsel agreed 21 on a questionnaire to be sent out. That 22 questionnaire has been sent out. I don't know how 23 familiar Mr. Lumumba is with how voir dire is 24 normally proceeded with in this district, but it is 25 usually a very thorough voir dire. And I know - I
26 guess that he probably does not unless he has talked 27 with Mr. Gilmore, but the Court will usually allow 28 either side to go into specific questions if it's 29 necessary. I just don't feel it's necessary.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, just a brief rebuttal.
2 It hasn't, that doesn't deal with my concerns. I
3 have talked to Mr. Gilmore, and I really got more
4 concerns from the conversation rather than being
5 relieved of any concerns. But no matter how thorough
6 the voir dire, the question is of contamination.
7 That is always possible if you are talking to people
8 as a pool. It's very possible. We would like to 9 have a thorough voir dire on racial attitudes.
10 Racial attitudes are critical in this case. If we 11 are going to have a thorough voir dire on racial 12 attitudes, do we have to do it at the risk of 13 aggravating some racial attitudes that might exist or 14 aggravating some kind of animosity against us because 15 we have the nerve to raise in this country that 16 people might get convicted sometimes because of their 17 race. So, you know, is that something which we 18 should be, have to have a problem with in front of an 19 entire jury, or is that something we should be able 20 to approach people on individually.

21 Publicity. Say one person hadn't heard anything
22 about the case, or let's say somebody has heard
23 anything about the case, but they don't have a
24 negative opinion on it. See, we need to know not 25 just that they heard about something; we need to 26 know what their opinion was at the time and what
27 their opinion is now. And we might have some people
28 who are pretty persuasive about articulating their 29 opinion. We don't want to saturate and prejudice the

1 rest of the jury with pervasive presentations of 2 their opinion.

3 So I mean, you know, this-- and if the Counsel
4 has nothing more to say about it than what he just
5 said, then obviously he is really not opposed. I
6 would-- and if he says it is just not necessary and 7 we think it is necessary, then it seems to me nothing
8 is stopping the Court from doing it. The thing is,
9 is he shows no way where it is going to prejudice his 10 case, and what I suggest is that it could alleviate 11 prejudice in our case.

12 So we would ask that the Court do allow it. It
13 is allowed in many different places. I have never 14 been in this district before, but this is in the 15 State of Mississippi, and I have been in many of 16 those districts before, and they do do it. They have 17 done it in other parts of the country in federal 18 courts as well as in the state courts.

19 (Confers with Mr. Freelon briefly.)

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Did it in Pontotoc as a matter
21 of fact which is not far from here although a
22 distance from Montgomery County.

23 BY THE COURT: Okay, that Motion is overruled,
24 but I retain the right to change my mind if the facts
25 during the voir dire present a matter that provides 26 for individual sequestered voir dire.

27 All I have got left-- well, not all I have got left;
28 Motion to Bar Prosecution as a Result of Double
29 Jeopardy.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. The, you know, the
2 double jeopardy law basically bars as we indicated,
3 cited in our Fain v. Duff, 488 F.2d 218, Fifth 4 Circuit case. In another Fifth Circuit case, United 5 States v. Sneed, which is in accord with that 6 decision, Abney v. United States likewise, is that we 7 are inviting double jeopardy violations when we try
8 people twice for the same crime. The double
9 jeopardy, as I understand it, is when you are tried 10 for the exact set of facts either under separate
11 charges or the same charge multiple number of times.

12 My understanding, the only thing that
13 distinguishes these cases at this time is the fact
14 that tragically different people have died. Now, of 15 course, we must keep in mind as we make these 16 arguments that we don't cripple the Defendant in 17 terms of his rights one way or the other because 18 numerous people have died. The question of the trial
19 is whether or not the Defendant committed the crime,
20 and if that is not a question here, really we are 21 wasting our time. But I assume that it is a 22 question, a big question. In fact, we deny that he 23 committed any of them.

24 So I am real particular about violating his 25 rights by multiple prosecutions for the exact same
26 acts. So what we are saying to this Court is that 27 this case represents a violation of the double
28 jeopardy law. All four of those counts, in order not 29 to violate the double jeopardy law, had to be tried

1 at the same time. Here again, the District Attorney
2 in his approach to the case decided not to take that 3 approach.

4 So having failed to take that approach, what
5 they have done now at this time is put themselves in 6 a situation where they now don't have a right to try
7 any of the rest of them as far as I am concerned, but 8 certainly not the one that we are on.

9 Blockbuster is a case where they go to some 10 pains - it's a United States Supreme Court case -
11 where they go to some pains to describe the double
12 jeopardy law, and they point out that this thing
13 called transitional double jeopardy, transitional --
14 transitional means where everything is in the same
15 transition. The same transition means that when you
16 try any part of the acts for that transition, you
17 have to try all of them, or you waive your right to 18 try the others. And I think that that is clearly the 19 situation here.

20 So I would ask the Court to bar the prosecution
21 of this case based upon the double jeopardy clause in 22 both the Mississippi Constitution and the United 23 States Constitution.

24 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, in response, I think
25 the law is very clear in the State of Mississippi.
26 Simon is on point on this, Stringer v. State and 27 Wilcher v. State. And in Wilcher v. State, it
28 specifically says that, "In this case there are 29 actually two murder victims, the product of two

1           separate criminal actions by Wilcher. Even though
2           the same facts surround the murder of each victim,
3           there are undeniably two victims and two counts of 4           capital murder arising from Wilcher's actions.
5           Therefore the same elements test does not apply."
6           And in Simon there were numerous cases tried
7           separately. Every case that I have seen in the State
8           of Mississippi says that it is proper to try them
9           separately. It's a call that the district attorney
10          has to make whether to try them together or 11          separately, and in this case I elected to try them
12          separately, and the law supports that.

13               BY THE COURT: That Motion is overruled.

14               BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, this relates to this 15          Motion, and you also denied the Motion to Recuse, and 16          you denied the Motion, (Confers with Mr. Freelon)
17          Motion for a Speedy Trial. You denied all three of 18          those. As to all three of those, we are requesting,
19          I think you already denied it as to the Motion to 20          Recuse, but as to the other two, we are requesting 21          that you certify this for interlocutory appeal to the 22          Supreme Court.

23               BY THE COURT: Okay, you need to file a formal 24          written motion stating what you want in that, and 25          then I will make a ruling on it.

26               BY MR. LUMUMBA: All right. We would also be 27          filing a motion asking for a stay of trial pending
28          the resolution of those three motions.

29               BY THE COURT: Which you will get if I grant

1 the, if I certify it.

2 BY MR. JOHN GILMORE: Your Honor, I have a
3 motion. This case that y'all are here today for is 4 CR97-372. After conferring with the Defendant, he 5 has indicated to me in the presence of his current 6 Counsel in this case that he wishes for me to 7 withdraw, and I am making a motion to withdraw on the 8 other two cases, CR97-370 and 371, which are the two 9 remaining, the two remaining cases that I am and my 10 father is counsel of record. I am making a motion to 11 withdraw as representation on behalf of myself and my 12 father from the other cases.

13 BY THE COURT: Okay. You will need to do that 14 by formal motion.

15 BY MR. JOHN GILMORE: Yes, Your Honor.

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Let me--

17 BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, just for the record
18 on that motion, we would object for the reasons that 19 we have stated earlier, but more specifically for the 20 reason that Mr. Lumumba has told the Court is my 21 understanding a few minutes ago that he was not
22 announcing to the Court that they were representing 23 him on the other two causes.

24 BY THE COURT: Right, and that has got to be 25 resolved. He is either going to have to have, one of 26 y'all is going to have to represent him, or he is 27 going to have to proceed pro se, one or the other.
28 So y'all can resolve that. You have got time to file
29 your motions. When we get ready to have a hearing,

1 y'all can work all that out. That is between the
2 lawyers. Let's see; we have got to have--

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Judge, excuse me. I want to 4 represent I don't think it is just between the 5 lawyers. It is between the Defendant, the state, the 6 lawyers, the Court, and the Constitution.

7 BY THE COURT: Not until it's filed and there is 8 nothing filed in this case on that.

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, right. Well, that may be 10 but anyway--

11 BY THE COURT: Now. I'm going to go get a copy
12 of my calendar faxed to me and check this 22nd date
13 out, and then I think we have got a couple of other
14 matters to go. We will take a break.

15 (FOLLOWING AN AFTERNOON RECESS ON 1/5/98, MOTION
16 PROCEEDINGS CONTINUED WITH ALL COUNSEL PRESENT IN 17 OPEN COURT AS FOLLOWS:)

18 BY MR. EVANS: Judge, on the 22nd that you were 19 looking at, we have, and it looks like that one of 20 them is going to be a case that is definitely going.
21 We have got a case set for trial in Grenada. We have 22 got two cases, I think, set for trial in Webster.
23 They may or may not go, and we have also got a 24 recalled grand jury scheduled that day. So it would 25 be extremely hard to be at the motion hearing on the 26 22nd.

27 BY THE COURT: The two in Webster County don't 28 bother me. I will move them. The 20th is open in 29 Webster, so I can move them.

1 BY MR. EVANS: The 20th would be fine with us.

2 BY THE COURT: No, they have got a trial
3 conflict.

4 BY MR. EVANS: The 29th-- I mean not the 29th;
5 the 23rd we don't have anything if that is
6 available.

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: The 23rd, I have got-- Your
8 Honor, I said at the very beginning I have something
9 on that day already for trial.

10 BY MR. EVANS: How about the 13th?

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: When is that, tomorrow?

12 BY MR. EVANS: No.

13 BY THE COURT: I hope not.

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We have an arbitration hearing
15 on that day before the Court. Let me make a
16 suggestion here. Since we have these conflicts, can 17 we-- I would say schedule this for the 26th itself or 18 the 27th. This case is scheduled for that day, and 19 one of our motions that we will-- I would say
20 schedule it for the 26th or the 27th. Of course, you
21 know, our motion is, you know, to have the hearings
22 and we will be filing-- we thought we had already 23 filed, but we will be filing a motion to continue the 24 trial date also. But having that, with whatever, we 25 will be willing to argue it. I can argue it orally
26 right now if the Court wants me to, but certainly I
27 think it needs to be continued.

28 I am just looking at the jury questionnaire that 29 was sent out. As far as I can see, that

1           questionnaire is inadequate for this case. It was 2           adequate for the first case, but the reason it is
3           inadequate for this case it doesn't ask key
4           questions. Number one, Have you heard of the case?
5           This is a case that has been tried up here before.
6           Those are those kinds of things which need to be 7           asked so you can pre-screen, you know, come in 8           prepared to ask jurors questions.

9           But there is any number of things that need to 10          be done, and I would say I don't understand what, you
11          know-- if the client, there is a rush if the client
12          is saying that he doesn't, that he is going to demand 13          us to go to trial on the 26th or the 27th, but since 14          he has already complained about that date and he is 15          complaining about it quite frankly because he feels 16          that all of these cases should have been together,
17          and you violated his 270 day rights when you
18          separated them.

19          But other than that, he has no complaints about 20          the date as far as this upcoming trial is concerned,
21          whichever one it will be, and so I think we should do
22          it right, the 26th, 27th, 28th, rather than to rush
23          through it and put one in the position where they 24          will be retrying this case for twenty years. The 25          case I had in Pontotoc was a case just like that. I
26          tried the case twenty years after it had been decided 27          the first time in 1976. And I think that, you know, 28          we might create that same situation here if we are 29          not careful.

1 BY MR. EVANS: I have gotten lost again. I
2 thought all we were trying to do is pick a date to 3 the hear the motion.

4 BY THE COURT: By that time, Mr. Lumumba, you
5 will probably have a different guy sitting up here,
6 and you can get your motion sustained.

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, probably will take a
8 different, you know, I may not be around myself, but 9 those things happen.

10 BY THE COURT: I understand.

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: But the point is yeah, we are 12 talking about a date. That's why I said if people
13 pay very close attention to everything that is said,
14 and one thing--

15 BY MR. EVANS: --This is fixing to get out of 16 hand, Your Honor, real quick--

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --the 26th, the 27th is the day
18 that I'm recommending, and I don't know if anybody is 19 trying to intimidate anybody, talking about something
20 is getting out of hand, but certainly that don't work
21 here.

22 BY THE COURT: Well, I mean most everybody here
23 knows me, that that is not going to happen.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. That is good. That is 25 good.

26 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, before I was 27 interrupted, I was trying to offer some dates that 28 the State can be available. We can be available the 29 13th; we can be available the 14th; we can be

1           available the 15th; we can be available the 19th; we 2           can be available the 20th; we can be available the 3           21st; and we can be available the 23rd.

4           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Those are dates which don't 5           work for us. The dates, we have indicated those 6           dates that work for us. We went through this 7           calendar, and we thought we had a date for the 22nd,
8           but apparently that doesn't work. So those are dates
9           which do not work.

10          BY THE COURT: Okay, do you have cases set on 11          those days?

12          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes, Judge. I have on the 23rd
13          is a murder case, on the--

14          BY THE COURT: --I mean I just want-- you have 15          actual court cases set on those dates he just gave
16          you?

17          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, yeah, on the dates he 18          just gave us; that is true.

19          BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, out of accommodation
20          if the State, if the Court feels that these motions
21          need to be disposed of before the trial starts--

22          BY THE COURT: They have to be. I'm not going
23          to do it on the day of trial.

24          BY MR. EVANS: --then I won't be like opposing 25          counsel. I will be available the 22nd regardless of 26          the fact that I have court in three different
27          counties that day. But if I'm going to have to be 28          here at a time that I have got court set in three 29          places, I would like to see a calendar showing what

1 cases are set on the about eight different dates that 2 I offered.

3 BY THE COURT: I'm going to set them for the 4 22nd. Monday, I will move those other cases in 5 Webster County. I will move them back to Tuesday or 6 to some other date. And we will have this hearing in 7 Attala, and since we are going to be, 9 o'clock,
8 since we have got, we will have plenty to do.

9 BY MR. HORAN: Do you want the State to do the 10 writ, Your Honor?

11 BY THE COURT: Yes, I would appreciate it. Now
12 what I have set - correct me if I am wrong - we have 13 got set a motion concerning the experts, appointment
14 of experts.

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I'm sorry, Judge?

16 BY THE COURT: I want you to help me. I want
17 you to make sure we have got, we know what we are 18 going to do that day; okay?

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. I take it that we are 20 going to have a motion to, we are going to have our 21 proofs. We intend to endeavor to subpoena the two 22 jailhouse snitches for an evidentiary hearing on that 23 day. We will be, also we intend to give you
24 additional proofs on the change of venue on that 25 day.

26 BY THE COURT: Okay.

27 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, that motion will need
28 to be heard here.

29 BY THE COURT: Yeah, if you are going to offer

1 evidence, they have -- if the motion gets filed
2 properly, pursuant to statute--

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

4 BY THE COURT: --then that is going to create a
5 rebuttable presumption for them, and they have, they 6 are going to have to put on evidence to rebut that 7 presumption. So that of necessity, that motion has 8 to be heard here.

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, not necessarily. I mean
10 they can have people leave this jurisdiction.

11 BY THE COURT: Well, from this Court's
12 standpoint, it has got to be heard here.

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: All right, well, I just wanted
14 to make clear for the record for our point for the 15 record it doesn't have to be heard here.

16 BY THE COURT: I understand.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: But in any event, those are 18 motions which we intend to file. And whenever you
19 want to set them to be heard; now I have recommended
20 the 26th and 27th to hear them. We are going to file
21 a motion to continue the trial date. There is no
22 question about that. We thought we had already filed
23 one. One of the reasons, we are going to file a
24 motion to bar prosecution, I mean bar the 25 introduction of aggravating circumstances, whichever
26 are the ones that they claim that they are offering.
27 I still haven't seen them yet. But whatever they 28 are, we always do that, and we are going to do it
29 this time.

1           And let me see; is there anything else?   We
2           have, we will present -- I don't know if this 3           requires a hearing, but if it requires a hearing, we 4           are going to ask the Court for-- of course, the 5           expert issue, yeah, the Court wanted to hear the 6           expert issue, and we are asking to do it ex parte,
7           but the Court can make a decision on that. And the 8           other thing is the orders and motions that I
9           indicated that we would present which are related to 10          these motions that have already been decided, like
11          the Motion for a Certification for Interlocutory
12          Appeal, Motion to Stay the Proceedings. We will 13          present the Court with all of those. We can have,
14          and so those will be available to be heard on that 15          day.

16                Actually, to be honest with you, if the Court is 17          denying our motions which it already has, we would 18          ask for the Court to sign orders on those right away
19          because we want to get working on the interlocutory
20          appeal. Even if you deny to certify it, the Court
21          is, of course, aware that we can still ask the Court
22          to hear it. And if they decide to hear it, then they 23          can also grant a stay on their own accord.

24                So we would want as prompt a signing of an order
25          on that as possible. And as I understand it reading
26          the Beckwith case, any issue and double jeopardy is 27          definitely one of them, which in the denying of the 28          motion itself, if the going to trial itself would 29          suffer the kind of prejudice that the defendant was

1           trying to avoid by making the motion, then that
2           defendant is entitled to a hearing by the Supreme
3           Court. That is what Beckwith decided on the double
4           jeopardy issue; that's why they got a hearing on
5           that.

6           BY THE COURT: I think you may have some merit
7           in that on the question of double jeopardy. You need
8           to get-- I would appreciate it very much if you would 9           get your motion together asking me what you want me
10          to certify as quick to me as possible so that I can 11          be looking at that particular case and the law. I
12          may give you a ruling on that before the 22nd.

13          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

14          BY THE COURT: Okay? I mean I am going to be 15          dependent on you now to be prompt; okay?

16          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, yeah, Judge. I would 17          hate for the inference to be that we haven't been 18          prompt--

19          BY THE COURT: --Well, no, I didn't mean that to 20          infer that.

21          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. So we will get it, we 22          will get it to you right away.

23          BY MR. JOHN GILMORE: Your Honor, I also intend 24          on presenting my motion to withdraw on the other two 25          cases as well on that day.

26          BY THE COURT: Okay. Well, do y'all want to 27          meet at 7 o'clock? (Laughter).

28          BY MR. LUMUMBA: I'm sorry?

29          BY THE COURT: I said y'all want to meet at 7

1 o'clock; it looks like we are going to have plenty to
2 do.

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, let me just say here.
4 The other thing we are going to be making a motion
5 for an additional jury questionnaire going to some of 6 the issues I just raised. Those are the motions we 7 are aware of.

8 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, it is going to be in 9 this county since we are going to do the change of 10 venue part too; is that right?

11 BY THE COURT: If we are going to have to do
12 change of venue, we are going, it is of necessity got 13 to be here.

14 BY MR. EVANS: So it will be at 9 o'clock here?

15 BY MR. FREELON: Say 10:00, Judge, please.

16 BY THE COURT: Well, I can't do it at 10:00.
17 Y'all have got too much for me to do in one day. I
18 may have to come early too. I realize how far it
19 is. I appreciate that, but if you are going to have 20 an evidentiary hearing on the Motion for Change of 21 Venue, that might take most of the day.

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

23 BY THE COURT: I need for y'all to do something
24 else if you will. When you come on that day, since
25 you will have that motion for change of venue, you
26 should bring your personal docket with you -- I mean
27 your motion for continuance, so that I will have-- 28 if, in fact, that happens to be what the ruling is of 29 the Court, that I have available dates that we can

1 compare with available dates here or wherever this
2 case were to be tried. All right?

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Very good, Judge. That won't
4 be a problem.

5 BY THE COURT: Okay. Anything else for today?

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, let me just make this 7 clear for the record. And I think this is an 8 important thing to make. Now what we are actually
9 requesting - and I understand what we have just done
10 in terms of the 22nd. I basically told you the 22nd
11 was a day we were available, and that remains true.
12 However, the import of our motion or what we feel
13 that these motions should be set and heard at a date
14 more distant than the 22nd because we feel it would
15 give us more time to thoroughly explore the venue
16 issue and things of that nature and get affidavits.
17 We think that that is the process. Really, you can 18 do what you call it, polls and really in this kind of 19 situation is really what ought to be done, and that 20 would take about another 30 days.

21 So what we are really requesting is a date far
22 beyond the date which is set. Now if you are denying 23 that, then our alternative which we, you know, which 24 we told you we were available for the 22nd. We will 25 come on the 22nd. But just for the record our motion
26 is to have it at a distant date in either January, 27 late January, early February or in March. That's our 28 motion. That's what we are trying to do. We think 29 that this date is too early. But if the Judge is

1 denying that, then we have already shared with you
2 what our docket will allow.

3 BY THE COURT: Okay. See y'all the 22nd.

4 (The Court confers with the Court Reporter.)

5 BY THE COURT: Better hold on. I don't know if 6 I have got a courtroom for that.

7 (THE COURT LEFT THE COURTROOM AND THEN CALLED
8 COUNSEL INTO CHAMBERS. THERE WAS THEN THE FOLLOWING
9 FURTHER HEARING IN CHAMBERS WITH THE DEFENDANT
10 PRESENT AND WITH ALL COUNSEL PRESENT EXCEPT MR.
11 HORAN:)

12 BY THE COURT: Y'all are going to have a motion
13 for additional questionnaires? Is that one of them?

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes, additional questions,
15 yeah.

16 BY THE COURT: What would those questions be?

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: They are going to have to do 18 with an inquiry around whether or not the jurors have 19 heard of this case, whether they are related to, not 20 knowingly related to anybody who was called as a 21 juror in this case, either summonsed to appear in the 22 pool or whether they actually served. And those are 23 the two areas that stand out starkly in my mind. The 24 first time I saw the questionnaire that was sent out
25 in this case was today when John, I think the first
26 time he had a chance to give us any return
27 questionnaires was today. So when I saw that, those 28 things stand out in my mind. I don't think those 29 kinds of questions necessarily needed to have been

1           asked before the first trial, but they clearly need
2           to be asked before this trial as far as I am
3           concerned. And I'm not saying that is all the 4           additional ones. We are going to study it, but I
5           know those two things stand out in my mind.

6           BY MR. FREELON: They actually go to the change
7           of venue.

8           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, they could have an effect
9           on the change of venue itself, but certainly they 10          have an impact on these jurors in terms of what their 11          problems are.

12          BY MR. EVANS: It could definitely have an 13          impact on change of venue if they were allowed to 14          taint the jury panel by letting them know that this 15          case has been tried here before. I think any 16          questions about trial, whether it's the State
17          offering them or the Defense, would be improper.

18          BY MR. LUMUMBA: So you are going to say that 19          when we ultimately voir dire the jury, we can't ask
20          that question?

21          BY MR. EVANS: In our opinion--

22          BY THE COURT: --Well, here is--

23          BY MR. LUMUMBA: --That would be impossible.

24          (Knock on the door; Mr. Horan enters chambers.)

25          BY MR. EVANS: Questionnaires are not necessary
26          to start with. We agreed on one in this particular
27          case.

28          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, but Judge, one of the, as 29          the motions which go for a continuance, one of the

1 main issues - well, I don't know whether it's one of 2 the main - a main issue; I don't know if it's, where 3 it ranks, but attenuation of possible prejudice and 4 time for possible prejudice to attenuate. The man
5 has just been convicted and sentenced to death in 6 this county. There couldn't be anything more
7 prejudicial than that if you have jurors who know
8 about it. There is no way in the world you cannot 9 ask that question. You can't take a chance that the 10 jurors sitting out there are aware of this man's 11 being found guilty--

12 BY THE COURT: --Well, I may not be able to ask
13 it. He may not be able to ask it. You probably can.

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, but I understand you save
15 yourselves a whole lot of trouble by sending it out
16 on the questionnaire; and secondly, to find out in 17 advance what we are dealing with here. One of the 18 reasons why you continue cases so you can change the 19 venue, which I think needs to happen here, or you can 20 continue the case to attenuate the publicity. But we 21 have the worst of both worlds here. I mean we have 22 got huge panels that you are drawing. I mean I say
23 huge; probably huge relative towards what is normally 24 drawn in this county, okay, affecting a whole lot of 25 people. If it is anything like the case we tried in 26 Pontotoc, it is going to be a problem.

27 BY THE COURT: Well, of course, this is a lot
28 bigger county than Pontotoc.

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, that is true but it was

1           amazing what. (Pause) Your Honor, you know, the DA,
2           look; I am sitting here; I am being made to feel like
3           I am imposing on somebody. Here is a man sitting
4           here that has already got one death sentence this
5           year. He can't say well, look, I don't mind going
6           back to Montgomery County or changing the county or 7           continuing the case for a while to make sure this man
8           is not caught in the prejudice of the most recent 9           death penalty? I mean what is the problem here?

10           BY MR. EVANS: If he is going to make personal
11           comments--

12           BY THE COURT: --No, wait a minute, wait a 13           minute. Here is the Court's problem that I have got 14           right now. This case is set for the 26th; it's the 15           5th. The earliest we can hear these motions, whether 16           they have got any merit or not, the earliest we can 17           hear them is the 22nd. And I know I am beating my 18           head against the wall. Even though the Motion is not 19           filed, I'm going to have to give him a continuance.
20           I know that. I'm going to give it.

21           BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, if the Court is 22           considering giving a continuance, we would ask to 23           move that motion date.

24           BY THE COURT: We will. We won't-- what we will 25           do is I'm not going to sign any order until we can,
26           until you get your motion filed and I take note that 27           you have filed it. And then we are going to have a
28           -- what I'm going to do is I'm going to do just like
29           we did in the first case. I'm going to set motion

1           deadlines, and I'm going to set time for all
2           discovery to be through, and we are going to pick a
3           date, and that is the one we are going to try to, one
4           that will be agreeable to everybody. And when we get
5           there, that is it. That is the day we are trying it.

6           BY MR. LUMUMBA: I am a hundred percent with 7           that. You will find out that we work well under 8           those circumstances.

9           BY THE COURT: Okay, now the only problem I have 10          with some of that is he has got to be present every 11          time we do that, so we are going to have to sit down,
12          sit down together and set those deadlines. We are 13          not going to take a year to try this now, you
14          understand.

15          BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, sir.

16          BY MR. FREELON: We understand that.

17          BY THE COURT: Since I am going to do that, why
18          don't we sit down on the 26th of January and set
19          those things?

20          BY MR. LUMUMBA: All right.

21          BY THE COURT: And we can do that, no reason we 22          can't do that in Attala County, and we can do that at 23          10 o'clock. Now I think you have only asked for one
24          evidentiary hearing other than the change of venue.
25          When we get to that point, I'm going to have to do
26          that up here. So we are not going to do that on the 27          26th, but these other motions and all like that I
28          expect y'all to have your witnesses there to testify
29          that you want to testify.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: All right. We will do it.

2 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, would it be asking
3 too much that they give us a notice of hearing and 4 list the motions that they are actually going to 5 bring up on that day?

6 BY THE COURT: Yeah, since we are going to give
7 the continuance, y'all do that. The first thing I'm 8 going to hear that day is this question of 9 interlocutory appeal. That may make moot whatever I
10 have said here today.

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We will give them notice of 12 hearing on the motions, and we will be prepared, we 13 will file the motion for interlocutory-- well, for 14 you is a motion for certification.

15 BY THE COURT: Right.

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We will file it.

17 BY THE COURT: Okay. Let's work on that 18 schedule.

1 (COURT HAVING BEEN DULY OPENED IN KOSCIUSKO,
2 MISSISSIPPI, ON JANUARY 26, 1998, AT APPROXIMATELY 10:00 A.M., 3 MOTION PROCEEDINGS WERE HEARD IN CAUSE NUMBER CR97-372 IN THE 4 CIRCUIT COURT OF LEE COUNTY, MISSISSIPPI, WITH COUNSEL PRESENT
5 AS FOLLOWS: REPRESENTING THE STATE, HONORABLE DOUG EVANS AND 6 HONORABLE KEVIN HORAN; REPRESENTING THE DEFENDANT, HONORABLE
7 CHOKWE LUMUMBA AND WITH THE DEFENDANT ALSO PRESENT.
8 PROCEEDINGS WERE AS FOLLOWS, TO-WIT:)

9 BY THE COURT: Mr. Lumumba, what have you got 10 first?

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, Judge, I wanted to first, 12 I would like to deal with an issue which I think is 13 still somewhat unresolved. I think I know which way
14 the Court was leaning, but the Motion to Dismiss for 15 Violation of Defendant's Speedy Trial Rights under 16 the Mississippi Law. In looking at the motion we 17 filed and argued before the Court the last time,
18 actually -- and the Court correctly directed its 19 order to the Motion that we wrote, okay, and that was 20 a motion under the speedy trial rights under the 21 United States Constitution. In fact, it listed the 22 constitutional provisions, and it argued the 23 constitutional law. Mississippi law is the law where 24 we have the 270 day rule. The United States
25 government or United States federal law, Federal 26 Constitution doesn't have a particular rule.

27 So I have specifically directed a motion to 28 that, okay. Actually, you know, I did make comments
29 in reference to the situation the last time I was

1           here. But this specific motion is going to that, and 2           so what, so my motion therefore is under the 3           Mississippi Constitution, Mississippi Statute, which
4           is 99-17-1, that this case should be dismissed. I
5           feel that the Defendant's speedy trial rights have 6           been violated.

7           I cited for the Court in my motion a case called
8           Herring v. State, which is located 691 So.2d 948.
9           It's a 1997 case actually. I didn't realize it was 10          that recent, but the Herring v. State case
11          essentially says that it's-- where the Defendant does
12          not have to call upon the State or the Court to try
13          him. The Defendant has no obligation to bring 14          himself to trial. No prejudice need be shown under 15          the violation of the statute in order for the case to 16          be dismissed. The Defendant doesn't have to show any 17          prejudice other than the fact that you went beyond
18          270 days.

19          What is required and it's the burden; they make 20          it very clear that the burden is on the State to 21          demonstrate that somehow the Defendant contributed to 22          the delay, or if the Defendant didn't contribute to 23          the delay, the delay was for good cause, which allows
24          the State therefore to take advantage of the good
25          cause delay. So it's like a good cause delay, and 26          there is a defense caused delay.

27          In this case the Defense has caused no delays up
28          until the 26th of January. We did ask for a 29          continuance from the 26th of January. So all the

1 time that goes up to the 26th of January will be a
2 credit to us. We, the Defense, never argued a motion
3 to continue the trial prior to January the 5th; I
4 think that was when we were here the last time or 5 when we were in Lee County. Okay, and that was 6 already beyond the 270 day limit.

7 The 270 day limit began to run on March the 8 25th, so it exhausted in December, right. This case
9 could have been tried conceivably any time prior to 10 December, and it would have met the 270 day rule. I
11 think, I did read the Court's order carefully, and I
12 appreciate the Court laying out its recollection of 13 the events which led up to the present trial date,
14 or up to the 26th trial date in any event.

15 One thing that would be important to point out
16 to the Court is that the Court does not in its order
17 which it gave us on the federal statute, does not
18 speak to the issue of the prosecution's deliberate
19 indictment of this case in four separate
20 indictments. In fact, the cases discuss that. The 21 cases point out that the, that the statutes now
22 permit the prosecution, the State to place all of 23 these counts in one indictment. Okay, so when the 24 prosecution makes a deliberate choice for whatever
25 strategical or tactical purposes they might choose to 26 try the case in four separate trials, when they don't 27 seek an indictment in front of the Grand Jury -- now
28 it's their burden if they did seek an indictment and 29 the Grand Jury turned them down for a joint

1           indictment, then that is their burden to show us some
2           transcript which convinces the Court of that,
3           convinces me of that, or at least gives me some
4           notice so I can argue it.

5           But when they made that choice, they, they were 6           at that time participating in a strategical and a
7           tactical move which inevitably was going to cause a
8           violation of the statute and the Defendant's speedy 9           trial rights under the Mississippi statute. They 10          don't have that luxury. If they want to make 11          tactical moves, that is fine. But if they are going
12          to make tactical moves, they have to make these moves
13          within the context of the limits that the statute
14          prescribes.

15          The other thing about the Motion which was made
16          by prior, predecessor counsel to change of venue,
17          there is no indication in the record whatsoever that 18          that Motion in any way caused any delay period. The 19          first trial date which was set for this case was set 20          well within the limits of the 270 day rule. If the 21          State would have chosen to try the trials
22          collectively, then they would have had an opportunity
23          to try all the cases within the 270 day rule because 24          they could have tried them all together. So that in 25          no way prejudiced the case, ability to try these 26          cases within the 270 days.

27          Moreover, moreover, as far as this case which is 28          the second case, it still, you know, as far as the 29          record shows, it still could have been tried

1 immediately after the last trial. It could have been
2 tried in November, or it could have been tried in 3 December. I mean and those things would have been 4 within the rule.

5 Now, and the cases make it clear if the record
6 is silent, then it speaks for the Defendant. Until 7 the record or if the DA anticipated, saw some 8 problems with the Motion for Change of Venue, if that 9 in some way prejudiced anything or caused any delay,
10 then it was at that time that that should have been 11 put on the record. But there is no indication
12 looking at this record that there was any trial
13 contemplated prior to the time it was actually set,
14 which was set on October the 13th in this particular
15 case.

16 So I think, Judge, that, and let me point this
17 out. In this case we even, we have the situation
18 which I think is different from the case that the 19 Court talks about that I think Judge, the colleague
20 Judge or colleague Your Honor in this particular 21 circuit or in your circuit, dealt with, and that was 22 a case where he combined two cases. I would like,
23 you know, I would like to have a little more
24 information on that case. You know, of course, I
25 haven't read it, but I would venture to say, having 26 read the law fairly extensively on this question, he 27 was either confronted with a situation where he made
28 a consolidation over the objection of somebody or 29 over the objection specifically of the defendant, or

1           he was confronted with a situation whereby he was
2           dealing with cases which did not have the same cortex
3           or same transaction effects.

4           But in this situation where the robbery is 5           identical, there certainly is no injunction from the 6           Supreme Court or the Court of Appeals as far as this
7           Court consolidating these cases. The motion was made
8           to consolidate the cases, and the motion was denied
9           by the Court. The cases-- and more importantly, or 10          at least as important as the fact that the Court
11          denied the motion was the fact that the District
12          Attorney opposed the motion. See, their obligation
13          is to get the Defendant to trial. The Defendant is 14          making efforts-- when the Defendant moves to 15          consolidate, that is tantamount to a demand for 16          speedy trial on the three cases which are pending
17          other than the one case which is already set for 18          trial. That is tantamount to a demand for speedy
19          trial right there.

20          When the District Attorney opposes that motion
21          -- and if he didn't oppose the motions, then it
22          would create no problems for the Court to consolidate
23          the cases -- then, in fact, he is making a statement
24          which puts him into jeopardy as far as the 270 day
25          rule is concerned. And plus, the 270 day rule, I
26          guess, runs not only against the District Attorney;
27          it, in fact, runs against the Court if the Court does
28          not bring the case speedily to trial.

29                 (NOTE: Mr. John Gilmore and Mr. Billy Gilmore

1 enter the courtroom.)

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: It runs for the Defendant
3 period against whoever may be the party of interest
4 other than the Defendant. So those are the points
5 that I would like to make in this case, and then my 6 next-- I will rest here on those arguments which are 7 well laid out, not only in our Motion to Dismiss for 8 Violation of the Defendant's Rights under MCA
9 99-17-1, but I would also say that these arguments
10 are laid out in my Motion for Certification of the 11 Issue to the Supreme Court, the Court's denial of my 12 double jeopardy challenge as well as my speedy trial
13 challenge.

14 And let me say this: If there is any questions,
15 and I think that we have a pretty good transcript
16 here about what actually happened that related to the 17 speedy trial issue that we are raising, but if there
18 is any question about it, we certainly have two 19 gentlemen here who I would be more than willing to 20 put on the stand as an offer of proof to prove 21 everything I have said about the way that these 22 circumstances transpired as far as the filing for 23 Motion to Consolidate the cases, etc. which I think
24 would make the record perfectly clear.

25 In fact, I will ask the Court for the 26 opportunity to do so. If the Court feels it doesn't 27 need it because there is no real contention about the 28 facts, then I could see the Court denying that 29 opportunity.

1                   BY THE COURT: Excuse me one minute. Is that 2 transcript that you have there, is that the one from 3 the last hearing we had?

4                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes, sir. Okay, the other
5 thing I should point out, Judge, is this: that there
6 was a motion made by the, uh, motion made by the 7 Defense for a speedy trial in this case. Now it's 8 unclear to me because it's unclear to me at what 9 point the case was consolidated and when it wasn't
10 consolidated. Okay, I mean I don't know that yet. I
11 mean that could be established by further testimony.
12 But I believe that Motion for Speedy Trial went to 13 all four cases, but there is a Motion for Speedy
14 Trial which I find in our records, and I haven't had 15 a chance to get up to Tupelo--

16                   BY THE COURT: --It is. It's in all cases.

17                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: It's in all cases.

18                   BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

19                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, he made a Motion for 20 Speedy Trial. So, you know, given that reality, I
21 cannot see how we can look beyond this lapse of 22 time. We certainly can't just create reasons to 23 deprive the Defendant of his rights. This is, and 24 let me say and this is kind of like presaging my 25 presentation on the Motion for Certification. This 26 certainly, if nothing else, this is an issue which 27 needs to be decided or discussed by the appellate
28 courts because certainly, certainly, this is a case,
29 if anything, it would be a case of first impression

1           if we are not entitled to our rights. There is no
2           way that I can read the law to say that a DA can make
3           a tactical decision thereby creating a situation
4           which almost automatically means that this
5           Defendant's speedy trial rights are going to be 6           violated as it relates to three cases.

7           And certainly, you know, and so I can't, I don't 8           see any other way to look at it. You know, you have 9           the Defense never opposing the Motion to Consolidate
10          that the prosecution made, offering to consolidate
11          it, moving to consolidate on another occasion, and 12          finally, actually moving for a speedy trial in all
13          four cases. The Defense could have done no more.

14          BY THE COURT: Mr. Lumumba, would you like to 15          put the Gilmores on for the record?

16          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes, sir. Excuse me one
17          second. Can I have a second?

18          BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

19          (Mr. Lumumba and both Mr. Gilmores leave the 20          courtroom, and upon their return, there was the 21          following:)

22          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, yes, I would like to put 23          on Mr. John Gilmore.

24          BY THE COURT: All right.

25                   JOHN M. GILMORE,
26          upon being called to testify as a witness on Defendant's Motion
27          to Dismiss for Violation of Speedy Trial Rights, having first 28          been sworn by the Court, testified as follows, to-wit:

29          BY THE COURT: Mr. Gilmore, have a seat up

1                   here.

2     DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

3           Q.     Sir, could you state your name for the record,
4     please?

5           A.     Yes.   My name is John M. Gilmore.   G I L M O R E.

6           Q.     Okay, how are you employed?

7           A.     I am an attorney.

8           Q.     Okay, and are you an attorney who has previously been 9     associated in this case with the Defendant who sits next to me,
10    Curtis Flowers?

11          A.     Yes.

12          Q.     And if you could, Attorney Gilmore, the purpose of 13    this hearing is to address the issue of speedy trial and 14    various different filings of indictments and motions for speedy
15    trial and things of that nature.   Would you have been in a 16    position to be familiar with the pleadings which were filed in 17    your, in this client's behalf, Curtis Flowers, up until the 18    early part of January of 1996-- 1998, excuse me?

19          A.     Yes.   I was the one who prepared most, if not all, of 20    the motions before you took over the case.

21          Q.     Okay, were you in a position to be familiar with the 22    hearings which occurred relative to this case prior to your 23    time of not being associated as counsel in this case?

24          A.     Yes, sir.   I have been present at all hearings.

25          Q.     Okay, and--

26                   BY MR. EVANS:   Your Honor, I object.   I would 27                   like to state an objection into the record at this 28                   point if I may.

29                   BY THE COURT:   All right.

1 BY MR. EVANS: I would like for it to be clear
2 at this point that this witness is still representing
3 the Defendant on two of these cause numbers. He has 4 not been relieved. I would just like for the record
5 to be clear on that.

6 BY THE COURT: Okay. Go ahead.

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

8 Q. Is it also true that you actually were in a position
9 to be familiar with and aware of all the motions which were 10 filed by the parties opposite of the Defendant, by the State
11 itself?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Okay, could you tell me, please, how this case first
14 came before the bar as it related to the charges? Were there
15 one indictment, multiple indictments, or what? Could you
16 explain?

17 A. There were four separate indictments.

18 Q. Okay, and were the indictments, were the crimes
19 charged from different periods of time, different days,
20 different transactions, or could you explain that?

21 A. All four indictments were, all the indictments were 22 the same day, from the same transaction or occurrence. The 23 only difference in the indictments were the different victims.

24 Q. Okay. Did anything happen subsequent to the 25 indictment with regards to any motions for consolidation of the 26 indictments?

27 A. On one occasion the DA talked with me about 28 consolidating this case with the one that has already been 29 tried, which would be Bertha Tardy's case, and this one being

1 Derrick Stewart's case.

2 Q. Now this case just for the record would be 97-372 as
3 far as the Lee County designation is concerned?

4 A. That's correct.

5 Q. Okay. And the case that has been tried, that would 6 be have 97-369?

7 A. That's correct.

8 Q. Okay. Did you at any point in time oppose any motion
9 to consolidate these cases?

10 A. I believe I entered into the record that I was not
11 agreeing to it, but I would not oppose it.

12 Q. Okay, and what-- did the DA make a motion to 13 consolidate those cases?

14 A. The DA made an ore tenus motion here in this 15 courtroom, I believe, to consolidate the two cases.

16 Q. Okay. Now did you do anything or was your father
17 associated with you or working with you, co-counsel in this
18 case?

19 A. Yes, he was.

20 Q. Did either of the attorneys for Mr. Flowers make any 21 motions that had anything to do with his speedy trial rights?

22 A. In our first set of motions, we entered a Motion for 23 Speedy Trial in all four cases.

24 Q. Which included this one?

25 A. That's correct.

26 Q. Okay. Now, sir, could you tell me, please, if, what 27 happened with the prosecution's or the State's motion for 28 consolidation?

29 A. In the State's motion for consolidation, they

1 presented it to the Court, as I said, here in this courtroom,
2 which is Attala County. The Judge said that he would grant the 3 motion, and it was my assumption that he did, in fact, orally
4 grant the motion, but the DA was to prepare an order to send to 5 him to sign. Then we had a hearing in Grenada County, I
6 believe. The prosecution entered an order or a motion
7 withdrawing their consolidation.

8 Q. Okay. Can you do the best you can, if you can, about 9 what-- and if you don't know, tell us that, about what period
10 of time these events occurred, and at least share with us the 11 sequence. You have talked to us about a motion for 12 consolidation. You have talked to us about granting it and 13 denying it, and you have also talked about yourself making a 14 motion for a speedy trial. Can you put these things in 15 sequence?

16 A. I would have to consult my calendar for the exact
17 dates, but I know the Motion for Speedy Trial was done with the 18 first set of motions. Later the prosecution entered its motion
19 orally to consolidate the two cases. I am thinking it's the 20 following week we met in Grenada County, and that's when they
21 rescinded their motion to consolidate. I immediately filed a 22 Motion to Consolidate all four cases after that was, they 23 rescinded their motion.

24 Q. Okay, and what was, what happened with that motion?

25 A. The Motion to Consolidate all four that I presented,
26 the Judge denied that Motion.

27 Q. Okay. Was there a trial date set for, for any of the 28 cases that were you handling?

29 A. Yes, all four cases were set for October 13th.

1 Q. And did any trial occur on that day?

2 A. Yes, the CR97-369 which was where Bertha Tardy was 3 the victim.

4 Q. Okay. Did anyone-- at any point in time did you
5 request a continuance for any of the trials?

6 A. No, I did not.

7 Q. At any point in time did your father request a
8 continuance for any of the trials?

9 A. No, sir.

10 Q. At any point in time did the Defendant in any way
11 request before the Court or in a motion or any kind of 12 presentation a continuance of the trial?

13 A. No.

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have no further questions.

15 BY THE COURT: Mr. Evans.

16 CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. EVANS:

17 Q. Mr. Gilmore, I believe you filed a Motion for Change
18 of Venue in this cause; is that correct?

19 A. That is correct.

20 Q. And I believe when we met with the Judge in Winona,
21 you and your father told the Judge that it was no way that 22 y'all were ready to go to trial, and at that point we entered 23 into a meeting where we, the Judge set a schedule of when 24 discovery would be available and when the case would go to 25 trial; is that correct?

26 A. That is correct.

27 Q. And that was by agreement of the parties for both 28 sides?

29 A. The discovery schedule was on agreement, yes.

1           Q.    Both parties agreed on the trial date the Judge said
2 he could have the courthouse available in Lee County, was it
3 not?

4           A.    I'm not sure if that was the date or a subsequent 5 date, but he said that, he is the one that set the date for
6 trial.

7           Q.    But the parties, Defense Counsel and the prosecution
8 agreed to that date, did they not?

9           A.    Yes.

10          Q.    And all four cases were set on that date?

11          A.    That is correct.

12          Q.    That was the first date, I believe, that the Court
13 could get the courthouse in Lee County where the case had been 14 transferred to?

15          A.    That's what the Judge indicated. I'm not aware of 16 any scheduling that the Judge or that Lee County had.

17          Q.    Defense at that point or at some point after that 18 asked for an election wanting to know which case the State
19 would call up first; is that right?

20          A.    That's correct.

21          Q.    And the State gave that notice of election as to 22 Bertha Tardy's case being called up first?

23          A.    That is correct.

24          Q.    We tried Bertha Tardy's case on the first date that 25 it was available to set it; is that right?

26          A.    We tried it when the Court said to try it.

27          Q.    And that was when the Court said the first date the 28 courthouse was available; is that right?

29          A.    That's what the Court said, yes.

1 Q. Once that case was tried, the Court entered an order
2 continuing the other causes for good cause at that point
3 because it could not try all of them at that same time; is that
4 right?

5 A. That is in the record, yes.

6 Q. And at this point the State has been prepared and 7 ready to go to trial at all times since indictment, has it not?

8 A. I couldn't testify to whether or not the State was 9 ready.

10 Q. The State has never asked for a continuance or a
11 postponement of any sort, has it?

12 A. I believe that the, Mr. Horan did prepare a motion
13 for continuance after the last trial.

14 Q. For good cause?

15 A. For good cause.

16 Q. Okay, but up until that point, the State had asked
17 for nothing, and that was only because there was no time
18 available to try the other cases; is that right?

19 A. As far as I know.

20 Q. And the next time that the courthouse was available
21 that we could try the next case in order was today; is that
22 right?

23 A. That is what the Court indicated. I have no actual 24 knowledge of their scheduling.

25 Q. And now that new counsel was hired in this case, they 26 asked for a continuance past this date; is that right?

27 A. I believe that they were to file that motion, yes.

28 Q. And you are still attorney of record in two causes;
29 is that right?

1           A.    At this point, yes.

2           Q.    And you have not filed a motion for continuance in 3 those two causes; is that right?

4           A.    I have one prepared for hearing today.

5           Q.    Well, are you saying that you are or are not ready to 6 go to trial on the other two causes?

7           A.    When the-- in October we were ready to go forward
8 with all four cases.

9           Q.    So y'all would be ready at this point to go forward
10 on the other two; is that right?

11          A.    At this point, no. When it became to my knowledge
12 that Mr. Flowers or his family had hired opposing counsel-- I
13 mean other counsel, I did not know at what vantage point I
14 stood with Mr. Flowers, and I ceased to file any and all
15 motions until such time as I knew where I stood with Mr.
16 Flowers.

17          Q.    Well, you understand where you stand with the Court,
18 do you not?

19          A.    Yes.

20          Q.    The Court has said that you represent him on those 21 other two causes at this point?

22          A.    That's correct.

23          Q.    And the State is ready to go to trial. What I'm 24 interested in is the Defense saying at this point that they do
25 not anticipate filing a motion for continuance because if they 26 are not, we are going to need a trial date in that cause?

27                BY THE COURT: He just said that he has one to 28 file to be heard today.

29                BY MR. EVANS: Oh, okay, to be heard today.

1                   BY THE COURT: Was that right, Mr. Gilmore?

2                   BY THE WITNESS: Yes.

3                   BY MR. EVANS: Okay, I missed that part. Thank
4                   you, Your Honor.

5                   BY THE WITNESS:

6                   A. We also have a Motion to Withdraw as Counsel in those 7                   other two motions-- I mean in those other two trials.

8                   Q. But you will agree, will you not, that at the time
9                   that this case, that when we did the discovery and the trial 10                  date, the scheduling order that was set up, that you and your 11                  father both told the Court that y'all were not prepared to go 12                  to trial at that time, and you needed further time to prepare?

13                  A. I believe the time that that was done all of the 14                  discovery had not been completed. We had had, not had any time
15                  to investigate, talk with the witnesses. As a matter of fact,
16                  I believe the, several of your witnesses were, came forward 17                  closer to the trial, and y'all supplemented them. I mean at 18                  the time that the trial was set, discovery was still going on.
19                  I believe the motion deadline was not even up at the time, at 20                  that time.

21                  Q. All right, let me ask you like this, and see if this 22                  will refresh your memory. Is it not true that before the Judge 23                  ever met with us, we had already furnished you discovery in 24                  this case?

25                  A. Not complete discovery, no.

26                  Q. We had furnished you discovery in this case, had we 27                  not?

28                  A. Before you met, we met with the Judge?

29                  Q. Yes.

1           A.    I can't recall.

2           Q.    And I believe it's in the record you telling the 3 Court that we had already given discovery in this--

4           A.    I remember at one hearing I testified to that, but I
5 can't testify whether it was the first day we met or not.

6           Q.    And it was at that hearing that you told the Court
7 that y'all could not be prepared to go to trial, that we had
8 furnished you close to 100 names in discovery, and that y'all
9 had to have plenty of time to talk to these witnesses?

10          A.    As I said, I do not recall which time that was said,
11 but I am sure I said something similar to that.

12          Q.    But the main--

13                BY THE COURT:  --We have covered a lot of this 14 ground now, and I'm letting y'all do this and put 15 this on so there will be a complete record before the 16 Supreme Court.  But the Court is pretty well aware 17 itself of the facts, so I don't need to hear them but 18 once.  So let's move along.

19                BY MR. EVANS:  Yes, sir.  I just want to make 20 sure that it's clear what the answer is because it is 21 kind of vague on this question.

22                BY THE COURT:  Well, it's not vague to me, so
23 let's move on.

24                BY MR. EVANS:  Well--

25                BY THE COURT:  It's in the record.  It's in the 26 record about three or four times.

27                BY MR. EVANS:  All right.  Well, I have no
28 further questions of this witness then.

29                BY MR. LUMUMBA:  I just have a couple of

1 questions.

2 REDIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

3 Q. When the conference took place where you set up a
4 discovery schedule and a calendar for the case, when was that?

5 A. It was before June of '97. I can't recall the exact
6 dates.

7 Q. Now this case, the indictments occurred in March of 8 19--uh, in March of 1997?

9 A. That's correct.

10 Q. The Court's order, which is a matter of record,
11 indicates that the calendar was set up, I think, in April or 12 sometime before April the 28th of 19-- just a minute. Let me
13 take a close look at the Court's order. I am trying to see if 14 this jogs your memory at all. (Pause)
15 While I'm looking for that, let's go to a slightly different
16 matter. Were you prepared to try this case and all the other
17 cases in October of 1997?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Were you prepared to try this case in November of 20 1997?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Any time prior to the time when you became aware that 23 your client had hired additional counsel, had you ever
24 expressed any kind of reservations about trying this case?

25 A. No.

26 Q. Okay, in fact, prior to June the 5th of 1997, when we 27 met and had a hearing in Lee County, at any time prior to that, 28 had you been unprepared to try this case?

29 A. What date did you?

1 Q. --January 5th, 1998, I'm sorry. January 5, 1998.
2 Recall when we met in Lee County?

3 A. In December when -- I can't remember the exact date
4 when I became aware that you were, had been associated-- I had 5 several motions prepared. I did not file them when I became 6 aware that you had been hired. I did not know where I stood
7 with Mr. Flowers.

8 Q. Okay, so it wasn't a question of you being like
9 unprepared and that you couldn't handle the facts of the case.
10 It was a question that you were uncertain of what your role
11 would be in the representation scheme; is that correct?

12 A. That's correct.

13 Q. Okay. Okay, the Court's order which was issued - it
14 says was issued on the 8th day of January of 1998 - indicates
15 that the venue for the cases was changed on April the 28th,
16 1997. And it says that the Court also set by agreements of the 17 party trial dates for October the 13th of 1997. Would that-- 18 first of all, did the Court set a trial date for about October
19 of 1997 at that time?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Did you ask for October of 1997?

22 A. No.

23 Q. Did you object to October of 1997?

24 A. No.

25 Q. Did you, had you already made your motion for a
26 speedy trial?

27 A. Yes.

28 Q. Was it clear to everyone who could read the records
29 that you had made that motion?

1           A.    Yes.

2           Q.    Are you aware of the law which says the Defendant
3 does not have to set its own--

4                   BY MR. HORAN:  --Your Honor, are we going to-- I
5 object to--

6                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  --First of all--

7                   BY MR. HORAN:  --whether or not--

8                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  --First of all, how many--

9                   BY THE COURT:  --Wait a minute.  Let him state
10 his objection and his grounds.

11                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  Okay.

12                   BY MR. HORAN:  He is asking about legal 13 arguments--

14                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  --Okay, excuse me--

15                   BY MR. HORAN:  --rehashing--

16                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  --Excuse me.  One of my 17 objections is, is that I think if we have--

18                   BY MR. EVANS:  --Your Honor--

19                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  --Excuse me--

20                   BY MR. EVANS:  --May I be heard?

21                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  Excuse me; excuse me--

22                   BY MR. EVANS:  --I thought we had it clear that 23 when we have objections, we are going to be allowed
24 to--

25                   BY THE COURT:  --Listen, gentlemen.  Both of 26 y'all be quiet.

27                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  Okay.

28                   BY THE COURT:  You are going to speak one at a 29 time.  This lady has to take this down.  I have to

1           hear you.

2           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

3           BY THE COURT: When he has got an objection, let 4           him state his objection and give the grounds. Then
5           I'm going to let you respond to it.

6           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. Yeah, and I appreciate
7           that Judge, but my objection was, is that they are 8           only supposed to have one lawyer handling one client,
9           one witness at a time. So that means that when one
10          of them is talking, the other one should, you know,
11          not participate. That is what I would ask to occur.

12          BY THE COURT: Okay. There should be one lawyer
13          participating at one time. But y'all don't interrupt
14          each other, and you make your statements to the 15          Court, your arguments to the Court. Now Mr. Horan, 16          what was your objection?

17          BY MR. HORAN: My objection is, Your Honor,
18          that--

19          BY THE COURT: --Although I just violated what I
20          said, but I'm going to let you do it this time--

21          BY MR. HORAN: --he is asking him whether or not 22          he is familiar, right. He is asking him if he is 23          familiar with some case law. Is he going, is he 24          testifying or is he not testifying? He is asking
25          about orders that are in the record that the Court is 26          familiar with that the Court can take judicial notice
27          of. He doesn't need to ask him about these 28          particular things. They are a matter of record.
29          It's just wasting the Court's time.

1                   BY THE COURT: The things that are in the record
2                   I am aware of. Let's move on to things that might 3                   enlighten me on something I don't know.

4           BY MR. LUMUMBA:

5           Q.    Okay. Okay, well, I think what is important is that 6           you at no point offered the 13th as the date; is that correct?

7           A.    No.

8           Q.    Would you have been willing and able to go to trial
9           on those cases or on any of the cases prior to October the 13th
10           if you would have been given the opportunity?

11           A.    We would have been ready when the Judge, when the 12           Court set the date for trial.

13           Q.    Okay, so you never said that you would not be ready 14           on the trial date. You have never made that statement?

15           A.    Right.

16                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. I have no further
17           questions of this witness.

18                   BY THE COURT: Okay. Is that all your
19           argument?

20           BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, I'm--

21                   BY THE COURT: --I realize you may have some 22           rebuttal to what he says, but is that all your 23           initial argument?

24           BY MR. LUMUMBA: No. I have one more witness
25           I'm going to call.

26                   BY THE COURT: Oh, I'm sorry. Mr. Gilmore, have 27           a seat over here. Who do you have next?

28                                   WITNESS STEPS DOWN.

29           BY MR. LUMUMBA: I'm going to call as a witness

1 Doug Evans.

2 BY THE COURT: All right, Mr. Evans, come around
3 and be sworn.

4 DOUG EVANS,
5 upon being called to testify as a witness on Defendant's Motion
6 to Dismiss for Violation of Speedy Trial Rights, having first
7 been duly sworn, testified as follows, to-wit:

8 DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

9 Q. Witness, you are the District Attorney of Lee County;
10 is that correct?

11 A. No--

12 Q. --not Lee County, but District Attorney of Montgomery
13 County; is that correct?

14 A. Yes, I am.

15 Q. Okay. At some point did you seek an indictment in 16 the case which is currently called State of Mississippi versus 17 Curtis Flowers?

18 A. Yes, I did.

19 Q. And when you sought the indictment against Mr.
20 Flowers, did you make a presentation to the Grand Jury at that
21 time?

22 A. Yes, I did.

23 Q. Did at any point in time before that Grand Jury, did
24 you seek to have, did you ask the Grand Jurors to indict Mr.
25 Flowers in a single--

26 BY MR. HORAN: --Your Honor, I'm going to object
27 to that. That is absolutely no, has no relevance as 28 to whether or not--

29 BY THE COURT: --The fact that it was done is

1                   sufficient. Why he did it is not relevant.

2                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, no, I'm just asking if he 3                   ever asked to have him indicted in a single 4                   indictment.

5 BY THE WITNESS:

6                   A. The indictment was presented to the Grand Jury, and 7                   the Grand Jury returned four separate indictments.

8                   Q. All right, did you ever ask the Grand Jury to indict
9                   in a single indictment? That's my question.

10                  A. What happened in the Grand Jury is secret.

11                  Q. Excuse me; that is not my question. You can always 12                  explain once you answer the question.

13                  BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, I have already voiced
14                  an objection to this line of questioning.

15                  BY THE COURT: I'm going to sustain the 16                  objection. Let's move along.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

18                  Q. Did you oppose the Defense's Motion to Consolidate 19                  all cases into one indictment?

20                  A. Not only did I not oppose it, at one time I filed a 21                  motion to consolidate two of the cases. Now in response to 22                  that, after researching the law, it was obvious that the law in 23                  Mississippi was that cases cannot be consolidated once they are 24                  indicted.

25                  Q. Okay.

26                  A. And since the state law said that they could not be,
27                  it would have been a violation of my duty of office if I had 28                  tried to consolidate cases with the idea that the Supreme Court
29                  would later reverse them. So because of that fact, we had to

1 bring to the Court's attention that the state law was that the 2 cases could not be consolidated in Mississippi.

3 Q. Okay. And so is the state law that you could not
4 have included these cases in a single indictment?

5 A. No. That is the prosecutor's discretion in the State
6 of Mississippi.

7 Q. Okay. And it was your discretion in this case?

8 A. That's exactly right.

9 Q. Okay. Now secondly, did you-- what case was it that 10 convinced you that it was the state law that the Judge couldn't 11 consolidate cases?

12 BY MR. HORAN: Judge, we are going to be here
13 all day like this.

14 BY THE COURT: That is sustained.

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

16 Q. Okay. Did you find any case where one defendant was 17 involved with a single--

18 BY MR. HORAN: --Your Honor.

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Excuse me; when I get 20 finished--

21 BY MR. HORAN: --I'm objecting. I'm objecting to 22 the question--

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: -- I--excuse me--

24 BY THE COURT: --Let him make his question-- not 25 until he asks the question, you can't object. Let 26 him ask his question.

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

28 Q. Okay. Did you find any case in Mississippi law where 29 one defendant was accused in a single transaction of committing

1 crimes which would have constituted several different counts,
2 the same crime of murder where one defendant -- I'm not talking
3 about two defendants, where the Court ruled that the 4 indictments could not be consolidated for that one defendant?

5 BY MR. HORAN: Objection, Your Honor.

6 BY THE COURT: Sustained.

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

8 Q. Is there any-- did you put any, did you make any 9 written presentation, any documented presentation of the law
10 you cited when you brought the Court to this knowledge that it
11 couldn't happen in the State of Mississippi?

12 BY MR. HORAN: Objection, Your Honor.

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, I think I am entitled to 14 find out his -- let me explain my question. The 15 Court, the Supreme Court may be interested in his 16 state of mind. He certainly tried to make them
17 interested in his state of mind, so I'm trying to see 18 if his state of mind was actually the one that he 19 proposes or he suggested that it was, or whether that 20 is just a pretext. So now if, in fact, he really had 21 some kind of legal concern about the state of the 22 law, then I wanted to know if that concern rose to 23 the dignity of him actually writing it up on a sheet
24 of paper and submitting that to the Court. I think I
25 am entitled to ask that question.

26 BY THE COURT: Well, the problem with it is, is 27 that whether or not they were consolidated is within 28 the discretion of the Court regardless of what the 29 District Attorney or Defense Counsel do. Both of

1           them presented motions to consolidate. This Court
2           exercised its discretion and found that it could not
3           do that and ruled, and there are orders in the file
4           making that ruling. And I believe, I believe I have 5           cited in that ruling the case law that I relied on,
6           and that's the only thing that is relevant. What his 7           mind set was is not relevant because it's 8           discretionary with me. So on that basis, I sustain
9           the objection.

10       BY MR. LUMUMBA:

11           Q.    Okay. But you did oppose the Motion to Consolidate;
12           right?

13           A.    Which one?

14           Q.    The Motion to Consolidate which was made by the 15           Defense?

16           A.    The motion that they made at the last motion that was 17           made I did oppose.

18           Q.    Thank you.

19                       BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have no further questions.

20       EXAMINATION BY MR. HORAN:

21           Q.    Mr. Evans, the October 13 trial date was within the 22           270 day rule, was it not?

23           A.    Yes, it was.

24           Q.    Okay, and there is an order continuing the other
25           three cause numbers from that date to this particular date,
26           January 26th, 1998; right?

27           A.    Yes.

28           Q.    That order states there is good cause showing; is 29           that correct?

1 A. That's correct.

2 Q. Mr. Gilmore, John Gilmore and his father, Billy
3 Gilmore, they were involved in the defense of the first case
4 that was tried in October; is that right?

5 A. That's correct.

6 Q. And I believe we heard approximately 35 motions that 7 they had filed?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. At any time did they disagree with the Court setting
10 of October 13th, 1997, as the trial date?

11 A. No. Specifically, one reason that the date was set 12 that far in advance is that they asked the Court for additional 13 time to talk to witnesses and said that they could not be 14 prepared--

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Objection.

16 BY THE WITNESS: --unless they--

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: -- Excuse me; excuse me. Excuse
18 me; excuse me. Objection. I object. The answer
19 includes hearsay, and if he had a question to 20 present to the previous witness, he could have 21 presented it.

22 BY THE COURT: Sustained.

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

24 BY MR. HORAN: I have nothing further, Your
25 Honor.

26 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I would like to 27 finish my--

28 BY THE COURT: --No, sir. Now you have got to 29 respond just to questions.

1 BY MR. EVANS: I was responding to the question,
2 Your Honor.

3 BY THE COURT: But you were responding with 4 hearsay. If you can--

5 BY MR. EVANS: --No, sir. I was present.

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: It is still hearsay.

7 BY MR. EVANS: It's not present-- it's not
8 hearsay if I was present.

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No. Everybody who comes in, if 10 you are not present, then it's double hearsay. I 11 would advise Counsel to go back and read the Rules of 12 Evidence.

13 BY MR. EVANS: I know the Rules of Evidence.

14 BY THE COURT: Wait, wait, wait, wait. Look, I
15 was present at all this, so y'all are talking and 16 preaching to the choir. Sustained. I have heard all
17 this.

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

19 BY MR. HORAN: I have nothing further, Your
20 Honor.

21 MR. EVANS STEPS DOWN FROM WITNESS STAND.

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have no further proof.

23 BY THE COURT: Okay, any further argument at 24 this time? I'm going to give you an opportunity to 25 have rebuttal after he makes his argument.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: My argument is only
27 supplemented by saying this. Prosecution still 28 hasn't cured -- we have to keep in mind that it's 29 their burden to show why the violations were either

1           for good cause or caused by the Defendant. They have
2           failed miserably to do that. The answer to the 3           question that it's in my discretion, and in my 4           discretion we had four different indictments coming
5           out of the Grand Jury, pretty much solves this 6           issue. He cannot, for whatever reason or tactics he 7           decided to separate those cases in the first place,
8           he cannot take advantage of that and then come back
9           now and say that the Defendant's rights to a speedy
10          trial were violated because all the cases couldn't be 11          tried by the time the 270 day limit expired.

12                 Also, Judge, I would point out to the Court that 13          there has been no showing that the District Attorney
14          made any effort to try all four cases within the time
15          period involved. There has been no showing at all 16          that there was an effort to set the date, for 17          instance, in May or in June or in July or in August.
18          No showing has been made on that issue whatsoever. I
19          think that with the showing we do have is that 20          Defense Counsel earlier on in the process, prior to 21          April, prior to the time that they had all the 22          discovery indicated that they needed the rest of 23          discovery to try their case. If, in fact, they were 24          in need of discovery to try their case, that is a
25          delay not caused by the Defense, but that is a delay
26          caused by the District Attorney himself. And there
27          is still on this record no signs of any delay.

28                 The only thing we have was a date set on October 29          the 13th when all trials were set. After we got to

1           October the 13th, then the Court tells the Defense
2           and tells everyone else involved, I guess, that for 3           whatever cause, the case needed to be continued to 4           the 26th. There is no indication that the attorneys
5           for the Defendant were advised prior to October the 6           13th that at the end of that trial the cases would 7           all be continued beyond the 270 day limit. There was 8           no indication that they would have any reason to 9           believe that the cases wouldn't be tried back to 10          back.

11                 And we can raise a number of other little 12          elements about the truth, but the practical reality
13          of this case comes down to this. And I think that 14          any appellate tribunal will see it. We can try to 15          dig up dust, dig up bones from the grave, try to 16          create things, do a little magician act and create 17          delays which really weren't real, but the reality is 18          here is that when the DA went to that Grand Jury and 19          decided to come out there with four separate 20          indictments, he created a situation where it was 21          going to be very difficult, if not impossible, to try
22          these four cases within 270 days. These are all
23          capital murder cases. These are not misdemeanor
24          cases. These are not day trials or two day trials.
25          Properly tried, some of these cases could take a
26          month by themselves.

27                 And so the problem that you have here is that
28          the District Attorney asked for something and got it
29          and now wants to have his cake and eat it too by

1           being able to try the cases at a later time. So that
2           is the basis of our motion.

3           BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, we have spent an hour
4           on something that is plain from the record, that the 5           Defendant got a trial within 270 days. All four
6           cases were set on October the 13th. Three of them
7           have been continued from October 13th to this date
8           with an order entered on all three cause numbers.
9           The scheduling order that was previously set was by 10          agreement of the parties. There is not much to 11          dismiss. He is not entitled just because it goes
12          outside of 270 to have a dismissal. He has to prove 13          that there was not good cause, and the Court has 14          ruled that you didn't have to have an order, just 15          that the Court would find that there was good cause
16          for the delay.

17          October 13th was within 270 days. A continuance 18          from October 13th to today for good cause shown has 19          been entered on the other three cause numbers, and 20          that is the end of the inquiry, Your Honor. That's a
21          simple call.

22          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Good cause is cause which 23          cannot be avoided and which has not been caused by 24          the Court or the State. What is the good cause which 25          allowed these cases to be continued from outside the 26          270 day limit, which allowed the prosecution, first 27          of all, not to try all these cases on the 13th?

28          You know, if you start looking at the 13th,
29          first of all, you are looking at the facts too late.

1           It is necessary to look at the facts early on and
2           understand why you were presented with four trials on 3           one day in the first place. That is what we have to 4           do. And once that is, once you see that that is 5           something which occurred because only because of the 6           prosecution's discretion, because of what it decided 7           to do, then I think that what we have done is we have 8           decided the issue there by showing that the 9           prosecution has caused the delay beyond the 270
10          days.

11           You know, this case is clear, crystal clear that 12          there is no way that they should be able to violate
13          this 270 day rule. Defense Counsel could have done
14          no more than he did to preserve the record of his 15          client's interest to a speedy trial. He made a 16          Motion for a Speedy Trial. According to his 17          testimony, he never relented on that. He never 18          agreed to the transfer of the cases from October the 19          13th to this date. He never agreed to that. He 20          never agreed to that. The Court may have done it,
21          but the Defense Counsel-- there is no record
22          whatsoever in his testimony or anywhere else that he
23          ever agreed to that. And so the point of the matter
24          is, is that his rights were violated up until the 25          13th because he didn't have all four cases together,
26          and then the violation continued after the 14th--or 27          the 13th of October.

28           BY THE COURT: Okay. The Court has ruled on a
29          similar motion that raised the federal questions in

1           regard to a speedy trial. The Court adopts the
2           findings made in that order which I believe set forth
3           the chronology of events as they occurred. There are 4           a few additional things that I want to put in the 5           record.

6           I will enter a similar order that will show
7           those matters and these too. At the conclusion of 8           the trial, the next hearing that we had was, I
9           believe, it was the first week in November. I can't 10          recall the particular date. That was for the purpose
11          of hearing a Motion for a New Trial. The Court at 12          that time did not know the status of the first case,
13          what it would be, and until that Motion had been
14          ruled on, there could not be any setting of anything
15          else until we saw where we were because, you know, if 16          sufficient facts had been raised at that time, it is 17          possible that case might have to be the one that had 18          to be tried.

19          In that interim the Court determined through its 20          Court Administrator dates that would be available to 21          try the next case. This case is in Lee County, a
22          large urban county which was a considerable court
23          docket. That limits this Court as to what it can do
24          in relation to getting trial dates. The soonest date
25          that the Court could get was January the 26th. On 26          that motion, on that day on the Motion for New Trial,
27          the Court set and informed Counsel that the next 28          setting would be January the 26th. No objection was 29          made by anybody at that time to that particular

1           setting. No objection was made to that setting at 2           all until January the 5th, 1998, when a Motion for
3           Continuance was filed by the Defendant.

4           On December the 3rd in Lee County there was a
5           motion -- the Court had designated that date as a
6           date to pull the venire in that case, special venire
7           in this case for the January 26 hearing. At that
8           time new counsel for the Defendant appeared and filed
9           a Motion to Delay that Drawing of the Special
10          Venire. So the Court's conclusion from that is that 11          they, while it was not a formal motion for 12          continuance, they certainly wanted some continuance 13          at that date for certain purposes of this trial, and 14          the Court denied that Motion.

15          The 270 day rule is not an inviolate rule if 16          good cause is shown, and the cases are fairly clear
17          as to what the Court establishes as good cause when 18          the Court can go beyond 270 day rule. I think in 19          line with the case law of this state that the 270 day
20          rule has not been violated in this case, and I
21          overrule the Motion for a Speedy Trial.

22          And I will furnish you a written order to that 23          effect, both of you, and try to incorporate the, what 24          I have just said.

25          Let me further respond that the case law in this 26          state is that the District Attorney certainly has the 27          right to indict separately. Whether or not he has to 28          then try them all within the 270 day rule, I don't 29          know that that has been specifically addressed other

1           than the fact that there are numerous cases that say
2           you can continue past the 270 day rule for good cause
3           shown.

4           The consolidation issue, I have answered that, I
5           think, in the record so I won't go any further on 6           that. All right, sir. What is next?

7           BY MR. LUMUMBA: The next thing we have here,
8           Judge, for you is a Motion to Certify this issue and 9           the double jeopardy issue for a hearing on 10          interlocutory appeal before the Supreme Court.

11          BY THE COURT: All right. I don't believe I
12          have a copy of that petition.

13          BY MR. LUMUMBA: I am pretty sure you should.
14          Yeah, it is called, it has got a long name on it.

15          BY THE COURT: (Pause) Yes. That is correct.

16          BY MR. LUMUMBA: You have it; right?

17          BY THE COURT: Yes, sir. I have got it.

18          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Let me just catch up with my 19          copy of it. (Pause).

20          BY THE COURT: All right, sir.

21          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. Essentially, what we do
22          in that Motion is cite a lot of law which indicates 23          that either the Court in its ruling is mistaken or 24          that at least there is considerable grounds to 25          question whether or not another decision would be 26          appropriate. What is important, of course, is that 27          the Court in its own statement on this issue about 28          the speedy trial has acknowledged that it doesn't 29          believe that a decision has been made which says that

1           once the District Attorney opts to in his discretion
2           create a situation where there are several
3           indictments, whether then the District Attorney is 4           required to go, to resolve this matter or to resolve
5           all four matters within the 270 days.

6           It appears to me that that is at least a
7           question that the Court should want answered unless 8           it wants to put the State, the Defendant, and all
9           concerned to untold expense to have the issue
10          resolved after, possibly after a lengthy trial
11          process. So I think that the question should be 12          resolved beforehand so we can see whether or not this 13          Defendant was actually entitled under these 14          circumstances to have his rights to a speedy trial
15          determined or to have his rights to a speedy trial in 16          all four cases given the scenario of this case.

17          One of the things that we will add to the 18          presentation on that Motion is that the Court made
19          comment about a Motion to Continue the Selection of 20          the Jury Venire. I should indicate at the time-- of 21          course, that Motion was denied, so certainly that 22          Motion didn't in any way cause any delay. And I
23          believe that the Court would agree with me that he 24          told Counsel at that time that the case was going on 25          the 26th unless he filed some good reason for it, and 26          no good reason had come before him to that point.

27          So, of course, the Court is not charging the 28          defense with any delay at that point; plus there was 29          no delay. The case continued to be set to the 26th

1 and continued to be so set until after the 270 days
2 had expired. But I also point out to the Court that
3 the double jeopardy issue is an issue that we believe
4 that we should take before the Court of Appeals or
5 the Supreme Court, the Supreme Court in this instance
6 because we are talking about interlocutory appeal.

7 Double jeopardy has been found on several 8 occasions to be the kind of issue that you would, in 9 fact, take before the Court in order to get a
10 determination prior to the time that you take a case
11 to trial. The trial itself is a violation of the 12 defendant's rights if there is some question-- if, in 13 fact, his rights of double jeopardy have been 14 violated.

15 So you cannot remedy that, the courts that have 16 held, and one of the cases they held it in was the 17 Beckwith case, Beckwith v. State which appears at 615
18 So.2d 1134. And in the Beckwith case they 19 specifically stated that the trial in the matter
20 where double jeopardy is in question is a violation
21 of the defendant's right itself should his rights be 22 ultimately determined to have been violated for 23 double jeopardy. So it can't be cured by post
24 conviction appeals.

25 So what we would suggest, and I think that the 26 Beckwith case demands it, and another case which I
27 cited for the Court in my brief also demands it, that
28 this case go immediately up to the Court of Appeals--
29 or the Supreme Court, I'm sorry, to the Supreme Court

1           in the status of an interlocutory appeal.

2           So that's what we would seek from this Court at 3           this time, an order certifying the case to be
4           reviewed by the Supreme Court before we-- and a
5           stay. We ask that a stay be granted so that we can
6           then get the determination of whether the Court can 7           proceed with this case. And I think it would be
8           helpful for the Court to know whether it can proceed
9           with any case. If, in fact, we are right on this 10          case, then we are right on all three of them. So as 11          far as double jeopardy, the facts are the same. As 12          far as the violation of speedy trial rights, the 13          facts are the same.

14          So the question becomes do we do the prudent
15          thing, the thing which is most prudent as far as the 16          jurisprudence is concerned as well as, as far as the 17          orderly administration of the system of justice, or 18          do we somehow just play to the public or, you know,
19          or let our grief for the victims or whatever else we 20          have motivating us, political offices in some cases,
21          or whatever it is get the best of us and rush this 22          case through, and then later on stay in court for 23          twenty years.

24          I just, I guess just tried a case in Pontotoc or 25          DeSoto County which is from Pontotoc where the man
26          had been in jail for twenty years. And like they 27          sometimes say, Stevie Wonder, even though he is a
28          blind man, could have seen at the time that there was 29          error in that case when they rushed it through in

1 Pontotoc in the first place. So the case was
2 reversed on three different occasions.

3 And so Governor Fordice stood up not long ago
4 and got up and gave a big speech about how long this
5 case had been in court and how terrible the court
6 system was because they kept a case around for twenty 7 years. But the right analysis would have been should
8 the men who had the cases before them: The District
9 Attorney, the Judge, and the Defense Attorney at the 10 time that they encountered these problems did what 11 should have been done, then the case wouldn't have 12 been around for twenty years.

13 So I think if we don't-- it doesn't take a lot
14 of vision in this case to see that (a) there is a 15 novel issue on the speedy trial question, and (b) on 16 the double jeopardy question, the courts almost 17 demand that you send it up for certification.

18 I would point out to the Court that the-- and 19 I'm not trying to hide anything from the Court. The 20 Beckwith case, which I gave to the Court or which I
21 have cited for the Court, also indicates that 22 normally double jeopardy is one of the main issues
23 that they grant this - what do you call it? - this 24 review for. But there can be other issues, right.
25 If they are-- if they meet the statute, meet the 26 questions raised by the statute which allows us-- or 27 the Rules; really it's the Rules. It's the appellate 28 Rule 5 point something which allows us to take these 29 up. And one of those questions has something to do

1 with is it a question which is unresolved by the
2 jurisprudence system in the State of Mississippi, by 3 the Supreme Court in the State of Mississippi.

4 And this question, according to the Court's own
5 words, the speedy trial question is one which at this 6 point is unresolved.

7 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I'm going to be
8 brief. For a case to be sent up on interlocutory
9 appeal to start with, it must be a colorable claim.
10 Neither claim that he is filing is a colorable
11 claim. As to the 270 days, it's very clear what the 12 law is on that. That is not a question that is 13 unclear to the law. That has been settled. That 14 definitely is not a colorable claim.

15 As to the double jeopardy claim that he has 16 raised, the law has been clear in Mississippi for 17 many years that where a person is charged with 18 killing different people, even if at the same time,
19 that he can stand trial for each separate murder. So
20 that also is not a colorable claim. This is only an 21 attempt by the Defense to put this case off again.
22 It is a delay and stalling technique, and it should 23 not be sent up on interlocutory appeal because there
24 is no colorable claim there that can be filed.

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA: A brief rejoinder. I don't 26 think that the Supreme Court participates in delay
27 tactics or shenanigans which delay trials. That's 28 why they require us to file these appeals within a 29 relatively short period of time. That's why they

1 with some degree of proficuousness resolve these
2 matters quickly. So the only way that this could be
3 a delay tactic is if the Supreme Court was going to 4 collaborate or conspire with me to delay the trial.

5 Quite frankly, you give us a fair jurisdiction,
6 a fair county to try this case in, and an adequate
7 opportunity to try it, we anxiously await the day to 8 get before the bar and to vindicate this Defendant,
9 and not only in this case, but to vindicate him in a
10 way which is going to cause all kinds of 11 repercussions in the next case, in the case that has 12 already been tried, in addition to the other ones.

13 So we are far from afraid of the people that sit
14 across the table here from us, far from afraid.
15 There is nothing there to fear--

16 BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, I object--

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Excuse me; excuse me--

18 BY MR. EVANS: --This is definitely -- may I
19 state my objection, Your Honor?

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --I think, no, I think he can be 21 quiet until I finish--

22 BY MR. EVANS: --May I state my objection
23 without him trying to interrupt me?--

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --He is interrupting me by 25 jumping up.

26 BY THE COURT: Let him finish. Then I'm going
27 to let you object. Then he is not going to interrupt
28 you either.

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Let me finish up, okay. Okay.

1 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor--

2 BY THE COURT: --I note your objection. I'm
3 going to let him finish what he was saying. Then I
4 will let you object. This is all argument though,
5 gentlemen. You know, I mean everybody is going to 6 get a chance to respond to it.

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. The point is that simply 8 stated, you know, his speculation about why these 9 motions are filed are really ill placed. Number one,
10 there is no fear over here of going to another trial
11 at appropriate moment with appropriate proofs and in 12 front of the appropriate audience. And we will try 13 to do all we can in our power to make sure that 14 happens, and I trust that the Court will assist us in 15 that fashion.

16 But secondly, let me say this, is that these are 17 clearly colorable issues. The Court has stated from 18 the bench that this issue has not been resolved. We 19 have an issue here where the State has exercised an 20 option to do something which has taken us behind the 21 270 day limit. Nobody here has said that once he 22 exercised that option, it wasn't a foregone
23 conclusion that you would go beyond the 270 day
24 limit. I think Stevie Wonder or Ray Charles here
25 again could see that that would be the situation in 26 any ordinary system of justice. I don't care if you
27 were talking about a small town, a big town, or a
28 large city, or whatever you were talking about.

29 Moreover, I add parenthetically that the

1 Defendant didn't choose Lee County as a place to try
2 this case, if I understand correctly.

3 But in any event, I would say to the Court that
4 what we have at this time before us is two issues, a
5 double jeopardy issue which demands an interlocutory
6 appeal if it is requested by the Defendant. And I
7 have cited two cases, one the Beckwith case and 8 another case which is in my brief, which I would 9 suggest that the Court should review very carefully
10 and read very thoroughly before making a decision on 11 this issue. And secondly, the issue of speedy trial
12 which the Court itself has indicated is an issue
13 which is unresolved in this jurisdiction to the best
14 of its knowledge. So I can't say why he says it is 15 not a colorable issue.

16 BY THE COURT: Let me make the Court's statement
17 clear. As far as I know, I don't know that this 18 particular fact situation has been presented to the 19 Supreme Court. The question of not whether 270 days
20 applies to this, because of this, has been addressed
21 by the Supreme Court, and they have ruled on good
22 cause it does not have to be tried within 270 days.
23 So I think the issue has been met.

24 Mr. Evans, did you have something further you
25 wanted to say?

26 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, Your Honor. I would like to 27 state a formal objection in the record at this point
28 that I strongly object to Defense Counsel attacking
29 me in this trial, in this hearing. I will not

1 address as far as the Court. I will let the Court
2 address that, but I object at this point and would
3 ask that Defense Counsel be told to act appropriate
4 in the courtroom.

5 BY THE COURT: Well, let me just respond to 6 that. Y'all both make your arguments to me, and I
7 will decide that one way or another. You have both 8 accused each other of delaying, so that kind of 9 equals out.

10 Okay, on this particular issue, I think the law
11 is clear on these two issues that are presented to 12 me. I don't think this-- the fact is it's real 13 clear. The cases involving these have been cited in 14 the orders that I have entered. Therefore, I don't 15 think there is an issue to be certified, and I'm 16 going to deny certification. Of course, as you know,
17 Mr. Lumumba, you have the right to appeal that order
18 within 14 days just like you would if I had certified
19 it, so the Supreme Court may decide they want to hear
20 it anyhow.

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes, sir.

22 BY THE COURT: Will you furnish me an order, or 23 do you want me to draw that?

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, whatever you prefer,
25 Judge.

26 BY THE COURT: Okay, I will draw it.

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, that will work. I might 28 indicate for the record, although I don't think it's 29 a real issue; what they, they are kind of suggesting;

1 we definitely intend, I can advise the Court, we
2 definitely intend to take this issue up. They, and
3 the Rules pretty much indicates that your orders
4 which you have-- well, in one case you haven't given
5 me an order yet on the Mississippi statute, but you
6 have given me an order on the double jeopardy issue;
7 right?

8 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: That order should be amended
10 to indicate that you are denying the-- if you can, I
11 would appreciate that. That order, if you amend that 12 order to indicate that you are denying my Motion for 13 Certification.

14 BY THE COURT: No, no. What I'm going to do is 15 I'm going to enter a separate order denying your 16 certification on the speedy trial issue and the 17 double jeopardy. Then you have 14 days from that 18 order to appeal, not from my last order.

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Right, well--

20 BY THE COURT: I don't think the last order has 21 to be amended. I think this subsequent order I am
22 giving you will protect your rights for that 23 particular appeal.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, I'm not sure. The rule
25 is a little bit ambiguous on it. I think that they 26 indicated that you should amend it. But let me say
27 this, and one of the reasons that I would request
28 that you amend it to make sure that we put this 29 beyond any peril is that we didn't get your order

1 denying the motion to bar on the basis of double
2 jeopardy until -- I have the envelope right here; I
3 can show the Court.

4 BY THE COURT: Friday probably.

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We got it the 23rd. So even 6 though it says it was signed on the 8th, it was 7 signed on the 8th of January is what it says. I
8 mean, you know, I don't know when you signed it
9 actually, Judge, but I am just saying--

10 BY THE COURT: I don't believe I signed that 11 order on the 8th. I signed it one day and mailed it
12 to you the next, so it should have been signed last 13 week. The date should have been-- if it has got the 14 8th on it, then it has got to be amended to reflect
15 the day I signed it.

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, well, if you would do
17 that, I would appreciate that. Okay.

18 BY THE COURT: I will have to check that and 19 see. I don't know why I would have signed the 8th.
20 If I did, I will change that to reflect that date.

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

22 BY THE COURT: And if I am going to do that, I
23 will amend the order. You will have an order in the 24 record to appeal from.

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, I appreciate it. Okay.
26 We have before the Court a Motion to Proceed, Motion
27 for Permission to Proceed Ex Parte on the Application
28 of Funds. I have submitted that Motion to the Court,
29 cited Almond v. State, 180 Georgia Appellate 475. I

1           cited the Ake case which we discussed, Ake v.
2           Oklahoma, 470 US 68, several other Supreme Court
3           cases, Wardius v. Oregon, 412 US 470. In fact, I
4           have a litany of cases cited in this brief which I
5           gave to the Court. And essentially, they say the 6           same thing: (a) that an indigent defendant is 7           entitled to appointment of experts if he needs them;
8           (b) that the whole issue of who-- the argument on 9           this which requires some showing of who the proposed 10          experts are and what they might say and what their 11          inquiry will be is one which should be ex parte.

12                 Indigent defendants should not be compromised in 13          his trial strategy on his ability to get his experts
14          by the fact that he is poor. So he has to ask the 15          Court for the funds, and his requisition to the Court
16          should be not a matter of public concern. Experts,
17          we should be able to determine with the Court whether 18          or not the Court sees a reason to appoint these 19          experts. I think that there is unquestionably in the 20          areas that we are concerned about there has to be 21          experts appointed.

22                 But we don't, we don't want to have to discuss 23          this with the DA. The DA is entitled at the 24          appropriate moment to get notice of any expert that 25          we intend to call. The DA is not entitled to slip
26          into our pocket and to find out who we have talked 27          to, because this is all attorney work product, until 28          such time as the expert comes up with an opinion that 29          we intend to use in court. Once the expert comes up

1 with an opinion that we intend to use, then we are
2 required to give that opinion to the District
3 Attorney's Office.

4 We are not entitled-- he is not entitled to any
5 expert opinions according to the Rules of discovery
6 which we don't intend to use or which are not, which 7 have not been scientific experiments which have been 8 used for presentation in this court. So we think
9 that the mere discussing of this in the public forum
10 with the DA present is a compromise of the 11 Defendant's right to secure his case. His right to 12 secure his case should not be compromised by his need
13 for funds, and so I think that is essentially what 14 the case law states. So we would ask the Court for 15 an opportunity to proceed ex parte on that issue.

16 For instance, we did not talk to any of the DA's
17 experts prior to the time that-- and had no
18 opportunity to talk to them, didn't even know who 19 they were prior to the time that he decided to 20 announce that these are his experts; he intends to 21 use them for trial. Here is their reports. That's 22 the only time that we had an opportunity to talk to 23 them. The DA is also being paid for by the State.
24 He is not bringing this money out of his pocket. He 25 is taking state money, court money, system money,
26 whatever. We are asking for the same kind of money
27 for an indigent defendant, and the system gives him a
28 right to have it.

29 So the question is we should be no more

1           compromised in this than the DA is in his
2           presentation.

3           BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, briefly in response
4           to one comment opposing Counsel made; of course, he 5           wouldn't have any way of knowing because he wasn't 6           involved, but on the very day that the Gilmores were 7           hired in this case, they were told who the experts
8           would be in this case. At that point they did not 9           even have their reports finished, but they were told,
10          and they knew that they could talk to them at any 11          time they wanted to, which I think is proper.

12          Mississippi has a full discovery rule which 13          applies to both sides even though a lot of times
14          defense doesn't realize that, and all we are asking
15          for is on any witnesses that we be entitled to know
16          just as they would. As far as the experts, you know,
17          it's a question at this point of whether they are 18          entitled to anything. And to have an ex parte
19          hearing without us present would keep us from even 20          being able to object to whether or not these experts
21          were needed, whether or not they were relevant. It
22          would be absolutely necessary for us to participate
23          in any hearing so that we could file our objections.

24          BY THE COURT: How does the State have a dog in 25          that hunt? This is a question of whether I'm going 26          to expend public funds to appoint experts for the 27          Defendant. It's not going to go into factual
28          situations other than what is necessary for me to 29          make that determination. Where would the State have

1 any right to object in that?

2 BY MR. EVANS: Well, the State has several
3 rights to object. I think the State for one thing
4 has the responsibility of trying to protect the 5 county from having to spend money that they 6 shouldn't--

7 BY THE COURT: --No, sir. That is my 8 responsibility.

9 BY MR. EVANS: Well, it also in my opinion comes 10 under mine, Your Honor. Also, any expert that they 11 are attempting to get, the State would have an 12 absolute right of being involved in because we would 13 have a responsibility of being able to show what type
14 of expert they were looking for. We should have a
15 right at this point to be able-- if they are asking
16 the Court to appoint a person, to be able to state
17 evidence in the fact as to whether or not this is a 18 competent and reliable person. They are asking at 19 this point that the county pay for somebody that they 20 are trying to dream up a defense from, and I think at 21 that point we are definitely entitled to be present
22 and be involved in anything going on.

23 And I know of no case law that ever said that 24 the defense has an absolute right to come in and 25 present anything ex parte without the state present.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: All he needs to do is read
27 that--

28 BY THE COURT: --Wait, wait. I am familiar with 29 the law, gentlemen.

1           BY MR. EVANS: Also, at this point there is no
2 proof that this Defendant is indigent. There has 3 been four attorneys hired in this case. We have got
4 two attorneys that this Court had ordered to proceed
5 in this case who have now asked to be dismissed.
6 That is two other people that had already been
7 hired. They could participate in any of this 8 discovery or any of this following up that they 9 wanted to do which they were the ones that elected to 10 let them out.

11           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, we are not asking the 12 Court to appoint an attorney. We are asking the 13 Court to appoint certain types of experts which would 14 be disclosed to the Court should we have this 15 hearing. So that is an irrelevant argument. We 16 don't, you don't hire attorneys to take scientific 17 experiments. You don't call them as experts on 18 ballistics. You don't call them as experts on shoe
19 prints or anything of that nature.

20           But the other thing, and simply put, Judge, I
21 think we are entitled to it under the rules. We 22 would ask for it. As far as this Defendant's
23 indigency, any kind of showing or affidavit this
24 Court wants to see, this man has no money.

25           BY THE COURT: I have already ruled for this 26 purpose that he may be.

27           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, all right.

28           BY THE COURT: I have ruled-- the state is 29 paying the costs on the appeal except for attorneys.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Right.

2 BY THE COURT: I do not rule that he is indigent
3 for purposes of appointing an attorney.

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, I'm not asking to--

5 BY THE COURT: --I know that.

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --appoint an attorney. Okay.
7 So that is basically our argument, and just so we,
8 you know, keep the record straight, you know, any 9 argument that the Defense Counsel or any defense we 10 might dream up to try to come up with, that sounds
11 like kind of a cut toward the Defense Counsel.

12 BY THE COURT: Well, I can go through all that 13 for both of you.

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: But, you know, that's okay.
15 See I am not so sensitive that it bothers me, but I
16 think people who live in glass houses shouldn't throw
17 stones, you know.

18 BY THE COURT: Okay. The case law is pretty 19 clear as to what has got to be presented to me to 20 appoint an expert at all. In most cases experts are 21 not allowed. It depends on what is presented to me
22 as to whether or not he is entitled to these funds.
23 These are matters for the Court's determination, not
24 the State's determination. I must determine one,
25 whether he is indigent, and I must determine whether 26 or not he, we are going to expend county funds for 27 that purpose.

28 There might, there is possible that there might
29 be-- from looking at what I have been presented - I

1           doubt it - but there might be things that have to be
2           disclosed to me that at this point would not be
3           required to be exposed or delivered to the State.
4           The State will not be prejudiced by me having an ex
5           parte hearing on the appointment of experts only, and 6           the Defendant might be. Therefore, I'm going to 7           grant that Motion, and we will hear that at this
8           time.

9           You are ready, aren't you, Mr. Lumumba?

10          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Oh, yes, certainly.

11          BY THE COURT: All right, let's go to chambers.

12          BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, may I address one
13          issue? Is the Court ruling that the State is not
14          even going to be able to be present when they state
15          why they need the experts?

16          BY THE COURT: Yes, sir. That's what I am
17          saying.

18          (WHEREUPON, THE COURT, MR. LUMUMBA, THE 19          DEFENDANT, THE COURT REPORTER AND TWO OFFICERS WITH 20          THE DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS WENT TO CHAMBERS FOR AN 21          IN CAMERA HEARING AS FOLLOWS:)

22          BY MR. LUMUMBA: We are amending our original
23          motion. I think I asked for an expert, psychological 24          expert also. We are amending the motion to drop that 25          request.

26          BY THE COURT: All right, sir.

27          BY MR. LUMUMBA: We are not really asking for a
28          psychological expert.

29          BY THE COURT: Okay.

1                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: What we are asking for is an
2 expert on ballistics and firearms. The experts that
3 I have been able to gather now -- my understanding is 4 that the DA's case comes largely, that his
5 examinations were done by the State Crime Lab if I'm 6 not mistaken. The people that we can find here in 7 this area tend to be people who have worked for the 8 State Crime Lab or worked closely with them in law
9 enforcement. But outside of the state, of course,
10 you have people who have worked for other law
11 enforcement, but at least don't have relationships
12 with the people here in Mississippi on this issue.
13 A Mr. David E. Balash, B A L A S H -- we did not have 14 an opportunity, because we had to go out of the state
15 eventually, to have these people sign affidavits.
16 They will sign affidavits, and I will represent to 17 this Court that affidavits are actually being signed
18 saying at least as much, which is before the Court
19 now. We can get affidavits signed; it's not a
20 problem.

21                   But as you can probably see from the character
22 of information I have given you, this is essentially
23 stuff that comes to me by fax.

24                   BY THE COURT: That is what I think you gave me 25 two motions of.

26                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Oh, okay.

27                   BY THE COURT: Not two motions, two copies.

28                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: You have two copies of that?
29 All right.

1                   BY THE COURT: Excuse me; I didn't mean to
2 interrupt you.

3                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: That's all right. Now as far
4 as-- do you have Mr. David E. Balash, B A L A S H?
5 Do you have that presentation there?

6                   BY THE COURT: Yes.

7                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, he is a qualified
8 firearms expert and qualified to testify in the area
9 of ballistics. Mr.-- If the Court doesn't, unless 10 the Court has some questions about his
11 qualifications, then I will-- I think that the record
12 speaks for itself. He has plenty of professional 13 experience. He has worked for various different
14 police agencies; testified many, many, many different
15 times; been recognized as an expert in many, many,
16 many different courts from the presentation he has 17 given us here. He is accepted in Michigan Circuit
18 and District Courts for the counties of Wayne,
19 Washtenaw, Oakland, Monroe, Livingston, Lenawee,
20 Macomb, Allegan, and Kent Counties. Testimony by him
21 has also been given in probate courts of Wayne,
22 Oakland, and Washtenaw Counties. Probate Court is 23 like the Chancery Court here.

24                   And so he is, he lists his professional
25 associations. He lists his degrees: BA and a minor
26 in criminal justice, and apparently he worked for the 27 Mississippi Department of State Police for a number
28 of years until he retired. So he is qualified.
29 As he points out, he is aware of the overall facts of

1           this case. He has not had the time to review all of 2           the facts of the case, but he is aware of the fact
3           that you had a shooting incident, that four people
4           were killed, that much after the incident one bullet
5           was found. That is one of the things I would say to 6           the Court that it's important to us. You had a
7           projectile found many days after this, I think almost 8           a month if I'm not mistaken, after the actual 9           shooting occurred, allegedly found in the mattress at 10          the store.

11                 This is the only projectile which they were able 12          to match to any gun. Actually, they didn't match the 13          projectile to the gun even yet. What they did is 14          that they had another projectile which they got out
15          of somebody's tree. They got it out of a tree of one
16          of the witnesses that claims that his gun was stolen,
17          and they are saying that these two projectiles
18          match.

19                 Well, there can be considerable question as to 20          whether the first projectile was actually found in 21          the store or placed-- or not the first, but the 22          second-- or placed in the store by someone after the 23          time of the incident. What an expert like Mr. Balash
24          should tell us is whether or not the damage to the 25          projectile is consistent or inconsistent with the 26          kind of path that the projectile would have had to 27          take to wind up being shot down through a woman's 28          head, to come up off the floor, and then to hit an 29          object and to go into a, essentially into what was a

1 mattress, you know, which was not on the floor but,
2 you know, at least the point it was not all the way
3 on the floor but elevated a bit from the floor.
4 He can testify; he can see and tell us about the 5 blood, whether or not it would have been, whether it
6 was characteristic, this blood was-- customarily that
7 blood would have been on this kind of projectile.
8 There was no blood on the projectile in this case.

9 He can also, of course, confirm or 10 dis--unconfirm or contest whether or not these two 11 projectiles actually matched each other. He can also 12 testify about the crime scene and give us the 13 likelihood of the absence, of them not being able to 14 find any other usable projectile, you know, in this 15 incident.

16 Also, as far as a question of, I believe that 17 Mr. Balash - even though I didn't have him address
18 this in my conversation with him, and he will put it
19 in his affidavit - can speak to us about the paraffin
20 test. We used to call them paraffin tests. I don't 21 know what they call it now, but the test which was 22 used on this Defendant to suggest that he had some 23 kind of residue on his hand which could have come
24 from the shooting of a firearm.

25 We say that whatever was allegedly found on the 26 Defendant did not come from a firearm, and in fact,
27 there is a number of other places it could have come
28 from, and even in some instances more likely came 29 from. That is testimony which will directly contest

1 the testimony that was given at trial from my
2 understanding by the State's expert who said that the
3 only place that this could have come from was from a
4 firearm, which was some very incriminating testimony
5 against the Defendant at trial.

6 So we are absolutely, as far as I see, entitled
7 to an expert. The only thing that we don't have here
8 is a signature on an affidavit, and that can be 9 cured--

10 BY THE COURT: --Well, the affidavit doesn't 11 concern me.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, all right. So those are 13 the things that I would say as far as Mr. Balash is 14 concerned, or Balash, however you pronounce his
15 name.

16 BY THE COURT: Do you want to address him first?
17 Do you want me to talk to you about him first?

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, I want to talk to you
19 about him first.

20 BY THE COURT: Okay, what is he going to cost?

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, he is going to cost
22 transportation and-- he, I think he said $500. He 23 charges $500-- well, $300, I believe he said, to do
24 the initial report. Okay. And I think the total fee
25 not counting transportation, as I recall it, is $700
26 to $750.

27 BY THE COURT: The total fee?

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Not counting transportation and 29 housing. He has got-- you know what I'm saying? He

1           has got to be brought down here and sent back. That 2           is an airplane ticket, but other than that, it's 3           $750. I think that's what, I figured it out, we are 4           talking about less than $1,500.

5           BY THE COURT: Okay.

6           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Now let me say that this is 7           what I recall at this time. I will ask him on this
8           if this is very important to the Court. I will find 9           out about that and bring back to the Court and let 10          the Court know with specificity. But I forgot, I
11          neglected to tell him to put that in the report.

12          BY THE COURT: That is one of the factors I am
13          required to consider. You are going to need to get 14          something in writing from him including what an 15          estimate of what his--

16          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Housing.

17          BY THE COURT: Well, yeah, I have got a pretty 18          good idea about what that is going to cost in 19          Tupelo. That is going to run him about 60 or 70
20          bucks, and they have got an airport in Tupelo. He 21          may go to Memphis, whatever. You work out that 22          transportation part of that, and let me, I want to 23          know what that figure is. He needs something in 24          writing to me telling me what it is going to cost.
25          And giving it to me by the hour is going to make it
26          hard for me to decide. I need a bottom line is what 27          I need.

28          BY MR. LUMUMBA: You need a bottom line.

29          BY THE COURT: In other words, if it's $1,500,

1           then that is something I can take into account.

2           BY MR. LUMUMBA: What is his maximum fee?

3           BY THE COURT: Right.

4           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, well, I will find that 5 out.

6           BY THE COURT: And that is a major consideration
7 as to whether I appoint one. So, you know, you need
8 to talk to him along those lines, and I take into 9 consideration he is all the way in Michigan. Now it
10 might behoove you to see if you can't find somebody
11 closer.

12           The other, the other question I have got if I do
13 this, and I'm going to withhold ruling on a
14 ballistics expert until you get me that other 15 information, but the other thing that I have some 16 concern with-- I have no problem about getting almost 17 everything that he wants in this letter. All of 18 those things can almost be furnished by copies and by 19 discussions with the ballistics expert at the crime
20 lab. The problem, I am not going to allow that 21 bullet just to wander around.

22           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Oh, yeah. He has got to come
23 here and look at it.

24           BY THE COURT: Yes.

25           BY MR. LUMUMBA: There is no question about
26 that.

27           BY THE COURT: Okay. Give me that information,
28 and I will rule on that when you do.

29           BY MR. LUMUMBA: All right, I will get you

1           that. The second expert I would like to discuss is,
2           this expert is named Ed Davis. He sent me a separate
3           resume' and a letter, and I'm not sure whether I
4           handed that to the Court because it was not attached
5           to the Motion.

6           BY THE COURT: I don't think I have seen that
7           one.

8           BY MR. LUMUMBA: He sent me a cover letter too.
9           Let me see if I can find it right quick.

10          (Hands document to the Court.)

11          BY THE COURT: Okay.

12          BY MR. LUMUMBA: This is a cover letter that was 13          sent.

14          (Hands another document to the Court.)

15          BY MR. LUMUMBA: He obviously had difficulty--

16          BY THE COURT: --I have seen it.

17          BY MR. LUMUMBA: --had difficulty with my name.
18          That person Joe, whoever he is, doesn't exist. That 19          is me but--

20          BY THE COURT: --You are probably like me. You
21          probably have that trouble from time to time.

22          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Right, right. But essentially
23          this expert deals with footwear. Now I haven't had a 24          chance to do an in depth review of the transcript on 25          that issue because the transcript, you know, is of 26          the whole trial. I have talked to prior counsel, and 27          they seem to think that although the expert did not 28          make a positive identification of the shoe print as 29          coming from the shoe that they were trying to

1           associate with the Defendant, he did indicate that it
2           was a shoe which is very much consistent with that
3           imprint. Now, and he seemed to be reluctant to say,
4           according to what they tell me-- that there were 5           probably any number of shoes, millions perhaps, which 6           would have been consistent with that print, even 7           other brands which could have been consistent with 8           that print.

9           Now this expert in my discussion with him
10          indicates that that is probably the case, though he 11          doesn't know because as he goes in his little letter,
12          he said he is going to give it to me like it is,
13          whatever. But I believe having done cases like this 14          before involving, actually I think a Fila shoe.
15          Actually, it was a Fila shoe we are talking about,
16          that there are all kinds of brands which leave
17          indications which may be like Fila. In fact, there
18          is even some copycat brands. I have talked to Fila
19          Company before, and they have told me the same
20          thing.

21          So I think that this man's testimony would be 22          important to me to distinguish, to indicate that-- he 23          may be able to tell me that this shoe is not 24          consistent. I don't know that because he hasn't 25          looked at it, okay, but I at least want him to have a 26          chance to look at it to say whether he will say that,
27          to see whether that is the case. But even if it is 28          consistent, we certainly need to broaden the universe
29          of people who could have left that print or shoes

1           that could have left that print because it is also
2           not clear that this shoe belonged to the Defendant.
3           But that is the State's contention, and they have 4           some proof in that regard. They are putting the 5           shoe box in the house and all that kind of stuff,
6           okay.

7           So, and he is an expert on the serial number,
8           you know, the matching of the shoe with information
9           that is on the box. Now I don't-- I say serial
10          number. That is probably not what they use. I don't 11          remember what they use, but there is some way from 12          the box to determine what kind of shoe was in the 13          box, what I think color, might be able to tell the 14          color; may be able to determine type, you know, there
15          is a certain type, and there are a number of types
16          and things of that nature. So he can share with us
17          whether or not the shoe that was in the box, the box
18          that was found, is consistent with the shoe that they 19          claim made the print.

20          If I remember correctly, they didn't even have 21          the shoe in this case. They had a shoe box, and then
22          they had a print. So that is just a lot of grounds;
23          that is just a lot of room for speculation, and it's 24          prejudicial speculation to us unless we can have 25          somebody reasonably come in and explain it. We don't 26          need to be at the mercy of a prosecution expert who 27          poses and poises his testimony in a way which fits
28          the prosecution and which does not embrace the 29          options in the case. And that is why we need an

1 expert on the shoe print or footwear; that's what
2 they call it.

3 BY THE COURT: All right, the Court finds on 4 that-- you were through? I'm sorry.

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: (Mr. Lumumba nods his head.)

6 BY THE COURT: The Court finds on that 7 particular issue that the expert testified as to 8 pictures of the prints he took. He observed and he 9 didn't analyze them, but he observed the print that 10 it made in the blood. He determined later that that 11 came from a Fila shoe and from a brand name. One way
12 he determined that was he examined a Fila shoe that 13 came from a box that matched the box in the house
14 that the Defendant was staying in. And he took that 15 new shoe and looked at it in relation to the print
16 that was made in the blood at the scene. And it then
17 was a question of fact for the jury to determine. I
18 mean he never said that was the shoe. He said it was 19 similar is all he said. He did, he bought some 20 shoes, as I stated, that compared-- all those things
21 can be done without the necessity of an expert. The 22 Defense has access to be able to do the same thing
23 that this man did without the necessity of an 24 expert. So I'm going to deny an expert on the shoe
25 print.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: The final motion which I have 27 as far as the expert witnesses are concerned is a
28 motion which, for an investigative expert on both 29 fact and mitigation. Brenda Lewis, you should have

1                   your--

2                   BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

3                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Is a person who has worked in 4 this state before on a case. She is in Alabama. If
5 I'm not mistaken, she is at the University of Alabama
6 which would be like Tuscaloosa area. She is--

7                   BY THE COURT: --I have read her
8 qualifications. If you want to put that in the 9 record, that is fine, but I mainly need to know what 10 you want her for.

11                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, well, I need her to 12 compose for us a composite profile on our client,
13 associated with specific relatives, friends, if he
14 has had any associations with various or other kind
15 of experts, like doctors or ministers or whoever, so
16 we can get any kind of mitigation that would be 17 relevant at his presentation at a sentencing hearing
18 should we have to have a sentencing hearing. I don't 19 know if that was done before or not. I haven't 20 gotten to that point in the transcript. But that is,
21 we are told that it is virtually malpractice for the 22 attorney in a death penalty case not to do that. So
23 I think it is very important to be able to put on a
24 presentation at the sentencing portion, if it comes 25 to that, because we have to have that prepared.

26                  Secondly-- she does that; she does that all the 27 time. She has done that in many, many different
28 cases. Secondly, she may or may not testify
29 herself. It depends on what-- she will have some

1 contact, discussions with the Defendant, so she would
2 be in a position to testify perhaps to what his, what
3 his intentions are further in life, what kind of 4 person he would be in life. She obviously can't 5 testify of personal knowledge of any of the 6 background. But she would be lining up witnesses for 7 that. She wouldn't really be doing that.

8 Secondly, the facts. We are having problems,
9 and I have a letter from Mr. Freelon pointing out
10 that he has been up to, spent a whole day looking for 11 various witnesses especially witnesses who are, two 12 witnesses who it's alleged to have talked to my 13 client while he was in jail. And we need to have 14 somebody who can consistently, other than attorneys
15 who are preparing the case and doing other things
16 that we need to do, tracking down these fact
17 witnesses, finding these fact witnesses and putting 18 them in a position where we can talk to them. She is 19 an expert at that. She has done that for many 20 years.

21 And you have, if I remember right, I think the 22 names of witnesses are mentioned. I believe you have 23 got over 30 different people who I don't know if they 24 all were called at trial. I can't remember that, but 25 there certainly were more than 30, many more than 30
26 who were involved in allegedly seeing this Defendant
27 at some place or not seeing him some place. You have 28 the guy who is claiming that his gun was stolen from 29 his car. You have people who know this guy. You

1           have people that know possible motives he might have
2           for making that kind of statement. You have people
3           who know the people that were in jail who allegedly 4           talked to my client and know what motives they may 5           have. You have people who know various persons that 6           have testified to seeing my client on the street.
7           All of these people need to be touched and talked to,
8           and an expert on this would help.

9           Now it's not just enough to have an attorney do
10          it, even if the attorney had time do it. An attorney
11          can't testify generally speaking, which means that if 12          a client or if a witness said something to me which 13          compromises his testimony as he is putting it on at 14          trial, I can't get back up on the stand and say,
15          well, he told me this, and now he is changing his 16          statement. I'm going to need an investigator to say
17          that.

18          And I have virtually almost had no trial where I
19          didn't use an investigator in that way or was on the 20          verge of using an investigator and only didn't use
21          them because the person either unexpectedly or where 22          we just didn't know. It's just a perilous situation
23          where the person finally said what we expected, what 24          we knew to be the truth or what they told to the 25          investigator. But in almost every case, almost every 26          case I have ever tried in a murder case there has 27          almost always been someone who is shifting their 28          testimony to some extent between the discussions
29          with pretrial investigators and their testimony in

1 court.

2 And I see evidence in this case that some people
3 have shifted their testimony from the time that they
4 were talked to by his predecessor lawyers and this 5 time. So we expect more of that to take place. And 6 I think we are entitled to have an investigator, and 7 although the investigator may be working for us, the 8 investigator doesn't know him, doesn't have the kind
9 of association with him that his own attorney would 10 have.

11 So I think an investigator would have more
12 credibility if we can put an investigator on the 13 stand to testify to any contradictory or conflicting 14 statements as opposed to even having to call one of 15 his predecessor attorneys, which at this point we 16 probably may have to do anyway. But there are other 17 things that these attorneys can't testify, so we 18 would still need this investigator for.

19 So finally, discovering facts, bringing these 20 facts to our attention, putting us in touch with 21 witnesses, being present during interviews so that 22 she can be a source of impeachment should that 23 opportunity or should that need be manifest.

24 BY THE COURT: Okay. You don't have any 25 information about what she is going to cost either,
26 do you?

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah. She has it in her little 28 thing.

29 BY THE COURT: I'm sorry. I missed it.

1           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Let me see. Brenda Lewis. She 2           says the fee rate for conducting that type of 3           investigation--

4           BY THE COURT: --I have got it. It shows, let 5           the record reflect her fee is $200.00 retainer;
6           $300.00 for expenses.

7           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Wait a minute. She doesn't say
8           per hour. Oh, $60 per hour.

9           BY THE COURT: Per hour and 32 cents a mile plus
10          related expenses, lodging, long distance calls and 11          copying. The Court notes that she is from the State
12          of Alabama. Okay. Are you ready for me to rule on 13          that?

14          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah.

15          BY THE COURT: Okay. The Court finds that one,
16          she is too far away. There are numerous 17          investigators in this state that would be available
18          at a less cost than what she is. The second thing is 19          this case has been tried once. There is a complete
20          transcript of it. The State, all the witnesses that 21          the State intends to call testified; they in essence
22          now have given their deposition. All discovery has 23          been furnished, that there is nothing in my opinion
24          for a criminal investigation, investigator to do at 25          this point. Therefore, I deny the Motion for 26          Criminal Investigator.

27          She is also listed as a mitigation-- and the 28          reason it was listed as a mitigation expert, I think 29          Mr. Lumumba said maybe she was not an expert in that

1 field, but she has testified in that regard--

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --No, no. She is an expert in 3 that field.

4 BY THE COURT: Okay. Well, the Court has some
5 doubt as to whether that is a field in which there
6 can be expertise and would have to see something to 7 substantiate that. The other thing is most of the 8 stuff that she would testify in that regard is 9 available to Mr. Flowers, to his family. They can 10 supply that information to the attorneys and let them
11 compile it as they see fit.

12 So I deny that particular Motion.

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can I just get one point for 14 clarification?

15 BY THE COURT: Sure.

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, this case has not been 17 tried to the Defendant's satisfaction. We are here
18 right now-- the case that he just finished was a
19 guilty verdict. So obviously, there was something
20 missing from our point of view, so the Court puts us
21 in a seriously compromised position by saying that we 22 have to rely upon the transcript which resulted in 23 him being sentenced to death.

24 I believe that there is a number of things for 25 an investigator to do, and if these things would have 26 been done in the first trial, then he may not be
27 sitting here. But I mean, and that is not to say
28 anything about the attorneys. They needed an 29 investigator as far as I can see from the records.

1           They never had one, and I would just say that the
2           Court, I would invite the Court to read some of those
3           cases we cited in the prior motion.

4           But this is a very serious matter, and I almost
5           don't-- if the Court wants us to look for somebody
6           that doesn't have to drive from Tuscaloosa, which is 7           not that far away really. In fact, if you have a
8           case in Lee County, a witness coming from the Gulf
9           Coast or from Jackson might be driving just about as 10          far as a witness coming from Tuscaloosa which is at 11          the University of Alabama, which is not that far on 12          the other side of Meridian.

13          But in any event, you know, it compromises our 14          situation by putting us at the mercy of a transcript
15          which has already resulted in Mr. Flowers' death
16          sentence. I can't see how anyone can see that as 17          satisfactory. And I also say this to the Court. You
18          know, we cannot penny pinch around these death
19          penalty cases. I mean I don't care what people's 20          view is about budget and all this kind of stuff. If 21          you are a state and you take the responsibility where 22          you say you are going to put people to death; then at 23          that point money becomes no object.

24          A person's life is much more important than any 25          dimes you can spend, and we have seen case after case
26          unfold where years later people who have been on 27          death penalties, sometimes people even executed, have 28          come back and saw they are innocent. This here is an 29          entirely circumstantial evidence case, absolutely

1           circumstantial evidence case, and I think that the
2           need for the investigator is even more manifest
3           because of these things.

4           BY THE COURT: In the first place, it's not a
5           circumstantial case if those gentlemen from the 6           Leflore County Jail testify as they testified
7           before. Then it's a direct evidence case. The other
8           thing is the Court is aware of numerous criminal 9           investigators within the State of Mississippi, and 10          the Defendant is not entitled to have, to go out of 11          state and pick one just because that is the one he 12          wants.

13          But anyhow, the Court has researched this 14          matter, and the law is fairly clear that the 15          defendant is not entitled to a criminal investigator
16          except in rare instances to insure a fair trial. The 17          Court feels from having sat through one of these 18          trials and the fact of what is in the transcript and 19          what is involved in this case that a criminal 20          investigator is not required in this case to be paid
21          for from public funds. And you are entitled to have 22          a criminal investigator. I just don't think there is 23          sufficient reasons to require the county or the state
24          to pay for that criminal investigator.

25          Okay, were there any other experts other than 26          what we have talked about?

27          BY MR. LUMUMBA: No. Is your ruling that we 28          can't, that you won't appoint an investigator even if 29          they come from this state? Is that your ruling?

1                   BY THE COURT: Yes, sir. That's what it is.

2                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: The only other thing on this 3 would be is that we would seek an opportunity to 4 bring before this Court any other need for an expert
5 which might come to our attention. But, you know,
6 while we--

7                   BY THE COURT: --You have the right to reserve
8 that. As we get on down toward trial date though,
9 the closer we are to trial date may dictate as to how 10 I rule on that. You understand that.

11                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Uh-hum.

12                   BY THE COURT: So you can reserve your right to 13 file it, and I reserve my right to rule on it. How 14 about that? All right. Okay. Let me go out; I'm 15 going to-- I'm not going to announce what we have 16 done in here, but I'm going to announce my ruling.
17 Then we will take a break for lunch and start back at 18 1 o'clock.

19                   (THE COURT THEN RETURNED INTO OPEN COURT, AND 20 WITH ALL COUNSEL AND THE DEFENDANT PRESENT, MADE THE 21 FOLLOWING ANNOUNCEMENT:)

22                   BY THE COURT: Okay, on the question of 23 appointment of experts, let the record reflect that 24 Mr. Lumumba, on behalf of the Defendant, has 25 withdrawn his motion to have a psychiatric or 26 psychological expert appointed in this case. So that 27 is not before the Court. The only two things that 28 are before the Court are a ballistics expert and a
29 criminal investigator. The criminal investigator

1           that is proposed would also testify as a mitigation
2           expert. The Court has denied that Motion.

3           And on the question of ballistics expert, the Court
4           has taken that under advisement. Mr. Lumumba has to 5           furnish me certain other particular information
6           before I rule on that.

7           Okay. Let's take a break until 1 o'clock. (Pause)
8           I'm sorry; there is one other. Wait just a minute,
9           y'all. I'm not through. There is one thing I left
10          out. There was also a motion for a shoe print expert
11          in this case, and I denied that. Okay. Y'all are 12          free to go.

13                 (Mr. Billy Gilmore approached the bench.)

14                 BY THE COURT: I can answer that real quick. I
15                 will sign your Motion for a Continuance, and I'm 16                 going to deny your Motion to Withdraw until other
17                 Counsel enters in the case, so y'all furnish me
18                 orders to that effect. See y'all at 1:00.

19                 (FOLLOWING THE NOON RECESS ON JANUARY 26, 1998,
20                 MOTION PROCEEDINGS CONTINUED IN OPEN COURT WITH ALL
21                 COUNSEL AND THE DEFENDANT PRESENT. MR. JOHN GILMORE
22                 AND MR. BILLY GILMORE WERE NO LONGER PRESENT:)

23                 BY THE COURT: All right, sir. What do you have 24                 next?

25                 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, I have a discovery
26                 issue. We have not been provided-- there were two 27                 gentlemen, one named Veal and one named Hawkins who 28                 testified at the last trial in this matter, and I
29                 think that from the stand, if I'm not mistaken, they

1 indicated that they had sent letters to the Sheriff
2 indicating, I guess, that they wanted to talk to the 3 Sheriff. And this was supposed to have led to their 4 subsequent testifying at trial. We don't have copies
5 of those letters. We would like to have those
6 letters, and we are requesting that the State
7 forthwith produce them. Those letters will, of 8 course, be instrumental in our use for this-- we have 9 a hearing scheduled for today with these witnesses to 10 testify about their statements.

11 If the Court remembers, we moved to suppress 12 their statements. But, you know, I have something 13 else to say about that, about the Sheriff's lack of 14 assistance really in trying to get these people, but 15 I will speak to that in a minute. The real question
16 is we need a copy of the statements that they, or the 17 letters they sent, and so we need to see if the 18 District Attorney has those or have sought those 19 because he was at the last trial too. So he knows
20 they supposed to have sent letters, and we would like
21 to have copies of them.

22 BY THE COURT: Do you have--

23 BY MR. EVANS: I don't even know what he is 24 talking about, Your Honor. From my recollection of 25 the trial, one of the two witnesses testified that he 26 came to the Sheriff and told him about it. If there
27 are any notes that were sent, I have not been 28 furnished them or told about them. I have no problem
29 with both of us asking if there are any, but I don't

1 know of any.

2 BY THE COURT: Okay. I can't recall what the
3 testimony was, but you have them-- you do not have 4 them in your possession; is that correct?

5 BY MR. EVANS: Never heard of them, Your Honor.

6 BY THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Evans, I direct that 7 you inquire of the Sheriff of Leflore County if he 8 has such documents, and if he does, take them into 9 your possession and furnish the Defendant with a copy
10 of them. If he wants to look at the original, you
11 may keep the original and furnish him a copy of that.

12 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

13 BY THE COURT: Is that the Sheriff from Leflore
14 County here today?

15 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

16 BY THE COURT: Well, we can answer that. Why
17 don't we just put him on the stand right now and see 18 if he has got them? Then we will have a record of
19 it.

20 BY MR. HORAN: He is not back from lunch yet.

21 BY THE COURT: Okay. Well, why don't we make 22 some record, let there be something in the record as 23 to whether or not he has such a document before we 24 leave here today. Okay. All right, sir.

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I would call to the Court's 26 attention there for a motion. I filed the Motion to 27 use, to Bar the Use of Certain Aggravating
28 Circumstances, okay?

29 BY THE COURT: All right, sir.

1           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, let me indicate this
2           too. I would like an opportunity before we have the
3           hearing, and I would like to take a short break soon
4           to talk to the witness. There is a witness who we 5           sought to subpoena named Mr. Veal. He is one of 6           these people who were in the jail, and we went to the 7           Sheriffs. We searched for him all day, couldn't find 8           him, went to the Sheriffs and asked the Sheriff where 9           he was. The Sheriff told us he didn't know where he
10          was. All right, now I understand that the Sheriff
11          has actually, somebody at the Sheriff's Department
12          told my partner that they didn't know where he was,
13          didn't know, hadn't seen him and other things which 14          led us to believe they didn't know where he was.

15                 In any event, I understand that he is produced
16                 here today which is good. That is all well and good,
17                 but what we haven't had the opportunity to do is talk
18                 to him, so I wanted a short opportunity to talk to 19                 him before he gets on the stand. I don't need to do
20                 that right this minute.

21                 BY THE COURT: Okay. Yeah, I think he is here.
22                 As a matter of fact, I think the Sheriff is here now
23                 too, but we will go on to this Motion, and then we 24                 will come back to that.

25                 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, the Motion to Bar the Use
26                 of Certain Aggravating Circumstances. That Motion
27                 has been presented to the Court in writing, and 28                 basically, the District Attorney has revealed their 29                 intention to use great risk to many person

1           aggravating circumstance which is part of the 2           statutory aggravating circumstances, the felony
3           murder circumstance, and if I'm not mistaken, the 4           avoid lawful arrest circumstances.

5           There has been, as we indicate, case law,
6           particularly Pope v. State; it was just cited in the 7           brief. That is not a Mississippi case, but it is a
8           Georgia case, and I think we have cited some 9           Mississippi cases -- is that the aggravating
10          circumstances of a knowingly, that the Defendant
11          knowingly created a great risk of death to many 12          persons.

13          "This statutory aggravating circumstance has two 14          components," says the Court, "both of which must be 15          satisfied. First, the evidence must show that the 16          defendant, by his act of murder knowingly created a
17          great risk of death to more than one person in a
18          public place. Second, the evidence must show that 19          this 'great risk' resulted from the use of a 'weapon
20          or device' that is 'normally hazardous to the lives
21          of more than one person.' "

22          "A pistol used in a public place does not 23          necessarily create a 'great risk of death to more
24          than one person.' 'Great risk' does not mean mere 25          possibility, but likelihood or high probability.
26          Firing a gun into a crowd can create a great risk of 27          death to more than one person. Shooting someone from 28          fairly close range does not, by itself, create a 29          'great risk of death' to more than one person simply

1           because others may be in the vicinity."

2           Then they go on to cite various different cases
3           where shooting two people in a public place is not
4           sufficient, although six persons killed and two
5           wounded, that wasn't sufficient in a case, and many 6           other cases which speak to this issue.

7           What they are attempting to do, I think, is to 8           avoid duplicitous charging or duplicitous use of 9           aggravating circumstances. If, in fact, the District
10          Attorney's contention here is the person who 11          committed this crime was indeed doing so because of 12          an intent to commit a robbery, then it becomes in 13          that the people who died as a result of the robbery,
14          the shooting which occurred at the robbery, that is 15          an aggravating circumstance that is sufficient to 16          take to the jury, if they can prove it, in order to 17          ask the jury to come back with a death sentence.

18          However, what the cases seem to suggest is that 19          this aggravating circumstances was not just meant to 20          be a convenient gimmick to charge a person or to 21          sentence a person to death because more than one 22          person died. The thing is it creates a great risk of 23          more than one person. It really does not even punish 24          the intentional killing of more than one person.
25          That is not what-- unfortunately, that-- fortunately 26          or unfortunately, it depends on how you look at it.

27          Intent does not seem to be a real persuasive
28          factor in determining what is aggravating
29          circumstances in the State of Mississippi and in most

1           other states which have the death penalty, because as
2           the Court may well know, you can premeditate
3           someone's murder for a long period of time, lay in 4           wait and absolutely just clearly kill them, and you
5           would not be subject to the death penalty under the 6           current law. Whereas a person who walked into a
7           store and tried to commit a robbery and the gun
8           accidentally went off and killed somebody, they under 9           the statute could be subjected possibly to the death
10          penalty.

11                 So the point I'm making there is that it is not 12          the question of intent that these aggravating
13          circumstances are trying to reach. What it is trying 14          to reach is that apparently where a great risk is 15          created like, for instance, in the circumstance that 16          occurred in the bombing, you know, the well known,
17          notorious, infamous, whatever federal case which was 18          occurred, and I don't even remember where it's at 19          right now -- Oklahoma City, where a number of people
20          were killed, the use of a bomb itself is the kind of 21          dangerous instrumentality which should give rise to 22          aggravating circumstance.

23                 And so the case law would suggest that that
24          aggravating circumstances cannot stand in this case.
25          The Court has been, had an opportunity to see the 26          proofs at one trial. There was no indication there 27          that the gun was used in such a manner that at the 28          time, every time it was shot it was a great risk to 29          the various different people in the place. What it

1           did show is that different people in the place were 2           maybe intentionally killed. I mean I guess that is 3           possibly, the person who did this shooting could have 4           very well intentionally killed every person in 5           there. That is unclear, but that is possible.

6           But if that is, in fact, what occurred, it
7           definitely is not what the statute is trying to reach
8           with that specific aggravating circumstances.

9           The avoid lawful arrest circumstance should not 10          be submitted to the jury. There is absolutely no
11          evidence to suggest that this crime was committed 12          because anybody was trying to avoid a lawful arrest.
13          It is in number one. And number two, the avoiding of 14          a lawful arrest must be some element different from 15          the very killing which results because of the 16          commission of the robbery. If, in fact, it's the 17          same thing, then it's a duplicitous charging. It's 18          an attempt to use two aggravating circumstances to 19          beat on a person, to give a smorgasbord of choices to 20          the jury which thereby it becomes duplicitous and 21          deprives the Defendant of his right not to be, to be 22          duplicitously charged and/or sentenced with basically
23          the same act.

24          They have put in a different frame of reference
25          to give the jury; you can pick from this; you can 26          pick from that. Cases have said that that is 27          improper.

28          So what I would say is that in this case there
29          is no showing that there is any kind of independent

1 act which would show that this person who committed
2 this act actually was trying to avoid any kind of
3 arrest. In cases like State v. Reese, which is cited
4 in the brief, the only evidence in this case that
5 that was the case is the death itself or the deaths.

6 Several other cases are cited, Ladner v. State,
7 which is a Mississippi case decided in 1991, and it
8 says that, "The aggravating circumstance that the 9 capital offense 'was committed for the purpose of 10 avoiding lawful arrest' should not be used unless 11 clearly supported by the evidence." And that's not 12 the case here again.

13 Finally, they use a thing, they say that the 14 robbery was committed for pecuniary gain. That is in 15 the announcement of aggravating circumstances that I
16 received from the State. That's what it says, which 17 appears to be a fairly sly way of slipping the 18 pecuniary gain aggravating circumstance into the 19 equation.

20 The case again of Ladner v. State very clearly
21 makes it clear that the pecuniary gain is only used
22 if there is some additional evidence other than the 23 robbery itself to make this, to make this unique, to 24 separate it, to make it distinct from any other
25 robbery case where someone dies.

26 "In practically every case," the case says,
27 "where there is a robbery/ capital murder, two 28 aggravating circumstances used in the past are that 29 the homicide was committed while: Engaged in robbery and for pecuniary gain. Our Courts should closely scrutinize those two aggravating circumstances in the future, and omit using pecuniary gain except in clearly applicable circumstances. One aggravating circumstance is sufficient to satisfy the statute."

"Therefore, we hold, and state to trial judges and prosecutors, that where the indictment charges a robbery/ murder capital offense and robbery is designated as an aggravating circumstance, pecuniary gain should not be used as an aggravating circumstance unless clearly supported by the evidence. For instance, A pays B $1,000 to kill C, who has a wallet full of money. B robs C and kills him. There are two aggravating circumstances" here.

In other words, there was an initial motive to kill for money which was being paid by a third person, and then what happens, he actually robs the person too. So that is two different situations where the person was involved (a) in trying to get paid for the killing, something separate from the robbery, and (b) because he was trying to get the money from the robbery.

That's what the Court said in Ladner v. State, and so the Court is trying to say in as many different ways as they possibly can, and they have been saying so quite forcibly reversing cases, you know, quite a bit. Over 50 percent of death penalty cases in the State of Mississippi have been reversed, you know, since the death penalty has been

1           reinstated in the state, at least the sentencing
2           phase of it.

3           So like what I'm saying is that in order to 4           avoid that and to follow the law, I think that that 5           aggravating circumstance also should not be allowed
6           to stand.

7           I am also not convinced that there is sufficient
8           evidence on the third or fourth aggravating
9           circumstance which is the robbery itself. I was not 10          present at the trial, but I would say, you know, that 11          we have reason to believe that there is information
12          lacking in the proofs there that the robbery was 13          actually for pecuniary gain-- not for pecuniary gain,
14          but that there was actually a robbery, that there was 15          actually a robbery and that that was why the killings
16          occurred. We don't know that they didn't occur for 17          some other kinds of reasons.

18          But in any event, we would move to preclude them
19          from going into all four of those aggravating
20          circumstances: Pecuniary gain clearly, to avoid 21          arrest, robbery, and which is actually a felony
22          murder circumstance, and the final one which they 23          announce which was, as I have--

24                BY MR. HORAN: Great risk to others.

25                BY MR. LUMUMBA: A great risk to others
26          circumstance. I don't think any of them applies
27          here.

28                BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I'm going to go ahead
29          and address them even though I think this is a little

1           premature at this time. But since we have gone this
2           far, I will address each of them.

3           As to the first argument opposing Counsel gave 4           as to the great risk of death to many persons, the 5           law is clear in Mississippi. Now it may be different
6           in Georgia in the cases that he cited, but in 7           Mississippi the law is clear that where you have a
8           murder where more than one person is killed, you can 9           use that aggravating circumstance.

10          There have been several cases. Two of them are 11          Jackson v. State and Wheeler v. State which were 12          almost identical to this case where people went in,
13          committed robberies, killed more than one person, and 14          our state Supreme Court said that aggravating
15          circumstance was proper.

16          As to the avoiding lawful arrest, Taylor v.
17          State is probably the most in line case with that.
18          In this particular case we have the Defendant making
19          a statement to a person in jail that he had to kill
20          all these people because he couldn't leave any 21          witnesses. Now if that is not independent proof that 22          it was done to avoid lawful arrest, I don't know what 23          could be.

24          As to the pecuniary gain and the robbery, I
25          think if the Court will read the cites that were 26          given in that, they do not say what opposing Counsel
27          said. The only thing that our Courts have ever said
28          about using those in Jenkins v. State and Wiley v.
29          State, the Court said that they should not both be

1           given separately. And more specifically, in Irving
2           v. State, our State Supreme Court said the way that
3           instruction should be given when a person is killed
4           during a robbery is that the capital offense was 5           committed for pecuniary gain during the course of a
6           robbery, which is the same instruction that we gave.

7           BY THE COURT: The Court finds that this Motion
8           is premature. First, there must be a determination
9           of guilt by a jury before we even get to that point.
10          Then the instructions I give will be somewhat based 11          on what the facts show, what the evidence shows at 12          the trial. And so I am unable to rule on that at 13          this time positively until I see the facts. It is 14          overruled as being premature.

15          Mr. Lumumba, you, of course, are entitled to 16          resume those objections if we get to that point in 17          this trial.

18          BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have filed before the Court a
19          Motion to Place Additional Questions on the Jury
20          Questionnaire. The questions that we feel need to be 21          placed on the questionnaire in order to determine 22          what kind of prejudice the jurors may have been 23          affected by are questions which have to do with 24          juries, potential jurors' association with the prior
25          trial, whether it be by way of direct participation
26          as jurors, by way of relationships with the people
27          who participated.

28          For example, there were-- I don't know how many 29          people are in Lee County, but I suspect it's probably

1                   around about 28,000 or so. Am I right about that?

2                   BY THE COURT: I would say at least that many;
3                   yes, sir.

4                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: But whatever. Every individual
5                   is generally related to a large number of 6                   individuals. You know, I think that the formula is 7                   something like any individual, you know, you have to 8                   in terms of a given community, you sometimes can 9                   multiply that by 10, 15, or more or add 10 or 15 more
10                  people to that in terms of who they come into contact 11                  with on a regular basis.

12                  So I think that the Court summoned over 600 people,
13                  if I'm not mistaken. I know they summoned a large 14                  number of people to come in for the last trial.

15                  BY THE COURT: 400, I think.

16                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Pardon?

17                  BY THE COURT: 400 or 450.

18                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: 400 people. Okay, and then you 19                  have got to deal with those 400 people, their 20                  brothers, sisters, mothers, cousins, aunts, friends, 21                  talked to down the street kind of thing. We need to 22                  be able to tell precisely to what extent they have 23                  gotten any knowledge about this case from other 24                  individuals who may have been directly involved.
25                  This is not just a case that happened to have been 26                  tried in Lee County. This is a case where somebody 27                  received a death penalty in Lee County which 28                  dramatically affects the level of conversations and 29                  the level of opinions as far as people in Lee County

1 are going to have about the case.

2 The case appeared frequently in the media,
3 especially in the electronic media, I am told. The 4 paper-- I understand it also appeared in papers which 5 were printed in that area. So we have questions that 6 deal not only with who they knew on the jury, but 7 also questions that deal with who they may have 8 known-- I mean how they may have come to the 9 knowledge of the case through the media.

10 Finally, we have critical questions on race.
11 This is a case where three whites were killed along
12 with a black person. A tragedy, no doubt, but a
13 black defendant is accused in this case. Although it
14 is conveniently sometimes slips from the memory of 15 litigators, depending upon which side of the case
16 they are on, this has always been a critical element
17 in cases. Most attorneys, ninety percent of the 18 attorneys you talk to in the back rooms, back in your 19 chambers or over at the bar or at their offices, will 20 happily admit the critical question of race in a 21 decisive nature of racism and bigotry and just 22 various different levels of prejudices, be they 23 benign or mean-spirited, in the way that they come to 24 impact on juries.

25 So I think that it is very important, you know,
26 that we be able to sensitively address this issue
27 with the jurors and see if they have any racial 28 proclivities or racial proclivities which would, in 29 fact, impact upon their ability to be fair and

1 impartial jurors. So those are the types of 2 questions that I suggest that we add to this
3 questionnaire. In fact, we move that we add to this 4 questionnaire because we think it is important to 5 receiving a fair trial in this case.

6 BY THE COURT: Mr. Evans.

7 BY MR. EVANS: The specific questions that he 8 has placed in here that he is asking for, we have 9 strong objections to a lot of them. The general
10 topics that he has referred to, I don't have any 11 problem if it's asked in the proper way. But if a 12 juror takes this questionnaire, the first thing they 13 are going to have to do is call the Clerk's Office
14 and find out who was on that other jury. They are 15 also going to have to call the Clerk's Office or try
16 to go back and find newspapers or something to find 17 out what race the Defendant is.

18 This is, these questions are directed solely for 19 the purpose of causing the people that get the 20 questionnaire not to be able to serve. The general
21 questions I would have no problem with, but when you
22 start going into the type of questions that are in 23 here, it's going to cause more problems than we can 24 imagine. And the questions themselves implicate
25 racial biases. I have no problem with asking the 26 jurors if they have any racial biases toward anyone,
27 regardless of their race. But when you start 28 singling out, "Can you convict a black person for 29 killing a white person?" that is not proper.

1 I don't think our Supreme Court would ever say
2 it's proper. As a matter of fact, they have said
3 that race should not interfere with any trial.

4 So as far as the general questions, I don't have 5 any problem with that, but when we start getting 6 specific and start asking questions that is going to 7 require the jury to do research and find out who
8 served on a jury, to find out whether the Defendant
9 is black or white, all that is doing is trying to 10 create problems.

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I don't think that there is any 12 studies that would justify those kind of conclusions,
13 that asking people questions will generally cause
14 them to start calling the Clerk or whatever. I think 15 that if we wanted to put a sentence or a phrase in 16 here which indicated to persons that they should 17 answer these questions based upon their present
18 knowledge, and the questionnaire is not calling for 19 any research or investigation, then I have no problem
20 with it.

21 These questions are clear and to the point, and 22 the only person that they would shake is a person who 23 didn't want these kinds of things to be found out.
24 You can be so securitas about asking a question as to 25 find out nothing if you try hard enough. And so the 26 question is direct. You know, do they know what the 27 race of the Defendant is in the State v. Flowers
28 case.

29 Do you have any racial bias or prejudice against

1           black people? I don't see why there could be
2           anything simpler than that. Can you be a fair and 3           impartial juror in a case where a black defendant is 4           accused of killing one or more persons who are white?

5           Do you believe because a person is accused of a
6           crime, he is probably guilty? Do you believe that a
7           black person accused of a crime is more likely to be
8           guilty than a white person accused of a crime? Now I
9           can't understand why anybody would not want that 10          question to be asked.

11          And my experience is, is that you can get a
12          surprising amount of honesty, you know, in asking
13          these questions when you send them to people. And 14          they will be honest with you. If they don't have a
15          problem with folks based upon racial distinctions,
16          then they tell you. If they do, sometimes they will 17          tell you that. So I think that at least it's the 18          initial inquiry that needs to be made in order to 19          give us the proper basis for questioning at the voir
20          dire stage, and also to see, this will also help to 21          reflect and see what kind of bias or prejudice which 22          might exist in the community altogether on these 23          issues.

24          And I have seen questions much more specific 25          than these asked in many courts in many places in 26          this state. The one that goes out in Hinds County is 27          much more direct in death penalty cases. So I don't 28          see where there is a problem here.

29          BY THE COURT: Okay. One, the questionnaire is

1           just something that the Court allows. It is
2           discretionary in the Court's opinion. I mean the
3           Court's decision is based on its own discretion. I
4           allow that so that you will have some basis to 5           understand about these people before you get to the 6           point of voir dire. It does not take the place of 7           voir dire.

8           As in the first case, when the summons is 9           issued, it will not have a reference to the State of 10          Mississippi versus Curtis Flowers on it. It will be 11          blank to the extent that they won't know what they 12          are being summonsed for. The jury questionnaire will 13          be the same way. I think the questions that are 14          directed at that particular case would have, could 15          have a bearing on folks that knew nothing about it,
16          then make an inquiry into it which would jeopardize
17          their ability to serve as fair and impartial jurors.

18          I'm not going to allow specific questions. I'm 19          not going to allow question 1. I'm not going to 20          allow question 2. I'm not going to allow question 3
21          on the basis it asks did you serve on a jury in 22          1997. If they served on a jury in 1997, they are not 23          qualified to serve on this jury to begin with by 24          statute. I'm not going to allow 4 because that is a
25          direct question. I'm not going to allow 5 for the 26          same reason; 6, for the same reason; 7, for the same
27          reason; 8, for the same reason; 9, for the same
28          reason. 10, I will allow.

29          BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, may we add on 10

1           anybody that has, wanted to know if anybody has any
2           racial bias or prejudice against black or white
3           people.

4           BY THE COURT: Okay.

5           BY MR. EVANS: Because I think the State would 6           be entitled to know that also.

7           BY THE COURT: I will allow that amendment. 11
8           again becomes specific. I'm not going to allow it.
9           12 is a question that I will ask at voir dire. It's 10          no necessity for it being asked prior to voir dire.
11          And 13 is not an appropriate question for this 12          questionnaire. It may not be an appropriate question
13          for voir dire. I will pass on that when I get to
14          it.

15          Now as I recall, the first--

16          BY MR. LUMUMBA: -- Why wouldn't that question be 17          appropriate for voir dire?

18          BY THE COURT: I haven't ruled that it's not. I
19          said it might not be. 14. Isn't there a question
20          in the original questionnaire about the death
21          penalty?

22          BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

23          BY THE COURT: More than one, isn't it?

24          BY MR. EVANS: Just one. That's all the Court
25          would allow last time is one question.

26          BY THE COURT: Okay, I'm going to allow the one
27          that is in there. So I will deny 14 and 15 as being 28          a question that is already included in the 29          questionnaire. Those are matters for, mostly for

1                   voir dire. Okay. What is next?

2                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Could the Court go over those 3 again, please?

4                   BY THE COURT: All right, sir. I'm going to 5 deny all of them but 10, and we are going to allow 10
6 with the amendment to adding white people.

7                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have filed a motion to, or a
8 notice actually, to adopt the motions by prior 9 Counsel in the prior case which preceded us. Those,
10 of course, would be the written motions, the ones I'm 11 aware of, except for the Motion to Change Venue. And 12 so amongst those motions, you have a--

13                  BY THE COURT: --I'm going to allow that unless 14 y'all have got any disagreement with that.

15                  BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, they are already in 16 there. They were all filed in all causes.

17                  BY THE COURT: I think they are already in the 18 file.

19                  BY MR. EVANS: So they are already in there.

20                  BY THE COURT: But I will sustain that Motion.
21 I will get you to furnish me an order on that one.

22                  BY MR. EVANS: But the only thing different,
23 Your Honor, even the change of venue was filed in all 24 causes.

25                  BY THE COURT: I think, just as an aside, I
26 think the Court has ruled on all those motions, but 27 if I haven't, you can bring them to my attention.

28                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Are all the Court's orders in 29 the file?

1                   BY THE COURT: They should be.

2                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: All right. I will examine the 3 file again and see if I see all the orders, and then
4 I will let the Court know if we have any things that 5 remain outstanding.

6                   BY THE COURT: All right, sir.

7                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: We have a Motion to Extend the 8 Deadlines for Filing Motions. Actually, I don't know
9 if there is a deadline right now. But as far as that 10 is concerned, I have already shared with the Court--
11 well, I have a letter from Mr. Freelon, who, of 12 course, is co-counsel in this matter, where he points
13 out that he spent a considerable amount of time
14 looking for two of the witnesses who we needed for 15 this hearing today. One's name is Veal; the other
16 one's name is Hawkins if I recall.

17                   BY THE COURT: How much time do you need, Mr.
18 Lumumba?

19                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: We would ask for another 30
20 days.

21                   BY THE COURT: All right, sir. That is 22 granted. Draw me an order to that effect setting,
23 setting motion deadline for both sides as being March
24 the 1st.

25                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. We are ready now, Judge;
26 we would proceed with our hearing, and I guess what I
27 can do is we would like to call first Mr. Veal.

28                   BY THE COURT: Do you want to talk to him
29 before--

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes, I do.

2 BY THE COURT: --you do that? All right, we are
3 going to take a few minutes and let Mr. Lumumba talk
4 to this witness he has not talked to. And then we
5 will get on with that hearing. Is that the last
6 motion?

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I believe that's the last
8 motion we have for today.

9 BY THE COURT: When we get through with that
10 one--

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --No, no, I have one other
12 motion. We can handle that right now.

13 BY THE COURT: All right.

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I would make a motion for the 15 Court to provide a transcript of today's proceedings
16 for our use. It will be important to the appeal. It
17 will also help us keep a record of-- it's become 18 obvious from where we are now and the things we have 19 discussed, an accurate record of what has been said
20 may be very important to subsequent determinations in 21 this case.

22 So I would ask the Court to provide a record,
23 and also, there is a witness who is going to testify
24 in a few minutes. And he is a witness that is going 25 to be a witness at trial. So we would be entitled to 26 use whatever we could from that as a form of 27 impeachment, so I would ask the Court to provide a
28 transcript.

29 I think that the transcript-- well, I don't

1 know. The Court Reporter can tell you what the
2 transcript will cost, but a similar transcript cost
3 about $300.00.

4 BY THE COURT: No, I'm not going to require
5 that. The motion is overruled. There will be a
6 record of it, but I'm not going to require that, with 7 the exception you are going to be entitled to Mr.
8 Gilmore's stuff on the interlocutory appeal.

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I'm going to be entitled to 10 what now?

11 BY THE COURT: You are going to be entitled to 12 some transcript on interlocutory appeal, I would 13 think.

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes.

15 BY THE COURT: Okay. What relates, if they 16 grant the interlocutory appeal, you will be entitled 17 to that. Other than that, it's--

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, in order for them to 19 determine whether they grant it, my understanding is 20 they have to see some kind of record. I think it's 21 for the attached appendixes to it.

22 BY THE COURT: I don't think you have-- I don't 23 know. Well, you will just have to look at what the 24 rules say on that. I don't think that that is what 25 is required. You are going to have to file a
26 petition. If they take it on appeal, then they may 27 want to have the transcript that goes with it. I
28 don't think they require that on an interlocutory
29 appeal. If they do, if they require it, if that is

1           necessary, they will require-- they will notice us to
2           furnish it.

3           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, let me just say this
4           because I think this goes to several things we have 5           discussed. I don't quite understand the financial 6           tightness that seems to grip the Court's
7           consciousness. It seems to me it would be a little 8           more offensive to put somebody to death because they 9           didn't have sufficient funds to properly defend 10          themselves than it would be to spend a little bit of 11          money.

12          Now the State here has taken on the 13          responsibility of putting people to death. With that 14          comes a certain economic burden. To attempt to 15          ameliorate that at the cost of sacrificing a
16          sufficient defense is not good. Any trained trial
17          lawyer, and I am sure the Court has practiced law for 18          a period of time on its own, knows the value of 19          transcripts and knows how helpful they are in 20          preparation for trial, also for the purpose of combat
21          at trial.

22          To deprive somebody of one, like the case of 23          Griffin v. Illinois I believe it was, said that it's 24          tantamount to leaving the indigent Defendant cripple
25          in a way in which a person who is financially well
26          off is not. At least in a situation where we have 27          got, at least in a situation where we can do
28          something to keep up the balance, we are not asking
29          for the kind of money that some people put into a

1 case, but we certainly would like to have enough to
2 have a sufficient defense here, and to give this man
3 an adequate opportunity trying to save his own life.

4 So, you know, I wish that the Court would kind
5 of try to stretch its mind on that point. I know
6 that this might not be a popular thing to do nowadays
7 in that there may be a lot of people sitting in the 8 audience who might not like that and that kind of 9 stuff. But the reality is that that is an absolute
10 requirement, and you know, I really sense a certain,
11 you know, and I'm not trying to be disrespectful, but 12 a certain stinginess in the way that we are basically 13 approaching this matter. Most economic matters are 14 being denied here, and I think that that kind of 15 tightness is going to ultimately, here again, bring 16 us back here five, ten, fifteen, twenty years ago if 17 something that is so untoward as a conviction in this 18 case should occur.

19 So I would ask the Court to reconsider.
20 Certainly, we need the stuff on the interlocutory
21 appeal. We certainly will need the stuff of a 22 witness about to testify. This guy is going to 23 testify at trial. Certainly, the Court doesn't hope
24 that I could both ask him questions and rely on my 25 notes to cross-examine him at the time of trial and 26 impeach him with my notes. That is physically
27 impossible, you know. You can't do that. So that's 28 why I am suggesting that we at least allow those two 29 areas: The interlocutory appeal directed areas as

1 well as the areas which have to do with live
2 testimony of witnesses. In this case I am
3 particularly concerned about the testimony we are 4 about to take.

5 BY THE COURT: All right. Well, of course, at 6 this point in time the Court doesn't know whether he
7 is going to impeach what he said to begin with, so I
8 have got no way to rule on that yet. The case law is 9 clear that you are not just entitled to a transcript
10 in every case. I routinely deny those and have in 11 every capital murder case I have had, and there is no
12 authority for that other than I guess I could 13 exercise my discretion. I see no basis for that in 14 this case, and so I deny--

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Do you always exercise your 16 discretion in denying it?

17 BY THE COURT: I have so far; yes, sir.

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: So there is really not much
19 discretion. What you do is you just have a rule
20 where you deny.

21 BY THE COURT: Well, I have so far. I guess
22 so.

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: All right.

24 BY THE COURT: Okay, we will take about 15
25 minutes while you talk to your witness.

26 (FOLLOWING A RECESS, PROCEEDINGS CONTINUED IN 27 OPEN COURT ON 1/26/98 WITH THE SAME COUNSEL AS 28 PREVIOUSLY STATED PRESENT AND WITH THE DEFENDANT
29 PRESENT:)

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, I have, I want to make a
2 motion, whether you call it a motion or a suggestion
3 or whatever, okay. I had a short while to talk to 4 the witness. In my view, this matter would be better
5 handled to just get it finished with. Now I have an
6 address and everything for the witness which I didn't 7 have before, okay. If we just go ahead and do the 8 entire hearing, which would be a short hearing I can 9 assure the Court, at one time. And see, there is 10 another witness who is still what I call on the lamb,
11 you know.

12 BY THE COURT: Mr. Hawkins?

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Mr. Hawkins, right. So if I
14 can procure his number, then I will have a chance to 15 get him at the hearing, and I really don't want to 16 have big gaps between the time that they testify. I
17 mean I want to diminish any type of possibilities of 18 people talking to each other or telling--

19 BY THE COURT: --You think you can get Mr.
20 Hawkins now? You think you can get him served?

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, yeah, I think so if I can 22 get all the assistance I can from them in terms of 23 letting me know where he is.

24 BY THE COURT: Do you know where he is now?

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We have some, we have been
26 given-- yeah, we have been given some leads. Let's
27 put it that way, but I don't know--

28 BY THE COURT: --Sheriff Banks is here, isn't
29 he? Have you talked to him?

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, maybe Sheriff Banks can
2 tell me. I don't know, but he would know. Sheriff
3 Banks is not where I got the leads from.

4 BY THE COURT: I understand.

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: But I will certainly be willing 6 to ask him, yeah.

7 BY THE COURT: What you are saying is you want
8 to have this hearing at another time when you can 9 have both of them?

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, right.

11 BY THE COURT: I think that would be more
12 efficient--

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Right.

14 BY THE COURT: --if we do that myself. Would 15 you ask Mr. Sheriff Banks to come in.

16 (Sheriff Banks enters the courtroom.)

17 BY THE COURT: Hello, Sheriff. You don't need
18 to be sworn. I just need some information from you.
19 This Mr. Hawkins, who is going to be a witness in 20 this case who has been in your jail, I think, do you
21 have any idea where he is, or where he could be 22 located?

23 BY THE SHERIFF BANKS: He lives in Itta Bena.
24 I don't know whether he is working anywhere now or 25 not, Judge.

26 BY THE COURT: Do you think we, you would be in 27 a position to help us? If a subpoena is issued for 28 him, do you think you can get him served?

29 BY THE SHERIFF BANKS: Oh, yeah. I think we

1 can find him. Yes, sir.

2 BY THE COURT: All right.

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, then I will set up a
4 date, and I will get Sheriff Hawkins a subpoena.

5 BY THE SHERIFF BANKS: Okay. No, I am Banks.

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, I'm sorry.

7 BY THE COURT: That is Sheriff Banks. Well, why
8 don't we set a hearing date while we are here today?

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. All right.

10 BY THE COURT: And the Sheriff will know you
11 have got the subpoena coming, and I can also tell Mr.
12 Veal he has got to be back on that day.

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

14 BY THE SHERIFF BANKS: He is on paper, Judge,
15 so I am sure that the probation and parole can find
16 him.

17 BY THE COURT: Right, okay.

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: You say Mr. Hawkins is on 19 paper?

20 BY THE SHERIFF BANKS: Yes, sir.

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. Yes, that's a good idea,
22 Judge. Is there any particular days of the week when
23 the Court--

24 BY THE COURT: --Linda, what have I got next
25 week?

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --does its motions?

27 (The Court Reporter handed a calendar to the 28 Court.)

29 BY THE COURT: What have you got either - I'm

1           talking to both sides - Tuesday or Thursday of next
2           week?

3           BY MR. EVANS: I think Tuesday I am supposed to 4           be in Jackson at a meeting. I don't know of 5           anything; I think there is-- you may have a trial set
6           next Thursday. I think you have got a trial set
7           Wednesday and Thursday.

8           BY THE COURT: That is this week.

9           BY MR. EVANS: Oh, you are talking about--

10          BY THE COURT: --I'm talking about next week.

11          BY MR. EVANS: Next week, okay.

12          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Tuesday is the 3rd.

13          BY MR. EVANS: What is the date of the--

14          BY THE COURT: Would be the 3rd. Today is the 15          26th. It would be the 3rd or the 5th.

16          BY MR. LUMUMBA: I actually have a trial set
17          there. I don't know whether it's going to go or not,
18          but I have a trial set next week.

19          BY THE COURT: Which day are you talking about?

20          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, I have one starting on 21          Monday, and it may go at least until the 5th, you
22          know. It is probably going to go that long. It's a
23          conspiracy case and a drug--

24          BY THE COURT: What about the 11th?

25          BY MR. LUMUMBA: The 11th for me is probably 26          going to be all right. Right now I have a trial set 27          then too, but I don't think it is going to go. Let 28          me, can I suggest a date?

29          BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can I suggest the-- well, is
2 the 16th a holiday?

3 BY THE COURT: It is President's Day, but I will
4 be in term in Choctaw County. And I will be there,
5 well, who knows how long it is going to take, but two 6 weeks are set aside for that term.

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. What about-- the briefs
8 are due; we set the motions for this case until what,
9 the 2nd?

10 BY THE COURT: The 1st. Well, yeah, be the 2nd
11 of March, right.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: 2nd of March. Can we do this 13 on the 3rd?

14 BY THE COURT: Of March?

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes.

16 BY MR. HORAN: There is a term starting here.
17 Unless, you are not going to be able to do it here.

18 BY THE COURT: Yeah, the term starts here. The 19 courtroom will be occupied unless you want to-- we 20 can do it somewhere else.

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, that is okay with me.

22 BY MR. EVANS: The only problem is we will have 23 a grand jury that day. Could we possibly could do it
24 after lunch that day?

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA: That is okay with me.

26 BY THE COURT: He is talking about the 3rd being 27 on Tuesday.

28 BY MR. EVANS: Oh, okay.

29 BY THE COURT: That would be the first Tuesday

1           in this term.

2           BY MR. LUMUMBA: All right. Do you know where 3 you are going to be?

4           BY THE COURT: Well, let's see. Wherever y'all
5 want me, I guess.

6           BY MR. LUMUMBA: The closer the better for me
7 but, you know, whatever. What about Winona?

8           BY THE COURT: Yeah, any reason we can't do this
9 in Montgomery County?

10          BY MR. EVANS: I don't see why we couldn't.

11          BY THE COURT: Okay. Let me go call my Court
12 Administrator real quick and make sure that is okay.

13          (The Court leaves the courtroom briefly and then 14 returns.)

15          BY THE COURT: Okay, let's set it for the 3rd in 16 Winona at 10 o'clock.

17          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Going to do it on-- 10
18 o'clock?

19          BY THE COURT: Uh-hum.

20          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

21          BY THE COURT: 10 o'clock on the 3rd.

22          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, that will work.

23          BY THE COURT: Okay.

24          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, that is the last motion I
25 have for today.

26          BY THE COURT: Okay, now. I am prepared to set 27 a trial date for this, and that is pending, depending 28 on what the Supreme Court does with this 29 interlocutory appeal. If they issue a stay, then, of

1 course, this date won't be-- it will not be
2 relevant. But I am ready to set a date.

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

4 BY THE COURT: And the Court has made inquiry
5 with the Court Administrator, talked directly to the 6 Court Administrator in Lee County. It had been my 7 anticipation that we could try this in June, and 8 that's when I wanted to do that, but their docket
9 won't allow it. The only other dates they have were 10 July the 20th. That is a term in Grenada. I cannot 11 do that. I can't try it at that time. The next date
12 he gave me was September the 14th, and he gave me an 13 October date. I'm going to set it for September the 14 14th.

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Excuse me one second, Judge.
16 Okay.

17 BY THE COURT: All right. Will the State enter,
18 send me an order setting it for the 14th.

19 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

20 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, procedurally, where 21 are we as to this particular trial date? There was a
22 motion for continuance. I haven't seen an order.

23 BY THE COURT: I think I have executed the 24 order.

25 BY MR. HORAN: To the new trial date?
26 Continuing for good cause until that particular date?
27 Have you entered an order--

28 BY THE COURT: No, sir. That's what I was 29 asking you. I have entered an order continuing until

1 further order of the Court, I believe. Isn't that
2 right, Mr. Lumumba?

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: That's correct.

4 BY THE COURT: Now I need an order setting it--
5 oh, I will draw it. I will draw it. The Gilmores
6 are not here?

7 BY MR. EVANS: No, sir.

8 BY THE COURT: Okay, they are going to furnish 9 me-- according to what they have told me, they have 10 filed a Motion for Continuance. I told them I was 11 going to grant that Motion for a Continuance. I set
12 their causes for September 14th at this particular 13 time, and I will set that by order too. We will 14 probably at this March hearing, I will set a date by 15 then. I will set a date as to when we are going to 16 draw the venire, and that will be -- I can tell you
17 right now it's going to be about the middle of July.
18 And they will issue the summonses six weeks before
19 court. The questionnaire will go out with them then,
20 the same procedure that we used in the first case.

21 All right, if there is nothing further to be 22 brought before the Court, the Court will be 23 adjourned.

24
25 HEARING OF JANUARY 26, 1998 ADJOURNED
26
27
28
29

1 (COURT HAVING BEEN DULY OPENED ON MARCH 3, 1998,
2 AT APPROXIMATELY 11:30 A.M. IN WINONA, MISSISSIPPI, FOR MOTION
3 TO SUPPRESS HEARING AND OTHER PRETRIAL MATTERS BEFORE THE
4 HONORABLE CLARENCE E. MORGAN, III, CIRCUIT JUDGE, FIFTH CIRCUIT
5 COURT DISTRICT, THERE WERE THE FOLLOWING APPEARANCES:

6 Present and Representing the State of Mississippi:

7 HON. DOUG EVANS AND HON. KEVIN HORAN

8 Present and Representing the Defendant:

9 HON. CHOKWE LUMUMBA AND HON. HARVEY FREELON.

10 HOWEVER, THE DEFENDANT AND MR. LUMUMBA ACTUALLY CAME INTO THE 11 COURTROOM SHORTLY AFTER PROCEEDINGS STARTED AS WILL BE NOTED.)

12 BY MR. FREELON: Judge, Attorney Lumumba is 13 speaking with one of the witnesses right now, but I
14 do want to-- we filed a motion on yesterday, so I
15 wanted to give this to the Court before we get 16 started.

17 (The Court confers with a corrections officer.
18 Mr. Freelon hands a document to Counsel for the State
19 and to the Court.)

20 BY MR. FREELON: These were filed on yesterday.

21 (DEFENDANT ENTERS COURTROOM.)

22 BY MR. FREELON: Judge, can we not get one of 23 these chained removed?

24 BY THE COURT: They were removed and some-- he 25 either put them back on or Mr. Lumumba did it, so
26 they stay like they are.

27 BY MR. FREELON: Who put them back on?

28 BY THE COURT: The Defendant.

29 (Pause while Mr. Freelon confers with his

1 client.)

2 BY MR. FREELON: Judge, I have before you, first
3 is a Motion for Discovery of Information. Last time
4 we filed a Motion for Discovery, and I think you
5 asked, you let-- you submitted an order where there
6 was specific information that we needed to know, that 7 we should bring it forward. And I think there is 8 specific information at this point in time that we 9 need to know which is in the Motion for Discovery.
10 Since the time, since we last met, we have done an 11 investigation on this case, and there is some 12 information that we are going to have to have in 13 order to prepare a trial, Your Honor. And we have 14 included in this Motion for Discovery, and you can
15 look at them listed, but we need that information
16 specifically. We have reason to believe that there
17 are some other statements that is out here that was 18 given by witnesses that we don't have those 19 statements.

20 BY THE COURT: Okay. Give me the names of the 21 people that have given statements that you don't 22 have.

23 BY MR. FREELON: We have reason to believe that 24 Frederick Veal as well as the other gentleman that is 25 here to testify today. What is his name?

26 BY THE DEFENDANT: Maurice Hawkins.

27 BY MR. FREELON: Maurice Hawkins actually gave a 28 written statement, Your Honor, but we don't have 29 those. We don't have those statements.

1                   BY THE COURT: I think--

2                   BY MR. EVANS: --As far as I know, everything
3 has been given. If there is anything else, I can 4 ask, if they will tell me specifically what they are
5 looking for. If there is something I can check on, I
6 will be glad to.

7                   (MR. LUMUMBA HAS ENTERED THE COURTROOM.)

8                   BY THE COURT: As I stated before and have told 9 the State before, if they have this stuff, they have 10 to give it to you. They say they do not have it.

11                  BY MR. FREELON: Your Honor--

12                  BY THE COURT: If you can prove that that is not 13 true, then we will see what we can do about doing
14 it. I don't know what-- I don't know how to answer
15 it, Mr. Freelon, other than that. I am telling you,
16 you can have it. If it exists, you can have it.

17                  BY MR. FREELON: Okay.

18                  BY THE COURT: Okay.

19                  BY MR. FREELON: And at this present time I
20 don't think we have a criminal record of the 21 individuals as well, a complete criminal record of 22 both of the witnesses. I think we requested it. As 23 a matter of fact, I think there was an argument
24 during the last trial that one of the problems--

25                  BY THE COURT: --If you don't mind me; I don't 26 want to interrupt you, but let's go back. Did what I
27 just say take care 1, 2, and 3?

28                  BY MR. FREELON: Not as far as I am concerned, 29 Your Honor. We have reason to believe that there are

1 statements, written statements.

2 BY THE COURT: But all I can do is say that you
3 are entitled to them. I am ordering if they have got 4 them, to give them to you. I can't do any more than 5 that, Mr. Freelon. So I am sustaining that part of 6 the Motion. If they have those statements, you are 7 entitled to them, and you are going to get them.

8 BY MR. FREELON: But you will give us an order
9 on that; right?

10 BY THE COURT: I think I already have, but if 11 not-- I have given you an order of discovery, that 12 they have to supply you everything that they have.

13 BY MR. EVANS: As far as an order, I would like
14 to know what he is talking about an order on. You 15 know, if he is saying the Court is ordering us to 16 give something that we don't have--

17 BY THE COURT: --No, I'm not.

18 BY MR. EVANS: --There can't be an order.

19 BY THE COURT: I'm not. I am ordering you to 20 comply with 406 is what I'm ordering you to do.

21 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

22 BY MR. FREELON: But can we get an order on 23 that, Your Honor?

24 BY THE COURT: I will give you an order
25 requiring the State to comply with Rule 406 to which 26 I assume you have no objection, Mr. Evans.

27 BY MR. EVANS: None at all, Your Honor.

28 (Mr. Lumumba and Mr. Freelon confer briefly.)

29 BY MR. FREELON: We were on 1, 2, 3; right?

1                   BY THE COURT: Yes, sir. We are on 1, 2, 3.
2                   Now that covers that, doesn't it?

3                   BY MR. FREELON: Once we get the order, yes, it
4                   covers that, Your Honor.

5                   BY THE COURT: Okay, well, I will try my best to 6                   get the order out tomorrow.

7                   BY MR. FREELON: Your Honor, we have reason to 8                   believe there was more reports between the law
9                   enforcement office, a written report specifically
10                  between the Sheriff of Leflore County and a couple of 11                  the witnesses, inmates. We have reason to believe 12                  that there was a written statement between those two 13                  individuals, and we would like that written statement
14                  as well.

15                  BY THE COURT: That is a written statement
16                  between who?

17                  BY MR. FREELON: Between the two witnesses from 18                  Leflore County - Mr. Veal, Mr. Hawkins that went to 19                  the Sheriff of Leflore County.

20                  BY THE COURT: Who has got-- who would have 21                  custody of that?

22                  BY MR. FREELON: That is the reason I am asking 23                  this Court to order that we get that statement, Your
24                  Honor.

25                  BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, if I'm not mistaken, 26                  this is the same thing that they brought up last
27                  hearing that the Court asked me to ask the Sheriff
28                  about. I asked the Sheriff about, and he said there 29                  wasn't one.

1                   BY THE COURT: Do you have any objection to
2                   having it if there was such an order--such a
3                   document?

4                   BY MR. EVANS: If there was, I would love to 5                   have it myself.

6                   BY THE COURT: Okay, then if anybody has it and 7                   I have the authority over them to order it, then I
8                   will order that that be furnished to both sides.

9                   BY MR. FREELON: Next, Your Honor, we need a 10                  copy of the criminal records, the criminal records of 11                  the individual, Mr. Veal, as well as Mr. Hawkins with 12                  the specific dates as far as what date the crime was 13                  committed, the date of conviction. One of the 14                  biggest arguments in the last trial, Your Honor,
15                  according to the transcript, was that the Defendant's
16                  Attorney did not receive a copy of the complete
17                  criminal records of those two individuals.

18                  BY MR. EVANS: Which the Rules do not require us
19                  to give. We followed the Rules.

20                  BY THE COURT: If it's under the Rules, you are 21                  entitled to it. If it's not, you are not.

22                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, that is not necessarily 23                  true, Judge.

24                  BY THE COURT: It is from the purpose of that's 25                  what my order is.

26                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, well, then what we are 27                  asking you is to go beyond the Rules because there is 28                  relevance to the times of the convictions. The times 29                  of the convictions would establish whether or not

1           they are admissible as impeachment. Now regardless
2           of whether the Rules says you have to have them in 3           every case, and certainly what you were prepared to 4           do in the last trial, you were prepared to sustain an
5           objection to them even impeaching the man because you
6           expressed some uncertainty as to when the convictions
7           occurred. Now as the Defendant's defense, we don't 8           have access to criminal records. We have no way of 9           knowing whether the person has been convicted within 10          the last ten years or not other than what the person
11          says, if the person agrees to talk to us. And with 12          all the witnesses that has not been the case.

13                 So the point, the point that we have is that 14          there is a need to know here, and the appropriate
15          order we would ask the Court to do is issue an order
16          requiring them to give us the dates of the 17          conviction. That is not a hard thing for them to 18          do. It's difficult for us to get.

19                 BY THE COURT: Do you have any objection to 20          furnishing it if you can get it?

21                 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir; I do. I'm not going to 22          do their job for them when they can subpoena these 23          records if they want them. I don't have the records.

24                 BY THE COURT: Okay, I'm not going to order it.
25          I'm not going to-- let me say this. I'm not going to 26          order the State to furnish them.

27                 BY MR. FREELON: And, Your Honor, number-- the 28          same thing with number 7, Your Honor. It's self-
29          explanatory.

1                   BY THE COURT: Now let me ask you this. Have we 2 disposed of 4 and 5? I guess we did, didn't we?

3                   BY MR. FREELON: According to you, Your Honor,
4 we have disposed of 4 and 5. You are not going to 5 order them.

6                   BY THE COURT: Okay.

7                   BY MR. FREELON: Number 6 is the same thing as 8 the criminal records. 4 and 5 is what I spoke to you
9 about as far as the records between the Sheriff of 10 Leflore County and the two individuals--

11                  BY THE COURT: Right, and I have ordered that.
12 6, I have denied.

13                  BY MR. FREELON: Number 7 is in reference to 14 those two individuals as well.

15                  BY THE COURT: Okay, I'm not going to order the 16 State to furnish that.

17                  BY MR. FREELON: On number 8, Your Honor, we are 18 asking, we have reason to believe as well that there
19 has been money offered in this trial as well as money
20 changing hands. So we would like to know, Your 21 Honor, if there is any money that has been promised
22 or anything of value that has been promised to either
23 Frederick Veal or Maurice Hawkins through the State,
24 through the investigators, through any public
25 official, or even through any of the deceased's
26 family members. We would like to know that 27 information. And we have reason to believe, Your 28 Honor, that is the case. (Pause) That is number 8
29 on your copy.

1                   BY THE COURT: Yeah, I know. I guess you can
2 answer that as to whether or not y'all have promised
3 them anything, any money.

4                   BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor--

5                   BY THE COURT: You would be the only government
6 I know of.

7                   BY MR. EVANS: It is not discoverable unless 8 they can show some reason. It is also not relevant.
9 The only information that I have, which we will 10 furnish on discovery that came up recently, is where 11 a defense attorney in this case has offered a witness
12 money to tell a different story. That we will 13 furnish. I know of no information where none of our 14 office has offered anybody any money because we don't 15 have any way of doing that.

16                   BY THE COURT: Okay, that answered that
17 question.

18                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, no, not quite, Judge. If 19 we have any money that was used to house either one
20 of these witnesses or do anything like that, we would 21 like it now. And if he is saying that they have been 22 offered no money by anybody, then we are requesting 23 that that statement be put in writing.

24                   BY THE COURT: It's on the record.

25                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Is that his statement? Did you
26 understand him to say that, Judge, because I didn't
27 really understand him to say it? I understand--

28                   BY THE COURT: He said his office had not.

29                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: I understand him to say it was

1           irrelevant. That's what I understood.

2           BY THE COURT: No, he said his office had not.
3           I don't want to misquote you, Mr. Evans. That's what
4           you said--

5           BY MR. EVANS: --That's exactly what I said,
6           Your Honor.

7           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, well, then it goes beyond
8           his office. He is responsible for the police
9           authorities also. That is the law. The law is that 10          he, that the prosecution is responsible for the 11          investigating authorities, police authorities
12          connected to this case. We are asking as it relates 13          to them and as to his knowledge as to whether any 14          civilian or family member or anyone else has because 15          if he is aware of that, that is Brady material.

16          BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, to start with, even 17          though I don't think they are entitled to this; we 18          have no knowledge of anyone other than a defense
19          attorney offering any witnesses any money. That is 20          not-- however, none of this is relevant. This is an 21          improper way of even trying to attack this. If they 22          wanted to attack it by putting a witness on to state
23          something, that would be the proper way to attack it,
24          not like this.

25          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, it is absolutely absurd
26          to suggest that if they know of somebody offering a
27          witness money which served in a trial to help
28          somebody get convicted and sentenced to life, that 29          they don't have the obligation to bring that

1 information forward. Secondly, it's absurd to 2 suggest that the offer of any kind of financial 3 remuneration doesn't go to the motive or interest of 4 a person that testifies. That is basic textbook,
5 first day in class evidence, and if he has been 6 there, he knows that.

7 So what the speech was about, I'm not quite
8 certain, but certainly he should know enough
9 presumably, if he is holding that office, that he is 10 responsible to get us that information. So what is 11 this statement about it's not relevant?

12 BY THE COURT: Well, he has answered the
13 question--

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Well, I want a ruling.

15 BY THE COURT: He has answered the question that 16 he didn't.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I would like a ruling on the 18 relevancy. I would like for you to rule--

19 BY THE COURT: --No, sir. You are not going to 20 get that.

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Why not?

22 BY THE COURT: You are not going to get a ruling
23 on the relevancy. The question is, is whether or not 24 is the answer to number 8. He has answered that, and 25 I have ruled, and there is nothing for me to rule
26 on. He said that there is not, and I'm not ruling on 27 the relevancy at this time.

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

29 BY THE COURT: So that is everything in this

1 Motion. What is next?

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: So wait a minute. So your
3 ruling is, is that you don't believe that you need to 4 respond to the question of whether or not it's 5 relevant, whether somebody gave one of the witnesses
6 money or promised one of the witnesses money?

7 BY THE COURT: That's right.

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. We want to continue the 9 motion date in this case, the deadline for the motion
10 date for a couple of reasons. Number one is that we 11 anticipate some affidavits from the Tupelo area with 12 respect to the prejudice in that environment. We, of 13 course, don't know people in Tupelo, but have been 14 able to make some contacts, and there is some people
15 doing some work to investigate that. And we, they 16 have informed us that they would be able to supply
17 some affidavits, but they weren't able to do it by 18 the time of this date.

19 Secondly, I have been involved with an extensive 20 federal trial prior to coming here to this trial and 21 have been preoccupied to some extent with the writing
22 of the interlocutory appeal in this case and with 23 many other matters; have been unable to completely
24 file all the motions which I need to be filed in this 25 case by today. So I am asking the Court to extend 26 the deadline. The trial in this case is set for 27 September 14th. I am not asking the Court to set a 28 deadline which would in any way interrupt that trial
29 date.

1           BY THE COURT: Okay, as I told you before, the
2           motion for change of venue, if you present it in a
3           manner that is correctly presented, I'm going to 4           entertain that at any time, including through voir
5           dire, Mr. Lumumba. So the motion deadline does not 6           apply to that until it gets to a point where it's 7           dilatory. And that will be somewhere in the 8           proximity of the time that we pull the jury, but it
9           will still be open to a renewal of your motion at 10          voir dire if voir dire should produce sufficient 11          grounds to make that motion sustainable. I will 12          entertain it at that time, so it does not apply.

13                 What are the other motions that you want to file
14          that you want an extension for?

15                 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I'm not sure of all the motions
16          that I may have to file, Judge, so I don't want to be 17          precluded from filing motions, but I know there is a 18          number of motions which may very well have to do with 19          the way that we voir dire the jury. We anticipate
20          that there is a motion to-- there is going to be a 21          motion filed to revisit the question of the change of 22          the venue back to its original situs. We found some 23          law which supports that.

24                 And those are things which off the top of our 25          heads we are aware of. But we feel certain that when 26          a thorough review of the case is done, there is going 27          to be a necessity for some other motions. And we 28          also would, we also have to-- I am still going to 29          supply the Court with some information on another

1 matter, and that will be done. We are not asking to 2 change the trial date. We are just trying to get an
3 extension on the motion date.

4 BY THE COURT: Okay, well, I let you set this
5 one. When do you want the next one set?

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, why don't we go, give us
7 60 days, and today is-- what is this March the 1st?
8 So we can go to June. I would say--

9 BY THE COURT: June? That is not 60 days.

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA: All right, well--

11 BY THE COURT: I'm not going to June.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, we say--

13 BY THE COURT: I will give you the 60 days, but 14 I'm not going to June.

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Why don't we go to May, the 16 first Friday in May, whatever Friday that is.

17 BY THE COURT: Okay. Now there won't be any 18 more extensions on that except for change of venue.
19 That will be it. So if you don't have it done then,
20 it's just not going to get done.

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We are prepared to proceed on 22 our Motion to Suppress Statements.

23 BY THE COURT: Okay. Have you got witnesses?

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, we have witnesses.

25 BY THE COURT: All right, would you call them in 26 here, and let's get them sworn.

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: All right. The first witness I
28 would call is Mr. Hawkins. Mr. Hawkins, wherever he 29 is at. He is here somewhere.

1                   BY THE COURT: Let's get, I want all the
2 witnesses on this Motion to be up and be sworn at the 3 same time.

4                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: I want-- the witnesses I have 5 -- well, let's see who they want to call. Do they 6 want to call any witnesses?

7                   BY THE COURT: Well, let's see-- it's your
8 motion. Let's see who you want to call.

9                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, I may call Hawkins--

10                  BY THE COURT: If you think you are going to 11 call them, you are going to have to swear them. I'm 12 going to put them under the rule. If you don't swear
13 them now and they sit in the courtroom, I'm not going 14 to let them testify.

15                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: The witnesses that I may call
16 are Hawkins, Veal and Banks.

17                  BY THE COURT: Okay. Have you got any other 18 than that?

19                  BY MR. EVANS: Well, it's hard to say until I
20 know what their motion is, Your Honor.

21                  BY THE COURT: This is the Motion to Suppress 22 the Statements.

23                  BY MR. EVANS: But until they start putting on 24 proof, I really don't have any idea of which 25 direction they are going.

26                  BY THE COURT: Well, if you have got anybody you 27 think you might call, you need to tell them to get 28 out of--

29                  BY MR. EVANS: --I may possibly call John

1 Johnson as a witness. I'm not sure.

2 BY THE COURT: All right. If you think they are 3 going to testify, they need to get out of the
4 courtroom.

5 BY MR. EVANS: And possibly Robert Jennings.
6 I'm not sure because I don't know what their motion
7 really is.

8 BY THE COURT: Okay. Well, I can't anticipate
9 that. I am just trying to tell you the rule has got 10 to apply to both sides. So if you want them to 11 testify, just decide who all that might be, and let's
12 let them step out.

13 BY MR. EVANS: Would the Court go ahead and set
14 a hearing date on these motions since the Court has 15 extended the deadline so that--

16 BY THE COURT: --What is the day on that Friday
17 in May? We will be in Vaiden.

18 BY THE COURT REPORTER: May 1st is a Friday.

19 BY THE COURT: Oh, May 1st is a Friday? We 20 won't be in Vaiden.

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, I would suggest we go to 22 May 8th then.

23 BY MR. HORAN: That is just the deadline; the 24 hearing date?

25 BY THE COURT: Yeah, okay.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: What is the issue that he is 27 raising? I'm sorry; I didn't catch that.

28 BY THE COURT: He wants me to set a date, and I
29 will do that.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Set a date for the--

2 BY THE COURT: The motion deadline is May the
3 1st. The motions must be filed by May the 1st. We
4 will hear them the next Friday.

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, that may be a problem
6 for me. I am in a trial starting on May the 4th.

7 BY THE COURT: Okay, when do you want to hear
8 them?

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can we deal with that before we 10 leave here?

11 BY THE COURT: Yeah, before we leave here.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We will deal with it before we 13 leave here. There is no big problem on that.

14 BY THE COURT: Okay. The deadline is May the 15 1st.

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

17 BY THE COURT: Sir, you need to raise your hand.

18 (WITNESSES SWORN BY THE CLERK.)

19 BY THE COURT: Everybody but whoever is going to 20 testify now needs to go out of the courtroom.

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Hawkins, we want Hawkins.

22 BY THE COURT: Mr. Hawkins, come around over
23 here.

24 MAURICE BERNARD HAWKINS,
25 upon being called to testify as a witness by the Defendant on 26 the Motion to Suppress Statements, having first been duly
27 sworn, testified as follows, to-wit:

28 BY THE COURT: State your name for the record.

29 BY THE WITNESS: Maurice Bernard Hawkins.

1                   BY THE COURT: You need to speak up so they can
2                   hear you; okay. All right, sir.

3                   (Defense Counsel confer.)

4                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, Judge, I'm sorry, but I
5                   want Mr. Veal.

6                   BY THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Hawkins, you need to 7                   go out. Go get Mr. Veal. Bring Mr. Veal.

8                   FREDERICK VEAL,
9                   a black male called to testify by the Defendant on the Motion
10                  to Suppress Statements, having first been duly sworn, testified
11                  as follows, to-wit:

12                  BY THE COURT: State your name for the record.

13                  BY THE WITNESS: Frederick Veal.

14                  DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

15                  Q. Okay, witness, could you state your name once again
16                  for the record, please.

17                  A. Frederick Veal.

18                  Q. And Mr. Veal, are you a person who has previously
19                  testified in a case involving Mr. Flowers?

20                  A. Yes, sir.

21                  Q. And at some point in time, Mr. Veal, were you, in 22                  fact, in a same jail that Mr. Flowers was in?

23                  A. Yes, sir.

24                  Q. And where was that at?

25                  A. Leflore County Jail in Greenwood.

26                  Q. Did something happen in order to put you in contact
27                  with Mr. Flowers?

28                  A. Yes, sir.

29                  Q. Tell me about it, please.

1           A.    I wanted to get out of jail, and I didn't have no
2 money, so I asked to speak to Mr. Banks. So I wanted to know
3 why my bond was ten thousand dollars. He told me I was a two
4 time convicted felon, and he asked me, "Well, you can help
5 yourself out. Let me put you in the cell with Curtis Flowers
6 and see if you can get any information from him."

7           Q.    Okay, so Mr. Banks asked you, just to be clear, he 8 said that you could help yourself out; let me put you in the 9 cell with Curtis Flowers and see if you can get some 10 information from him; is that correct?

11          A.    Yes, sir.

12          Q.    And that was Mr. Banks?

13          A.    Yes, sir.

14          Q.    What is Mr. Banks' position?

15          A.    Sheriff.

16          Q.    Okay, and after Mr. Banks did that, what occurred
17 then?

18          A.    Well, I stayed in there with Curtis about three days,
19 and an investigator came down, Mr. Johnson, and I gave him a
20 statement.

21          Q.    Okay, and what statement did you give him?

22          A.    That he told me he killed them folks in Winona.

23          Q.    And had Mr. Flowers actually told you that?

24          A.    No, sir. No, sir. No, sir. He did not tell me
25 that.

26          Q.    Okay, now why did you say that if he had never told 27 you that?

28          A.    Well, I was coerced. I was coerced, and they came 29 to me about the money. They had--

1 Q. --Excuse me.

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I can only hear one person at a
3 time. Can you ask them to be quiet, please?

4 BY THE COURT: No, sir. They have a right--

5 BY MR. EVANS: --He is talking to me--

6 BY THE COURT: --They have a right to 7 communicate, Mr. Lumumba. You just go ahead and 8 continue--

9 BY MR. EVANS: --You talk to the witness.

10 BY THE COURT: You just keep questioning the
11 witness.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I am talking-- I am just asking
13 this Court to inform him to be quiet. I can't hear
14 if he keeps talking.

15 BY MR. EVANS: Which the Court is not going to 16 do while we are talking at the counsel table.

17 BY THE COURT: They have as much right to confer
18 as you did--

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Yeah, but they can't talk
20 that loud. They can't talk loud.

21 BY THE COURT: Just go ahead, Mr. Lumumba. Go
22 ahead with your questioning.

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

25 Q. Now you said you were coerced; is that correct?

26 A. Yes, sir.

27 Q. Okay, and who, who put the pressure on you? Who 28 coerced you?

29 A. Well, all of them did: Johnson, Mr. Evans, all of

1       them. I tried to back out when we went to Tupelo to go to
2       court. They said, "You can't back out." I said, "I don't want
3       to testify." So they say, "You ain't got no choice."

4           Q.    Okay. And you said you didn't have no choice; is
5       that right?

6           A.    Yes, sir.

7           Q.    They told you you didn't have no choice?

8           A.    I didn't have no choice.

9           Q.    Okay. Now Mr. Veal, after you gave them a statement,
10       did, in fact, anything happen with your bond?

11          A.    My bond?

12          Q.    Yeah. You said--

13          A.    --no, sir. My sister dropped charges on me, and I
14       needed a hundred dollars to get out. They let me go on that.

15          Q.    They let you go?

16          A.    On the hundred dollars. I didn't have it.

17          Q.    You didn't have it, and they let you go?

18          A.    Yeah.

19          Q.    Is that correct?

20          A.    Yes, sir. They let me out.

21          Q.    Okay. Now Mr. Veal, let me ask you this. When was 22       the first time you ever saw me in life?

23          A.    Uh, in Kosciusko. In Kosciusko.

24          Q.    Did I come into the back room and talk to you; right?

25          A.    Yeah, I said I needed to talk to you on a different
26       date, at a different time, somewhere else.

27          Q.    Okay. Did I do anything in Kosciusko to try to 28       promise you anything, to threaten you, or to coerce you at all?

29          A.    No, sir.

1 Q. Had I ever seen you before in life before that day?

2 A. No, sir.

3 Q. Now after we talked, did somebody else come in and 4 talk to you about me?

5 A. Well, yes, sir.

6 Q. And tell me about that.

7 A. They said, uh, give me a tape recorder and let me see
8 could, see could I get something out of you.

9 Q. Okay, they offered you a tape recorder to see if you
10 could tape me talking to you; is that correct?

11 A. Yes, sir.

12 Q. Secretly; is that right?

13 A. Yes, sir.

14 Q. To see if you can get something on me; is that right?

15 A. Yes, sir.

16 Q. And didn't they also--

17 BY MR. HORAN: --Your Honor, he is leading his
18 witness.

19 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir. Don't lead him.

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: He had already testified. I am
21 just trying-- he is talking kind of low. I'm trying 22 -- is it okay, Judge?

23 BY THE COURT: As long as you don't lead him.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. Now -- Judge, okay,
25 well.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

27 Q. Now let me ask you this. Did they say something
28 about me not being able to try this case?

29 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, that is leading the

1 witness.

2 BY THE COURT: Sustained.

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

4 Q. Okay, did they say anything else about me? Let's put 5 it that way.

6 A. Uh, no, sir. Not, not, not, not that I can 7 recollect.

8 Q. Okay.

9 A. But uh--

10 Q. --Okay. Pardon? I'm sorry.

11 A. After the case was over, they said after he get 12 convicted, they were going to split the money. So after that,
13 I called them. I didn't have nowhere to stay or nothing. I
14 asked them if they are going to give me my money. They said
15 you have got to wait again until we go to court again. I
16 said, "Why I got to wait? You said as soon as he get 17 convicted." So they told me they couldn't give me nothing or 18 do nothing for me until after the second case over with.

19 Q. Now who told you that?

20 A. Well, I was calling them quite a bit because I was in 21 a jam. I was, my life been threatened, and peoples on the 22 street thinking about killing me, said I needed a bullet in my
23 head for testifying against Curtis Flowers and just a whole lot
24 of stuff. And I was paranoid and nowhere to stay, and I just 25 been on, been on scared run.

26 Q. Okay, but who, who told you that they were going to 27 give you some money and then didn't do it after the first 28 conviction?

29 A. Uh, Mr. Evans and Mr. Johnson.

1 Q. Mr. Evans and Mr. Johnson?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Okay, hold on one second.

4 (Pause while Defense Counsel confer.)

5 Q. Now, and so then they said you could get it after the 6 second conviction; is that correct?

7 A. Uh-huh.

8 Q. Now did they have a tape recorder playing when they 9 were talking to you so they could get down what they were
10 saying?

11 A. No, sir. They didn't really want to talk about no
12 money until after the trial, they say.

13 Q. Okay, now--

14 A. I was, I was vulnerable at the time, and I wanted to 15 get out of jail, and I was thinking about the money. I didn't 16 have nowhere to stay, so I testified really with coercing
17 testifying against Mr. Flowers--

18 Q. Okay.

19 A. --on that issue.

20 Q. Okay. Now Mr. Veal, and I'm going to ask you this 21 because-- well, I'm going to ask you two other things, and 22 that's all I wanted to talk about. First of all, did there
23 ever come a time when you stayed in Tupelo?

24 A. Yes, sir.

25 Q. And where did you stay?

26 A. The Mariott, the Mariott.

27 Q. Did you pay for your hotel bill?

28 A. No, sir.

29 Q. Who paid for it?

1 A. I guess the state paid for it.

2 Q. Now while you were there, did you stay in that room
3 with someone else?

4 A. Maurice Hawkins.

5 Q. And while you were there, did you have discussions
6 with Mr. Hawkins?

7 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, that is not
8 relevant.

9 BY THE WITNESS:

10 A. Yes, sir.

11 BY MR. EVANS: It is also hearsay.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, it is clearly relevant,
13 Judge. First of all, I just asked him did he have 14 discussions. So there is no objection to that 15 question presumably.

16 BY MR. EVANS: Which is not relevant to what we 17 are here on today. It would also be hearsay.

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, it may be relevant to-- 19 I say it is, and I think you need to hear it first.

20 BY THE COURT: Well, how would it be relevant?

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can we approach the bench?
22 Well, first of all, let me--

23 BY THE COURT: --Why? There is no jury here.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --just tell you how I feel.
25 Let me tell you how I feel since you don't -- you
26 know, you know if I was a judge, I would be almost 27 falling off the bench now after I had heard that the 28 DA is offering--

29 BY THE COURT: --Yes, sir, but you are not the

1 judge, Mr. Lumumba; I am, so you explain to me what I
2 want to know--

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Okay, but, but in any event,
4 since that is not the case, let me just explain my,
5 my own position, okay? That my position is this, is 6 that the, uh, what I expect that the witness will 7 suggest and what I expect that the witness will 8 testify to--

9 BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, I would ask that 10 the witness be removed from the room if he is going 11 to attempt to testify what he wants this witness to 12 say.

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I think that is unnecessary.
14 Now--

15 BY MR. EVANS: --It is not unnecessary if he is 16 going to--

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Look; hold it; hold it.

18 BY THE COURT: It is necessary. Mr. Veal, you
19 need to go outside until we handle this matter.

20 BY MR. EVANS: Thank you, Your Honor.

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, you can go out of the 22 room.

23 (Witness, Mr. Veal, begins to leave the
24 courtroom.)

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, now look, Judge, you
26 know--

27 BY THE COURT: --Wait a minute.

28 BY MR. EVANS: May we wait until the witness
29 leaves the room?

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I'm not talking about that. I
2 have another procedural matter I would like to 3 request of the Court. Now look, Judge, since I have 4 been here, the rulings have been decidedly one-
5 sided. Now let me just show you how ridiculous what
6 just happened was. I--

7 BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, are we here on this
8 motion--

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --objected--

10 BY MR. EVANS: --or are we here for him to make
11 a speech about the Court?--

12 (COURT REPORTER'S NOTE: All three were talking 13 at one time.)

14 BY THE COURT: --No, listen; just listen, both 15 of you. No, both of you. Let's get back on the 16 motion.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, I'm on the motion.

18 BY THE COURT: Well, then why is that relevant?

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I just requested to approach 20 the bench so that the witness wouldn't hear the 21 conversation.

22 BY THE COURT: Okay.

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: You denied that, and then as 24 soon as he asked the witness to leave the room, you
25 grant it.

26 BY THE COURT: Okay.

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Now what kind of sense does 28 that make?

29 (NOTE: There was talking in the audience of the

1 courtroom.)

2 BY THE COURT: We are going to have order in
3 this courtroom, or I will clear it.

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: You know, I'm going to have
5 justice in this courtroom too.

6 BY THE COURT: Mr. Lumumba, you are going to be
7 in contempt of this courtroom--

8 (NOTE: Some members of the audience applaud.)

9 BY THE COURT: All right, Mr. Sheriff. One more
10 display like that and I'm going to remove y'all from 11 the courtroom, and you are going to be held in 12 contempt. Now we are going to conduct this thing in 13 an orderly manner. If you cannot do that, I can tend 14 to it.

15 Now the question is whether, how is that 16 relevant, and that's what I want to know. That is 17 what is pertinent to this hearing.

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can I ask you one thing?

19 BY THE COURT: No, sir. You can answer that 20 question. Why is it relevant?

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: It is relevant, and I was 22 expressing the relevance by attempting to approach
23 the bench.

24 BY THE COURT: Okay, well, express it to me now
25 why it is relevant.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: The reason why it's relevant is 27 because I think that the witness will have something
28 to say that will reflect on the fact that not only
29 he, but the previous, but the other witness, Hawkins,

1 was also approached in the same way to solicit him as
2 a tool to get a statement from the Defendant. Now
3 I'm assuming that the Court is aware - and if it's 4 not, I have law which tells us - that it is 5 inappropriate for the police, the prosecutor or 6 anybody affiliated with the state to enlist a, to 7 solicit a snitch to go in and get a statement from a
8 person and so that they could subsequently use the 9 information. And apparently, Veal has just testified
10 that was what he did.

11 BY THE COURT: Okay. But you are asking now for 12 him to testify to hearsay testimony, and that is
13 sustained.

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Not necessarily, not 15 necessarily. You have got to let me ask the 16 questions, and then after I ask the question-- well,
17 let me--

18 BY THE COURT: --Okay, I'm not going to let him
19 testify to hearsay. You can ask the question. You
20 can object if it's a hearsay answer. Bring him back
21 in.

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, well, let me say this 23 then. Well, then--

24 BY THE COURT: (To the bailiff)--Wait just a
25 minute.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: What I'm going to have to do,
27 since-- see, I know how to lay a foundation.

28 BY THE COURT: Okay.

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: You can't get me on that one.

1           So what we are going to have to do is we are going to
2           have to hold Veal here so I can put Hawkins on the
3           stand; let him lie, and then we are going to call
4           Veal back.

5           BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I object to all of 6           this oration in the courtroom by him, the comments
7           that he is making about everyone in the courtroom.
8           It is not relevant, and I believe he knows a little 9           bit more about how to handle proper etiquette in the
10          courtroom.

11          BY THE COURT: If you want to question your 12          witness, that is fine. But I have had enough of the 13          speeches. I can determine this case from what I hear 14          from up here, and then we will have argument when the 15          time comes.

16          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Do you have any problem, do you
17          have any problem with me reserving the right to 18          recall my witness? (Pause) Because if you do, we 19          will interrupt his testimony right now, and we will 20          put Hawkins on.

21          BY THE COURT: No, you are going to have to put 22          him on now.

23          BY MR. HORAN: May I say something? The 24          question turns on whether or not this witness and the 25          other witness were planted in the jail. All this 26          other happened after the fact. When Hawkins gets to 27          trial in Tupelo, that's when he can be impeached, but 28          not here.

29          BY THE COURT: The motion is whether or not

ENCLOSURE

1           there was prosecutory misconduct that would require
2           the suppression of these witnesses. What Mr. Veal
3           apparently was getting ready to testify to, from what 4           it appeared to me and from you said, Mr. Lumumba, was 5           hearsay between him and Mr. Hawkins as to what Mr.
6           Hawkins said. You can't lay a predicate that is 7           going to get that in.

8           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, well, I want to call Mr.
9           Hawkins right now.

10          BY THE COURT: No, sir. We are going to 11          continue with Mr. Veal.

12          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Now explain to me why you are 13          not going to allow me to recall--

14          BY THE COURT: --because the order, because it's 15          the order of proof. You have got a witness on the 16          stand. You have got to finish with him.

17          BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, no, no. They break that 18          all the time.

19          BY THE COURT: Well, you are going to have to 20          finish with him today, Mr. Lumumba.

21          BY MR. LUMUMBA: All the time. You have experts
22          flying in from the country--

23          BY THE COURT: --You are going to have to finish
24          with him today, Mr. Lumumba, because that is my 25          ruling.

26          BY MR. LUMUMBA: We are going to finish today,
27          Judge.

28          BY THE COURT: I know. You are going to have to 29          finish this witness right now. That's my ruling.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, no, no, no. Let me, let me
2 just explain how simple this is.

3 BY THE COURT: No, it's simple. Here is how
4 simple it is. That's the way it is going to be.

5 Get Mr. Veal and return him to the stand.

6 Now you don't have to question him, but that is 7 up to you.

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, what is happening here
9 is about as naked as it possibly could be.

10 BY MR. HORAN: It sure is. It's a disgrace to 11 the profession.

12 (MR. FREDERICK VEAL RETURNS TO THE WITNESS
13 STAND.)

14 BY THE COURT: You may proceed.

15 CONTINUING DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

16 Q. Did you have a discussion with Mr. Hawkins in Tupelo?

17 A. Yes, sir.

18 Q. And did you say anything to Mr. Hawkins?

19 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I object. We are 20 talking about seven, eight, or nine months after what 21 this motion is here on today. It is not relevant.

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: It is my belief that what he 23 said has relevance to what happened--

24 BY THE COURT: --I'm going to allow him to 25 answer that question.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

28 Q. Did you say anything to Mr. Hawkins?

29 A. Yes, sir.

1 Q. What did you say?

2 A. Well, we got, we got to talking on the case.

3 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I object again to 4 what we got to talking about.

5 BY THE COURT: He cannot testify as to what Mr.
6 Hawkins said. He can testify as to what he said.

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

8 Q. Did Mr. Hawkins say something to you?

9 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I object.

10 BY THE COURT: Sustained.

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Now wait just a minute. I'm 12 just asking if he said something. I'm not asking
13 what he said. That is not hearsay.

14 BY THE COURT: Okay. That's right.

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Thank you, Judge. That is one
16 ruling. Wow, got one.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

18 Q. Okay, did Mr. Hawkins say something to you?

19 BY MR. EVANS: Oh, my gosh.

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

21 Q. Did he say something to you?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Okay, and did--

24 A. --We both, we both said we wasn't going to testify.

25 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I object.

26 BY THE COURT: Sustained. Mister, you cannot 27 answer until he asks you a question.

28 BY THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. Let me put my question

1 out, Judge.

2 Q. And you don't answer until the Judge rules on it;
3 okay?

4 A. Okay.

5 Q. Let me just put this question out. What was it that 6 you said to Mr. Hawkins? I know both of you said something.
7 I'm not asking what both of you said. What was it that you
8 said to Mr. Hawkins?

9 A. I said, I said, "Hawkins, man, this ain't right." I
10 said, "You know that man ain't told us that."

11 Q. And you said, "You know that man ain't told us 12 nothing;" right?

13 A. Uh-huh, Mr. Flowers.

14 Q. "Ain't told us nothing," like you and him; right?

15 A. Uh-huh.

16 Q. And did you say that based upon what he had already 17 told you?

18 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I object.

19 BY THE COURT: That is sustained.

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: All right.

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

22 Q. Okay, now Mr. Veal, now let me ask you this, the last
23 area of inquiry that I have since it has come up. When you
24 talked to me, did you indicate that you were afraid of people
25 connected with this case?

26 A. Yes, sir.

27 Q. Did you indicate that you wanted to talk somewhere
28 other than in the, in Greenwood?

29 A. Yes, sir.

1 Q. And did you go somewhere other--

2 BY MR. HORAN: --Your Honor, he needs to let
3 this witness testify. He is leading him all over the 4 place.

5 BY THE COURT: Sustained.

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

7 Q. Okay. At any point in time did my, did me or anybody
8 else in my office coerce you, force you, or do anything to 9 force you to make a statement?

10 A. No, sir. I did it on my own, on my conscience.

11 Q. Okay. At any point in time did anyone affiliated 12 with my office give you any money for the purpose of you making 13 a statement?

14 A. No, sir.

15 Q. Now when you were-- where did you go-- did you come
16 talk to me at another time? I mean--

17 A. --at Greenwood and then I went to Jackson.

18 Q. Okay. And who brought you to Jackson?

19 A. Lawyer Freelon.

20 Q. Okay, did he force you to come?

21 A. No, sir.

22 Q. Did anybody hold you in Jackson, make you stay in 23 Jackson?

24 A. No, sir, because I came back when I got ready, the 25 same day.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Excuse me.

27 (Pause while Defense Counsel confer.)

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

29 Q. Now let me ask you this finally. Prior to your time

1 of testifying up in Tupelo, were you ever given anything to
2 look at or to read before you testified?

3 A. They gave me my statement.

4 Q. Statement?

5 A. The statement that I gave, yep. They gave me that to 6 look over that, make sure I said it.

7 Q. Now this is a statement they gave you to look at 8 before you testified?

9 A. Yes, sir.

10 Q. Did they say anything to you about that?

11 A. I'm not sure.

12 Q. Okay. But they gave you a statement; is that
13 correct?

14 A. Uh-hum. They gave me a statement.

15 Q. Was that a written statement or a typed statement?

16 A. Typed statement.

17 Q. In your presence was Mr. Hawkins given anything?

18 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor--

19 BY THE WITNESS:

20 A. --a statement--

21 BY MR. EVANS: --this is completely irrelevant to 22 what we are here on today.

23 BY MR. HORAN: The question is whether he was 24 planted in the jail or not. What he did prior to his 25 testimony is not a piece of this motion anywhere
26 written on that motion.

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: You know--

28 BY MR. HORAN: --It has nothing to do with it.

29 BY THE COURT: --Well, the question may be, the

1 question may be though whether that also coerced his
2 testimony when he got to Tupelo. We don't have a
3 jury here today. I will listen to it.

4 BY MR. HORAN: We are going to be here all day.

5 BY THE COURT: Well, that's what we are here
6 for, Mr. Horan.

7 BY MR. HORAN: I guess so.

8 BY THE COURT: All right, Mr. Lumumba.

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

10 Q. Go ahead. Was Mr. Hawkins given anything?

11 A. Yes, sir.

12 Q. What was that?

13 A. A statement. His statement to make sure we don't--

14 Q. --Go ahead.

15 A. --we say the same thing on the statement that we had,
16 on the paper when we come up for court.

17 Q. So if I understand what you just told me, you
18 indicated that he was given a statement too to make sure y'all
19 said the same thing when you go to court; is that correct?

20 A. Yeah, when we was in the witness room, they gave us
21 this statement so, you know, so we won't forget nothing, make 22 sure because that has been a while back when we gave a
23 statement.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: One second.

25 (Pause while Defense Counsel confer.)

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have no further questions of 27 this witness at this time.

28 CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. EVANS:

29 Q. Mr. Veal, do you remember testifying under oath in

1       Tupelo?

2           A.    I remember testifying.

3           Q.    Do you remember raising your right hand and swearing
4       to God to tell the truth?

5           A.    Yes, sir.  But I didn't want to testify.  Y'all told
6       me I had to testify.

7           Q.    Do you remember taking an oath to tell the truth?

8           A.    Yes, sir.  Not because I wanted to testify.

9           Q.    Do you remember on-- no, I didn't ask you if you
10       wanted to.  You were subpoenaed there to testify, wasn't you?

11          A.    But I told you I still don't want, I wasn't wanting 12       to go in the courtroom.

13          Q.    Answer my question.

14          A.    Yes.

15                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  Well, hold it.  He has got a 16       right to finish his-- once he asks a question, he has 17       a right to explain.

18                   BY THE COURT:  Once he answers he does, but he 19       didn't answer it.

20                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  Okay, well, now he can finish
21       what he has got to say.

22                   BY THE COURT:  You may explain that answer.

23                   BY THE WITNESS:  Sir?

24                   BY THE COURT:  You may explain that answer if 25       you want to.

26       BY THE WITNESS:

27           A.    Well, I didn't want to testify.  They say I didn't 28       have no choice.

29           Q.    All right, when you are subpoenaed, you don't have a

1 choice, do you?

2 A. (No response).

3 Q. Do you?

4 A. I guess not.

5 Q. Do you remember on page 466 of the transcript, line
6 7, do you remember saying under oath, "I came forward on my
7 own. Didn't nobody ask me to or nothing.... I sent a
8 letter... to talk to Mr. Banks"?

9 A. Uh, yeah. Y'all told, y'all told me to say that.

10 Q. Y'all told me to?

11 A. Well, y'all said didn't nobody promise you nothing or 12 none of that, which y'all did say it was reward money offered,
13 but y'all told me what you just asked me.

14 Q. Are you saying that you lied under oath?

15 A. No, I am saying I was coerced to lie under oath.

16 Q. Are you saying that you lied under--

17 (Interrupted by person clapping in the
18 courtroom.)

19 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I'm not going to try
20 to talk with folks showing out in the courtroom.

21 BY THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Thornburg, anybody
22 that does that again, that kind of display, remove 23 them from the courtroom and hold them until I can 24 tend to them.

25 BY MR. EVANS:

26 Q. Are you saying that you lied under oath? Yes or no?

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: He is not required to stick to 28 a yes or no--

29 BY MR. EVANS: --Yes, he is.

1                   BY THE COURT: Yes, he is. He has to answer it
2                   yes or no, and then he can explain it.

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Then he can explain it, right.

4 I just want that to be clear. Okay.

5 BY THE COURT: That's right.

6 BY MR. EVANS:

7	Q. Answer my question.
---	------------------------

8 A. Say it again, sir.

9 Q. Are you saying you lied under oath?

10 A. Well, yes, sir.

11 Q. All right, good.

12           A.    With the explanation that y'all coerced me into 13   lying under oath.

14 Q. When you gave this statement, called the Sheriff and 15 told him this, we didn't even know you existed, did we?

16           A.    Banks called Mr. Johnson.

17	Q. Answer my question.
----	------------------------

18           A.    Did y'all know I exist.  No, sir.  I hadn't never 19    seen y'all before.

20 Q. You had never talked with me, and you had never 21 talked to my investigator because you didn't know we existed,
22 and we didn't know you existed; isn't that right?

23 A. No, sir. You are right.

24 Q. And the day this happened, even though now today you
25 are lying and saying different--

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Hold it, hold it, hold it.
27 Wait a minute.

28 BY MR. EVANS: Let me finish my question.

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Now look.

1                   BY THE COURT: He is on cross-examination, Mr.
2 Lumumba.

3                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Objection. He can't call the 4 witness a liar.

5                   BY MR. EVANS: I just did.

6                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Oooh. Can you straighten him
7 out, Judge? That sounds, you know.

8                   BY THE COURT: Have a seat, Mr. Lumumba.

9                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, but look.

10                  BY MR. EVANS: May I finish, Your Honor?

11                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, no. I can object--

12                  BY THE COURT: Y'all can't talk at the same time
13 because Linda can't take it down.

14                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can I object? Can I object?

15                  BY THE COURT: You can object.

16                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: My objection is to him sitting
17 up there-- he has got to ask a question. He can't 18 give a speech, and he can't talk about lying under 19 oath.

20                  BY THE COURT: Well, it's a little late to cut
21 off the speeches, isn't it, Mr. Lumumba?

22                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: You are right. The first day I
23 got here I read the transcript and saw you gave quite 24 a few and the prosecution--

25                  BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, may I proceed--

26                  BY THE COURT: --But I remind you I am the 27 Judge, Mr. Lumumba. You need to sit down.

28                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: The difference is, is now we 29 have got some speeches for justice, and I'm not sure

1 we had any before.

2 BY THE COURT: You need to sit down, Mr.
3 Lumumba.

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, all right.

5 BY THE COURT: Okay, Mr. Evans. You can
6 proceed.

7 BY MR. EVANS: Thank you, Your Honor.

8 BY THE COURT: Let's do stick to the question
9 and answer method, okay?

10 BY MR. EVANS: If I can remember where I was.

11 BY THE COURT: All right, sir. Ask your
12 question.

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Is my objection sustained about 14 the calling the man--

15 BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, may the opposing 16 counsel sit down until I get through asking the
17 questions?

18 BY THE COURT: Let him ask the question, and you
19 can renew your objection if you would like.

20 BY MR. EVANS: Will the Court Reporter please
21 read back the last question that I had asked.

22 BY THE COURT REPORTER: "And the day this 23 happened, even though now today you are lying and 24 saying different--" and then it was interrupted.

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA: That's what I object to; "You 26 are lying."

27 BY THE COURT: Let's just, let's just keep it on 28 the question and answer, Mr. Evans. Just ask him
29 what he did. That's what we need to know.

1 BY MR. EVANS:

2 Q. You said earlier and it was, in fact, true, wasn't
3 it, that at the time you talked to the Sheriff that there were 4 no charges against you? Your sister had already dismissed the 5 charges for stealing her car?

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Objection. That is two
7 questions. One is whether or not it was true, and 8 the second question is whether or not he said it.
9 It's two questions, compound question.

10 BY THE COURT: Okay, can you answer that, Mr.
11 Veal?

12 BY THE WITNESS:

13 A. I gave, I gave the statement. My sister hadn't 14 dropped charges then. After I gave the statement, then she 15 came up there and dropped charges. Then I needed a hundred 16 dollars. They let me go on that.

17 Q. Once the charges were dropped, you didn't have a
18 bond, did you?

19 A. No, sir. I had to have a hundred dollars to drop 20 charge fee.

21 Q. What was the hundred dollars for to drop charges if 22 your sister was the one that dropped the charges?

23 A. You have to pay a hundred dollars for a person to 24 drop charges.

25 Q. And you were in jail for stealing your sister's car?

26 A. That's what she said.

27 Q. Do you remember telling me, my assistant, Kevin 28 Horan, John Johnson, and I believe Robert Jennings that on the 29 day we were in Kosciusko that the opposing counsel, Mr.

1 Lumumba, had offered for you to go to Chicago so that you could
2 avoid being subpoenaed to testify in Tupelo?

3 A. I don't remember. I don't remember.

4 Q. You don't remember that?

5 A. No.

6 Q. Do you remember telling us - and I will remind you
7 that this is on tape - that John Gilmore offered you five 8 hundred dollars to change your story in this case before we 9 went to trial in Tupelo?

10 A. I said that. I did say that. I did say that.

11 Q. So you will admit the ones that are on tape?

12 A. Well, I admit to any of them that's true. I also 13 admit that y'all kept pesterizing me and trying to get this man
14 convicted so--

15 Q. Kept doing what to you?

16 A. Well, I say pesterizing, bothering me. The man ain't
17 told me nothing. I was coerced into saying. The man looked 18 out on me when I was in jail. The man ain't did nothing to me,
19 and I ain't got nothing against that man, and the man didn't 20 tell me that. That's all I can say. I don't believe he did
21 it. That's the best I can put it. Y'all were offering money
22 and different things. Yeah, I lied and said he said it,
23 coerced into lying.

24 Q. So you admit that you are a liar?

25 A. I admit I was coerced into lying, listening at 26 y'all, and promises.

27 Q. How about this trip to Chicago? Why did you say that 28 Mr. Lumumba tried to get you to go to Chicago so that we 29 couldn't subpoena you?

1           A.    I don't, I don't remember that.  Y'all subpoenaed me
2   the same day I was in Kosciusko, gave me two subpoenas for
3   today and September something, the 8th.

4           Q.    As a matter of fact, when you told us that, I told my 5   victim's assistance coordinator to issue a subpoena for you
6   right then before you went to Chicago, didn't I?

7           A.    Well--

8           Q.    Do you remember that?

9           A.    --I didn't say I was going to no Chicago.

10          Q.    Do you remember that?

11          A.    Yes, sir.  I remember she giving that subpoena to 12   me.  You said me and Hawkins is y'all's only key witness, that 13   he is saying to us that he did it.  That's the only thing
14   convicted Mr. Flowers.

15          Q.    Where are you staying now?

16          A.    Sir?

17          Q.    Where are you staying now?

18                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  I object to that other than if 19   he is just asking him about the city.

20   BY THE WITNESS:

21          A.    Well, I'm scared to tell you where I am staying now
22   since I am testifying.

23                   BY THE COURT:  Overruled--

24                   BY THE WITNESS:  --since I changed my statement.

25                   BY THE COURT:  He is on cross-examination.

26   BY MR. EVANS:

27          Q.    Where are you staying now?

28          A.    Here and there, in the streets.  I ain't got nowhere 29   to stay.

1 Q. Where are you staying?

2 A. Specific--

3 Q. Where do you stay at night?

4 A. At night?

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge. Hold it, hold it, hold
6 it, hold it. Why is that relevant? I object. It's 7 irrelevant, and plus his security might be involved.

8 BY THE COURT: Overruled. Go ahead.

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Excuse me. Can I make my 10 argument first, please?

11 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: You have a large number of 13 people in this courtroom whose interests at this 14 point are inimicable to his. And so the point that 15 I'm making there is no possible relevance to that 16 issue of where he is staying; in terms of the city,
17 maybe; if he is staying in a house or something else,
18 but there is no relevance. Now if the police were to 19 come in here and tell you they had a key witness and 20 they did not want that witness' identity-- or not the 21 identity, the residence revealed, nine chances out of 22 ten you would grant them that. All I am asking you
23 is even steven; use the same yard stick. There is no
24 relevance to this question. The possible danger to 25 the individual far outweighs the relevance of that
26 question. Well, maybe if he can approach the bench
27 and tell me why that is relevant, then we can deal
28 with it. But it's no, there is no -- on its face,
29 there is no relevance to it.

1                   BY THE COURT: Why is it relevant?

2                   BY MR. EVANS: To start with, I want to find out
3 if Mr. Lumumba is putting him up somewhere.

4                   BY THE COURT: Overruled. Go ahead.

5                   BY MR. EVANS: Also, I need to know--

6                   BY THE COURT: --Let him answer the question
7 though.

8                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: You mean like they put him up
9 in Tupelo? Like that?

10                  BY MR. HORAN: You have got to ask the question.

11                  BY THE COURT: No, the state put him up in 12 Tupelo. The court paid for that.

13 BY MR. EVANS:

14                  Q. You may answer.

15                  A. Where I stay?

16                  Q. Yeah.

17                  A. I ain't got nowhere to stay. I'm on the streets. I 18 told you that. That's why I was begging y'all to give me my 19 money.

20                  Q. That's exactly right. You were, weren't you?

21                  A. I told you I was on the streets.

22                  Q. You were asking us for money, weren't you?

23                  A. I was asking you for the money that y'all promised
24 me.

25                  Q. And we kept telling you, did we not, that we had no
26 control over any reward money?

27                  A. You told me after he get convicted a second time,
28 y'all will give the money. Every witness, everybody y'all went 29 to, y'all came to them with a thirty thousand dollar reward.

1 Q. Do you remember me telling you several times when you
2 would call bothering me that I had absolutely nothing to do
3 with any reward? Do you remember me telling you that?

4 A. Yeah, you said you didn't have nothing to do with 5 the reward, but you kept promising the reward going to be 6 given.

7 Q. Now how did I promise you something that I was 8 telling you I had no control over?

9 A. Oh, what you saying; y'all didn't promise no thirty
10 thousand dollars reward? Y'all didn't promise me no money?

11 Q. That's exactly right. That's what the truth is,
12 isn't it?

13 A. Well--

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Excuse me. Excuse me,
15 Judge. I can understand the witness asking him that 16 question, but I think he should know better than to 17 answer it. I object to him testifying. That means
18 the DA.

19 BY THE COURT: Okay, well, there is no jury
20 here. Let's move on.

21 BY MR. EVANS:

22 Q. Who was threatening to shoot you in the head if you
23 testified against Curtis Flowers?

24 A. Who threatened to shoot me in the head?

25 Q. A few minutes ago you testified--

26 A. --I said I had people--

27 Q. --Let me finish my question. A few minutes ago on 28 direct examination you testified that I had been threatened; I
29 was going to get a bullet in the head if I testified against

1 Curtis Flowers. And I want to know who was threatening to put 2 a bullet in your head if you testified against Curtis Flowers?

3 A. I'm talking about on the streets. I was talking
4 about on the street, people threatening to kill me.

5 Q. Who?

6 A. I don't know them.

7 Q. So you are saying--

8 A. --One of them got behind me with a ski mask--

9 Q. --that you were lying about that too?

10 A. No, I ain't lying about nothing I say.

11 Q. Then who threatened to put a bullet in your head if 12 you testified against Curtis Flowers?

13 A. I had several people threaten to kill me.

14 Q. Who?

15 A. I don't know their names. I seen one with a ski mask
16 behind the house, and I took off to running.

17 Q. So you made that up too, didn't you?

18 A. No, I didn't make that up.

19 Q. When were you carried to Jackson?

20 A. I don't know exactly what day, sir.

21 Q. You were also carried over to Mr. Maurice Hawkins'
22 house, weren't you?

23 A. Yes, sir.

24 Q. Who carried you over there?

25 A. Mr. Freelon.

26 Q. And you tried to get Maurice to change his story and 27 lie for another black fellow, didn't you? Wasn't that the way
28 you put it?

29 A. I didn't try, I didn't try to get him to change his

1 story. I just said, That is wrong; said got an innocent man on
2 death row for nothing. That's what I said.

3 Q. Didn't you and Mr. Freelon both tell him--

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Wait a minute. Objection.
5 Objection. At this point there has been a large
6 amount of inquiry into something that he said when I
7 was cross-- asking him questions irrelevant. Now it
8 doesn't sound like any of this is going toward 9 whether or not Maurice Hawkins or him was used as an 10 instrument to get a statement. So at this point I'm 11 objecting. You know, I have been very tolerant. He 12 has certainly inquired into some of the areas that I
13 inquired too that he objected to, by the way, and you
14 sustained the objections. You sustained the 15 objections and said this was only about a hearing as 16 to what, whether or not he was used to get a
17 statement. So at this point he is way afoul of 18 that. I object.

19 BY THE COURT: Well, I have got the issue before
20 me now as to whether the other side did the same
21 thing. So I'm going to allow it to come in. We will 22 make a record on it.

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, what difference does that 24 make, whether the other side did the same thing?

25 BY THE COURT: Well, I don't think you can
26 coerce statements any more than anybody else, Mr.
27 Lumumba.

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, look; let me see this,
29 Judge. See, Judge, you all-- I mean let--

1 respectfully, I think you have lost the issue. The
2 issue to this hearing, unless I am wrong, and if I am
3 wrong, I stand to be corrected because that is okay
4 if I am. I respect that. But I understand the issue
5 to be whether or not this gentleman and Hawkins were 6 used as tools to get a statement. Now, and if they 7 were, that is one thing. So if they were used as 8 tools to get a statement, it don't make any 9 difference what I did.

10 BY THE COURT: Except that that would--

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Plus, I haven't heard any 12 testimony saying I coerced anybody to do anything.

13 BY THE COURT: No, but he is entitled-- the fact
14 is you raised it somewhat. But he is entitled to do
15 that on cross-examination because his credibility is 16 one thing at issue.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, his credibility is at 18 issue on that issue. You can't ask him everything
19 under the sun on the suppression hearing. Now, but 20 if the Court's ruling is that we, that this broad 21 issue of whether the statements were true or whether 22 somebody coerced him or Hawkins is at issue, then I
23 will accept that. If that is what we are talking 24 about, then I will remember that when I get up on 25 redirect.

26 BY THE COURT: Okay, well, I'm going to allow 27 him to go into it, and, of course, on redirect you
28 are entitled to go back over anything that he raises
29 on cross.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, good.

2 BY MR. EVANS: May I proceed now?

3 BY THE COURT: Uh-hum.

4 BY MR. EVANS:

5 Q. Did you, in fact, try to get Maurice Hawkins to lie?

6 A. Lie?

7 Q. That's my question. I think you heard me--

8 A. --No, sir. I ain't try to get him to lie. No, sir.

9 Q. So I will know what you are saying today, I want to 10 go into this area. You did, in fact, give a statement, did you
11 not, that Curtis Flowers told you that he killed the people at 12 Tardy Furniture?

13 A. In the first statement, yes.

14 Q. And who did you give that statement to?

15 A. Mr. Johnson.

16 Q. Before you talked to Mr. Johnson, you told Ricky
17 Banks what Curtis Flowers had told you, did you not?

18 A. I was sent in there to get information.

19 Q. Answer my question.

20 A. Say it again, sir.

21 Q. Listen to it--

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --The question is ambiguous.
23 First of all, did he tell Mr. Banks--

24 BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, if this is an
25 objection--

26 BY THE COURT: Yeah--

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --I'm objecting.

28 BY THE COURT: Let's let-- reask your question--

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --I'm objecting--

1                   BY THE COURT: --If he can answer it, that is 2 fine.

3                   BY MR. EVANS: I didn't get through with it,
4 Your Honor.

5                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Go ahead; I'm sorry.

6                   BY THE COURT: Okay.

7 BY MR. EVANS:

8           Q.     Before you talked to Mr. Johnson, you gave the 9 sheriff [sic] to Ricky Banks; is that right? You told Ricky
10 Banks what Curtis Flowers--

11           A.    --He called the investigator in. I did say he said 12 that; yes, sir. I did, I was--

13           Q.    --Let me finish my question.

14                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Let him finish answering--

15                   BY MR. EVANS: --Let me finish my question.

16                   BY THE COURT: He has got to finish the 17 questions one, before you object and two, before you
18 answer; okay?

19                   BY THE WITNESS: Okay.

20                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, he had asked the 21 question, Judge.

22                   BY THE COURT: No, he hadn't.

23                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: He didn't like what he was 24 getting. That's the problem. Okay. Go ahead,
25 Judge.

26                   BY THE COURT: All right, Mr. Evans.

27                   BY MR. EVANS: Thank you, Your Honor.

28 BY MR. EVANS:

29           Q.     Mr. Veal.

1           A.    Yes, sir.

2           Q.    Had you told Sheriff Banks what Curtis Flowers told
3 you before John Johnson ever came to Greenwood to talk to you?

4                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  Objection.  Now can I object?

5                   BY THE COURT:  Yes.  On what grounds?

6                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  My objection is that the 7 question assumes a fact that is not only not in 8 evidence, but contrary to the evidence.  He has 9 already said that Mr. Flowers didn't tell him
10 anything.

11                   BY THE COURT:  Overruled.  Answer the question
12 if you can.

13 BY THE WITNESS:

14           A.    Well, I didn't give no statement until he called an 15 investigator there.

16           Q.    I didn't ask about a statement.  Did you tell the 17 Sheriff what Curtis Flowers told you?

18           A.    Yeah, I told him.  I didn't say Curtis-- I said
19 Curtis Flowers told me that, but I was lying because Banks sent 20 me in there to get information from him.  I was put in there
21 specific to get something out of Curtis Flowers because they 22 didn't have nothing on him.

23           Q.    Are you saying today that Sheriff Ricky Banks told 24 you what to say?

25           A.    I didn't say he told me what to say.  I said he sent 26 me in there to get information from Curtis Flowers.  That's 27 what I was put in there for.

28           Q.    You were put in jail because your sister had you
29 arrested?

1           A.    I wasn't put in the cell with him. He put me in the 2 cell with him. I was in another cell. I was trying to get
3 out. He asked me, said, "Well, you can help yourself by going
4 in there, see can you get any information from Curtis
5 Flowers."

6           Q.    So you are not saying that Sheriff Banks tried to 7 tell you what to say, are you?

8           A.    No, sir.

9           Q.    Sheriff Banks did not try to tell you what he wanted
10 you to go in there and find out, did he?

11          A.    Yes, sir. Find out where the gun was. He asked me, 12 said, "Could you find out, get him to tell you what he did with 13 the gun," and different things, yes, sir, in the case.

14          Q.    Well, if that was so, why wouldn't you have found
15 that out?

16                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, it might be because --
17 objection.

18                   BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I don't want any 19 maybe. If he has an objection--

20                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: --No, no--

21                   BY MR. EVANS: --he can state his objection, but 22 he cannot--

23                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: --No, no--

24                   BY MR. EVANS: --Let me finish. He cannot tell 25 this witness what--

26                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Can he interrupt--

27                   BY MR. EVANS: --he wants him to say.

28                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Can he interrupt my objection
29 to tell me what I can do, what I can say?

1                   BY THE COURT: State your, state your objection.

2                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, I thought that was the 3 way it worked.

4                   BY THE COURT: State your objection.

5                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: My objection is that here
6 again, he is harassing this witness. The witness has 7 testified that the man didn't tell him anything. So
8 now how is he going to go-- now he is asking the 9 witness why didn't you get information on the gun.

10                  BY MR. HORAN: Is this an objection?

11                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: It is asked and answered. It's 12 redundant and--

13                  BY THE COURT: --The objection is overruled.

14 BY MR. EVANS:

15                  Q. Answer my question.

16                  A. Why I didn't give the information about the gun?

17                  Q. Yeah, if that's what you were asked to go in there 18 and find out, why didn't you go in there and find that out?

19                  A. He had me to find out whatever I could get, but he 20 specifically wanted to know where the gun was. Specific, he 21 wanted to know where the gun was.

22                  Q. All right.

23                  A. He asked me to get anything I could out of Curtis
24 Flowers.

25                  Q. Answer my question--

26                  A. --I didn't even say nothing out of the way to Curtis
27 Flowers. Me and him played dominoes. I didn't have nobody 28 sending me nothing. He gave me cigarettes and gave me food and 29 everything.

1 Q. There is nothing in your statement about what Curtis
2 Flowers did with the gun, is it?

3 A. No, sir.

4 Q. Yet you are saying today that that is what the 5 Sheriff asked you to go back there and find out specifically?

6 A. Specifically.

7 Q. And you didn't do that?

8 A. No, sir. I didn't do none of what they told me.

9 Q. The reason you didn't do none of what they told you
10 is because you weren't sent back there to talk to him, were
11 you?

12 A. Yeah, I was sent back there. I wasn't in the cell
13 with him; they put me in the cell with him. I stayed in there
14 three days; I was back on the streets. (Pause) All this just 15 going back to that you thought I--

16 BY THE COURT: --Don't answer until he asks you
17 a question.

18 BY THE WITNESS: Okay.

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, I don't think he finished
20 yet, Judge.

21 BY THE COURT: Well, yeah, he did. He 22 finished. Wait until the next question.

23 BY MR. EVANS:

24 Q. What else are you saying the Sheriff told you?

25 A. Sir?

26 Q. What else are you saying the Sheriff told you besides
27 find out about the gun--

28 A. --I ain't, I'm going by, I'm saying whatever you ask
29 me. That's what the Judge told me to say.

1 Q. Well, answer the question then.

2 A. I'm answering the question when you ask me.

3 Q. What else-- listen to my question. What else are you
4 saying that Sheriff Banks told you other than find out what he 5 did with the gun?

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Objection. The question is 7 ambiguous. It needs to state a time and place where 8 he is talking about--

9 BY MR. EVANS: --I don't believe he is too
10 stupid that he doesn't understand the question.

11 BY THE COURT: Wait a minute; wait a minute, Mr.
12 Evans. Let him finish his objection.

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: All right. I don't think he is 14 stupid at all but--

15 BY THE WITNESS: --I wasn't stupid nine months
16 ago.

17 BY THE COURT: Wait a minute. Everybody be 18 quiet. Mr. Lumumba, you have got the floor right
19 now.

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: But the point, but the point
21 is, is that I am just asking that the question be 22 specific to time and place. In other words, is it an 23 open question? Did Sheriff Banks tell him anything
24 at any time, or did he tell him something at a
25 particular time?

26 BY THE COURT: That is overruled. I think in 27 the context of this question he knows when it is.

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

29 BY THE COURT: Now you can answer it, Mr. Veal.

1 BY THE WITNESS:

2 A. Yes, sir. I was told to go in there and get some
3 information out of Curtis Flowers, specifically where the gun,
4 what he did with the gun.

5 Q. And that's it?

6 A. That's it.

7 Q. The information you came back with is information
8 that only the killer could have known, wasn't it?

9 A. Well--

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Objection--

11 BY THE WITNESS:

12 A. That, that was all over the media, the papers and 13 everything. Everything in that statement was in the paper just 14 about.

15 Q. Tell me where it came out in the paper that he killed
16 the lady first and killed the little boy last? Tell me.

17 A. He didn't tell me that.

18 Q. That's what you put in your statement, wasn't it?

19 A. Yeah, I put in my statement.

20 Q. How did you know that there was a lady and a little 21 boy there?

22 A. It was nationwide. Who couldn't have got that 23 information, four people were killed?

24 Q. How did you know that he went to Texas?

25 A. That was in the paper--

26 Q. --worked at Piggly Wiggly?

27 A. That was in the paper.

28 Q. Tell me what paper that was in that he was working at 29 Piggly Wiggly in Texas.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, Judge, objection. First
2 of all, he wasn't working at Piggly Wiggly in Texas.
3 So if it was in the paper, it was inaccurate, and if
4 he made the statement, it was inaccurate--

5 BY MR. HORAN: --Does he have an objection, Your
6 Honor? Does he have an objection to the question?

7 BY THE COURT: --Well, what-- I have got this
8 question though. Where are we going with this? I
9 mean we are not at trial.

10 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I am just trying to 11 find out what he is alleging. I think we have got to 12 know at this point, and I think the Court has even 13 got to know what his, what his allegations really 14 are.

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, Judge, I think-- my 16 objection is it's going afoul, it's gone beyond the 17 point of the inquiry in the issue.

18 BY THE COURT: I think we are getting a little 19 far afield, Mr. Evans. Let's kind of centralize it a 20 little bit. I get a pretty good gist of where it's 21 going.

22 BY MR. EVANS:

23 Q. When we went to Kosciusko and you told us about Mr.
24 John Gilmore offering you five hundred dollars to change your 25 story, why did John Gilmore offer you five hundred dollars to 26 change your story?

27 A. I couldn't tell you.

28 Q. Where were you when he offered you five hundred
29 dollars to change your story?

1 A. What is the purpose of all this?

2 BY THE COURT: Answer the question.

3 A. Oh. Where I was; I was in Greenwood.

4 Q. Did he come to see you?

5 A. I ain't tell you-- I said a man stopped me and 6 offered me five hundred dollars. I said it was a tall man.
7 You said it must have been John Gilmore. You said that.

8 Q. Do I have to remind you that that statement was on 9 tape?

10 A. Well, we need to get the tape.

11 Q. Do I have to remind you of that?

12 A. Yes, sir. We need to get the tape.

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: May I ask why I don't have a 14 copy of the tape since he is a witness, and they are 15 supposed to have given us all witnesses' statements?
16 He is a witness on their list. If they have got a
17 taped statement, where is the statement, and I ask
18 that the hearing stop until we get our discovery. He 19 sat up here and lied to you a few minutes ago, said
20 we got everything.

21 BY THE COURT: Wait a minute.

22 BY MR. EVANS: You are not going to call me a
23 liar in the courtroom.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I'm not calling you a liar; he 25 was--

26 BY THE COURT: --Wait a minute.

27 BY MR. EVANS: No, you won't.

28 BY THE COURT: --Wait a minute, both of you.

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: What you going to do?

1                   BY THE COURT: Both of you.

2                   BY MR. EVANS: You will find out.

3                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Please. Please. It must be
4 something legal. I know he ain't talking about 5 nothing physical.

6                   BY MR. EVANS: I think the Bar Association--

7                   BY THE COURT: --Wait a minute--

8                   BY MR. EVANS: --has some rules down there--

9                   BY THE COURT: --Wait a minute; wait a minute.
10 Y'all are not going to do this in this courtroom. I
11 will make both of you leave. We will go with Mr.
12 Horan and Mr. Freelon.

13                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, look, Judge--

14                   BY THE COURT: --Y'all better get ready to suit
15 up. (Laughter).

16                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: All I am saying, all I am
17 saying is this. All I am asking you now, we now know
18 that there is statements that we don't have. It
19 seems to me that that runs contrary to statements
20 that we just heard saying that we had all the 21 statements.

22                   BY MR. EVANS: He better read the Rules.

23                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Now if we have all the 24 statements, why don't we have a statement of him
25 talking about John Gilmore trying to give him some 26 money?

27                   BY MR. EVANS: If Mr. Lumumba can hear as well
28 as he can talk, earlier today I made the comment when 29 I was talking about discovery, that we do have proof

1           that one of the defense lawyers offered money to this
2           witness, and that discovery would be given to him as
3           soon as we could. And I do not appreciate him
4           calling me in open court a liar at all.

5           BY THE COURT: Well, I don't appreciate either
6           one of you calling either one of you anything else.
7           I wish you would just stick to the facts, and let's
8           get on, let's get on with trying this case or getting 9           ready to try it. He is going to furnish you that 10          copy of that statement. That's what he said.

11          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well. Okay, well, then I would 12          ask that we have a chance to listen to it before we 13          continue this hearing. This would have been the time
14          to have it. I am entitled to have this information
15          in order to ask any more--

16          BY MR. HORAN: --He is not even entitled to it.

17          BY THE COURT: Wait a minute, Mr. Horan. Now
18          you just let the others do the talking.

19          BY MR. HORAN: All right.

20          BY THE COURT: It's not your time.

21          BY MR. HORAN: For what it's worth.

22          BY MR. LUMUMBA: What I'm trying to say, Judge,
23          is that it could be information that could inform me
24          for the purposes of this hearing, and so I am
25          entitled to have it. I ask that I be given to it
26          prior to the completion of this hearing, even if it
27          requires for a recess to another day.

28          BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, we are talking about 29          not witness information. We are talking about

1 information where defense attorneys in this case have
2 attempted to cause someone to lie by offering them
3 money. That is not discoverable information, but it
4 is information that may need to go to the State Bar.

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: It is discoverable by me. Now
6 you know, he is talking about somebody named John
7 Gilmore offering him money to testify or to change
8 his story. Now, you know, I have met Mr. Gilmore.
9 He is a nice man, but I didn't meet him until I came 10 into the case. Apparently, if this is true, which 11 you know, if this-- plus the witness is saying he 12 don't even know it was John Gilmore. But apparently,
13 if there is anything to do with it, it happened long
14 before we got here. And if it happened long before
15 we got to it, we are entitled to know. And it has to 16 do with this case, and I am wondering why it hadn't 17 went to the State Bar yet if they thought it was 18 true.

19 BY THE COURT: Okay, I'm going to-- well, if I'm 20 going to reserve my ruling on whether you get 21 furnished that, I will rule on that before the 22 hearing is over. We are going to continue with the 23 hearing.

24 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I don't have any more
25 questions on this.

26 BY MR. HORAN: Doug. Doug.

27 (State's Counsel confer briefly.)

28 CONTINUING CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. EVANS:

29 Q. Mr. Veal, how many times since Mr. Lumumba and Mr.

1 Freelon have been in this case have either one of them or
2 anyone that they have sent interviewed you?

3 A. How many times? One-- twice.

4 Q. Where were those?

5 A. They came to Greenwood, and I went to Jackson.

6 Q. One time in Greenwood and one time in Jackson?

7 A. Well, I talked to them more than one time in

8 Jackson. I stayed in Jackson four days.

9 Q. Stayed in Jackson four days?

10 A. Yep.

11 Q. Who put you up in Jackson for four days?

12 A. I stayed at a house.

13 Q. Whose house?

14 A. I don't, I don't really know his name. But I stayed 15 in a house four days.

16 Q. Why do you not know the name of the person you stayed 17 in his house?

18 A. He had an old funny name, like an African name.

19 Q. Well, did Mr. Lumumba or Mr. Freelon one put you up
20 there?

21 A. They, they referred me to a friend. I told them I
22 was paranoid; I was scared. I was scared in Greenville for my 23 life, and yeah, they put me up with, with a friend that they 24 knew, yeah.

25 Q. So they put you up with a friend?

26 A. Yeah.

27 Q. That friend take care of you while you was down
28 there?

29 A. Oh, didn't nobody take care of me. I had money when

1 I went down there.

2 Q. Where did you get it?

3 A. Where I get it? I got family. I got a mother.

4 Q. Where?

5 A. My mother in Chicago.

6 Q. That's right. You don't have any family around
7 here--

8 A. --My daddy left with $75,000 when he passed.

9 Q. Then why are you living on the street?

10 A. I can't get along with my sisters.

11 Q. Well, if you had $75,000, don't you think--

12 A. --I ain't say--

13 Q. --you could find some place to live?

14 A. I said my mother had $75,000. My mother got 15 $75,000. I didn't get a dime.

16 Q. You said he left it to you?

17 A. No; no, sir. I said he left it to my mother,
18 $75,000.

19 Q. Well, let's get it straight then.

20 A. Well, he left my mother $75,000.

21 Q. Why do you live on the street?

22 A. That's by my choice.

23 Q. But you didn't have to live on the street when you
24 were down in Jackson talking to them, did you?

25 A. I didn't want to come back for a couple of days. I
26 told them I needed to get my head together.

27 Q. Uh-hum. And while you were interviewed, how many 28 times did they tape record you?

29 A. They didn't tape record me but once.

1 Q. When was that?

2 A. When they interviewed me.

3 Q. Which interview?

4 A. The one in Jackson.

5 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, at this point even 6 though it is kind of out of line, I would ask that we 7 be furnished any tape recorded statements that the 8 Defense has made. This is a motion that I have been 9 making for months and months in this case, and we 10 have none.

11 BY THE COURT: Okay, well, I will rule on that 12 when I rule on the other.

13 BY MR. EVANS: I don't have any further
14 questions.

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We have no other questions for 16 this witness, Judge.

17 BY THE COURT: Mr. Veal, you need to go back--

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Well, let me say this. I
19 reserve the right to recall this witness subsequent 20 to Mr. Hawkins being on the stand.

21 BY THE COURT: Okay. I reserve the right to 22 rule on it at that time.

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

24 BY THE COURT: Mr. Veal, you can go back there.

25 WITNESS LEAVES COURTROOM.

26 BY THE COURT: Linda, how are you?

27 BY THE COURT REPORTER: Fine.

28 BY THE COURT: You all right? Okay, who do you
29 have next?

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, I think that I should be
2 entitled to get this statement before we continue. I
3 mean, you know, that is what I would request. You
4 can rule on that. I think that I should get the 5 audio taped statement, and let me just say this,
6 Judge. I don't think they are entitled to anything
7 from us, and can I explain why? I mean if you would 8 like me to or--

9 BY THE COURT: No, I don't want to rule on this
10 at this time.

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, you don't want to rule on 12 whether they should give us the statement either?

13 BY THE COURT: Not at this time.

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, so you are ruling that we 15 are not entitled to it right now?

16 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. Okay, I would call to 18 the stand-- (Pause) I will call Mr. Hawkins to the 19 stand.

20 MAURICE HAWKINS,

21 a black male called to testify as a witness on the motion by 22 the Defendant, having been previously sworn, came into the 23 courtroom and sat on the witness stand where there was the 24 following:

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, let me ask you this.
26 Does your ruling stand that you are not going to 27 allow me to impeach Mr. Hawkins if, in fact, he says
28 something which I have extrinsic evidence to 29 impeach?

1                   BY THE COURT: One, I have not ruled that I
2                   will-- on that one way or another. That has not been 3                   presented to me, but he is your witness.

4                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. But with--

5                   BY THE COURT: --You can probably, you can ask
6                   that he be a hostile witness, and you can question
7                   him then.

8                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, no. What I'm asking you is 9                   if I'm going to be allowed to call Mr. Veal back to 10                  the stand in order to impeach Mr. Hawkins, if Mr.
11                  Hawkins says something which is contrary to what he 12                  told Mr. Veal.

13                  BY THE COURT: No, what I'm telling you is I'm 14                  going to rule on that at the time.

15                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: You have already ruled on it
16                  once before time. So I mean if you are now, now
17                  changing that and reserving-- you already told me I
18                  wasn't going to be able to recall Mr. Veal.

19                  BY THE COURT: I don't think that is what I
20                  said, Mr. Lumumba, and what I'm telling you now is 21                  after this witness testifies, if you can establish 22                  certain things, you may can recall him. We will just 23                  cross that bridge when we get to it.

24                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, well, let me ask you
25                  this. Is whatever you said prior to now, what is on 26                  this record, does that stand, or are you now making a 27                  ruling that you have not ruled on that?

28                  BY THE COURT: Whatever I have said is whatever
29                  I have said. You just--

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --I mean is that, is that the 2 rule of this case?

3 BY THE COURT: I don't believe I can be any
4 clearer than what I have just said.

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, but what you-- no, no.
6 See, it has something to do with the order I call my
7 witnesses. All I am asking you to be quite clear,
8 what I believe that you have said on this record -
9 and we can check the record if we need to - is that I
10 will not be able to recall Mr. Veal in order to 11 impeach Mr. Hawkins. Now if that stands, that means
12 something about my order of proof. If it doesn't 13 stand, then we will go with that.

14 BY THE COURT: Okay. I'm ruling that you can't 15 recall him.

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I cannot recall him?

17 BY THE COURT: Uh-hum.

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: To impeach Mr. Hawkins?

19 BY THE COURT: Uh-hum.

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay--

21 BY THE COURT: --State your name for the record,
22 please, sir.

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, I don't have any 24 questions of Mr. Hawkins.

25 BY THE WITNESS: Maurice Hawkins.

26 BY THE COURT: Y'all got any questions of him?

27 BY MR. EVANS: No.

28 BY THE COURT: Okay, you may return to the 29 witness room--

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --One second. One second. Let 2 me ask my co-counsel.

3 (Pause while Defendant's Counsel confer.)

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, I will ask Mr. Hawkins a
5 couple of questions.

6 DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

7 Q. Mr. Hawkins, what's your first name?

8 A. Maurice.

9 Q. You used to use drugs, man?

10 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, that is not relevant
11 to what we are here on.

12 BY THE COURT: That's right. Sustained.

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

14 Q. Did you use drugs--

15 BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, that is not
16 relevant.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, let me--

18 BY THE COURT: --Let him finish the question
19 now.

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: That's right.

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

22 Q. You testified in this court before; right?

23 A. Yeah.

24 Q. Huh?

25 A. Yes.

26 Q. All right, okay, and you testified in the case with 27 Curtis Flowers; is that correct?

28 A. Yes.

29 Q. You were a drug user at that time, weren't you?

1 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, that is not relevant,
2 and it has absolutely nothing to do with the motion
3 we are here on today.

4 BY THE COURT: Sustained.

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: It doesn't have anything to do
6 with whether he is telling the truth, Judge?

7 BY THE COURT: Sustained.

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

9 Q. Mr. Hawkins, did you at some point communicate with 10 the Sheriff, Mr. Banks?

11 A. Communicate how?

12 Q. Talk to him.

13 A. After I went to court.

14 Q. Did you talk to him before you went to court?

15 A. No.

16 Q. You never talked to him while you were in Leflore
17 County Jail?

18 A. No.

19 Q. All the time you were there?

20 A. No.

21 Q. Did you ever send him a letter while you were there?

22 A. No.

23 Q. Did you send him a letter when you got out?

24 A. No.

25 Q. Did you ever make a statement to him?

26 A. I told him I needed to talk to him after I was going 27 to my probation officer.

28 Q. Did you talk to him?

29 A. Yes, I talked to him.

1 Q. And when you talked to him, did he write down what
2 you said?

3 A. I don't know.

4 Q. Did he--

5 A. --because they took me on up to my probation
6 officer. I don't know what he wrote down.

7 Q. Did he tape what you said?

8 A. He listened to me.

9 Q. Okay, but you don't know whether he talked to-- now
10 I'm just trying to see. You were awake when you talked to him;
11 right? Wide awake?

12 A. Yeah.

13 Q. Were you on drugs then?

14 A. I was locked up then--

15 BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, that is not
16 relevant.

17 BY THE COURT: Well, it might be at that 18 particular time. I will allow that question.

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

20 Q. You were a drug user then; right?

21 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, that is not
22 relevant.

23 BY THE COURT: That is not; that is sustained.
24 I have already sustained that objection once.

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, well--

26 BY THE COURT: --Don't ask that again.

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

28 Q. Well, when was the last time you had used drugs
29 before that conversation with him?

1 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor--

2 BY THE COURT: --Sustained.

3 BY MR. EVANS: --that is not relevant.

4 BY THE COURT: It's not relevant.

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I don't know why they are
6 trying to hide this, Judge.

7 BY THE COURT: Well, it's because I have said
8 it's not relevant, Mr. Lumumba. Now ask your 9 question. Move on.

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

11 Q. Were you on drugs then?

12 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, he is going to have
13 to ask his question the way the Court--

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --I thought you said I could ask
15 that--

16 BY MR. EVANS: --May I finish?

17 BY THE COURT: He has asked that question. I
18 don't believe he has gotten an answer for that. He 19 can ask that question, and then that can be 20 answered.

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

22 Q. Were you on drugs?

23 BY THE COURT: No, that is not the question you
24 asked. You said then.

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Oh, I'm sorry.

26 BY MR. EVANS: Are we talking about that day?

27 BY THE COURT: I-- there again, when there is no
28 jury sitting in that box, that's what I take it to be 29 he is talking about. He can answer that question.

1 Answer the question, Mr. Hawkins.

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge. Judge, you--

3 BY THE COURT: --Do you want him to answer your
4 question?

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes, I do--

6 BY THE COURT: --Okay, answer the question.

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Hold it, hold it, hold it, hold
8 it, just one second, one second, one second. I just 9 want a little clarity here. Now I asked him to be 10 clear about time and place. You said it wasn't 11 necessary. Why is it necessary now?

12 BY THE COURT: I just ruled that it wasn't, that 13 he could answer the question.

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

15 BY THE COURT: I can't do any more than that.

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

17 Q. Okay, were you on drugs then?

18 A. Was I on-- at what time? While I was in jail, before
19 or after? What you saying?

20 Q. Was there some time when you was on drugs?

21 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor--

22 BY THE COURT: I sustained that objection. You
23 cannot go into his drug history. The question is 24 only relevant if he was on drugs at the time he gave 25 the statement.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

27 Q. Were you on drugs when you gave the statement?

28 A. No.

29 Q. Were you on drugs before you gave the statement?

1 BY MR. EVANS: That is not relevant, Your
2 Honor. I think the Court has ruled on this at least 3 six times.

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, well, let me-- now he has
5 given an answer. So now I have a right to challenge
6 his answer. I have a right to challenge it to see
7 exactly what he is talking about when he says he was 8 not--

9 BY THE COURT: --You also have the obligation to 10 put a predicate on your question to identify the time
11 you are talking about.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, let me do that. Let me
13 do that.

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

15 Q. Okay, now you said you weren't on drugs then. Are 16 you saying that you weren't on drugs at that moment? Huh? Is 17 that what you're saying?

18 A. No, I wasn't.

19 Q. Okay, and when was the last moment that you were on 20 drugs before then?

21 BY MR. EVANS: Object on relevance, Your Honor.

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, no, no, Judge, because see,
23 he is not a doctor. I am entitled to inquire to see
24 when the last time--

25 BY MR. HORAN: --It's whether or not he--

26 BY THE COURT: --You have to set a time limit
27 within, that you can ask that about. It makes no
28 difference to this Court whether, if he was on drugs
29 five days before. You are going to have to ask your

1 question in the correct manner.

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

3 Q. How long were you in the jail before you made the 4 statement?

5 A. Uh, like three weeks.

6 Q. And did you use some drugs in jail?

7 A. No.

8 Q. Did you use drugs before you went to jail?

9 BY MR. EVANS: I object, Your Honor.

10 BY THE COURT: Sustained.

11 BY MR. EVANS: I don't know how many times I'm 12 going to have to object to it, but I will--

13 BY THE COURT: --You cannot pursue this line of 14 questioning.

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

16 Q. When-- did you, did you go use some drugs once you
17 made the statement?

18 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, this is the most 19 ridiculous show--

20 BY THE COURT: --Sustained--

21 BY MR. EVANS: --I have ever seen in a
22 courtroom.

23 BY THE COURT: Mr. Evans. I understand your
24 objection.

25 BY MR. EVANS: --and I object.

26 BY THE COURT: Okay. It's sustained.

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

28 Q. Okay. So when you came to court and testified the 29 last time, were you on drugs then?

1 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I don't know if this
2 is a game with Mr. Lumumba or not--

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --No, it's not a game.

4 BY MR. EVANS: I object again for the fifteenth
5 or twentieth time. Also, I object on this as that 6 the motion we are here on here now is whether they 7 were put in the jail for a specific purpose and 8 nothing about the trial.

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, he has asked--

10 BY THE COURT: --Well, I think the motion is 11 broad enough to include whether or not they were,
12 that there was governmental misconduct that got them
13 to testify, and certainly, what they testified to is 14 relevant to this hearing just as much as the 15 statement is. It's not limited to the jail. And so 16 whether or not he was on drugs at the time that he 17 testified is relevant. You can ask that question.

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

20 Q. At the time that you testified-- do you remember when 21 you testified?

22 A. Yeah.

23 Q. Huh?

24 A. Uh, I told--

25 Q. Now you are not on drugs right now, are you?

26 A. No. I'm tired.

27 Q. Okay. Okay. Well, let me see. At the time that you
28 testified, were you on drugs?

29 A. No.

1 Q. And when you say-- had you used drugs within five
2 days before you testified?

3 A. No. No.

4 Q. Six days?

5 A. No.

6 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I object.

7 BY THE COURT: Sustained.

8 BY MR. EVANS: This is ridiculous.

9 BY THE COURT: That is too far afield.

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

11 Q. So when you testified in court, your mind was totally 12 clear; right?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And your mind is totally clear today?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And you are telling us today that you never sent the 17 Sheriff a letter; right?

18 A. No.

19 Q. And just as sure as that is the truth, what you
20 testified in court about Flowers telling you something is the 21 truth. Both of those are true; right?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. The same way?

24 A. Yeah.

25 Q. You are just as certain of both of them?

26 A. (No immediate response).

27 Q. You are just as sure of both of them; right?

28 A. Yes.

29 (Pause while Defense Counsel confer.)

1 Q. Well, let me see. What were you in jail for?

2 A. Burglary.

3 Q. Did you get convicted of the burglary?

4 A. Yes--

5 BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, that is not
6 relevant.

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --It's in--

8 BY MR. EVANS: --unless he can show some 9 relevance. This is--

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can I speak on it?

11 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: It's relevant because it shows
13 whether or not there was some kind of favorable
14 treatment.

15 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, the reason it is not 16 relevant is this witness has already testified that 17 he had already been to court on the charge he was in 18 court, had already been placed on probation when he 19 asked to speak to Sheriff Banks and told him what 20 Curtis Flowers told him, so it cannot be relevant
21 unless he can lay some proper predicate.

22 BY THE COURT: That is true. Sustained.

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Wait a minute, Judge. That may 24 be his story, but I don't have to accept his story.

25 BY THE COURT: No, sir. But you have not laid
26 the predicate. The objection is sustained.

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I can lay the predicate through 28 another witness. So I think that I am entitled
29 through this witness to get things which corroborate

1                   what the other witness said.

2                   BY THE COURT: Okay, I have already ruled.

3                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:

4                   Q.    How long did you stay in jail?

5                   A.    The last time about three weeks.

6                   Q.    And how is it that you got out?

7                   A.    Out of jail the first time?

8                   Q.    No, you said the last time three weeks. How many 9 times have you been in jail?

10                  A.    No, I was out--

11                  BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, he is going to have 12 to direct this to some time frame.

13                  BY THE COURT: You are going to have to just 14 show something that is going to show prosecution
15 misconduct for it to be relevant, so you are going to 16 have to at least ask questions toward that point.

17                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Prosecutor misconduct is 18 letting somebody--

19                  BY THE COURT: --I'm sorry; governmental
20 misconduct; excuse me--

21                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: --out of jail earlier.
22 Governmental misconduct is letting somebody out of 23 jail early on probation because they go and do a job
24 for you and tell a lie.

25                  BY THE COURT: That's right. You need to-- if 26 that's what you, where you are going with this, then
27 you need to ask those questions.

28                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, well, I'm asking--

29                  BY THE COURT: --I don't care about his general

1                   life history.

2                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, I am asking those
3                   questions.

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

5           Q. Did you get out of jail on a guilty plea? Did you
6 get out of jail on a guilty plea?

7           A. Yeah, I plead guilty.

8           Q. And you got out of jail; right?

9           A. I got placed on probation.

10          Q. Which means you were out of jail. Is that what that 11 means?

12          A. Yeah, well, if you call it that.

13          Q. And this is after this so-called conversation with 14 Mr. Flowers; right?

15          A. Yeah. Well, could I tell you this? I got, when I
16 was charged, the other guy who was with me went to court two 17 months before I did. They put him on house arrest. By 18 neither, by either one of us being convicted of a crime, they 19 put me on house arrest too. That's how I got that.

20          Q. Is that how you got out?

21          A. Probation.

22          Q. Are you sure about that?

23          A. I am positive.

24          Q. You are just as sure about that as the fact that you
25 never sent the Sheriff a note; right?

26          A. Yes.

27          Q. Huh?

28          A. Yes.

29          Q. Now were you under oath when you testified back in

1 the hearing when you testified up in Tupelo?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Is your name Maurice Hawkins?

4 A. Yeah.

5 Q. Let me see if I can share this with you right here.

6 I am referring to page 486 of the transcript of your

7 testimony. Do you see somebody's name at the top of that page?

8 A. Yeah.

9 Q. Whose name is that?

10 A. Mine.

11 Q. Say it for me.

12 A. Maurice Hawkins.

13 Q. And do you see this question here where it says,

14 "Where did this happen, Mr. Hawkins?"

15 A. No, I don't see.

16 Q. You don't see that question right there? It says

17 cross-examination--

18 A. --yeah--

19 Q. --by Billy Gilmore. Is that what it says?

20 A. Yeah.

21 Q. And it says, "Where did this happen, Mr. Hawkins?"

22 Is that what it says?

23 A. (Witness nods his head.)

24 Q. Huh?

25 A. Yeah.

26 Q. It says, "In Leflore County Jail." That's what it
27 says?

28 A. Yes.

29 Q. I can't hear you.

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And "When did you make this statement?" "It was, it
3 was around the first of July." Is that what it says?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. "Okay. And who did you tell?" Answer -- whose name
6 is at the top of that page?

7 A. That's my name.

8 Q. And it says Answer here; right?

9 A. Yeah.

10 Q. "I wrote a letter to Sheriff Ricky Banks." Is that 11 what it says?

12 A. Yeah, that's what it says.

13 Q. And that's you, Maurice Hawkins; right?

14 A. My name is on there.

15 Q. And that says, "I wrote a letter to Ricky Banks,"
16 right?

17 A. That's what that paper said.

18 Q. Now you were under oath when you testified; right?

19 A. Yeah, I was.

20 Q. You spoke--

21 BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, trying to impeach
22 him on something that he said at trial is not
23 relevant to what we are here on today. We are here
24 on his motion alleging certain facts, and this 25 witness has not stated any of those facts.

26 BY THE COURT: But he did state that he didn't 27 write a letter, and that was back when all this went 28 on at the jail. I'm going to allow it.

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

1           Q.    Then back here on page 489, that is still your name
2 up there; right?

3           A.    Yes.

4           Q.    And then it says, "You sent him a note saying that's"
5 why-- "that's what Mr. Flowers told you?" Do you see that 6 question? Right here next to "Q." "You sent him a note saying
7 that's what Mr. Flowers told you?" Do you see that? Do you
8 see that question mark?

9           A.    I see that.

10          Q.    And then it says, "I sent him a note, told him I 11 needed to talk to him about Curtis Flowers." That's what it
12 says; right?

13          A.    I sent Ms. Childs a note.

14          Q.    It says, "I sent him a note." Is Ms. Childs a him?

15          A.    Well, that's what that says.

16          Q.    Now you had a conversation with Mr. Veal up in 17 Tupelo; right?

18          A.    No, I did not.

19          Q.    Oh, you never talked to Mr. Veal in Tupelo?

20          A.    No.

21          Q.    Where did you stay in Tupelo?

22          A.    It was in the room, but he was always on the phone,
23 and I was laying there asleep--

24          Q.    --Now wait a minute. Now let's take it one step at a 25 time. You were in a room?

26          A.    Yeah.

27          Q.    This is where you slept at?

28          A.    Yeah.

29          Q.    Was he in the same room?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. He slept there too?

3 A. I don't know what he was doing. I was sleep.

4 Q. But he was, I mean, you know, that was his room for 5 that time; is that right?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. And how long were you there?

8 A. A night.

9 Q. And how long was he there?

10 A. I don't know.

11 Q. Well, how long were you in the room together?

12 A. A night.

13 Q. A night. And you didn't talk to him the whole night?

14 A. He was on the phone.

15 Q. Oh, I see. It must be a heck of a phone bill from 16 that room then; right?

17 A. Sure is; I guess.

18 Q. Okay, by the way, who paid for the room?

19 A. I don't know.

20 Q. Did you pay for it?

21 A. No.

22 Q. Well, he never said nothing to you while you were in 23 there; right?

24 A. No.

25 Q. And you never said nothing to him?

26 A. (Witness shakes his head.)

27 Q. I can't hear you.

28 A. No.

29 Q. You don't remember telling him that you didn't really

1 want to testify against this innocent man? You don't remember
2 telling him that?

3 A. No.

4 Q. You don't remember telling him that the Sheriff had 5 sent you in there to get a statement from this man?

6 A. No, he did not.

7 Q. Okay, well, let me ask you this. At the time that 8 you say you talked to Mr. Flowers, were there other people in 9 the same cell?

10 A. Other people?

11 Q. Yes, human beings?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. It was you and him; right?

14 A. Yeah.

15 Q. How many other people were in the cell?

16 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, this is not--

17 BY THE WITNESS:

18 A. --I can't recall.

19 BY MR. EVANS: --not relevant on the motion, and 20 I object.

21 BY THE COURT: Overruled.

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

23 Q. How many people were in the cell?

24 A. I can't recall.

25 Q. Was it more than one?

26 A. Yes.

27 Q. It was like at least three or four; right?

28 A. I don't exactly remember how many.

29 Q. What were they doing?

1 A. Asleep, I guess.

2 Q. Oh, it just so happens that everybody else was
3 asleep? So that nobody else would hear it; right? Just you?

4 A. I don't know what they heard.

5 Q. I see. Have you ever talked to any of the people
6 that is related to any of the people who tragically died in 7 this incident?

8 A. No.

9 Q. Never said a word to them?

10 A. No.

11 Q. I see. Have you ever heard there is a reward out?

12 A. Yeah, I heard it.

13 Q. You heard that, huh?

14 A. Yeah, I heard it.

15 Q. Well, you don't, you don't, you don't, you don't need
16 money for anything, do you?

17 A. No.

18 Q. You never need money for drugs?

19 A. No.

20 Q. Never needed money for drugs?

21 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor--

22 BY THE WITNESS:

23 A. -- No, I didn't need--

24 BY MR. EVANS: --that is not relevant.

25 BY THE COURT: Sustained.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: It is certainly relevant,
27 Judge.

28 BY THE COURT: No, sir. I have ruled it's not.
29 Sustained.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, that don't mean it's not
2 relevant. It just means your ruling--

3 BY THE COURT: --But that means that's what I
4 have ruled, and let's move on.

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: All right, okay. Well, it
6 wouldn't be the first time, Judge.

7 BY THE COURT: That is true, Mr. Lumumba. Have 8 you got any further questions?

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I will let you know.

10 BY THE COURT: Thank you.

11 (Defense Counsel confer briefly.)

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

13 Q. So what lady-- who is Ms. Childs?

14 A. A District Attorney.

15 Q. Pardon?

16 A. A District Attorney.

17 Q. Ms. Childs is a District Attorney?

18 A. Yeah.

19 Q. Okay, and so you sent her a letter?

20 A. Yeah.

21 Q. I see. And when did you send her that letter?

22 A. Uh, it was that morning. I didn't know I was going
23 to court. My date was scheduled to go to court July the 7th,
24 but they took me that, uh, July the 3rd.

25 Q. And what did you say--

26 A. --I didn't even know--

27 Q. --in that letter? What did you say in the letter to 28 Ms. Childs?

29 A. Just telling her that I needed to talk to her about

1 something.

2 Q. Did you talk to her?

3 A. After court. I didn't get a chance to talk to her.
4 I talked to Mr. Banks.

5 Q. Oh, you talked to Mr. Banks. But you did send Ms.
6 Childs a letter?

7 A. Yeah.

8 Q. And that is Ms. Childs that works for-- do they work
9 in the same office with this gentleman, these gentlemen here?

10 A. No.

11 Q. Where does she work?

12 A. Leflore County.

13 Q. Was she, was she on your case?

14 A. She the District Attorney, yeah.

15 Q. She is the District Attorney?

16 A. Yeah.

17 Q. You are sure about that?

18 A. (Witness nods his head.)

19 Q. Huh?

20 A. Yeah.

21 Q. Okay. Do you know her first name? Hum?

22 A. Joyce, I think.

23 Q. Oh, let, let me see. Let me see if I can figure this 24 one out. Okay, now you sent her the note before you went to 25 court; right?

26 A. Yes.

27 Q. And the note was supposed to be about you wanted to 28 talk to her?

29 A. Exactly.

1 Q. And you knew that this case that Curtis Flowers was
2 charged with occurred in Winona; right?

3 A. Yeah, I knew what he was charged with.

4 Q. And you knew it happened in Winona; right?

5 A. Winona.

6 Q. Is that right?

7 A. Yeah.

8 Q. Did you know that?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. You knew it at the time?

11 A. Yeah.

12 Q. And she is the DA over there in Leflore County;
13 right?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. The place where you had to go to court?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. The place where your case was?

18 A. Yeah.

19 Q. Huh?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. She is not the DA over here where the case happened;
22 right?

23 A. No.

24 Q. What?

25 A. No.

26 Q. You didn't send a note to this DA telling him you had 27 some information; right?

28 A. No.

29 Q. You sent the note to the DA that had some

1 responsibility over your case?

2 A. Well, on my case I already knew I was going to get
3 house arrest.

4 Q. I understand, but I know, I know you told us that. I
5 know you told us that. I know you told us that. But what I'm 6 going to ask you is that it just so happens that you sent the 7 letter or the note before you were placed on house arrest;
8 right?

9 A. Yeah, it-- yeah.

10 Q. And it just so happens you sent it to the DA that was 11 in charge of your case and not the DA in charge of this case;
12 right?

13 A. Well, I sent it to her because she is the only one
14 who gets letters from people in jail quicker than anybody.

15 Q. Oh. I see. Banks is at the jail, isn't he?

16 A. Yes, sir. Well, sometimes I guess.

17 Q. He is at the jail more than she is at the jail, isn't 18 he?

19 A. I don't know.

20 Q. Well, you didn't think that-- I mean how long do you
21 think it takes a letter to get from, uh, where is that?
22 Leflore? From what city were you in? You were down in 23 Greenwood; is that right?

24 A. Yeah.

25 Q. How long do you think it would take a letter to get 26 from Greenwood over here to where this man's office is?

27 A. I don't know. I'm not a mailman.

28 Q. Okay, you think it takes two or three days?

29 A. I don't know.

1 Q. I see. But that was a concern of yours that it might 2 take too long?

3 A. I don't know.

4 Q. Well, you wasn't in no hurry, were you?

5 A. For what?

6 Q. I was wondering since your sentence was about to come
7 up, you wasn't in no hurry, were you?

8 A. I was, I already knew what my sentence going to be.

9 Q. So you wasn't in no hurry; right?

10 A. No.

11 Q. So you could have sent the letter, and even if it
12 took two months, it would be all right; right?

13 A. Yeah, could.

14 Q. But you just decided to send it to the DA that had 15 your case because it could get there right away, right before
16 you were going to be sentenced. That was just all a
17 coincidence; right?

18 A. No.

19 Q. Explain it to me.

20 BY THE COURT: Of course, the issue is not--

21 BY THE WITNESS:

22 A. --There is nothing--

23 BY THE COURT: --whether he got a deal. Wait a
24 minute, Mr. Hawkins. It's not whether he got a 25 deal. It's whether somebody did something that was 26 wrong in getting him that deal, so let's get back on 27 the issue.

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, there is two parts to 29 every issue, Judge. One is the deal; the second part

1 is why you get the deal. Witnesses like this fellow
2 lie sometimes.

3 BY THE COURT: Well, then why don't you ask him
4 those questions?

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Witnesses, you know, you know,
6 witnesses lie sometimes. You know that, Judge?

7 BY THE COURT: I have heard that.

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, right. In fact, one of 9 them just came in here and told you that he lied.

10 BY THE COURT: Okay, you want to ask him
11 questions, stay on point and ask him questions, or we 12 are going to move on.

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

14 Q. Well, the point is that you got a deal; right?

15 A. No.

16 Q. You didn't get no deal?

17 A. No.

18 Q. Oh. Oh, you just, you just happened to send a letter
19 to Ms. Childs, the person who was the DA in your district;
20 right?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Okay, I see. All right. Just like you never said
23 you sent the letter to the Sheriff; right?

24 A. Exactly.

25 Q. Who did you give the letter to that was supposed to 26 go to Ms. Childs?

27 A. Uh, I can't remember. It was always the jailer.

28 Q. You don't remember who the jailer was?

29 A. No, I don't remember who the jailer was. We slide

1 letters under the door. They will get them, whoever the 2 jailer--

3 Q. Oh, I see. You don't remember who the jailer was;
4 right?

5 A. No. How could you see with the flap closed? You
6 just stick the envelope up under it.

7 Q. You don't remember who was in the jail with you when 8 you had the discussion with Mr. Flowers; right?

9 A. Uh. I remember Steve, Steven Davis because we were 10 from Itta Bena.

11 Q. Oh, you can remember Steve Davis being there?

12 A. At that time, yeah.

13 Q. Okay, where does he live at now?

14 A. Uh, he is locked up.

15 Q. Where is locked up at?

16 A. I don't know.

17 (Pause while Mr. Lumumba confers with his 18 client.)

19 Q. Have you talked to Steve about this?

20 A. No.

21 Q. You don't remember making a statement to Steve about 22 this was all made up so you could try to get a little money in 23 your pocket--

24 A. --No. I don't need the money.

25 Q. Oh, you don't need the money?

26 A. No, if I did, I wouldn't be working.

27 Q. Oh. So thirty thousand dollars couldn't help you?

28 A. No.

29 Q. Well, if you had a crack habit, it might help you;

1 right?

2 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor--

3 BY THE WITNESS: --No.--

4 BY THE COURT: --Sustained.

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

6 Q. Why are you smiling? What is so funny?

7 BY THE COURT: Ask him a relevant question.

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

9 Q. It's kind of funny that the Judge and the prosecutor
10 is trying to stop you from talking about your crack habit--

11 BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor--

12 BY THE COURT: --No, sir. That is just the 13 ruling. It's not relevant, and I have ruled on it.
14 Mr. Lumumba, you know that's the way the Court
15 works--

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

17 Q. --Why are you smiling? What are you smiling about?

18 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, that is not
19 relevant.

20 BY THE COURT: --Sustained--

21 BY MR. EVANS: --I think everybody in the 22 courtroom was smiling because of what was going on--

23 BY THE COURT: That objection is sustained.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, no, no. Part of what is 25 relevant to any determination by a objective finder
26 of fact is the demeanor of the witness.

27 BY MR. HORAN: I want to apologize to this Court
28 for this man's actions.

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes, sir. You don't have to

1 talk to me.

2 BY THE COURT: I have sustained the objection.

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. So, so I can't ask him
4 why he is smiling; is that right?

5 BY THE COURT: That's right.

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. Okay.

7 BY THE COURT: Any further questions of this
8 witness?

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have no further questions of 10 this witness.

11 BY THE COURT: All right.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: At this time.

13 BY THE COURT: Mr. Evans.

14 BY MR. EVANS: Thank you, Your Honor.

15 CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. EVANS:

16 Q. Mr. Hawkins, is it true that you were in the same
17 cell with Curtis Flowers?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And that Curtis Flowers admitted to you that he had 20 killed the people at Tardy Furniture here--

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Objection.

22 BY MR. EVANS: Wait until the Court rules.

23 BY THE COURT: What is the objection?

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: The objection is it's 25 irrelevant to the issue at hand, and I didn't ask
26 that.

27 BY THE COURT: Overruled.

28 BY MR. EVANS:

29 Q. You may answer the question. Did Curtis Flowers

1 admit to you that he killed the people in Tardy Furniture in 2 Winona?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And after he admitted that to you, did you, in fact,
5 go to court on your case?

6 A. Yes. I went to court.

7 Q. And I believe, to make sure the record is clear, you
8 had already been offered the same deal that the co-defendant
9 got, house arrest?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. You pled guilty and were sentenced to house arrest;
12 is that correct?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And after you had pled guilty and were sentenced, you
15 asked to speak to the Sheriff about this, Sheriff Ricky Banks?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. You told Sheriff Ricky Banks that Curtis Flowers had 18 admitted to you that he had killed the people at Tardy
19 Furniture; is that right?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And based upon that, then an investigator from my 22 office came and took a statement from you about what you knew;
23 is that right?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Is all that true?

26 A. Yes.

27 BY MR. EVANS: No further questions.

28 BY THE COURT: Redirect?

29

1 REDIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

2 Q. Did you subsequently speak to Fred Veal and tell him
3 all that what you just said was a lie?

4 A. No.

5 Q. And so you never told him that in Tupelo, that Curtis
6 Flowers is an innocent man?

7 A. No.

8 Q. And you never told Steve Davis that?

9 A. No.

10 BY MR. FREELON: Wait; just one minute, Your
11 Honor.

12 (Defense Counsel confer briefly.)

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

14 Q. And you never told Cur-- you never told Veal that you
15 had been sent in there by the Sheriff to try to get a
16 statement?

17 A. No.

18 Q. Let me ask you this. You were talking about what you
19 did, and you went in there, and you said the Sheriff didn't 20 send you; right?

21 A. (Witness shakes his head.)

22 Q. Did you know anything about the facts in the case
23 before you talked to Mr.--

24 BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, that is not
25 relevant to what we are here on today.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes, yes--now let--

27 BY MR. EVANS: --And I did not go into that in 28 my statement.

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, Judge, now how--

1 BY MR. EVANS: --This is redirect.

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: How can--

3 BY THE COURT: --You can't talk when he talks.

4 BY MR. EVANS: The rules are very clear on 5 redirect what can be gone into, and it's not relevant
6 to the motion anyway.

7 BY THE COURT: Let me-- ask the question, and 8 then I will rule on the objection.

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, well, let me make my 10 argument. Can I make my argument?

11 BY THE COURT: No, you can ask the question
12 because I don't know what you asked.

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

14 Q. My question is you have just told the gentleman who 15 was up here a few minutes ago that nobody sent you in there;
16 right? Is that true?

17 A. Yeah.

18 Q. And that the Sheriff-- you didn't even talk to the 19 Sheriff or anybody before you went in there; right?

20 A. Before I went to court?

21 Q. No, before you went in there where Mr. Flowers was.
22 Before you were housed with Mr. Flowers?

23 A. Did I talk to the Sheriff?

24 Q. Yeah.

25 A. No, I didn't.

26 Q. And nobody told you to go in there and get any 27 information; right?

28 A. No.

29 Q. And nobody told you anything about the case; right?

1 A. No.

2 Q. Is that right?

3 A. That's right. I didn't even know Mr. Flowers until 4 after I got in the cell.

5 Q. And you didn't know nothing about the facts of the 6 case?

7 A. No.

8 Q. You didn't know anything about what had happened over
9 there?

10 A. No.

11 Q. I'm sorry?

12 A. No.

13 Q. You didn't know anything about what was taken and 14 what wasn't taken?

15 A. Well, no, I didn't know then.

16 Q. You didn't know any of that?

17 A. (Witness shakes his head.)

18 Q. I'm sorry?

19 A. No. Well, I heard some money in a safe or something.

20 Q. And who-- where did you hear that from?

21 A. I just heard it. It was in the papers.

22 Q. Oh, it was in the papers?

23 A. I talked to some people about it before.

24 Q. Oh, okay. Now you done heard-- now you done talked
25 to some people; right?

26 A. Yeah. It was in the news.

27 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, this is what I'm 28 objecting to. It's not relevant what he knew at that 29 point. What is relevant is what the Motion is on.

1                   BY THE COURT: That is true, and it's improper
2                   redirect. Sustained.

3                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can I ask you a question? How 4                   was it relevant when he was asking the questions and 5                   not relevant now?

6                   BY THE COURT: You can ask it, but I'm not going 7                   to answer it. Let's move on.

8                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: All right. Have you got any 9                   others?

10                  (Mr. Freelon shakes his head.)

11                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: We don't have any other
12                  questions of this witness right now.

13                  BY THE COURT: Okay, you may return to the 14                  witness room. Are you ready? Need a break?

15                  BY THE COURT REPORTER: Yes, sir.

16                  BY THE COURT: We are going to take about 10
17                  minutes.

18                  (FOLLOWING A RECESS ON MARCH 3, 1998, THE 19                  PRETRIAL MOTION HEARING CONTINUED IN OPEN COURT WITH 20                  THE COURT, ALL COUNSEL AND THE DEFENDANT PRESENT AS 21                  FOLLOWS:)

22                  BY THE COURT: Who will you have next?

23                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: At this time I would call the 24                  Sheriff, Sheriff Banks.

25                  FREDERICK L. "RICKY" BANKS,
26                  a white male called to testify as a witness by the Defendant on 27                  his Motion to Suppress, having been previously sworn, testified
28                  as follows, to-wit:

29                  BY THE COURT: State your name for the record,

1                   please, sir.

2                   BY THE WITNESS: Frederick L. "Ricky" Banks.

3                   DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

4                   Q. Mr. Banks, were you ever told that you would have to 5 appear here to testify today or that might be a possibility?

6                   A. Yes, sir.

7                   Q. And who told you that?

8                   A. The lady in the District Attorney's Office.

9                   Q. The lady at the District Attorney's Office. Do you 10 know-- does she have a name?

11                  A. Margie.

12                  Q. And how long ago did you find out?

13                  A. Yesterday.

14                  Q. And did you review any notes or anything in order to 15 prepare yourself to testify here today?

16                  A. Well, I brought a file with me that concerned this 17 case to testify.

18                  Q. What is that file about?

19                  A. It's about Freddie Veal and Maurice Hawkins.

20                  Q. Okay, can I see it there, please?

21                  A. Sure.

22                               (File handed to Mr. Lumumba; long pause.)

23                   BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, if we are going to 24 sit here and him read the entire Sheriff's file, I
25 would ask that we at least take a break so everybody
26 doesn't have to sit in the courtroom while he takes 27 time to read through a file.

28                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: That would be fine, Judge. It
29 seems to me it is something I should have gotten in

1                   discovery anyway, but since I didn't, I would like to 2                   have a break long enough to read it.

3                   BY THE COURT: How long will it take you to read
4                   it?

5                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Probably about 5 or 10 minutes
6                   at the most.

7                   BY THE COURT: Okay, we will take a break.

8                   BY MR. EVANS: I would also ask that the 9                   Sheriff's file remain in the courtroom.

10                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: I would ask that I get copies
11                  of it that I should have had--

12                  BY MR. EVANS: --I don't know what is there, so 13                  I don't know what's there. I just don't want it to 14                  leave the courtroom.

15                  BY THE COURT: Well, you can examine it in here.

16                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Now Judge, let me-- as you
17                  recall, the last time that we met we asked the 18                  question of whether or not any notes went to the 19                  Sheriff or whether the Sheriff had any information on 20                  this case. They claim they went and asked the 21                  Sheriff, and he came back and said no. That's what 22                  they claim.

23                  BY MR. HORAN: He came in the courtroom.

24                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: So what I'm trying to figure
25                  out is how does the statements in his possession come 26                  up when he didn't have them at the last time?

27                  BY THE COURT: Well, I don't know because I
28                  don't know that they have. That is just your 29                  statement to that effect. Read the file--

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Well, you don't-- now you do
2 recall us inquiring about--

3 BY THE COURT: I recall all that. You read the 4 file. Then we will talk--

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Now I'm sorry--

6 BY THE COURT: --come back in ten minutes--

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: You recall what now? I didn't 8 hear what you said. I'm sorry; I didn't hear what
9 you said.

10 BY THE COURT: I said I recall what I did. Take
11 10 minutes.

12 (FOLLOWING ANOTHER RECESS ON MARCH 3, 1998,
13 MOTION PROCEEDINGS CONTINUED IN OPEN COURT WITH THE 14 COURT, ALL COUNSEL, AND THE DEFENDANT PRESENT AND 15 WITH THE WITNESS, SHERIFF RICKY BANKS, BACK ON THE 16 WITNESS STAND FOR THE FOLLOWING:)

17 BY THE COURT: All right, sir.

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, the comment about
19 persons in the courtroom not making any noise, I
20 assume that goes to everybody in the courtroom
21 because I noticed that people on that side of the 22 room are kind of-- where, where the black folks seem 23 to be sitting were chastised when somebody clapped.
24 However, several times this middle portion of the 25 courtroom has reacted to different things - laughed
26 or made noise or some kind of way - I never heard the 27 Court say anything about it. So I am just trying 28 to-- and it seems to be majority white people sitting 29 here. I just want to make sure that the rule is

1           evenly applied, and the Court may not have even
2           noticed it, but I noticed it. So I thought I would
3           bring it to your attention.

4           BY THE COURT: Okay, there have been numerous
5           expressions one way or another made by numerous
6           persons in the courtroom. That is not what concerned
7           the Court. It was where the clapping was disruptive
8           to the Court. I don't want the clapping. I don't 9           expect any displays of emotion from either side that 10          would be disruptive to the Court, and I'm not going
11          to allow that by anybody in the courtroom.

12          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. Okay.

13          CONTINUED DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

14          Q. Mr. Banks, you have a chance to talk to Mr. Freddie
15          Veal before?

16          A. Yes, sir.

17          Q. Did you have a chance to talk to him after we were at 18          the court the last-- do you remember when we were in court the 19          last time?

20          A. In Kosciusko?

21          Q. Yeah, on this case.

22          A. Yes, sir.

23          Q. And do you remember when I asked to talk to him?
24          They asked you to go get him so I could talk to him?

25          A. I don't remember it, but if you say so, okay.

26          Q. Well, I want you to try to remember. Remember when I
27          did go talk to him in a room?

28          A. I know you talked to him; yes, sir.

29          Q. Do you recall that you had brought him to court? You

1 recall that; right?

2 A. Yes, sir. He rode with me.

3 Q. Okay, did you have a chance to talk to him before I
4 had a chance to talk to him about me talking to him?

5 A. No, sir. I didn't talk to him about you talking to
6 him.

7 Q. All right, were you present or did you yourself ever
8 ask him if he could be wired up while he talked to me?

9 A. No, sir.

10 Q. That never happened?

11 A. No, sir.

12 Q. While you were around?

13 A. No, sir.

14 Q. Okay, let me ask you this here, Mr. Banks. Have you
15 got any letters or notes that was either sent to you by either
16 Mr. Veal or Mr. Hawkins?

17 A. No, sir.

18 Q. To your knowledge, did either one of them ever send 19 you any letters or notes?

20 A. No, sir.

21 Q. Do you have records that would show where Mr. Hawkins
22 was first housed when he came to your facility?

23 A. Yes, sir. I think I do.

24 Q. Did he ever change his housing from one place to the 25 next?

26 A. I don't know. I would have to look at the record. I
27 couldn't answer that without doing it.

28 Q. Do you have the records today?

29 A. No, sir.

1 Q. You can get them though; right?

2 A. If the Court wants me to, yes, sir.

3 Q. Yeah, if the Court wants you-- you wouldn't get them
4 if I wanted you to; right?

5 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I object on
6 relevance.

7 BY THE COURT: --Well, you have got to wait--

8 BY MR. EVANS: --We are here on a specific
9 motion.

10 BY THE COURT: That is true, and there is a way
11 for you to get them here if you had wanted them here.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

13 Q. Well, let me ask you this, and I just want to know.
14 You don't have any animosity toward me, do you?

15 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor--

16 BY THE WITNESS:

17 A. --No, sir--

18 BY MR. EVANS: --I object. That is not proper--

19 BY THE WITNESS:

20 A. --I don't even know you.

21 Q. Okay, that's right. I don't know you either, do I?

22 A. No, sir.

23 Q. No, we just know-- you know what kind of work I do,
24 and I know what kind of work you do. That's all; right?

25 A. Yes, sir. Yes, sir.

26 Q. I know what you do, right. Okay, now let me see.

27 The-- what kind of records are they? Tell me about the 28 records that would tell us where these gentlemen or where

29 anybody in your place - particularly right now I'm focusing on

1 Mr. Hawkins - where they were located at one time and if they
2 changed. Like what do you call those?

3 A. From the time he is put in the county jail there, the 4 daily jail sheet that comes out, and it would have a list of 5 every prisoner and where he is located in that jail until he is 6 released.

7 Q. Okay. You were there, weren't you, when Mr.-- let me
8 see; Mr. Flowers came to your facility at some point; right?

9 A. Yes, sir.

10 Q. And do you know the Gilmores?

11 A. Yes, sir. I know the elderly Gilmore. I didn't know
12 the younger boy.

13 Q. Okay, you are aware of the fact that they represented
14 Mr. Flowers; right?

15 A. Yes, sir.

16 Q. You knew that they represented him while he was in 17 your jail; right?

18 A. Yes, sir.

19 Q. You never had occasion to advise Mr. Flowers of any 20 rights about giving a statement, did you?

21 A. No, sir--

22 BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, none of this is 23 relevant to what we are here on today. I object.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, I think it is, Judge.

25 BY THE COURT: Okay, how?

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, I think that if we, I
27 recall my motion was to suppress a statement, and 28 whether you advise people of their rights is almost 29 the first, on the first page of law school when you

1 talk about suppressing statements. So I think that
2 is relevant.

3 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir. But the statement was 4 given to an individual and not to law enforcement.

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: It doesn't make any difference.

6 BY THE COURT: Oh, yes, sir; it does. That is 7 on the first page too.

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, no. That is not on, that 9 is not even in that book.

10 BY THE COURT: I sustain the objection.

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: That is not in that book.

12 But-- so that is very good. That is very good. No
13 problem; no problem. No problem whatsoever.

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

15 Q. So you knew while they were there, while he was 16 there, he was being represented by the Gilmores, one or the 17 other; right?

18 A. When an attorney comes to the Leflore County Jail, he 19 has to sign in to what inmate he wants to talk to.

20 Q. Okay, all right.

21 A. So there is a record where they, when they came and 22 every time they came.

23 Q. And you are aware of it? You? No, I'm not asking
24 you about the records. I'm saying you are aware that they were 25 representing him while he was there; right?

26 A. The only reason I'm aware of it because Mr. Gilmore
27 came by and spoke to me. That's the only reason I am aware of
28 it.

29 Q. Well, whatever the reason is, you are aware of it?

1 A. Yes, sir.

2 Q. And you were aware of it while he was in your jail?

3 A. Yes, sir.

4 Q. And you were aware of it before you had any 5 communications from Mr. Hawkins; isn't that correct?

6 A. Aware of what?

7 Q. The fact that Gilmore was representing Mr. Flowers.

8 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I object. I have 9 tried not to. I have tried to let this line go, but 10 whether or not he was aware of whether Mr. Gilmore
11 was representing him or not before Mr. Hawkins came 12 to him and told him what Curtis Flowers said is not
13 relevant.

14 BY THE COURT: I think what is relevant is what 15 happened between the witness and the Sheriff unless 16 Mr. Gilmore had something to do with that, and I
17 think he was after the fact, so I sustain the 18 objection.

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

20 Q. Did the District Attorney's Office, this District
21 Attorney sitting here, at any point in time did he approach you
22 asking you if you had any statements in your possession that 23 was taken from any witnesses connected with this case?

24 A. No, sir.

25 Q. Now you have actually been in the presence of the 26 District Attorney or met with him on several occasions about 27 this case, haven't you?

28 A. No, sir.

29 Q. Well, you were at the last court proceeding; right?

1 A. Yes, sir.

2 Q. And were you at the court proceeding which occurred
3 in Tupelo?

4 A. No, sir. I didn't testify in that.

5 Q. No, that is not what I asked you. Were you up there?

6 A. I was up there to testify, but I never testified. I
7 was up there about two hours one day.

8 Q. And have you ever been to this District Attorney's
9 Office?

10 A. No, sir.

11 Q. Never been there before in your life?

12 A. Never in my life, no, sir.

13 Q. Has he ever been to your station?

14 A. I don't think so unless he just happened by there.
15 He hasn't been there on business. I don't believe he has ever
16 been there.

17 Q. Never been to the jail?

18 A. No, sir.

19 Q. Has-- did you ever, were you ever present when any 20 statement was taken from Mr. Veal?

21 A. Yes, sir.

22 Q. Was the DA there?

23 A. No, sir.

24 Q. Who else was there?

25 A. John Johnson was there.

26 Q. Is that the only person besides yourself?

27 A. Yes, sir.

28 Q. And were you ever present when any statement was 29 taken from Mr. Hawkins?

1 A. No, sir.

2 Q. How is it that John Johnson wound up taking a
3 statement from Mr. Veal? How did he get there? Did somebody
4 talk to him, ask him to come?

5 A. How did John Johnson get there?

6 Q. Yes.

7 A. I called him; yes, sir.

8 Q. Oh, very good; very good.

9 (Mr. Lumumba confers with Mr. Freelon and with 10 the Defendant.)

11 Q. While you were in the jail, did you ever have a 12 discussion with Mr. Veal? While he was in jail, I mean?

13 A. Yes, sir.

14 Q. And how did that come about?

15 A. He sent word that he wanted to see me.

16 Q. Okay. And who brought you the word?

17 A. Alfred King, I think it was; one of the jailers.

18 Q. Does Alfred King still work at the jail?

19 A. Yes, sir. In fact, your law partner represented him
20 a couple of weeks ago.

21 Q. Is that right?

22 A. Yes, sir.

23 Q. Oh, I see. Maybe we need to talk to him then.

24 A. I expect he already has.

25 Q. Oh, okay, all right.

26 (Laughter).

27 Q. You didn't fire him, did you?

28 A. No, sir.

29 Q. All right.

1           A.    Why would I fire him?

2           Q.    All right.  What about the situation with Mr.
3 Hawkins?  How did you come in contact with him?

4           A.    He was in Leflore County Jail.

5           Q.    Okay.  But did you ever have a discussion with him
6 about the Flowers case?

7           A.    Yes, sir.

8           Q.    And how did that come about?

9           A.    He had just pled guilty or just got sentenced on a
10 charge, and I was going out of the courtroom, and he stopped
11 and told me he wanted to see me a minute, and I went right
12 there behind the courtroom in a judge's chambers and talked to
13 him.

14          Q.    Do you know anything about a letter or a note he sent 15 to Ms. Childs?

16          A.    No, sir.

17          Q.    He didn't tell you about that?

18          A.    He told me about it, but I never seen it.

19          Q.    Oh, I see.

20          A.    He told me he wrote a note to her.

21          Q.    Did you write down what he told you?

22          A.    Yes, sir.

23          Q.    You did write down what he told you?

24          A.    Yes, sir.

25          Q.    Did you write down that he told you about the letter
26 to Ms., that he sent the letter to Ms. Childs?

27          A.    I wrote what is on that piece of paper in your hand
28 there.

29          Q.    I see.  Can you find the place here where you write

1 down about--

2 BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, I would at least
3 like to see the document we are talking about.

4 BY THE COURT: Just let him, let him see it.

5 (Pause while Mr. Evans looks at document.)

6 BY MR. EVANS: All right.

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

8 Q. See if you can find anything in here about him
9 sending a note to Ms. Childs?

10 A. No, sir.

11 Q. You said no?

12 A. Yes, sir. I said no, sir.

13 Q. Well, when I was standing over there, you didn't know 14 whether it was in there or not, but now you know it's not in 15 there; right?

16 A. No, I told you I wrote down what was on that paper.
17 I didn't say it wasn't in there.

18 Q. Oh, I see. So it's not in there; right?

19 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, this piece of paper--

20 BY THE WITNESS:

21 A. --The document speaks for itself.

22 BY THE COURT: --Wait, wait.

23 BY MR. EVANS: This piece of paper is not
24 relevant to this hearing that we are here on today.
25 This hearing is specifically for one purpose. That 26 is whether or not the allegations made in the motion
27 were true or not.

28 BY THE COURT: I don't know what this paper is 29 at this point.

1 BY MR. EVANS: Apparently, this is just some
2 notes that the Sheriff made that are in his file
3 about what that person told him.

4 BY THE COURT: How is that relevant?

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Oh, I think--

6 BY THE COURT: --He is here to testify. I mean
7 how is it relevant?

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I think it's relevant because I
9 have a right to impeach him. I have a right to 10 impeach him. I have a right to see if what he is 11 saying is recorded anywhere in order to reflect 12 whether or not it is really accurate, truthful and 13 whether his, whether it's some of his recorded
14 recollection or whether it's not. So that is why
15 it's relevant. It is relevant just like any other 16 document that a witness writes out, and then he comes 17 to testify. The document that he wrote out, as long 18 as it has, is relevant to the case, as long as it has 19 that subject, is always relevant.

20 BY THE COURT: Well, if it's not inconsistent, 21 it's not.

22 BY MR. EVANS: And also, a point that he made is 23 exactly right. What may be relevant to the case may 24 not be relevant to this motion.

25 BY THE COURT: That's true too. We have got to 26 remember--

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Well, so are we now saying
28 that we don't want to talk about-- the document has 29 what Mr. Hawkins allegedly told him. Now if what Mr.

1 Hawkins allegedly told him is not relevant for me, I
2 assume it's not going to be relevant for him when he
3 stands up here either.

4 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I have no problem
5 with him introducing the document. The question that 6 he asked is what I objected to. The question that he 7 asked was not relevant.

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, please. Let's, let's
9 stop pretending here. What I asked this gentlemen is 10 if he had wrote down what Veal told him. He said
11 yes-- not what Veal told, what Hawkins said. He said
12 yes. That pretends to be what he wrote down. Now if 13 there is something else he wrote down, he can tell
14 us. I'm now asking him if he wrote down anything
15 about passing a note to Ms. Childs. I already asked
16 him that, and he said that he, he said that he wrote
17 down what he was told by Hawkins, and I'm trying to 18 find out is if what he wrote down contains the 19 information about the Childs' information. He said
20 that Veal told him that-- not Veal, but Hawkins told 21 him that. He just said that Hawkins told him that.

22 BY MR. EVANS: Which is not relevant to this
23 matter.

24 BY THE COURT: How is it relevant to whether or 25 not he coerced him into doing it?

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: It's relevant-- see the 27 question is not whether he coerced him, not for this 28 hearing. The question for this hearing is whether or 29 not he solicited, however; whether it was coercion,

1           and he can just request him to do it. It's still
2           improper. It doesn't make any difference whether he
3           coerced him. That's the law if you ever read it.
4           The law says that anybody, that when you get a snitch
5           to go into the jail to talk to somebody else to get a
6           statement, you can ask them; you can coerce them; you
7           can give them some money; you can make them a
8           promise, or you can maybe just do it as a favor. It
9           doesn't make any difference.

10           BY THE COURT: I am familiar with that, Mr.
11           Lumumba. But how is that relevant?

12           BY MR. LUMUMBA: So what we are trying to do is 13           determine whether or not what you heard from Hawkins
14           is accurate, and we are trying to find out through 15           this witness whether he can corroborate what Hawkins
16           says. And if he says he can corroborate what Hawkins
17           says, then I am trying to see, since he said he
18           recorded what Hawkins said, is it in his recollection
19           that it is recorded.

20           BY THE COURT: I hold that that is not
21           relevant. Move on. The objection is sustained.

22           BY MR. LUMUMBA: You know what? Are we going to 23           have a fair hearing here or are--

24           BY THE COURT: --We are going to let you ask
25           questions. He is going to answer them, and I'm going 26           to rule on the objections.

27           BY MR. LUMUMBA:

28           Q. Anywhere in the world did you write down what Hawkins
29           allegedly told you about sending a letter to Ms. Childs?

1 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, that is exactly what
2 I just objected to.

3 BY THE COURT: Sustained.

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, that is not what he just--

5 BY MR. EVANS: --And I object to that form of 6 the question.

7 BY THE COURT: That is sustained.

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

9 Q. What is it that makes you recall that he said that to
10 you?

11 A. What he has told me on that piece of paper there?

12 Q. No--

13 A. --or whether or not he told me that he sent Ms.
14 Childs a note? Which one?

15 Q. Uh-hum.

16 A. Which one?

17 Q. What is it that makes you recall what he said about 18 the note to Ms. Childs, what you claim he said about a note to 19 Ms. Childs?

20 A. He just told me he had sent word to Ms. Childs that 21 he wanted to see me. I get, I get messages every day from the 22 jail, the prisoners might want to see me but--

23 Q. Is that right?

24 A. Yes, sir.

25 Q. Do you normally -- now when, now when you do these 26 things, do you normally write down notes of what prisoners tell
27 you if it's important?

28 A. If I think it is important enough to write it down.
29 If they maybe didn't, their grandmother didn't come see them

1 Sunday or something, no, I don't write that down but--

2 Q. --Well, do you think this conversation that you had 3 about this case with--

4 (Mr. Lumumba had sat down in a chair in the jury
5 box.)

6 BY THE COURT: --Mr. Lumumba, you have to stand
7 up to ask the questions in this court.

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Oh, do you?

9 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, thank you.

11 BY THE COURT: And I appreciate you using the 12 podium too.

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: All right, thank you.

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

15 Q. Did you think that the conversation that you had with 16 Mr. Hawkins was an important conversation?

17 A. Which conversation are you referring to? The one
18 about Ms. Childs or the one about the murder?

19 BY THE COURT: Come back and use the podium now.

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can I get the exhibit?

21 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Is that all right?

23 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

25 BY THE COURT: It's not an exhibit, but you can
26 get that document.

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can I get this document?

28 BY THE COURT: Uh-hum.

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: All right, all right, okay.

1           You are not worried about me standing down here, are
2           you, Judge?

3           BY THE COURT: No, I'm worried about you
4           standing behind the podium.

5           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Wait a minute. When he stands
6           up and asks questions behind the table, that is all
7           right?

8           BY THE COURT: I am worried about you standing
9           behind the podium, Mr. Lumumba--

10          BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Why do I have to stand--

11          BY THE COURT: --I'm not going to debate with 12          you. Ask this man questions if you want to. Let's 13          move on with this hearing.

14          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can I stand behind the table?

15          BY THE COURT: Yes, sir. You can stand behind
16          the table.

17          BY MR. LUMUMBA: I can. Either the podium or 18          the table?

19          BY THE COURT: Well, do what you want to. If 20          you don't ask questions, we are going to let the 21          witness off the stand.

22          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, if you don't allow 23          relevant answers to be given, then you might as well
24          let the witness off the stand.

25          BY THE COURT: Well, that's up to you.

26          BY MR. LUMUMBA: All right. No, it's up to you
27          because you--

28          BY THE COURT: --You ask the questions, Mr.
29          Lumumba, and I'm going to rule on them. Now ask a

1 question. Don't debate with me. I'm not here to 2 debate you.

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I'm not debating on you. I am
4 just recording the fact into the record.

5 BY THE COURT: Good. It's in the record now.
6 Move on.

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, it might not be
8 completely in the record.

9 BY THE COURT: It's complete as it's going to 10 get. Move on.

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

13 Q. Did you think the discussion that you had with him
14 concerning the events which were supposed to have occurred at 15 the Tardy Furniture Store was an important discussion?

16 A. Yes, sir.

17 Q. Have you been trained to write down things which are 18 important?

19 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor--

20 BY THE WITNESS:

21 A. --Yes, sir.

22 BY MR. EVANS: With the Court's discretion, I
23 object on relevance. None of this is relevant to 24 what we are here for today. This is not the trial.
25 This is simply a motion on one issue.

26 BY THE COURT: And I have sustained the 27 objection about three times. Now let's move on to 28 another--

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --You haven't sustained that

1 objection.

2 BY THE COURT: Well, I have sustained one just
3 like it. So let's move on to different issues.

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, I tell you what I'm going
5 to do. I'm not one that believes in wasting my 6 time. It's apparent to me that this Court has no
7 intention of allowing a fair hearing in this case,
8 probably has no intention of allowing a fair trial in 9 this case. So that being the case, I'm not going to 10 waste my time asking this man questions when you
11 sustain objections, when you will turn right back
12 around when he gets up here and asks the same kind of 13 question, and allow him to answer. You have done it
14 several times today. You have sat in here and you
15 have scolded black people--

16 BY THE COURT: --All right, Mr.--

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --and did not scold--

18 BY THE COURT: --Mr. Lumumba, have a seat.

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can I make a record--

20 BY THE COURT: --Mr. Evans--

21 BY MR. EVANS: --May I proceed, Your Honor?

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can I make a record, Judge?

23 BY THE COURT: --No, sir. You can't. You can
24 proffer it after the hearing.

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA: All right.

26 BY THE COURT: You can't right now. You are 27 being disruptive.

28 BY MR. EVANS: May I proceed, Your Honor?

29 BY THE COURT: Yes.

1 BY THE WITNESS: Judge, could I get my file?

2 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir. I want the file back.

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: You want the file back?

4 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir. I want, I want the 5 file back.

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can I get a copy?

7 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir. Before the day is out,
8 you can, but right now I want it back.

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Thank you, Judge. Thank you.
10 Why do you need it?

11 BY THE COURT: Because I'm going to hand it to 12 the witness, and it doesn't matter why I want it.

13 (File was handed to the witness.)

14 BY THE COURT: Okay, Mr. Evans.

15 BY MR. EVANS: Thank you, Your Honor.

16 CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. EVANS:

17 Q. Sheriff Banks, did you at any time plant anyone in 18 the cell with Curtis Flowers to elicit testimony from him about 19 his crime in Montgomery County?

20 A. No, sir. I did not.

21 Q. Is it true that the first time that you knew anything
22 about what Veal or Hawkins, either one, had found out from 23 Curtis Flowers is when they contacted you and told you about
24 it?

25 A. That's correct.

26 Q. And then you contacted my investigator, John Johnson,
27 and told him about what you had discovered; is that right?

28 A. Yes, I did.

29 Q. Did you, John Johnson, or anyone else try to get

1 Veal, Hawkins or anyone else to lie for the State or against 2 Curtis Flowers or try to get anybody to lie in any way about
3 this case?

4 A. No, sir. I did not.

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Objection. He can't testify to 6 what somebody else did.

7 BY THE WITNESS:

8 A. I said I did not--

9 BY THE COURT: --If he knows, he can.

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Pardon?

11 BY THE COURT: If he knows, he can.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, how does he know if it's 13 not hearsay?

14 BY THE COURT: I don't know. Ask--

15 BY MR. EVANS: --I asked if he--

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Well, improper foundation.
17 He has got to show us how he knows, so we can make 18 sure that what he is now testifying to is hearsay.

19 BY THE COURT: Reask your question, Mr. Evans.

20 BY MR. EVANS:

21 Q. Did you or did anyone in your presence attempt in any 22 way to get Frederick Veal or Maurice Hawkins to lie against 23 Curtis Flowers?

24 A. No, sir.

25 Q. Did you or anyone in your presence offer any reward
26 or any type of money or any leniency to anyone to get them to 27 lie and tell you something about Curtis Flowers?

28 A. No, sir.

29 Q. Were you present in the DA's office in Kosciusko at

1 the last hearing we had when Frederick Veal told me that Chokwe
2 Lumumba--

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Objection. Excuse me;
4 objection.

5 BY MR. EVANS:

6 Q. --had attempted--

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Objection.

8 BY MR. EVANS: I would like to finish my 9 question before there is an objection.

10 BY THE COURT: Okay, let him--

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --He has already said "told me"
12 which goes into hearsay.

13 BY THE COURT: Well, I'm going to let him finish
14 his question.

15 BY MR. EVANS:

16 Q. Let me start over. Were you present in the DA's
17 office in Kosciusko the last motion that we had when Frederick
18 Veal told me that Chokwe Lumumba--

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --That is not my name--

20 BY MR. EVANS:

21 Q. --had told him--

22 BY MR. EVANS: --May I finish my question, Your
23 Honor?

24 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir--

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Well, can we pronounce my 26 name correctly?

27 BY MR. EVANS: I don't know how he pronounces
28 his name. I am pronouncing it the best I know how.

29 BY THE COURT: How is it pronounced?

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, he does a lot of things
2 the best he knows how--

3 BY THE COURT: --How is it pronounced?

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --but that is not good enough.
5 My name is pronounced Chokwe.

6 BY THE COURT: Okay.

7 BY MR. EVANS: Whatever his name is--

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --very good.

9 BY MR. EVANS: I don't care what his name--

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Are we concerned about people
11 laughing--

12 BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor--

13 BY THE COURT: --Have a seat, Mr. Lumumba.

14 BY MR. EVANS: --may I finish my question?

15 BY THE COURT: Have a seat. You can object at 16 the proper time.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, can I ask so I can hear
18 that--

19 BY MR. EVANS: --No, you can't. I am asking the
20 questions.

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, I am just asking if we can
22 keep the audience under control.

23 BY THE COURT: Okay, everybody, everybody hold
24 it down.

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA: All right.

26 BY MR. EVANS:

27 Q. Let me start over again, Sheriff. Were you present
28 in Kosciusko in the DA's office on the last hearing we had when 29 this attorney sitting right here, when Frederick Veal told me

1 that he had told him that if he would leave and go to Chicago
2 before we got subpoenaed, that we couldn't get him back for
3 court?

4 A. I don't think I was present.

5 Q. All right. Did you or anyone else that you were 6 aware of do anything other than deliver information that you
7 had received from Frederick Veal and Maurice Hawkins to us?

8 A. Say that again.

9 Q. Did you do anything other than just tell us what 10 information you had found out?

11 A. No, sir. I, my train of thought-- I was trying to 12 think of that other question you asked me before that. I think 13 Veal told me what you just said, but I don't remember being 14 present when he told you.

15 Q. But you remember him telling you that?

16 A. Yeah, that that attorney right there, and I don't 17 want to try to mess your name up, but that attorney right there
18 told him he needed to get lost and go to Chicago.

19 Q. Told him he needed to get lost and go to Chicago?

20 A. Yeah.

21 BY MR. EVANS: Nothing further.

22 BY THE COURT: Redirect?

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have no further questions.

24 BY THE COURT: Okay, is he finally excused for
25 today?

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Is who excused?

27 BY THE COURT: The witness.

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I don't, I don't need him any 29 more.

1                   BY THE COURT: All right, Mr. Evans, do you?

2                   BY MR. EVANS: No, Your Honor. Well, if we are 3 through with the motion.

4                   BY THE COURT: Well, I mean I don't know about
5 that.

6                   BY MR. EVANS: I would ask that he stay in the 7 courtroom-- courthouse for a short time until we 8 determine.

9                   BY THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Banks, I want you to 10 do something for me. I want you to go in the Clerk's 11 office and get them to make a copy of that file so we 12 can--

13                   BY THE WITNESS: --Okay.

14                   BY THE COURT: And then if you will give it to 15 Mr. Freelon and Mr. Lumumba.

16                   BY MR. HORAN: Ricky.

17                   BY THE COURT: I guess you probably ought to 18 make two copies because I don't think the State has 19 one either.

20                   BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

21                   BY THE COURT: Let the record reflect that the 22 Court is providing for both sides copies of the 23 Sheriff's file that he brought here today and which 24 he was questioned about during his interrogation.

25                   WITNESS LEAVES COURTROOM.

26                   BY THE COURT: Who will you have next?

27                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Frederick Veal.

28                   BY THE COURT: Okay. Frederick Veal.

29                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: He is in the back in the

1 witness room. Harvey, why don't you go get him?

2 (Mr. Freelon leaves the courtroom to go get the
3 witness.)

4 BY THE COURT: Have a seat back up here.

5 BY THE WITNESS: Sir?

6 BY THE COURT: Have a seat up here.

7 FREDERICK VEAL,

8 upon being recalled to testify as a witness again for the 9 Defendant on his motion, having been previously sworn,
10 testified again as follows, to-wit:

11 DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

12 Q. Yes. Mr. Veal.

13 A. Yes, sir.

14 Q. You have already been sworn.

15 A. Yes, sir.

16 Q. Okay, now let me ask you this. Do you recall when we 17 talked about before; we had our discussion in here; we asked
18 you questions about being in Tupelo with Mr., uh, what is his 19 name?

20 A. Maurice Hawkins?

21 Q. Hawkins. You recall that; right?

22 A. Yes, sir.

23 Q. During that period of time, did Mr. Hawkins say
24 anything to you about whether he had been sent into the cell
25 with or asked to get information from Mr. Flowers?

26 A. Yes--

27 BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, I object on 28 relevance.

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

1 Q. What did he say?

2 BY THE COURT: What was the question?

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I asked if Mr. Hawkins told him
4 anything about going, being sent into the cell or 5 being asked to get information on Mr. Flowers.

6 BY MR. EVANS: I withdraw my objection.

7 BY THE COURT: Okay.

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

9 Q. Okay, go ahead. What-- could you tell me what Mr.
10 Hawkins said?

11 A. When we was in the hotel, he told me he was put in 12 there like I was put in there, to get information.

13 Q. Okay, and so he was put in where?

14 A. In the cell with Curtis Flowers.

15 Q. Did he indicate that he was asked to get information
16 from Flowers?

17 A. Yes, sir.

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have no further questions of 19 this witness.

20 BY THE COURT: Any further questions of him?

21 BY MR. EVANS: No questions.

22 BY THE COURT: All right, Mr. Veal, you may 23 return to the witness room.

24 WITNESS LEAVES COURTROOM.

25 BY THE COURT: Who do you have next?

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We would like to continue the 27 hearing for the purposes -- no, we don't have any 28 other witnesses at this time.

29 BY THE COURT: Has the State got any?

1 BY MR. EVANS: None, Your Honor.

2 BOTH SIDES REST ON MOTION.

3 BY THE COURT: Okay, argument?

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Have you made your mind up
5 already?

6 BY THE COURT: Do you want to argue?

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, yes, I do, but I would 8 like to--

9 BY THE COURT: --Then go ahead and argue.

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Let me, let me state what I'm 11 doing. Let me put it as properly as possible. I
12 think at any point that I sense that the Court is not
13 fair and that it's not impartial, that it has lost
14 its impartiality, then I can ask the Court to recuse
15 itself from a motion or from the case. Under the 16 Judicial Canon of Ethics--

17 BY THE COURT: --I have read them. I understand
18 them.

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. Do you?

20 BY THE COURT: Make your point.

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, under those ethics that I
22 have also read, it's your obligation, your duty to,
23 in fact, disassociate yourself with a case where you
24 have lost your ability, assuming that you had it to 25 start with, to be impartial. Now all I'm saying is 26 that, Judge, your rulings have suggested that you
27 may, for whatever reason, may not really be playing 28 with a balanced deck right now as far as, as far as 29 the treatment of one side of the room against

1 treatment of the other side of the room.

2 Now I know, I know, I know the gentlemen here
3 are laughing, and a lot of people here are outraged
4 that I would dare to say that, but then there is a
5 lot of people out there who really believe in 6 everything I'm saying. So you should keep that in 7 mind.

8 But the point that I'm making here is this: Is 9 that if that is the case, then let me go to somebody
10 who can make a fair decision, an impartial decision
11 where they are not bothered by whatever, and then we 12 will deal with it there. Now if that is not the 13 case, then I certainly have an argument to make.

14 BY THE COURT: Okay. Do you have an argument on 15 this motion?

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: There is law, actually 17 voluminous law to support the proposition that it is 18 inappropriate for plants to be used to gather
19 information on defendants. Massiah v. United States
20 at 377 U.S.2d, and that is a 1964 case; United States
21 v. Henry, a 1980 case, 477 U.S. 264; U. S. v.
22 Gouveia, 467 U.S. 180 at 188, a 1984 case. And 23 Massiah v. U.S., by the way, is a case I cited prior 24 to that. Its page number is, I believe, 701. That 25 may be 201, but it is either 701 or 201. These cases
26 stand for the proposition that the 6th Amendment
27 prohibits the use of statements deliberately elicited
28 from a defendant. Once the 6th Amendment attaches
29 and the Defendant is in custody and the focus of the

1 investigation is on the defendant, and it's
2 inappropriate according to these cases to do it
3 either directly or through the use of some kind of 4 agent, some person who has been solicited for the 5 purposes of doing that.

6 We have here testimony from Mr. Frederick Veal,
7 a man who they despise today; he is just a low life.
8 He can't tell the truth. He is lying, but they 9 thought enough of him to call him back at the time
10 when they had a trial and use his testimony to 11 sentence this man to death. They didn't have no
12 problem putting him up there then. They had that 13 much confidence in him then. What is it that makes 14 them lose confidence today?

15 What he has told this Court is not only did the 16 Sheriff put him in the cell with Mr. Flowers and ask
17 him to get information from Mr. Flowers, specifically 18 on a gun, but information in general, but that he was 19 engaged in a conversation with Mr. Hawkins, a man who 20 can hardly walk out of the courtroom without falling
21 over - but I can't ask him if he used drugs, by the 22 way - but a man who has obviously some kind of 23 problem. You can hardly hear him up there because he 24 is so tired. But this Mr. Hawkins, who he stayed all
25 night in a hotel with and never said a word to him
26 according to Mr. Hawkins; Mr. Veal has quite a 27 different and more rational story. What he says is 28 that Mr. Hawkins told him that he was put in the cell
29 the same way.

1           Now you know that makes sense. You know why it
2           makes sense, Judge? Because Mr. Flowers was 3           represented. He had been represented from early in 4           March sometime at least, or he had been represented
5           from March, and I'm not sure exactly what date in 6           March he was represented, but he was represented
7           before any kind of contact with Veal and before any 8           kind of contact, certainly before any kind of contact
9           in July with this other gentleman, Mr. Hawkins.

10          Lawyers tell their clients consistently not to 11          talk to anybody about the case, and there is no-- and 12          they were supposed to have given the lawyers
13          discovery, and I think I remember them swearing in 14          this courtroom that they had given the lawyers all 15          the discovery in April because the lawyer told us in 16          the courtroom that he was still looking for a few 17          pieces of discovery. They swore up and down in the 18          last hearing that they had given them everything
19          which would have meant they would have given him any 20          discussion that would have occurred about what,
21          allegedly with Mr. Veal.

22          Now how-- and now are we to believe that this
23          Defendant talked to Mr. Veal, a person who he didn't
24          know before then, in March or somewhere about March
25          or April and made a statement to him; it's disclosed
26          to the lawyer, and then he goes back and talks to 27          somebody else in July?

28          You know, it's silly. It's like when I was,
29          used to try cases in Detroit, Michigan, and they used

1           to call it the dropsy case. The reason they called 2           it the dropsy case is because you could tell what the 3           testimony was going to be every time before the 4           police officer even got on the stand. He was going
5           to get on the stand and say, I was on the street; I
6           saw some guys standing on the corner. I got out of 7           my car--

8           BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, may I object? I
9           apologize for objecting again. I have tried not to.
10          This is simply closing statements or arguments on a 11          motion. This is not an attempt for Mr. Lumumba to 12          take the opportunity to make a speech to the crowd.
13          It has absolutely nothing to do with what we are here
14          on today. Again, I apologize for having to object,
15          but this is not relevant to anything that is before
16          the Court.

17          BY MR. LUMUMBA: I am trying to use an analogy.
18          Can I use an analogy?

19          BY THE COURT: Well, what I need for you to do
20          is argue the law to me just like I want Mr. Evans--

21          BY MR. LUMUMBA: --with an analogy. I can't do
22          that? I have seen Supreme Court cases where they use
23          analogies.

24          BY THE COURT: Well, yes, sir, but we are not in 25          the Supreme Court. We are here today--

26          BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Well, I--

27          BY THE COURT: --and I would like for you to 28          argue the law for me if you will.

29          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Obviously, we are not in the

1 Supreme Court. That is for sure. But let me say
2 this. Let me say this.

3 BY THE COURT: I'm as glad as you are.

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Thank God we are not in the 5 Supreme Court. Okay, but let me say this. Let me
6 say this, is that the situation is this: Is that 7 just as the analogy I was using where you have 8 predictable stories which are constructed by 9 prosecutor authorities and police officers in various 10 different situations, this is another one. This
11 happens all the time in Oktibbeha County. It happens
12 here. It happens up in Tate County. It even happens
13 down in Hinds.

14 Well, the defendant confessed in jail to 15 somebody they didn't even know, never seen before in 16 their life, and the person who is in jail just 17 happens to get out. They always just happen to get 18 out. They never get out because it's a deal. Well,
19 like Mr. Hawkins: Well, I sent the letter; I sent 20 the letter to the prosecutor that was over my case,
21 but I really wanted it to go to somebody that was 22 concerned about the case that Flowers was in. And 23 even though I wasn't trying to get no deal, I
24 happened to send it the day before I got sentenced,
25 just happened to.

26 You know actually if somebody was telling me
27 that, telling me that scenario and I was the trier of 28 fact, I would be embarrassed to think that they think 29 I was, I could fall for something like that. But in

1           any event, I think that it's not credible; what Mr.
2           Veal says is highly credible. Mr. Veal is their
3           witness, not our witness.

4           We have now come up with and still, we have come
5           up with several different - and I remind the Court -
6           several different statements that have been discussed
7           here now that we still don't have in evidence. And 8           we still don't have the discovery, but irrespective-- 9           and if this Court is inclined to do anything else at 10          this point but to grant our motion, I ask that it be 11          left open and taken under advisement until we get all
12          the discovery because we obviously don't have it.
13          But in any event, there is no question that both of 14          these statements should be thrown out.

15          I mean, you know, if you're trying to put 16          somebody to death, the least you could do is try an 17          honest case. And the least we can get is an honest
18          evaluation of witnesses and an honest evaluation of a
19          scenario. There is no reason in the world that Veal
20          had to tell us what he told us other than the fact
21          that it's the truth. We couldn't put him in jail.
22          We couldn't let him out of jail. We can't give him
23          thirty thousand dollars. We can't put him in a hotel
24          in Tupelo, or at least we haven't put him in a hotel
25          in Tupelo. And the only thing that we did, we did
26          for Veal, we brought him to Jackson so he could talk
27          free of intimidation. That's the only thing we did, 28          and he told us what he told us, and he told you what 29          the truth was.

1           And we really pray that this Court, which is
2           selected to be impartial toward all the people,
3           everybody, can see this evidence in the light that we
4           see it or see it sufficiently independent from the 5           way that the District Attorney sees it to do what
6           ought to be done. And what ought to be done here,
7           there is no question. These statements need to be 8           stricken.

9           As the saying goes, Ray Charles could see it.

10          BY THE COURT: Is that all?

11          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes, sir.

12          BY THE COURT: Okay, Mr. Evans.

13          BY MR. EVANS: Thank you, Your Honor.

14               Your Honor, the law is very clear in this case.
15               This particular Motion is on whether or not to 16               suppress two statements that were made by Frederick 17               Veal and Maurice Hawkins. First of all, I want to 18               point out that both of these two individuals
19               testified under oath in Tupelo. Both of them at that 20               time testified that no one had put them in the cell;
21               that they had gone back in there; they had found out
22               things that Curtis Flowers had told them about his 23               murders; that they notified the Sheriff, and then
24               they went on to testify about the facts that Curtis
25               Flowers told them.

26               Maurice Hawkins testified today that no one had 27               put him back there. No one had attempted him to do
28               anything wrong. The Sheriff testified that he had 29               never at any point ever tried to get anybody to go

1 back in there and talk to them. Now they may have a
2 jury argument, but that is all.

3 The law is clear in Mississippi, and Wilcher v.
4 State, which was a death penalty case; it was death
5 penalty number 94-DPO761. It specifically says that
6 voluntary statements made to a private citizen by a
7 defendant do not implicate the Fifth or Sixth
8 Amendment to the United States Constitution.

9 This is a case where the Defendant made
10 confessions to outside parties that have nothing to 11 do with law enforcement. They were transferred then 12 from law enforcement officers to the prosecution, and 13 those statements were used in court. And there is 14 nothing that has been produced today that would 15 change that.

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Wilcher v. State also says that 17 they cannot use a plant to go into the cell to get 18 statements, and there is several other cases in the 19 State of Mississippi which have been decided by the 20 Supreme Court and/or the Court of Appeals which say
21 exactly the same thing. And so the issue is here do
22 you believe the man who comes to you, who they had 23 enough confidence in to put on the stand the last 24 time-- and let me just say this too.

25 We need to talk about what is the burden of 26 persuasion here. Whenever you talk about the 27 suppression of a statement, any statement they are 28 trying to introduce into court, it is not our burden
29 to prove that it was illegally obtained. It is their

1           burden to prove that it was legally obtained when you
2           are talking about a defendant's confession, which is
3           essentially what we are talking about here, a
4           defendant's statement implicating himself.

5           It is their burden, and if the Court needs some 6           law on it, I will supply it with some law. It is 7           their burden to show, and in fact, I have, I have
8           seen language that suggests that they have to show
9           beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant's
10          statement was legally obtained. Now that is their 11          burden.

12          You have two people that come in here and say
13          two different things. How have they met their 14          burden? You have a sheriff who is obviously not 15          going to come in here and say yeah, I put him up to 16          it. If he was the kind of sheriff that would tell 17          the truth about it, he wouldn't be the kind of 18          sheriff that would do it in the first place. The 19          same man that they put all their confidence in to put 20          this man to death the last time comes in here and 21          tells you right to your face that they put me up to 22          it; they put this other guy up to it, and it's all a
23          bald-faced lie.

24          They have a burden to prove beyond a reasonable
25          doubt that that didn't happen, and they certainly 26          have failed to meet that burden. And where they 27          haven't said beyond a reasonable doubt, they have
28          used the terminology "clear and convincing evidence."
29          It's clear it's their burden. So it's not our

1           burden; it is their burden, and they have failed to 2           do it.

3           BY THE COURT: Okay, this matter is before the 4           Court on a Motion of the Defendant to Suppress the 5           confessions or alleged confessions made by the 6           Defendant to Mr. Hawkins and Mr. Veal in the Leflore
7           County Jail. The Court has heard the evidence on 8           this case. The fact is, in relation to two of the 9           witnesses, heard it twice now. The only evidence
10          whatsoever in support of this Motion is the statement
11          of Mr. Veal, who either perjured himself in Tupelo or 12          perjured himself here today. The things that he 13          stated in relation to the Sheriff have been denied.
14          The things that he related in relation to Mr. Hawkins
15          have been denied.

16                 I find from the evidence today that I find no
17          prosecutorial or governmental problems with these 18          statements. In addition, these things are 19          credibility questions to a large extent, will be 20          subject to impeachment, and the jury has to decide
21          that, not me. So therefore, the Motion is 22          overruled.

23                 What do you have next?

24                 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, if they have nothing, 25          we have a motion we would like to make.

26                 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We will have some other 27          motions. We don't-- let me see; we don't have 28          anything right now, do we?

29                 BY MR. FREELON: No.

1           BY THE COURT: Okay. Other motions are due to
2 be filed by May the 1st. Let's decide when we want
3 to have that hearing on those motions now if y'all
4 can, and then I will hear you.

5           BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir. The State at this
6 point again moves and requests of the Court to order
7 the Defendant through his counsel to furnish us
8 reciprocal discovery. It has been brought out today
9 again more evidence that they have in discovery that 10 we have not been furnished. They are taping
11 witnesses and not giving us copies of those tapes.
12 The Rules are very clear that we are entitled to 13 those. Mr. Lumumba made some comment about he didn't 14 feel like he had to give that to us, but the Rules
15 are clear.

16           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, if you can find one rule
17 that compels us -- now remember, remember; let's put 18 this in context now. You have previously ruled that 19 you weren't going to make them give us anything that 20 the Rules didn't call for. Now read me a rule which 21 requires us to give them statements of witnesses that 22 we have taped, one rule, just one rule that requires
23 them to give-- requires us to. You are not going to 24 find it. You know what you are going to find? You
25 are going to find a rule which says that we have to 26 give them the statement of any witness that we plan
27 to call in our case in chief. And you have to give 28 them a statement of, you have to give them any 29 evidence, physical evidence that we intend to use in

1           our case in chief. There is nowhere in there that 2           requires us to give them a statement taken for the 3           purpose of impeaching their witness.

4           We have never listed Fred Veal, Frederick Veal
5           as a witness. At the time we decide that we are 6           going to use him as a witness, they will get whatever
7           they are entitled to.

8           BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, that is absurd, that 9           if you take--

10          BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Well, read the Rules.

11          BY THE COURT: Well, you let him finish talking.

12          BY MR. HORAN: If you are taking a statement
13          from a witness for the purpose of impeaching one of 14          our witnesses, they can't be a witness for the 15          Defendant. The point being they can't testify unless 16          they-- they can't impeach our witness unless they 17          testify. Therefore, they are a witness. Therefore,
18          it's reciprocal discovery comes into play.

19          BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, no--

20          BY MR. HORAN: --He can't, he can't wait until 21          our man testifies and then give us a copy of a
22          statement. It's whether or not it's a potential
23          witness--

24          BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Judge--

25          BY MR. HORAN: --And he just said right then,
26          Your Honor; he said, we don't have to give him copies
27          of statements from our witnesses that may impeach one
28          of their witnesses. Well, they can't impeach a
29          witness unless they testify. Therefore, they are a

1 witness for the Defendant.

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, Judge, what is he
3 talking about?

4 BY THE COURT: The Rules.

5 BY MR. HORAN: It's a Rule. It's a Rule. It's 6 9.04--

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Can we--

8 BY MR. HORAN: --and it's a book--

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can we read the Rule? Can we 10 read the Rule?

11 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, also, if I may add
12 in--

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Excuse me; I haven't finished
14 yet--

15 BY THE COURT: --Wait--

16 BY MR. EVANS: --That was his witness today.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I haven't finished. I haven't
18 finished yet. I haven't finished yet.

19 BY THE COURT: Wait just a minute.

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I thought he had.

21 BY THE COURT: Okay, wait a minute, Mr. Evans.

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. The Rule does not say-- 23 if you impeach a witness by taking the statement that 24 you have taken from him and impeach him when he is on 25 the stand, that is impeaching a witness. I am not
26 required to give them any statement which I am
27 holding merely for the purpose of impeaching one of 28 their witnesses. At the point that I put him on my 29 list and he becomes my witness, then I have to give

1           them a statement. There is no, there is no rule in 2           there that says any tape or any statement that I take
3           that I have to give to the prosecutor. The Rule says
4           that I have to give them statements which are of my 5           witnesses. In fact, now that is--

6           BY MR. HORAN: --that's correct--

7           BY MR. LUMUMBA: --what the Rule says. Now if
8           we are scared to read the Rule, if you give me a
9           minute; I will go to the car--

10          BY MR. HORAN: --They haven't read them all
11          day--

12          BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Excuse me; excuse me. I will 13          go to the car and get it, and I will read it. But 14          the point is that's what the Rule says. Now you hear
15          what I say the Rule says. I would like to see 16          somebody read a rule that does not say that.

17          BY MR. HORAN: I would like for Mr. Lumumba to 18          read the first rule today.

19          BY THE COURT: I would like to reserve my ruling
20          until I read all the--

21          BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, also, in line with 22          my motion, I would like to point out that this Court
23          has already at least four different times in this
24          case, because we have heard this in all four cases,
25          has already ruled at least four times that we were 26          entitled to any recorded statements. We were told 27          that there were no recorded statements. We have been 28          told at least three times that there were no recorded
29          statements.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have never told--

2 BY THE COURT: --Let me say this. If it's 3 required by the Rules and he doesn't produce it, he 4 is not going to be able to use it just like y'all are 5 not going to be either. I mean that's just the way
6 it is.

7 BY MR. EVANS: Well, Your Honor--

8 BY THE COURT: --And I'm going-- I am reserving
9 my ruling to decide whether or not it's within the 10 Rules. That's all I am doing.

11 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

12 BY THE COURT: Okay. Now then--

13 BY MR. HORAN: --What about a date?

14 BY THE COURT: A date.

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: But I have a motion to produce
16 statements from one of their witnesses which is on 17 their witness list, and that is Mr. Veal and Mr.
18 Hawkins. From what Veal told us, there is a 19 typewritten statement from both of them, and they 20 have consistently denied that, but Veal has told us
21 that--

22 BY MR. HORAN: --They got it in discovery--

23 BY MR. EVANS: --They have got that. We have 24 furnished it to them months ago, and they have seen
25 it.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can I be interrupted at will?
27 It that all right?

28 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir, if they have furnished
29 it to you. They have told you that over and over

1                   again that it has been furnished to you.

2                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can I finish my sentence?

3                   BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

4                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: We don't have a statement from 5                   Veal that I'm aware of. We do not have a typewritten
6                   statement from Veal, and we don't have what I believe
7                   he is referring to as a statement. And plus, he said
8                   it was recorded. Excuse me; excuse me. He said it
9                   was recorded. That's what Veal said. I would like 10                  the tape. I don't have any tape recording from 11                  Veal.

12                  BY MR. HORAN: We're not going to make copies of 13                  tapes for them. They can listen to them.

14                  BY THE COURT: Have-- let me ask you this. You 15                  have given him a transcript of that?

16                  BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir, Your Honor.

17                  BY THE COURT: Okay. Is there a tape of it?

18                  BY MR. EVANS: Yes, Your Honor, which we have 19                  furnished.

20                  BY THE COURT: You have furnished the tape?

21                  BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

22                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: To me?

23                  BY MR. HORAN: We have made to the Gilmores all
24                  the tapes available, all copies of the videos.

25                  BY THE COURT: That is sufficient.

26                  BY MR. HORAN: They are made available for them
27                  to listen to. They can come to our office and record
28                  them if they want to. We are not required to make a 29                  copy for them.

1                   BY THE COURT: That's right. That's sufficient.

2                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Oh, I don't have any problem
3 with coming to their office and recording it.

4                   BY THE COURT: Okay. Then they are produced.

5                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: You going to let me record it?

6                   BY MR. HORAN: Sure.

7                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Very good. Very good.

8                   BY THE COURT: Okay. Now can we get a date?

9                   (Defense Counsel confer briefly.)

10                  BY MR. FREELON: Judge, there is no way. I
11 don't have my calendar with me, Judge, and I am
12 booked. I would like the Court to at least give us a
13 day to look over my calendar at least. I don't want
14 to have to come back to the Court and ask the Court
15 to continue a date again without me having my 16 calendar.

17                  BY THE COURT: Okay--

18                  BY MR. FREELON: And I do have a trial--

19                  BY THE COURT: --The motions are due May the 20 1st. I want to have the hearing within the first two 21 weeks of May.

22                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Now I can tell you this, that I
23 do have my calendar, and I have got a trial in the 24 first two weeks of May. It's going to be, it's 25 another capital murder trial. It's in Senatobia, but 26 actually, it's actually going to be in Batesville,
27 but it arises in Senatobia. So that is going to be 28 impossible the first two weeks.

29                  BY THE COURT: Well, of course, it's your

1 motions, and I am trying to accommodate you.

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, yeah, I'm not opposed. I
3 mean I'm not opposing you. As soon as that trial is 4 over, which I expect it's going to be a two or three
5 week trial, my suggestion is if he doesn't have a
6 conflict, we set it at the end of May. I'm not
7 trying to delay it. Set it at the end of May. I'm 8 not, you know-- pardon?

9 (Mr. Lumumba and Mr. Freelon confer briefly.)

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, the motions are still due 11 May 1st. But if, in fact, Mr. Freelon's calendar is 12 open, we are going to try-- we want to have the 13 motions hearing as soon as possible in May. And, you
14 know, reasonably speaking, I figure, I am sure we are 15 going to be free the whole last week of May. I don't 16 think that the trial is going to last that long. And 17 if Mr. Freelon is free that week - the 25th, 26th, 18 27th, 28th, 29th, then we can set it during that 19 time; right?

20 BY THE COURT: Well, let me explain to you this 21 about both sides is I don't have to have but one of 22 you here. So I mean I can't accommodate-- there is 23 no way for me to work this court schedule around
24 everybody that is in this case's schedule. So as 25 long as one of you can be here, that is fine. But 26 that last week in May will be satisfactory.

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

28 BY THE COURT: But if you can be here, that is 29 sufficient, Mr. Lumumba.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, well, let me-- we, even
2 though we understand that's your requirement that
3 only one of us be here, and we appreciate that 4 because that will accommodate us on occasion, we
5 would like, if possible, to have both of us here
6 because we think both of us are needed. If we can't 7 accomplish that, we will do it anyway. I mean we 8 will do something.

9 BY THE COURT: Okay. I want you both here too,
10 but I'm not going to delay these hearings because of 11 trying to get everybody together because I can't do
12 that. Okay. Let me look at my calendar, and y'all
13 look at y'all's, and we will-- you say your whole
14 week for that last week is open?

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: The last week in May is open.

16 BY THE COURT: Okay. I will get with y'all, and 17 we will pick one, pick a day. Okay, nothing further
18 today? Court is adjourned.

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, I have one other thing
20 to ask. I would like to ask the Court to-- I think
21 the Court denied my motion to pay for the transcript
22 of the last proceedings; is that correct?

23 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I would like to ask the Court
25 to pay for the transcript of this proceeding. Mr.
26 Flowers is indigent. He doesn't have the money to 27 pay for it, and we need the transcript.

28 BY THE COURT: Okay, that motion is denied.

29 HEARING OF MARCH 3, 1998 CONCLUDED

1 (ON JULY 8, 1998, AT APPROXIMATELY 9:55 A.M., 2 THE SPECIAL VENIRE WAS DRAWN IN THE CIRCUIT CLERK'S OFFICE OF
3 THE LEE COUNTY COURTHOUSE IN TUPELO, MISSISSIPPI FOR CAUSE
4 NO. CR97-379. THE FOLLOWING PEOPLE WERE PRESENT: THE
5 HONORABLE JUDGE CLARENCE E. MORGAN, III; HONORABLE DOUG EVANS
6 AND HONORABLE KEVIN HORAN REPRESENTING THE STATE OF 7 MISSISSIPPI; HONORABLE HARVEY FREELON AND HONORABLE JOHN
8 GILMORE REPRESENTING THE DEFENDANT; THE DEFENDANT CURTIS
9 FLOWERS; MRS. JOYCE LOFTIN, LEE COUNTY CIRCUIT CLERK; AND 10 MRS. CAROL HORTON, DEPUTY CLERK.)

11 BY THE COURT: Let me put something on the 12 record first. We are in the Circuit Clerk's Office
13 of Lee County. Present are the District Attorney
14 and attorneys for the Defendant, Curtis Flowers,
15 Harvey Freelon and John Gilmore. We are here for 16 the purpose of drawing the venire for the case that 17 is set for trial on September the 14th. We are 18 drawing 350 jurors at this time. Any of y'all want
19 to put anything in the record?

20 BY MR. EVANS: No, sir.

21 BY MR. FREELON: Just for the record, there is 22 a motion if there is evidence available, we are not 23 waiving a motion for change of venue if there is 24 evidence available at any time where venue may need
25 to be changed. This is not waiving that.

26 BY THE COURT: No, and I think the order is 27 already on the record. If during your voir dire it
28 becomes necessary to change the venue, that motion
29 is preserved for that time. Okay.

1 (Clerk enters command to draw jury in the 2 computer. Long pause.)

3 BY MS. HORTON: How many copies are we going
4 to need?

5 BY MR. HORAN: Seven. We had seven last time.

6 BY MS. LOFTIN: Seven.

7 BY MS. HORTON: Is that counting ours? We can
8 get ours later.

9 BY MS. LOFTIN: Yeah. Let's do ten.

10 (Further pause while the venire was being 11 printed.)

12 BY THE COURT: For the record, we have drawn
13 this venire here, and all three of these cases are 14 set for September the 14th. This venire would 15 serve for whichever one is tried on that day. Mr.
16 Freelon's case has priority, but should something
17 happen on that, then this venire will be for the 18 other two. That was your understanding anyhow,
19 wasn't it, Mr. Gilmore?

20 BY MR. JOHN GILMORE: That's what I was told.

21 BY MS. LOFTIN: Here is seven copies.

22 BY THE COURT: Okay. Who gets all these?

23 BY MR. HORAN: We got two; they got one
24 apiece. Carol is getting us some more.

25 (Copies of jury venire were handed out.)

26 BY THE COURT: Okay, let's go hear the
27 motion.

28 (WHEREUPON, THE COURT, ALL COUNSEL PRESENT ON 29 THIS DATE WITH THE EXCEPTION OF MR. JOHN GILMORE,

1 THE DEFENDANT, AND THE CLERK WENT UPSTAIRS TO THE 2 COURTROOM OF THE LEE COUNTY COURTHOUSE AT
3 APPROXIMATELY 10:16 A.M. ON JULY 8, 1998, FOR A
4 MOTION HEARING AS FOLLOWS:)

5 BY THE COURT: Okay, gentlemen. What have we 6 got?

7 BY MR. FREELON: I think you had mentioned
8 something about the subpoena. That was the only
9 other--

10 BY THE COURT: That's the only thing I know
11 that is pending. If y'all want to hear that, we 12 can hear that today.

13 BY MR. FREELON: That's the only thing, that's 14 the only-- I don't have any other things to discuss 15 basically.

16 BY THE COURT: Okay. Well, do y'all want to 17 be heard on it? I guess you do.

18 BY MR. HORAN: Which motion, Judge?

19 BY THE COURT: It's the motion over the 20 subpoena. Both of you have got motions over the 21 subpoena. Y'all have got one to quash, and he has 22 got one basically to quash your motion. I guess
23 that's the way you would describe it.

24 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

25 BY MR. FREELON: Do you want me to speak from 26 here, Judge?

27 BY THE COURT: Yeah, that is fine.

28 BY MR. FREELON: Okay. On or about I think
29 about May 22nd, a couple of months ago, we filed a

1 subpoena with the Department at Whitfield, the 2 Mississippi State Department Hospital. We have 3 received information that the witness, one of the 4 witnesses in this, one of the witnesses who
5 testified at the last trial, Maurice Bernard
6 Hawkins, before the trial and actually after the 7 trial had received mental, had been mentally placed
8 into the mental institution of the Department,
9 State Department of Mississippi. And we have 10 reason to believe that at that point in time that 11 some things that may have been said at the trial as 12 far as the witness accusing Mr. Flowers hereof of 13 committing, actually admitting to the murder, that 14 Mr. Hawkins was one of the main, one of the State's 15 main witnesses at the last trial.

16 We have reason to believe that at the time
17 that he testified as well as at the time that the 18 statement was allegedly given that Mr. Hawkins'
19 mental capacity was being affected mentally in 20 several different ways. We have reason to believe 21 that his-- he may not even have been able to even 22 testify. He may have not even been able to even be 23 a witness at that point in time mentally, mentally
24 able to be a witness.

25 And our client here, Your Honor, of course,
26 have a 5th and a 14th-- we have a due process right
27 to information and especially in a criminal matter
28 where he has been accused of a murder. And I guess
29 you know the State of Mississippi have always said

1           that any time and especially in a murder trial and
2           someone is being placed or accused of a murder, I
3           think it's in the best interest of the State of 4           Mississippi and it's in the best interest of 5           justice that although there may very well be a
6           privilege information, the constitutional rights of 7           due process would trump any, will trump a
8           privileged information if that information is going
9           to lead to a fair determination of justice.

10           So what we have asked for from the Mississippi
11           State Hospital is information on Maurice Bernard
12           Hawkins pertaining to his mental capacity during a 13           certain time. We feel that because our client has 14           a due process right to cross-examine and to get 15           that information and he is being accused of 16           actually admitting to a murder, that we should have 17           an opportunity to see were Mr. Hawkins actually 18           capable of testifying at that time or was he under 19           influences, mental influences at the time that he 20           testified and at the time the statement was given
21           and at the time or during the time of this trial.
22           And now we have filed that motion, and of course,
23           we also contend that the State of Mississippi or 24           the District Attorney's Office does not have 25           standing to file a motion to quash the subpoena.
26           If a motion to quash the subpoena is going to be 27           filed, we think it should be filed by the 28           department, Mississippi State Department of Health
29           attorney. I mean as a matter of fact, I think the

1 law is clear the onliest one who can invoke the
2 privilege information is the Mississippi State
3 Department of Health and not the State, not the 4 District Attorney's Office.

5 So we ask that that information be, at the 6 Mississippi State Hospital pertaining to Maurice
7 Bernard Hawkins because he is an essential witness
8 in the sense of, to the State's case in chief, and 9 he is actually accusing our client of actually
10 confessing to this crime. We think that justice
11 require that we be allowed to examine his mental 12 capacities at the time that he was into the mental 13 institution with the State of Mississippi.

14 BY THE COURT: Is the case you are relying on 15 the Golden Triangle case?

16 BY MR. FREELON: That is-- Your Honor, we are 17 relying partly on that case, but what we are really 18 relying on, Your Honor, is the Constitution, the 19 Fifth Amendment right to due process or any rights
20 to due process that he may have to cross-examine 21 his witnesses.

22 Now the Golden Triangle case, we understand
23 that that case deals with partially with the 24 statute that deals with cuts and bruises and 25 allowed the police or it allowed the District
26 Attorney to go in because, first of all, I think
27 the hospitals have a right, have a duty to anybody
28 who has been cut, lacerated and things of that 29 nature. They have a duty to report certain

1 things. But however, that case did state clearly--
2 (Brief pause while Mr. Freelon looks through his 3 papers.)

4 BY THE COURT: I have read it. I am familiar
5 with it. I just wanted to make sure that was the 6 case that you--

7 BY MR. FREELON: --No, no. That is part of the 8 case, Your Honor. Now we understand that that case
9 dealt with another statute, but the case did read
10 and there was statements that was made about the 11 interest of justice. You know, Where there is an 12 investigation into a serious and/or dangerous
13 felony, public policy must override the rights of 14 the individual. You know, and I think we are 15 talking about a serious felony in this case. And I
16 don't think they exclusively said that any time
17 there is a public policy involved, there has to be 18 another statute that would allow it to take it out
19 of the privilege. What we are talking about is his 20 constitutional right to due process, and a witness
21 who have placed his credibility-- Mr. Hawkins is 22 the one who has placed his credibility into 23 question in this trial. And once he places his 24 credibility into question, I think that the accuser
25 has a right to cross-examine and to determine if 26 his credibility or if he is able to even stand for 27 trial and be able to be competent to testify at
28 trial.

29 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, there are several

1 issues I would like to raise. I believe that case
2 specifically says that there is a doctor-patient
3 privilege that cannot be waived unless the patient
4 waives it. In this particular case there is no
5 statute as there was in that case that makes an
6 exception to it. Also, there has been nothing here
7 today except some accusations made by an attorney.
8 There has been no evidence before this Court of any 9 reason that they would be entitled to anything that 10 is down there.

11 Another issue that I think is important is 12 this is something, if there was any treatment for 13 anything, it was done at a probably year later than 14 the time this case was tried, that this evidence 15 was adduced in the jail in Leflore County. That is 16 not relevant to the issue there. This Court has 17 heard that particular witness testify on several 18 occasions, and I think can take judicial notice
19 that that witness was a competent witness and was 20 able to clearly testify and answer questions from 21 both sides.

22 But mainly, the Defense has raised no issue
23 through any evidence that there is a need for this,
24 and also the doctor-patient privilege prohibits
25 that information from being released. I think that 26 case clearly states that that cannot be done unless 27 there is a statute that makes an exception for it.

28 BY THE COURT: Okay, I find that it is 29 privileged information, and that neither one of you

1 are entitled to it unless Mr. Hawkins waives that
2 privilege. If he does that, then you will both get
3 copies of it. Somebody furnish me an order to that 4 effect.

5 Okay, nothing else to be heard; is that
6 right?

7 BY MR. FREELON: Nothing else to be heard.

8 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, did we get this
9 today?

10 (Mr. Evans and Mr. Horan confer briefly.)

11 BY MR. EVANS: We have been given copies of 12 another subpoena duces tecum that has been filed on 13 the custodian of the records of Itta Bena Police
14 Department wanting them to bring their entire file
15 pertaining to any criminal charges or convictions
16 of one Marcus Bernard Hawkins from July 1st, 1980,
17 to July 1st, 1998, and I would ask at this point
18 that that subpoena be quashed. It is not 19 relevant. The rules specifically say that they are 20 only entitled to any felony convictions on any 21 witnesses. They are not entitled to a police file
22 on any charges that may have been filed on anyone.
23 This is not relevant, and it is way outside the 24 rules of discovery. It is way outside any possible
25 subpoena would have the authority to ask for.

26 BY MR. FREELON: Your Honor, I don't even have 27 to even respond. I think it is clearly relevant.
28 I think we are, we are required to get any 29 information that is relevant in this matter that

1 would lead to any, anything that may be
2 discoverable or any information that may lead to 3 any just result in this case. That is not
4 privileged information. That would allow if this 5 gentlemen has been arr-- anything that goes toward
6 his character; if he has been, if there is bad
7 checks or if there is any information that may lead
8 to his bad character. He is putting his 9 credibility on the line in this case.

10 Now I think the Supreme Court in the State of 11 Mississippi has made it clear. As a matter of 12 fact, if you give me a second, I will read through 13 this information right here and give you the exact
14 case law which states that even misdemeanors, even 15 misdemeanors, if we request that information --
16 whether it can be used at trial is a question that 17 you must make that determination. But if we can 18 use it to determine if it's relevant in the case in 19 chief, we make that determination; then bring that 20 to you. And if they want to make a motion at that 21 time, motion in limine or whatever it may be, we 22 will do that.

23 BY THE COURT: Okay, here is what I want y'all
24 to do on that. Y'all need to file a formal motion
25 on that to quash.

26 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

27 BY THE COURT: And then I want both sides to 28 send me what authority they are going to rely on,
29 and then I will go from there.

1 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, we would ask that
2 we have the authority get in touch with the Itta
3 Bena Police Department and tell them to hold off on 4 giving any information until we have had a chance
5 to be heard before the Court.

6 BY THE COURT: Right. They are not to furnish
7 anything until I can rule on that, and I will do
8 that as quick as y'all can get me the authority.

9 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, the only other
10 thing about the subpoena is the rules specifically
11 state that they are supposed to put us on notice on 12 any of these subpoenas, and they have filed, I
13 believe five. We have not been notified. They are 14 way outside the form of the rule. And I don't know
15 if that's something that I need to respond to in a
16 motion, or is that something that-- I mean is it
17 asking too much that we get notice on any subpoena
18 duces tecum?

19 BY THE COURT: Mr. Freelon, I think you do;
20 you have got to give them notice now on a subpoena
21 duces tecum.

22 BY MR. FREELON: Actually, I think they got 23 notice this morning, but I think--

24 BY THE COURT: --But I mean you have got to do
25 it when you do it.

26 BY MR. FREELON: I understand that. I mean
27 but, Your Honor, I just made these; I just got 28 these copies this morning, but Counsel is correct.
29 I do know I did not, there was at least one

1 subpoena because I don't think I filed more than
2 one other subpoena that I did not give notice, I
3 don't believe I gave notice on. But he did get 4 notice on that.

5 BY THE COURT: I'm going to direct you from 6 now on that when you file these things, that the 7 day you file them you furnish the notice to the 8 State. Likewise, if the State should have any of 9 those, do the same thing.

10 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor.

11 (Pause while Mr. Evans and Mr. Horan confer.)

12 BY MR. EVANS: One thing, and the Court may 13 not want to address this today. But on March the 14 2nd, we had a hearing in Montgomery County
15 Courthouse at Winona, Mississippi. Mr. Lumumba
16 represented the Court that he did, in fact, have 17 discoverable material that he was not going to give 18 to the State. Pursuant to that, we filed a
19 motion. This Court entered an order compelling
20 discovery on March 23rd, 1998. We have still not 21 gotten any discovery. We have not gotten one word
22 of discovery in this case, and I would like to know
23 at this point if the Defense is saying that they 24 don't have any discovery they intend to use at 25 trial or if they are just not going to follow the 26 Court's order.

27 BY THE COURT: Mr. Freelon, let me say, of 28 course, you have gotten the order, and you were 29 there when I gave the order, and those deadlines

1           have certainly passed. If y'all have discoverable
2           material and you want to use it, and you expect to 3           use it at trial, you have got to furnish this stuff
4           or you are going to run a real risk of me not
5           allowing it. Plus willful violations of discovery
6           are going to result in some sanctions on somebody,
7           and I don't want to have to do that. So if y'all
8           have discoverable material, that needs to be 9           produced immediately.

10           BY MR. FREELON: Your Honor, okay. How soon
11           can we, because we need to get the motion-- we need
12           to get the subpoena from the City of Itta Bena as 13           soon as possible. Now if these gentlemen can get 14           hold to the case law, you know, I can get hold to 15           the case law. I will be more than happy to do that 16           right here today because we are trying to get this 17           information as soon as possible.

18           BY THE COURT: And I want you to have it as 19           soon as possible if you are entitled to it.

20           BY MR. FREELON: So you will make a ruling
21           without-- we won't need another hearing?

22           BY THE COURT: No, we are not going to have 23           another hearing. I will make a ruling based on 24           what y'all submit to me and what my own research
25           finds.

26           BY MR. FREELON: Can you give us a time frame
27           to have that ruling in because I really want to get 28           this information as soon as possible?

29           BY THE COURT: Well, the time frame is going

1 to depend on how quick y'all get that stuff to me.
2 And then when I do that, then I will do it
3 quickly. I think I pretty well have done that on 4 everything else y'all have asked so far. So you
5 are not going to be held up by me.

6 BY MR. FREELON: But I don't want to be held
7 up at all on this motion, Your Honor.

8 BY THE COURT: No, sir. I understand.

9 BY MR. FREELON: Thank you very much.

10 BY MR. HORAN: Does Mr. Gilmore have anything
11 to bring up?

12 BY THE COURT: No, Mr. Gilmore is gone. Okay,
13 the evidence is in this box. It's going to be,
14 show and tell will be in this room.

15 (COUNSEL FOR BOTH SIDES AND THE DEFENDANT WENT 16 INTO THE CONFERENCE ROOM ADJACENT TO THE COURTROOM
17 TO VIEW THE EXHIBITS FROM THE TRIAL IN CAUSE NUMBER

1                   ON SEPTEMBER 2, 1998, COURT WAS OPENED AT 2 10:00 A.M. IN TUPELO, MISSISSIPPI, IN CAUSE NO. CR97-372 WITH 3 JUDGE MORGAN PRESIDING. THERE WAS A HEARING ON MOTIONS WITH 4 THE FOLLOWING PEOPLE PRESENT: REPRESENTING THE STATE, HON.
5 DOUG EVANS AND HON. KEVIN HORAN; REPRESENTING THE DEFENDANT,
6 HON. CHOKWE LUMUMBA AND HON. HARVEY FREELON. THE DEFENDANT
7 WAS ALSO PRESENT SHORTLY AS WILL BE NOTED.

8                   BY THE COURT: All right, gentlemen. What 9 have y'all got first?

10                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, we have several 11 motions today. Let me ask you this. Is the 12 Defendant here?

13                  BY THE COURT: He is supposed to be. Now I
14 have not seen him.

15                  BY MR. HORAN: He is in the second room, I
16 believe.

17                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: May we bring him in, please?

18                  BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

19                  (DEFENDANT ENTERS THE COURTROOM.)

20                  BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

21                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: We are prepared to proceed.
22 Judge, what we would like to do at this time is 23 actually, there is actually several motions that we 24 have up. And one is a Motion to Dismiss for 25 Prosecutorial Misconduct and a Motion for Judicial 26 Recusal, or in the alternative a Motion for 27 Prosecutorial Recusal. We would entertain this 28 Motion first. There is only-- and I will begin the 29 presentation of this Motion. Is that clock right?

1                   BY THE COURT: No, sir. It's 10 o'clock.

2                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: 10 o'clock; okay, good.

3                   Okay, this Motion is pretty much self-explanatory,
4                   but I would join with this Motion and indicate to 5                   the Court that if the Court can recall, I filed a
6                   motion to adopt the motions which were filed by a 7                   prior counsel in this case. And there is-- it is 8                   in the file, the motion to adopt prior counsel's, 9                   and the only reason I bring that up right now is 10                  because they made a motion for recusal also, and 11                  the grounds that they put in it was that the Court
12                  was, they believed, related to one of the victims
13                  in the case, related to somebody in the case. The 14                  Court denied the motion. I don't really remember
15                  what the grounds was. The Court denied the motion
16                  on it, but I would join with that motion and use 17                  this, that as an additional grounds to the 18                  arguments that I am making here.

19                  BY THE COURT: Well, I'm not related to 20                  anybody in the case.

21                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. Well, maybe they were 22                  incorrect. I am just--

23                  BY THE COURT: Well, they were.

24                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, if they are, well, the 25                  Court would know better than me. I would say at 26                  this time, Judge, is that the reason we bring this 27                  Motion for Prosecutorial Misconduct and for Recusal 28                  is that on at least two different occasions, and we 29                  believe probably others, the State or agents of the

1 State have endeavored to cover up Brady material,
2 Box material, material which is relevant to the 3 Defense and beneficial to the Defense in this
4 case.

5 On one such occasion we are talking about
6 Maurice Bernard Hawkins. Attached to my motion is 7 an exhibit which is an exhibit which is an 8 interview of Mr. Hawkins where he indicates that 9 he, in fact, has a cocaine problem. He has had it
10 for some time, that the State was aware of it. I
11 don't know if he says all this in the exhibit, but 12 he has said that the State was aware of it. And 13 the rest of the motion pretty much says that the 14 State is aware of the fact that he was charged with 15 sale of cocaine. Banks, the Sheriff, interceded
16 and what happened in exchange for his testimony for 17 this case, that cocaine charge was remanded to the 18 files. And the second case, which was a burglary,
19 he was put on house arrest. And that was in 20 exchange for testimony in this case.

21 The State, knowing that to be the case or
22 agents of the State knowing that to be the case,
23 allowed Mr. Hawkins to climb to the stand and to 24 testify at the last trial, at the last session.
25 Now I don't know about at the last trial, but at 26 the last session, that he had been offered no deals
27 or nothing for his testimony and that, in fact, I
28 think he testified that the B & E was not even,
29 sentence had nothing to do with this case but, in

1 fact, it did. The State knew that it did, and the
2 State in its ingenuity, in fact, opted to file a
3 motion to quash our subpoena for records which
4 would have disclosed the arrest for cocaine, sale
5 of cocaine. The State moved to suppress it. The 6 Court-- and actually, the State didn't have
7 standing even to make the motion because it's not 8 the state record we are looking for. It was the 9 record of the Defendant. If Maurice Hawkins felt
10 he had any privacy rights, then he could have made
11 the motion. Also, we have been told by the Court
12 and by the Itta Bena Police Department that the 13 records are actually public records anyway. So
14 anybody could have seen them--

15 BY THE COURT: --No, I told Mr. Freelon that 16 they were, that the Justice Court records were 17 public records. I didn't make any comment one way
18 or another about the Itta Bena records.

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, but--

20 BY THE COURT: --It may be true but I did not 21 make that--

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Okay, well, we were told 23 that they were public records, and so actually when 24 the Court sustained their motion to suppress all,
25 well, to suppress records which were related to 26 ongoing investigations, that's what-- the Court
27 sustained it to that extent. When that motion was 28 sustained to that extent, we actually were being 29 deprived of something which an ordinary citizen

1           would have had a right to see. The second thing
2           is, is that we have reason to believe that there is
3           no ongoing investigation, that the only reason why
4           this was suppressed probably - whether the Court
5           knows about it or not is not clear to us - but is 6           to prevent us from getting this information.

7           Now we think this is a violation; this is 8           prosecutorial, inappropriate and misconduct
9           behavior to try to hide information from us through
10          a ruse. We also believe that there was an ex parte
11          communication that took place between the Court and 12          somebody from the District Attorney's Office on 13          this issue. And the reason why we have reason to 14          believe that is because Mr. Freelon talked to the 15          Assistant District Attorney prior to the Court made 16          a ruling, and he pretty much told us what the 17          Court's ruling was going to be. He told us we 18          weren't going to get all we were looking for, and 19          so what he was endeavoring to do was, I guess, to 20          scratch out something to us which would be less
21          than what we were looking for. And he became upset
22          with Mr. Freelon when he persisted that we were 23          entitled to what we were looking for, and then at 24          that point he hung up the phone on Mr. Freelon.

25          But in any event, his conversation revealed to 26          us that ex parte communication had taken place.
27          Shortly thereafter, we did get an order from the 28          Court which sure enough precluded us from getting 29          at least part of what we wanted, and that was the

1 cocaine arrest which apparently was disposed of 2 later on.

3 For the record, I also want to make it clear
4 that our motion also addresses the issue of medical
5 records. We made a subpoena for medical records.
6 We have now discovered that Mr. Hawkins has had 7 serious problems emotionally, psychologically,
8 depression, that he has actually been treated
9 medically on perhaps five different occasions in 10 some kind of institutionalized form for either drug 11 addiction or depression as he recalls it. There is 12 no telling what the records will say. He tells me
13 that the State is well aware of it; in fact, have 14 been in contact with his doctor at Whitfield.
15 Whitfield is the State Hospital, either the state
16 or agents of the state in terms of police
17 department.

18 And that situation so exists that we were 19 being precluded from having records. He has been 20 hospitalized before. He testified he had been
21 hospitalized after he testified. He had an ongoing
22 cocaine problem. And so we were being deprived of 23 discovery which could have led to admissible
24 information. In this case we think the Court's 25 behavior was absolutely inappropriate and showed 26 bias because what it did, it allowed the State this 27 cloak to shield us from this information, and what
28 the Court did in effect which was inappropriate, it
29 allowed the State to make a motion which it had no

1 standing to make. The State does not have a
2 privilege against Mr., which precludes Mr. Hawkins'
3 records from being produced.

4 Normally what would occur in a case like this,
5 Judge, when you are trying to get information that 6 an institution wants to protect, the hospital could
7 have well come in and filed a motion to quash
8 claiming that the doctors and the hospitals could 9 not release the records unless they violated the 10 privilege. Mr. Hawkins could have filed the 11 motion. Mr. Hawkins has told us that he wasn't 12 even consulted about it until after the decision
13 was already made by the Court. So at no point did
14 the Court see fit and did the DA see fit to go
15 through the correct procedures, but what was done,
16 we think this is Brady material which, in fact, we 17 think would cause, would violate any decision which 18 is made in this case. In other words, it would 19 make it an unconstitutional decision. It's a 20 serious violation of Box which is the state law on 21 discovery and a critical violation of Brady
22 material. Brady says anything that would help in 23 the preparation of the defense.

24 And finally, on that issue we might note that 25 on that issue we note that the information that was 26 denied was information which could have been used
27 by the defense perhaps to impeach and to impeach
28 Hawkins, so we were entitled to have it. And 29 finally, the issue that I was trying to bring to

1 mind is the constitutional rights of the
2 Defendant. At no point can the right of a
3 privilege, of a mere civil law privilege, and 4 that's all it is, a civil law privilege. It's not
5 a criminal law privilege. It's not a
6 constitutional right. It's an evidentiary
7 privilege created by common law. At no point can a
8 privilege, a physician-patient privilege overcome a
9 constitutional right to confront one's witness.

10 And if any serious motion would have been 11 filed to cash the subpoena like that, the 12 appropriate action of the Court would have, in 13 fact, been to say to the prosecution or to Mr.
14 Hawkins or whoever the witness was, Fine; you can
15 have your privilege, but you can't testify. You
16 can't have your cake and eat it too. You can't 17 conceal part of your credibility and your state of 18 being from the witness or from the defendant that 19 you come here in court to help put to death, to 20 help get convicted and get a death sentence. You
21 can't come in here for cloak hiding your sins at 22 the same time that you try to put him to death.
23 And I think that that is clearly the law.

24 But in any event, we feel that these actions
25 and finally, we would bring out that we did make a
26 motion before this Court. A man who had been 27 believed in the first trial came in and recanted
28 his testimony. And we asked the Court to suppress 29 his statement because he said that he had been

1 placed in a cell for the purpose of getting
2 information, and he also said that what he said
3 wasn't true. The Court at that time overlooked and 4 really was very cynical toward his statement, very 5 cynical, very bothered by the fact it appeared that 6 we would even have nerve enough to bring this into 7 court. But, in fact, now it is confirmed that, in 8 fact, he was telling the truth and that, in fact,
9 not only is Hawkins now-- I mean not only is Veal
10 indicating that he was not telling the truth, but 11 Hawkins is now confirmed, as this motion shows and 12 the statement attached to it shows, that he wasn't 13 telling the truth either and that, in fact, he did
14 share with Veal the fact that the truth--

15 BY MR. HORAN: --Your Honor, I hate to object
16 in the middle, but we are getting off on 17 something. I would like again to stick to one 18 motion, and we can go on--

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --This is--

20 BY MR. HORAN: --with whether or not, you
21 know-- we are going to rule on this motion and get 22 into something else on another motion because we 23 are going to be here all day.

24 BY THE COURT: Well, I am here to be here
25 all--

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: -- No, no. I am not trying 27 to--

28 BY MR. HORAN: --I object to him going off on 29 another motion on things unrelated to this

1 particular motion.

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, the second, the last
3 two paragraphs of my motion and certainly the last
4 paragraph deal with this exact thing, and this is 5 the last thing I have to say about it is that the 6 Court, with the assistance of the prosecutor, and 7 really, we think, basically in response to the 8 prosecution's wishes, denied that motion unfairly.
9 And now Hawkins' testimony or Hawkins' statement
10 verifies that Veal was telling the truth. It is in 11 this motion which is on file and now is a matter of 12 public record.

13 Finally, what we would say is that, you know,
14 four Sheriff's deputies, and there is an 15 intimidation of witnesses who have come forward to 16 tell the truth. Immediately after the hearing or 17 the same evening of the hearing that the-- this is 18 prosecutorial misconduct, the reason why this case
19 should be dismissed. Immediately after the hearing
20 or sometime after the hearing on the evening of the 21 3rd of March, four Sheriff's deputies, three black
22 and one white, invaded the room of Mr. Veal, opened
23 his door with a key that was apparently supplied to 24 them by the person in charge of the hotel that he 25 was staying with in Greenwood, went into this 26 hotel, handcuffed him, threatened him that he was 27 going to go to jail if he didn't change his 28 testimony, and specifically were interested in him
29 saying that I had offered him something or somehow

1           forced him to change his testimony; indicated that
2           the prosecutor in this case, the District Attorney,
3           was in the process of trying to get information
4           that he could send me before the Bar.

5           That is a riveting violation of the 6           Defendant's constitutional rights. Not only does
7           it attempt to intimidate witnesses who have made
8           statements to neutralize the defense against him,
9           it possibly could have been an attack on a witness
10          who he could have decided at some point that he
11          might want to call to this stand and may, and I
12          think that the witness list which we have just 13          supplied to the State does have Mr. Veal's name on 14          it because we have, as of the last few days,
15          decided that Veal may be a witness for us. And 16          finally, it also sends a chill to the attorney and 17          intimidates the attorney, the attorney's ability to 18          function, to represent his client.

19          So all of these things we think are grievous
20          assaults on the constitutional rights of the 21          Defendant. We, as officers of the court, represent 22          to you that all these things are true. We would-- 23          all these things are truly represented to us. Of 24          course, we weren't present when the officers came 25          into Mr. Veal's room, but we did get a report of 26          what happened immediately after it occurred.

27          So what we would do is move this Court to 28          dismiss this case on the basis of prosecutorial
29          misconduct. We have not been able ourselves, we

1 don't have the contact with either-- if the Court
2 wanted to delve into this with an evidentiary
3 hearing, we certainly would not shirk from it. We 4 attempted to subpoena some people to come here,
5 weren't able to get them for today. One was the 6 Whit Mounger, who I think had something to do with 7 the representation of Mr. Hawkins from what I
8 understand. It's unclear to me that he represented
9 him in a specific case that Hawkins had in 10 Greenwood. But he did represent him in a case, and 11 I think perhaps a couple of cases that were going 12 on at the same time. We are also trying to 13 subpoena-- we weren't able to subpoena either Mr.
14 Hawkins or Mr. Veal for this proceeding. The 15 Court, as it knows, set this hearing date last 16 week, but we do not back down from this motion at
17 all.

18 And if the Court does not feel that it needs
19 some further inquiry, I think that based upon the 20 record here, unless the prosecution can give 21 evidence to refute it, the Court should grant our 22 motion. If the Court is not inclined to grant it
23 on the present state of the record, we would ask
24 that the Court take it under advisement and that 25 what we would do is on the very next available day
26 bring these witnesses to court, and we could have a
27 hearing on it. That is, that is our offer.

28 BY THE COURT: Before you are through, I have 29 got a question or two I want to ask you. One, what

1 is it at Itta Bena that you did not get?

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We did not get the cocaine
3 arrest, and we did not also get the disposition of 4 the cocaine arrest. It was a sale of--

5 BY THE COURT: --Is that over and done with?

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We still don't have it, no.

7 BY THE COURT: Well, I mean is that case over
8 and done with?

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, yes.

10 BY THE COURT: Well, then--

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --It is remanded to the 12 files, over and done with.

13 BY THE COURT: Okay, well, you are entitled to 14 it pursuant to my order. Now you should have filed
15 something to make me force them to-- a motion to 16 compel and I will compel them to do that.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

18 BY THE COURT: Okay. Now anything else over 19 there that you don't have?

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Of course, there would have 21 been no way for us to know that because the only
22 person that has at the last minute told us about it
23 is Hawkins. What I'm-- the point of the motion is 24 there is no way I could have known about it.

25 BY THE COURT: I understand, but the point of 26 what I'm saying is that if they did not comply with 27 my order or you didn't think they were, you should 28 have filed a motion to compel. Now is that all at 29 Itta Bena?

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: That is all that we are aware
2 of. We don't know what else exists.

3 BY THE COURT: Okay, then that's all that I am
4 aware of too, so I can't do anything about what I
5 don't know either.

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

7 BY THE COURT: If you don't think it's there,
8 I will make them produce it if it's subject to my 9 order. Now I don't know what our status is in 10 relation to Hawkins' records. Are you raising
11 that?

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Status in relation to what?

13 BY THE COURT: Hawkins' medical records.

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes, we would like to have 15 the medical records.

16 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I have some stuff I
17 would like to comment about that before we go too
18 deep into--

19 BY THE COURT: --Well, I just wanted to know
20 where I am. Okay, we will come back to that. All
21 right, Mr. Horan.

22 BY MR. HORAN: Thank you, Your Honor. As to--
23 I'm going to discuss the part of the prosecutorial
24 misconduct, I assume the part that involves me.
25 Mr. Evans is going to discuss the remainder of it
26 and some of the other issues, if that's what they 27 are, that was brought up by Mr. Lumumba.

28 I find it pretty ironic that Mr. Lumumba would 29 offer the Court to provide him protection under Box

1           and Brady considering the fact that just today we
2           have received a taped statement that they took from
3           Mr. Hawkins that I think is almost three weeks old,
4           and they have steadfastly told this Court that they
5           had no discoverable material and that they would 6           provide it immediately upon getting it.

7           And I think that brings into focus why the 8           State filed the Motion to Suppress the Subpoena-- I
9           mean to Suppress the Subpoena Duces Tecums is 10          because Counsel for the Defendant, both Counsel
11          have steadfastly violated practically every rule of 12          evidence, rules of court and during this whole
13          thing, Your Honor. That's why we filed the 14          subpoena. It wasn't because that we were scared
15          they were going to find something, that there was 16          something in his records. It's because we had no
17          confidence in their ability to follow the rules of 18          court, and when we get to trial in front of a jury
19          for them not to try to introduce inadmissible
20          evidence. That is the only reason the State--

21          BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Excuse me, Judge. I-- as 22          he is talking, I just need to say something because 23          there is a witness I don't want to get away, but 24          that shouldn't interrupt anything. He can
25          proceed. I just wanted to let you know I wasn't 26          standing up in order to disrupt the presentation.

27          BY THE COURT: All right, sir.

28          (Brief pause while Mr. Lumumba talks to a man 29          in the courtroom who then gets up and leaves.)

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF MISSISSIPPI

VOLUME 14 of 30

EXHIBIT _____

ELECTRONIC DISK _____

Case #1999-DP-01369-SCT

COURT APPEALED FROM : Circuit Court

COUNTY : Montgomery

TRIAL JUDGE : C. E. Morgan III

.....
Curtis Giovanni Flowers v. State of Mississippi

.....
Charlotte B. Williams, Clerk

.....
TRIAL COURT # : 97-372

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Go ahead. I'm still here.

2 BY MR. HORAN: The Motion to Quash was filed
3 on all of these subpoenas primarily because, not 4 because of the substance of what may be found or 5 what it would retrieve; it was two or three 6 things. First of all, we never got notice of the 7 subpoena, which is clearly in the rules. I had to 8 request the Court to instruct Mr. Freelon to give 9 us notice on every subpoena duces tecum which is 10 required under Rule 45. They issued two yesterday;
11 we still didn't get notice.

12 The point is, Your Honor, that the reason that 13 the Motion to Quash was submitted to the Court was 14 because they are just, they are not following the 15 Court's orders, and we don't anticipate at trial
16 that they are going to change their trial tactics.
17 Their pretrial tactics and their trial tactics are 18 going to be exactly the same, and that is the 19 purpose of the subpoena duces tecum. It's not to 20 hide anything; not to be, not to keep them from 21 getting anything that would be relevant, and I
22 think the Court did and properly so grant their 23 motion in part as to the Itta Bena records and to 24 the Justice Court records in Leflore County.

25 And I did call Mr. Freelon after I talked with 26 the Court, and the Court has called me on several 27 occasions after you have discussed things with Mr.
28 Freelon over the phone. And I understand that the 29 Court has to do those type things in order to

1           administer a case of this magnitude. And if the
2           Court, if there is anything about the conversation
3           with the Court that is incorrect that I am fixing
4           to represent, you can correct me. If there is
5           anything about Mr. Freelon's conversation with me
6           that is incorrect, he can state something to the 7           contrary.

8           The conversation I had with the Court in 9           Grenada was that the Court told me, asked me
10          whether or not there was anything that we were 11          going to be able to work out between the parties as 12          to the subpoenas, and I told you I did not know. I
13          called Mr. Freelon after the Court instructed me to 14          get up with Mr. Freelon, which I did, and 15          instructed Mr. Freelon was there any way we could 16          come to some conclusion, that I thought probably 17          that some of the stuff they were requesting was 18          public record, and I thought that the Judge, that 19          the Court was not going to allow them to get stuff
20          under the law, under the existing case law that 21          happened after the fact. And I think the existing 22          case law supports me on that, and that is the only 23          representation that I made to Mr. Freelon. And at 24          that point in time he accused me, because I was 25          kind enough to call him to try to work something
26          out, he accused me of earwiggling the Court.

27          And it has been on two or three occasions,
28          Your Honor, that I have tried to get up with Mr.
29          Freelon to make their job a little bit easier,

1 easier to try this case, and there is absolutely no
2 appreciation for that fact. And if there is
3 anything about the representation that I am making
4 about our conversation, Your Honor, you can, you
5 remember. You can take judicial notice of what it
6 was, but my understanding or my recollection is 7 that that's all that took place during the course
8 of my brief conference with you.

9 And I think the Court will take notice that 10 within the last three weeks you have called me on 11 the phone and told me that you have talked with Mr.
12 Freelon on the phones about matters, administrative 13 matters, certainly nothing about any Court rulings
14 or anything like that, and I haven't voiced any 15 objection to that because I understand that a case
16 of this magnitude, that is what the Court is going
17 to have to do.

18 But I think it is very ironic that Mr. Lumumba
19 can stand up here and represent himself as an 20 officer of the court with we have got two
21 statements, a statement that they took in February
22 from Veal that they still haven't provided to us,
23 Judge. They sat up here in this courtroom and in 24 Winona and looked you square in the face and said
25 we do not have discoverable material. And we have 26 a taped statement they took in February, a month
27 prior to that, to that hearing. And now they are 28 going to stand up here and ask for protection under 29 Box and Brady. It's really offensive to me as an

1           officer of the court.

2           And all these representations that Counsel for
3           the Defendant is making about what happened at 4           Veal's residence, there is absolutely no proof of 5           that, and that's all I have. Mr. Evans has got 6           something on some of the other matters, Your
7           Honor.

8           BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, of course, the 9           Defense did not see fit to subpoena Maurice Hawkins
10          to be here today. Instead, they want to tell the 11          Court what he would say. Maurice Hawkins called 12          us. I went to talk to him to see what the problem
13          was. He said that he had been in the hospital, 14          that the day he got out of the hospital that one of 15          the attorneys for the Defense was there at the 16          hospital to pick him up without him knowing it,
17          asked him to get in the car with him and ride with 18          him. This was Mr. Freelon; that the next thing he 19          knew they were at an apartment in Jackson, that he 20          was weak from being in the hospital; he was 21          scared. He had been intimidated, that he had been 22          told by them that they had already taken care of 23          one witness, that they had sent Veal to Atlanta,
24          and they would do the same thing for him. He 25          stated to me that they asked him about why he was 26          in the State Hospital, that he told them freely
27          that it was because he had had a drug addiction and 28          he wanted to go down there for help. They asked 29          him if he had any mental problems, and he told them

1                   no.

2                   As far as any records from Whitfield, he has 3                   never at any time stated and he told me he has 4                   never at any time stated that he had any objection
5                   to them getting his records. He has never been 6                   asked by them to sign a waiver of his records. He 7                   could have been brought here today and asked to 8                   sign a waiver of his records. It is inappropriate
9                   for them to go to the hospital without at least 10                  attempting to get a waiver from him and ask doctors
11                  down there to release these records. It's 12                  something that they could easily do if they wanted
13                  to do it, but they don't. They want to come in 14                  here and complain that they couldn't get something
15                  the way they weren't entitled to get it.

16                 Maurice Hawkins, according to what he told me,
17                 was not only carried to Jackson and put in an 18                 apartment that they had down there, but they 19                 wouldn't bring him back. He had to call a relative 20                 to come down there and pick him up because they 21                 carried him down there hoping he wouldn't make it
22                 back up to this part of the country.

23                 If there is any inappropriate behavior, it is 24                 definitely from things that they have done. They 25                 have made comments about misappropriation or 26                 misconduct, prosecutorial misconduct. Any deals
27                 that they are alleging to have been made are flat
28                 lies. They are not true. Whoever told them these 29                 things, they are not true, if anyone told them

1           these things. Apparently from the motions that 2           they are filing, there is a complete disregard for 3           the truth anyway because most of the motions that 4           they have filed lately, when I have tried to go and 5           check on the motions, I have found out that they
6           just flat misrepresented facts to the Court;
7           motions such as the one that they have filed where 8           they were claiming there had been no black or 9           female jury foreman in our district. That is just 10          a flat misrepresentation of the facts, and it
11          appears that every motion that they are going to 12          file is just a complete disregard for the truth.

13                BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, I have a short 14          rejoinder. It would seem that we have joined 15          forces here in that since he has just recently
16          talked to Maurice Hawkins, he should be in a 17          position where he could bring him here, and what we 18          need to do is put Maurice Hawkins on the stand.

19                BY MR. EVANS: This is not our motion, Your
20          Honor.

21                BY MR. LUMUMBA: But we don't have access to 22          Mr. Hawkins. We don't have a way to bring him
23          here. Okay, could I finish my--

24                BY MR. EVANS: --They have subpoena powers.

25                BY MR. LUMUMBA: If we could find him, yes.
26          But we have not been able to find Mr. Hawkins since 27          the time that the date has been set for this 28          hearing, and if they want to come here and tell 29          this fairy tale about somebody going out to the

1 hospital and picking him up and taking him away in 2 a weakened condition, that is fine with us. We are 3 ready, we are willing and ready for that if that's 4 the kind of testimony we want to put before this
5 Court or anybody else. That is fine with us.

6 BY THE COURT: That didn't happen, I guess?

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Of course not. No, it did
8 not. Let me-- if the Court wants to know what
9 happened--

10 BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, I would ask if 11 somebody is going to tell what happened, that it
12 would be the attorney that carried him.

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

14 BY THE COURT: That is okay. He has answered
15 my question.

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: What happened is that Mr.
17 Hawkins approached Mr. Freelon in the presence of 18 others, and if there is a problem with it, we will 19 be able to establish that. He approached Mr.
20 Freelon, asked to talk to Mr. Freelon, and at that 21 point it was a series of events that led to him
22 getting, us getting a statement from him. Mr.
23 Hawkins has never been taken anywhere against his 24 will. That is an absolute fabrication. But 25 anyway, I see we don't have a statement on that.
26 But anyway, we seem to be getting off the issue
27 here.

28 Mr. Hawkins is the issue. So if he can be
29 produced, we would ask the Court for an opportunity

1 to produce him next week, and since the DA is in
2 touch with him, if he can give us where we can find
3 him at, we will subpoena him, and maybe we can just 4 have a hearing next week. If the Court, I mean we
5 prefer to have it somewhere down lower like Winona
6 or some place like that where we wouldn't have to 7 come so far, but whatever the Court chooses.

8 Now the second thing, let me just simply say
9 this, just to rebut some of the things. The 10 prosecutor really hasn't answered my motion, but I
11 will rebut the things he did say.
12 Discovery violations: They have had anything that 13 we have had as soon as we have determined that the 14 persons that have given it to us may be witnesses.
15 The order that you issued tracks the rule. The 16 rule says that anyone who may be a witness for you,
17 then you are-- in chief, then you should give up
18 the information about any statement they have 19 made. We are not required to give up any statement
20 as soon as we take it. We have to take statements
21 and take other statements and look into other
22 things in order to determine whether someone may be 23 a witness for us. And as soon as we find out that 24 they may be a witness, then as reasonably as, as 25 soon as possible after that, we supply statements.

26 But we do want to say a few things about 27 discovery before the day is over about tapes which 28 have not been supplied to us and things of that 29 nature. So we will talk about that, but as far as

1           discovery violations, there are none on our
2           behalf. As soon as we have determined that a
3           person may be a witness for us, if we had a
4           statement from him, we have supplied it, and we
5           will continue to do so.

6           You know, the Court may remember that both
7           Maurice Hawkins and Veal were witnesses for the 8           State in the last trial. Those people generally
9           aren't prime candidates to be defense witnesses,
10          and only after intensive consideration would any 11          defense counsel make a decision that a witness like 12          that may testify for them. I don't know how Mr.
13          Prosecutor tries cases, but I know how responsible 14          people try them, and responsible people who are 15          attorneys don't just jump out there and assume that 16          a person is going to be a witness or even may be a
17          witness. You have to check that out. Of course,
18          the Court is kind of smirking or smiling up there,
19          but the truth, that's what I know about it, Judge.
20          That's what I know about it.

21          But in any event, that is our motion. We 22          would like to have the discovery items. We would 23          like to have the medical records. If we had Mr.
24          Hawkins in a position where he could sign a medical 25          release for us, if he is willing to do that, and we 26          certainly-- he did, he did seem to be willing. But 27          at the point in time that we talked to Mr. Hawkins
28          when he told us about these medical records
29          existing, which is the first time we knew that they

1           existed since the State had done its best to stop
2           us from seeing them, we were not in a position
3           where we could have him sign anything. We wasn't
4           in a place, we wasn't in our office. We didn't
5           have a form. There was no way we could have him
6           sign anything.

7           So anyway, that is our representation. We 8           would ask that the case be dismissed or that-- and 9           we would ask that the Court respectfully recuse
10          itself from any further proceedings, and we would 11          ask that in the alternative, that the prosecution
12          recuse itself.

13          BY THE COURT: Okay, on the first regard, let 14          me say this. Both sides during the entire length
15          of this case have called the Court and had 16          conversations with the Court which were ex parte.
17          All of those were conversations dealing with the 18          administration of the case just like Mr. Lumumba
19          called me about getting his expert 45 days late,
20          and I have talked to him about doing that. And 21          then I have talked to the others about the 22          administration in the case, so I have had ex parte
23          communications in relation to the administration of 24          this case. I have had no ex parte communications
25          regarding substantive matters in this case.

26          In particular, the conversation concerning the 27          subpoena or the motion to quash the subpoena to the 28          City of Itta Bena, I was in Grenada when those 29          things came about, when the subpoenas were issued

1           and when the motions were filed. Mr. Horan was
2           present in court. I directed him to talk to Mr.
3           Freelon to see if there was some way that they
4           could reach an accommodation so that the Defendant
5           could get those records and we would not have to 6           have a hearing on it. My understanding from Mr.
7           Horan is that he did call Mr. Freelon, and that
8           didn't work so I issued an order. The order
9           granted, allowed the Defendant to have the records
10          that he sought.

11                 The only thing was that the subpoena was 12           incorrectly filed. It did not follow the rules,
13           and it required that the person subpoenaed produce
14           those records at a county outside their residence
15           which clearly is not allowed by the rules. So the 16           limitation in the subpoenas and in the Court's 17           order was that they could have the records, but 18           they would have to get them at the, in the county
19           in which the records existed.

20                 If there was, if there are records that have
21           not been produced by the Itta Bena Police
22           Department pursuant to my order or in contradiction
23           of my order, none of that has been brought to my 24           attention before today. The fact is after the 25           hearing we have just had, I don't know of any 26           records that they have not supplied that I-- but if 27           there are some, I will see that they get, that they 28           are supplied consistent with my order.

29                 So the motion for me to recuse myself is

1           overruled.

2           The questions about prosecutorial misconduct
3           are all allegations based in the motion. They are 4           not substantiated by any proof before this Court,
5           independent proof. They are merely allegations
6           made by Counsel for the Defendant. And therefore,
7           there is no basis for that Motion, and that Motion
8           is overruled.

9           I have done some reflection on the question of 10          Maurice Hawkins and the privilege and in light of 11          what Mr. Evans says here today. Mr. Hawkins has to 12          claim that privilege. It is a privilege that he 13          has to claim, and therefore, he is not here to 14          claim it. I think it is probably not appropriate 15          that he not have notice to be here by somebody, but 16          he is not here. And it's a privilege that he can 17          claim or his doctor can claim, and neither one of 18          them are here.

19          So the Motion to Quash that subpoena is 20          denied, but those people will not be required to 21          produce that outside the county of their 22          residence. Mr. Lumumba, if you will get me an 23          order quickly in that regard, I will get that 24          signed and executed to you so you can get those 25          records as quickly as possible.

26                BY MR. LUMUMBA: Great.

27                BY THE COURT: Now the question of whether 28          that is relevant evidence is something that will 29          have to be determined later at a 403 hearing or

1           such other hearing as the Court has to have
2           consistent with the rules. But I have reviewed the 3           law on this particular point, and I think, it is 4           just clear to me that Mr. Hawkins is the only one
5           that can claim the privilege. So if you will 6           furnish me that order.

7           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Certainly. Judge, let me
8           just make-- in addition to my Motion to Recusal,
9           you just raised an issue which should be included,
10          and I am glad you raised it. We did have ex parte
11          conversations about my expert. In fact, I filed a 12          motion for ex parte, the right to make ex parte
13          application for expert assistance and expert
14          assistance, and you granted that motion. In fact--
15          in part. You granted it to the extent that we 16          dealt, and in chambers you actually denied some 17          things I asked for and you granted some things.
18          And when it was appropriate under that motion is 19          for us to continue our colloquy about the expert.
20          The Court went outside that motion and outside its 21          own ruling which it had previously made and 22          violated my client's rights again when it did
23          this. What it did is it talked directly to the 24          expert itself which I think may be appropriate--
25          inappropriate, but whether it was or not, I'm not 26          sure.

27          But what I know is inappropriate is when the 28          Court ordered me and the expert, without any kind
29          of hearing or anything, to furnish a copy of his

1 report to the prosecution. I am not required to 2 give all expert reports to the prosecution. The 3 Defendant is not required to do so. The only
4 expert report that we are required to give to 5 anybody is an expert report that we intend to use,
6 from a witness we intend to use. We cannot present
7 a witness and withhold his report. We can, in 8 fact-- we can, in fact, have many experts. If we 9 can hire ten experts, we are not required to 10 present all their reports. That's not true in 11 civil law; it's not true in criminal law, not here
12 in the State of Mississippi.

13 So and, in fact, if you look at the rule, the 14 rule as it relates to the State, this is a point
15 that becomes a little bit different than where it
16 relates to the Defendant. In the discovery rule
17 for the State, it says that they must produce
18 physical evidence which they gather in the trial,
19 and I think it also says the same thing about 20 scientific evidence. For the defense, it says they 21 must produce evidence that they may use. Now we 22 can't tell whether we are going to use it or not 23 until we have a chance to see what it is, and 24 before the report was even written, the Court
25 ordered that that report be provided to the 26 prosecution.

27 I think that severely compromised my client's
28 rights and it may have actually even been 29 prejudicial, so I would raise that as part of the

1 Motion to Recuse. I am sure we will revisit that 2 issue at a later time on the issue of whether or 3 not some testimony should be excluded based upon
4 the furnishing of that report.

5 But I just wanted to bring that to the Court's
6 attention. So I would ask for a reconsideration
7 based upon that late entry that I just made to my
8 motion.

9 BY THE COURT: Okay, in the first place the 10 Court did not appoint the Defendant an expert
11 witness. That did not happen. What the Court did 12 was appoint an independent expert to analyze the 13 evidence pursuant to Rule 706, and it is quite 14 clear in Rule 706 that the Court has an obligation
15 and a duty to direct, to tell that expert what his 16 duties and obligations are, which the Court did by 17 written order and then did verbally. The Rule is 18 quite clear I could do that.

19 The second thing in that Rule it requires that 20 those, that whatever he finds be produced to both 21 parties and the Court and everybody is subject to 22 taking depositions and cross-examination and 23 everything. He is nobody's witness. He is not 24 your witness. He is a court-appointed witness, and 25 those things are just not-- your objection is just 26 not within the rules. So that is overruled.

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, I understand, Judge.
28 But what I understand now but I didn't understand
29 before, so perhaps I am imposing the wrong

1 objection. My objection at this point, since the
2 Court has discussed it in full court rather than ex
3 parte, is the Court denying me an expert which it,
4 in fact, recognizes that I needed, and we were 5 entitled to an expert under the law. We were not 6 just entitled to an independent person to come in 7 and look at the evidence. We were entitled to an 8 expert, and if you did not give us an expert, then 9 it is my contention that you violated the 10 Defendant's rights by doing so.

11 BY THE COURT: Mr. Lumumba, I am not required
12 by any law of any case, of any statute that ever
13 happened in this country to produce a witness to 14 testify for your client. That is just, you are not 15 entitled to that. You are entitled to an expert
16 who is an independent expert. If he is not an 17 independent expert, he is probably not qualified to 18 testify.

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No.

20 BY THE COURT: Anyhow, we have addressed that 21 and I have overruled it. Let's move on to the next
22 motion.

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I think that is easily
24 understood that since they have their own experts,
25 we are entitled to our experts. But since the 26 Court doesn't understand that, the next motion is 27 this. We make a motion to change venue, and we 28 have supplied the Court with some documentation on 29 that as well as the other side. We would call at

1           this time in support of that Motion Mr. Robert
2           Brand.   Robert Brand.

3           BY THE COURT:   Is Ms. Minnie Leeper here?

4           BY THE CLERK:   She is here to testify.

5           BY THE COURT:   Oh, okay.   All right.

6           BY MR. LUMUMBA:   If the-- do you want me to 7           proceed with my testimony first, or were you asking
8           the State to proceed first?

9           BY THE COURT:   Well, are you going to testify?

10          BY MR. LUMUMBA:   No, I'm not going to testify.
11          I have a witness that is coming.

12          BY THE COURT:   Why don't we take the witnesses
13          first?

14          BY MR. LUMUMBA:   Okay.

15          (DOCUMENTS WERE HANDED TO STATE'S COUNSEL AND 16          THEN TO THE COURT REPORTER.)

17          (COPIES OF FIVE NEWSPAPER ARTICLES WERE MARKED
18          AS DEFENDANT'S EXHIBIT "A" TO THE MOTION FOR CHANGE
19          OF VENUE, AND NUMEROUS SHEETS CONTAINING THE SCRIPT
20          OR TEXT FROM TELEVISION NEWS REPORTS CONCERNING THE 21          FLOWERS CASE WERE MARKED AS DEFENDANT'S EXHIBIT "B"
22          TO THE SAME MOTION.)

23          BY MR. LUMUMBA:   I'm going to have to call
24          another witness because that witness is not here
25          yet.

26          BY THE COURT:   All right.

27          BY MR. LUMUMBA:   I would call Ishmael
28          Muhammad.

29          BY THE COURT:   Mr. Muhammad, come up here and

1                   be sworn, please.

2                   (MR. ISHMAEL MUHAMMAD WAS SWORN BY THE CLERK.)

3                   BY THE COURT: Have a seat over here, please,
4                   sir.

5                   (Witness takes the stand, and another man
6                   walks into the courtroom.)

7                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Oh, Judge, I'm sorry. I'm 8                   going to have to--

9                   BY THE COURT: Do you want to switch?

10                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, I want to switch
11                  because this witness has to leave, and I know he 12                  has got to go.

13                  BY THE COURT: Okay.

14                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: I would call Robert Brand.

15                  BY THE COURT: Mr. Muhammad, if you could step
16                  out, we will call you back in just a minute.

17                  (MR. ROBERT BRAND WAS SWORN BY THE CLERK.)

18                  BY THE COURT: Have a seat up here, please,
19                  sir.

20                                 ROBERT BRAND,

21                  a black male being called to testify by the Defendant on his 22                  Motion for Change of Venue, having first been duly sworn,
23                  testified as follows, to-wit:

24                                 BY THE COURT: State your name for the 25                                 record.

26                                 BY THE WITNESS: Robert Brand.

27                  DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

28                   Q. Okay, Witness, could you tell us-- your name is Mr.
29                   Brand. Could you share with us, please, where you reside? I

1 mean what county do you reside in?

2 A. Lee. Lee County.

3 Q. And how long have you been a resident of Lee
4 County?

5 A. About 24 years.

6 Q. Okay, and do you know a number of people in Lee
7 County?

8 A. Yes, sir.

9 Q. Do you know people in Tupelo as well as in other 10 parts of--

11 A. --I used to work up here.

12 Q. Okay. Now Mr. Brand, do you have relatives and 13 friends in Lee County?

14 A. Uh-huh, yeah.

15 Q. Were you, in fact, born here?

16 A. No, I was born in Chickasaw County.

17 Q. Chickasaw County, okay. Now I want to ask you, Mr.
18 Brand, when you were employed, what kind of work did you do?

19 A. Laborer.

20 Q. Laborer?

21 A. Yeah.

22 Q. And you are disabled at this time; is that correct?

23 A. Yes, sir.

24 Q. Okay. Mr. Brand, I want you to share with me,
25 please, if you are aware of the case of Curtis Flowers, State
26 versus Curtis Flowers, which was tried in this county back in 27 October of 1997?

28 A. Yes, sir.

29 Q. Okay. And are you familiar with whether or not

1 there was any publicity on that case?

2 A. Yes, sir.

3 Q. And did the publicity, was there any newspaper
4 publicity?

5 A. Yes, sir.

6 Q. Was there also publicity in terms of TV?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Okay. Now Mr. Brand, I would like to ask you if 9 you are familiar with the papers which are here in this
10 county, and if you are, could you share with me what papers
11 are printed in Lee County that you are aware of or which 12 papers serve Lee County?

13 A. Serve Lee County?

14 Q. Uh-hum.

15 A. Clarion Ledger, Daily Journal is from Tupelo here;
16 the Clarion Ledger, the USA Today, and Commercial Appeal. I
17 know of that many at least.

18 Q. Okay. And did all these papers cover information
19 on the case?

20 A. All the ones that I read. I assume all of them
21 did.

22 Q. Okay, and did they cover information on the 23 conviction and the sentence of death?

24 A. Yes, sir.

25 Q. Okay. Were you aware of the fact that Mr. Flowers
26 had been sentenced to death in this very matter?

27 A. Yes, sir.

28 Q. Okay, have you, are you aware of what the, of 29 whether or not your friends and the people that you have

1 talked or heard talk about this case, do they know that this
2 case has taken place and that he was sentenced to death?

3 A. Yeah, I guess.

4 Q. I'm sorry?

5 A. Yes, sir.

6 Q. Have you heard people discuss the case and talk
7 about the case?

8 A. It was discussed when it was going on, you know,
9 quite a few people.

10 Q. Okay, based upon what you have heard, do you feel
11 that Mr. Flowers could get a fair trial in this county?

12 A. Um, now I don't know.

13 Q. Do you feel he could get a fair trial?

14 A. Not here because of one of the reasons I believe it
15 will be the publicity.

16 Q. Publicity, okay.

17 A. And a lot of people-- this is just my speculation.

18 Q. Okay, do you believe people are aware of the fact
19 that he was found guilty and sentenced to death?

20 A. I think so; yes, sir.

21 Q. Okay, and would that be a reason why you don't 22 think he could get a fair trial?

23 A. That would be one of the more reasons, yeah.

24 Q. Now the Judge just-- you know, it is very 25 important, Mr. Brand, that the Judge gets your, your, the 26 view that you-- do you remember we discussed this before?

27 A. Uh-hum, yeah.

28 Q. And did you tell me that you felt that he could not 29 get a fair trial?

1 A. Yes, sir.

2 Q. Pardon?

3 A. Yes, sir.

4 Q. Okay. And do you have a firm belief in that?

5 A. I have a firm belief in that.

6 Q. And is that based upon the information that you
7 have seen distributed in the paper and on TV?

8 A. That and there is others, yeah. Yes, I do.

9 Q. That and what?

10 A. I said that would be the most important evidence.

11 Q. Yeah, and the fact that you have heard people talk
12 about the case?

13 A. True.

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have no further questions
15 of Mr. Brand at this time, Judge.

16 BY THE COURT: Mr. Evans.

17 BY MR. EVANS: One minute, Your Honor.

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: While they are waiting on 19 that, Mr. Brand, there is another question I would 20 like to ask you.

21 FURTHER DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

22 Q. Do you believe that based upon the publicity and 23 the conversations that you have, that there is a deep
24 prejudice or prejudgment of the Defendant already in this
25 case?

26 A. Yes, sir.

27 Q. And that it's a deep abiding bias that would 28 prevent him from getting a trial?

29 A. I would think so.

1 Q. Okay, a fair trial.

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have no further questions.

3 CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. EVANS:

4 Q. Mr. Brand, you initially said you didn't know
5 whether he could get a fair trial here or not; is that right?

6 A. No, sir.

7 Q. But when opposing counsel asked you a direct
8 question about that, you agreed with him, didn't you?

9 A. No, I don't think I did.

10 Q. What part of the county do you live in?

11 A. Lee.

12 Q. What part of Lee County?

13 A. South.

14 Q. In what community? What community?

15 A. Shannon.

16 Q. And you say the only conversations that you have 17 heard anybody talking about this were back when it was being 18 tried what, about a year ago?

19 A. Being tried and after and everybody commenting
20 about the case.

21 Q. And who commented about it then?

22 A. Any number of people.

23 Q. Give me a name.

24 A. Walter Stanphill. That would be the most that I
25 heard.

26 BY MR. EVANS: No further questions.

27 REDIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

28 Q. Even though you can't fix at the time that these 29 people were making comments, did you know that you were going

1 to be called here to testify about it?

2 A. No.

3 Q. So did you have any reason to try to memorize
4 people's names?

5 A. No.

6 Q. Okay, just the same, even though you can't place a
7 name right now on everybody that commented, did you, in fact,
8 hear from people, and did they comment?

9 A. Yes, sir.

10 Q. And were they biased against the case?

11 A. I would say yes.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. I have no further
13 questions for this witness.

14 BY THE COURT: Is he finally excused?

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: For me, yes.

16 BY THE COURT: Y'all don't want him, do you?

17 BY MR. EVANS: No, sir.

18 BY THE COURT: You are free to go, sir.

19 WITNESS EXCUSED.

20 BY THE COURT: Now do you want to call Mr.
21 Muhammed?

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes, I do, Judge, but before
23 I do, I want to bring to the Court's attention
24 exhibits which are already attached to my motion,
25 and I have had a couple of sets of exhibits. This 26 is so the Court can be aware of these. We filed--
27 and these are all on file. The first exhibits we 28 have are Exhibits in Support of Motion for Change
29 of Venue.

1                   BY THE COURT: That is all those newspaper
2 articles that you sent me?

3                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes, sir.

4                   BY THE COURT: Do you want to get them
5 admitted?

6                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes, sir.

7                   BY THE COURT: Have y'all got any objection to
8 that?

9                   BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, I don't have any 10 objection to them. I think they are in the file,
11 are they not?

12                   BY THE COURT: Well, I'm going to make this 13 suggestion to you. I would like them to be marked
14 individually item by item so that when we talk
15 about them, we can identify them. And if y'all
16 don't have any objection to them, then, Mr.
17 Lumumba, I'm going to get you to get with the Court
18 Reporter right now and y'all mark them. We will 19 take about 5 minutes while y'all are doing that.

20                   (DURING A BRIEF RECESS, COPIES OF NUMEROUS
21 NEWSPAPER ARTICLES WERE MARKED COLLECTIVELY AS 22 DEFENDANT'S EXHIBIT C TO THE MOTION FOR CHANGE OF 23 VENUE, AND COPIES OF NEWSPAPER ARTICLES UNDER THE 24 COVER SHEET ENTITLED SECOND SET OF EXHIBITS IN 25 SUPPORT OF MOTION WERE MARKED COLLECTIVELY AS 26 DEFENDANT'S EXHIBIT D TO THE SAME MOTION.)

27                   (UPON THE COURT RETURNING TO THE COURTROOM AND 28 WITH ALL COUNSEL AND THE DEFENDANT PRESENT, 29 PROCEEDINGS CONTINUED AS FOLLOWS:)

1                   BY THE COURT: Are you going to take that
2                   witness out of order now?

3                   BY MR. HORAN: Yes, sir. Mr. Lumumba has 4                   allowed me. I assume they are going to have at 5                   least one more witness that would raise a prima
6                   facie showing that they would meet their burden.
7                   Therefore-- I assume they are.

8                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes, we have another
9                   witness. And Judge, I don't have an objection. He 10                  wants to call out of turn a witness. I will allow 11                  him to do that.

12                  BY MR. HORAN: Thank you. I appreciate it.

13                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: All right.

14                  BY MR. HORAN: Ms. Minnie Leeper.

15                               MINNIE LEEPER,
16                  a black female called to testify out of turn as a witness for 17                  the State of Mississippi in opposition to the Defendant's
18                  Motion for Change of Venue, having first been duly sworn,
19                  testified as follows, to-wit:

20                   BY THE COURT: Ms. Leeper, if you will come 21                   around here and have a seat over here. State your 22                   name for the record, please.

23                   BY THE WITNESS: My name is Minnie Leeper.

24                   BY MR. HORAN: May I proceed, Your Honor?

25                   BY THE COURT REPORTER: Spell your last name,
26                   please.

27                   BY THE WITNESS: L E E P E R.

28                   DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. HORAN:

29                   Q. Ms. Leeper, where do you reside?

1 A. I live in-- Box 3201, Leeper Street, Nettleton.

2 Q. Nettleton, Mississippi?

3 A. Mississippi.

4 Q. Is that a community here in Lee County?

5 A. Yes, it is; about 14 miles.

6 Q. How big is Nettleton?

7 A. We have a population about 2,165 people.

8 Q. Do you consider yourself active in the community
9 there at Nettleton?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And also are you also active in Lee County as a 12 whole?

13 A. Yes, I am.

14 Q. Now I discussed with you earlier whether or not you
15 are familiar with the fact that there was a case here in Lee
16 County involving an individual by the name of Curtis Flowers,
17 and you said you were familiar with that case?

18 A. I read it in the paper.

19 Q. Okay, you read it in the paper. And you at one
20 point in time even lived in Winona; is that right?

21 A. I did.

22 Q. Some time ago?

23 A. In 1959 to '65.

24 Q. Now is this a case, this case was versus Mr.
25 Flowers. Is it a case that in the Nettleton community that 26 people discuss on a regular basis?

27 A. I haven't heard anything more about it since it
28 came out in the paper last time.

29 Q. Last time; that was some, almost a year ago?

1           A.    I guess.  You hear everything else.  I never heard,
2           only that.

3           Q.    Is it a case in which people that you see in your
4           community discuss on a regular basis?

5           A.    No, I don't.

6           Q.    And in Lee County in general when you come to town,
7           do people discuss it?

8           A.    No.

9           Q.    Have you read anything about it in the paper within 10          the last three months?

11          A.    I don't remember reading anything about it.  I
12          really don't.

13          Q.    Do you feel like that the citizens of Lee County
14          would be willing and able and could give the Defendant Curtis
15          Flowers a fair and impartial trial here in Lee County?

16          A.    I do.

17                       BY MR. HORAN:  I tender the witness.

18                       BY MR. LUMUMBA:  Thank you.

19          CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

20          Q.    Hi.  Ms. Leeper, is it?

21          A.    Good morning.

22          Q.    Okay, Ms. Leeper, you indicated that you are active
23          in the county; is that right?

24          A.    I am, sir.

25          Q.    So I would assume that you are familiar with other
26          people who are very active in the county; is that right?

27          A.    Well, I go around a lot of places; yes, sir.

28          Q.    Okay, well, you certainly know who Lillie Bell,
29          L.B. Or Lillie Bell Johnson is that lives in Shannon?

1           A.    I do.

2           Q.    She is very active in the county?

3           A.    Right.

4           Q.    You have never discussed this case with her?

5           A.    No, sir.

6           Q.    So you are not aware of the fact that Lillie Bell
7 Johnson says that there is no way that this case could be 8 tried fairly in the county?

9                   BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, that is an improper
10 question--

11                   BY THE WITNESS: --Repeat your question, sir.

12                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: --No--

13                   BY THE COURT: No, ma'am. The objection is 14 sustained.

15                   BY THE WITNESS: What did you say now?

16                   BY THE COURT: Wait a minute. You don't 17 answer until I tell you you can.

18                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, now Judge, let me
19 just-- I think I have a right to respond to the 20 objection one second. This, and when you are 21 talking about hearsay, basically the substance of 22 the testimony on behalf of all witnesses who 23 testify on this is about what they know or what
24 they don't know. Just like when someone puts a
25 witness on as a character witness and they testify
26 to reputation based upon what other people say,
27 then the cross-examiner can come back and ask if 28 they know this that someone has said bad about a 29 person or good about a person. And that is the

1           same situation we are in here. We are not in the 2           normal hearsay situation, so I think in order to
3           examine whether this witness is really familiar
4           with the community opinion, I am able to ask these
5           questions.

6                   BY THE COURT: The way you asked that question
7           you are not. That objection is sustained.

8           BY MR. LUMUMBA:

9           Q.    Okay. Ms. Lillie Bell Johnson is very active in 10           the community and has been for a long time; right?

11           A.    Right.

12           Q.    Right. And in fact, she has been in a number of 13           different civic affairs. She doesn't live in Tupelo, does 14           she?

15           A.    No, sir.

16           Q.    Okay, she lives outside of Tupelo in a small
17           community herself; right?

18           A.    Yes, sir.

19           Q.    Is that correct?

20           A.    I live outside of Tupelo?

21           Q.    Yes, that she lives outside of Tupelo--

22           A.    --right--

23           Q.    --in a small community; right?

24           A.    Yes, sir.

25           Q.    But she is in Tupelo a lot?

26           A.    Right.

27           Q.    And she is around the county a lot; right?

28           A.    Uh-hum.

29           Q.    But you don't know her opinion; right?

1           A.    I really don't, sir.

2           Q.    And in fact, you don't remember Ms. Johnson ever
3 saying, or you don't know that Mr. Johnson has ever said
4 there is no way there could be a fair trial here in Tupelo?

5           A.    Not to me.

6           Q.    Okay, I see. Well, Walter Stanphill. You know
7 Walter Stanphill; right?

8           A.    I have heard of him.

9           Q.    He is very well known for his work that he has done
10 in the civil rights movement for a number of years; right?

11          A.    Yes, sir.

12          Q.    And used to work with the United League of 13 Mississippi; right?

14          A.    Yes, sir.

15          Q.    Used to work with the North Mississippi Rural Legal 16 services doing work for poor people; right?

17          A.    Right.

18          Q.    Been real active in the community?

19          A.    (Witness nods her head.)

20          Q.    He talks to people all the time; right?

21          A.    Yes, sir; I suppose so.

22          Q.    Uh-huh. He would be one of the people that would 23 be aware of what people think about in this county; right?

24          A.    I imagine so. If he gets around here, and I am
25 sure he would if he heard it.

26          Q.    So you don't know what he thinks about the case, do
27 you?

28          A.    I really don't.

29          Q.    You are not aware that he stated that the--

1 BY MR. HORAN: --Your Honor, this is not
2 proper--

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --county cannot be fair?--

4 BY MR. EVANS: --This is not proper what other
5 people think--

6 BY THE COURT: --Sustained.

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Well, it's--

8 BY MR. EVANS: It's not proper. We object.

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We will make a record of my 10 exception to that ruling, Judge. It's clearly a
11 violation of what this hearing is all about.

12 BY THE COURT: Well, that objection is
13 sustained.

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

15 Q. Okay. Earline Gardner. You know Earline Gardner, 16 don't you?

17 A. No.

18 Q. You don't know Earline Gardner?

19 A. I don't think so.

20 Q. You are active in the community?

21 A. Earline Gardner?

22 Q. Yes.

23 A. Yes, sir. I have heard of her.

24 Q. Yeah, because if you active in the black community,
25 you have got to know Earline Gardner; isn't that right?

26 A. I have heard of her; yes, sir.

27 Q. Okay, all right, and she is here in Tupelo or not 28 in Tupelo, but she is in Guntown; is that correct?

29 A. I think so.

1 Q. And she knows what people think in the community;
2 right?

3 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, again I object.
4 The question of this witness, the only question
5 that he can ask her is what she bases her opinion
6 on. He cannot ask her what other people in the 7 community think. They would have to testify to 8 those facts.

9 BY THE COURT: She can only testify to what 10 she shows.

11 BY THE WITNESS:

12 A. I don't know what they know.

13 Q. Do you know that Earline Gardner has made
14 statements about the fairness of the people in the community
15 on this case?

16 A. Would you rephrase your statement, please, sir?

17 Q. Do you know that Earline Gardner has made
18 statements as to whether people can be fair?

19 A. I don't know if that she made a statement; I really 20 don't if that's your question.

21 Q. All right. So she has never told you that the 22 people in the county can be fair?

23 A. No, she hasn't.

24 Q. All right. In fact, you are not aware of the fact
25 that she says people can't be fair?

26 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, again that is the 27 same objection--

28 BY THE WITNESS: --I don't know--

29 BY THE COURT: --Sustained, Mr. Lumumba--

1 BY MR. EVANS: --This whole line of questioning
2 is improper, and he knows it's improper.

3 BY THE COURT: Sustained.

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No--

5 BY MR. EVANS: --And the Court has already
6 ruled on it about four times.

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Just, just to be clear, I
8 know it's absolutely proper. It's an insane
9 proposition; kindergarten law would tell you that 10 when you are talking about opinions and people in 11 the community and you are cross-examining a 12 witness, you can cross-examine that witness as to 13 what she knows and what she does not know.

14 BY THE COURT: But that is not what you are 15 asking her. You are testifying as to what folks
16 haven't testified to here.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, it does not--

18 BY THE COURT: You are trying to put words in 19 her mouth, and you cannot do that, and the 20 objection is sustained.

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, I am not trying to put 22 words in her mouth. In fact, I know that if she 23 comes in here with the testimony she has, it's 24 obvious that she hasn't heard these people make 25 these statements which has something to do with her 26 credibility as a person that knows the opinion of 27 people in the community.

28 BY THE COURT: The objection is sustained.
29 Move on.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

2 Q. Are you familiar with attorney Brian Neely?

3 A. Brian Neely. I know Brian.

4 Q. Have you talked--

5 A. --I know of Brian. No, sir. I haven't.

6 Q. He is an attorney that serves the community; right?

7 A. Right. I haven't talked to Brian Neely.

8 Q. So you don't know what he thinks about it?

9 A. I really don't.

10 Q. So you don't know that he said they can't be fair?

11 A. I really don't know that.

12 Q. Okay. Attorney Kenny Mayfield--

13 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I object to this 14 entire line of questioning. This is improper--

15 BY THE WITNESS: -- Well, I don't know what 16 these people know--

17 BY MR. EVANS: --There is absolutely no reason
18 for this irrelevant conduct to continue.

19 BY THE COURT: I have sustained the objection.

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. Well, you sustained
21 the objection to whether she knows Kenny Mayfield?

22 BY THE COURT: No.

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

24 Q. Okay, do you know Kenny Mayfield?

25 A. Yes, sir. I know of Kenny Mayfield.

26 Q. And have you talked to him about the case?

27 A. No, sir; I haven't.

28 Q. So you don't know what his opinion is?

29 A. I really don't.

1           Q.   Well, who have you talked to that said they could
2 be fair?

3                   BY MR. EVANS: That is not the question for 4 this type of motion.

5                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: That is exactly what he asked
6 my witness.

7                   BY MR. EVANS: No, sir.

8                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: --That's exactly what he 9 asked my witness--

10                  BY MR. EVANS: The question is, is there so
11 much comment in the community that he could not get 12 a fair trial. To the contrary, he has proven our 13 side of it because if there is not these contacts
14 out there, then that is proof that he can get a
15 fair trial here, that there has not been undue
16 publicity.

17                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Didn't I just hear him ask my 18 witness if someone had told him he couldn't get a
19 fair trial, and he said Walter Stanphill, which is 20 in this case in evidence, in fact.

21                  BY MR. EVANS: But that was something he was 22 told. You can't ask who didn't tell you this.

23                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, no. I am just, my 24 question at this point is, my question at this 25 point is who told her that the county could be 26 fair--

27                  BY MR. EVANS: That was her opinion, Your
28 Honor.

29                  BY THE COURT: I'm going to let her answer.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

2 Q. Who told you the county could be fair?

3 A. Haven't anybody told me. That's my opinion of the
4 case.

5 Q. Oh, I see; I see; I see; uh-hum. Okay, we are 6 going to get into your opinion in a minute. Now Betty
7 Johnson, do you know her?

8 A. I have heard of Betty.

9 Q. Okay, you have heard of her?

10 A. Yes, sir; I have.

11 Q. You have never been with, you have never met with 12 Betty?

13 A. I don't remember. I'm not sure.

14 Q. You never met with Brian Neely?

15 A. No, I see Brian occasionally on the streets and 16 talk to him.

17 Q. Okay, but you never met with Walter Stanphill?

18 A. I really haven't, sir.

19 Q. And you would, you would agree that Walter
20 Stanphill by reputation is involved in just about everything,
21 at least in the black community; is that correct?

22 A. I imagine so.

23 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, what Walter
24 Stanphill--

25 BY THE WITNESS: --I imagine; I really don't 26 know what he is involved--

27 BY MR. EVANS: --or whatever his name is, is 28 involved in has absolutely nothing to do with this
29 trial.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: You know, they shouldn't put 2 a witness on if they don't want her cross-examined.

3 BY THE COURT: Well--

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Let me tell you what, let 5 me tell you what--

6 BY MR. EVANS: --Would the Court rule on the 7 motion first.

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA: This is the issue here. The 9 issue is he puts her on and asks her questions
10 about her being active in the community. Now he 11 shouldn't open doors if he doesn't want people to 12 walk through them.

13 BY MR. EVANS: --They shouldn't--

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Excuse me; excuse me. When 15 I get finished, then he talks; okay. This is the 16 situation here. This is the situation.

17 BY THE COURT: Well, I can save you some 18 time. Go ahead and ask the question. You are 19 entitled to ask that.

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Good, good.

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

22 Q. Now Walter Stanphill is very active in the 23 community by reputation; right?

24 A. By reputation, I have heard of him.

25 Q. But you have never been to a meeting that he was 26 at, have you?

27 A. No, sir; I haven't.

28 Q. And you are supposed to be active; right?

29 A. I am active.

1           Q.    I see.  L.B. Johnson.  Have you ever been to a
2 meeting with her?

3           A.    There is Rust College Tri-County Club; right.

4           Q.    Oh, okay.  But you didn't ask her about this case?

5           A.    No, sir.  I am president of that club.

6           Q.    Well, now Robert Brand; do you know Mr. Robert
7 Brand who is planning on running-- is there some new black
8 district in this, in this community or something that--

9           A.    I have heard the name.

10          Q.    Yeah, and you know he is planning on running;
11 right?

12          A.    I do.

13          Q.    What did he say about this case?

14          A.    He didn't say anything about the case.

15          Q.    So you really know a lot of opinions, don't you?
16 You don't know anybody's opinion but your own; is that right?

17          A.    Right.

18          Q.    Well, now let me say this.

19                   (Brief pause while Mr. Lumumba confers with 20 Mr. Freelon who then leaves the courtroom.)

21          Q.    Has anybody-- nobody has ever told you they could 22 be fair; right?

23          A.    No, I live here.

24          Q.    Okay.  Let me ask you about a few things here.

25                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  I move the admission of all
26 these exhibits, Judge.  I assume there is no
27 objection?  They have been marked into evidence.

28                   BY THE COURT:  I thought we had already done
29 that.  No objection, is it?

1 BY MR. EVANS: No objection to the ones that
2 relate to this case. I saw one or two that I
3 wasn't sure whether they did, but as long as they
4 have got articles in them about this case, I don't
5 have any objection.

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, what he may have saw
7 is a cover sheet which is meant to identify--

8 BY THE COURT: I saw that. Let them be
9 admitted.

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

11 (DEFENDANT'S EXHIBITS "A," "B," "C," AND "D" 12 PREVIOUSLY MARKED WERE RECEIVED IN EVIDENCE TO THE 13 MOTION FOR CHANGE OF VENUE.)

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

15 Q. What are the papers which are published in this
16 county?

17 A. What are the--

18 Q. --Let's not say published in this county, but what 19 are the papers which are circulated in this county?

20 A. That publish the newspaper you mean?

21 Q. Yeah, which papers are circulated around here?

22 A. There is a Tupelo Daily Journal. There is a
23 Courier.

24 Q. Okay.

25 A. As far as I know.

26 Q. Are you familiar with the Clarion Ledger?

27 A. I pick it up sometimes, but it's not-- I don't 28 subscribe to it.

29 Q. I understand, but it is circulated in this county

1 also; right?

2 A. Probably so, but I haven't bought one in about a
3 year or two.

4 Q. Are you familiar with the Commercial Appeal?

5 A. Yes, sir. Sometimes I buy one.

6 Q. And that comes from Memphis; right?

7 A. It does.

8 Q. It is also available to people in this county?

9 A. If they want to buy one; yes, sir.

10 Q. There is also a TV station; right?

11 A. That's right.

12 Q. In fact, there is a TV station based here; is that
13 correct?

14 A. I know Channel 9 is here.

15 Q. Okay. Now I'm going to show you what is now marked
16 as Exhibit number Zero [sic]?

17 A. Yes, sir.

18 Q. I am interested in you taking a look at some of 19 these articles which are Exhibit Zero.

20 BY MR. HORAN: What number is that?

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Zero.

22 BY THE COURT REPORTER: "D."

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Oh, that is "D"? Oh, let me
24 see.

25 BY THE COURT REPORTER: That is supposed to be 26 a "D."

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Oh, a "D," okay; I'm sorry.

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

29 Q. This is Exhibit "D." I am showing you the first

1 page in Exhibit "D" for you. Now you recognize that as being
2 a clip from the Daily Journal?

3 A. I do.

4 Q. Okay, now that is a paper that is circulated in 5 this community and published in this community; is that
6 correct?

7 A. Yes, sir.

8 Q. And do you see that article there where it says,
9 "Former employee charged in slaying of four Winona furniture
10 store people"?

11 A. Yes, sir.

12 Q. That appeared in the paper; right?

13 A. Yes, sir.

14 Q. And it goes on to say in that article that "Curtis 15 Flowers, 26, of Winona was charged"; is that correct?

16 A. Yes, sir.

17 Q. And it goes on to talk about the District Attorney,
18 Doug Evans, talking about Flowers had moved to Texas after 19 the killings. You remember hearing about that; right?

20 A. I read it in the paper here; yes, sir, I read it.

21 Q. And then it talks about some of the evidence that 22 they got against Flowers and the fact that they had to 23 extradite Flowers back from here, or they were going to be 24 extraditing him; is that correct?

25 A. That is what the article is saying.

26 Q. Now, you know, people when they read the paper, you
27 would agree with me, they don't know that they are going to 28 sit on a jury; right?

29 A. What is--

1 Q. --When a person reads a paper, he doesn't
2 necessarily know if she is going to be called to sit on a
3 jury; right?

4 A. I imagine not.

5 Q. Pardon?

6 A. I guess not.

7 Q. Okay, I mean like for instance, when you read the 8 paper, you had no idea whether you were going to be called to 9 sit on the jury or not; right?

10 A. Right.

11 Q. And the same thing is true of other people; right?

12 A. I imagine so.

13 Q. Now some people would read, "Former employee
14 charged in slayings of Winona"--

15 BY MR. HORAN: --Your Honor, what other people
16 would read and what they would think is not 17 relevant. We are getting way off of what this 18 hearing is about, and we object to this line of 19 questioning. It is just irrelevant, Your Honor.

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Maybe what we should do is 21 allow me to finish my question. May I finish my
22 question?

23 BY THE COURT: Yeah, but do not answer it
24 until I rule.

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

26 Q. Okay. Now if somebody is told in the paper that 27 the man is charged with killing people, that is a reason to 28 conclude that maybe he did it; right?

29 A. Not necessarily.

1                   BY THE COURT: Sustained. The objection is
2                   sustained.

3                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, if you are not going
4                   to let me have a hearing, tell me now, okay.

5                   BY THE COURT: I'm only going to let you ask
6                   questions that I think are proper. So go ahead.

7                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, why don't you let me
8                   ask questions that the law thinks are proper.

9                   BY THE COURT: Okay, well, you go ahead--

10                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Can we get beyond you and 11                  get to the law?

12                  BY THE COURT: Go ahead, Mr. Lumumba.

13                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, all right.

14                  BY MR. LUMUMBA:

15                  Q. So this says "Former employee charged in slaying";
16                  is that correct?

17                  A. That's what the headline is saying.

18                  Q. Do you remember reading this? Did you read this?

19                  A. Yeah, I think I read it.

20                  Q. You think?

21                  A. Yeah, it has been so long ago.

22                  Q. Okay. What did that mean to you, that he was 23                  charged? What did that mean?

24                  A. What is your question now?

25                  Q. What did that mean to you? How did you feel when 26                  you read that?

27                  A. Just what it said in the paper, you know, until the 28                  trial, I guess.

29                  Q. Okay, and what did you think about the incident,

1 the fact that four people were tragically killed?

2 A. I really don't know because I wasn't there, sir.

3 Q. Oh, just because you weren't there, you thought it
4 was okay?

5 A. Well, really I really don't know what happened.
6 You can read stuff.

7 Q. Uh-huh; I see; I see. Then they have an article in 8 here where it says, on the next page it says, "Capital Murder
9 Trial Begins Today." Is that right? Do you remember seeing 10 that in the paper as the next page?

11 A. (Pause while witness is turning pages.)

12 Q. Just the very next page.

13 A. Okay, thank you.

14 Q. Let me see if we can get you right to it?

15 A. Thank you.

16 Q. All right. Do you see that there?

17 A. I do.

18 Q. And what does it say right under it?

19 A. It says, "Man accused of murdering four people at 20 Winona Furniture." It's last year.

21 Q. You don't think that would bias anybody, do you?

22 A. What is your question, sir?

23 Q. You don't think that would make anybody prejudice
24 against Mr. Flowers, the--

25 BY MR. HORAN: --Objection, Your Honor.

26 BY THE COURT: Sustained.

27 BY THE WITNESS: --I think--

28 BY THE COURT: --The only issues that are 29 relevant to this hearing is one, what her opinion

1 is and on what was the basis of her opinion. That
2 is the only relevant issue. All of this is totally 3 irrelevant, and the objection is sustained.

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

5 Q. Let's go to-- turn your page to the next page. Do
6 you see the next page? The one right after the one that you
7 just were looking at.

8 A. I see it.

9 Q. Down in the right hand corner, what does it say?

10 A. "Testimony begins in Winona slaying case."

11 Q. And do you remember reading that article?

12 A. I might have read it.

13 Q. And do you see right there it says, "Picking the 14 jury," over there in the far right hand corner?

15 A. I do.

16 Q. What does it say there?

17 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, I object to this 18 line of questioning--

19 BY THE WITNESS: --He says--

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: She said she read the 21 article.

22 BY MR. HORAN: Ask if that article was the 23 basis of her opinion.

24 BY THE COURT: Right.

25 BY MR. HORAN: Reading the article--

26 BY THE COURT: --You have got to lay the 27 predicate.

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, no, no, no. She said she 29 read the article. I'm going to--I am able. She

1           has an opinion; she read the article. I'm not only
2           able to ask her what they want me to ask her, what,
3           that is the basis of her opinion. I am able to ask
4           her things that should help her formulate her
5           opinion. If they haven't reasonably, then that is 6           a reason to question her credibility.

7                   BY THE COURT: But what you have to do is you
8           have to ask her if she has an opinion and then ask
9           her on what that opinion is based--

10                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: --He already asked her if she 11           had an opinion. I am on cross-examination. I am 12           trying to cross-examine what she said. That's the 13           way you do it.

14                   BY THE COURT: Okay, if she--

15           BY MR. LUMUMBA:

16           Q.    --Do you see where it says, "Picking the jury"?

17           A.    I do.

18           Q.    What does it say right under there?

19           A.    "Although he is a defendant and an African-American, 20           all jury are white."

21           Q.    It says all the jurors are white?

22           A.    It says, "Although the defendant is an African-23           American, all the jurors are white."

24           Q.    Oh. Now that happened here. That was the trial
25           here in Tupelo; right?

26           A.    It was. I guess so.

27           Q.    Yeah, right here in Lee County; right?

28           A.    Yes, sir.

29           Q.    Okay. Have you asked any white people if they hold

1 any bias against this black man allegedly who killed three
2 white people?

3 A. No, sir.

4 Q. Do you think that might happen sometime?

5 A. What is your question now?

6 Q. That white people who sit on the jury might have 7 some bias against a person--

8 BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, that has--

9 BY THE WITNESS: --I hope not--

10 BY MR. EVANS: --absolutely nothing to do with 11 this change of venue motion.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Oh, that is not my question.

13 BY THE COURT: She has answered it.

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

15 Q. I'm not asking what you hope. I am thinking what,
16 what is your opinion of that? Is it your opinion that that 17 would not affect the white people who sit on the jury? Is 18 that your opinion?

19 A. Not in Lee County.

20 Q. Pardon?

21 A. I don't think so in Lee County.

22 Q. You don't think so in Lee County. Well, where 23 else-- is Lee County different than other counties?

24 A. I live here--that's why-- I can only speak for Lee
25 County, sir.

26 Q. This is Lee County where, where Mr. Robert Brand
27 lives; right?

28 A. Whoever you say lives here; I guess you know.

29 Q. This is Lee County where in 1976 they had a--

1 BY MR. HORAN: --Your Honor--

2 BY MR. EVANS: --This is not proper.

3 BY THE COURT: The objection is sustained.

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

5 Q. --marching, and the Klan was--

6 BY THE COURT: --Sustained, Mr. Lumumba. You
7 are directed not to answer that question.

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

9 Q. Well, you know about Lee County. You remember the 10 United League?

11 A. I do.

12 Q. Do you remember them marching against the Klan?

13 A. Yes, sir.

14 Q. That wasn't too long ago, was it?

15 A. Well, I imagine not, sir.

16 Q. Do you remember the Klan standing out in the front
17 lawn of the police station here in Lee County when they were 18 marching?

19 A. I do.

20 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, this is not
21 relevant to what we are here on. I object. I
22 don't know how many times I am going to have to 23 object before the Court can get Mr. Lumumba's
24 attention, but this is improper.

25 BY THE COURT: I sustain the objection.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Is he supposed to be raising
27 his voice at me? Is that what this is all about?

28 BY THE COURT: The objection is sustained.
29 Move on and ask a question.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

2 Q. Okay. Now this is the Lee County that you are 3 defending, the same one we just got finished talking about;
4 right?

5 A. (No verbal response.)

6 Q. Now you see the next page? Do you see the next
7 page there?

8 A. What page is that, sir?

9 Q. Well, the next page also has that same article
10 about testimony begins in Winona slaying case; is that 11 right? Down in the right hand corner?

12 A. (No response).

13 Q. Right hand corner of the page.

14 A. Where the one says, "Testimony begins in Winona 15 slaying"?

16 Q. Right. Do you see that?

17 A. Yes, I do.

18 Q. Okay. Now if we go to the page after that, turn
19 the page after that. Okay?

20 A. The same article.

21 Q. Okay, in other words, the page which in the top, at 22 the top, on the top line in the middle it says, "That's a 23 wrap-up." Do you see that?

24 A. (Pause) This.

25 Q. "That's a wrap-up." Okay. Are you looking at
26 that?

27 A. I was looking for the word, "That's a wrap-up."

28 Q. You don't see that at the top of the page?

29 A. Yes, sir. I'm sorry.

1 Q. What does it say there on, at the top where it
2 says, "Trial" over on the right hand side?

3 A. Do you want me to read it to you?

4 Q. Yeah, read that where it says, "Trial." Continue--

5 BY MR. HORAN: --Objection, Your Honor.

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

7 Q. Read the first sentence.

8 BY THE COURT: Wait just a minute. What is
9 your objection?

10 BY MR. HORAN: My objection is it's not
11 necessary nor relevant for her to read this 12 article. The question turns on whether or not this 13 article had or was the basis of her opinion or 14 would change her opinion in some way. It's not 15 necessary for her to go back and read the article
16 and now at this point in time maybe form an opinion
17 or ask her her opinion about what she is reading.
18 It is not relevant, Your Honor.

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, he has just conceded
20 that, that the question is whether this would 21 change her opinion in some way. We can't tell
22 whether it would change her opinion until she reads
23 it.

24 BY MR. HORAN: Not change her opinion, Your 25 Honor; ask her about what that means to her when 26 she reads it--

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Hold, hold, hold. That's 28 what you just said.

29 BY MR. HORAN: That's the question he is

1 asking, whether or not, what does that mean to her.

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Is he going to change--

3 BY THE COURT: Do you remember what the 4 question is?

5 BY THE WITNESS: That he asked me?

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I just asked her to read it.
7 I haven't asked her a question.

8 BY THE COURT: Do you remember what he wanted
9 you to do?

10 BY MR. HORAN: Read it.

11 BY THE COURT: Go ahead.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

13 Q. Read it; right.

14 A. Read the entire article?

15 Q. Read the first sentence there.

16 A. "In the opening argument Evans told the jury
17 Flowers' right hand tested positive for gunpowder sued
18 (residue) when he was questioned by police four hours after 19 the shooting."

20 Q. Okay, so he tested positive for gun residue; is 21 that what it says?

22 A. I guess; yes, it does.

23 Q. Okay, and it doesn't say there that the amount of 24 residue was so small you couldn't even see it. It doesn't 25 say that, does it?

26 A. No, it doesn't--

27 BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, this is not
28 relevant--

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --but what--

1                   BY THE COURT:  --Sustained.

2       BY MR. LUMUMBA:

3           Q.    But this is what anybody that read this page would 4       have seen what is written here; right?

5           A.    What is your question--

6                   BY MR. EVANS:  --Again, this is not relevant,
7       what anybody that read this page.  Her opinion is 8       the only one that is before this Court, and I
9       object--

10                  BY MR. LUMUMBA:  --Is that going to be the 11       same when I put my witnesses on the stand?  You can 12       only ask about their opinion?  Is that okay?

13                  BY THE COURT:  Yes, it is.

14                  BY MR. LUMUMBA:  Okay, that's good.  That's 15       good, as long as we all play by the same rules.

16                  BY MR. EVANS:  We will just go through the 17       number of questions that he has asked if that is 18       all right with the Court.

19                  BY THE COURT:  Please don't.

20                  BY MR. LUMUMBA:  Okay.  Judge, I remember when 21       we were here before, and we had some black people
22       out here and they were laughing, and you told them
23       to be quiet.  I am being distracted by the noise in 24       the audience.  Can you take care of it?

25                  BY THE COURT:  Let's don't distract the 26       attorney.

27                  BY MR. LUMUMBA:  Pardon?

28                  BY THE COURT:  I said let's don't distract the 29       attorney.

1                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, all right. I just want
2                   us to play by the same rules. And actually, if 3                   everybody can make noise, it might be all right.

4           BY MR. LUMUMBA:

5           Q.    Now on the next page that has "Local" at the top,
6           do you see the next page that has "Local" at the top? The 7           very next page after the page you were on. It has got a "D"
8           up at the top also. Do you see that one?

9           A.    (No verbal response; Counsel approaches the 10           witness.)

11           Q.    Do you see an article here that talks about the 12           case?

13           A.    Yes, sir.

14           Q.    And you just pointed to it immediately. What was 15           it that brought that article to your attention that made you 16           know it talked about the case?

17           A.    I turned to the page because you asked me to turn
18           the page, sir.

19           Q.    No, my question is you pointed to the article too,
20           didn't you?

21           A.    You asked me to turn the page, and I did.

22           Q.    Listen to my question.

23           A.    Yes, sir.

24           Q.    After-- you turned the page; is that correct?

25           A.    I did as you asked me to do--

26           Q.    And after you turned to page, you pointed to the 27           article; right?

28           A.    Because you asked me to turn the page.

29           Q.    No, no, no. I didn't ask you about turning the

1 page. What I'm asking you now is did you point to the 2 articles once you turned the page?

3 A. Yes, because we was talking about the case.

4 Q. Okay, how did you know that was about the case that 5 you pointed to?

6 A. It had Winona on it because just like you asked me
7 to turn the page.

8 Q. And you can see that right away; right?

9 A. Right, because you asked, right.

10 Q. Okay, and what does it say right away that made you
11 know this right away?

12 A. The Winona-- you said turn the page--

13 Q. --What does it say?

14 A. Do you want me to read the article to you?

15 Q. Why don't you tell me what you saw to let you know
16 it was about this case?

17 A. Because we are talking about Winona and the word
18 "Winona" is in bold, is in big letters--

19 Q. --What does it say?

20 A. "Fellow inmate says Flowers confessed to killings
21 in Winona."

22 Q. Confessed to killings. Did you read that article?

23 A. I will read it now. I probably read it; I don't 24 know. I will read it if you want me to.

25 Q. No, no. I'm asking did you read it at the time?

26 A. Have I read it when?

27 Q. Did you read it back at the time it was published?

28 A. I don't remember. I read the paper every day,
29 Mister. I read articles every day.

1 Q. Did you read this one?

2 A. I might have.

3 Q. "Fellow inmate says Flowers confessed to the 4 killings." Is that what it says?

5 A. Fellow inmates. Is that the one you are referring
6 to.

7 Q. Uh-hum.

8 A. Yes, sir.

9 Q. That's what it says; right?

10 A. Yes, sir.

11 Q. Okay. Then on the next page; turn just to the next 12 page. Do you see anything on the next page about the case?

13 A. The top of the page says "Local," "Local," "State."

14 Q. Yes. Do you see anything there about the case?

15 A. Yes, sir, right under "Local, State."

16 Q. What does it have along with the, along with the 17 article? Does it have anything there with it, any picture or 18 anything?

19 A. Yes, sir.

20 Q. What picture does it have?

21 A. It says, "Defendant."

22 Q. Okay, then it calls him "accused murderer"; is 23 that right?

24 A. Yes, sir.

25 Q. Okay, and then it has got-- that is right here in 26 the page, and it says his name is Curtis Flowers; is that
27 right?

28 A. Just a minute. Yes, sir.

29 Q. Okay. And then it has his picture there and just,

1 we need to describe this for the record. We have got to make
2 a good record on this, okay? So for the record it has his
3 picture there, and he seems to be-- they have his picture
4 there and they refer to him as an "accused murderer."

5 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, I object to going
6 through all this. The article is going to be sent
7 to the Supreme Court if necessary. Him going over
8 what is in the article is irrelevant. The State
9 would object to the procedure that Counsel for the 10 Defendant is following at this time as being 11 irrelevant and immaterial.

12 BY THE COURT: It is already into evidence.

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, is that what-- are you
14 sustaining the objection or not?

15 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir. I am sustaining it
16 as being cumulative. It's in evidence.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. So is the Court ruling
18 is that you can't ask people about things that is 19 in evidence? Is that the Court's ruling?

20 BY THE COURT: No, sir. That is not what I'm 21 ruling.

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, good.

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

24 Q. Okay, now let's go to the next page?

25 A. The next page?

26 Q. Yes, ma'am. Do you see an article there that 27 relates to the case?

28 A. (Pause). Yes, sir.

29 Q. And what does that headlines of that article say?

1           A.    "Witnesses testify to seeing Defendant near murder
2 scene."

3           Q.    Did you read that article?

4           A.    Did I read the article?

5           Q.    Yeah, did you read it--

6           A.    --I might have read it.

7           Q.    Back then?

8           A.    I might have read the article; yes, sir.

9           Q.    I see, okay. And then on the next page there is 10 another article there that says "Winona" up at the top; is 11 that right?

12          A.    The next page?

13          Q.    Yes.

14          A.    Does it say "Local" and "State"?

15          Q.    Uh-hum.

16          A.    Oh, yes. Yes, sir.

17          Q.    Okay, and then it has more information about the 18 case and about what various different witnesses were saying;
19 is that correct?

20          A.    (Pause; no response.)

21          Q.    Does it have that?

22          A.    Yes, sir; it says six, something about six eye
23 witnesses called.

24          Q.    Said what?

25          A.    It said something about six eye witnesses called 26 Tuesday and Wednesday.

27          Q.    Oh, okay.

28          A.    I was just reading the article.

29          Q.    Right, and then they talk about the eye witness

1 saying something about what Flowers did; is that correct?

2 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, I object on the
3 same basis I objected to the last five or six times
4 as to the form of the question and the content.

5 BY THE COURT: Sustained.

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

7 Q. Move to the next page.

8 A. The next page?

9 Q. And what do you see on that page that comes 10 immediately to your attention?

11 A. "Winona slaying trial goes to jury."

12 Q. Okay, and what does it say right under that?

13 A. "Defendant Curtis Flowers proclaims his innocence.
14 He killed four people in the furniture store in July of 15 1976."

16 Q. And then if you go to the--

17 BY MR. HORAN: --Objection, Your Honor. Same 18 objection as to the form and content of the
19 question.

20 BY THE COURT: I will note a continuing 21 objection to that.

22 BY MR. HORAN: Thank you.

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

24 Q. Let us go to the next page and this, by the way, is 25 October 7th if you go to the next one. That page that you
26 are looking at now, what date is that? What date is that 27 from, up in the right hand corner of the page?

28 A. The one with the Winona slaying jury?

29 Q. Uh-hum.

1           A.    October 17th.

2           Q.    Okay, go to the next page.  And it says down in the 3 left hand corner, it says, down about midway on the left-hand
4 side, do you see where it says "Winona"?

5           A.    Yes, sir; I do.

6           Q.    Okay.  Now let's go to the next page.

7           A.    The next page?

8           Q.    Yes, ma'am.  On the right hand side.

9           A.    Yes, sir.

10          Q.    What does it say?

11          A.    "Jury says Flowers guilty, should die."

12          Q.    Okay, did you read that article?

13          A.    I might have.

14          Q.    Were you aware that Mr. Flowers has already been 15 sentenced to death in this case?

16          A.    No.  The case has just been in and out with me.

17          Q.    Oh, so you weren't aware he has been sentenced to 18 death?

19          A.    Well, I have read the case, you know, in and out 20 when--

21          Q.    --but I mean?

22          A.    --when it was going on, but for keeping up with it,
23 I haven't.

24          Q.    When you came in here to testify and they asked you
25 the question if you had an opinion?

26          A.    Yes, sir.

27          Q.    Were you aware when you gave an answer to that 28 question that Mr. Flowers had been sentenced to death in this
29 case?

1           A.    No, because I just read the article.  I didn't keep 2 up with the case.

3           Q.    Okay.  So when you gave your opinion that the 4 county would be fair, you were not aware at that time that
5 Mr. Flowers had been sentenced to death and that the people
6 in the county knew if they read this paper that he had been 7 sentenced to death?

8           A.    What is your question, sir?

9           Q.    When you answered that question-- well, when you
10 first came in here--

11          A.    Yes, sir.

12          Q.    --you were not aware that the people in the 13 community had read a paper saying that Mr. Flowers had been
14 sentenced to death?

15          A.    Was I aware the people in the community had read
16 it?

17          Q.    Yes.

18          A.    I haven't heard them talking to me about it.

19          Q.    I see.

20          A.    I can only talk about what was talked to me about.

21          Q.    And you also did not remember that that was in the 22 paper?

23          A.    No, to be honest, I didn't remember it.

24          Q.    Okay.  And then now you do remember that that not 25 only appeared in the paper, but it was also on TV; isn't that
26 correct?

27          A.    I am sure it was.

28          Q.    You are sure it was?  If you don't-- do you
29 remember having that on TV that he was sentenced to death?

1 Do you remember that?

2 A. I don't remember it really positively saying yes, I
3 remember this and that.

4 Q. Okay, I see.

5 A. The case is irrelevant to me.

6 Q. And then on, if you go to, I think, to the next
7 page.

8 A. Next page?

9 Q. Up at the top it says, "That's a wrap-up."

10 A. Yes, sir.

11 Q. And then it has something down there about trial;
12 is that right?

13 A. Yes, sir.

14 Q. Okay. Okay, then on the next page, go to the next
15 page.

16 A. The next page?

17 Q. Uh-huh. And this, and by the way, if you look over 18 to the right hand side up at the top, what paper is this?

19 A. It says The Commercial Appeal.

20 Q. All right, that is the paper which is sold here in 21 this area; right? Is that correct?

22 A. Yes, it is.

23 Q. Okay, and then what it says over there about, on 24 the left hand side what does it say about this case?

25 A. "Witness sees suspect at furniture store."

26 Q. Now let's go over to the next page.

27 A. The next page?

28 Q. Yes. And then we just want to pass that page and 29 go on to the one after that?

1 A. Skip this one, the next page.

2 Q. The one you see and that is, and that page, what
3 date is that paper from?

4 A. Did you say skip the next page?

5 Q. Yes, please. And then go to the next page, and 6 what date is that from?

7 A. October the 18th, 1997.

8 Q. Okay, what does it say about the case on that page
9 in the headline?

10 A. "Accused killer is sentenced to death at first
11 trial."

12 Q. That is a big headline; is that right?

13 A. Yes, it is.

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. I don't have any other
15 questions.

16 BY THE COURT: Redirect?

17 BY MR. HORAN: Nothing.

18 BY THE COURT: Is she finally excused?

19 BY MR. HORAN: She is.

20 BY THE COURT: Ms. Leeper, you are free to go.

21 WITNESS EXCUSED.

22 BY MR. HORAN: Just to make the record clear,
23 Your Honor, we will probably have some other
24 witnesses. We will have some other witnesses.
25 This is not all our witnesses. We are not resting
26 at this time.

27 BY THE COURT: Okay, who will you have next?

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We would call Ishmael
29 Muhammad.

1                   BY THE COURT: He has been sworn.

2                   ISHMAEL MUHAMMAD,

3 a black male called to testify by the Defendant on his Motion
4 for Change of Venue and having been sworn here previously on 5 this date, testified as follows, to-wit:

6                   BY THE COURT: State your name for the record,
7 please, sir.

8                   BY THE WITNESS: My name is Ishmael Muhammad.

9                   BY THE COURT REPORTER: Would you spell it,
10 please.

11                   BY THE WITNESS: I S H M A E L. M U H A M M A
12 D.

13                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Bear with us, please, just 14 one second, Judge. We are looking for an exhibit
15 here we need.

16 DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

17                   Q. Mr. Muhammad, could you once against share your 18 name with us, please?

19                   A. Ishmael Muhammad.

20                   Q. Okay, and Mr. Muhammad, share with the Court, 21 please, what is your educational background?

22                   A. I went to high school, college and graduate,
23 graduated from law school at the University of Mississippi.

24                   Q. And you graduated from the University of 25 Mississippi, did you?

26                   A. Yes, sir.

27                   Q. And did you receive any honors upon your graduation
28 from law school?

29                   A. Yes, sir. I graduated at the top of my class,

1     seated number 8 in the class, so I had a little honors cord,
2     all that good stuff.

3             Q.     Okay, Mr. Muhammad, were you, are you currently 4     working on a project, a legal project in Jackson,
5     Mississippi?

6             A.     Yes, sir. Upon graduating from law school, I
7     received something called a scouting fellowship which is a
8     public interest fellowship, and it was given to me to 9     basically do workers' rights work in Mississippi.

10            Q.     And were you requested by a group called the NCBL
11     or the National Conference of Black Lawyers to do a project,
12     you and others do a project here in Lee County?

13            A.     Yes, sir. I work with a group called the 14     Mississippi Coalition for Justice and also a group called the 15     Malcolm X Grassroots Movement, and the National Conference of 16     Black Lawyers contacted us to conduct a survey, a jury
17     questionnaire survey of the community in regards to this
18     case.

19            Q.     Is that survey still ongoing at this time?

20            A.     We still have surveys out, but we have been able to 21     do about 75 to 100 so far.

22            Q.     Did you do some yourself personally?

23            A.     Yes, I did.

24            Q.     And based upon the ones that you did, were you able 25     to reach any conclusions-- who did you talk to?

26            A.     We basically talked to residents of Tupelo and 27     people who work in Tupelo. Some people who work in Tupelo, 28     of course, are not residents, but we talked to people in the 29     Tupelo community, and basically we asked them questions about

1 this case and whether they were aware of the case and how
2 they had become aware of the case and their opinion about the 3 Defendant in the case, questions like that.

4 Q. Okay, did you-- were there people-- what county is 5 Tupelo in if you are aware of that?

6 A. I believe it's in Lee County.

7 Q. Right.

8 A. Lee County.

9 Q. And was there information on the questionnaire
10 about whether the people lived and worked in Lee County?

11 A. Yes, it was.

12 Q. Okay, so were you able to ascertain in all the 13 cases whether the people just lived in Tupelo, or were you
14 ascertaining whether they lived in Lee County?

15 A. I believe that based on what was happening there, I
16 believe they were determining whether they lived in Tupelo or 17 not. But they clearly worked in Tupelo, and I think that 18 when they were asked on the questionnaire, they were speaking
19 as if they, whether they lived in Tupelo or not. But 20 everyone we spoke to, everyone I spoke to-- we had about 21 three other people with me conducting this survey. We each 22 did about 25 surveys apiece. Everyone I spoke to lived in 23 Tupelo or in Lee County somewhere.

24 Q. Okay, and did you--

25 A. --But that is not necessarily reflected on the 26 survey all the time because they were answering the question
27 as if they, as if whether or not they lived in Tupelo.

28 Q. Okay. Now your survey, was it called a Lee County
29 survey?

1           A.    Yes.

2           Q.    Or do you remember?

3           A.    Yes, it was.

4           Q.    Now Mr. Muhammad, based upon your interview, and 5 about how many people did you say that you interviewed that 6 you can recall?

7           A.    I spoke to about, personally I spoke to about 8 fifteen people.

9           Q.    Okay.

10          A.    And all in all, we spoke to between 75 and 100 out
11 of the four of us.

12          Q.    Okay, and was the findings with the other people
13 consistent with your findings?

14          A.    Pretty much, yes.

15          Q.    Now let me ask you this. Your own personal 16 findings, what did you find out about people's perception of 17 this particular trial, and you explain in your own words, of 18 this trial and what is on their mind here in Lee County. By 19 the way, did you speak to people in the white community?

20          A.    I spoke to people in, I don't know if it was the 21 white community or the black community, but I basically spoke 22 with mostly white residents here. And the majority, but we 23 spoke to some black people too.

24          Q.    Okay, and go ahead and share with me what the 25 opinion of the people were?

26          A.    For the most part, people were familiar with the 27 case. They were familiar with the fact that the case was 28 brought here from Montgomery County, from Winona. They were 29 familiar with the alleged crime, and for the most part they

1 felt like the Defendant in the case had committed the crime.
2 A couple of people I talked to said they didn't know anything
3 about the case which we thought was kind of hard to believe,
4 but that is neither here nor there, and those people felt
5 free to share their name with us. But mostly people who had 6 an opinion about the case, the opinion was usually negative
7 against the Defendant, and they usually were unwilling to 8 give their names.

9 Q. Okay, I'm going to show you a number of documents
10 and ask you if you can, if you recognize these. They aren't 11 marked yet. I'm just going to ask you if you recognize and 12 then if you do--

13 BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, we would like to 14 review anything that he is going to ask this 15 witness to testify from.

16 BY THE COURT: Before he does that, you will
17 be able to. He just asked him to identify them.

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

19 Q. Are you familiar with those?

20 A. Yeah, these are some of the surveys we conducted
21 that we handed over to you. Most of them are mine. There
22 are two other surveys in there from one of the persons that 23 was conducting the surveys with us.

24 (Documents handed to Mr. Evans.)

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, I would like to have 26 these marked, and I would like to have some 27 opportunity in the future to get copies of these.

28 BY MR. EVANS: Are you talking about for
29 identification?

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, I'm going to ask they be
2 entered into evidence.

3 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I object to these 4 being introduced in evidence. There is nothing on 5 these to authenticate them in any way. There is 6 nothing that states who these people were or if
7 there were, in fact, people. There is no
8 addresses, no names, no nothing on here. I think 9 that it would be improper. Anyone could come in 10 and bring in a list of papers. I think it is 11 improper to use this as a survey without some way
12 of--

13 BY THE COURT: It's admitted. I'm going to 14 admit it for this purpose. He says that is what he 15 based his opinion on, and it is admissible for that 16 purpose. As to whether it's an accurate survey or 17 scientifically done and all like that, the Court is 18 not going to consider it from that standpoint.

19 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

20 BY THE COURT: I will consider it in relation 21 to whether or not it was used for him to form his 22 opinion on this matter. I will admit it. Do you
23 want to admit them as one exhibit?

24 BY MR. HORAN: That's what I was going to 25 say. One exhibit will be fine with the State so
26 she doesn't have to mark them all. If he would 27 staple them all together, it would probably be 28 easier for her.

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, if you would staple

1           them or paper clip, it doesn't make any-- stapling
2           is fine.

3                   (APPROXIMATELY 14 PAGES OF SURVEYS WERE 4           RECEIVED IN EVIDENCE AND MARKED COLLECTIVELY AS 5           DEFENDANT'S EXHIBIT "E" TO THE MOTION FOR CHANGE OF 6           VENUE.)

7                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: By the way, Judge, we are 8           offering these for the purposes you suggested and 9           for all other purposes. It is our position that he
10          has authenticated them. He has said that he talked
11          to people who identified themselves from Lee County
12          and that the people who identified themselves from 13          Lee County-- in fact, you will see on here there is 14          an answer, "Do you live in Lee County?" "Do you 15          work in Lee County?" There is answers to those 16          questions, and if he can authenticate these, you
17          don't need any other authentication. He is a 18          witness. He is under oath. His authentication of 19          the surveys he did is sufficient. And now, you
20          know, it's up to the Court to determine how much
21          weight to give to them, but there certainly is no
22          limitation that should be made on the admissibility
23          of these items.

24                   BY THE COURT: I have admitted them.

25                   BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, as to the other
26          reasons he is offering them, I still object because 27          there is no way that he can even sit up here and 28          say who gave these surveys.

29                   BY THE COURT: And, of course, I have already

1                   addressed that in my ruling, and my ruling stands.

2                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: It didn't go quite all the 3                   way through.

4                   (Mr. Lumumba staples Exhibit "E" again.)

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

6           Q.    Okay, I'm showing you now what is marked as Exhibit
7           number "E" and ask you to share with the Court again what you 8           have there, and if you can go through those documents and 9           tell us the answers that you were able-- do those reflect the 10          answers that you received from the people that you
11          interviewed?

12          A.    Yes, they do.

13          Q.    Do those reflect also the answers of some other
14          interviews that you happened to have in your possession?

15          A.    Yes, they do.

16          Q.    Okay, and could you go through those, please, and 17          tell us what, in fact, was said to you in your questioning?

18          A.    The first question was, "Do you live in Lee 19          County?" The majority of responses to that was yes. The 20          second question was, "Do you work in Lee County?" and the 21          majority of the responses to that was yes.

22                  The third question was, "Have you heard the name of 23          Curtis Flowers?" and the majority of responses to that was 24          yes.

25                  The fourth question was, "Are you familiar with the 26          case in which four people were killed in a Tardy furniture
27          store in July '96 in Winona, Mississippi, and then this case
28          was transferred from Montgomery to Lee County?" The majority 29          of the response was that they had heard of the case. Some

1 people didn't necessarily hear about the venue issue itself.

2 "Do you remember the defendant's name?" There
3 were even responses to that as to whether the defendant's
4 name was Flowers or not. Some people weren't sure.

5 "What is the last thing you remember about the 6 case?" That was the seventh question. Some remembered the 7 last thing being the change of venue. Some remembered the 8 last thing being that the trial was here. Some remembered
9 the last thing being that he was found guilty.

10 "How do you know about the case?" The majority of 11 responses to that was TV, newspaper. No one really heard it
12 on the radio.

13 "Have you talked about the case with other 14 people?" Some had; some had not.

15 "Have you heard anyone else discuss the case?"
16 Some had; some had not. For the most part, several people
17 had discussed the case or heard this case discussed amongst,
18 up to ten other people; the lowest, two other people.

19 "Did the person or persons you heard discuss the 20 case have an opinion about whether the Defendant was guilty
21 or not guilty?" There were some that said people have an 22 opinion that he was guilty, others that is, and some said
23 that no one had any other opinion.

24 And as to the 13, did the person I was interviewing
25 have an opinion as to whether the Defendant was guilty or 26 innocent. The majority of the response to that was yes, that 27 he did it. And the date that we took these surveys was 28 August 29th, these particular ones.

29 Q. Could you look through those, please, and tell me

1 out of those surveys that you have how many-- first of all,
2 how many do you have in your hand there?

3 A. (Pause) I have 14 here.

4 Q. And out of those 14 surveys, how many people in 5 that file had an opinion that the Defendant was guilty?

6 A. (Pause) 10 of the 14.

7 Q. 10 of the 14?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Was that consistent with, was that consistent with 10 the other surveys that you had an opportunity to see?

11 A. Yes, they were.

12 Q. Now can I see that, please?

13 (Pause while Mr. Lumumba looks at the 14 surveys.)

15 Q. Okay. Finally, Mr. Muhammad, is there a place on 16 the form-- first of all, you didn't have any kind of subpoena
17 power or anything, did you?

18 A. No, I didn't.

19 Q. So you couldn't force anybody to give their name
20 then, could you?

21 A. No, I couldn't.

22 Q. And what was the procedure that you went about to 23 try to account, to get names in this case?

24 A. I first asked people if they would basically like 25 to answer the survey. If they didn't, they didn't. If they 26 did, then I asked them the questions. I wrote down the 27 responses. At the end I asked them if they would like to 28 give their name. I tried to explain that it wouldn't get 29 them in any trouble or anything. And they would decide if

1 they would or wouldn't.

2 Q. So some of them give their name?

3 A. Some of them gave me their name.

4 Q. Did some of them refuse to give their name?

5 A. Some of them refused to give their name.

6 Q. Did some of them give a first name?

7 A. Some gave a first name. Some gave a first and last
8 name.

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have no further questions
10 of this witness at this time.

11 CROSS EXAMINATION BY MR. HORAN:

12 Q. Mr. Muhammad, my name is Kevin Horan. I am an 13 assistant district attorney. If I ask you anything that you 14 don't understand, just feel free to either let me rephrase my 15 question or ask me to repeat myself; okay?

16 A. All right.

17 Q. You haven't provided this Court any statistical 18 analysis, have you, as to these questionnaires? Have you?

19 A. In terms of statistical--

20 Q. As to what responses, statistical analysis,
21 percentages. You say most of the people said this. Most of 22 them said that, but you have only provided 14 of the 23 questionnaires. Right?

24 A. That's correct.

25 Q. So you are not providing any statistical or 26 concrete percentages to present to the Judge as to what these 27 responses were or anything like that, are you, here today?

28 A. Provided in my testimony, yes.

29 Q. That is not my question. I said you haven't

1 provided the Court any statistical analysis of your surveys
2 on paper or in writing? You do not--

3 A. --On paper, no, I haven't typed it up a report or
4 anything.

5 Q. And you were working for whom?

6 A. I was working for the Malcolm X Grassroots Movement
7 and the Mississippi Coalition for Justice.

8 Q. Okay, and how did you get involved in this 9 particular survey?

10 A. I was contacted by the National Conference of Black
11 Lawyers.

12 Q. And did you work with Mr. Lumumba in that regard
13 and Mr. Freelon?

14 A. No.

15 Q. You didn't work with them at all. Did they 16 contact, did they ever contact you regarding this particular
17 case?

18 A. Yeah, they have contacted me regarding the case in 19 particular, yeah.

20 Q. Well, they had to contact you to get you up here
21 today?

22 A. Right.

23 Q. And you provided these surveys to them?

24 A. Right.

25 Q. So somehow you became interested in the Flowers
26 case to come to Lee County, did you not?

27 A. Oh, yes. Yeah.

28 Q. Okay, and that was at Mr. Lumumba's involvement?

29 A. No, sir--

1           Q.    You don't know that one way or another.  You do not
2 know that one way or another?

3           A.    Yes, I do--

4                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  --Excuse me; excuse me.  He 5 is drowning out the answer of the witness.  The 6 witness is saying, "No, sir," and "No, sir," and he
7 won't let him finish.

8                   BY MR. HORAN:  He appears perplexed.

9                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  Well, why don't you let the-- 10 well, sir--

11                  BY THE COURT:  --None of y'all can speak at 12 the same time--

13                  BY MR. LUMUMBA:  --when you finish your class
14 at the University of Mississippi, then you come in 15 here and call this man--

16 BY THE WITNESS:

17           A.    I know how I got involved in the case, and I know
18 that it wasn't at the behest of Attorney Lumumba.

19           Q.    Okay, that is my question.  You did not get 20 involved through his office?

21           A.    No, I did not.

22           Q.    Now you interviewed approximately fifteen people
23 yourself?

24           A.    Yes, I did.

25           Q.    At it's your testimony on direct examination that 26 two of those people hadn't even heard about the case?

27           A.    Yes.

28           Q.    Is that right?

29           A.    That's right.

1           Q.    Two of the people you interviewed out of
2           approximately fifteen people just here in Tupelo. You didn't 3           go to Nettleton, did you?

4           A.    (Witness shakes his head.)

5           Q.    You didn't go to Shannon?

6           A.    Uh-uh.

7           Q.    You didn't go to Baldwyn. You didn't go to the 8           other 25 or 30 small communities. You were right here in 9           Tupelo; right?

10          A.    Right.

11          Q.    You didn't go to those other communities?

12          A.    No. Some of them--

13          Q.    --And two of the fourteen that you have provided
14          here hadn't even heard about the case?

15          A.    That's what they said.

16          Q.    And another four didn't have an opinion as to 17          whether or not he was guilty or not?

18          A.    (Witness shakes his head.)

19          Q.    You said ten of the fourteen, or maybe those two 20          are included. Four didn't have an opinion?

21          A.    Right, part of the same. Two didn't even hear
22          about it, so they couldn't and two more had no opinion.

23          Q.    Right. So four out of the fourteen didn't have an 24          opinion?

25          A.    Well, actually, that is the correction. One had an 26          opinion, but we didn't get it documented. They said yes,
27          they had an opinion, but we didn't get it documented. So I
28          didn't count that one.

29          Q.    So you didn't document that on that survey?

1           A.    Well, ten had the opinion that the Defendant was 2 guilty.

3           Q.    Now this survey is not scientific, is it? This is 4 not a scientific survey?

5           A.    I mean--

6           Q.    I mean my question to you--

7           A.    --I think it was scientific, yeah. I talked to 8 people. It's a survey. It's just like a Gallup Poll or a
9 CNN poll. You take a representative of the community and ask
10 them questions.

11          Q.    My question is it's not scientific to the extent
12 that you have provided any statistical analysis of what you
13 got?

14          A.    Again, in my testimony I am providing statistical 15 analysis. I am telling you--

16                BY MR. LUMUMBA:  --Excuse me; excuse me,
17 Judge. If he-- objection. I have got a calculator
18 here if we want to figure out what percentage of 19 people--

20                BY MR. HORAN:  --Well, we can't because we 21 only have fourteen of them, Your Honor. We don't 22 have the whole hundred. We only have fourteen of 23 them.

24                BY MR. LUMUMBA:  Well, we will make--

25                BY MR. HORAN:  --he is saying mostly--

26                BY MR. LUMUMBA:  --No, no, no--

27                BY MR. HORAN:  --I am just asking him--

28                BY MR. LUMUMBA:  --That is not proper.

29                BY THE COURT:  --The question is asked and

1                   answered already.

2                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: We will make all 75
3                   available. That is not--

4 BY MR. HORAN:

5           Q.    --We don't have all the surveys, do we?

6           A.    Not right there, no.

7           Q.    But your testimony here today to this Court is just 8           mostly what people told you, and their response were mostly 9           this and mostly that?

10          A.    Over 75 percent. If you want to hear a figure, it 11          was over 75 percent that felt that the Defendant did the 12          crime.

13          Q.    Do you have any idea how many people are registered
14          to vote in Lee County?

15          A.    No, sir.

16          Q.    Would you be surprised if it's probably around
17          50,000 people in this county, and you interviewed a hundred 18          of them?

19          A.    I wouldn't be surprised.

20          Q.    And you interviewed less than one percent of the 21          electorate?

22          A.    If that's your testimony. I wouldn't be surprised.

23          Q.    But you are saying y'all interviewed no more than a 24          hundred?

25          A.    And I also said that the survey is ongoing, so at a
26          later day we can give you more figures, I am sure, if you
27          want--

28          Q.    --Okay, but you are going to continue to stop
29          people on the streets here in town and ask them and bring to

1 their attention that the Flowers case is going to be tried
2 here in some instances? Is that your testimony?

3 A. We don't seek to bring attention to anything except 4 to the extent that we might as the Grassroots Movement or the 5 Mississippi Coalition for Justice have a press conference
6 about what has been going on in the trial or anything like
7 that.

8 Q. Okay, now are you doing surveys in any other parts
9 of the state at this time?

10 A. We are only conducting them in Lee County.

11 Q. In Lee County, this trial. Do y'all not have any 12 other interests in any other trials in the state other than 13 this particular trial?

14 A. Well, first of all--

15 Q. --Answer my question yes or no.

16 A. I am answering your question.

17 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, I would like for 18 him to answer yes or no.

19 BY THE COURT: Wait a minute, Mr. Horan. You 20 may--

21 BY THE WITNESS:

22 A. --The Malcolm X Grassroots Movement is a national 23 organization as well as the Mississippi Coalition for 24 Justice. We work on projects like this in other states. We 25 work on projects like this in other cities, and I don't 26 necessarily know what other people are working on. So I
27 can't say-- I know the work that I am doing.

28 Q. To your knowledge, are y'all doing any work on any 29 other trials in the State of Mississippi at this time?

1           A.    Me, no. I can't do that much work, but the Malcolm
2 X Grassroots Movement Chapter and the Mississippi Coalition
3 for Justice Chapter, I am sure they are doing some other work
4 on other cases where they perceive injustice or wrong being
5 done. That is part of our commitment as a public interest
6 organization; yes, sir.

7           Q.    And you came up here one day, the 29th of August;
8 is that correct?

9           A.    Personally I did, yes.

10          Q.    And you had three other workers; is that right,
11 three other workers came up?

12          A.    Yes, sir.

13          Q.    Did they come up on the same date or different
14 dates?

15          A.    We came up together that day.

16          Q.    Do you converse with them on a regular basis?

17          A.    Weekly.

18          Q.    You talk to them about what they are doing?

19          A.    Right.

20          Q.    To your knowledge, are they working on any other
21 trial in the State of Mississippi at this time other than 22 this particular case?

23                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Objection. It's irrelevant,
24 Judge.

25                   BY THE COURT: It has already been asked and 26 answered. Let's move on.

27 BY MR. HORAN:

28          Q.    To your knowledge, are they--

29                   BY THE COURT: --Sustained. The objection is

1                   sustained.

2                   BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, I haven't asked him
3                   that particular question.

4                   BY THE COURT: Well, let's move on.

5                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, I withdraw my 6                   objection. If he wants to know that, let him
7                   answer that.

8                   BY MR. HORAN: It goes to his bias, Your 9                   Honor, his interest and bias as to why they are up
10                  here on this particular case--

11                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: --I withdraw my objection.

12 BY MR. HORAN:

13                  Q. To your knowledge, are they working on any other 14                  cases?

15                  A. They have worked on other cases. To my knowledge, 16                  I don't know if they are working on other cases now or not.

17                  Q. At this time? Your testimony here on direct and 18                  cross-examination is that y'all conducted this survey in 19                  Tupelo, in the City of Tupelo, in this particular, in this 20                  area?

21                  A. In Tupelo, yeah.

22                  Q. Did you go-- were you on Main Street? Did you go 23                  to people's residences?

24                  A. No, sir. We were on Main Street. We were on 25                  Gloster. I think that's what it is called.

26                  Q. Heavily traveled streets here in town?

27                  A. Yes, sir.

28                  Q. Okay, and it's your testimony that you made no
29                  effort to go to Nettleton or Shannon or any other community

1 to talk to some of the other 50,000 voters?

2 A. Not that I did, no, sir.

3 BY MR. HORAN: No further questions.

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Let me ask just a couple of 5 questions in redirect.

6 REDIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

7 Q. The survey asked, "Do you live in Lee County," and 8 "Do you work in Lee County?" Is that correct?

9 A. Yes, it does.

10 Q. Okay, so, in fact, these people could have lived
11 anywhere in Lee County; is that correct?

12 A. Yes, sir.

13 Q. Okay, and do you know whether or not Tupelo is the 14 county seat, the place where the courthouse is and all that?

15 A. I know this is the center of activity, so we came
16 here.

17 Q. Did you have any reason to believe that people from 18 other parts of the county would not come to Tupelo?

19 A. No, I don't.

20 Q. Okay, now let me ask you, ask you about working on 21 other cases. Are you familiar with case of John Buford 22 Erving?

23 A. Yes, I am.

24 Q. Has the organizations which you referred to done
25 work on that case?

26 A. Yes, they have.

27 Q. Are you familiar-- is that in Mississippi?

28 A. That's in Mississippi.

29 Q. And where, what county was that in?

1           A.    He was in Parchman. I think that was in Pontotoc.

2           Q.    Pontotoc. Okay, have you ever heard of a case of 3 Christopher Marshall which was tried in Batesville,
4 Mississippi?

5           A.    Yes, I have.

6           Q.    And are you familiar with the fact that that arose
7 in Senatobia, up in--

8           A.    At the Batesville area.

9           Q.    Yeah, well, in Batesville, Mississippi.

10           BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, I object to the 11 line of questioning. I asked him what he was 12 currently working on. I did not go into anything
13 he worked on in the past. It's outside the scope
14 of cross.

15           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, not really, Judge, 16 because if he is trying to reflect biases if 17 somebody is just coming up here to jump on his 18 case, I think that--

19           BY MR. HORAN: --I will withdraw. If it's 20 that important to him, I will withdraw.

21           BY THE COURT: Well, but you didn't ask him
22 whether he was involved with that case in Senatobia
23 or Batesville. You asked him had he heard of it.

24           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Pardon?

25           BY THE COURT: You asked him had he heard of
26 it.

27           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Oh, okay.

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

29           Q.    Have you been--

1           A.    --Yes, we were.

2           Q.    Were you or other people that you work with 3 involved in that case?

4           A.    Other people in the Mississippi Coalition for 5 Justice as well as other people in Malcolm X Grassroots--

6           Q.    Have you heard of the case of Andre Jones, the 7 death of Andre Jones down in Simpson County?

8           A.    Yes, sir. We have.

9           Q.    Okay, are the Mississippi Coalition for Justice
10 involved in work on that case?

11          A.    Currently, we are.

12          Q.    Okay. Now you have heard of the case of Elliott
13 Coke from Holmes County?

14          A.    Yeah, Elliott Coke.

15          Q.    And was any work done on that case?

16          A.    Yes, it was.

17          Q.    By your organization?

18          A.    Yes, it was.

19          Q.    Okay. You have heard of the case in Oktibbeha
20 County of Boyd.

21          A.    Dwayne Boyd?

22          Q.    Dwayne Boyd; right.

23          A.    Yes, I heard of that.

24          Q.    Was work done on that case?

25          A.    Yeah, we worked on that case. I didn't necessarily 26 personally go.

27          Q.    Now just to, what time did you come up here in the 28 morning? What time did you leave to come up here about?

29          A.    7:00 or something like that.

1 Q. Okay, and when you left, did you forget anything?

2 A. I mean I didn't have all of the surveys with me
3 because some of my other workers had some of them.

4 Q. Can you make the other surveys available?

5 A. Yes, sir.

6 Q. If they really want to see them?

7 A. Yes, I can.

8 Q. Okay, were the surveys, and so were those surveys
9 consistent--

10 A. --Yes, they were.

11 Q. --percentage-wise with those there?

12 A. Yes, they were.

13 BY MR. EVANS: For the record, Your Honor, any 14 that have names on them, we would like to see them.

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Those have the names on them,
16 some of them. Do you want to call these people?
17 They are here.

18 BY THE COURT: Any further questions of him?

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We don't have any other
20 questions.

21 BY THE COURT: Is he finally excused?

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes, sir. He is excused.

23 BY THE COURT: Mr. Muhammad, you are free to 24 go.

25 WITNESS EXCUSED.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, I would like before we 27 end here today if I can have a chance to get copies 28 of these?

29 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir. You can do that.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I appreciate it. I would
2 like also just a moment of the Court's time to
3 check and see. I may have one final witness.

4 BY THE COURT: All right, sir.

5 (Mr. Lumumba left the courtroom briefly.)

6 (UPON HIS RETURN, A VIDEOTAPE WAS MARKED AS 7 DEFENDANT'S EXHIBIT "F" TO THE MOTION FOR CHANGE OF 8 VENUE.)

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We have asked to be received
10 into evidence a videotape of footage from WTVA
11 television, and in addition to-- and that is here
12 in Tupelo. And we have, which more or less
13 corresponds with information on this tape, Exhibit
14 "B" which is in evidence already or I believe. I
15 move for admission of Exhibit "B." I don't know
16 whether it's in evidence or not.

17 BY THE COURT: What is Exhibit "B"?

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Exhibit "B" is what they call
19 the script. In other words, this is what--

20 BY THE COURT: --basically what is on the tape,
21 you are saying?

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah. See, it wouldn't be 23 everything on the tape. It's like what the anchor
24 person reads.

25 BY MR. HORAN: Off the roll?

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah. And then what, and 27 then, you know, the person on the scene who is 28 handling it every day, you know, that is on the 29 tape also.

1 BY THE COURT: What is the date?

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: The date, there is several
3 different dates on here. They stem all the way
4 from 7/16/96 to the end of the trial which I
5 believe is October 18, '96.

6 BY THE COURT: Okay.

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: October 18, '97.

8 BY THE COURT: All right, any objection?

9 BY MR. HORAN: No, sir.

10 BY THE COURT: Let them be marked. Let her
11 mark--

12 BY MR. HORAN: --We request that they be.

13 BY THE COURT: Have you marked them?

14 BY THE COURT REPORTER: Yes, sir.

15 BY MR. HORAN: Has she already marked them?

16 BY THE COURT: Okay, they are admitted.

17 BY MR. HORAN: I would like for-- as a matter
18 of being like we have done in the past, make the 19 roll be an "A" exhibit to the tape.

20 BY THE COURT: Yeah, we can do that. What is 21 the number on--

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: This is "B."

23 BY THE COURT: That is "B."

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: And this is "F."

25 BY MR. HORAN: Well, it is too late now.

26 BY THE COURT: Okay, that will work. Let the 27 record reflect that Exhibit "B" is the text or 28 closely the text of what is on or in Exhibit "F."
29 Is that right?

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, that is true. Now you
2 may find a couple of--

3 BY THE COURT: --I understand it may not be
4 exactly the same.

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: They may have come up with 6 one thing on the video that they couldn't find the 7 tape.

8 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, if we don't know
9 for sure, why don't we just introduce the tape and 10 leave the transcript out if we don't know if that's 11 what is on the tape or not because I don't think
12 anything--

13 BY THE COURT: It's just for my 14 consideration. It is okay. We will let it in.

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: It doesn't matter to me, but 16 I offer them for the Judge so he can maybe look at 17 them and doesn't have to look at the tape every 18 time he wants to think about something. So this 19 is-- I would move for the admission of all the 20 exhibits that I have put before the Court on this
21 issue, and that is Exhibit "A" which are--

22 BY THE COURT: They are already admitted.

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Already admitted, I think,
24 okay. All of these are admitted; right?

25 BY THE COURT: All your newspaper articles are 26 admitted, and your tape is admitted, and I have 27 admitted Mr. Muhammad's document.

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Questionnaires, okay. So I
29 think that is all the evidence that we have. I

1 will put this tape in a box. We are, we do have a
2 video, a VCR and a monitor down in my car, and we
3 would offer to show it, the Court the opportunity
4 to look at it the first time with the rest of us,
5 but that is up to the Court, however he wants to do
6 it. But we are in a position where we could play
7 it.

8 We had one other witness who they were 9 checking on, a Mr. Stanphill. Can I inquire to the 10 Court and inquire of the State if they have any 11 other witnesses?

12 BY MR. EVANS: We do.

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: You do? Can I ask that they 14 proceed, and then we will let you know whether 15 Stanphill is coming or not? He had another trial
16 he was participating in.

17 BY THE COURT: I will let you call him out of 18 order.

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, all right.

20 BY MR. EVANS: We would call Sheriff Presley
21 at this time, Your Honor.

22 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, also I think the 23 Clerk has a VCR and TV upstairs, do you not?

24 BY THE CLERK: We have one here.

25 BY MR. HORAN: In the grand jury room.

26 BY THE COURT: Sheriff, come around and be 27 sworn, please, sir.

28 HAROLD RAY PRESLEY,
29 a white male called to testify as a witness by the State on

1 the Defendant's Motion for Change of Venue, having first been
2 duly sworn, testified as follows, to-wit:

3 BY THE COURT: State your name for the record,
4 please.

5 BY THE WITNESS: Sheriff Harold Ray Presley.

6 BY MR. EVANS: May I proceed, Your Honor?

7 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

8 DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. EVANS:

9 Q. Sheriff Presley, how long have you been in law
10 enforcement?

11 A. Ten years.

12 Q. And how long have you lived in Lee County?

13 A. All my life.

14 Q. All right, Sheriff. As being Sheriff, you are 15 familiar with this case against Curtis Flowers; is that
16 correct?

17 A. Yes, sir.

18 Q. And do you, I assume as being an elected official,
19 get out in the community and see people pretty regularly?

20 A. Yes, sir.

21 Q. Also because of the nature of your job, you get out
22 and talk to people all over the county; is that right?

23 A. Yes, sir.

24 Q. Sheriff, do you know of any sentiment in the 25 community that would make it to the point that this community
26 for any reason is unduly interested in this Flowers case?

27 A. No, sir.

28 Q. Did you pretty well read the articles that were in 29 the newspaper when this trial happened before?

1           A.    I, when it first came out I, you know, did, and
2   then I sort of tapered off on them. I didn't, you know--

3           Q.    All right, Sheriff, as far as your personal
4   beliefs, your opinions from, of the people in this community,
5   do you feel that the people of Lee County could give Curtis
6   Flowers a fair trial and base their decisions on guilt or 7   innocence on the evidence that they heard on the witness
8   stand?

9           A.    Yes, sir; I do.

10          Q.    Have you heard any uproar in the community about 11   any groups that are doing a lot of talking about the case or 12   even care one way or the other as far as the facts of the 13   case?

14          A.    I haven't heard any.

15          Q.    And it's your belief that Curtis Flowers could get 16   a fair trial in Lee County?

17          A.    Yes, sir; I do.

18                   BY MR. EVANS: I will tender the witness, Your
19   Honor.

20   CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

21          Q.    Sheriff, how long have you been in law enforcement?

22          A.    Ten years.

23          Q.    Ten years?

24          A.    Yes, sir.

25          Q.    Okay, you have been in law enforcement as the 26   Sheriff for that long?

27          A.    No, sir. I am in my sixth year as Sheriff.

28          Q.    What were you before that?

29          A.    I'm sorry. I'm in my fifth year as Sheriff.

1 Q. Okay.

2 A. I worked in the grocery business.

3 Q. Okay, and Sheriff, so you, I assume that you are 4 involved in investigating and prosecuting crimes which occur
5 in Lee County?

6 A. I don't do the investigations on it. I have an
7 investigator to do-- you know, we will go out together. I
8 work mostly with narcotics people. We go out and work
9 narcotics. I don't work the cases for them. I help search,
10 stuff like that.

11 Q. Okay, but basically your job is to-- you are 12 involved with law enforcement; is that correct?

13 A. Yes, sir.

14 Q. And I mean most people when they have a job often 15 have, you know, their perceptions of things are to some 16 extent affected by what they do; right?

17 A. I, I guess.

18 Q. Well, I mean what do you think, Sheriff? I'm not 19 trying to put words in your mouth.

20 A. Well--

21 Q. You have been an officer for ten years. You think 22 that doesn't affect the way you think?

23 A. No, sir.

24 Q. It doesn't affect the way you think?

25 A. No, sir. You know, I go out and look for the, you
26 know, the evidence. I don't--

27 Q. Well, no, I'm not saying you don't look for 28 evidence. But what I'm saying is that you respect the work
29 of other law enforcement officers?

1           A.    Yes, sir; I do.

2           Q.    Okay.  And if you were sitting on a jury and you
3 were asked this question, to look, Sheriff, if an officer was 4 to testify about something--

5                   BY MR. EVANS:  Your Honor, that is not
6 relevant to what that motion is on.

7                   BY THE COURT:  How is it relevant?

8                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  I will move on.

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

10          Q.    You would agree that-- have you ever had any--
11 well, when the case came here last time and it was tried, did
12 you have any contact with any of the officials who were 13 trying the case?

14          A.    No, sir.  My chief deputy handled all that, the 15 security.

16          Q.    Okay, and you assigned him to the case; is that
17 correct?

18          A.    Sir?

19          Q.    You assigned him to the case?

20          A.    Yes, sir.

21          Q.    All right.  Did you ever talk with him about what 22 he was doing?

23          A.    No, sir.  At times I was seeing him.  He would say 24 they would go to the motel room at night or something like 25 that, you know.

26          Q.    So has anybody ever told you-- would you be-- it
27 would be safe to say that you are aware that the case has 28 been tried in Lee County once before; right?

29          A.    Yes, sir.

1 Q. You are aware of the fact that he has been found
2 guilty and sentenced to death?

3 A. Yes, sir.

4 Q. You are aware of the fact that most of the people
5 in this community would be aware of that too; right?

6 A. I don't know. I don't, I couldn't answer that.

7 Q. Well, is there a paper here?

8 A. Yeah.

9 Q. Did the paper carry it?

10 A. Yeah, but there is a lot of people that don't read
11 papers either, you know.

12 Q. Well, I haven't finished yet. Did the paper carry
13 it?

14 A. Yeah.

15 Q. In fact, did they carry it every day of the trial?

16 A. What now?

17 Q. Every day of the trial?

18 A. I am sure they did.

19 Q. Sometimes they had big headlines, Flowers
20 Convicted, Sentenced to Death; right?

21 A. I guess. I don't know. It done passed. I don't 22 remember seeing it. I remember seeing it, but I don't 23 remember what it said.

24 Q. Did the TV carry it?

25 A. I am sure they did.

26 Q. Did they have all in there what was going on at the 27 trial?

28 A. I am sure they did.

29 Q. Okay. And so have you talked to anyone who

1 expressed an opinion about the case?

2 A. No, sir. I have not.

3 Q. So nobody has ever told you they wouldn't--

4 A. Nobody what now?

5 Q. No one has ever told you they wouldn't be biased
6 against Mr. Flowers; is that correct?

7 A. No, sir. Ain't nobody, I never spoke to anybody
8 about the trial.

9 Q. And having-- knowing what you know and if you were 10 here to actually being asked by the Judge yourself if you
11 could be totally fair and impartial -- now being fair and 12 impartial in this case, what would that mean? Would that 13 mean--

14 BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, that is not the 15 question we are here on today. This is a law
16 enforcement officer, chief law enforcement officer
17 in this county. He is only here for the purpose of 18 the change of venue motion to be asked his opinion
19 of whether the people in this county could be fair
20 and impartial.

21 BY THE COURT: That is true. Sustained.

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

23 Q. So no one has told you they could be fair and 24 impartial?

25 A. Nobody has told me anything about the case; no,
26 sir.

27 Q. They haven't told you they could be fair and 28 impartial?

29 A. No, sir. Nobody ever told me nothing about the

1 case.

2 Q. And you never asked anybody about it?

3 A. No, sir.

4 Q. I see. But you know it has been the subject of 5 publications in this county?

6 A. Yes, sir.

7 Q. And a lot of publicity has been on this issue in 8 this county; isn't that correct?

9 A. What now?

10 Q. At the time of the trial there was a lot of 11 publicity around this case. Isn't that true?

12 A. Yes, sir. I am sure there was.

13 Q. So not having talked to anybody about this, you 14 really can't express the opinion of a person that has never 15 expressed it to you; right?

16 A. No, sir. But I believe that--

17 Q. --Listen to my question.

18 A. --a person is going to--

19 Q. --Listen to my question. Can you give us the 20 opinion of a person who has never told you what their opinion
21 was?

22 A. I can't give you an opinion because I wouldn't know
23 what somebody else thinks.

24 BY MR. EVANS: Object, Your Honor. He has 25 been asked his personal opinion, not the opinion of 26 other people.

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Which, Judge, I would ask be
28 stricken because that is absolutely worthless. I
29 mean unless, unless he is called as a juror himself

1           -- they are going to complain about 15 different
2           people who have personally been interviewed which 3           is consistent with 75 people and then actually have 4           the nerve to tell this Court that we should 5           consider the opinion of one person when you have 6           got, you have got 75 people who have been
7           interviewed, and they have contrary opinions? I
8           mean obviously, I should be able to ask questions
9           to see if his opinion is based on anything other
10          than his own personal perceptions as a Sheriff.

11                BY THE COURT: You can ask what his opinion is 12                based on.

13       BY MR. LUMUMBA:

14           Q.    So if someone was to tell you hypothetically, which 15           we have had evidence to support this-- do you know, by the 16           way, who Walter Stanphill is?

17           A.    I have heard the name.

18           Q.    Works for Legal Services?

19           A.    Yes, sir.

20           Q.    Okay. If somebody was to tell you that he had an 21           opinion on the case, that wouldn't surprise you, would it?

22                BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I object again. We 23                are going through the same thing. This has nothing 24                to do with this witness. It is not relevant to his 25                testimony.

26                BY THE COURT: It sure doesn't. That is
27                sustained.

28                BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes, Judge. I have nothing
29                else of this witness.

1 BY MR. EVANS: Very briefly, Your Honor.

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Excuse me a second.

3 REDIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. EVANS:

4 Q. Sheriff, would it be true that you talk with people
5 in the community about their interests every day?

6 A. Yes, sir; I do.

7 Q. And this topic has never come up when you were 8 around people talking with them as far as any interest that 9 they had in this case?

10 A. No, sir.

11 Q. And that's all over Lee County?

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Objection. He is leading his 13 own witness.

14 BY THE COURT: Sustained. Sustained as to 15 leading. Rephrase your question.

16 BY MR. EVANS:

17 Q. What area would that be in? What parts of Lee
18 County?

19 A. That I work? I mean--

20 Q. Yes, sir.

21 A. The whole county.

22 BY MR. EVANS: Nothing further, Your Honor.

23 BY THE COURT: Is he finally excused?

24 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

25 BY THE COURT: Sheriff, thank you.

26 WITNESS EXCUSED.

27 BY THE COURT: Who will you have next?

28 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, at this point-- we 29 took this witness out of turn. It's the Defense is

1 still going. I mean yeah, the Defense is still
2 going forward.

3 BY THE COURT: Well, my understanding was they 4 hadn't determined whether or not that man is going
5 to be here to testify, and that y'all were going to 6 go forward and put yours on, and then I would let 7 them take that out of turn if they--

8 BY MR. EVANS: As far as I know, that is all
9 we are going to have. That's all we anticipate 10 having at this point. Of course, it may depend on 11 what else they put on.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, let me just say then 13 if that's their position at this time, what I would 14 request the Court's permission to do is to play the 15 tape now, and then if our other witness can be 16 here, and he was, I will say he was subpoenaed.
17 But also, it was late notice, and he did tell me he 18 was working on another case for Legal Services. So
19 I would like to play the tape, and then if he is 20 going to show, we will put him on first thing after 21 lunch.

22 BY THE COURT: We are going to get through 23 with this motion before anybody gets to lunch,
24 including the Judge.

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, all right.

26 BY THE COURT: Have you got a VCR?

27 BY THE CLERK: Let me see. The grand jury is 28 back there. Let me see what we can work out.

29 BY THE COURT: We will take a short break

1           until she gets it.

2                   (FOLLOWING A BRIEF RECESS ON SEPTEMBER 2, 3 1998, THE HEARING CONTINUED WITH ALL COUNSEL AND
4 THE DEFENDANT PRESENT AS FOLLOWS:)

5           BY THE COURT: I am ready if y'all are.

6           BY MR. HORAN: Push the play button.

7           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can you see it?

8           BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

9           BY MR. HORAN: Top right; right there in the 10 circle.

11                   (THE VIDEOTAPED MARKED AS DEFENDANT'S EXHIBIT
12 "F" WAS PLAYED IN OPEN COURT SHOWING SCENES FROM 13 TARDY FURNITURE STORE, INTERVIEW WITH SAM JONES, 14 MAYOR SIMMONS, POLICE CHIEF JOHNNY HARGROVE, AND 15 VARIOUS NEWS REPORTS DURING THE TRIAL.)

16                   (TAPE WAS PLAYED THROUGH SEVERAL REPORTS UNTIL 17 THERE WAS THE FOLLOWING:)

18           BY THE COURT: Is there supposed to be talking
19 now?

20           BY MR. EVANS: Apparently this is footage that 21 they copied but never showed on TV.

22           BY THE COURT: They didn't? Okay.

23                   (THAT WAS FOLLOWED BY THE SHOWING OF MORE NEWS
24 ACCOUNTS CONCERNING THE TRIAL AND CONCLUDED WITH 25 THE FOLLOWING:)

26           BY MR. LUMUMBA: So Judge, that is Exhibit
27 "F."

28           BY THE COURT: All right, sir.

29           BY MR. LUMUMBA: We don't have any other

1 witnesses at this time. What we would move this
2 Court to do is to continue this hearing to a day
3 next week. Several of our witnesses were unable to 4 make it today. They had prior commitments, and we
5 probably have another half an hour to an hour worth
6 of testimony. Plus there is a tape which is being 7 sent to us from the Columbus station which also 8 shows footage here in Jackson-- in Tupelo, I'm 9 sorry. And we would like to enter that into 10 evidence, and we would like to enter into evidence
11 the remainder of the surveys. So I would ask the 12 Court to continue this matter for that amount of 13 time and then take up some evidence.

14 I think as the Court has already reflected on 15 and said that the issue of change of venue is 16 always an active issue up to and including the 17 selection of the jury process. So I would like to 18 have that opportunity to do so. I would be 19 prepared at this time to submit an argument on the 20 evidence to this point and then to let the other
21 evidence be submitted without argument at such time
22 as the date and time that this Court should 23 designate. That is our, and that is my position at 24 this time.

25 BY THE COURT: Okay. The Court has no time to 26 hear this matter any further before the trial of 27 this case, and you should have had those witnesses
28 here today. So that part of the motion is 29 overruled. I will hear from you on your motion

1           though.

2           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, regardless of whether
3           the Court receives our exhibits or not, we are 4           certainly going to submit them to the Court because 5           my understanding of the law is that anything which 6           bears upon the jurisdiction is certainly 7           significant up until and including the date of 8           trial but--

9           BY THE COURT: You may be right, and I may let 10          those in. I'm just saying I'm not going to have 11          another evidentiary hearing between now and the 12          time of trial.

13          BY MR. LUMUMBA: All right. Well, we will 14          submit affidavits to the Court. Let me say this,
15          is that we have seen voluminous publicity. If you
16          take the culmination of exhibits which we have 17          presented into evidence; we have papers, The 18          Clarion Ledger, and I think that was in the first
19          set of exhibits that we called Exhibits in Support
20          of Motion for Change of Venue. Many Clarion Ledger
21          articles that talk about the case, the 22          investigation of the triple slaying, the arrest of 23          Curtis Flowers, the trial itself, I think this
24          paper covers, The Clarion Ledger actually covers
25          when Flowers was arrested. It understandably
26          covers sentimental things and emotional, the 27          emotions of the community which rightfully was very 28          emotionally shocked by the killings, Winona dealing 29          with the shock of the slayings.

1           In the publicity on TV as well as in the
2 newspaper, early on there was speculation about a
3 disgruntled employee could have been involved, and
4 then they have a year later in The Clarion Ledger
5 and the other papers a remembrance of the event;
6 that would have been about July of 1997. You had 7 when Curtis Flowers was arrested in Texas. They 8 say "captured in Texas." Despite the fact he 9 wasn't running from anybody and despite the fact
10 that he was living very visibly and they didn't 11 have to put it on America's Most Wanted or send the 12 people out to search for him, and he came home
13 about every other weekend, they say captured in 14 Texas.

15           And then they say ex-employee held in Winona
16 slayings. They go on to give the theory about why
17 he is guilty; police making all kinds of statements
18 about what he is supposed to have done, didn't do.
19 That was in the Ledger. That was in the Memphis
20 paper, The Commercial Appeal. That was in the 21 local paper, the Tupelo Daily Journal as well as 22 the-- well, it is now called the Northeast
23 Mississippi Daily Journal. It talked about the 24 jury selection, and then we get off into the trial
25 itself. The prosecution's statements and big 26 headlines, "Defendant killed Winona Store Owner,
27 Three Others for Revenge, Prosecutor Says."
28 Interestingly enough, there is never any headlines
29 about what the defense attorney said.

1           "Flowers Admits to Slayings, Inmates Say" and
2           I will return to that. That is the next headlines,
3           and that is consistent with the other headlines in 4           other papers which continued to be put upon the 5           community here. Witnesses say she saw Flowers
6           leaving the Winona murder scene.

7           Then Flowers, the only headline that we have
8           got out of all these papers that said anything
9           about Flowers and suggested that he may not be 10          guilty was "Flowers Denies Shooting, Killing Winona
11          Store Owner." That headline is buried amongst all 12          the others, tested immediately in the other part of 13          the article headline, "Test Reveals Gun Residue."
14          They don't say that it is infinitesimal and you
15          probably couldn't see it, that it is difficult to 16          see with a microscope.

17          But then they go on to say "Jury Orders Death 18          Penalty for Flowers." They talk about the 19          conviction and the sentence, and I'm not going to 20          go through all these, every paper, but essentially
21          that's what they say in all the papers. They go
22          through this in great detail. They highlight the 23          evidence with great detail, and of course, the 24          State knows when it decides to try a person four 25          different times for the same acts, even though they 26          arise out of the same event, it should have been 27          tried in one case, which we have already 28          discussed. It has to take whatever legal 29          consequences, you know, occurs because of that.

1           And what the legal consequence of the trial in this
2           case in this community is, is that this community
3           is incapable of sitting down and giving this a fair
4           hearing.

5           The law is, for those in the courtroom who
6           don't remember it, and I can understand why a lot
7           of people might forget because when you are 8           personally involved, and all of us have been 9           personally affected from time to time--

10          BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, I object, and I
11          am tired of these sly comments reflected to me. I
12          don't know about the ones to the Court, but I'm 13          tired of the ones reflected to me. If he cannot 14          address me with respect, he doesn't need to be up
15          here talking.

16          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, I give respect to 17          people who earn it but--

18          BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor--

19          BY MR. LUMUMBA: --secondly--

20          BY THE COURT: --Look, look--

21          BY MR. EVANS: --That's exactly what I'm 22          talking about right there, and I'm tired of it--

23          BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Okay, you know, let me
24          finish this. First of all, I wasn't talking about 25          him, so I don't even know what he is talking about,
26          but since he wants to talk about respect--

27          BY THE COURT: --Well, I don't want either one
28          of you to talk about it. What I want you to do is 29          go on with your argument.

1                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, that's what I am trying
2                   to do. Okay, so we can understand the emotional
3                   trauma that people go through, but we have to 4                   withdraw from that trauma for a period of time, and 5                   we have to to say to ourselves that first of all,
6                   the law does say that a person is presumed innocent
7                   until proven guilty.

8                   Now in this county to make that statement
9                   about this case is, it creates an oxymoron. It
10                  creates a contradiction in the various statement
11                  itself with the facts and the circumstances which 12                  surround this situation. What I am saying to the 13                  Court is, is that he has already been found
14                  guilty. He has already been sentenced to death.
15                  People don't make the separation that the 16                  prosecution tries to make between the different
17                  deaths. All the evidence talks about the same gun
18                  being used, the same bullets being used, the same
19                  incident. There is only one person charged with 20                  all the crimes. All the evidence that is going to 21                  come in this case came in the last trial. It's the 22                  same thing. And you have got people reading
23                  headlines, headlines which for this trial really 24                  are very misleading, but they have read it. It is 25                  sunk into their memory.

26                  Suspects, inmates say suspect confesses. Now
27                  we know that the same people who said that have 28                  now, one of them has been on the stand under oath
29                  and stated that he lied. He lied because these

1           people here offered him thirty thousand dollars.
2           We have a statement from another person who now
3           says he lied. So the people they were talking
4           about have now changed their statements. But how 5           is this jury and these people coming from this 6           community going to be expected to come in here with 7           a clean slate, with a clean mind, with a clean--
8           all we are asking for is a fair trial.

9           If you give us a fair trial, we will do the 10          rest. All we are asking this Court for is to give 11          us a fair trial. We are asking for it not to give 12          us the age old Mississippi justice. Give us the 13          justice which we deserve as a human being. You
14          know, we don't want a jury which is already 15          predisposed to convict this man. That's all we 16          want, and any fair jury, any fair jury is going to 17          do all right. It's going to do-- and here is the 18          problem we have here, Judge, is that you have 19          statements which are in the paper which are 20          contradicted by the contemporary state of the 21          information which is available now to be put on the 22          stand at trial. Jurors are going to already come
23          through here with preconceived notions.

24          The preconceived notions, one of the most 25          devastating preconceived notions, here is a man who 26          has been convicted and sentenced to death by 27          members of our own community. Our brothers and 28          sisters who live in this community selected from a 29          cross section of the community like us, they are

1           going to come in here and take the view that they--
2           there is no way in the world you can expect a
3           person, a good person or any kind of person in that 4           kind of a situation to come in here without some 5           kind of taint on their mind about the state of the 6           evidence.

7           Now everybody that hears me talking knows this
8           is true. I mean, you know, of course, we don't 9           always function with the truth or deal with the 10          truth. But that is true; regardless of what 11          anybody thinks about who did it and who didn't do
12          it, everybody knows it is going to be impossible to 13          pull a juror out of this community or a jury out of 14          this community -- I'm not saying that there is no
15          individual in the whole county who hasn't heard
16          about it, nor am I saying that there is no
17          individual in the whole county who can struggle,
18          who can struggle to be fair. But see, you are not
19          required under this Constitution and under this law
20          of this state as well as this country to struggle
21          to be fair. Anybody that has to struggle to be 22          fair shouldn't be on the jury. We want people to 23          come in here who don't have the burden of having 24          been in a county where this case has been tried,
25          where the publicity has been projected on the 26          Defendant showing that, in fact, that he has been 27          convicted and sentenced to death in their own
28          community.

29          And so the situation that I am, that I am

1           saying to the Court is that the evidence adequately
2           personifies that or portrays that or illustrates
3           that. We have a situation here where the survey is 4           taken demonstrating-- the survey that has been
5           taken demonstrates -- of course, the Court didn't 6           give us any money for any survey. We don't have 7           money for surveys, so we do the best we can. The 8           Court didn't even want to give us money for half
9           the other things we needed. And from what I
10          understand, we asked for one kind of an expert in 11          one situation, and we got somebody else under 12          another kind of situation.

13                So regardless of whether that is right or 14          wrong, you know, it's an indigent defendant. In 15          fact, this Court has ruled that this man is 16          indigent. So what we are saying is that under 17          these circumstances we did the best we could. We 18          sent some people out. They came back, and they 19          said over 75 percent of the people they talked to 20          knew about the case. Well, more than that knew
21          about the case, but 75 percent of the people
22          expressed an opinion which was, in fact, that Mr.
23          Flowers is guilty. Many people, many, many, many 24          knew that he had already been found guilty.

25                So, you know, so you know, what are we doing
26          here? You know, at this point the Court has denied 27          motions to not try this case over again. But if 28          the Court insists upon trying it again, all we say
29          is just give us a fair deal. Give us a good deck.

1           You know, that's all we want. Give us good yard
2           stick, and believe me, we feel confident that with 3           a good yard stick, a fair deck we will do all
4           right.

5           And so that's all we are looking for, and so
6           this is not only a plea based upon the 7           Constitution, based upon both Constitutions, but a
8           plea based upon the decency of people or on the 9           international law, upon human rights and the 10          understanding that we are all human beings and we 11          should all treat each other like human beings,
12          however much we might hate each other or dislike 13          each other at a given moment. And so that's all we 14          are asking for.

15          And half the people sitting in here right now,
16          regardless of what the ruling of this Court is, are 17          going to walk outside and admit to each other that 18          we are absolutely right, and that's why some people
19          want the case here because they know we are right.
20          They know there is no way you are going to get a
21          fair jury in this kind of circumstance.

22          So that is why we brought this motion. That 23          is why we will continue to give submissions to this
24          Court, and that's why we are asking that this venue
25          be changed from this county. And I would just in 26          my closing, and I am no prophet, but I certainly 27          have been right before on these kind of issues.
28          This case will be around here for another 20 years
29          back and forth, back and forth if you send a case

1 to the Supreme Court where you try a man again in 2 the very county where he has been sentenced to 3 death, in the county which we can see from the 4 publicity where the publicity is very little
5 different from the county where you removed him
6 from in the first place for the trial. So if you
7 saw fit to change the venue here, there is no
8 reason why we shouldn't change the venue again. So
9 that is our presentation.

10 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, basically, they 11 have put on no proof that there is any need for a
12 change of venue. The reasons for change of venue
13 are clear: If a community has such a preconceived
14 notion that they cannot be fair and impartial, the 15 case should not be tried there. There is no
16 indication that that has happened. As a matter of 17 fact, most of the newspaper articles that they have 18 introduced have been statewide newspapers. They 19 have not been local newspapers. This is not 20 something that is centralized in Tupelo. This is 21 something that made the news all over the state,
22 and the law is clear on that, that just because 23 there are newspaper articles out that tell a
24 version of a story, that does not mean that people
25 have made up their minds about the story. Many 26 people don't read the newspapers. Many people
27 don't believe what they see in the newspapers.

28 The whole thing about a change of venue rests
29 on one important factor. This Court has got to

1           make that decision. This Court can only fairly
2           make that decision if there is proof before it. At 3           this point the Defense has put on no proof that 4           this would not be a proper county for this case to 5           be heard in. The Defense has put on no proof that 6           the people in this community have prejudged this
7           case.

8           The only way that that can be done, this Court
9           has already drawn a venire. This case is set for 10          trial. When that jury comes in, they will be voir
11          dired by the Court. They will be voir dired by the 12          attorneys on both sides, and the people at that 13          point under oath will have the ability to make 14          their comments about whether anything that they may 15          or may not have heard has made up their mind about 16          this case. If it has, as the Court well knows,
17          they could not sit as jurors on this case. And we 18          will only know after voir dire whether or not the 19          jury panel in this case can or cannot hear this 20          case. If the jury in this case, if the majority of 21          them are willing to try this case, has not heard
22          anything about the case or does not have 23          preconceived notions about the case and states that 24          they can be fair and impartial, then this case can 25          clearly be tried in this county. There have been 26          many cases where there has been a change of venue.
27          The Courts have upheld retrying the case or trying 28          the second case in the same county. That is no
29          problem.

1           It all rests on one important factor: Can the
2           twelve jurors that sit and try this case be fair
3           and impartial jurors. And that can only be 4           determined at this point when that jury is 5           impaneled because there has been no proof put on in 6           this hearing that a jury could not be impaneled in 7           this county that could be fair and impartial.

8           One moment.

9           (Pause while Mr. Evans confers with Mr.
10          Horan.)

11          BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, also as the Code
12          Section, Section 99-15-43 states on change of 13          venue, it says, "In capital cases the application
14          for the change of venue must be made before the 15          drawing of any special venire...." In this case
16          there was no attempt to put on any witnesses or any 17          proof before the special venire was drawn in this 18          case. "Which is summoned to appear on the day the 19          case is set for trial, or it will be too late,
20          except where the ground on which such application
21          is based occurred after the drawing of such 22          venire." And there clearly has been no attempt by 23          the Defense to put on anything that has occurred
24          after the drawing of the special venire that would 25          taint this panel.

26          That's all we have, Your Honor.

27          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, first of all, this 28          Motion was brought to the attention of this Court
29          long ago. This is actually a reassertion of the 1           Motion. And at the time that we brought the 2           Motion was before the venire was picked. And

3           secondly, the Court said that we could reraise the 4           Motion at any time is what it said. So we did
5           exactly what the Court has said, and we did it the 6           best we could with the resources that we have
7           available.

8           Let me also say this, is that we have cited,
9           you know, lots of case law and the Court has our 10          motion, you know, for the change of venue which 11          cites the case law. And we would ask the Court to 12          look closely at that law because I think that law
13          will speak significantly to issues at hand.

14          (Defense Counsel confer briefly.)

15          BY MR. LUMUMBA: I would also point out to 16          this Court while we are arguing the facts on this 17          issue that the Court has heard the witnesses who 18          have testified. The State, of course, doesn't want
19          to give too much credence to what the young man,
20          Ishmael Muhammad, had to say even though the State
21          brought people on the stand who had never asked
22          anybody what their opinion was. Ishmael Muhammad
23          had asked people what their opinion was, and he got 24          the answers which show that they were bias. The 25          State would prefer that you believe a person who 26          has never asked anybody, a person who is active in 27          the community and doesn't know half the other
28          active people or know what their opinions are, or a
29          Sheriff, a Sheriff who works, deals in the business

1 of trying to bring people to trial, get them
2 convicted and execute them. That's who you would 3 prefer to listen to.

4 So I would think the evidence does speak
5 eloquently to the fact that there is some bias.
6 Not only Muhammad's testimony, but Mr. Robert,
7 Robert Bland, I think is the witness that we
8 brought in who lived here right in the community
9 and testified, and he also mentioned some other
10 people, or he mentioned at least one other person
11 named Walter Stanphill. So there is evidence. In 12 fact, there is no evidence that the community is 13 not biased. The evidence is to the contrary. The 14 evidence is that you do have a biased community.

15 And I don't think the Supreme Court overlooks
16 logic and rational, a situation. We have got a man
17 convicted, sentenced to death here once already,
18 and on the heels of that we bring another trial.
19 So we would ask that the venue be changed based 20 upon the presentation that was made.

21 BY THE COURT: Okay, I need, I'm going to put
22 in the record a little chronological order as I
23 remember things as they have happened in this 24 case. As I recall, the original venire that was to 25 be drawn in this case was to be drawn, I believe,
26 December 3rd. It was the first week in December.
27 And that was the first appearance by Counsel for 28 the Defendants in this case. Mr. Freelon appeared
29 on that day. On that day there were discussions

1           about a lot of things. Mr. Freelon at that time
2           said that Counsel for the Defendant intended to 3           file a motion for change of venue. We had some 4           subsequent hearings in the case. That venire was 5           not used. That case was originally set for the 6           first of February, somewhere around the first of 7           February. On motion of the Defendant the case was 8           continued.

9           At the time it was continued I set up a
10          scheduling order that had a motion deadline in it.
11          I believe that was 60 days. I could be wrong, but 12          my order will reflect whatever it was. At that 13          time Counsel for the Defendant told me that they 14          intended to file a motion for change of venue.
15          Before that 60 days had elapsed, there was another
16          motion filed asking for me to extend the deadline
17          in order that they could file other motions
18          including one for change of venue. I sustained 19          that motion and gave them an additional 60 days in 20          order to file those motions.

21          I believe, and there again my order will have 22          to speak for itself, but I believe those deadlines
23          expired in May. I then issued an order directing 24          that the venire in this case be drawn, and that was 25          drawn, I believe July the 8th, but it was around
26          the first week of July. Mr. Freelon was present at 27          that time. No motion for change of venue had been 28          filed at that time. He reserved the right to 29          object to the venue after voir dire, and I granted

1           that. I did not grant him a right to file a motion
2           to change the venue any time he thought he ought
3           to, and I have never told Counsel for the Defendant
4           that. I have consistently told them that they had 5           a right to renew that motion after voir dire.

6           So this motion is first, was filed about, this 7           Motion was filed about a week ago. So it has been 8           filed after the venire was pulled, so it's in 9           violation of 99-15-43. In addition, I have looked,
10          I received a copy from Counsel for the Defendant of 11          this Motion within the last week. I cannot 12          remember whether it was faxed to me or mailed to 13          me, but it was a copy. That copy contained no
14          affidavits in support of the Motion. I have looked 15          in this file in this case, and I find no affidavits
16          in support of the Motion. Therefore, this Motion
17          does not comply with the statute in that regard, so
18          it's not properly before the Court.

19          Having heard all the evidence so far today
20          though, the Court is willing to consider what has 21          been presented to it. The first publicity came 22          about in this case when this matter occurred in 23          1996. There was some extensive publicity, both 24          from the television media and the newspapers at 25          that time. As a result of that, the counsel-- then
26          Counsel for the Defendant moved that there be a 27          change of venue. There was no objection by the 28          State. Therefore, the case was moved to Tupelo.

29          The next publicity that I know of and

1           certainly, the only that has been in evidence in 2           this case was-- I mean that is now in evidence in
3           this case is when Mr. Flowers was arrested. I
4           think that consisted of something, some publicity
5           that lasted no longer than a week, and I believe
6           that was in January of '97, or around there,
7           somewhere around that time. Anyhow, it was first
8           of January before the April 1997 term of court in 9           Montgomery County. That publicity was several 10          days.

11           The next thing that has been presented to me
12          was no further publicity until such time as the 13          trial occurred in Lee County in October of 1997.
14          That publicity consisted of coverage of the trial
15          by The Clarion Ledger and Daily Journal and Channel
16          9 in Tupelo. The coverage consisted of stories
17          about that trial that week only and not after it.
18          So there is no, there has been no publicity, or at 19          least there is no publicity in evidence and nothing
20          has been argued to me that there has been any 21          publicity about this trial for almost a year now.

22           The Defendant has come here today asking for a
23          change of venue with no evidence. It has placed,
24          he has placed one resident of Lee County on the 25          stand to say that he could not get a fair trial.
26          The only other evidence that is offered at all is 27          the, is the testimony of Mr. Muhammad, who said he 28          interviewed fifteen folks, ten of who said that 29          they couldn't give him a fair trial. Mr. Muhammad

1 is not a resident of Lee County. I don't even 2 recall whether he gave an opinion of whether he
3 could get a fair trial. He just reported what he 4 had found. That evidence is not sufficient to 5 change the venue in this case.

6 The Motion for Change of Venue is overruled.
7 I do once again state to Counsel for the Defendant
8 that after voir dire, if it appears after voir dire
9 that we cannot get a fair and impartial jury, then
10 if you renew that Motion, I will sustain it.

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Just a moment, Judge. Let me
12 just highlight this in our record here. It is no
13 question that the Court stated because this is how 14 the colloquy occurred. I asked the Court for a 15 Motion to Extend the Time for Filing Motions. The 16 Court said, What kind of motions do you want to 17 file? I said, I don't know yet because we are 18 still reviewing evidence and we don't know what 19 they all are, but one of them is Motion for Change
20 of Venue. The Court said, Well, what else do you
21 need to file because you can file a motion for 22 change of venue at any time.

23 Now that is in the transcript. I, in fact,
24 read it the other day. I don't have the transcript
25 with me. I am pretty sure it's the transcript of 26 the March 3rd hearing when Mr. Veal testified, but 27 it is clearly in one of these pretrial
28 transcripts. So that part of this Court's decision
29 factual resume' is absolutely inaccurate.

1           BY THE COURT: Well, it is in the record. The 2 record will speak for itself.

3           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, and as we said, we will
4 appropriately supplement the record on this issue,
5 and we think that the change of venue is always a
6 motion which can be heard any time that this Court
7 decides or discovers or should discover based on 8 the evidence, irrespective of what his personal 9 feelings might be, that change of venue should be 10 granted. So that's our position on this case.

11           BY THE COURT: Okay. Let's take about 10
12 minutes, gentlemen, and see where we are.

13           (FOLLOWING A RECESS, THE MOTION HEARING OF 14 SEPTEMBER 2, 1998, CONTINUED IN OPEN COURT WITH ALL 15 PARTIES AND THE DEFENDANT PRESENT AS FOLLOWS:)

16           BY MR. LUMUMBA: For the record, December 3rd
17 of 1997, Motion for Change of Venue is in the 18 file. So Motion for Change of Venue - let me give 19 this back to the Court - it's in this file here.
20 And we will also submit something of notice for the 21 record. Take a copy of the transcript where the 22 Court told us we could file a motion for change of 23 venue at any time.

24           Moving on, and so this motion, by the way, we 25 styled the Second Motion for Change of Venue, and 26 that is also a matter of record in the file.

27           The-- I just wanted to just cross a few
28 discovery items. We have given the State a number
29 of items in discovery. We will be submitting

1           others to them right away. We are giving them what
2           they gave us, copies of transcripts. We have never
3           received tapes, live tapes from the State. We have 4           been told that they would make them available for 5           us. It is somewhat difficult to copy their tapes
6           although we are going to endeavor to set up another
7           date and to do it. The problem is we came up here
8           to copy the tapes at one point, and we found out
9           the tapes were small tapes. What we have is-- we 10          would have a better ability if we could rent a 11          machine which would copy large tapes. We will have 12          to do it the slow way with the small tapes because 13          they do have a little - what you have, what do you
14          call those things? - cables which will allow us to 15          copy, but it's a much slower process. We will do
16          it.

17                 So we have given them the same opportunity,
18          and I would ask that they be ordered to give us an 19          actual copy of the tape. Of course, I understand
20          that the Court has previously indicated that they 21          don't have to do that. They can just make them
22          available to us, but I am sure the Court is willing 23          to make whatever, give us whatever rights they are 24          willing to give them. So I am letting it known we 25          have given them notice that we have several tapes,
26          and if they want to come copy them, they can come
27          copy them. If they don't want to come copy them,
28          that is fine. They can come to Jackson and copy
29          them just like we can come to Winona and copy

1           theirs.

2           So that is the status of things, and we will
3           attempt to make sure that we provide a notice of 4           discovery with items which we present to them or 5           either present them under a letter which will allow 6           us to document what we are presented. I actually 7           have a few other transcriptions here which will be
8           mailed, which is probably in the mail today coming
9           to them, but I don't want to give up anything
10          without a letter which documents what it is being 11          given with.

12          So that is a discovery item. We would, our 13          request would be, is that the Court order them, and 14          we would reciprocate, to actually give us copies of 15          the tape. We have reason to believe that some of 16          the transcripts are not accurate reflections of 17          what would have been on the tape based on witnesses
18          we have talked to who said they didn't say certain 19          things. Whether they are telling the truth or not,
20          we don't know. But we certainly think we need to 21          have a copy of the tape. So we will reciprocate -
22          I think that is the word - if we can get copies of 23          the tape from them. If they can't give us copies
24          of the tape, fine, even steven. They can come to 25          Jackson and get copies of ours.

26          BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, in response as this 27          Court knows and this Court has already heard, we 28          have already furnished discovery in this case. I
29          don't know--

1                   BY THE COURT: --I know. When I looked at 2                   you, the only question I need for you to answer for 3                   me is whether you are willing to copy your tapes.

4                   BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor--

5                   BY THE COURT: --in return--

6                   BY MR. EVANS: --I want to explain to the 7                   Court what has gone on up to this point. This
8                   Court ordered us to make these tapes available
9                   which we said we had no problem with. I had these 10                  tapes available in Grenada at my office on the date
11                  that Harvey Freelon said he would come up there. I 12                  made a special point of calling one of my 13                  investigators, John Johnson, off of an 14                  investigation he was working to be in Grenada with 15                  those tapes so that they could copy them. He came 16                  in there; he didn't want to copy them. He didn't 17                  want to copy them tape to tape. He wanted to go 18                  back and get some more equipment to copy them with,
19                  so we set up another date. I had the tapes there.
20                  I had my investigator there. I called him off of 21                  what he was doing to make the tapes, and they just 22                  didn't see fit to show up. So I am tired of 23                  playing games with them.

24                  BY THE COURT: Well, what I am asking you is 25                  if you are going to get tapes, they are going to 26                  copy theirs and give them to you. Are you willing 27                  to copy yours and give them to them so that y'all--

28                  BY MR. EVANS: --We have done it once.

29                  BY THE COURT: You have copied them?

1 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir. We have copied
2 them. We furnished them in discovery to start with
3 in this case.

4 BY THE COURT: Okay. Well, what are you
5 arguing about if y'all have got the copies?

6 BY MR. HORAN: He is talking about Mr.
7 Gilmore.

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We have never received copies
9 of any tapes period.

10 BY MR. EVANS: The Gilmores were furnished all 11 of this information. They gave their discovery to 12 them. We told them that if they wanted another
13 copy of it, we would be glad for them to come copy
14 it.

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: The Gilmores have represented
16 to us that they don't have copies of them.

17 BY MR. EVANS: I think the rules are very 18 clear that we make that available to them. They 19 can come copy them.

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge--

21 BY MR. EVANS: --We offered to copy them the 22 day that he was there tape to tape. That's all we 23 can copy them on.

24 BY THE COURT: All I want to know is I am just 25 talking about, you know, like in the old war movies
26 when they exchange spies at the middle of the 27 bridge, where everybody meets up there and they 28 swap. That's all I want to know, if y'all are 29 willing to do that.

1 BY MR. EVANS: Well, apparently opposing
2 Counsel doesn't think there is any swap supposed to
3 happen.

4 BY THE COURT: I understand that--

5 BY MR. EVANS: --That's one of the other things
6 I wanted to bring--

7 BY THE COURT: --I understand that, but I'm 8 trying to get a commitment from you whether your,
9 whether half the equation is there.

10 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, we have made
11 ourselves available twice. They don't want to do
12 it.

13 BY THE COURT: That is not answering my
14 question.

15 BY MR. EVANS: We will make ourself available
16 again, anytime the Court tells us to.

17 BY THE COURT: No, will you make them copies?

18 BY MR. EVANS: If they want to send me a
19 tape. I'm not going to pay for it. If they want
20 to send me a tape, I will make them a copy.

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: What is good for the goose is 22 good for the gander.

23 BY THE COURT: Okay, you are going to have to 24 send him one back.

25 BY MR. EVANS: Well, considering he is not
26 going to send me anything anyway--

27 BY THE COURT: --You know, we have got a lot
28 of important things in this case to fight about.
29 Why are we fighting about this?

1                   BY MR. EVANS: Because of this right here.
2                   This Court has ordered at least four times for them
3                   to give--

4                   BY THE COURT: --I understand all that--

5                   BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, may I put this in 6                   the record?

7                   BY THE COURT: Yeah.

8                   BY MR. EVANS: The first time we have ever
9                   been furnished any reciprocal discovery was today
10                  when I was hand-delivered this discovery which I 11                  want in the record is supposedly a transcript of an 12                  audiotape from Frederick Veal that was taken many 13                  months ago, newspaper articles, and a letter from 14                  Odell Hollman. And that is still the only 15                  discovery we have gotten, and this is, I don't even 16                  know how many months late.

17                  BY THE COURT: I understand all that. Here is 18                  what I'm going to order. I want to move on with 19                  this. I'm going to order each of you to copy the 20                  tapes, and then you are to meet; somebody from your 21                  office has got to meet in person and swap those 22                  tapes personally so I don't get into this question
23                  of who sent what. I wanted them swapped.

24                  BY MR. HORAN: When, Your Honor?

25                  BY THE COURT: Well, when can you do it?

26                  BY MR. HORAN: I mean we are going to have to 27                  have a date. We haven't been able to agree on 28                  anything else.

29                  BY THE COURT: Okay.

1 BY MR. HORAN: Next Tuesday. We will be in
2 Kosciusko; that is about halfway.

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Mr. Freelon is the one that
4 is going to do it.

5 BY THE COURT: Okay, y'all swap them at 1
6 o'clock at the Attala County Courthouse in 7 Kosciusko, Mississippi, on September the 8th.

8 BY MR. EVANS: We are talking about Frederick 9 Veal and Maurice Hawkins' tape; is that right? Is 10 that what you say you are going to have?

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Hold it. (To Mr. Freelon) Is 12 that okay?
13 Now we don't have any tapes. We want every tape of 14 every witness.

15 BY THE COURT: You don't have any tapes?

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We don't have-- no, no. We 17 have tapes that we can give to them now, but I am
18 saying we don't have any of their tapes.

19 BY THE COURT: That's what I'm trying to get
20 you.

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, because we don't have 22 any of those. Not one. But, yeah, we would-- but 23 you are asking, but I didn't understand when he 24 said Frederick Veal and Maurice Hawkins. If he is 25 asking us if that is the only tapes we want, we 26 want tapes of everything.

27 BY THE COURT: No, no. He is asking, he wants
28 the tapes you have of Frederick Veal.

29 BY MR. EVANS: No, what I'm asking is what

1           they are claiming they don't have. We are talking
2           about probably thirty something tapes that have 3           already been furnished once, and it gets old having 4           to keep--

5           BY THE COURT: --Who has got those tapes?

6           BY MR. FREELON: Your Honor, first of all,
7           those tapes have never been furnished. We have 8           talked to--

9           BY THE COURT: --Who has got them? If they 10          have furnished them to somebody, who has got them?

11          BY MR. FREELON: The District Attorney's
12          Office.

13          BY MR. EVANS: The originals are in our 14          custody. The copy was furnished to the Gilmores.

15          BY MR. LUMUMBA: The Gilmores--

16          BY MR. FREELON: --The Gilmores have stated
17          clearly that they have never received copies of 18          those tapes. Now I went down to Grenada and they 19          made two tapes available. That's the reason. I
20          went to copy all the tapes. I was prepared to copy
21          all the tapes, and only two tapes was made
22          available at that time.

23          BY MR. HORAN: At that time; you may be right
24          about that.

25          BY MR. FREELON: At that time. Well, at that
26          time; I don't know about any other time because I
27          didn't go at any other time, but at that time I
28          think John Johnson was on his way from Winona with 29          two tapes at that time. But we have never received

1           copies of any of the other tapes from the
2           Gilmores. And the Gilmores, when we specifically
3           asked them did they have any tapes, they don't have 4           any tapes. They never had any tapes. What they 5           had is actually transcripts.

6           BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, let me respond. I
7           wrote Mr. Freelon. I made myself available. I
8           changed the court dates so I would be there, Mr.
9           Johnson be there on the second date. Mr. Freelon
10          didn't even pay me the courtesy of a phone call to 11          tell me he wasn't coming. I wrote him a letter and 12          told him I wanted 24 hours notice prior to him
13          coming to copy the tapes and then another one hour
14          notice prior to him arriving at my office so I
15          would know he would be there. And that's why he 16          didn't get the tapes copied because he never called 17          me back to say he was coming to copy the tapes.

18          BY THE COURT: Both sides have thoroughly
19          established that y'all are not cooperating with 20          each other. I understand that. Now what I'm 21          trying to do is move past that point.

22          BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I think it's clear
23          that we have attempted to cooperate--

24          BY THE COURT: --I understand, Mr. Evans. You
25          don't have to-- I perfectly understand what is 26          going on.

27          BY MR. LUMUMBA: I am with you on this one,
28          Judge. I am ready to move beyond here too. We 29          have both made our record, but if Tuesday is okay

1                   with Mr. Freelon? We will copy the tapes that we 2                   have that are discoverable and bring them to them--

3                   BY MR. EVANS: Here we go again.

4                   BY THE COURT: No, we are not.

5                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, no, Judge. You sent me
6                   an order; is that correct? You sent me an order
7                   stating what was discoverable. I am going to 8                   follow your order, and everything under that order
9                   that is discoverable they will get.

10                  BY THE COURT: All right, well, I want you to 11                  tell them right now what you are going to give
12                  them.

13                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: I am going to give them a
14                  tape of Frederick Veal. I'm going to give them a 15                  tape of Maurice.

16                  BY THE COURT: Hawkins.

17                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Hawkins maybe.

18                  BY THE COURT: No, no, ain't no maybes.

19                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, no--

20                  BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, this is the same
21                  mess that we have been putting up with the whole
22                  time--

23                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Now hold it. Hold it. Let 24                  me, let's get beyond that. Let's get beyond that 25                  and--

26                  BY MR. EVANS: --No, let's follow the rules.

27                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Excuse me. Can I talk?

28                  BY THE COURT: Yes, sir. Go ahead. I want
29                  you to go ahead and tell me what you are going to

1           give them.

2           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, Judge, let me tell you.
3           I'm going to give them a tape of Frederick Veal.
4           I'm going to give them a tape of Roy Harris, who we
5           may call as a witness. I'm going to give them a
6           tape of Jerry Gholston, who we may call as a
7           witness. I am going to give them a tape of, I
8           think we have another tape which involves Frederick
9           Veal, who we may call as a witness at this time.
10          There may be a few other witnesses that we may 11          call. Anybody else that I have a tape of that we
12          may call as a witness, I'm going to give them a
13          tape of. There is people who we-- let me say this,
14          Judge. Let me say this. We are not required under 15          the law that you sent us to give them a tape of 16          people who we will not call as witnesses. They are 17          not required to have that. So we, but we-- but now
18          let me tell you why I hesitate on Maurice Hawkins
19          is because we have not decided that we may call
20          Maurice Hawkins as a witness.

21          BY THE COURT: Well, let me ask you this.
22          Isn't there a transcript of what he said on that 23          tape in this file now?

24          BY MR. LUMUMBA: They already have that. They 25          have--

26          BY THE COURT: --Is that all of what he said
27          on that tape?

28          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah.

29          BY THE COURT: Give them the tape.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, because they already
2 have the transcript.

3 BY THE COURT: Right.

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, I will go with that,
5 Judge. I agree with you on that. Okay. I don't 6 necessarily agree with you, but I will give them
7 the tape.

8 BY THE COURT: Well, I know you can't agree
9 with me much.

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. Yeah, I will give them
11 the tape. So those are the ones that I know about 12 right now. I have to review my records to see if 13 there is anything else. But I know that those are 14 things that I will give them, the people I just 15 named, okay.

16 BY THE COURT: Okay.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: And I will give them those 18 tapes, and we need, we need the videos that they 19 have too. They have the video of the scene. Okay,
20 they want--

21 BY MR. EVANS: --We are going to follow the 22 rules.

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, you don't want to give
24 us a copy of the video? We can supply--

25 BY MR. HORAN: --Your Honor, we are two weeks
26 prior to trial. We are going to make them
27 available. If they want to come copy them, they 28 can.

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, well, the same thing

1           for our videos. We have--

2           BY MR. HORAN: --I mean, Judge, we can make 3           copies of everything. This is two weeks prior to
4           trial--

5           BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Okay. I'm not going to 6           argue with them. We will give them the 7           audiotapes. We have videotapes which we intend to 8           perhaps use as exhibits--

9           BY THE COURT: --Wait, wait. Okay--

10          BY MR. EVANS: --If they do, they can't use 11          them now because they didn't furnish them in 12          discovery.

13          BY THE COURT: I understand. We will cross
14          that bridge when we get to it. I understand what 15          you are saying. Neither one of y'all are going to 16          agree on any of that. So I've got an order in the 17          file saying what you have got to produce, and 18          everybody is just going to have to live with their 19          own decision on that. Now let's move on to 20          something else.

21          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, now--

22          BY THE COURT: --We are wasting a lot of time
23          on this.

24          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, well, can I get an 25          interpretation of the Judge's order so we won't
26          waste any time? Does your order the way you
27          interpret it say that if we have a tape that we 28          intend to use - and I'm talking about an audio-- a 29          videotape at this time, that we have to just notify

1           them and make them available to them like they want
2           to do with us, or does it say that we actually have
3           to copy them and give it to them?

4           BY THE COURT: I think you have to make them
5           available to them.

6           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, we are making them
7           available to them.

8           BY THE COURT: Okay. When?

9           BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have given them notice
10          where they are at--

11          BY THE COURT: --When?

12          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Anytime you want to come to 13          Jackson.

14          BY THE COURT: When do you want them?

15          BY MR. HORAN: We will get up with them, Your 16          Honor. I don't necessarily know when--

17          BY THE COURT: --Okay, well, get up with them.
18          It may or may not work out, so that's--

19          BY MR. LUMUMBA: As long as he lets me know in 20          advance, they will be there.

21          BY MR. EVANS: But Your Honor, is this saying 22          that they do not have to follow the rules of 23          discovery?

24          BY THE COURT: No, sir. No, sir. Everybody
25          that violates the rules of discovery puts 26          themselves in the position of having witnesses that 27          can't testify. That is just what the rules are and 28          what the sanctions are. So there are a lot of 29          different avenues to travel when that time comes,

1 but I have done all I can do, folks. I have given
2 y'all an order and directed you to the rules.

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, Judge--

4 BY THE COURT: --Let's go on to some other
5 motions. I assume we have got some more.

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes, sir. We certainly do.
7 We have a Motion to Quash Traverse Jury Pool and to 8 challenge the composition of the traverse jury
9 pool. This Motion is based in large part on the 10 questionnaires that we have received back. We do
11 not have a complete set of questionnaires back
12 yet. So we would think that this Motion should be 13 continued to a point in time when we do have a 14 complete set. However, in interest of the Court's 15 time, we don't mind presenting what we have at this 16 time. And in the Motion it does present what we 17 have.

18 One of the things that it points out that, of 19 course, Mr. Flowers has a constitutional right to a
20 fairly selected selection of jurors from the jury
21 pool. It also points out; it has an affidavit
22 attached to it from Mr. Brian Neely, who has 23 indicated that he would be available to testify on 24 a date next week. He is not available this week
25 because he is in a trial. He is an attorney here
26 in this jurisdiction. He points out that the 27 percentage of blacks in this community are over 21
28 percent. You can see that for yourself with the 29 information that we have gained, say from the

1 census information. And also, he also points out
2 that almost always there are less than two, two or
3 less blacks on the jury, and many times in Lee
4 County, as in this past case, the jurors are all
5 white. Systematic exclusion of black people from 6 the jury is at the center of this Motion.

7 Now in the jury surveys that we did, there are 8 only 12 blacks out of 112-- not surveys, jury
9 questionnaires that we have received back from the 10 Clerk. Now the Clerk just gave us some other 11 questionnaires. I haven't had a chance to look at 12 those. I don't know what they say, but I notice
13 that as my counsel was reading them, he was shaking 14 his head which probably suggests they were pretty
15 much like the other ones. But we will, you know,
16 reserve time to make an additional presentation on
17 that.

18 But the ones that have to this point, there is 19 only, and I guess as a matter of record, official
20 record of the court, there is 112 that we received
21 prior to today. Out of those 112, only 12 of them
22 are black. That is far below the 21 percent ratio.
23 The black ratio is something like 9 percent. That
24 is only 9 percent of the persons of the jury. Mr.
25 Neely tells us that historically, the number of 26 blacks have been far less on the jury pools here
27 than their stated percentages by the census data.

28 We also have a problem with the infection of 29 the jury with an improper questionnaire and a

1 questionnaire which does not comport with the 2 Court-ordered questionnaire. The Court, in
3 response to a motion that we made to add about ten
4 different questions to the questionnaire that the 5 prosecution had proposed, and that questionnaire in 6 response to that-- and we submitted that
7 questionnaire, by the way, in a thing called 8 Supplement to Motion to Quash Traverse Jury Pool.
9 Our questionnaire had eight or ten, I think, other
10 questions that we were asking that be asked in 11 order to balance the questionnaire out. The Court
12 accepted one of those, and one of those questions,
13 although you may have asked for it to be 14 reframed, - I don't remember - was a question that 15 indulged into the racial attitudes of potential
16 jurors, critical in this case where one black is 17 accused of killing three whites and another black.
18 It's still a critical issue.

19 The situation arose where the-- number 38, the 20 prosecution reframed this questionnaire, and we 21 have attached that reframed questionnaire also to 22 the-- and the Court ruled. The Court ruled and 23 instructed the prosecution to, in fact, because I
24 read the transcript the other day, instructed the 25 prosecution to put a question in there on race.
26 The question on race was put in.

27 However, the questionnaire which went to the 28 jurors did not have that extremely important
29 question. In addition to that, the questionnaire

1 is inappropriate because the questionnaire asks the 2 Witherspoon question. In other words, do you have 3 reservations and beliefs and otherwise about the--
4 and inappropriately or inaccurately asked the 5 question, but it does ask it. It says do you have 6 beliefs or religious beliefs or other kind of 7 beliefs that would cause you problems - I'm not,
8 I'm trying to paraphrase it - of giving the death
9 penalty. The accurate way to ask it is, "Do you
10 have beliefs or problems that would prevent you or 11 cause you problems with considering the death
12 penalty?" No court can ever require anybody to 13 give the death penalty. It's just a question of 14 whether they can consider it.

15 So that is one of the problems with the 16 question, but the second problem with the question
17 is it's not balanced out. We tried to save the 18 questionnaire by making our suggestions to the 19 Court as to what other questions should be included
20 in it. Amongst the questions that we asked and 21 asked to be asked to the jurors was a question of 22 whether they would automatically give the death
23 penalty to a person convicted of capital murder.
24 That is also attached to your supplemental motion,
25 our motion, I mean our proposed questionnaire that
26 we submitted to the Court along with our motion.

27 The Court, for whatever reason, didn't see fit
28 to put that in the questionnaire leaving the 29 questionnaire constitutionally infirm. The jurors

1           now have been asked to concentrate on the issue of 2           whether they can give the death penalty without 3           being asked to concentrate on the issue of whether 4           they would have some automatic notion that they
5           would have to give or should give the death penalty
6           or would have to give the death penalty at least in 7           their own conscience if a person was convicted of 8           murder or capital murder. That being the case, you
9           have a jury of people coming in here who are not,
10          you know, who have not been asked balanced
11          questions, and that is of injury to the defense.
12          We don't know who those people are, and it
13          certainly will be more difficult in the environment
14          of being in a populated courtroom to find those 15          information out than it will in the quiet of 16          somebody's home where they were filling out these 17          questionnaires. It is prejudicial and also, we are 18          denied the race question which this Court approved
19          which, in fact, the questionnaire itself turns out
20          to be a violation of the Court's order.

21                 So two major questions arise here, and there
22                 is other questions too, that the jury pool I looked 23                 at is under-represented as far as women are 24                 concerned. Young people seem to be in a
25                 significant minority and disproportionate to their
26                 population as represented by the census track data
27                 as well as women. So what, but the glaring problem
28                 here is the issue as it relates to the black
29                 community. I would say for that reason this jury

1 pool must be quashed.

2 And as I indicated to this Court, we have
3 submitted an affidavit which would attest to the 4 fact that these pools are always under-represented
5 which would suggest that there is some systematic 6 exclusion, and at the very least given that, the 7 prosecutor has the burden to go forward and to 8 suggest through evidence, hard evidence that this
9 jury pool which was never, never has an equal
10 number of black people on it as in the population,
11 is not a situation in which whites-- that works out
12 to a systematic exclusion.

13 I am told, I am familiar and I am sure the 14 Court is too of Swain v. Alabama. I am sure also I
15 cited it in my motion. And the progeny of cases
16 which come from the Scottsborough case and some 17 other cases, Mississippi cases too, where jurors
18 were being discriminated in the selection of the 19 jury. Swain v. Alabama is at 380 U.S. 202, a 1965
20 case. Duren v. Missouri is another case, but it is 21 all cited in my brief.

22 I am told that there is another case, and I
23 searched for it, but it has recently come out
24 which, in fact, states that as, by today's 25 standards any system, regardless of why it is in 26 place or how it's in place, if it does, if it works
27 over a period of years to systemically exclude 28 people of any given group, then that system is 29 infirm constitutionally and cannot be used. And I

1 think that actually is even stronger in Mississippi
2 than it is in some other states because the
3 Mississippi statute is quite specific about
4 exclusion of people for racial -- the Mississippi
5 Constitution, excluding people for race, on the 6 basis of race, sex, economic circumstance or other
7 things.

8 So we would move that the traverse jury be
9 quashed, and if the Court is not inclined to do
10 that at that time, our alternative relief would be 11 that we be allowed to present the witness when he 12 is available to testify, which he said he can 13 testify at a time during next week. I would point
14 out to this Court; I know the Court's schedule may 15 be burdened, but this is a man's life here. The 16 Supreme Court has seemed to take these cases
17 relatively serious, and so I don't think the time
18 should be a factor. If we have to do it next-- the 19 Court is certainly available on the 24th, not the 20 24th; I'm sorry, on the 14th, if we even have to do
21 it before we get into the jury selection on the 22 14th. That is one way to do it although we would 23 request an earlier date, and I am sure all involved
24 would like an earlier date.

25 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I want to address a
26 few of the points that he raised, and then I would 27 have at least one witness I want to put on also.
28 But the law is clear in this state that, of how a
29 jury is to be drawn, and the case law is also clear

1 even up to the case of Beckwith v. State. That is
2 probably one of the latest Mississippi cases that
3 is on point on this. And in that particular case
4 it says that all that is necessary is that it be a
5 fair cross-section of the community drawn in a
6 proper manner. Everything from Beckwith on down
7 relies on the case of Lanier v. State, 533 So.2d
8 473.

9 And in Lanier it sets forth a three prong test
10 that must be made. The first prong is that the 11 group alleged to be excluded is a distinctive group
12 in the community. The second prong: That the 13 representation of this group in the venires from 14 which juries are selected is not fair and 15 reasonable and in relationship to the number of 16 persons in the community.

17 I will state to the Court that out of the 15
18 questionnaires that I was added to my list today,
19 that 5 of those have marked on the questionnaires
20 that they are black. One did not mark any race on 21 there, which is true of several of the 22 questionnaires that I have gotten. I would also 23 like to point out even though I don't think this is 24 an important or material issue, I would like to 25 point out at this very time there is a trial going
26 on across the hall where five of the twelve jurors
27 are black. So I don't think there can be any proof 28 that this is not a fair representation of the 29 community.

1                   Before I go any-- well, I would like to go on
2                   and state the third prong. The third prong is that 3                   the under-representation is due to systematic
4                   exclusion of a group in the jury selection process,
5                   which clearly means that there has to be some 6                   purposeful attempt to exclude a certain group from 7                   the jury pool.

8                   And at this point I would call the Circuit
9                   Clerk, Ms. Joyce Loftin.

10                                   JOYCE LOFTIN,

11                   a white female called to testify by the State on the 12                   Defendant's Motion to Quash the Jury Pool, having first been 13                   duly sworn by the Court, testified as follows, to-wit:

14                                   BY THE COURT: State your name for the record.

15                                   BY THE WITNESS: Joyce Loftin.

16                                   BY MR. EVANS: May I proceed, Your Honor?

17                                   BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

18                   DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. EVANS:

19                   Q.    Ms. Loftin, how are you employed?

20                   A.    Well, I am an elected official. I am the Circuit
21                   Clerk here in Lee County.

22                   Q.    All right, and how long have you been Circuit
23                   Clerk?

24                   A.    This is my first term to actually serve as the 25                   Clerk. I have been deputy clerk and worked in the county for 26                   the Board of Supervisors now for almost 18 years.

27                   Q.    All right, and as Circuit Clerk you are in charge
28                   of the jury pool for this county; is that correct?

29                   A.    Yes, sir.

1           Q.    Can you tell us how the juries are drawn for Lee
2 County?

3           A.    Okay.  First of all, we have a jury commission.
4 Our jury commission consists of three people who are 5 appointed to terms, four year terms.  One is appointed by the 6 Board of Supervisors; one is appointed by our Chancellors,
7 and one is appointed by the Circuit Court Judges.

8           Q.    All right.

9           A.    So I work with them.

10          Q.    And who is the president of that group?

11          A.    Okay, a chairman probably is Mr. Norman Bowen.

12          Q.    Okay, who is John Robertson?

13          A.    John Robertson is the owner, I would probably,
14 owner/director of our Delta computer company who does our 15 computer consulting work for Lee County.

16          Q.    And is that computer, is that the one that is used
17 for the juries?

18          A.    Yes.

19          Q.    Okay, go ahead and continue with how the juries are 20 drawn.

21          A.    Okay, we do it pursuant to statute under the 22 Mississippi Code, Section 13-5-12.  And it goes into the 23 explanation of how we draw a jury wheel, how we put the jury
24 wheel into a computer system, and how we come up with a
25 starting number and an increment number, and that is done by 26 our three juror commissioners.

27          Q.    All right, and how do people's names get in that 28 computer?

29          A.    Okay, we do a printout, an entire printout of our

1 entire voter roll for Lee County. That roll is given-- we do
2 them a printout. That roll is given to the Commission. Then
3 they meet and they determine or our, I guess our Senior
4 Circuit Judge determines approximately how many jurors we
5 will need for the year. Once they determine approximately 6 how many, the chairman of our Jury Commission gets a number
7 so that it will go through the entire roll, our entire rolls
8 so that "A's" through "W's" will be included in our wheel.
9 This year, I think we had 10,000. We put 10,477 jurors in 10 the wheel. We started, we chose every fourth number, and in 11 the statute it tells you the instruction on how they come
12 about with that number, and they actually drew a starting 13 number from a hat. And that starting number this year was 14 number one. So we started with voter number one, and we 15 selected every fourth voter.

16 Q. All right.

17 A. Until we got 10,477 voters. Once we did that, we 18 put that into the wheel, and each time we draw a jury, we go
19 into the computer. We bring up the jury wheel. We tell it 20 how many names we need, and it is selected at random.

21 Q. Okay, so--

22 A. --just at random, no alphabetical order.

23 Q. You don't go in and pick out certain ones that you
24 want on the jury?

25 A. No, sir.

26 Q. The wheel just, the computer automatically picks
27 them at random?

28 A. Yes, sir.

29 Q. Is there any attempt in any way that this is set up

1 to exclude anyone because of their age?

2 A. No, sir.

3 Q. Is there any attempt in the way this is set up to 4 exclude anyone because of their sex?

5 A. No, sir.

6 Q. Any attempt to exclude anyone because of their
7 religion?

8 A. No, sir.

9 Q. Any attempt to exclude anyone because of their 10 race?

11 A. We don't have the race. We don't even get the race
12 when they register to vote.

13 Q. I will hand you--

14 BY MR. EVANS: Well, first, may I have this 15 item marked for identification, Your Honor?

16 (AFFIDAVIT DATED APRIL 27, 1998, WAS MARKED AS 17 STATE'S EXHIBIT "A" FOR IDENTIFICATION TO THE 18 MOTION TO QUASH THE JURY POOL.)

19 (State's Exhibit "A" for identification was 20 shown to Mr. Freelon. Mr. Lumumba had stepped out 21 of the courtroom.)

22 BY MR. EVANS:

23 Q. Ms. Loftin, I will hand you Exhibit "A" for 24 identification and ask you if you can identify what that 25 exhibit is?

26 A. Yes. That is the affidavit where Mr. John 27 Robertson from Delta, I guess, made the affidavit or swore to 28 the fact that he did this pursuant to this Section, this Code
29 Section.

1           Q.    And that's that he set up the computer system that
2 draws the juries pursuant to the Code Section that is allowed
3 in this state?

4           A.    Correct.

5                   BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I offer this 6 exhibit into evidence.

7                   BY THE COURT: Any objection?

8                   BY MR. FREELON: No objection.

9                   BY THE COURT: Let it be marked.

10                   (STATE'S EXHIBIT "A" TO THE MOTION TO QUASH
11 JURY POOL PREVIOUSLY MARKED FOR IDENTIFICATION WAS 12 NOW RECEIVED IN EVIDENCE.)

13 BY MR. EVANS:

14           Q.    Ms. Loftin, if you know, can you tell us how many 15 qualified electors there are in Lee County?

16           A.    I don't know exact number to date but 17 approximately, probably 45,000, maybe a few less or a few
18 more.

19           Q.    All right, and is the system that is set up in Lee
20 County to draw jurors the system that is authorized by 21 statute in this state?

22           A.    Yes, sir.

23           Q.    And is there anything that has been done by you or 24 anyone else in this county to make that system, to alter it
25 in any way to exclude any type of people- ages, race,
26 religion or anything else?

27           A.    No, sir, not to my knowledge.

28                   BY MR. EVANS: Tender the witness, Your
29 Honor.

1 BY MR. FREELON: We have no questions.

2 BY THE COURT: No questions? All right, you
3 may have a seat back there.

4 BY THE COURT: Anything further, Mr. Evans?

5 BY MR. EVANS: No, sir.

6 (Mr. Lumumba enters the courtroom.)

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have some questions for 8 her; I'm sorry.

9 BY THE COURT: Okay.

10 (Ms. Loftin resumes the witness stand.)

11 CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

12 Q. Yes, ma'am. I'm sorry; I missed your name. Could 13 you give it again?

14 A. Joyce Loftin.

15 Q. And you would be the Clerk of the county; right?

16 A. That's correct.

17 Q. Of the Circuit really?

18 A. I am the Clerk for Circuit Court, and we have a 19 County Court here in this county, and I am also the Clerk for 20 the County Court.

21 Q. Okay, but in as far as this case is concerned, you
22 would be the Clerk for the Circuit Court; is that correct?

23 A. That's correct.

24 Q. Okay. Now you have told us some things about, you
25 know, I guess this pool you use the computer to draw the 26 names, do you?

27 A. Yes, sir.

28 Q. Okay.

29 A. You know, I just know that it's set by statute, and

1 we have a computer company, Delta, that does this for us.

2 Q. Okay, it would be safe to say, wouldn't it, that
3 the computer, of course, is-- only can draw from a selection
4 of what you put in it in the first place? Isn't that 5 correct? In other words, if a name has never been--

6 A. --We give the Jury Commission a complete list of 7 our voters, so it is drawn from the voter roll.

8 Q. Okay, so you give them a complete list; right?

9 A. Correct.

10 Q. And then the Commission decides what goes into the 11 computer; is that right? Or do they put the whole list in 12 there?

13 A. No. Only whatever the Senior Circuit Judge tells 14 us to draw.

15 Q. And, in fact, you have districts, voting districts;
16 is that correct, here in this county?

17 A. We have five beats, supervisors beats.

18 Q. Right, and it would be safe to say that there is 19 more blacks in some voting districts than other voting
20 districts; isn't that correct?

21 A. Yes, sir. We have a predominant black district,
22 District Four. We have a black supervisor.

23 Q. And then there are other districts which are 24 proportionately-- I mean like I know District Four has got 25 the most blacks in it; is that correct?

26 A. That's correct.

27 Q. And then there are other districts which has more--
28 what is the district that has the next most blacks in it?

29 A. I really don't know. I have no idea.

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF MISSISSIPPI

PAGES NUMBERED 601-750

VOLUME 15 of 30

EXHIBIT _____

ELECTRONIC DISK _____

Case #1999-DP-01369-SCT

COURT APPEALED FROM : Circuit Court

COUNTY : Montgomery

TRIAL JUDGE : C. E. Morgan III

.....
Curtis Giovanni Flowers v. State of Mississippi

.....
Charlotte B. Williams, Clerk

.....
TRIAL COURT # : 97-372

1 Q. Okay, all right. So if District Four is under-
2 represented, then in fact, the number of blacks in District
3 Four may be underrepresented; is that correct?

4 A. I didn't understand. You said District Four is 5 underrepresented?

6 Q. I say if it is; do you know whether it is or not?

7 A. (Brief pause).

8 Q. Yeah, you don't know--

9 A. --I know that it's a predominant black district.

10 Q. Yeah, but you don't know whether it's under-
11 represented or not, do you?

12 A. No, sir.

13 Q. Yeah, you don't really know that, okay. But if it
14 is, then in fact, that would be a district which has most of 15 your black people in it; isn't that correct?

16 A. Well, in that district that would be more blacks,
17 in that district.

18 Q. Well, let me ask you this here. The gentleman just 19 mentioned something about the case across the hall. Are you
20 familiar with that case over there?

21 A. Yes, sir.

22 Q. And it has got, he said it had five blacks on the 23 jury; is that right?

24 A. I'm not real sure. I know it has some. I have 25 seen them going up and down the hall, but countwise I don't 26 know.

27 Q. That is a white defendant, is it?

28 A. Sir?

29 Q. White defendant?

1           A.    Yes, sir.

2           Q.    And accused of killing a white person; is that
3 right?

4           A.    Sir?

5           Q.    Accused of killing his wife; right?

6           A.    Accused, yes--

7                   BY MR. EVANS:  --Your Honor, that is not
8 relevant what is going on trial.  The only question
9 is the percentage of jurors.

10                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  Yeah, I think it's relevant.

11                   BY MR. EVANS:  Not at all.

12                   BY THE COURT:  Well, how is it relevant?

13                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  Well, it is relevant because 14 it discloses that-- what we are concerned about is 15 systematic exclusion of blacks from jurors in a 16 case which involves a black defendant.  That's what 17 we are concerned about.

18                   BY THE COURT:  Well, the case across the hall
19 has got nothing to do with that.  Go ahead and ask
20 a question about this case.

21                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  Well, I know it doesn't, so
22 why didn't you tell him that when he raised it?

23                   BY THE COURT:  Well, you didn't object.

24                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  Okay, good; that's a good
25 one.  I will go with that.  I will go with that,
26 okay.

27           BY MR. LUMUMBA:

28           Q.    Now let me ask you this.  It has nothing to do
29 with this; good.  We will forget about the case across the

1 hall. Okay, now have you bothered-- I know you have sent us
2 questionnaires; is that correct? You sent us--

3 A. --I send copies, yes.

4 Q. Yeah, you either send them to us or had somebody
5 send them--

6 A. Well, I had someone. I have ten employees.

7 Q. Yeah, and did you bother to go through there and to 8 calculate how many blacks are in that pool and--

9 A. --No, sir.

10 Q. --how many, okay. You know Brian Neely, don't you?

11 A. I know Mr. Neely.

12 Q. And he does practice here?

13 A. He does.

14 Q. He does practice, and he does try cases in this
15 court?

16 A. Some.

17 Q. Well, I mean all lawyers try some; right?

18 A. Right.

19 Q. And you don't have--

20 BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, that is not
21 relevant to what we are here on today. It has 22 absolutely nothing to do with it and I object.

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have got an affidavit--

24 BY THE COURT: --I'm going to let him make his 25 record. Go ahead.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

27 Q. And so he would be in a position to see jurors in 28 cases that he tries; right?

29 A. Yes, sir.

1           Q.    And he comes in the courthouse sometimes when other
2 people are trying cases; right?

3           A.    Probably so. I don't know. Probably.

4           Q.    Okay, so let me ask you this. Was the jury that 5 tried this case the first time all white?

6                   BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, that is not the--

7                   BY THE WITNESS: --I don't know--

8                   BY MR. EVANS: --point of this Motion. The 9 Motion is the jury pool, not who ended up on the 10 jury. It has absolutely nothing to do with the 11 folks that found some reason to get themselves
12 excused for cause. It has nothing to do with who 13 ended up on the panel. It is strictly the panel-- 14 he has got his burden to show that there is some 15 systematic exclusion of blacks from the jury panels 16 in this case, not from jury trials, from the 17 panels.

18                   BY THE COURT: That is the issue. It's the 19 pool, not the jury.

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

21           Q.    Okay. How many blacks was in the pool for that 22 case? Do you know?

23           A.    You are talking about this case?

24           Q.    Uh-hum, the last time.

25           A.    Sir, I don't remember. We have so many cases here
26 in Lee County. You know, I don't remember. I really don't 27 remember.

28           Q.    Well, do you know if-- do you know whether or not-- 29 do you know the percentages of blacks on juries over the past

1 ten years?

2 A. No, sir. I don't.

3 Q. So would it be safe to say that you cannot say with 4 any certainty that there has not been less than two blacks on 5 juries--

6 BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor--

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Excuse me. Let me--

8 BY MR. EVANS: --Again I object because the 9 issue is not who has served on juries, but who has 10 been on the pools that have been drawn, and I
11 object to the question.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I will rephrase the
13 question.

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

15 Q. Do you know, would you-- do you know what is the 16 percentage of blacks that have been in jury pools over the 17 last ten years?

18 A. No, sir.

19 Q. Okay. If Mr. Neely has said that it's far less
20 than 21 percent, and in fact, that it's less than 10 percent;
21 would you disagree with that?

22 A. I have no way of knowing where Mr. Neely got his 23 figures. I don't know.

24 Q. I'm not asking where he got his figures.

25 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, she is answering 26 the question that she cannot answer that.

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, no--

28 BY THE WITNESS: --I don't know.

29 BY THE COURT: I don't know is a complete

1 answer.

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: "I don't know" is a fine
3 answer. I have no problem with that.

4 BY THE WITNESS: Yeah, I don't know.

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: If he will just be quiet so
6 she can answer questions--

7 BY MR. EVANS: --but I won't.

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --we will be all right. We 9 will be all right.

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

11 Q. Okay, the situation-- so you cannot tell this Court
12 that blacks have not been underrepresented in terms of the 13 percentage of the population over the last ten years on 14 virtually all the juries, jury pools?

15 A. I don't know.

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, all right. I have no
17 further questions of this witness.

18 BY THE COURT: You may return--

19 BY MR. EVANS: One minute, Your Honor.

20 BY THE COURT: I'm sorry. We are going to 21 keep you moving.

22 REDIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. EVANS:

23 Q. You were asked about certain beats in this county.
24 The juries are not drawn from certain beats, are they?

25 A. No, sir. The master list is printed
26 alphabetically, and there is nothing to do with the districts
27 or the beats. There is a complete alphabetical list. If one
28 person registers to vote tomorrow, then that would throw
29 every, all of those sequence out of line.

1           Q.    So the registered voters, whether they be black or 2   white or any other race, are all in there--

3           A.    --Yes.

4           Q.    --and how they come out is just random selection by 5   the computer?

6           A.    Correct.

7                   BY MR. EVANS:  Nothing further, Your Honor.

8                   BY THE COURT:  Now you can go.

9                           WITNESS STEPS DOWN.

10                  BY THE COURT:  Anything further?

11                  BY MR. EVANS:  No, sir.

12                  BY MR. LUMUMBA:  Only the testimony we are 13   going to proffer that would be taken at a different
14   date.

15                  BY THE COURT:  Okay, those witnesses had to be 16   here today.  This is one of the motions to be 17   heard.  The Court relies on Harris v. State, 576
18   So.2d 1262.  It's a Lowndes County case; it
19   involves the same issue that is here.  The 20   testimony of the Circuit Clerk of Lowndes County in 21   that case was substantially the same as Ms.
22   Loftin's was in this case as to how the jury was 23   selected.  In that case, in the Harris case, which 24   correctly states that it's a Swain question, but 25   then quotes Taylor v. Louisiana, a United States
26   Supreme Court 1975 case, where it says you are 27   entitled to a jury drawn from a cross section of 28   the community, but it does not require, "There is 29   no requirement that petit juries actually chosen

1 must mirror the community and reflect the various
2 distinctive groups in the population. But the jury
3 wheels, pools of names, panels, or venires from 4 which juries are drawn must not systemically
5 exclude distinctive groups in the community and
6 thereby fail to be reasonably representative
7 thereof."

8 The evidence in this case, the only credible
9 evidence in this case is they were selected as 10 pursuant to statute by a computer randomly, and 11 there was no indication of race even placed in the 12 computer. Therefore, this Motion is without merit,
13 and it's overruled. Okay.

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: You only ruled on half the
15 Motion.

16 BY THE COURT: Okay. On the questionnaire,
17 both sides submitted, after we had the hearings,
18 both sides then submitted questionnaires to me that 19 were not consistent with what we talked about in 20 some regards. The Court determined then-- one, the 21 questionnaire is discretionary in any event. Its 22 only purpose is to give you some information ahead
23 of time. It's not for the purpose of voir diring
24 the jury. The Court decided that since there was 25 discrepancies between what both sides wanted, I
26 would rely on the questionnaire that was issued in 27 the first case, and that was the one that the Court
28 entered, and the Court did that. And that probably 29 was different than what my order was, but that's

1           why I did it, and that ground is without merit
2           too.

3           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Oh, I see. So the Court was 4           aware of the fact that it was sending out a
5           questionnaire that was inconsistent with its
6           order?

7           BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

8           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. And the Court would 9           acknowledge, of course, that it never informed us
10          that it had decided to do that?

11          BY THE COURT: Well, I sent you the 12          questionnaire. Now whether--

13          BY MR. LUMUMBA: --No, the last questionnaire
14          we received before-- in fact, the last time we saw
15          a questionnaire was when the prosecution sent us
16          the questionnaire which had been--

17          BY THE COURT: --I am telling you I mailed it
18          to you. Now whether you got it is another story.

19          BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, you didn't mail us that
20          questionnaire.

21          BY THE COURT: Oh, yes, sir; I did.

22          BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, no, no. I think that if 23          you would look back, Judge, we got a questionnaire
24          before we had the hearing, and then that was the 25          basis of the hearing. We made the motion. Now
26          Judge, you just told me earlier that we didn't file
27          a motion, and we have got one from December 30th,
28          1997, so sometimes I know what I'm talking about.
29          What happened here is that you sent us a

1 questionnaire. We sent in an alternative
2 questionnaire, and that's what brought about the 3 inquiry. Then in a hearing you decided that they
4 should put the race question in there as long as it
5 applied to both blacks and whites. They presented
6 to you a questionnaire which had both blacks and 7 whites. You had already overruled several of the 8 questions, all of our questions except for the one
9 on race. You had already thrown that out. Then
10 they sent it in and then after that, you are now
11 telling us you sent the questionnaire to the jurors
12 which you did not send to us again. We had no way
13 to know that you had decided to use the original
14 questionnaire after you had ordered that another
15 question be put in it.

16 Now if-- you know, that's what the record
17 should reflect. Now you may have forgotten and 18 thought you sent the original questionnaire to us
19 afterwards, but you sent it first. That's why the 20 issue arose.

21 BY THE COURT: Well, let the record reflect
22 that the Court sent the questionnaire to Mr.
23 Lumumba. Whether he got it or not is another
24 story. I put it in the mail. The other thing is I
25 am not limiting anybody from asking these questions
26 on voir dire if they are appropriate, and the 27 questionnaire is not for the purpose of voir dire.
28 So the Motion is overruled.

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, let he just point this

1 out. Of course, you have put us at great burden.
2 You alleviate the prosecution from the problem of 3 having to ask questions about who has a problem
4 with the death penalty, and at the same time you
5 leave us the burden of having to ferret out who has 6 a situation where it is supportive of the death
7 penalty and will automatically give it.

8 BY THE COURT: No, I'm going to ask that 9 question. You won't have to worry about that. The 10 Court is going to ask that question.

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, the same thing is true
12 about the race question.

13 BY THE COURT: And the Court is probably going
14 to ask that question, so I'm going to relieve you
15 of that responsibility.

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, I don't know--

17 BY THE COURT: --Then if you don't like the 18 way I ask it, then you will be able, entitled to 19 follow up on it.

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: It would have been nice if we 21 could have gotten that kind of even handedness in 22 the questionnaire that was sent out, Judge.

23 We at this time would bring before the Court a 24 Motion to Suppress Identification Evidence. The
25 problem--

26 BY THE COURT: --First, I have got a
27 question. Now these are two motions that were 28 filed yesterday? That's when I got them.

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: They were filed-- let me tell

1           you when they were filed. Just hold on a minute.

2           BY MR. EVANS: We received the motions--

3           BY MR. LUMUMBA: --They were filed August
4           31st--

5           BY MR. EVANS: --he is talking about 6           yesterday, and we are not prepared to go forward on 7           that at this point.

8           BY MR. LUMUMBA: August 31st is when they were
9           filed.

10          BY THE COURT: Okay, that was Monday. I
11          didn't get, I received my copy on September 1st. I
12          assume if you mailed them, they must have received
13          them about the same time.

14          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Probably.

15          BY THE COURT: If they are not ready to go
16          forward on that motion, I'm not going to hear it
17          today.

18          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

19          BY THE COURT: I tell you what I want to do on 20          that. One, you can obviously, those things you can 21          raise at trial. If we get a jury or once we get a 22          jury in this case, then depending on what our 23          situation is, then I might be in a position then to 24          go ahead and hear those motions before we start
25          taking testimony. So I advise everybody to have 26          every witness that they want on those two motions
27          needs to be present from day one to testify when I
28          get a break to do it. I will try to hear them, I
29          will try to hear them at that time. If not, you

1           have got a right to object to that when it comes
2           up.

3           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, well, let me ask you
4           this, Judge. We have got Motions to Suppress
5           Statements, Motion to Suppress Identification
6           Evidence, and Motion to Suppress Evidence. Does 7           that apply to all three of those?

8           BY THE COURT: Yes, sir. They are entitled
9           to be prepared on them.

10          BY MR. HORAN: We don't have a Motion to 11          Suppress Evidence. Which one is that?

12          BY THE COURT: I don't think I got but two.
13          I think I got the identification and the one about 14          the gunshot residue. I got those two.

15          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, the one about the 16          gunshot residue is the Motion to Suppress Evidence.

17          BY THE COURT: Okay, well, I got that one.

18          BY MR. LUMUMBA: They were all filed on the 19          same day. But if they didn't get it, I have got an 20          extra copy.

21          BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, also just for the 22          record, I understand that some of these things
23          opposing counsel has a right to raise even at 24          trial. I don't disagree with that. I would like
25          to again point out in the record that there was a
26          deadline of, I think, July 1st for these motions to 27          be filed, and we are still as late as yesterday
28          getting motions.

29          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, let me say this, Judge,

1           and, you know, just to address that; the Court can
2           if you want. You know, we have done the best we 3           can to ferret through a lot of information, and as 4           we ferret through it, things come up which we 5           didn't see or notice before. Now perhaps that is 6           ineffective assistance of counsel. If it is, let 7           it be-- you can state so on the record so Mr.
8           Flowers--

9           BY MR. EVANS: --That's an attempt to try to 10          make it look like it's--

11          BY THE COURT: --I'm not falling off into that 12          swamp, okay.

13          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. But in any event, I am
14          just telling you what happened. I mean I have 15          raised these issues. I raised these issues as we 16          get them--

17          BY THE COURT: --Let me say this. I think you
18          are entitled to raise them, and I will have to 19          cross those bridges when I come to them. If you
20          have waited, if you have jeopardized your case by 21          waiting too late to do it, then that is just the 22          way it falls. But I will reserve any rulings on it
23          until we get there.

24          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Right. Well, our position is 25          we would like to hear them before the trial, but if 26          the Court has ordered that we hear them at the 27          trial, we would like to hear them before those 28          witnesses testify.

29          BY THE COURT: I will do my best to

1 accommodate you on that.

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. We also-- hold on a
3 minute.

4 (Defense Counsel confer briefly.)

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: There is-- we asked at one
6 point in time for the District Attorney to provide
7 us with all the information relevant to the other
8 persons who they were investigating for this case.
9 I am reminded-- and we never got it. And what
10 reminded me of that was that I was reading through 11 the newspaper articles, and there was some people
12 arrested in another state. And the newspaper
13 article talks about them being arrested and that 14 they felt they were guilty of some murder that had 15 occurred in that state, and I can't remember what 16 state it is, and that they felt there was some 17 connection to this murder here. But we knew before
18 that that was, from having talked to people, that 19 that was something that the prosecution had 20 maintained at one time, or not the prosecution, but 21 the police had maintained that somebody else was 22 responsible for this.

23 We would like to get all the information
24 relevant to that. We don't get any information on 25 that. All the discovery we got, none if it talked 26 about those other folks or what led them to the 27 conclusion that they were involved or which led 28 them to investigate. That is clearly Brady
29 material, Brady being the case which says we can

1           have any information which may be favorable to the 2           defense. And we are the ones that decide whether
3           it is favorable to us and not the prosecution. And 4           that is something I think would be favorable, at 5           least to look at. Now it might not have any 6           significance at all. The Court will determine
7           whether it is relevant, but we would like to get
8           that.

9           BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, there is nothing to 10          furnish as to, which points to anyone else as a 11          defendant in this case. We knew from day one who 12          had committed this crime, and there is no evidence
13          that I am aware of that points a finger at anyone
14          else.

15          BY MR. LUMUMBA: They knew from day one and 16          waited until seven months later to make an arrest.

17          BY MR. EVANS: That's right, and I would be 18          glad to go into all the details, but I don't think 19          we can.

20          BY THE COURT: Well, y'all spare me that,
21          okay. He said he has furnished it. If you find 22          that not to be true, then I can look at it at that
23          time.

24          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. We want-- there is an 25          expert, expert which the Court has declared to be 26          an expert of everybody. His expenses has to be 27          paid, surprise to everybody who can pay them. The 28          Court, we have a bill for - what is it? -
29          $1,100.00?

1                   BY THE COURT: Just submit me an order with an
2 itemized statement to it and I will sign it.

3                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. We will give you an 4 itemized order.

5                   BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, while we are on the 6 expert; so that we know whether or not we need to 7 have him subpoenaed for certain dates, it would be 8 good at this point if we could know what dates the 9 expert is going to be here for testimony.

10                  BY THE COURT: You are asking me?

11                  BY MR. EVANS: I was asking you to ascertain 12 for us so that we will know whether he is going to 13 be here during the time that we would need him or 14 if he would need to subpoena him separately since 15 he is an independent expert that the Court has 16 already, I believe from the order I saw, ordered
17 how much he is going to be paid to be transported.
18 I would just like to know when he is going to be 19 transported so that we could make arrangements
20 where he wouldn't have to be transported twice.

21                  BY THE COURT: Okay, that is up-- the Court
22 has appointed pursuant to 706 an expert who has now
23 made his analysis and given everybody a copy of 24 that. I don't-- neither one of you have to call
25 him. You know, neither one of you may want to call
26 him, or you may both want to call him. I don't 27 know; that is up to y'all. Y'all issue the 28 subpoena. If you want him here, issue the subpoena
29 for the first day. He will just have to stay. I

1 mean I can't answer that. If you want him,
2 subpoena him for the first day and the same thing
3 for Mr. Lumumba. If he wants him, he has got to do
4 that. Y'all don't issue the subpoenas, that's it.
5 I'm going to pay him consistent with-- if he comes,
6 I will pay him consistent with the schedule that is 7 in the order.

8 BY MR. EVANS: The only problem with that-- I
9 haven't got the order. It has been a while since I
10 read it, but I was thinking the order was that he 11 had to come down here, back one day and testify and 12 fly back out--

13 BY THE COURT: I don't think that's what that 14 order said, and if y'all want him to testify,
15 either side wants him to testify, we will see that 16 he gets here and gets paid.

17 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. So Judge, my 19 understanding is now we have this exchange date for 20 audio tapes which is Tuesday at 1 o'clock? Is that 21 where--

22 BY THE COURT: You aren't going to make me go
23 back through it again. I will never remember what 24 all I said.

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, no; I am trying to 26 remember. I am just trying to make sure. I
27 thought where we ended it, they are going to supply
28 us with the audio tapes at 1:00. We are going to 29 supply them at 1:00. The videotapes is where you

1           said that all we have got to do is notify each
2           other, and if we want them, we have got to come
3           and--

4           BY THE COURT: --Is that right?

5           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Is that right? I mean if
6           that is not right, straighten me up. That's all I
7           am trying to do. Okay, what do you want to do?

8           BY THE COURT: What does it take-- how do you
9           go about copying those things?

10          BY MR. EVANS: We do not have any equipment to 11          copy it. All we can do is turn the tape recorder
12          on, put another tape recorder down beside it. It
13          would probably take, it is going to take a good
14          many hours.

15          BY THE COURT: Well, I will be honest with 16          you. If y'all find somebody that has got a dual 17          tape deck, you can dub it from one tape to another,
18          and you can do it in about five minutes.

19          BY MR. EVANS: I don't know anybody that has 20          got one for the small--

21          BY THE COURT: --I have got one, but I'm not 22          going to let y'all use it.

23          BY MR. LUMUMBA: You have got one for the 24          small tapes, Judge?

25          BY THE COURT: I don't have one for the small 26          tapes.

27          BY MR. EVANS: This is microtapes.

28          BY THE COURT: Okay, Radio Shack, I don't know
29          whether they have got one or not in Kosciusko.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, so where are we at?
2 That's all I want to know. Where are we at?
3 Because if we have to come up here--

4 BY THE COURT: Do you have transcripts? Are 5 there transcripts of what is on the tapes?

6 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir. They have 7 transcripts.

8 BY THE COURT: Why don't y'all just listen to 9 them and see if they match the transcript, and that 10 will take care of that?

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, why don't we do this?
12 We will-- if that's what the Court's order is, we 13 will do that. But you are saying that if we do
14 bring an extra tape, we can go ahead and copy it?

15 BY THE COURT: Sure.

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: All right, we will do that.
17 And they have the same invitation.

18 BY THE COURT: Right.

19 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, we have no problem
20 with it and have not from the beginning. The only
21 thing, I don't want to make people available all
22 day long waiting on them if they are not going to 23 come.

24 BY THE COURT: Well, all I can say is they say
25 they are going to come.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: So is that 1 o'clock Tuesday
27 good, or do we need to get another date? I don't
28 know.

29 BY MR. EVANS: That will be fine with us.

1                   BY THE COURT: Well, I tell you; where are
2                   y'all going-- I put that at the courthouse. Now
3                   the problem I have got with that is I am going to 4                   be in the middle of that. I have got all kind of 5                   hearings and everything going on. Y'all got a
6                   grand jury--

7                   BY MR. HORAN: --We could go to the chancery
8                   building.

9                   BY THE COURT: Y'all have got a grand jury
10                  meeting there.

11                  BY MR. EVANS: We have got a grand jury there.

12                  BY MR. HORAN: We can go to the chancery
13                  building or somebody can.

14                  BY THE COURT: Yeah, okay. Y'all meet at 15                  the--

16                  BY MR. FREELON: --Excuse me. We are going to 17                  do the taping?

18                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah.

19                  BY THE COURT: That's what he said.

20                  BY MR. FREELON: If we are going to do the 21                  taping, I need to set the time based upon my
22                  calendar--

23                  BY MR. EVANS: --Here we go playing games.

24                  BY THE COURT: Well--

25                  BY MR. FREELON: It's not playing any games.
26                  We are talking 5 or 6 hours. I need to look at my 27                  calendar to determine if I have 5 or 6 hours
28                  available at that point in time to tape all the 29                  conversations.

1                   BY THE COURT: Well, everybody else has got a
2 schedule too, Mr. Freelon.

3                   BY MR. FREELON: I understand that.

4                   BY THE COURT: You know, I mean both of these
5 guys have got term of court starting in Attala
6 County Monday, and they have got-- there is a
7 capital case to be tried next week. So--

8                   BY MR. FREELON: --My point is--

9                   BY THE COURT: --you are just going to have to 10 work it out. If you want the stuff, you are going 11 to have to work it out.

12                  BY MR. FREELON: So if I don't get it on that 13 day, it will not be available? Is that--

14                  BY MR. HORAN: We will accommodate him, Your
15 Honor.

16                  BY THE COURT: I know. I think they will 17 accommodate. They will accommodate. My order is 18 that you be there at 1 o'clock on Tuesday. And 19 then if y'all can work out something different than 20 that, that is certainly okay with me.

21                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: That is in which county?

22                  BY THE COURT: That's in Attala. And I think 23 you can probably use-- y'all can meet at the 24 courthouse, and you can probably use the chancery
25 building. That courtroom will probably be open,
26 and it's a good facility for doing that.

27                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Is this all the physical 28 evidence? I don't think it is.

29                  (NOTE: Referring to exhibits from first trial

1           which were spread out on the rail of the jury box
2           in the courtroom where the Court Reporter had been
3           premarking exhibits for this trial.)

4           BY THE COURT: I don't know.

5           BY MR. EVANS: I don't know if it's all of it
6           or not.

7           BY MR. HORAN: No, it's not all of it.

8           BY MR. LUMUMBA: I would like--

9           BY THE COURT: --All of it is here. I even 10          think the stuff at the Crime Lab is back here now,
11          isn't it?

12          BY MR. HORAN: Judge, the only thing that is 13          not here is some photographs and stuff that were 14          sent to the Supreme Court that we will have to get 15          duplicated or get withdrawn. But for the most 16          part, that is everything--

17          BY THE COURT: --except what the Supreme Court
18          has?

19          BY MR. HORAN: Right, that was introduced.

20          BY THE COURT: Y'all will be entitled to look 21          at that stuff at the Supreme Court in Jackson where 22          you are located.

23          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

24          BY MR. HORAN: I doubt we are going to 25          withdraw-- we are probably just going to get
26          duplicates of it. It will be easier--

27          BY THE COURT: --What I'm saying, for the 28          purposes of them being able to inspect it, they 29          have got access to that.

1 BY MR. HORAN: Right.

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, so this evidence here
3 is all, or do you have some somewhere else?

4 BY THE COURT: The Supreme Court.

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, okay, I know there is 6 some at the Supreme Court, but I'm saying other
7 than the Supreme Court stuff, is this everything
8 here?

9 BY THE COURT: Well, it's in this courthouse.
10 Whether it is sitting over here I don't know. Ms.
11 Loftin is here.

12 BY THE CLERK: Everything is here.

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Everything is here, okay. So 14 we can have an opportunity to look at it today, we 15 would appreciate it, if that is not a problem.

16 BY MR. EVANS: I thought you did that the last
17 time you were here. You went through the boxes.

18 BY THE COURT: Anything further?

19 BY MR. HORAN: You had a motion, a Defendant's
20 motion that hasn't been brought up.

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We have a Motion to Exclude 22 from evidence the conviction of the Defendant. The 23 conviction occurred after the alleged incident, and 24 consistent with another analysis I thought the 25 Court was addressing earlier, should not be allowed 26 to impeach him should he take the stand or 27 introduced in any other way. He was, his 28 conviction-- and it would certainly be more
29 prejudicial than probative, the fact that he was

1 convicted in this case.

2 BY THE COURT: I understand. Let me take that
3 motion under advisement. I know what your point
4 is. I'm not trying to cut you off, but I know what 5 your point is, and I want to do some research on 6 that myself. And you are entitled to renew that at 7 the beginning of the trial or at such time before
8 he testifies. Of course, it is not admissible
9 unless he testifies.

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Y'all have any other motion?

11 BY MR. HORAN: No, I don't think there is 12 anything substantive.

13 BY THE COURT: Anything else, gentlemen?

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, there is nothing that 15 I can think of right now.

16 BY THE COURT: All right. See y'all soon.
17 Court is adjourned.

1                   ON SEPTEMBER 14, 1998, THE COURT CONVENED IN 2 CAUSE NUMBER CR 97-372 IN TUPELO, LEE COUNTY, MISSISSIPPI, AT 3 8:00 A.M. FOR THE CONSIDERATION OF MOTIONS BEFORE THE SCHEDULED
4 TRIAL TO BEGIN ON THIS DATE AT 9:00 A.M. PRESENT REPRESENTING
5 THE STATE OF MISSISSIPPI WERE HONORABLE DOUG EVANS, DISTRICT
6 ATTORNEY, AND HONORABLE KEVIN HORAN AND HONORABLE WALTER BLECK, 7 ASSISTANT DISTRICT ATTORNEYS; AND PRESENT REPRESENTING THE
8 DEFENDANT WERE HONORABLE CHOKWE LUMUMBA AND HONORABLE HARVEY
9 FREELON. PROCEEDINGS IN CHAMBERS WITH THE DEFENDANT ALSO 10 PRESENT WERE AS FOLLOWS:)

11                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, a couple of things we 12 wanted to raise. Actually, we have submitted an 13 amendment to our Motion to Change Venue. Actually we 14 asked for a reconsideration of the Motion to Change
15 Venue, and I want to-- I have already sent I think 16 you and the DA some additional exhibits. I believe I
17 got--

18                   BY THE COURT: --I didn't get them.

19                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: You didn't get them. Okay.
20 I'm going to ask--

21                   BY MR. EVANS: I may have.

22                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: I'm going to ask that this be 23 marked to put in the-- and the nature, and the nature
24 of the exhibits that we are submitting in addition to 25 the ones that we have done already are basically 26 exhibits which demonstrate that the media coverage of 27 this case, of course, has not discontinued. They 28 did, and for the most part what these cover is the,
29 is the last hearing, coverage of the last hearing.

1 And then in a couple of instances you do have some
2 other coverage from the Winona paper. I think this
3 is January 1930 [sic]. This is-- let me see what it
4 is. You have got "Winona Multiple Death Trial Will 5 Change Venue." That was not from the Winona paper;
6 I'm sorry. That is from the paper here, the paper
7 here in this area which is the Daily Journal. Then
8 we have, "Jurors to Hear Death Row Inmates Trial."
9 That is a Clarion Ledger situation, and then finally,
10 we have another one from the Commercial Appeal which 11 is "Ex-Employee Held in Slaying of Four at Winona 12 Store." That was covered back some time ago during 13 the, prior to the first trial.

14 And we have Mr. Bradley is-- you can sit right
15 there.

16 Okay, then we have "Ex-Furniture Store Worker
17 Pleads Innocent In Slaying." That was also, I am
18 sure, from the Winona paper. What we want to also do 19 is submit at the last-- we had subpoenaed for the 20 last hearing, but it didn't show up, WCBI. I think 21 we played a tape from the other station. This is not 22 long. The Court can look at it, but it's, I'm going 23 to ask that it be marked. But it's an exhibit which 24 also shows media publicity.

25 And what we think these additional submissions
26 tell the Court, first of all, we did submit a Motion
27 for Reconsideration, and attached to the Motion for 28 Reconsideration we attached affidavits which actually
29 came in on the day that we were here the last time.

1 I think that is 2nd of September or the 3rd of
2 September, whichever day we were here for the last
3 hearing.

4 There were two affidavits from Walter Stanphill
5 and a woman by the name of Earline Gardner, long time
6 residents of this community. Both of the affidavits
7 articulate that they have talked to a number of 8 people in the community, that they are active in the 9 community; they have been here for years and years
10 and years, and that they do not feel that the 11 community would give Mr. Flowers a fair trial in 12 that, in fact, the community is steeped with bias
13 against the case principally because they have all
14 been told he is guilty already. They had been told 15 that by the newspaper, the TV, and by twelve jurors
16 who sat here some time ago who live amongst them that 17 he is guilty of this very crime and this very case
18 which we are sitting here for today. So that is the 19 reason why they don't feel, and people have said as 20 much to them.

21 We would also point out to the Court that the 22 Court did indicate in its ruling several things. One
23 was that the affidavits weren't in. We got the 24 affidavits in, albeit they were a bit late. I would 25 suggest to the Court that we subpoenaed them to be in 26 on time. The Court set this particular date. We did 27 everything we could to get people here. We 28 subpoenaed them. In the case of Stanphill, he does
29 have a position of, with Legal Services here in this

1 area. He was tied up with another court. When he
2 got here, he actually had both affidavits. He was
3 carrying them. He had gotten the other one for us
4 from the lady who submitted it.

5 We asked for a continuance until later on on 6 that case or to hold off and not to decide it until 7 later that day. The Court saw fit to proceed, but 8 now that it has this information, we would hope that 9 it would take it in consideration. The same thing
10 would be true of the tape, of the videotape which we 11 have put before the Court.

12 And in a different argument the media publicity,
13 which represents the publicity from the hearing
14 itself, obviously could not be produced until after 15 the hearing was held, but it was anticipatable that 16 that would occur, and it did, in fact, occur.

17 We would also point out to the Court; the Court
18 indicated that we had not filed a motion prior to the 19 time the selection of or the pulling of the venire or 20 the pool as we call it here in Mississippi. What 21 really is true is that we had submitted a motion, and 22 that was in December 30th. It was filed, I think it
23 was marked something like December 28th that it was 24 prepared, of 1997, and that was well before the 25 venire was selected in this case. And the Court, I
26 cited a couple of instances in the record where the 27 Court did come forth and indicated especially in 28 January that we could file this motion at any time.
29 And then I think at a later date in March the Court

1           came back and reiterated that, however did indicate
2           that it did not want the motion to be filed in a
3           dilatory, I think, manner or something like that.

4           And so those were the times that the Court spoke
5           on it. It spoke on it once in January, and it spoke
6           on it once in March. Both indications to us was that 7           we could proceed on this venire, on this motion. We 8           did not, were not dilatory in it. We sought as much
9           help as we could here in this area. Of course, we 10          have been denied a number of experts by the Court,
11          one of them I believe was an expert that we sought in 12          the area of the death penalty expert who could have 13          assisted us in some of these things and investigated,
14          and could have assisted us in some of these things,
15          but we were unable to obtain it.

16          The other thing that I guess I would say in 17          relationship to that Motion is that the Court
18          indicated, if I'm not mistaken, that there was no
19          evidence that the venue was biased. I think the 20          testimony of Bland has to be considered as evidence
21          that the venue is biased. The affidavits have to be 22          considered as evidence that the venue is biased, and 23          the testimony of Mr. Muhammad who testified has to be 24          considered as evidence that the venue is biased.

25          And the final thing is I would just, you know,
26          indicate to the Court that in addition to saying that 27          we do stand by the thing that we have, you know, the 28          information we have put in our motions is that it
29          would be very difficult, I would think. And I was

1 met somewhat by a fellow colleague from the Bar and 2 just people in general when they read the news that 3 the trial was staying here, with a sense of alarm and 4 shock that a case where a man has been convicted of 5 the very same charge, the very same case, that we
6 would try to try it in the same venue and in some way
7 convince ourselves that there is no bias going to 8 attach. So I would move for the change of venue and 9 for reconsideration of that Motion.

10 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, very briefly in 11 response, I would like to point out that this new 12 news that he talks about is at their insistence.
13 They had a press conference called for the day that 14 we had the last motions here. This press conference
15 was called by the Mississippi Coalition for Justice,
16 if there is such a group. I cannot find any such 17 group registered in Mississippi. This group through 18 Muhammad who is an associate, even though he lied at 19 the previous trial, is associated with Defense
20 Counsel which Defense Counsel admitted in part of his 21 argument when we were here before. This press
22 conference that they called is why the news was out.

23 Also, in an attempt to tamper with the jury,
24 which I would ask that sanctions be imposed in this
25 case, the Defense or the Defense through this group,
26 one or the other, issued three page pamphlets all
27 over cars in this county. Information in those 28 pamphlets, some of the information was only known by 29 the attorneys in this case. So it had to be

1           disseminated by the Defense Attorney in this case.
2           This information which I think amounts to gross
3           misconduct by attempting to get information out in 4           front of the jury which may or may not be admissible
5           evidence in trial is definitely improper, and at the 6           absolute least is an attempt to tamper with the 7           jury. It is also an attempt to get information out
8           there to try to force a change of venue in this 9           case. And I would think that the Court should at the 10          least as far as a change of venue, completely
11          disregard any information that they have purposely
12          gotten out to the people.

13                 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, the only other thing
14          is Mr. Lumumba in his motion for the Court to 15          reconsider attached as an exhibit some of the rulings
16          by this Court at the March 3rd hearing where the 17          Court told Mr. Freelon exactly procedurally what the 18          Court felt like the proper procedure was as far as a
19          change of venue. At no time did they say, did you
20          say that at any time a change of venue would be 21          considered. In fact, I think on the third page of 22          that exhibit you make the comment that they would 23          have to file it in the proper fashion, proper manner,
24          and - I'm not quoting you - but you said in a time
25          close enough to the time in which we are going to 26          draw this jury panel, and you informed Mr. Freelon on 27          the record that he would have to do that.

28                 Now once you informed him of that, that put him
29          on notice that they needed to do something before the

1           venire was pulled. The reason behind that is because 2           the law is clear and the statute says after you pull
3           that venire, nothing can be considered for change of 4           venue that happened prior to that. Only things that 5           have occurred after the pulling of the venire is 6           there, can there be a ground for a change of venue.
7           And I specifically read the exhibit that they sent,
8           and I saw that. It's on the top of the third page, I
9           believe, and I think the Court will remember that 10          that is exactly what you told them, that they were 11          going to have to not be dilatory in filing their 12          change of venue. And you did deny it at that time.
13          You did not say you would not revisit it. You just 14          said you would revisit it if they did it in a timely
15          and proper fashion.

16                BY MR. LUMUMBA: The gentleman is talking about,
17                presumably not talking about the comments made on the 18                5th of January because that's not--

19                BY MR. HORAN: --It's March.

20                BY MR. LUMUMBA: That is not what is said on the 21                5th of January.

22                BY MR. HORAN: No, in March.

23                BY MR. LUMUMBA: Right. So we probably 24                shouldn't ignore the 5th of January either. We 25                probably should try to take all this in 26                consideration. But on the 5th of January it says,
27                "As I have done with the motion when I ruled on it
28                previously, I overruled the Motion at this time
29                because nothing has been presented to the Court that

1 would show that this person could not get a fair and
2 impartial trial in Lee County." And I would actually
3 take issue with that. The fact that the man was 4 convicted and all the newspapers carried it and he
5 was convicted by a jury in Lee County probably should 6 have been enough, and I believe probably legally is 7 enough to get a change of venue. "However, if that
8 is presented to the Court or if during voir dire it
9 becomes apparent from the questioning of the venire
10 at that time that the Defendant cannot get a fair
11 trial in Lee County, the Court will sustain the
12 Motion for Change of Venue and move it to another
13 jurisdiction." And "What is next?"

14 And then it says, "The Defendant has a Motion 15 for Change of Venue." Actually, the Court kind of 16 mistook a motion that we had to return the venue to 17 Montgomery County for a motion for change of venue.
18 "I thought we just heard that." "Well, that wasn't
19 what," "that wasn't what I," "that wasn't what I
20 just argued. I just argued a Motion to Change Venue"
21 etc., etc. I just argued a Motion to Return Venue to 22 Montgomery County. "But my argument would be similar 23 as it relates to a Motion for a Change of Venue."

24 "All right, my ruling would be the same. That 25 Motion is overruled."

26 And let me see. The Court states up here --
27 okay. Okay, so at that point in time what the Court
28 told us is that, "However, if that is presented to 29 the Court or if during voir dire it becomes apparent

1 from the questioning of the venire at that time that
2 the Defendant cannot get a fair trial," the Motion
3 will be sustained by the Court.

4 And in March the Court did make comments
5 indicating that we could file it at a later date
6 because what we had indicated at that time we were
7 trying to do a Motion for Extension of Time to file
8 motions, and what the Court went on to say is that 9 the Motion for Change of Venue does not, should not 10 be impacted on by the deadline, by the motion filing
11 deadline.

12 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, just one-- my main
13 point is that we pulled a venire, I believe, July
14 3rd. Mr. Freelon was here, I believe. He voiced no
15 objection to the pulling of the venire, and once he 16 did that, something has to occur after that date that 17 would warrant a change of venue. That just hasn't 18 happened.

19 BY MR. FREELON: If I'm not mistaken, even at 20 that venire which we do not have that on the record.
21 I did and that was expressed at the point in time
22 about the change of venue. The Judge at that point
23 in time stated that the change of venue motion would 24 still be available, even at the pulling of the 25 venire. That's the only thing I did object to at 26 that point in time was that our motion for change of 27 venue--

28 BY MR. HORAN: --Your Honor--

29 BY THE COURT: --That is not what happened.

1           You did reserve your rights to move for a change of 2           venue at voir dire. You did not reserve any right to 3           file a motion at that time, and that is on the 4           record, and the record will speak for itself. The 5           statute is real clear on change of venue motions. In 6           order for them to be sufficient, they have to have
7           two affidavits with them. No affidavits were filed
8           with any motion for change of venue in this case
9           until about three weeks ago or right prior to the 10          last hearing in this case which was about ten days
11          ago.

12                 That Motion for Change of Venue was called up
13          before the Court that day by the Defendant. A 14          hearing was heard. The Court ruled. Part of the 15          ruling was that there were no affidavits filed at 16          that time, and they were not. Those affidavits were 17          filed after that Motion, so at the time the Court
18          heard that Motion the Motion was legally
19          insufficient. Since there were no, since there was 20          no statutory correct motion filed prior to the 21          pulling of the venire, it was too late to file the 22          Motion after that.

23                 I'm going to, of course, admit these exhibits
24          that you want. I want them admitted into evidence
25          and put into evidence. We have the jury here, and we 26          will find out whether or not it has influenced the 27          jury here in a minute. And when we do the, at voir
28          dire if it comes about that they have been prejudiced 29          or tainted by the publicity, then you can renew your

1 Motion then, and we will go from there. But the
2 Motion is overruled.

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, let me also bring to the 4 Court's attention that I have filed a Motion to Quash
5 the Jury Venire based upon the fact that the 6 population, well, there is racial discrimination in 7 selection of the venire. The case law states--

8 BY THE COURT: --I have already ruled on that
9 Motion. I'm not going to revisit that.

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, I am asking it be 11 reconsidered because--

12 BY THE COURT: --Well, I'm not going to 13 reconsider it this morning.

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, well, let me just point
15 out that the case law clearly states that we, you
16 know, we present a prima facie case when you
17 demonstrate at least by ten percent there is a
18 variation between the number of persons of the quote,
19 unquote "distinguishable group" or minority group and 20 the number of people in the jury pool. So what we 21 have shown is that 9 percent, I think it was 9
22 percent only--

23 BY MR. EVANS: --That is not true.

24 BY THE COURT: Well, Simon v. State answers that 25 question, and it answers it against you, Mr. Lumumba,
26 and that's a 1997 case.

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, I don't think it does 28 answer against me but anyway. What is not true? Is 29 it not true that it was only 9 percent of--

1 BY MR. EVANS: It was a lot greater than that at 2 the time we heard that motion.

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --No--

4 BY THE COURT: --I have already done that--

5 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, before we go into 6 voir dire, we have some motions. I know you are 7 probably going to qualify the jury first. But before
8 we actually start voir dire, we have a couple motions
9 we would like to raise.

10 BY THE COURT: Okay, I want to get the jury
11 qualified, and it will take us time to get a list
12 made. While they are getting the list, we will come 13 back here and--

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Okay, well, let me just point
15 out that we have motions too. There are three 16 unsettled motions at least that we filed that were 17 never heard about suppression of evidence and things
18 of that nature, and we have some other motions in 19 limine to exclude certain testimony.

20 BY THE COURT: Okay.

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Just for the record, by the 22 way, we absolutely deny we have done anything to try
23 to influence the jury. The last I heard groups still 24 had freedom of speech. We did not call a press
25 conference and did nothing to have one called, and 26 Mr. Muhammad does not work for my office, is not
27 associated with my law office. If you ask the right
28 questions, you will get the right answers, but I
29 think that was the question that he was asked was he

1 affiliated with my law office, and no, he was not
2 affiliated with my law office at this time and he
3 wasn't affiliated with my law office at the time that
4 the question was asked to him.

5 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I think the proof is 6 already out there from his own arguments before that 7 Muhammad does work with his office on cases. We can 8 prove even to a greater extent if necessary. We 9 would ask the Court even though there is still a gag
10 order in effect in this case, we would ask the Court
11 again to order that there is a gag order in this case
12 and order that that not only applies to the 13 attorneys, but anyone that is associated with them in 14 any way which means people that go out with them and 15 help them take statements or whatever.

16 BY THE COURT: Well, I don't think the law lets
17 me go that far.

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I don't--

19 BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, if it's folks that 20 they have control over which they do--

21 BY THE COURT: --You will have to show me some 22 law on that. I couldn't find any to that effect. I
23 am, the rules require a gag order on participants in 24 this trial, and there is one until at least we get 25 the jury selected.

26 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, does that include
27 people that are listed as witnesses?

28 BY THE COURT: Whatever the rule says in that
29 regard.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: So we would have these marked
2 as exhibits.

3 (WHEREUPON, THE FOUR NEWSPAPER ARTICLES
4 PREVIOUSLY REFERRED TO WERE MARKED IN EVIDENCE
5 COLLECTIVELY TO THE MOTION FOR CHANGE OF VENUE OF
6 9/14/98 AS DEFENDANT'S EXHIBIT D-G. THE VIDEOTAPE
7 FROM THE TV STATION WAS MARKED IN EVIDENCE TO THE 8 SAME MOTION AS DEFENDANT'S EXHIBIT D-H.)

9 (THE COURT THEN WENT INTO OPEN COURT IN LEE 10 COUNTY, MISSISSIPPI, AND WITH ALL COUNSEL, THE 11 DEFENDANT, AND THE JURY PANEL PRESENT DULY QUALIFIED
12 THE JURY PANEL. FOLLOWING QUALIFICATION, THE COURT, 13 ALL COUNSEL WITH THE EXCEPTION OF MR. EVANS, AND THE 14 DEFENDANT WENT TO CHAMBERS FOR FURTHER MOTIONS AS 15 FOLLOWS:)

16 BY THE COURT: Y'all filed a motion way back for 17 individual sequestered voir dire. I think we do need 18 some individual voir dire, certainly in relation to 19 the publicity. I'm not so sure about the rest of it,
20 but the publicity I think we do. I have spent the 21 last couple of days reading the Hand case and the 22 Gannett case, and for me to be able to do it
23 sequestered, I have to have a Hand hearing, and the 24 press has to be involved in all that. And then I
25 have to make certain findings after that before I can 26 sequester it. My idea is now to do individual voir
27 dire, but if the press so desires, let them sit in on
28 it.

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Oh, the press wants to sit in

1 on the trial?

2 BY THE COURT: Well, I don't know that they do
3 but under the Hand case, they are entitled to if they
4 want to and if, rather than go through the Hand
5 hearing which will mean Mr. Van Slike will have to 6 come up here and get in the case and all like that,
7 my intention is just to let the press-- have 8 individual voir dire, but let the press have access
9 to it.

10 BY MR. HORAN: Procedurally, Judge, how are you
11 going to do it? Are you going to do most of your 12 voir dire questions and save that for the end, or are 13 we going to do individual from the get go?

14 BY THE COURT: No, we are not going to do
15 individual from the get go. I'm going to do the 16 general questioning of the voir dire, and then those 17 who say they know anything about this case, then we 18 are going to take their names, and I will do the 19 individual there.

20 BY MR. HORAN: You mean get that out of the way
21 and then continue voir dire?

22 BY THE COURT: Right. That's what I intend to 23 do.

24 BY MR. HORAN: Y'all have any objection?

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA: So what you are telling, so the 26 press access that we are speaking of is the press
27 access to the individual voir dire?

28 BY THE COURT: Uh-hum.

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Oh. I don't have a big problem

1 with that.

2 BY THE COURT: Okay, all right. Well, I think
3 the easiest way to do it is let them come in and not
4 have to go through all that other, and I don't see
5 where that would hurt us. Okay. Now y'all got some 6 other stuff for me right now?

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes. Mr. Freelon wanted to 8 cite a couple of other cases.

9 BY MR. FREELON: Just cases on venue just for 10 the record, Your Honor.

11 BY THE COURT: Okay.

12 BY MR. FREELON: One case that deals with the 13 change of venue from 1997, Hickson v. State, and we 14 wanted to put the law in on the record. In that case
15 is almost, the facts are a little different from this
16 case, but in that case the Supreme Court granted,
17 reversed the lower court on the change of venue
18 issue. The law in that case, what the Court said
19 was, "Where the resolution of a case comes down to 20 factual disputes," - which we do in this matter; the 21 facts in this case are definitely going to be in 22 dispute- "the jury's role becomes paramount as it
23 weighs the credibility of the witnesses and 24 determines which factual accounts to accept or 25 reject." Because "It is absolutely imperative that 26 the jury be unbiased, impartial, and not swayed by 27 the consideration of improper, inadmissible
28 information. We can not say, with any degree of 29 certainty, that this was the case here because the

1 fact of the matter is that the juror 'threw the 2 proverbial skunk into the jury room' during the 3 deliberations by asking about other" things.

4 Judge, what we want to say, just place on the 5 record is that we do know from the last trial there
6 was different things placed into the, placed into the 7 individuals' jury right here in the City of Tupelo
8 right here in Lee County from the newspaper when they 9 talk about the confessions. This Court states that,
10 of course, you have that discretion. However, that 11 discretion is not unfettered, and this is the latest
12 case that deals with, the latest, last venue case
13 that was actually overturned that dealt with venue
14 and from December of 1997.

15 And also, the Court stated that in that case,
16 "Although this Court recognized that the average
17 citizen forgets the details of media news reports,
18 this Court still acknowledged that the community had 19 been bombarded with not only 'news' reports of the 20 murder charge with which Fisher stood charged, but 21 also with reports of a separate murder charge." So
22 this case, Your Honor, we think definitely shows that 23 this community has definitely been bombarded with 24 news reports, not only news reports, but something
25 from the first murder trial saying that our client
26 was guilty in the first murder trial. So what we 27 want to do for the record is cite this case. Maybe
28 the Judge, maybe you have already read it or maybe
29 have time to go back and take another look at it.

1           Hickson v. State, Hickson versus State of
2           Mississippi, cite as 707 So.2d 536.

3           Another case we just wanted to cite is a case,
4           Johnson v. State of Mississippi. In that case there
5           was two separate trials. The first trial was held in 6           Neshoba County. Both trials arose out of the same
7           set of circumstances, same set of events with each
8           other - one with a murder charge and the other one
9           was the kidnapping charge. But it was two separate 10          trials. One trial was held in Scott County. The 11          next trial, the venue was changed to Neshoba County
12          partly based upon the fact, of course, there was 13          already a prior trial and prior publicity surrounding 14          the first trial.

15          We wanted to cite those cases for the record
16          where the Court would have notice of those two cases
17          for the record. And the cite on that is 525 So.2d
18          809.

19          BY THE COURT: Okay, of course, the Court is 20          going to rule as it previously did. If we see what 21          happens in voir dire, and then we will revisit that,
22          and you can make your motion at that time.

23          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, just and other stuff,
24          the cases that I would cite in support of my 25          contention that the statistical disparity and the 26          ratio between the number of Africans or blacks on the 27          jury and the number in the actual population is my 28          case is Turner v. Fouche, F O U C H E, and that is 29          396 U.S. 346. And the other one is Duren v.

1           Missouri, and that is cited at 3-- I mean 439 U.S.
2           357. And the final one was, I think Castaneda v.
3           Parrtida, was P A R R T I D A, and that is cited at 4           430 U.S. 483-- 482, I'm sorry.

5           BY THE COURT REPORTER: Can you spell the first 6           part of that?

7           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Castaneda is C A S T A N E D A.
8           So those are-- and I would also point out that Mr.
9           Brian Neely was here and is prepared to testify on 10          the issue if necessary. He is the one that submitted 11          the affidavit before on the systematic under 12          representation of black people on the venires here in 13          this county. So do you want me to put him on, or do
14          you want--

15          BY THE COURT: I have already ruled on that 16          Motion. I'm not going to revisit it.

17          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. That's okay.

18          BY THE COURT: Okay, now anything else?

19          BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir. The State has a Motion
20          in Limine that would apply to both voir dire and 21          opening statements. Before I go into the Motion, I
22          would like to explain why I'm raising it. Both from 23          the news release and also from the pamphlets that 24          have been scattered around the community, there is 25          information that may or may not be relevant to the 26          trial. Both the news release and the pamphlets
27          brought up information of what Veal and Hawkins may 28          or may not testify to. At this point it's my 29          information that Veal is put up in Chicago by the

1 Defense. I don't know if he will be back or not. It
2 is undecided at this point whether we will put
3 Maurice Hawkins on the stand. Therefore, any 4 rebuttal could not be brought out; any
5 cross-examination could not be brought out unless--
6 or impeachment, unless they testified. So we would 7 move in limine that the Defense not be allowed in 8 voir dire or opening statements to make any comments
9 about what their impeachment would be because there
10 is no way of knowing at this point whether the people
11 will even testify. So it would be improper to bring 12 up impeachment unless and until they did, in fact,
13 testify.

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, my rejoinder to that is 15 this. First of all, Veal is not in Chicago. To the 16 best of my knowledge, he is right where-- we noticed
17 him on our witness list, and he is in Atlanta, and 18 they got a notice of the witness list, so they know
19 he is in Atlanta or should know he is in Atlanta.
20 But the second thing is about Veal we are not putting 21 him up anywhere. I don't know where that information
22 comes from. From what I understand, he is doing
23 quite well working two jobs over there. That's what 24 I have been told.

25 BY MR. EVANS: It comes from the tape recording
26 that you furnished us where it says that you are 27 sending him to Chicago to his mother's house.

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I never said--

29 BY THE COURT: --That is okay. I don't care

1           where he is. That is immaterial to what we are
2           talking about. The question is what we do with voir
3           dire.

4           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, but this is the situation
5           here, Judge. Two things: A) they still have Veal on 6           the witness list. We have Veal on the witness list.
7           They have Mr. Hawkins on the witness list. We are at 8           liberty as long as they have them there, to state
9           what we anticipate that the testimony will show. Now
10          wise counsel--

11          BY THE COURT: --In your opening statement you
12          do now.

13          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, that's what I'm talking
14          about. That's what I'm saying.

15          BY THE COURT: In your opening statement, not in 16          voir dire.

17          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, I am concerned about, you
18          know, I am concerned about the opening statement, I
19          think we definitely have a right. As far as voir
20          dire is concerned, I think we have a right to voir
21          dire on the issue of whether they will take things in 22          consideration like prior inconsistent statements, the 23          possibility of favors, and stuff like that.

24          BY THE COURT: I think you can do that, but you
25          cannot get specific about what he is going to testify
26          to or whether he is going to contradict and all like 27          that. You can't go into that at all.

28          BY MR. LUMUMBA: As to those two gentlemen, no.

29          BY THE COURT: Right. They are going to have to

1 be general questions, and you can do that. I will
2 not allow any specific things about, directed to the 3 jury panel as to what the testimony is and that kind
4 of stuff. And then on opening statements you are 5 entitled, both of you are entitled to say what you
6 expect to prove.

7 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, if we do that, then
8 we are going to have to bring out on opening
9 statement that if they are going to go into what they
10 expect the proof will be, we will have to too as far
11 as the fact that both of them have testified before 12 or given statements before that he did admit that he 13 did the killings.

14 BY THE COURT: I think--

15 BY MR. EVANS: --That's why I think it is 16 improper unless we can bring that out, which we 17 can't, for them to go into rebuttal or impeachment.
18 They can't impeach something that we are not entitled
19 to bring out to the jury.

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No.

21 BY THE COURT: Both of y'all are entitled on 22 opening statement -- the reason I hate opening
23 statements -- both of you are entitled on opening
24 statements to present what you think you are going to 25 prove. You absolutely can do that, and I don't know
26 how I limit that. So I will let either one of you do
27 that.

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: If we are informed, and I agree
29 with the Court's ruling. I would just state for the

1 record that, of course, we don't want, we don't think
2 it's in our interest to get off into a lot of things
3 which are not going to come up in the trial. So if,
4 I mean, you know, the way I look at opening
5 statements you try to state to the jury honestly what 6 you think will come up. If there is something that 7 they can tell us about these people, then we would be 8 willing to listen to it.

9 BY THE COURT: Well--

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --But I just--

11 BY THE COURT: --Yeah, I understand. I'm not 12 going to get off into that. Y'all are going to have 13 to prove your case by witnesses anyhow. That's the 14 way it goes. That's generally the way the juries do
15 it.

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. Judge, we had a Motion
17 in Limine to preclude the testimony of Ms. Roxanne
18 Ballard unless she is subjected to, perhaps subjected 19 is the wrong word, but put in a hearing, a hearing
20 prior to her testimony so we can ascertain what her
21 actual familiarity is with the business at the time
22 of the incident. In reading her transcript from the 23 last trial, I don't think if you recall, but she is 24 the daughter of the deceased.

25 BY THE COURT: Uh-hum.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: One of the deceased, Ms.
27 Tardy. And her testimony essentially was all as to 28 what happens in the normal business, and she actually 29 tried to make a determination on how much money was

1           there. First of all, we have several problems with 2           that. Number one is, the question is when is the 3           last time she was even there? Is she qualified to 4           authenticate a document as a business record when she 5           is not even working there? I think you have got to 6           be working in a place before you can even
7           authenticate a document. We are going to challenge
8           the document itself if it's not authenticated by a 9           person who works there as a business record at that 10          time. And then she certainly can't testify from-- so 11          the document itself is hearsay unless it is 12          authenticated as a business record. Secondly, she 13          may not be in a position to make that kind of 14          testimony. So we are going to make a Motion in 15          Limine to preclude her testimony because there has 16          been no showing that she is in a position as of July 17          the 16th, 1996, to represent what was the case in 18          terms of record keeping at the job.

19                BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, she has to just 20          testify as to her familiarity with the--

21                BY THE COURT: --Well, we are going to cross
22          that bridge when we get to it. Y'all make, you make 23          your objection if she testifies, and then we will 24          have a hearing. I will have a hearing back here and 25          hear those objections.

26                BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. There is a number of 27          other in limine objections, but maybe we should 28          handle them the same way you suggest about testimony
29          that came in. It seems at the last trial there was a

1 great deal of hearsay testimony that came in under
2 the, under the province of opinion evidence. As I
3 understand it, Judge, and I am just kind of alerting
4 you to this because I mean, you know, I'm not saying
5 that even prior counsel raised objections all the 6 time. But we had the situation where investigators
7 come in and testified; they give an opinion as an 8 investigator about how much money would have been 9 missing from the, from the business. You know, I
10 think that is inappropriate. An investigating
11 question here was Mr. Matthews, I believe it was, who 12 came in and testified that based upon his 13 conversation with Ms. Ballard, Ms. Roxanne Ballard,
14 that he was able to determine that about $275.00
15 would have been missing from the business. I mean
16 that is hearsay on hearsay on hearsay based upon
17 expertise which does not exist. He has no expertise
18 which will allow him to make those kinds of 19 conclusions. He can certainly elicit the facts that 20 he wants. So we are going to make objections to that 21 kind of testimony, and we will make it at the time if 22 that is what the Court wants.

23 The final, the other thing I would raise at this
24 time to the Court is we had three different motions.
25 For one of them, we need someone-- we had a Motion to 26 Exclude Eye Witness Identification both at the time
27 of the line-up and the in Court identification as a
28 product of the line-up. What we don't have, and I
29 looked for, we just have xeroxed copies of the actual

1 line-up sheets that were used. The actual pictures
2 are very important, and so I would like to have
3 those, see those if I could. I think, I don't know
4 if they are in the Supreme Court or where.

5 BY MR. HORAN: I got them back.

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, but we need to see those.
7 But I would like to have a brief hearing on those if 8 we can which would be the officers who showed the 9 people these pictures and the people who saw the 10 pictures, just to challenge that. And secondly, we 11 had evidentiary objections to the Defendant's
12 statement and to all the fruit of that statement
13 which would include the evidence which was seized
14 from the house. And those objections are based upon 15 the fact that we believe that the Defendant was 16 placed under arrest and held in detention, if not 17 officially placed under arrest, at a time that there
18 was not probable cause to put him in detention and 19 that he was, and the statement was taken from him at 20 that time. Brown v. Illinois indicates that even 21 mirandarizing a person who is unlawfully under arrest
22 does not save the fruit of that arrest from being 23 excluded as fruit of the poison tree. Brown v.
24 Illinois, and that is in the Motion that we filed.
25 We cited the case in the Motion, but it's a very,
26 very clear case that mirandarizing a person who is 27 under unlawful arrest does not save his statements.

28 BY THE COURT: I don't remember him making any 29 incriminating statements at the other trial. I could

1 be wrong about that.

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, they argued that it was
3 incriminating because they said it was, you know,
4 there was discrepancies between his statements--
5 first of all, there is obviously a discrepancy
6 between two of his statements. The second thing is 7 they argue that there was discrepancies between his 8 statements and other witnesses' testimony.

9 BY MR. HORAN: It still doesn't make it--

10 BY THE COURT: --Well, that's okay. Why don't 11 y'all raise that at that time too, and we will have 12 that hearing. I think that is the best way, and 13 where we are now is for y'all to make your 14 objections, and we will come back and hear it.

15 BY MR. HORAN: What time did you tell the jury?

16 BY THE COURT: I told them about 10:15. I don't 17 know whether we will make that by then or not.

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: So my understanding is what we 19 are going to do now, you are going to kind of like 20 voir dire them on who has heard about the case, and 21 then the people who have heard about it, you are 22 going to bring them back here, you know.

23 BY THE COURT: Uh-hum.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Do individual voir dire. Are 25 they going to come back here, or are they going to be 26 in the courtroom?

27 BY THE COURT: I think because we have so many,
28 the easiest way to do it is to do it back here.

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

1 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, and I really don't
2 know; this is unusual situation, so I really don't
3 even know how to raise this issue. But I would move
4 and I will do it as a Motion in Limine that the 5 Defense not be allowed to ask any questions that
6 would by their nature attempt to preclude any jurors
7 from serving. I'm not trying to limit them on voir
8 dire, but I would just ask that nothing be allowed to 9 be asked that would taint this jury.

10 BY THE COURT: Well, I hope neither side will do
11 that, I hope. I am counting on y'all not to. You
12 know Ms. Craft, and I have met her, but I can't 13 remember. Have you seen her out there?

14 BY MR. FREELON: Which Ms. Craft?

15 BY THE COURT: With the Clarion Ledger.

16 BY MR. FREELON: I know her, but I haven't seen
17 her.

18 BY MR. HORAN: I know her. I haven't seen her
19 out there either.

20 BY THE COURT: Okay. I haven't either. Maybe
21 the press don't want to be here.

22 BY MR. HORAN: Do you have to inform them, Your 23 Honor? Do you have to tell them that you--

24 BY THE COURT: --I don't know. You want to read
25 the case and tell me?

26 BY MR. HORAN: I don't know.

27 BY THE COURT: I don't know either. They didn't 28 tell me all that.

29 BY MR. FREELON: Judge, Judge, how--

1                   BY THE COURT:   --Yes, ma'am.

2                   BY THE CLERK, MS. LOFTIN:   Excuse me just a
3                   second.   I thought you might want to know this.   I
4                   have two jurors that have showed up late.   I have a
5                   Sandra Bishop and a Mr. Allen Chavers.   Mr. Chavers
6                   just got back from Birmingham.   He is an officer with 7                   the Tupelo PD.

8                   BY THE COURT:   Okay, I will qualify them in just 9                   a minute.   I guess of necessity, for right now just 10                  go ahead and put them at the bottom of the list.   If 11                  they don't qualify, I will scratch them off the 12                  bottom.

13                  BY MR. FREELON:   I guess before we-- one thing I
14                  am concerned about.   I notice you made a statement
15                  that, which may be correct in a way that everybody -
16                  You all don't know anything about this case.

17                  BY THE COURT:   Well, we are going to find out
18                  whether they do.

19                  BY MR. FREELON:   Right.   And I guess we are 20                  concerned about how you will raise that issue in 21                  finding out because--

22                  BY THE COURT:   I'm going to ask them.

23                  BY MR. FREELON:   And which--

24                  BY THE COURT:   --when they are back here by 25                  themselves.   I mean, well, they won't be by 26                  themselves.   I am going to invite y'all to come too.

27                  BY MR. FREELON:   But you are going to ask
28                  everybody at first have they heard something about
29                  it?

1                   BY THE COURT: Right. And then I'm going to 2 tell them I don't want to know what it is. I just 3 want to know who has heard anything about it.

4                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. Now if they have heard
5 anything about the case, then will we be allowed to 6 ask them questions?

7                   BY THE COURT: Sure. Sure. I get to go first,
8 but then y'all get to ask.

9                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

10                  BY THE COURT: All right, gentlemen. Let's take 11 a little break. Let me see if I can run -- have 12 y'all got any problem with me if I can find anybody
13 from the press just with me talking--

14                  BY MR. FREELON: --No, we have no problem. Also 15 Judge, I am sorry. This is-- hold on. We had spoke 16 briefly about trying to receive some medical records.

17                  BY THE COURT: Yeah, okay.

18                  BY MR. FREELON: From Mr. Hawkins and that is 19 the order allowing us to receive the medical 20 records.

21                  (Hands order to the Court.)

22                  BY THE COURT: Whitfield is in Rankin County, 23 isn't it?

24                  BY MR. FREELON: It's in Rankin County.

25                  (The Court signed the order.)

26                  (FOLLOWING A BRIEF RECESS, THE COURT RECONVENED
27 IN OPEN COURT WITH ALL COUNSEL, THE DEFENDANT, AND 28 THE JURY PANEL PRESENT. AFTER QUALIFYING TWO MORE
29 JURORS, THE COURT CONDUCTED VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION IN

1 OPEN COURT FOLLOWED BY EXTENSIVE INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE
2 IN CHAMBERS WHERE ALL COUNSEL, THE DEFENDANT, AND THE
3 PRESS WERE ALSO PRESENT. INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE IN 4 CHAMBERS CONTINUED THROUGHOUT THE REST OF SEPTEMBER
5 14, 1998, AND THROUGHOUT THE MORNING OF SEPTEMBER 15,
6 1998, BUT WAS NOT TRANSCRIBED SINCE THIS LEE COUNTY
7 JURY WAS NOT THE JURY THAT ULTIMATELY HEARD THIS
8 CASE. FOLLOWING THE CONCLUSION OF INDIVIDUAL VOIR
9 DIRE AND THE NOON RECESS ON SEPTEMBER 15, 1998, THERE
10 WAS THE FOLLOWING MOTION IN CHAMBERS OUTSIDE THE 11 PRESENCE OF ANY JURORS BUT WITH ALL COUNSEL AND THE 12 DEFENDANT PRESENT:)

13 BY THE COURT: Y'all mind if I don't robe up for 14 this?

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No.

16 BY THE COURT: I assume a lot sometimes; maybe I
17 shouldn't assume, but I assume you have got something
18 you want to--

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes, I want to renew my Motion
20 for Change of Venue, Judge.

21 BY THE COURT: Okay.

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, we have, and I see this
23 as a continuing motion, and all the things that I
24 have submitted to this point, I would ask the Court
25 to consider. I would like to urge upon the Court its 26 consideration of the fact that in this case
27 understandably we did present newspaper articles from 28 the Clarion Ledger because some people do read the 29 Clarion Ledger in this community. However, the

1           Clarion Ledger is probably the minority of the 2           publicity which has been covering this case as far as
3           this community is concerned. Really, the other
4           publicity is more focused at least on the other upper
5           part of Mississippi, if not, you know, just this area
6           completely.

7           And what I mean by that is this. The Daily
8           Journal immediately impacts this area, and that has 9           been a large portion of the publicity. The Daily
10          Journal covered it when the incident happened. It
11          was covered, if I recall correctly, in those 12          articles, and I don't have them in front of me, along 13          with some killings that also occurred, I believe in 14          Neshoba County at that time. They were on the same
15          day. That same day that we were talking about three 16          people were killed in Neshoba, and they also talked
17          about the Winona killings.

18          Immediately-- the next, there was other coverage
19          in the Daily Journal including about the funeral
20          which occurred in the, about families mourning the 21          loss and things of that nature. That, I believe, was 22          covered in the Daily Journal about the reward. There
23          was coverage in the Daily Journal for sure on the 24          front page about the arrest of the Defendant. Like
25          in a sense, the Daily Journal and many newspapers
26          have more than one front page. You have a page 27          front, and then in many instances you have a local 28          section or something like that, which in some 29          respects a lot of newspaper people refer to as a

1 second front page.

2 There were, there was coverage in the Daily
3 Journal as it related, heavy coverage -- there was 4 coverage, I believe, in the Daily Journal about the 5 change of venue, the fact that the case was coming to 6 Tupelo. There was coverage in the Daily Journal
7 about the fact that the trial occurred. The trial
8 was a big event in the coverage. The paper covered
9 it often on the front page during the trial including
10 the verdict. Man found guilty sentenced to death,
11 Flowers sentenced to death. That was the front page 12 coverage in the Daily Journal which is a local 13 newspaper here.

14 The Memphis Commercial Appeal covered it. Now
15 the Commercial Appeal does not affect the whole State
16 of Mississippi in any serious way, but it certainly 17 impacts upon this area. Just about everything I said
18 was covered in the Daily Journal was also covered in 19 the Commercial Appeal, so it would have also 20 influenced the Tupelo area. We had a situation where 21 we have had two tapes now, one which I know the Court
22 has had a chance to review. The one from WCBI,
23 which was not here which I find even more impressive
24 in terms of the amount of coverage than the one that 25 came from the other radio station-- TV station. I
26 was given to believe that the first TV that we 27 submitted coverage on, on videotape was WTVA, and I
28 believe that is actually located here in Tupelo
29 whereas WCBI is from Columbus. But it definitely

1 covers the Tupelo area.

2 They all covered the incident when it occurred.
3 There is coverage on events subsequent to the 4 incident like the families trying to get it together,
5 the shock on the Tupelo-- on the Winona community,
6 and things of that nature. And then they covered the 7 trial. Everybody covered lots of testimony in the 8 trial. This is very important. Front page coverage
9 often talked about blow by blow, the Tupelo Daily
10 Journal as well as some of the TV, the blow by blow
11 on the testimony at the trial.

12 Things that I can remember without looking at 13 the evidence which is that they covered, they covered
14 the fact that our client-- they actually covered this 15 when he was arrested; that he was a worker at Winona,
16 that he was a disgruntled worker. And as the media
17 put it when we were sitting there watching it in the 18 courthouse, in the courtroom where we played the 19 first video which is also the way that they covered
20 it in the newspaper, is that man from, man who former 21 employee is responsible for murders. That was the 22 statement they made - responsible for the murders.
23 And then they went on to explain how he was a 24 disgruntled employee and how he had problems because 25 of being fired or whatever.

26 And then later on we get all this testimony that 27 comes up at the trial. Veal's testimony was 28 covered. Hawkins' testimony was covered. All of 29 these are so-called confessions. In fact, that's the

1 headlines - Inmates say; Inmates say Flowers
2 confessed or Defendant confessed to the crimes. In
3 the paper we have coverage on Porky Collins'
4 testimony. Witnesses say they see Defendant at the 5 scene of the crime. Porky Collins or Charles
6 Collins' testimony about seeing two black people, one
7 of them was supposed to have looked like Mr. Flowers
8 was in the paper. Young lady by the name of Clemmie
9 Fleming, her testimony about him allegedly running
10 from the area is in the paper.

11 Testimony concerning, of course, the four dead
12 bodies is in all the coverage. All of that always is 13 covered. That is always covered and many, many other
14 items of testimony critical to the case. The fact
15 that he is supposed to have been at Angelica at some 16 point and a gun was stolen from the car; that is 17 covered. Scientific tests is covered in the paper.
18 The bloody footprint is covered in the paper. The 19 alleged gunshot residue is covered in the paper. All 20 of these things are covered in the paper, and most of 21 those things are reflected in some way or another in 22 the TV coverage.

23 I would also remind the Court that we were not
24 able to bring into the court radio coverage.
25 However, as we have sat here and listened to jurors
26 say how they know about the case, a generous amount
27 of jurors have suggested that they heard about the 28 case on radio. They heard about certain things on 29 radio. There was at least two or three jurors who

1           said that they knew about the case through radio. So
2           there is obviously radio publicity about the case.

3           The recent publicity - publicity is not only old
4           in this case, but it is also recent. Contrary to 5           what has been suggested to the Court, the vast number
6           of jurors who have commented on recent publicity have 7           commented on it because of an article which appeared,
8           I haven't even seen the article actually, but I
9           believe it appeared over the weekend here in the 10          Tupelo area. And what occurred in that article, they 11          do record the fact that jurors are being summonsed,
12          and at the same time they talk about the fact that 13          the Defendant is found guilty and sentenced to 14          death. Every time since the time of the conviction
15          that this case has been covered as far as I can 16          ascertain in all media and including two recent media
17          releases here in the Tupelo area or newspaper
18          releases in the Tupelo area, they talk about he has 19          been convicted and sentenced to death. They say
20          that. They say that he has been convicted and 21          sentenced to death.

22          We have now had 33 jurors excluded for cause
23          because of the fact that they have admitted that they 24          cannot be fair. They have admitted that they cannot 25          be fair. Another 30 jurors have admitted that they 26          know about the case, and many of those we have not 27          even crossed the bridge of whether they are going to 28          be excused for cause yet. But I would suggest to the 29          Court that many of them are so infected with

1           knowledge of the case that it would almost be
2           impossible to credibly keep them on this jury. We 3           have a community which is not only infected with 4           publicity in this case, but we have a jury which is 5           infected with something which is almost impossible to 6           cure.

7           Now we are not trying to cast fault here, but we
8           just do need to know the origins of the problem
9           here. In a kind of a novel way, the State has 10          decided that it would prosecute a man four different 11          times for cases that occurred on the same day. It is 12          novel to me. I don't know if it's novel to anybody
13          else, but it's novel to me. The problem that that 14          causes and it's at the State's option is that once
15          you try a person and he is convicted for one crime,
16          which happens exactly at the same time in the same
17          set of scenario under the same of circumstances, then
18          it becomes almost impossible to purge the jurors
19          where he was tried before of the knowledge of that 20          conviction and the sentence of guilt-- and the 21          sentence of death. So that is a burden that we bring 22          with us to this particular case and to this
23          particular jurisdiction.

24          What jurors have said is that they know of it.
25          Some of them have initially said that it would not
26          bias them. But then when we have gone more probing
27          and we ask absolutely logical questions about how 28          they can love the jury system, respect the jury
29          system, respect their community, and respect the

1 people who sit on the juries in their community and
2 at the same time not even have influence, be
3 influenced away from the presumption of innocence.
4 Many of them have come forth and said well, you know,
5 it probably would weigh on my thinking. Some of the 6 ones who have not said that have struggled, and the 7 struggle appears to be to me one which is not allowed
8 in a law system which talks about the presumption of 9 innocence.

10 The very fact that a person would have to 11 struggle as one of the young ladies, who I forget her
12 name, was in here most recently did, with well, maybe
13 should I say no? Should I say yes? And then I say,
14 well, maybe you can say I'm not sure. Well, I want
15 to say yes. I want to say yes. She wants to say 16 yes, but is this an accurate reflection of what is 17 going on in her head? Now I'm not a psychologist. I
18 don't think I need to be to be concerned about this
19 situation. I'm not a psychologist, but I do know
20 that the courts have taken cognizance of the fact
21 that you cannot always accept what a juror says at 22 face value when you are talking about cases like the 23 one that is presently before us.

24 Mr. Freelon has provided me with several cases
25 which address the issue of bias, pretrial publicity
26 and bias where the courts have reversed these cases.
27 And the cases actually that we are talking about are 28 cases where they have seen fit to reverse convictions
29 when a rape, in rape cases because of pretrial

1           publicity. And that was, one of them was Johnson v.
2           The State of Mississippi, and that case is cited at 3           525 So.2d 809, and it may have been one that Mr.
4           Freelon has provided you with. And I'm going to make
5           a couple of comments about these cases, and I'm going
6           to ask that since, you know, I think this is an
7           extremely critical issue, that if Mr. Freelon wants
8           to amend my comments after I am finished with this 9           presentation, that he do so.

10           But let me say this, is that one of the problems
11           that we have here, Judge, is that there is a rule
12           which says that a person's prior conviction can't 13           even come into trial against them. There is only one 14           case where it can come in, and that's the case where 15           it's for each impeachment when he gets on the stand.
16           And many cases have held if the conviction is too
17           closely related to the case at hand and its facts or 18           in any way would influence the jury to find this man
19           guilty because well, he did that one so he probably 20           did this one, then that's when you cannot allow the 21           conviction to come in to impeach him.

22           When you can allow the conviction to come in to 23           impeach him, if it's a felony; assume it's a felony
24           or something; if it's misdemeanor, it has to do with 25           - what do you call it? - integrity or honesty or 26           something like that. The Court has to do a balancing 27           act, and it can come in if it is more probative than 28           prejudicial on the issue only of credibility.

29           So the law well recognizes that for a juror to

1 in the department, subpoenas and things of that,
2 summons and things of that nature. It strains
3 credibility that many of these people would suggest
4 that they don't know about the guilty verdict, and to 5 the extent that that's true, that any representation
6 that they make may be true, it is not going to take
7 very much testimony, very much time, very much
8 sitting in the presence of other people who do know
9 about the guilty verdict to put them in a position
10 where this information is going to be straight up
11 refreshed in their memory, in their memory logs and 12 tell them that this is a man who has been convicted
13 and sentenced to death before. Even convicted would 14 be enough, but in this case we go a step beyond
15 that. In this death penalty case we have information
16 which shows that the jurors know not only that he has 17 been convicted, which they just are not supposed to 18 know, but secondly, that he has been sentenced to 19 death.

20 Now the only kind of analogous situation that we 21 generally find for this kind of situation is two.
22 One in which we have a case to talk to you about, and 23 that was a rape case where--

24 BY MR. FREELON: That's one of them.

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, you have a rape case
26 where a rape occurred of the same woman by the same
27 person. 15 minutes.

28 BY THE COURT: Hickson?

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Hickson, that's it. That is

1           Johnson. That is the Johnson case. We are about to
2 go to the Hickson case. The Johnson case, a rape
3 occurs of the same woman by the same man 15 minutes
4 prior to the second rape. They mention in these 5 cases, by the way, that they are applying the, they 6 are applying, they are reversing the case although -
7 and I think that might actually be in Hickson where
8 they say this, but Harvey can correct me if I am
9 wrong - that although the standard is much more
10 sensitive, much more strict, it requires much more
11 scrutiny by the Court, much more sensitivity by the 12 Court, and actually the courts have been admonished
13 in murder cases. That's where in murder cases, in 14 the death penalty cases in particular, that it must 15 change venue. Admonished, that is the term that they 16 use in these cases, admonish; change venue if, in 17 fact, you have precipitous and a great deal of 18 pretrial publicity that has infected the jury.

19           And it is almost like they put the burden on the 20 prosecution at a certain point to prove, or the 21 burden is on the Court to tell them that they are 22 sure that this juror, that this has not affected
23 these jurors. They see it as that important, but 24 what happened in these cases here that I am about to 25 talk about, they use, they reverse the cases even 26 though it was not a murder case. It was a rape case, 27 but in one case you have a situation where a guy is 28 accused and convicted actually of raping a woman 15
29 minutes before the case in chief, the case at hand,

1           the case in question. So the same woman is raped 15
2           minutes later by the same person presumably, or at 3           least that's the charge. Then what happens is that
4           he is tried, and at that trial information comes up
5           that he was convicted of the rape that occurred 15
6           minutes earlier. They reversed the conviction. "In 7           this case, the very fact that the prior conviction
8           was admitted convicts him because he has already been 9           deemed guilty by another jury. Therefore, we reverse
10          and remand for a new trial consistent with this 11          opinion."

12                 They go into some of the analysis which involves 13          the rule that I talk about as it talks about 14          impeachment.

15                 BY THE COURT: Give me that cite on that case.

16                 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, this case is Johnson v.
17          State of Mississippi. That is okay, this is 525
18          So.2d 809, and I point out in this case that this is 19          a case where the jury was actually changed the venue
20          twice. In other words, the first conviction was in a
21          venue different than the conviction where the crime,
22          different than the venue where the crime occurred.
23          The second case was also in a venue different than 24          the venue where the crime occurred, but also 25          different than where the first conviction occurred.
26          In this case they also make this interesting
27          comment: "Mr. Johnson's"--"Under M.R.E. 609," which 28          is the rule I have been talking about, "Mr. Johnson's 29          prior conviction of rape should have been kept out of 1 evidence. The defendant's only defense was alibi.

2 It was already established in the record by testimony
3 of the victim" -- "It was already established in the 4 record by testimony of the victim, however
5 inadvertent, that the defendant had raped her on the 6 same night some 15 minutes earlier for which he was 7 convicted and sentenced to life without parole and 8 affirmed by this Court on August the 5th, 1987. If 9 alibi is his only defense, the prior conviction puts 10 his alibi testimony in direct conflict to the finding 11 of another jury. His testimony is thus futile and 12 his trial nothing more than idle ceremony." That is 13 strong language.

14 BY THE COURT: Okay, but now that case, that's 15 when it happened at trial. I mean that is not a
16 particular change of venue, is it? I mean it's not a
17 situation where they testified at voir dire--

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --No, no, no, no, no, no, no,
19 but--

20 BY THE COURT: I understand your analogy, but I
21 am getting the facts right.

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, this one is not, but the 23 one I am about to get into is.

24 BY THE COURT: I understand.

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, and let me say that the 26 reason that we raise this is because jurors have 27 stated that they know about the prior conviction. So
28 we would say that this is one step worse than this 29 case. In other words, at least in this case they

1           wait until they got to trial before the information
2           came up. In our case we already know the jurors out
3           there know that he has been convicted, and we know
4           the great probability is that other jurors who may,
5           in fact, sit in this case will know that he has been 6           convicted before they walk out of that jury room and 7           make-- walk into the jury room to deliberate because 8           the community is infested with that knowledge. And 9           it's going to be almost impossible to stop it. And I
10          hate to use words like "infested" and stuff like that 11          because I'm not really trying to put the press down.
12          But I'm just trying to use words which I think, you
13          know, apply to the case. But now here is the 14          situation here too, Judge. So, so that is why I
15          think the analogy is appropriate.

16                 Now in Hickson -- Hickson v. State is 707 So.2d
17                 536.

18                 BY THE COURT: Okay, I read that last night.

19                 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, so I won't dwell on that 20                 but, uh.

21                 BY THE COURT: And I'm not cutting you off, you
22                 understand. I want you to know I am familiar with
23                 it.

24                 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, well, that's good.
25                 That's good, and I am glad you had that opportunity.
26                 This case has many similarities to the present case.
27                 There was front page news articles in the Hickson
28                 case. The story recites the events surrounding the 29                 identification of Hickson at the festival. This is

1           also a rape case. This is a case where they reversed
2           it even though it is a rape case even though the 3           heavier standard generally goes to the murder cases.
4           The state put on seven witnesses. This is similar to 5           this case in this respect. At the venue change
6           hearing, who all said that they could be-- they 7           confessed knowledge of the case, I think, but they 8           all said that they could be impartial and that the 9           community could be impartial. The defense put on six
10          witnesses who testified that the community couldn't 11          be impartial, you know, that they would actually be 12          biased.

13                 In our case we reduced it down to two and two.
14          They put on two witnesses that said that they would 15          not, they didn't think the community would be 16          prejudiced even though they admitted they hadn't
17          talked to anybody else about it, and we put on two 18          witnesses, both who indicated they had talked to 19          other people and who felt that the community would be 20          prejudiced. The Hickson case, of course, is a case
21          where the state's conviction is reversed. I want to 22          just quote a couple of things out of here. They 23          pointed out in the Hickson case that it was not 24          necessarily... (Pause while Mr. Lumumba confers with 25          Mr. Freelon.)

26                 BY THE COURT: While y'all are finding what you
27          are looking at, let me see Judge Ford a second.

28                 (Off the record briefly.)

29                 BY MR. LUMUMBA: In this case it's important to 1 point out that this is a case where it came out

2 that-- okay.

3 BY THE COURT: Well, you had something like
4 eighty something jurors, and 44 of them--

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Yeah, half of them said they
6 knew about the case. And we had in this case, like I
7 said, I think over 60 have confessed some knowledge
8 of the case already. And I think that we only have 9 69 jurors still left. So of 60, 30 of those out
10 there have confessed knowledge, and we have already 11 excluded 30 others.

12 BY THE COURT: Let me see the Hickson case.

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, go ahead. We have 14 already excluded 30 others. Then that would suggest 15 to me, Judge, that over half of the jurors who have 16 been brought to this panel have confessed some 17 knowledge about the case. The Court also says in the 18 Hickson case, and I was looking for that statement,
19 but I will just paraphrase it, and since the Court
20 has read it, I am sure it is well aware of it. Is 21 that the Court does not take-- it says that, you
22 know, you have got to give us, you have got to give 23 us credit for having some common sense. We don't 24 assume that because jurors say the media publicity
25 will not affect them and that they will be left-- and 26 just about all the jurors in that particular case,
27 according to what the Court said, said that they 28 heard about the publicity, but they are non-biased;
29 they could be fair.

1           Now that is not really the case here. The ones
2           who heard about the case, a great number of them, if
3           not the majority of them; I believe the majority of 4           them have said they would be affected by it. Others
5           have admitted knowing the critical thing, about the 6           conviction and the sentence of guilt which really
7           challenges them to be fair. But in the Hickson case
8           they actually said that the jurors in that case said
9           that they could be non-biased. Hickson on page 542
10          says, recognizing that pre-trial media can bias, the 11          Court should be prepared to grant venue in cases
12          where a lot of publicity has occurred, and I am
13          paraphrasing that. The knowledge of the first
14          conviction also is from the-- well, that is actually
15          from the Johnson case. But also in the Hickson case
16          there was something that came up about defendant's
17          prior conviction. The defendant had been previously
18          convicted. I don't know if it was another rape case
19          or it was some other kind of case, but he had been 20          previously convicted. And the Court also found that 21          that was prejudicial, and for that reason that the 22          case should also be reversed.

23          Now in this case also, Judge, this is a key to 24          both the Johnson case and I think to the Hickson
25          case. Where we are dealing with a community or any 26          kind of scenario where the defendants, where we are 27          dealing with the juries, of the necessity of the jury
28          making factual determinations - that's what I am
29          searching for here. The jury in this particular case

1           has to make factual determinations as to whether or
2           not the Defendant in this case should be found
3           guilty. The Defendant's ability to combat those 4           factual allegations is already compromised by the 5           pretrial publicity itself. The man has been 6           convicted and sentenced to death. That means that
7           his alibi defense, somebody has disregarded it. It
8           certainly means that it was not sufficient enough to 9           stand up to the scrutiny of, in the last trial when 10          that conviction occurred, and that does a great deal
11          to compromise the ability of the jurors. And in 12          fact, in the Hickson case it goes on to say-- well,
13          not in the Hickson case, but in the Johnson case it
14          says, Knowledge of the first conviction prejudices
15          the case. This case violates the right not to know
16          about the conviction, and it goes on to say that,
17          that the defendant's alibi became a mere formality.

18                The Court also recognized the fallibility of 19          jurors and recognized-- and this is, we are back in 20          the Hickson case now, and recognized that the United
21          States Supreme Court had recognized the fallibility
22          of the jurors' oath.

23                Let me go on and say just a few things about 24          some of the things that this jury, jurors have told
25          us. The jurors have told us in this case--

26                BY THE COURT: You are talking about from the 27          questionnaires; is that right?

28                BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, no, I am talking about 29          from their statements.

1                   BY THE COURT: Statements today? Okay.

2                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Today, during the last couple
3 of days. Sandra Poland told us, Sandra Poland: "I
4 hope I can be fair, but it will be hard." Harold
5 Sandifer followed it on TV - "Don't believe guilt
6 could be overcome." Somebody told us, and I'm not 7 sure which one, it says, "I felt it was a done
8 deal." That juror at this point has been excluded,
9 but other people have testified in such a way as that 10 they felt it was a done deal too, however not using 11 that word.

12                  Rufus Palmer says, "Lady in the jury pool is 13 talking about the victims." William-- and we found
14 out about there has been some community relationship
15 with the victims' families, that churches in this
16 area have been contacted, and that in contacting them
17 they are asking them to make contributions toward the 18 victims' family and their housing. One prospective
19 juror who had told this Court he could be fair, he 20 had told this Court he could be fair, and probably 21 believed it - I'm not suggesting that he was being 22 dishonest - had actually made a contribution to the 23 fund for the victims' family.

24                  William Murphree: "Conviction has an 25 impression," and plus he didn't think that the 26 information about the communications with the 27 victims' family was important enough to even raise
28 it. Fortunately enough, one juror did come in here
29 and volunteered it to us because we wouldn't have

1 known about it other than that, and then after that,
2 we found out from several jurors that they had been,
3 you know, touched by that. And somebody still out in 4 the juror pool talking about, talking about the 5 victims' family and the support for the victims'
6 family at least according to Rufus Palmer.

7 J. W. Buse, it would be difficult to know, be 8 difficult to put it out of his mind, and that is 9 characteristic of what a lot of them said. Linda
10 Russell: "Somebody asked me for support to feed the 11 victims' family." Elizabeth Akers: "You can't just 12 dismiss that." Chris Maynard: Know about the family
13 needing a place to stay.

14 BY THE COURT: Let me say this. I want you to 15 put anything in the record you want to put in the 16 record, but I made those same notes, and I have got 17 them here in front of me.

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. Well, I am--

19 BY THE COURT: --and I tried to pay attention
20 for the two days. So if you want to put it in the 21 record, you go right ahead. But I am confident I can 22 recall what they said.

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: It says in the Hickson case, 24 "Where the resolution of a case comes down to 25 factual disputes, the jury's role becomes paramount
26 as it weighs the credibility of the witnesses and 27 determines which factual accounts to accept or 28 reject. Thus, it is absolutely imperative that the 29 jury be unbiased, impartial, and not swayed by the

1 consideration of improper, inadmissible information.
2 We cannot say, with any degree of certainty, that 3 this was the case here" and "because the fact of the 4 matter is that the juror 'threw the proverbial skunk
5 into the jury room' during the deliberations by 6 asking" the other jurors about "charges against
7 Hickson. If you throw a skunk into the jury box, you
8 can't instruct the jury not to smell it."

9 I think the skunk has also been thrown in this 10 case even before the jurors have gone into the box or 11 before they have gone into the jury room. Perhaps 12 one of the more telling questions about the people
13 who still remain on the panel is Sandra Bishop.
14 Sandra Bishop said that she didn't remember really
15 reading -- I can't say she said she didn't remember
16 reading nothing on the case, but she remembered very 17 little. And Sandra Bishop actually said, she 18 articulated that, "I have got this bias in my mind," 19 and she was pretty much telling us that she didn't 20 know why it was there. But then as she began to talk
21 to the Court, because actually she probably wouldn't 22 even have been talking if she was like so many other 23 people probably sitting out there on the jury who 24 haven't at this point realized that they even know
25 anything about this case or haven't admitted that
26 realization, she began to remember, well, maybe I did
27 read it because she knew facts that she could only
28 know by reading or perhaps by person to person
29 conversation. And the Court's inquiry, of course,

1           inquired into not only news media, but also inquired
2           into person to person conversation.

3           So the bottom line is this. I have for since
4           1976, been in a number of different selections of 5           juries. I have done it in over 25 states, and I have 6           seen many juries, and I have seen many jury
7           selections. And I think that there are very few, if 8           any, which compare to this in terms of the amount of 9           professed prejudice prior to the time that the jury
10          has even been submitted to the rest of the voir
11          dire. To me, this case screams out for a change of 12          venue.

13          Every single thing that we have told the Court
14          in our Motion to Change Venue a couple of weeks ago
15          has been proven beyond a reasonable doubt today.
16          Everything we said about-- I remember Ishmael
17          Muhammad being challenged on the witness stand:
18          Well, you don't know. You don't know where these 19          people live. They live in Tupelo, or they live out 20          in the county somewhere, and you know, you don't even 21          come from here. And plus we think you are affiliated 22          with Mr. Lumumba anyway, so you are probably lying to 23          us, you know. Ishmael Muhammad said I went out there
24          with, went out there with-- and I'm not trying to be 25          facetious, but I went out there with questionnaires,
26          and I asked these people questions, and I wrote down
27          what they told me. And they told me they had an 28          opinion, and the opinion was that the man was 29          guilty. Ten out of the, I think fifteen, or actually

1           one more expressed an opinion but didn't say what it
2           was.

3           Now I think that this voir dire process has 4           borne that out. And I think that, you know, beyond
5           all of this and hovering over this whole
6           consideration here has got to be a sense of amazement
7           by anybody else who crosses the threshold of this 8           case and reads about it, that anybody would really 9           believe, and I think one of the jurors said; one of 10          the jurors said it, "Well, how could you not be 11          affected?" That's what she said. Several jurors
12          said it. How could you not be affected by the fact 13          that the man has been guilty-- convicted and 14          sentenced to death in the very same case on the very 15          same facts. You can struggle against it. You can 16          not want to be affected. You can feel it's your duty
17          to the community to sit on this jury, you know, in a 18          very cynical kind of thinking to make sure the man is 19          convicted. You can feel it's your duty to sit on 20          this jury because you know the Judge needs jurors and 21          because you are a citizen, and regardless of the 22          fact, you know, you are not necessarily going in 23          there to convict everybody, but you want to bend over 24          backwards to help the Judge and help the Court and to 25          make sure they have enough jurors. You can sit on 26          this jury because you are uncertain, but you want to 27          promise the Judge that you will do all right.

28          But how can any of those people trying to sit on 29          the jury enter this reasonably with that kind of

1 knowledge? Eminent, admitted and about to surface in
2 their minds if it hasn't surfaced already, to be a
3 fair and impartial jury. So we would move for a
4 change of venue. And we would ask this Court to 5 grant that Motion.

6 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, in response to start
7 with, as the Court will note, I think the jurors have 8 been asked very detailed questions about their
9 feelings, about their knowledge, and from my notes
10 every juror that has even remotely stated that it
11 might even possibly to the smallest extent taint
12 them, this Court has already excluded. That is the 13 test, not have you heard something. Opposing Counsel
14 would like to argue that if the news media gives 15 information that is not something that can come
16 across in the jury, then you can't ever try a case.
17 If that is so, folks like Timothy McVae and Byron D.
18 LaBeckwith would never go to trial because our news
19 media in this state covers criminal events. Whether 20 it be good or whether it be bad, they do cover them.
21 And they have the right to cover them, and people
22 have the right to read them. There is absolutely
23 nothing in our law that says if a person has read
24 these articles, that they cannot serve as jurors.
25 The only thing that is important is if they have read
26 these opinions or talked to people and they have 27 formed an opinion. Even possibly formed an opinion,
28 they cannot and should not sit as jurors.

29 The case law, I think, in this state is real

1 clear. Simon v. State is still prevalent law as far
2 as what we are here on today. In that case it is not
3 whether they have heard or read that would affect 4 their ability to perform as jurors. That fact does
5 not matter, and that in Simon is stating the U.S.
6 Case of Mumin, I guess that's how you pronounce it.
7 M U M I N versus Virginia, 500 US 415. That is still
8 the test in Mississippi is whether or not the jurors
9 can be fair and impartial.

10 The case that opposing Counsel has cited of 11 Hickson is not a case that applies here. There are 12 very distinct situations in the Hickson case that the 13 Court reversed it on. And to start with, I would 14 like to point out to this Court, and I am sure this 15 Court has seen it in the opinion. That was not a
16 majority opinion to start with. It was a plurality
17 opinion, and in that opinion it was not even reversed
18 on the issue of what happened in the jury room. Four 19 of the Supreme Court Judges ruled that that was a
20 reason. Sullivan joined in, but concurred in results
21 only. But in that opinion, this to me is the most 22 important factor. They did not reverse it because 23 the jurors had heard about the information in the 24 case, and in that case there were a lot of jurors
25 that had heard about the case. In the Simon case
26 eight of the twelve jurors had heard about the case.
27 That is not the test. In the Hickson case the reason
28 that--

29 BY THE COURT: --How many had heard of it in the

1           Simon case?

2           BY MR. EVANS: Eight of the twelve jurors.

3           BY THE COURT: Okay.

4           BY MR. EVANS: In the Hickson case the biggest
5 problem was, as this Court has told these jurors, you
6 cannot consider these. This Court has asked each of 7 these jurors: Will you tell me; Can you tell me that 8 you will disregard anything that you have heard? The 9 jurors that are left at this point have all assured
10 the Court that they could do that. In the Hickson
11 case the skunk that the Defense Attorney is talking
12 about is one of the jurors did something that caused 13 four of the Supreme Court Judges to want to reverse
14 the case. And that was that juror said, well, how 15 about that prior conviction. They did exactly what 16 the Judge had told them not to do, and that is true
17 in any case. We have had cases, numerous cases
18 reversed in this case [sic] because of a juror,
19 because a juror did something that a judge told them
20 not to do. That doesn't mean that the case would be 21 reversed. That case would not have been reversed if 22 it hadn't been for that juror going back there and 23 not following his oath, doing something that was 24 improper.

25           I don't think you will ever find a case,
26 criminal case in this state or any other case of any 27 significance that does not have news coverage. One
28 thing that to me is very important, and there are 29 some cases on point - I am sure the Court has read

1           them - that say one thing that the Court should
2           consider; this is not a case where this is news
3           coverage right here in this area. This case has had 4           vast news coverage as in any major case. It is hard
5           to have a case where you have four people murdered
6           and not have vast news coverage. There is probably 7           as much news coverage on the coast or anywhere else
8           in this state that people have already heard that 9           this Defendant has been convicted once. That again
10          is not the test.

11                 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well--

12                 BY MR. EVANS: I'm not through.

13                 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Oh, I'm sorry.

14                 BY MR. EVANS: Just a second, Your Honor. Also, 15           opposing Counsel asked for a change of venue. It is 16           evident from the facts in this case that if there
17           were a change of venue, there would by necessity be 18           more news coverage. Part of that is due to the fact 19           that this room is full of news reporters because of 20           the law. It is not that we are trying or the Defense
21           or the Court is trying to get this out into the news,
22           but because we are following the law, all of these
23           news reporters are here. They know what we are here
24           about, and I can assure you and I think the Court
25           knows that this is going to make the news again. And 26           if it were transferred to Timbuktu, then the news in 27           Timbuktu is going to have this murder case is 28           transferred down here and that he has been 29           convicted. So we have got the same problem again.

1           I think the Court through its questions has
2           looked at the proper standard. I think the Court
3           through its questions has approached it from the 4           proper standpoint that if any juror is tainted in the 5           least bit, that they cannot and should not serve, and 6           the Court has excluded them, and I think that is the 7           standard that we are here for. I think that is what
8           everything that we stand for is about. And I think
9           that the Court has done that. The remaining jurors--
10          now, you know, there may be others that have other 11          strikes for different reasons. That is true in any
12          case.

13          But the question that we are back here on now is 14          whether or not this case can be tried in this 15          county. And I think excluding the people that have 16          any taint whatsoever, which the Court has done,
17          assures that this case can be fairly tried in this 18          county. The jurors have gone through rigorous 19          cross-examination by Defense Counsel as far as what 20          they would and would not consider. The ones that I
21          think had any question at all admitted to Defense
22          Counsel and the Court that it might possibly affect 23          them, and those are gone from the panel.

24          As far as Rule 609 which opposing Counsel
25          brought up to the Court, the Rules of Court apply to 26          what happens in the courtroom. They do not apply to 27          the news media. They apply to what evidence the 28          attorneys can introduce in court, not what people may 29          or may not hear outside the courtroom. Again, the

1 question there is will they disregard anything that
2 they have heard.

3 That's all I have, Your Honor.

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Just brief rejoinder, Judge.
5 Hickson speaks for itself. Despite their exposure to 6 pretrial media publicity, the vast majority of the 7 jurors, which is not the case here, "Members
8 unequivocally stated that they could be fair and 9 impartial. The majority of them also opined that 10 they did not believe the community had" prejudiced--
11 "prejudged Hickman or was biased against him."
12 "Here too we conclude that despite the jurors'
13 declaration of impartiality and the ability to be 14 fair, it is doubtful in light of the content of the 15 articles about the other sexual battery charge
16 against" Hickman--"Hickson that he obtained impartial
17 and fair trial in Jones County." It doesn't say 18 anything about the jury room. Decision of the 19 Court: "It is therefore the Court's conclusion that 20 the trial court abused its discretion by not changing
21 venue in this case as the record evidence indicates 22 that the Jones County community was exposed to 23 pretrial media publicity that was such of character
24 and content that Hickson could not have received a 25 fair and impartial trial evidenced in part by the 26 improper" -- "Evidenced in part by the improper
27 question posed by the juror in the jury room." That 28 is just evidence of it. They do not make the 29 decision based upon that. And so it says that they

1 reverse and remand it because of prejudicial pretrial
2 publicity.

3 Now let me say this. I think that when we look
4 at these cases, there is a joinder of two basic
5 considerations in my mind as I read the cases. A),
6 the publicity, the extent of it; and B), what you
7 might call the lynch pin of the information being 8 supplied. Just how prejudicial is it is what they 9 are saying. Of course, if you had all the publicity
10 in the world and nothing in the articles really said
11 anything about the Defendant that could be considered
12 as prejudicial, then I think that you would have some 13 difficulty claiming that you were entitled to a
14 change of venue.

15 In this case both the amount of publicity and 16 the thing which is one of the critical factors which 17 biases the Defendant is everything, a lot of the 18 article biased the Defendant in giving a blow by blow
19 description of the trial. But one of the critical 20 things is that he was found guilty and sentenced to 21 death. It is impossible to purge jurors of that kind
22 of taint. So I'm not going to repeat that. I'm just 23 going to say that.

24 But the other thing that I would note to the 25 Court is that it is not this Court's-- it is not this 26 Court's function to sit here and determine whether 27 venue would be proper at this time somewhere else.
28 It is this Court's function to determine whether 29 venue would be proper here. The situation is not

1 true that the publicity has affected everyone in the 2 same way. The people in Tupelo or in Lee County know
3 that a community jury here has convicted him and 4 sentenced him to death. That is not necessarily the 5 case anywhere else.

6 And secondly and finally, let me go back to the 7 initial point that I made when we started this 8 presentation. If, in fact, this case has been 9 prejudiced for all times and forever and it can never 10 be tried anywhere else, then it has not been the 11 Court's doing. It has not been my doing. It has not 12 been the Defendant's doing, and it may have been 13 because of a miscalculation by the District
14 Attorney's Office. Maybe that is why the novel
15 approach of separating four cases that occurred at 16 the same time with specifically the same evidence
17 where four different people were killed in a vicious
18 way, a kind of case that can only prejudice people,
19 maybe that is why most district attorneys in most 20 places in the country, if not the world, try to try 21 those cases that happened in the same transaction at 22 the same time so that you won't create a scenario
23 whereby one conviction takes place and then the 24 community be too prejudiced after being engaged in 25 other publicity.

26 We are not talking about the bombing in Oklahoma
27 City which, of course, is tremendously prejudicial,
28 but nowhere with the bombing in Oklahoma City could 29 anybody print in any paper that Timothy McVae has

1           already been found guilty and convicted and sentenced
2           to death for this very act. There is nothing more
3           prejudicial than that statement. There are more
4           hideous crimes, but there is nothing more prejudicial
5           than that kind of information to tell the community,
6           a jury from a community which has already drawn
7           twelve jurors that you are here to try a case where 8           your fellow jurors have already convicted this man
9           and sentenced to death. There is nothing else that 10          you can do to make that kind of statement.

11                 Now there is a way to cure it, I think, if the 12          venue is changed. I believe there is a way to cure
13          it, but that is something which somebody has to 14          consider later. Maybe if the District Attorney would 15          see fit to see what happens with the first case, and 16          if the first case is affirmed, then what is the issue
17          anyway? If the first case is not affirmed, then 18          perhaps what can happen is that you can, you can seek 19          some consolidation of the cases and try them all at 20          the same time like they should have been in the first
21          place.

22                 But the point that I'm trying to say, Judge, and 23          that might be a way to try the case in the future if 24          it should be tried in the future. But it was not our 25          choice. It was not your choice, and the DA's office
26          is left with the choice that it made. And if it has 27          created a choice which has now created a scenario
28          which has biased the people - and I am sure they 29          didn't make that choice for that purpose; I'm not

1           suggesting that it did - but if it did, if that was
2           the choice and that is what has come, then I don't
3           think that they can now come in and argue well,
4           Judge, we will never be able to try this case. Maybe
5           you will never be able to try it because of you, but
6           I think that you can probably go to the coast or you
7           can go to Jackson. I didn't know about the case
8           until I got involved in it. I live in Jackson,
9           Mississippi. And maybe we need to look to Jackson,
10          Mississippi; look to Natchez, Mississippi; look to 11          places on the coast; look to Greenville; look to some 12          place that is-- well, maybe not Greenville because 13          that is pretty close to Greenwood and other places.
14          Maybe we need to look at other places, but there is 15          not necessarily no place that this case be tried.

16                BY THE COURT: Okay. As is apparent to 17           everybody and everybody knows, my job is to see that 18           the Defendant gets a fair and impartial trial, and 19           that is especially true in capital cases. And in 20           this case we started with 102 jurors. Out of that 63
21           have heard something about the case, knew something
22           about the case. We have now for two days had 23           individual voir dire. Out of that 63, 36 were 24           challenged for cause. Of the remaining portion of 25           that 63, 12 stated that they knew of the first trial
26           but said they could be fair. I agree with Mr.
27           Lumumba about those 12, that they, I would have to 28           excuse them for cause if it got to that point. While 29           the rules do apply to trial, I would not have allowed

1           anybody, I would not have allowed the evidence of the 2           prior conviction at trial. It was too prejudicial
3           even for impeachment purposes to be allowed at the 4           trial. So I could not allow jurors to be seated who 5           had information that I wouldn't allow if they had
6           been, if the trial had been going on. So that is 48
7           out of 102 jurors that would be, that would be
8           challenged for cause. That would leave another 15
9           who had heard of the case and may or may not can be 10          fair even though they said that they could.

11                 I point out that Hickson addressed that point.
12          63 out of 102 is 60 percent. In the case, in the 13          Hickson case it was 47 out of 88, so the percentage
14          in this case is higher than it is in that case. The 15          Simon case is different because it was tried in two 16          different locations. This case is being tried,
17          attempted to try it in the same place where the first
18          case was tried. Personally, I thought after a year
19          and the fact that this case has been two years old
20          and the fact that it did not affect anybody locally,
21          that we would be able to get a jury in this case.
22          That was wrong. Had I been presented with this 23          information on the previous change of venue motions,
24          I would have granted the change of venue at that
25          time.

26                 This being a capital case and otherwise, it is 27          just too much in this record that would suggest even 28          that the Defendant could get a fair trial in this 29          county because of the publicity and the prejudgment

1 of this case. In particular I think the article on
2 Sunday had a major effect on whether we could get a
3 jury here today. I find it had more effect than any 4 other publicity that we had.

5 So I sustain the Motion for Change of Venue. I
6 will have to do my own analysis of where that has got
7 to be. I want to look at-- there are several things
8 I want to look at concerning facilities and all like
9 that. I have to say to you gentlemen that this case
10 has got to go a long way from where it originated and 11 from Tupelo because it has certainly got to be 12 outside the WTVA area and the Daily Journal area.
13 And where that is going to be, I don't know, but as 14 Ms. Barneycastle says, we are going south somewhere.
15 I know everybody would like for this case to be 16 concluded including me, but what we have done in two 17 days dictates that I must change venue in this case.
18 Now I'm going to go out there and--

19 BY MR. HORAN: --Your Honor, are we going to 20 have any, be able to consider any motions today maybe
21 of closing the file here?

22 BY THE COURT: Yeah, we can probably do that.
23 Let me say this. Let me just tell everybody because 24 we have got to go somewhere else. The lawyers are 25 all enjoined to abide by the Rule of Uniform Circuit
26 Court Rules. None of the lawyers are to talk about 27 this case at all to the press. They are also 28 instructed not to leak anything to the press. I
29 don't know whether I'm going to be any better at

1           enforcing that than they are in Washington, but I'm
2           telling y'all that I expect y'all to get me in a
3           position to where wherever we go, that we can seat a
4           jury in this case. I'm going to expect that of 5           y'all, gentlemen.

6           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, can I ask you a
7           question?

8           BY THE COURT: Uh-hum.

9           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can we offer anything about 10          jury sites?

11          BY THE COURT: I will let y'all all submit to me
12          whatever you-- I don't care about having a hearing on 13          that because in the long run, I'm going to make my 14          own selection based on some investigation I do.
15          Facilities is a big factor to me especially in one of 16          these cases, and there are small counties that are 17          just not able to do that. But I will be more than 18          happy to accept anything you want to send me on that 19          from either side.

20          BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

21          BY THE COURT: Okay, I'm going to go out there
22          and announce this to the jury as best I can.

23          (WHEREUPON, THE COURT WENT INTO OPEN COURT AND 24          ANNOUNCED TO THE JURY PANEL THAT THE CASE WOULD NOT 25          BE TRIED IN LEE COUNTY AND RELEASED THE JURORS.
26          FOLLOWING THAT, THE COURT AGAIN CONVENED IN CHAMBERS
27          WITH ALL COUNSEL AND THE DEFENDANT FOR THE
28          FOLLOWING:)

29          BY THE COURT: Y'all furnish me a motion-- I

1 mean an order.

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

3 BY MR. HORAN: Judge, at this time the first
4 thing I need to do - I need to do this on the record
5 - is move to have the exhibits from the Supreme
6 Court withdrawn, and I will submit an order. Do
7 y'all have any objection to that?

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No.

9 BY THE COURT: Okay, I specifically order that 10 those exhibits that have been withdrawn from the 11 Supreme Court for the purpose of this trial now be 12 transported back to the Supreme Court, placed in 13 their custody.

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can I request a question
15 relevant to that?

16 BY THE COURT: Yeah.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Is it possible, because we will 18 probably try to have the evidentiary hearing on the 19 identification before trial occurs, long before trial
20 occurs, can we get the Supreme Court to release
21 those?

22 BY MR. HORAN: I will go ahead and try-- I would 23 suggest that when you give me a date as to when we 24 are going to try it, I will try to submit an order
25 shortly thereafter, so I won't have to run into the 26 problems I ran into this time.

27 BY THE COURT: Okay, but he is talking about--
28 you are going to need the exhibits at the motion
29 hearing?

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, because of the pictures.
2 There is a couple, there are some pictures at the 3 identification hearing.

4 BY THE COURT: Okay.

5 BY MR. HORAN: That won't be any problem.

6 BY THE COURT: We will see that they are there.
7 Y'all just make sure--

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Okay, well, other than-- we 9 have no objections.

10 BY MR. HORAN: There may be some, that's the 11 only thing we got back from the Supreme Court was the 12 two I.D.'s and the four shoe print photographs. And 13 the second motion would be, Judge, to close the file
14 here. I don't know what the Court's intention are 15 to-- you may want to look at Carr v. State as to 16 procedurally what you have to do in order to close
17 the file. As far as--

18 BY THE COURT: --Is it any different than 19 changing venue from here to where we go than--

20 BY MR. HORAN: --Well, you are going to have 21 to-- you can technically leave this file here as a
22 Lee County cause number. I don't know how you are 23 going to do that. If you are going to send it back
24 as a Montgomery number--

25 BY THE COURT: --No, no. The venue of this case
26 in my opinion, and you can tell me if I am wrong, the 27 venue of this case is Lee County, Mississippi.

28 BY MR. HORAN: That's right.

29 BY THE COURT: And now that venue will be

1 changed from Lee County to wherever it is going to
2 go, and I would assume the procedure would be the
3 same as it was the first time. And Joyce thinks so
4 too, that she would just make a copy of the record,
5 and she would send it on. She would keep a copy of 6 the record here and then a new copy--

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Somewhere I was reading back
8 when we first got involved in this case, and I don't 9 know whether it's the rules or somewhere that suggest 10 that you leave the case with the cause number from 11 the county where it originated. Am I right or wrong
12 on that?

13 BY MR. HORAN: Well, they have a cause number.
14 It'll originally go back to Montgomery County cause
15 number, and all the appeal stuff will be listed as a
16 Montgomery County cause number because that's how 17 they will track it. But I'm talking about--

18 BY THE COURT: --I must confess, y'all are way
19 ahead of me on that.

20 BY MR. HORAN: I am talking about closing the 21 file as far as it having no access to the public and 22 I think-- that's what I am asking for.

23 BY THE COURT: Yeah. There is a procedure for 24 doing that.

25 BY MR. HORAN: Yes, sir; it is.

26 BY THE COURT: And I will do that because of the 27 fact of why I had to change venue. I will close it 28 to the public until such time as this case is 29 concluded, and then I'm going to remove that order

1 from it. Okay?

2 BY MR. HORAN: Okay.

3 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

4 BY MR. HORAN: I will submit-- well, you will do
5 your own order on that.

6 BY THE COURT: Well, you are the one got all the 7 authority on it. You figure it out and submit it to 8 me. Y'all have got no objection to that, do you?

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: None.

10 BY THE COURT: And that order will need to be 11 not only to this file, but to go to the county
12 wherever we send it.

13 BY MR. HORAN: Okay.

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can we ask for, unless there is 15 a reason not to do it, can we have the exhibits from 16 the venue hearing released to us? Do you need those 17 for any reason?

18 BY THE COURT: I don't know of any reason.

19 BY MR. HORAN: Excuse me?

20 BY MR. EVANS: Would they not have to stay a
21 part of the record?

22 BY THE COURT: I mean it's not appealable, is 23 it? I mean can the State appeal that decision?

24 BY MR. HORAN: No, sir.

25 BY THE COURT: I didn't think so.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: It's no big thing, I mean
27 really. The only thing that we don't have, I guess,
28 is the videotapes, but it doesn't really matter.

29 BY MR. HORAN: They are going to be sent down

1           there. They are going to be part of the record, I
2           assume. I don't know what is going to stay here as 3           far as the exhibits as far as the motion hearing.

4           BY MR. EVANS: I would assume all of this is 5           still part of the same case even though it's going to 6           a different location.

7           BY MR. HORAN: I assume the Court would let you
8           have access to--

9           BY THE COURT: --There ought to be some way you
10          could do like you do in the Supreme Court, do a 11          diminution of the record where it all doesn't have to 12          go because there is no reason for that to go to
13          that--

14          BY MR. EVANS: --I agree. I am just thinking.

15          BY THE COURT: Well, and I don't know. Y'all,
16          since you are going to be doing all this research,
17          why don't you find out?

18          BY MR. HORAN: I'm not going to do any research
19          now. You know better than that.

20          BY MR. FREELON: You got somebody for that, huh?

21          BY MR. HORAN: I just don't let the law confuse
22          me. You know, I have hard enough time. But yes,
23          sir.

24          BY THE COURT: Okay.

25          BY MR. HORAN: I don't see any reason why they 26          can't have those exhibits back unless-- do you,
27          Doug?

28          BY MR. EVANS: I don't know. I have never been 29          into that.

1                   BY THE COURT: Well, I tell you what. I'm going
2 to order that they get them back unless y'all can
3 show me some reason they should not in say a week.
4 How about that? Is that okay?

5                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: That's fine. Do you want us to 6 get you an order on that too?

7                   BY THE COURT: Yeah.

8                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

9                   BY THE COURT: Does that get us?

10                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: That will do it, Judge.

11                  BY THE COURT: Now I have a question that the 12 law enforcement folks need to know. Do y'all want to 13 talk to Mr. Flowers any more today?

14                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Fifteen minutes.

15                  BY THE COURT: Okay. They want to be able to 16 transport him on back.

17                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: We are going to talk to him 18 right in here? Is that right? We should talk to 19 him in here?

20                  BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

21                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

1 (COURT WAS DULY OPENED IN THE COURTROOM IN
2 GULFPORT, MISSISSIPPI, ON TUESDAY, JANUARY 6, 1999, AT 10:00
3 A.M. WITH HONORABLE JUDGE CLARENCE E. MORGAN, III PRESIDING
4 FOR MOTION HEARING IN CAUSE NUMBER B2401-98-00960. PRESENT
5 REPRESENTING THE STATE OF MISSISSIPPI WERE HONORABLE DOUG
6 EVANS AND HONORABLE KEVIN HORAN. PRESENT REPRESENTING THE
7 DEFENDANT WERE HONORABLE CHOKWE LUMUMBA AND HONORABLE HARVEY
8 FREELON. THE DEFENDANT WAS ALSO PRESENT. PROCEEDINGS WERE 9 AS FOLLOWS:)

10 BY THE COURT: Is this the motion on my 11 bench?

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes. Actually you have got 13 two motions up there. I'm only raising one right now
14 before you do the jury, and that's the one on the jury
15 question, on the venue.

16 BY THE COURT: Okay.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Then the other one can be,
18 the other one has to do with in limine motion to exclude 19 evidence, and that doesn't have to be heard right now,
20 Judge.

21 (Pause while the Court reads the motion.)

22 BY THE COURT: Okay.

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. Should I speak from 24 here or does it make a difference?

25 BY THE COURT: It is okay from there.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. Judge, we first of all 27 apologize for filing this motion late. But a number of 28 other things have delayed us in trying to get this 29 together, and we did do a lot of deliberation as to

1           whether we wanted to file it or not. But essentially,
2           what this motion does is challenge the actual venue as 3           it now stands. Either-- and in a lot of motions what we 4           talk about is appearances and not necessarily trying to 5           indict the Judge or anything, implicate the Judge of 6           anything, but appearances.

7           This is a case which arose in Montgomery County.
8           And in Montgomery County we have a 43 percent black
9           population if I'm not mistaken. I know-- we actually
10          have submitted another motion which has the statistics
11          from the census on it, and it does say 43 percent. I 12          believe it's actually probably a little higher than
13          that.

14          But in any event, in the county where the case was 15          first moved was Lee County. There was only somewhere
16          between 18 and 21 percent black population in Lee
17          County. And now the county that we have selected,
18          Harrison County, has a 21 percent black population
19          according to the last available census. So our concern
20          here is, is that although we know that the state of the 21          law is that one of the relevant considerations can be
22          whether or not the jurisdiction reflects demographically
23          the jurisdiction where the case arose at, it is not an 24          absolute requirement that the jurisdiction that you pick 25          mirrors the other jurisdiction on racial demographics.
26          We understand that. But the case law does allow this 27          Court to consider that.

28          And what we are saying is that, and obviously,
29          there can be no systematic attempt to avoid a

1 jurisdiction where it mirrors the demographics of the 2 county where the case arose. We think that is important
3 in this case because unfortunate as it may be, and I
4 don't think unfortunate arises in this Court or with the 5 particular litigants, but I think it arises from the 6 circumstances of society as we find ourselves still in 7 1999 and in 1998 is that in large part the constituency
8 and the support base for the prosecution in this case,
9 which is said to be a support base for the victims -- I
10 always take issue with that because I don't know how 11 people can determine what the victims would have wanted
12 since the victims are no longer here. So I take issue
13 with that, and I never say that. I say but the support
14 base for apparently what the victim's family believe and 15 that's, and I just take that by hearsay, and from the 16 prosecution has been largely white, in fact, all white,
17 I believe. Three of the people killed-- and these are 18 some of the considerations that the Supreme Court has 19 discussed when they talk about any kind of racial 20 scenarios in cases.

21 Three of the victims in the case have been white,
22 and the victim who we are trying right now is a young
23 white youth. Whereas on the other hand, the Defendant
24 in this case is black; his lawyers are black. And not 25 exclusively I would tell you, as the people who sit in 26 the stands in support of him or at least behind his 27 bench presumably in support, have been - there have been
28 some whites - but have been largely black and largely a
29 lot of his family and friends who happen to be black

1           because he is black.

2           So we believe that fairness would require this case
3           to be tried in a county which has a substantial black
4           population, and substantial, a word to be gauged by the 5           state that we are in, Mississippi. Now in some states
6           perhaps there is less than two percent blacks in the 7           whole state or three or four percent. This is a state
8           which has the largest black population of anywhere in 9           the United States, and in fact, I think it's about,
10          according to the last census, about 35, somewhere from 11          35 to 40, and I still believe it to be higher, but the 12          last census has 35 to 40. But more importantly, there
13          are counties in this state which are 80 percent black,
14          70 percent black, and substantially black.

15          In order to insure that the Defendant gets a fair
16          trial, we are not asking you to try it-- of course, we 17          wouldn't object if you had tried it in Leflore County or 18          some place like that. But we are asking that the case
19          be tried in a county which more reflects where the case
20          arose, a 43 percent black county. And we have listed
21          those counties there, and we ask the Court to locate it
22          there.

23          We would also point out that we understand that 24          there is other relevant considerations. One of the 25          relevant considerations is a forum of convenience. Now,
26          of course, the Court in attempting apparently to get
27          away from publicity, has gone all the way to the gulf
28          coast. But actually, so this is not the most convenient 29          forum for the witnesses, the lawyers and certainly not

1           for our law office. I don't know; they can speak for 2           their own law office although I know they are located in 3           Montgomery County. Well, I'm not sure they are located
4           in Montgomery County.

5                       BY THE COURT: Grenada.

6                       BY MR. LUMUMBA: Pardon?

7                       BY THE COURT: Grenada.

8                       BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, Grenada. They are 9           located in Grenada which is further north even than 10          Montgomery County. So our view is that for the lawyers, 11          the witnesses and stuff, this is not the most 12          advantageous county. There are a lot of witnesses in 13          this case, so I think what provides the forum of 14          convenience for witnesses is important. Also, I
15          understand from having interviewed witnesses that 16          appeared at the last trial is that there was a bus
17          service provided for the prosecution's witnesses.
18          Similar service was not provided for the defense
19          witnesses, and the defense doesn't have that kind of 20          money to afford to hire a bus, which means that I guess 21          we are even at more of a disadvantage than the 22          prosecution's witnesses. So and then as far as family
23          members and things that want to attend, I understand 24          there was a bus, a public, a school provided bus for the 25          family members of the victims whereas that same service
26          was not provided for Defendant's family which again,
27          puts us at a further disadvantage. And I think all
28          these things play into the atmosphere of a fair trial.

29                      But most importantly, all the counties that we have

1 listed in the motion are counties which have large court
2 facilities, fairly large jurisdictions compared to
3 Mississippi jurisdictions, and would accommodate and
4 they certainly have courtrooms this size. I try cases
5 in Hinds County frequently, and it's a large courtroom.
6 I went and visited Adams County. It's not, it may not 7 be as large as this courtroom. I haven't counted the 8 seats. I did count seats in Adams, and I believe there 9 was over 300 seats, you know, to accommodate people and 10 things of that nature.

11 All of these counties would say closer to Winona
12 than this particular county, and in some of these 13 counties are as far away-- well, would not, most of 14 these counties would be no more affected by the 15 publicity than this county right here. I understand
16 that there was some statewide publicity. But if it's 17 statewide, then this county is still in the state, so it
18 would have reached here too.

19 So those are the concerns that we have, and we 20 would ask for that reason the Judge to consider another
21 county, one of the ones listed on the list. And there
22 are other counties with 30, at least 30 percent black
23 populations like Lafayette, like Oktibbeha. My guess is 24 that would be the case with the county that Meridian,
25 Lauderdale County where Meridian is located, and various 26 other counties in the state. I'm not too sure about the 27 county that contains Hattiesburg, but there are other
28 counties in this state I know that have at least a 30
29 percent black population. And we would ask for one that

1 has one as close to Montgomery County as possible.

2 But in the alternative, we would also say that it
3 should be tried in the another county and in a county
4 where the convenience is the same or more convenient.
5 And if we're not going to do that, then I guess we are 6 saying in the alternative, it just should be returned to 7 Montgomery County because I'm not sure that we are 8 really avoiding the publicity angle by coming to a
9 county here. And for what is lost, we think that it
10 would be better to try to pick a jury from Montgomery
11 County than to come to this particular county.

12 One second, Judge.

13 (Pause while Mr. Lumumba confers with Mr.
14 Freelon).

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have no further argument.

16 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I will try to be 17 brief on this because I don't think there is any reason
18 for this motion to even be filed. To start with, as 19 this Court knows, when we were in the process of 20 attempting to pick a jury in Lee County, none of the 21 jurors that were excused were excused because of any 22 racial reason. The jurors that were excused were 23 excused because of publicity that had been given at that 24 time. This Court, along with the defense in those 25 motions, made comments that this case might have to go
26 all the way to the coast to prevent a county that 27 publicity had been given in. As this Court knows and 28 for the record to be clear, the State did not even 29 submit any counties for the Court to consider. This

1           was, I assume, brought to the coast in an attempt to 2           avoid a place that there had already been a lot of
3           publicity.

4           Even though I don't think I have to approach it, I
5           want to comment on a couple of issues in this motion.
6           One is the absurd comment in this motion that there was 7           a victim's rights group that was headed by white people
8           that were to help white people. There is a victim's 9           rights group in Lee County that attempted to try to 10          raise some money to help defer some of the expenses of 11          the victim's families. This went to the white victims'
12          families along with the black victim's family, but the 13          Defense Counsel wants to forget that there is a black
14          victim in this case, which murder is color blind. The 15          Court is color blind, and nothing in this has to do with 16          race other than the fact that they are trying to make 17          this a racial case.

18          They tried it in Lee County when a Muslim group
19          that is associated with them attempted to pass out
20          pamphlets accusing the Court and the District Attorney
21          of being bias and improper in the case. Everything that 22          has been brought out about race has been an attempt by 23          the Defense to attempt to do that.

24          Also, Your Honor, I want to point out that 25          basically, this is a motion for change of venue. The 26          Court has already set this case for this county with the 27          approval of Defense Attorney. There was no objection
28          from him to this county being the county that the case
29          would be tried in. And also, for it to be now a change

1 of venue motion, it is not properly filed because there
2 are no affidavits attached that the Defendant could not
3 receive a fair and impartial trial here.

4 There is no reason for this case to be moved
5 anywhere else, and we ask that this motion not be
6 sustained.

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Just a brief rejoinder,
8 Judge. I don't know who this Muslim group is but--

9 BY MR. EVANS: I believe he knows very well
10 who it is. He brought them in the courtroom in Lee
11 County.

12 BY THE COURT: Well, wait a minute, Mr. Evans.
13 It's his time now.

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, I know of no Muslim
15 group that is associated with the case. I suspect that 16 most groups that black people are in nowadays probably 17 contain some Muslims, but to say it's a Muslim group, 18 you know, and sometimes people say that because of 19 people's names. My name is Chokwe Lumumba. I'm not a 20 Muslim. I go to Anderson United Methodist Church, and 21 so I think that that is a-- that is the kind of problem
22 that I am concerned about because I am sure Mr. Evans is 23 well intended, but he just presumes that this is a
24 Muslim group because somebody in it might have a Muslim
25 name or a name that he thinks is Muslim. Chokwe Lumumba
26 is also not a Muslim name. It's an African name, 27 original African name, and it was there before the 28 Muslims reached the continent of Africa.

29 But be that as it may be, that's the kind of

1 prejudices that we kind of have, and when we pick a
2 group of jurors, that is the kind of prejudices they
3 come in with. One of the things that we pointed out is 4 that all jurors who did acknowledge a bias against the 5 defense in this case that I can recall - now I don't 6 want to say that there was not one black who said that
7 they were bias against the Defendant.

8 But if I'm not mistaken, all the jurors who did
9 acknowledge a bias actually against the Defendant in our 10 jury selection attempt were actually white. And I don't 11 think that that is a coincidence. I mean we can deny it
12 and do whatever we want to do, but I don't want to do
13 that. We are trying to play to the jury on the white
14 issue, on the race issue. Well, that is really not 15 true. And if he feels that that is the way we are going 16 to try this case, then that is fine. That is fine; he 17 can feel that way. But anybody and I'm not, I'm not 18 assuming that he feels we are intelligent. But anybody
19 that is in a, who winds up in front of a venire and a 20 jury pool which is predominantly white would probably 21 have a problem trying to try the case on a race
22 question.

23 In fact, I am a little concerned today. In fact, I
24 have tried cases with prosecutors for a long period of 25 time, and I don't think-- there is some prosecutors I
26 have seen that don't do it, but most of the time they 27 exclude black people from the jury, and then they do
28 raise a little bit of race bait in there on some way or 29 another, either quietly and surreptitiously or some of

1           them. And maybe Mr. Evans won't do that, but I don't
2           know what he is going to do. But all I'm trying to say
3           is we need to try the case in the best environment as 4           possible.

5           It's really not a motion to change the venue--
6           well, unless the Court wants to consider it as such and 7           it is okay with me. We, all we are saying is that this
8           motion is to pick a venue which is and to repick a venue
9           which I believe would be more in line with this case and 10          be fairer to this case. That's our concern.

11          We did not agree to this county. What did happen,
12          I will point this out. The Court did gratuitously-- in 13          fact, I think it was on my request, and I'm going to 14          admit some delay-- I mean I wouldn't call it delay but 15          some, we did not respond to something as soon as we 16          should have. What happened is I requested of the Court,
17          I said to the Court and it's probably on record. I said
18          can we make suggestions of the venue. All right. The 19          Court said yes, if you want to, and you didn't express,
20          you didn't ask for them nor did you say you were not--
21          you just said we could if we wanted to. That's what you
22          said. We did not get this before you picked this jury.
23          At the very moment that you picked the jury--

24                 BY MR. FREELON: --Venue.

25                 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Or venue, I'm sorry. Before
26          you picked the venue, I was actually in Adams County
27          looking at the jurisdiction, and I think I may have 28          mentioned to you at some point off the record, what 29          about Adams County. You know what I'm saying? But we

1        did not officially do it. So I'm not blaming the Court
2        for that. But what I am saying is that we have brought 3        this to the Court's attention before the computer has 4        done its job to pick, you know, names out, so I think
5        it's timely.

6                So the only thing that I'm saying to the Court is 7        that for the reasons I have stated and for no other
8        reasons, I believe that we should do this. I mean, you
9        know, because if a conviction comes out of this, and I
10       know everybody don't always perceive this, but if a 11       conviction comes out of this, you know, people have 12       perceptions. Now some people say they are wrong, and 13       some people say they are right. But I mean a lot of 14       what we think is right or wrong about perceptions
15       depends upon how we are raised, who we are raised with,
16       and what our experiences are. They don't have anything
17       to do with whether you are a Muslim or not a Muslim,
18       right. In fact, there is some racist Muslims. You
19       know, some of the most racist people in the world who 20       invaded Africa long before the Europeans got there were 21       Muslims. So that has nothing to do with that.

22               But the fact of the matter is that people's 23       perceptions are if you have all white juries that 24       convict black defendants in cases where some of that can 25       be called in question, then we should, you know, that 26       does not do a whole lot to an air of confidence in the 27       system, at least not in the community I come from.

28               So I think that it would be good to avoid that 29       circumstance, and this is why I am bringing it to the

1 Court's attention, and we would ask the Court to pick a
2 different venue for that reason. I mean I don't have
3 anything against a golf course. It's much warmer here.
4 I don't know; it is probably going to be a lot more
5 expensive for me to be here. But it is much warmer
6 here. And just, and I know this is not scientific or 7 anything because we don't have the money to keep doing -
8 what you call it - surveys to have somebody say-- when a 9 group comes up and volunteers to do one that they are 10 biased and that they were just trying-- we don't have 11 that kind of money. He doesn't have that kind of 12 money.

13 But I do know and just the little, few lawyers I
14 have talked to that, you know, it's about the same
15 everywhere. I mean in Lee County, of course, there was 16 a lot of people that heard about the case because you
17 tried it up there, all right. In most of these other 18 counties there are still people that know about the 19 case. I mean I'm not claiming to have done a survey,
20 but according to the lawyers that I have talked to, -
21 and some were down here - they know about the case, and 22 at least these lawyers know about the conviction even 23 though they had nothing to do with the case.

24 So you are going to have that problem. I don't 25 know how we are going to escape that problem other than 26 the fact that perhaps we really should wait until the 27 Supreme Court decides on the appeal before we even try 28 this case. But and if the Supreme Court reverses the 29 conviction in the first case, then you won't have the

1           problem of having a bunch of news out saying he was 2           convicted and sentenced to death without the 3           corresponding news saying that he was relieved of the 4           conviction by the Supreme Court. If the Supreme Court
5           upholds the conviction of the death sentence in the 6           first case, I really don't see why we are even trying
7           this case to be quite honest with you because the man
8           can only die once. You know what I'm saying?

9           But in any event, that is the way I'm thinking, and 10          I don't know; I doubt that Gulfport - and I don't know;
11          I'm not going to make a statement on that, but I don't
12          know that Gulfport is as knowledgeable about this case, 13          the Gulfport area; I shouldn't say Gulfport - is as 14          knowledgeable about this area as Lee County. You know,
15          one would assume not because it was not tried in Lee
16          County, but when you compare it to places like Hinds
17          County, Warren County, Adams County, there is not going 18          to be a difference. They know about it as much and 19          don't know about it as much. I think that's the same
20          situation.

21                BY THE COURT: Okay, while this is not styled
22          a motion for change of venue, since I have entered an 23          order changing venue down here, any move from this venue
24          would be a change of venue, and therefore I must take 25          note of the fact that the motion is-- well, it's 26          entitled Motion to Change Venue. And in order to be an 27          effective motion to change venue, it has got to have the 28          two affidavits stating he couldn't get a fair trial
29          here. That is one of the considerations that I have to 1           take into account.

2           The other one is when the second trial, when we had
3           the second trial set in Lee County, after a year had
4           passed, I anticipated that we would have no problem
5           getting a jury up there just like we did not have a
6           problem getting it the first time that we were there.
7           After going through that experience up there, I am
8           convinced that had the Northeast Daily Journal not 9           gotten actively involved in the case the day, the 10          weekend before the trial, that we would have been able 11          to get a jury and try it up there. All of the jurors or 12          most of the jurors that were excluded were excluded
13          because of that particular, of the articles in the Daily
14          Journal up there, some by television and some by the 15          Clarion Ledger.

16          So publicity was the main reason that the case had 17          to be tried. Other than that, I think the panel was 18          such that you could have drawn a jury. I then had to 19          look for a place to change venue to. Because of the 20          circulation of the Daily Journal in north Mississippi,
21          that just about excluded north Mississippi. What it
22          doesn't cover up there, the Clarion Ledger does. The 23          Clarion Ledger on the first case had actively been 24          present in the court and covered that case. They had 25          some-- they were not present, I don't think, at the 26          second, at the second trial, but they had, they did run
27          articles concerning it. So all of the north
28          Mississippi, what the Northeast Daily Journal doesn't 29          cover, Clarion Ledger covered.

1           In addition, Channel 9 in Tupelo had extensive
2 coverage. That was one of the considerations that the 3 Court took into account when it changed venue. WCBI in 4 Columbus, WABG in Greenwood - when you put those three 5 together and you add them to the cable coverage that
6 they have, they cover all of north Mississippi and far
7 down into south, into central Mississippi. They cover
8 past Attala County which is the center of the state.
9 They cover down to Meridian.

10           Obviously, Hinds County is the headquarters of the 11 Clarion Ledger, so that is probably the most extensive
12 paper read in that county. It is also the most 13 extensive paper read in central Mississippi, both north
14 central Mississippi and south central Mississippi all
15 the way down until you get down this far.

16           The Court did consider some other places. It
17 considered Adams County; it considered Jones County. It
18 considered Forrest County where the Court has tried a 19 capital murder case before, and then took into 20 consideration that the primary news source down here
21 from a print media is the Sun Herald. It is localized
22 to the southern part of the state. To my knowledge, it
23 has not had extensive coverage of this case when it
24 happened or any time since then. The Clarion Ledger is 25 the secondary paper down here. The television stations,
26 I do not know. Y'all may show this to me later, but to 27 my knowledge, the television stations down here have had 28 no coverage of this case whatsoever.

29           In considering, I decided then that the case must

1 go to one of the coast counties to get away from the
2 thing that caused it to be moved from Tupelo. In doing
3 that, I considered demographics of all the counties on 4 the coast and found that Gulfport was the best one.
5 There are counties on the coast with less black
6 population than what this county has. I believe I am
7 right, and I believe Harrison County has the largest 8 black population on the coast, and I took that into 9 consideration when I set it for the First Judicial 10 District of Harrison County. I also set it for the 11 First Judicial District rather than the Second Judicial 12 District because it does have a higher black population
13 in it.

14 Those are the considerations that I took, and so I
15 overrule this motion. Of course, it is always subject
16 to what happens in voir dire, where we are there.

17 Can we-- excuse me; go ahead. Can we go pull the 18 names of the jury?

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes. Is the Defendant going 20 to have a chance to be there?

21 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

22 (WHEREUPON, THE COURT, ALL COUNSEL, THE
23 DEFENDANT, AND THE COURT REPORTER WENT ACROSS THE HALL
24 TO THE CIRCUIT CLERK'S OFFICE, AND THE NAMES OF THE JURY
25 PANEL WERE DRAWN AS FOLLOWS:)

26 BY THE COURT: Y'all want on the record how 27 they go about selecting the jury, the pool and all?

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes.

29 BY THE COURT: All right. Ms. Ladner. This

1 is Connie Ladner. She is Deputy Circuit Clerk. She is 2 going to be in charge of pulling the venire from the 3 jury pool here today. We have got two judicial 4 districts in Harrison County, First and Second. We are 5 in the First. Ms. Ladner, if you would for the record,
6 if you would tell for the record how y'all go about
7 selecting folks that go into the jury wheel?

8 BY MS. LADNER: Okay, the Jury Commission
9 meets once a year. They meet in April of each year. We 10 choose however many jurors we think will be sufficient
11 to cover the entire year of jury selection. The Jury
12 Commission will divide the number of registered voters
13 in whichever district by the number of jurors we need
14 for the year to come up with a starting number and the 15 key number. Then it is randomly selected by the 16 computer.

17 BY THE COURT: Okay, all right. I guess we 18 are ready.

19 BY MS. LADNER: We are choosing just from the 20 First; is that right?

21 BY THE COURT: Just from the First.

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah.

23 BY MS. LADNER: How many did you want?

24 BY THE COURT: 350.

25 BY MS. LADNER: What date is this returnable?

26 BY THE COURT: The 22nd of March. As somebody
27 pointed out that is the Ides of March.

28 (Pause while the computer was selecting the 29 names of the jurors.)

1 BY MS. LADNER: How many copies of the jury
2 list do we need?

3 BY MR. HORAN: Seven is what we got last.

4 BY MS. LADNER: Seven.

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Seven copies of the jury
6 list.

7 BY THE COURT: Yeah, I am assuming the seven
8 includes you?

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Did you include us?

10 BY MR. HORAN: Right. That's what we had last 11 time including defense attorneys.

12 BY MR. EVANS: If you can, we would like to 13 have at least one copy each alphabetically two.

14 BY MS. LADNER: We can print a venire without 15 the addresses alphabetically--

16 BY MR. EVANS: --That is fine.

17 BY MS. LADNER: But with the addresses it's 18 by--

19 BY MR. EVANS: That's fine.

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: So does that mean we are 21 doing it both ways? Is that what we are doing?

22 BY MR. EVANS: Yeah.

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Both ways, okay.

24 BY MR. EVANS: So it will be easier to cross
25 reference.

26 (THE LISTS WERE THEN PRINTED AND DISTRIBUTED
27 TO COUNSEL, AND THE COURT TALKED TO COUNSEL OFF THE 28 RECORD AND OUT OF THE HEARING OF THE COURT REPORTER
29 WHILE THAT WAS GOING ON. WHEREUPON, THE COURT, ALL

1 COUNSEL, THE DEFENDANT, AND THE COURT REPORTER RETURNED
2 INTO OPEN COURT FOR THE CONSIDERATION OF FURTHER MOTIONS
3 AS FOLLOWS:)

4 BY THE COURT: Okay, what have y'all got
5 next?

6 BY MR. FREELON: Just one second.

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes, Judge. Since we just,
8 we did just pick the jury. I just want to bring 9 something to the attention of the Court with respect to 10 the questionnaires. If I can put that on the record and 11 I think the Court is going to take, might be taking this 12 under consideration; I don't know.

13 BY THE COURT: Okay. This is what we just 14 talked about?

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes.

16 BY THE COURT: All right, go ahead.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, on the questionnaire
18 which I do not have in front of me. Do we have a
19 questionnaire?

20 BY THE COURT: I have got it if you want to 21 look at it.

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: The Court on the 23 questionnaire, as I recall it, and I don't have one in 24 front of me, but it asks the question about the death
25 penalty. And I think that is the last question if I'm 26 not mistaken.

27 BY THE COURT: Okay, go ahead.

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Right. I believe that the 29 question, what that question comes from is what we call

1       the Witherspoon challenge. The Witherspoon challenge is 2       a challenge whereby a juror can be challenged if, in 3       fact, that juror has problems with the death penalty to 4       the extent that they cannot consider giving the death
5       penalty. Later on in law they developed something
6       called the reverse Witherspoon challenge. The reverse
7       Witherspoon challenge really is whether a juror, based 8       upon the fact that they automatically feel that people
9       should get the death penalty if they are convicted of 10      capital murder, whether they would give the death
11      penalty to everybody convicted of capital murder. Both 12      of those positions are equally in conflict with the 13      standard that a juror should be exercising according to 14      case law.

15       On the one hand, any juror who sits in a capital
16      case the Court would expect them to be able to consider
17      whether or not they should give the jury a death
18      penalty. On the other hand, any jury in a capital
19      murder case, the Court would expect them to be able to 20      consider that a person, to need to be convinced even 21      after they are convicted that they have to get the death
22      penalty or that they should get the death penalty. In 23      other words, anybody who automatically concludes that a 24      person should get it because of the fact that they are 25      convicted of capital murder, and they just believe 26      everybody convicted of capital murder should be 27      sentenced to death is not a person who is allowed to sit
28      on the jury according to the reverse Witherspoon.

29       My problem with the questionnaire, and I understand

1           that the questionnaire is not supposed to be a precise
2           voir dire on the questions to be raised in jury voir
3           dire-- when the venire or the pool is selected. But I
4           think with the jury, the questionnaire is supposed to 5           help us. The questionnaire actually hurts the Defense
6           in two ways without corresponding help. On the one hand
7           it flags for the District Attorney everybody who has a
8           reservation to the death penalty and allows him to 9           perhaps cement that reservation before they have a
10          chance to be rehabilitated.

11           And let me say that studies have shown
12          psychologically, once you write something down, you
13          become more committed to it than if you never write it
14          down. I believe that is true. In other words, once you 15          take a position, then it becomes more difficult for you
16          to change it.

17           Now we don't have the reverse question as to 18          whether or not they would automatically want to impose
19          the death penalty on anybody convicted of capital
20          murder. So I would recommend that we either add that 21          question or in the alternative, that we strip the 22          questionnaire of all questions or in the second
23          alternative, that we add a statement-- eliminate that 24          question and add a statement which would more reflect a 25          question that would be helpful to all of us which would 26          still require some voir dire because no matter what you 27          ask, you cannot resolve the matter just based upon the 28          questionnaire. So there will have to be voir dire on
29          it.

1           And the question that I would say that you ask in
2           the third alternative would be, "Circle the statement
3           below that best represents your view on the death
4           penalty. (1) I strongly support the death penalty. (2)
5           I support it. (3) I have no opinions with respect to 6           the death penalty. (4) I strongly oppose the death
7           penalty, or (5)"-- no, excuse me. Four should be, "I
8           oppose the death penalty," not strongly oppose the death
9           penalty. And (5) would be, I strongly support-- "I 10          strongly oppose the death penalty." In other words, the 11          difference between question one and two and question
12          four and five is that you add "strongly" to one of them
13          in terms of strong opposition or strong support.
14          Whereas the other one, you just say I support or I
15          don't. You know, I support or I don't.

16               And of course, that could be reduced to three 17               questions. "I support the death penalty. I have no
18               opinion on the death penalty, or I oppose the death
19               penalty." It could be reduced to three. What I'm doing
20               is reflecting the system which is used in Hinds County
21               which has those direct questions; plus it reflects upon 22               strong opposition or what would be considered as more
23               moderate opposition or strong support or more moderate
24               support.

25               What that would do is give us a view into the mind
26               of the jurors on the death penalty issue and then open
27               it up for fair voir dire. So those are the three 28               alternatives that I would suggest.

29               There is only one other question that we felt that

1 we were supposed to have asked on the questionnaire
2 before which never was asked, and that was the question
3 about race. If people had any racial views which would 4 reflect, which would affect their ability to be fair and 5 impartial. If I'm not mistaken, that question is not
6 included on the questionnaire that we have. I'm not 7 sure, but I think that that is not included.

8 BY THE COURT: How do you propose to ask that 9 question if it's not on there?

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I think it can be, Do you
11 have any racial views which would influence your ability
12 to be a fair and impartial juror in this particular,
13 fair and impartial juror, I guess.

14 BY THE COURT: Okay. Anything else on that 15 point?

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Those would be the two things
17 on the questionnaire. We would, of course, stick-- we 18 made earlier arguments on the questionnaire. I'm not 19 trying to remake those, and we don't waive any of 20 those. But those are the ones which we made earlier
21 that we stand by.

22 (Pause while the Clerk hands the Court
23 something that was just filed.)

24 BY THE COURT: Okay.

25 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, first as to the 26 question about racial biases, we have covered that once
27 already before. It was our position then and it is 28 still our position that race has nothing to do with the 29 trial in the criminal courts of this state, and it

1           should not be an attempt to put that in the jurors'
2           minds that it might have any bearing. If the Defense
3           wants to cover that on voir dire, that's their 4           prerogative, but I don't think it's right for the Court
5           to even bring the issue of race up unless it has been 6           brought up by the Defense.

7           As to the question--

8           BY THE COURT: --Let me ask you one question
9           because I don't remember back then. On the several 10          questionnaires that y'all presented, I don't believe
11          that question was presented to me in that form though,
12          was it? Wasn't it different?

13          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Are you asking me, Judge?

14          BY THE COURT: Well, I was asking him. I will 15          ask you in a minute.

16          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, I'm sorry.

17          BY MR. EVANS: I believe it was a little 18          different form.

19          BY THE COURT: Okay, all right. I will let 20          you respond to that. Go ahead.

21          BY MR. EVANS: As to the death penalty, I
22          think that question has never been in a position where 23          the Court said it was improper. That question, I think,
24          is definitely proper for a questionnaire. It brings up
25          a clear point that is easy for the jury to understand,
26          that if they have an opinion that would keep them from 27          even considering the death penalty as a possibility,
28          that they are not proper jurors, and that is an 29          important issue to go over for both the State and the

1 Defense.

2 This gives the Defense-- now he says it doesn't
3 help them. It gives them as much of a benefit as it
4 does us. It gives us an insight as to their feelings on 5 the death penalty, but it also gives the Defense an 6 insight on the ones that they need to attempt to try to 7 rehabilitate. And I have never been in a capital case
8 where some of the ones that said that they didn't 9 believe in the death penalty weren't rehabilitated and 10 sat on the jury. That is going to happen in any case.

11 As for the other questions that they are inferring,
12 I don't think they are proper. I don't think it's 13 improper-- that it is proper to go into trying to scale
14 their beliefs on the death penalty. To start with, if 15 they believe in the death penalty, all that says is they 16 believe in the law.

17 BY THE COURT: He is just offering that as an 18 alternative.

19 BY MR. EVANS: Because that is what the law
20 says is a proper sentence. That doesn't mean they have 21 to give it. As far as voir dire, it is easy for the 22 Court on voir dire to explain to the jury during its 23 death qualifying of the jury, during that part of it,
24 that the jury cannot systemically give the death
25 penalty, that they have to look at certain things. They 26 have to look at does the law in this case justify it; do
27 the facts in this case justify it. If they do, they can 28 consider that as a proper opinion, but I think to get 29 into the fact would you give the death penalty if the

1 case was proven -- well, what is proven? If everything
2 is proven, then they definitely can give the death
3 penalty because they have considered everything.

4 You know, without the Court instructing them and 5 explaining to them what steps they have to go through --
6 now if the Court wants to take the time in this
7 questionnaire, which I think would be misleading-- not 8 misleading, but confusing, I think the only way that we 9 could do it would be if the Court would go step by step
10 in the questionnaire explaining what the steps would 11 be. To start with, that if you find him guilty, then 12 you would look at the evidence in the case, determine if 13 the law justified the death penalty, and if the facts
14 justified it, and if the facts justified it at that 15 point, could you consider it. Or in the alternative, if 16 the facts didn't justify it in this case, would you
17 still give the death penalty? That would be improper,
18 but it is very confusing. That is something that can a
19 lot better be covered by both the Court and both 20 attorneys on voir dire instead of in a single question
21 on a questionnaire.

22 I think the questionnaire as it is on the death
23 penalty helps both sides. It is a question that in just 24 about every case that I have been involved in, it has 25 been agreed to by both sides because both sides wanted
26 the input of the jury on that question. But to go into 27 anything further on voir dire, I think, would cause too
28 much confusion.

29 That is all I have got, Your Honor.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, to your first inquiry,
2 I do not-- we gave you, we gave you a set of questions
3 that we would like to have been added to the 4 questionnaire. In fact, it may have been an alternative
5 questionnaire. At least we had gave you some questions,
6 and it asked the racial question. It did not ask it
7 precisely like that, the way I just proposed it. It
8 didn't ask it that way.

9 But just to bring you back to what I argued before
10 and what I believe to be true, I believe that you did
11 agree to put a question about race on the questionnaire,
12 and I believe that that question was reflected in a
13 questionnaire that the District Attorney prepared after 14 you agreed to do it. In other words, it was not the 15 original, and then it was reflected later. And what I
16 believe happened is that somehow these questionnaires
17 got interchanged, and you sent out the one that had no
18 race question in it. You said that you don't think
19 that's the way it happened, but regardless of how it
20 happened, there was a question that was actually 21 approved about race at least orally by you from the 22 bench. Now it may have been you approved of the 23 subject, and you wanted to see a question. That could 24 have been, but somehow or another we were supposed to 25 have a question about race, and it never got in it.

26 But to answer your question as to whether or not
27 that mirrors the question that we gave you in our sample
28 voir dire, no, it does not. But the question that the 29 way I phrased it, you know, would be; it can be

1           considered as an alternative way to ask it as opposed,
2           an alternative to you having rejected apparently what we
3           had on our first questionnaire, if you did, then I would 4           think that we should ask it that way.

5           Okay, finally, as to this other issue, you know,
6           unfortunately, apparently I didn't-- I mean I think that 7           we need to look at the case law appropriately. This 8           thing in this day and age about reverse Witherspoon is 9           extremely strong and extremely important. If a person
10          automatically believes, and there is a couple of ways
11          you can ask this question. (A), Do you believe that a
12          person convicted of capital murder should automatically
13          get the death penalty? If they say yes to that, they 14          are absolutely unqualified to be a juror.

15                 BY THE COURT: Subject to being 16          rehabilitated.

17                 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Oh, yeah, certainly;
18          certainly. Certainly, yeah; I mean that is always 19          true. But they are as unqualified as a person who says
20          they can't consider the death penalty under any 21          circumstances, and that is really the appropriate way to 22          ask that question. Of course, another way to ask the 23          reverse Witherspoon question would be to say - and we 24          don't have opposition to this - is that Do you believe 25          that a person who is convicted of capital murder should 26          be given the death penalty regardless of any other 27          circumstances? You know what I'm saying? That is 28          another way of saying they should automatically be given
29          the death penalty.

1 But, and so both of those questions are valid
2 questions under the case law, and really to the extent
3 that you can ask one on the questionnaire, there is 4 nothing wrong with you asking the other on the 5 questionnaire. Both of them really involve some other
6 education about the law, but what we are trying to do is 7 just flag any concerns. And what my problem with what
8 the District Attorney wants to do, it will help him flag
9 his targets and not help me flag mine. And what I'm 10 saying here, this whole thing about then I know who 11 needs to be rehabilitated; I'm going to know that anyway
12 once the issue comes up in the voir dire. I'm going to 13 know who I need to try to rehabilitate. If it comes up
14 at all, I have a chance to rehabilitate them. The 15 problem, and if you ask this question in the way that I
16 have suggested it-- I would have a chance to 17 rehabilitate them once it comes up if you don't ask the 18 question at all. If you do ask the question and you ask
19 it kind of like in the way that I have suggested it,
20 either with the alternatives that I put in my second 21 suggestion or if you ask it with the scale that I put in 22 my third suggestion, I still know who I have to 23 rehabilitate. And the thing is it is fair because he 24 knows all the same things I know.

25 The problem with asking it the way that he wants
26 without the other side is that it is of aid to him and 27 no aid to me. Once a person is flagged as having some 28 conscientious objection to the death penalty, that 29 person is gone. That person is dead, gone. If he

1 doesn't get eliminated in the challenges for cause, it
2 is no question that the District Attorney is going to
3 eliminate them in their peremptory challenges. And that 4 is one of the reasons that you are allowed to ask these 5 questions is for peremptory challenge purposes. So for 6 him to say I know who I have got to rehabilitate, fine;
7 I rehabilitate them; you don't challenge them for 8 cause. You don't exclude him for cause, and then he 9 knocks him out or knocks her out.

10 The other problem that we have and I mean I know
11 that the District Attorney claims that I am trying to 12 inject race into the case like this is a country that 13 hasn't lived for centuries with racial problems. And 14 what the Court's obligation is and our obligation as 15 attorney is to try to silence those influences. You
16 don't handle influences by acting like they don't exist
17 and then just let them go ahead and affect the outcome
18 of the case. You handle questions by raising them and 19 dealing with them, and that is essentially what the case
20 law has consistently said.

21 If that wasn't true, then you never would have had 22 challenges under that Alabama case, and I forget the 23 name of it-- Swain versus Alabama which stopped the 24 systematic exclusion of blacks from juries. They never 25 asked about, they never raised race in those cases.
26 They never came in and said, Blacks are no good; I am
27 throwing them all off. They just excluded them. And 28 then the same thing is true in the other case, the 29 individual exclusion of the jury, the Batson case - I

1 think I am saying that wrong - versus Kentucky. The 2 Court knows the case I'm talking about where they
3 exclude jurors.

4 You have to deal with these questions, and any
5 trial lawyer is trained in law school-- well, I don't 6 know about law school. I don't know if they train you
7 to be a trial lawyer in law school, but when you get
8 trained to be a trial lawyer, you get trained to know
9 that the best way to deal with problems which exist is 10 to bring them up and then try to get the jurors in their 11 own conscience to deal with it because if they still 12 exist and they don't deal with it, that's the same
13 reason why you deal with publicity. If you just let 14 people sit out there and be sweltering in their beliefs
15 on publicity and feel that you have handled it because 16 you haven't brought it up, then, in fact, that would be,
17 I think, inappropriate by the standards of the law and 18 every other problem.

19 So what I'm saying here in the final analysis is 20 this. As far as the District Attorney is concerned is 21 that I need the same advantages with this questionnaire
22 that he gets, and if we are not going, either one of us
23 going to get an advantage from it, then fine. I need to 24 be able to flag people who are ardent supporters of the 25 death penalty or who believe that everybody who goes
26 through a court and gets convicted of capital murder
27 should get it. All right.

28 The truth of the matter is, is that my question is 29 really just a little soft on that issue because the

1 truth of the matter is the law says that even if they
2 are convicted of capital murder and even if you can give
3 it, then you still don't have to give it. You know what
4 I'm saying? That's what the law says. You know, you
5 can decide that (a) they are convicted of it; (b) there
6 is sufficient aggravating circumstance to give it to 7 them; and then (c), you can still decide, you still have
8 to go the third step and decide whether I will give it
9 to him in this particular case.

10 So really my question, just to kind of summarize
11 it, it helps and if we use this third one where it says
12 strongly support, support, no opinion on the death
13 penalty, oppose the death penalty, or strong opposition
14 to the death penalty. To me that is kind to everybody.
15 I mean it does what everybody would like to have done.
16 It helps them reflect any concern the juror has and then
17 on the other hand, it gives us a chance to challenge
18 them on voir dire.

19 So those are my two concerns, and I just want the 20 questionnaire to be useful to both of us, and that's the 21 only reason you send one out. I don't think you send it
22 out to actually voir dire the jury. You just want it to 23 be useful to the Court and to both parties.

24 BY THE COURT: Okay, on the question, on the 25 race question, I think that is a different question than 26 was submitted to me before. In its generic form, I
27 think that is proper, and I will do that if y'all will 28 write that out for me in that form that you did.

29 Okay, on the other question, on the death penalty

1 question, you know, the questionnaire is so that y'all
2 can have an idea what these folks' opinions are. It's 3 not, as we all know, it's not a substitution for voir
4 dire and should not be. It is just so you can get an 5 idea who is feeling what so you know where to go. In 6 that regard, I really think that the multiple choice
7 that they use in Hinds County is probably a pretty good
8 way to get that opinion, but I note that everybody is 9 not in agreement with that.

10 So my ruling is this. I will give that if y'all
11 agree to it. If not, I think if it's going to have 12 Witherspoon in it, it has got to have reverse
13 Witherspoon, and I will add that question to it, if we 14 do that.

15 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, as far as the race
16 thing, as I recall, when we had discussed this in Attala
17 County, that you had agreed to formulate a question that 18 not only touched on race, but asked the jurors whether 19 or not they had any biases against any groups at all,
20 and it was not basically--

21 BY THE COURT: --If y'all, y'all put your 22 heads together and come up with a question like that, it
23 will be fine. Y'all are not going to get a yes to 24 either one of those questions, so it doesn't matter.
25 Nobody is going to put that down in writing.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Believe it or not--

27 BY THE COURT: --If they do, we will get rid of 28 them quick, okay.

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: In Los Angeles a few people

1           actually put it down.

2                       BY MR. EVANS: Is what the Court is proposing
3 if we agree, the only question that would be on there
4 about race would be the one where they would scale
5 whether they strongly agreed or--

6                       BY THE COURT: On race?

7                       BY MR. EVANS: On the death penalty.

8                       BY THE COURT: Yeah. The one that they,
9 apparently they use that in Hinds County.

10                      BY MR. EVANS: Have you got that question with
11 you?

12                      BY THE COURT: Mr. Lumumba has got it. You
13 have got it, don't you?

14                      BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, I just read it off.
15 They are supposed to be trying to fax me the actual 16 question. I haven't went back in there, but I just read
17 it off.

18                      BY MR. EVANS: Because I would like to look at 19 the form they actually use if we are going to attempt to 20 agree on something.

21                      BY THE COURT: I really to tell you the truth
22 think it's a better approach to it than what we did
23 because this other is going to get into an attempt to me
24 going through voir dire. But I don't think, since there
25 is a reverse Witherspoon, I think you have got to give 26 both sides of it because he is entitled to know who 27 would automatically impose, inflict it just like the 28 other side was. So anyhow, I will let y'all work on 29 that. If not, I'm going to add that question.

1           Okay. I need those forms, if you will, before we
2           leave here today because I want to get-- in changing
3           this, I will have to change it at home and get it right
4           back to Ms. Parker so she will have it when the summons
5           go out.

6                     BY MR. LUMUMBA: We will sit down with them.

7                     BY THE COURT: Okay.

8                     BY MR. LUMUMBA: We have several motions
9           here. We can, we have hearings on some of them. Maybe 10          one of the things that might be best to take one which 11          does not require a hearing first.

12                    BY THE COURT: All right.

13                    (Mr. Lumumba and Mr. Freelon confer briefly.)

14                    BY MR. LUMUMBA: We submitted a motion today
15          in limine, and that was the other motion the Court has 16          up there.

17                    BY THE COURT: I have got it.

18                    BY MR. LUMUMBA: To exclude hearsay testimony
19          from various witnesses. One of the witnesses is Roxanne 20          Ballard. Now we do have a transcript, but, you know, if 21          the Court is not inclined to grant this motion based 22          upon what is in the transcript, then we would ask for a
23          hearing at a subsequent time which I see no reason why
24          it couldn't actually occur in Winona, closer to the 25          witnesses prior to the trial.

26                    But the testimony of the daughter of the deceased,
27          Ms. Ballard, regarding the procedures at Tardy Furniture
28          store, I read the transcript. She basically testified
29          that she was familiar with the procedures. It was clear

1           that she didn't work there at the time, and I remember
2           from somebody's testimony that she hadn't worked there
3           for quite a while. But in her testimony she doesn't go
4           on to say when the last time she had worked there,
5           right. But now in all fairness, and I'm not absolutely
6           sure of this, but I'm not sure that counsel objected to 7           her testimony. I think they did at some point, but it
8           may have been after she had already testified.

9           But in any event, the problem with the testimony is 10          that it's absolutely, totally hearsay, and without 11          proper authentication that she has appropriate
12          familiarity with the procedures that she was testifying 13          to, and some of it is even hearsay even if she was 14          familiar with the procedures because she gave, she gave 15          questions; she answered questions and gave opinions
16          about things that she thought varied from the 17          procedure. In other words, you know, there was, you 18          know, she testified to the amounts of money that was 19          stated and the way that they listed their money. And in 20          one instances she gave, she said, well, this is supposed
21          to be bills or fives, but then it could have been tens.
22          You know, it could have been tens. You know, in other 23          words, and she may have even said they probably were 24          tens.

25          I think that if I'm not mistaken, the District
26          Attorney was trying to match the money which was 27          allegedly supposed to have been in the store that day
28          with the money that was supposed to have been found
29          somewhere in Defendant's closet; right. So, but and she

1           varied from what she said the form actually was supposed
2           to have said and gave an opinion on the fact that it
3           could have not been fives and ones. It could have been 4           tens. Now she varied one way or other, and I can't
5           remember. It had to do with fives, ones and tens. I
6           know that much.

7           Secondly, the problem I have-- and that is the 8           smaller issue. The bigger issue is that I don't think
9           that somebody can come in there and testify in a
10          critical case like this that somebody who was not
11          working at the store, doesn't know what the woman did
12          that particular day, and hadn't worked there in for a
13          while and say what the Tardy Furniture store procedure
14          was. And even if she can testify on procedure, she 15          can't testify on the money that would have been, that 16          was in the box at the store. Certainly, the money is 17          not the same every day, and certainly, the person that 18          writes out the figures is registering what was there at 19          that time.

20          Plus, we don't know what was deposited in the bank,
21          what was taken home or any of those things. So I think 22          that it's not a level subject to expertise. It's really 23          not a question really which is subject to some 24          recordation of procedures, business procedures. It's 25          not a business, it's not a business exception question.
26          And finally, it is an area where she was not even 27          sufficiently authenticated or qualified to be a person 28          who could even testify to whatever they normally did in 29          that policy.

1           And I would also point out this is a small store,
2           so like most small stores, things vary all the time.
3           It's not like it's in some big monstrosity or big huge 4           mega multi-national where they have bureaucrats which 5           perform the same procedures with regularity endlessly
6           and actually have paperwork. And that's really where 7           the exception comes in where you have got paperwork,
8           which is a business exception paperwork, and they 9           actually admit the paperwork which says, that says what 10          the deal is. It really also is not subject to 11          interpretation. So we would object to that testimony.

12          Secondly, all testimony except the testimony of 13          Doyle Simpson regarding Doyle Simpson's alleged report
14          that his weapon was stolen on July 16th, 1996. Now in 15          the first trial numerous people came in and started
16          talking about Doyle Simpson came in and reported this to 17          them. This is before Doyle Simpson even testified. So 18          nobody was challenging, could have been challenging his 19          statement that it was stolen at least at that point.

20          Now sometimes there is such a thing called a prior 21          consistent statement that can be used to rehabilitate a
22          witness if somebody tries to cross-examine him with a
23          conflicting statement. Like, for instance, if Doyle
24          Simpson comes in and says, "My gun was stolen"; I come
25          up with a statement saying, "Here, Doyle, you told me
26          yesterday that your gun was never stolen." Then you can 27          go back and get a statement that says yes, where he 28          reported his gun stolen which would rehabilitate him
29          from my impeachment. And that is called rehabilitation

1           by prior consistent statement.

2           But you can't just have people come in on total
3           hearsay and buffer Doyle Simpson's statement. That is,
4           all those are self-supporting statements, and I don't 5           think you can do it and they are hearsay. That is the 6           basic problem; they are hearsay. And they are offered
7           for the truth of the matter asserted therein.

8           The truth is they are trying to establish that 9           Doyle Simpson's gun was stolen. That is the issue. Any 10          other issue, unless we raise some question about 11          procedure, then that is not even an issue. The 12          procedure is not an issue unless we question it. So the 13          question is not, we are not raising a question about why
14          the police did what they did or why anybody did what 15          they did at that point in the process anyway. So the 16          question is only relevant to whether or not the gun was 17          stolen in this case.

18          In some cases like where you are trying to suppress 19          evidence, etc., etc., and I won't get into that, but 20          then, you know, you get the exception to the rule. The 21          police officer searched the car based upon Doyle
22          Simpson's statement that the gun was stolen. Well, you
23          have explained why the police officer did what he did.
24          That's an issue because somebody has raised the motion
25          to suppress, claimed that the police officer
26          participated in inappropriate conduct. So therefore, it's 27          not offered to support a statement. It is offered in a
28          very relevant way to support his procedures.

29          Before the jury suppression of evidence is not even

1           an issue. They can't even consider that. Any kind of 2           suppression of evidence has to be determined by this
3           Court. So any issues about suppression of evidence are 4           absolutely irrelevant before that jury unless we open
5           the door in some kind of way, which certainly, I didn't 6           see happening in the first trial, and it probably won't 7           happen in this one. All the hearsay testimony by the 8           witnesses of the prosecution, and then we get a little
9           more specific again down in (4), and we say a statement
10          concerning Bertha Tardy, including but not limited to 11          her alleged statement that she intended to take money
12          out of Defendant's check; also included but not limited
13          to Tardy's last firing of the Defendant.

14                You can't-- I mean I think there is some witnesses
15          who were supposed to have witnessed the Defendant drop 16          some batteries. We don't have any problem with those 17          witnesses coming in and saying they saw the Defendant
18          drop some batteries if that's what they want to say.
19          But they can't come back and say that Bertha Tardy told 20          them that she was going to fire the Defendant and that 21          she didn't like the fact that the Defendant had dropped
22          them. She was going to take money out of the check. In 23          fact, there is a check from the Defendant-- I mean
24          written to the Defendant which actually cleared and is 25          found in the Tardy store which suggests that she 26          actually did give him his check.

27                But irrespective of all that, you know, they cannot 28          use hearsay statements of witnesses to establish these 29          propositions which was done repeatedly, sometimes with

1 objection, sometimes without objection at the last
2 trial. And we would, you know, we just challenge any 3 other inadmissible hearsay, but those are areas which we 4 were able to ascertain in the transcript where we think
5 that hearsay is extremely prejudicial. And even if the 6 Court after hearing everything, tries to strike it, it
7 becomes very difficult to strike the prejudice of that.

8 The only kind of exceptions to Bertha Tardy's
9 testimony that I am aware of - now the Court may be 10 aware of some others under the hearsay rule - if she 11 gave a dying declaration, and I don't think that is an 12 allegation here; if she would have made a statement in 13 some kind of excited utterance or things of that 14 nature. None of those things are presented as the way
15 that these things occurred. I mean, you know, I'm going 16 to take money out of somebody's check because they 17 dropped batteries, and it is going to be so much money.
18 That seems a pretty deliberate statement. That is not
19 an excited utterance, and there was never anything
20 presented to show that she was excited, that she was,
21 you know, in any particular kind of way.

22 So those are the things that we would challenge in 23 our motion to exclude evidence in limine.

24 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, as you are aware,
25 Roxanne Ballard did testify as to certain procedures
26 that went on inside the store, and prior to her
27 testifying about those procedures, she testified about 28 her knowledge as to what went on. And I believe under 29 the routine and habit, routine and habit rule that is

1 in-- I don't have my rule book with me -- she could
2 testify to those things. She had sufficient knowledge
3 as to what went on inside the store. Assuming that we 4 would have to go through all that at trial, we are 5 certainly prepared to do that.

6 All of these particular points that Counsel for the 7 Defendant has brought up I think right now are 8 premature. We would have to lay the predicate to get 9 that statement in from her, her testimony about the 10 bookkeeping, about the records that were regularly kept 11 in the business, about the money that they started out
12 with every day.

13 And there is a case, I believe it's Simon v. State,
14 which touches on this. It states that when you have a
15 situation where-- and in that case there was a house
16 that was broken into; four people killed and the house
17 burned down subsequent to their death. The Supreme 18 Court said that a family member could certainly come in 19 and testify that it was that person's routine practice
20 or their habit to lock their door when they left or when 21 they went to bed. There was no proof that the door was 22 locked because the house was burned down, but they 23 certainly said in that particular case that it was 24 certainly proper for a family member to testify to that 25 if they had sufficient knowledge of that particular
26 person's routine or their habit.

27 But nonetheless, like I said, all this is premature
28 at this particular point as to that and as to Roxanne
29 Ballard's testimony about routine habit and practice of

1           the people at the Tardy Furniture store.

2           As far as the testimony about Doyle Simpson, the
3           Court ruled that that was relevant at some point in time
4           during the trial. We laid a proper predicate to get 5           certain statements in regarding the time frame in which 6           it was reported that the gun was stolen; it became 7           relevant. At that point in time it was an issue in the 8           trial, and again, these motions are premature. There
9           are certain hearsay exceptions that would allow this 10          testimony in. I'm not going to go into that right now,
11          but the Court is certainly aware of that, and the Court
12          allowed it last time.

13          And as to paragraph four of the motion in limine,
14          my only recollection of any statements that were made by 15          Bertha Tardy came from the statements that were taken
16          from the Defendant at the time that he was interrogated
17          by law enforcement officers. Those statements came in.
18          If there was anybody that testified about anything that 19          she said about firing the Defendant or anything like
20          that, I don't recall it. If it's in the transcript, I
21          don't recall, and I have conferred with Mr. Evans.

22          But nonetheless, Your Honor, my point is on all
23          four of these points this is premature. These are 24          things that need to be addressed at trial. That is 25          another trial. We will have to lay the same predicates
26          that were required to get this either an exception to 27          the hearsay or convince the Court that it is not hearsay
28          on all these statements, and at this point in time there 29          is no reason to grant any motion in limine on these

1 particular statements.

2 BY THE COURT: Anything further?

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, I think that that may,
4 in fact, be true if we didn't already have a transcript
5 where these items have already occurred. So I'm saying
6 based upon these transcripts, these things should be 7 excluded at this time, hearsay statements. Now the 8 Court can always allow statements if a proper exception
9 comes up, if we open the door. But there is no
10 exception to Roxanne Ballard's testimony. There is no
11 exception to Doyle Simpson's alleged stealing of the 12 weapon-- I mean on the loss, on losing of the weapon or 13 having one stolen and the hearsay nature of that based 14 upon what we know. And I believe there were other 15 witnesses who made statements about Ms. Tardy and her
16 situation.

17 I do not claim that if the Defendant talked about 18 what she told him, that that is-- well, let me think.
19 That may be because there is a thing called hearsay on 20 top of hearsay. Defendant's statement, his own
21 statement is admissible. I'm not sure whether his 22 statement about what somebody else said is admissible if 23 what somebody else says is itself hearsay.

24 BY THE COURT: Well, I don't know that we got 25 that deep into it last time.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, I'm not-- actually
27 there is a thing called hearsay on hearsay. And I think
28 for somebody else to read the Defendant's statement
29 about what somebody else said, I think is hearsay. Now

1           if you ask the Defendant himself, I think that is
2           hearsay. That is hearsay. The Defendant couldn't get
3           on the stand and testify to what Ms. Tardy said. He
4           couldn't do it. I mean unless there was some exception
5           because if the Defendant got on the stand to testify
6           what Ms. Tardy said, then what she said would clearly be 7           hearsay unless you have got an exception to it.

8                     BY THE COURT: Well, there might be an 9           exception to that. If she came up to him and said, I'm 10          firing you; his present sense impression may have been-- 11          I don't know. We are getting too involved in that. We 12          will get to that down the road.

13                    BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, thank you.

14                    BY MR. HORAN: I have nothing further, Your
15          Honor.

16                    BY THE COURT: I have ruled on-- first, let me
17          say as far as allowing inadmissible hearsay, I'm going 18          to do the best I can not to do that. So I guess to that 19          extent, the Motion would be sustained. But these other 20          matters I have ruled on, and I think those rulings were 21          correct on facts as they were presented to me at that 22          time. So, but this is another trial, and it will have 23          to be presented again, and if they are not presented
24          correctly, then I may make a different ruling. I am
25          willing to do those things outside the presence of the 26          jury at the time of your objection. So I overrule that 27          Motion at this time.

28                    Now have y'all got some evidence and stuff to put 29          on in some of these other motions?

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We have a Motion to Suppress
2 Eye Witness Identification.

3 BY THE COURT: Okay, well, let's break until--
4 how long do you think that is going to take, Mr.
5 Lumumba?

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Counsel tells me it is going
7 to take 30 minutes.

8 BY THE COURT: Okay, why don't we break until 9 1:30, and in that time between 1:00 and 1:30, maybe
10 y'all can get together on your questions on the 11 questionnaire. Maybe you can get that thing faxed to 12 you, and then we will proceed and we will finish up.
13 Court is adjourned until 1:30.

14 (FOLLOWING THE NOON RECESS ON JANUARY 6, 1999,
15 MOTION PROCEEDINGS CONTINUED IN OPEN COURT WITH THE 16 COURT, ALL COUNSEL, AND THE DEFENDANT BEING PRESENT:)

17 BY THE COURT: What did y'all decide about 18 your questionnaire?

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I didn't see them during 20 lunch. We were here, but apparently, they went out to 21 lunch. I just gave them the questions that I suggest.
22 He wanted to see the one actually from Hinds County. I
23 called, my secretary called the Public Defender's Office
24 in Hinds County, and they said they were going to fax
25 it, and apparently it hasn't been faxed yet.

26 BY THE COURT: Okay.

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: She is checking back. So we 28 can proceed with the hearing if you would like.

29 BY THE COURT: We will do that, and then we

1 will get, we will do something on that before we leave
2 today.

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

4 BY THE COURT: I want to be in a position
5 where I can at least mail her the questionnaire by the 6 first of the week.

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. Our first, we are 8 going to proceed on-- our first witness is going to be--

9 BY THE COURT: Which motion is this that you
10 are going to call up? The Motion to Suppress
11 Identification?

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Identification, yes.

13 BY THE COURT: Okay.

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Our witness would be Mr.
15 Collins, Mr. Porky Collins.

16 BY THE COURT: Okay. Do you want to call all
17 the witnesses around that we are going to have on this 18 and let me swear them now? Somebody may want the rule
19 invoked.

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, yeah. The witnesses we 21 intend to call are Mr. Collins and the officers who were 22 present at the time that he made an identification.
23 Matthews, Mr. John Johnson, and one other gentleman.
24 Matthews and Miller.

25 BY THE COURT: Okay. Where are they?

26 (Some witnesses came into the courtroom.)

27 BY THE COURT: I need one more and then we
28 will be ready. (Pause) Let's go ahead and swear y'all,
29 and we will swear Mr. Johnson when the time comes.

1 (Witnesses sworn by the Court.)

2 BY THE COURT: All right. Mr. Collins, if you
3 will have a seat up here. You two gentlemen, I will ask
4 y'all to step outside, and if Mr. Johnson is out there,
5 y'all just tell him to wait, don't come in the
6 courtroom.

7 CHARLES "PORKY" COLLINS,
8 upon being called to testify as a witness by the Defendant on
9 the Motion to Suppress Identification, having first been duly
10 sworn, testified as follows, to-wit:

11 DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

12 Q. I believe they call you Porky Collins; is that
13 correct?

14 A. That's correct.

15 BY THE COURT: That was my fault. First state
16 your name for the record, please, sir.

17 BY THE WITNESS: Charles Collins.

18 BY THE COURT: Okay, now.

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

20 Q. Charles Collins; is that correct?

21 A. Uh-hum.

22 Q. But they call you Porky sometimes?

23 A. That's right.

24 Q. And Mr. Collins, if I'm not mistaken, you appeared
25 as a witness in this case at a trial which occurred some time
26 ago in Tupelo, Mississippi; is that correct?

27 A. That's correct.

28 Q. And you testified at that time concerning an
29 identification that you had made; is that correct? Or you--

1 well, let me strike that. You testified at that time with
2 respect to some observations that you said that you had made;
3 is that correct?

4 A. I don't understand what you are talking about.

5 Q. Did you testify at that time concerning
6 observations that you said you made on July the 16th, 1996,
7 around and about the Tardy grocery-- Tardy Furniture store?

8 A. That's correct.

9 Q. And would it be safe to say, Mr. Collins, that when 10 you testified, you had indicated that you had on that day
11 gone downtown; is that correct?

12 A. That's correct. I had several places to go
13 downtown.

14 Q. Yeah, and in fact, you have indicated that you went 15 downtown to go to the cleaners; is that correct?

16 A. That was one of the places; that is correct.

17 Q. But you never really went to the cleaners; is that
18 correct?

19 A. That's correct. Not at that time, no.

20 Q. In fact, you went downtown several times to go to 21 the cleaners--

22 BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, I object. This 23 motion is strictly on one thing, and that is 24 identification.

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

26 BY THE COURT: Well, I will let him lay a
27 predicate.

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

29 Q. Okay, all right. You testified that you went

1 downtown on at least two different occasions to go to the 2 cleaners; is that correct?

3 A. That's correct.

4 Q. Did you go two or three different times?

5 A. I went three times.

6 Q. Okay, and at no point did you wind up at the 7 cleaners; is that correct?

8 A. No. The third time I couldn't go get to the 9 cleaners.

10 Q. Okay, well, at no point did you get there the two 11 times before the third time; right?

12 A. No, I did not.

13 Q. And would it be safe to say that you also testified
14 that you had gone downtown to go to the bank; is that
15 correct?

16 A. That's correct.

17 Q. And you never got to the bank?

18 A. No, I did not because after this happened, they 19 closed the bank.

20 Q. I see. Okay, now and I think that you testified on 21 this day in question that at some point you went downtown,
22 and you saw a Miss, a lady who you knew that worked at 23 Tardy's; is that correct?

24 A. Carmen Rigby; that's right.

25 Q. Okay, and I think that you at some point followed
26 her from the post office to an area where you saw her going
27 into Tardy's; is that correct?

28 A. I followed her from the post office. We got into a 29 conversation in the post office. We followed, we walked out

TRIAL COURT # : 97-372

1 talking to her car. She got in her car, and I pulled out
2 behind her going to-- she was going down Summit Street, and
3 she went to Tardy's. Yes, I was right behind her, and she 4 waved at me as she went through the door.

5 Q. Okay, you saw her at the post office at eight-- you
6 said around about 9 o'clock, did you?

7 A. There was a postal money order that I got at the 8 post office. They have got the correct time on it, and 9 that's when I saw her.

10 Q. Okay, was that--

11 A. --It was around 9 o'clock though.

12 Q. Okay. And did you also indicate or do you indicate
13 now that you actually saw her going into Tardy's around about 14 9:15?

15 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, again I object.
16 This is not a preliminary hearing or a discovery
17 hearing. This is a motion on identification only.
18 He is attempting to go through his entire 19 testimony, and that is improper on this motion.

20 BY THE COURT: Well, it may be, but I need my 21 memory refreshed as to what went on so I can get 22 the context of what we are talking about. So I'm 23 going to allow him to testify to it as long as you
24 don't drag it out, Mr. Lumumba.

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, I am getting right to it.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

27 Q. About 9:15, I think, is when you said you saw her
28 proceed into--

29 A. --I didn't say what time it was. I said it was

1 ever how long it took me and her to go from the post office
2 to the car and talk about two or three or four minutes, and 3 then ever how long it took her to go down there; that's when 4 I seen her go in. I never did give a time.

5 Q. Well, in any event once you saw her go in, I think
6 that you indicated that at that time you went back; you left
7 downtown. Is that correct?

8 A. That's right. I went to the cleaners, and there
9 was a lot of cars parked around the cleaners, and I can't 10 walk very far. I am handicapped. And what I had to get from 11 the cleaners was of no pressure. I mean I could have gotten 12 it any time. My wife just told me, she give me one of these 13 "honey do" lists of what to do that day, and that's what I
14 was doing.

15 Q. I see. But you didn't get into the cleaners?

16 A. Not at that time, I did not.

17 Q. I see. And in fact, you intended to go to the 18 cleaners, but you didn't because it was too many cars?

19 A. That's right.

20 Q. Okay. So you went back home?

21 A. I started back home, yes.

22 Q. All right, and--

23 A. I didn't go back home at that time.

24 Q. All right, and where did you go?

25 A. I went and paid my gas bill.

26 Q. Okay, then did you go home?

27 A. No, I did not. I was on my way home, and I got a 28 phone call. My wife called me on the car phone. I had 29 brought my other car down to a mechanic to have some plugs

1 and plug wires put on it. And I had picked up the wrong
2 plugs, and my wife called me and told me I had got the wrong
3 plugs. So I rode three or four miles south of Winona to Don 4 Mitchell's repair shop, picked up those plugs, and went to 5 Wal-Mart and swapped them and brought them back to Don
6 Mitchell's repair shop. Then I went home.

7 Q. Okay, let me just see. You got a call indicating 8 that Don Mitchell said he had the wrong plugs?

9 A. That's right.

10 Q. So you went all the way to Don Mitchell's; right?

11 A. That's right.

12 Q. And got the plugs he had?

13 A. Uh-hum.

14 Q. Then you went all the way back to the--

15 A. To Wal-Mart.

16 Q. --to Wal-Mart and swapped the plugs, or you got the 17 plugs you needed?

18 A. Got the right plugs; that's right.

19 Q. And then you went all the way back to Don 20 Mitchell's?

21 A. That's right. And they have got a copy of the 22 receipt from Wal-Mart. It'll tell you what time that was.

23 Q. Okay. And then after you went to Don Mitchell's
24 for the second time-- well, actually that was the third time
25 you had been to Don Mitchell's that day; right?

26 A. No, the second time.

27 Q. Hadn't you gone earlier that day to drop off your 28 car?

29 A. That's right. Went earlier that day-- well, the

1 third time; that's right. I went and picked them up; that's 2 right, the third time, yeah.

3 Q. Okay, and then after that, you went back to your 4 home?

5 A. That's right.

6 Q. Okay. Then at your home then you left again going
7 back to get the clothes; is that correct?

8 A. That's exactly right. I had left the money at home
9 for the clothes. The clothes was for my son, and he had left 10 the money there.

11 Q. Okay, you left--

12 A. --And I went back by there and got the money for 13 the clothes, and I went back to the cleaners, yes, sir.

14 Q. Okay. Well, so you had also forgotten the money
15 for the cleaners when you went downtown the first time;
16 right?

17 A. That's right. My wife told me-- it was laying on 18 the cabinet inside the house. I was at my wife's shop when 19 she give me the rest of the stuff, and she said go in there
20 and pick that stuff up. And I walked out of her shop, and I
21 was talking to a man outside the shop, and I forgot to get 22 the money.

23 Q. Okay, I see. So now, so without going into great
24 detail, it would be safe to say you really forgot to do, you
25 forgot quite a few things that day; is that correct?

26 A. I don't hardly think so.

27 Q. Okay. Well, you forgot to go to the cleaners. You
28 forgot to get the money for the cleaners?

29 A. Uh-huh.

1 Q. Isn't that right?

2 A. I forgot to get the money for the cleaners, but
3 that is nothing unusual. I imagine everybody does that.

4 Q. I see. Weren't you having some problems with your 5 memory because of some medication that you were on?

6 A. I take a lot of medication.

7 Q. Were you taking medication at that time?

8 A. I was taking medication at that time. I am taking 9 medication today.

10 Q. Okay, and medication affects your memory?

11 A. Well, I couldn't hardly say. I don't know how you 12 could-- a lot of times-- no, I wouldn't say it affects my 13 memory.

14 Q. Okay. One second here.

15 A. At the particular time I am taking that medicine at 16 times, but I hadn't just taken that medicine.

17 Q. Well, you testified at this point that you were 18 taking the medication at the time; isn't that correct?

19 A. I take the medication every day.

20 Q. One second. (Pause) Okay, we will come back to 21 the medication issue, and I will ask counsel to remind me to 22 come back to it. Okay, now it would be safe to say, Mr.
23 Collins, when you came back downtown the second time, this is 24 after you had gone to the Don Richards--

25 A. Don Mitchell.

26 Q. Don Mitchell, I'm sorry, on three different
27 occasions. This is after that; right. And this is after you
28 had come from Wal-Mart.

29 A. Uh-hum.

1 Q. And you went to Don Mitchell's once-- well,
2 actually twice before you went to Wal-Mart's and once after
3 you went to Wal-Mart?

4 A. That's correct.

5 Q. Right, okay. And you had gone by your house to get 6 the money that you had forgotten?

7 A. That's correct.

8 Q. You went back downtown, and at the time you got 9 back downtown, what street did you turn on?

10 A. Went down Summit Street and turned south on Main 11 Street.

12 Q. Is Summit Street the street that the bank is on?

13 A. That's right.

14 Q. Did you go to the bank at that time?

15 A. No, I did not because when I came to town, I came 16 up Church Street and turned down Summit Street.

17 Q. Okay. Did you stop anywhere else before you got in 18 the area of Tardy Grocery store-- Tardy Furniture store?

19 A. No, I did not.

20 Q. Okay, and when you came into the area of Tardy
21 Furniture store, you were just going down the street there,
22 and I think that you have indicated before that you saw a
23 couple of people; is that correct?

24 A. That's right, correct.

25 Q. Okay, now you have been down that street many 26 times; isn't that correct?

27 A. Well, I have lived there all my life; yeah.

28 Q. Okay, these people that you saw, you didn't see any 29 guns; right?

1           A.    Why no.

2           Q.    Okay, you didn't see anybody hitting anybody or any
3 physical, anybody physically--

4                   BY MR. EVANS:  --Your Honor, again I'm going
5 to object.  This hearing, this motion that we have 6 been noticed for is on one issue, and that is his
7 identification in the lineup of this Defendant.
8 That is the only thing he has filed a motion on,
9 and we are going through his entire testimony which 10 is ridiculous.

11                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  Judge--

12                   BY THE COURT:  Of course, part of his 13 identification is what it was, is what was the 14 basis he used to identify the person.  I think it
15 is highly relevant.  I'm going to allow him to go
16 into it.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

18           Q.    Okay, you didn't see anybody pointing a gun at 19 anybody or anything like that?

20           A.    No, I did not.

21           Q.    You didn't see anybody hit anybody or anything like
22 that?

23           A.    No, I did not.  I never would have noticed them if 24 it hadn't have been for the motions they was making, that one
25 of them was making with his hands.  I would have never 26 noticed them.

27           Q.    Okay, so a person was making motions with his 28 hands?

29           A.    Yeah, looked like they were arguing.

1           Q.    And that was the only-- but you don't know that
2 they were arguing, do you?

3           A.    No, I do not. I just told you the only thing that 4 made me notice them was the motion of their hands.

5           Q.    Okay, now what--

6           A.    --one of them's hands. It wasn't but one of them
7 doing it.

8           Q.    Only one person was doing it?

9           A.    That's right.

10          Q.    And it would be safe to say you have seen people 11 move their hands in various different ways at various 12 different times; right?

13          A.    Not just like this, no.

14          Q.    Well, it was the first time you ever saw anybody
15 move their hands--

16          A.    --No, that is not what I said. Not like this. It
17 looked like they were arguing to me.

18          Q.    Okay, but you have actually seen people argue many 19 times?

20          A.    Oh, sure, I have, yeah.

21          Q.    Okay.

22          A.    That's the reason I said that.

23          Q.    Okay, but that was not-- I mean that drew your 24 attention?

25          A.    That's right. That's what drew my attention to 26 them. I probably never would have seen them if it hadn't 27 been for that.

28          Q.    I understand, but that wasn't like, seeing somebody 29 argue wasn't like an exciting event for you or anything like

1 that, was it?

2 A. No, but that's what made me notice them.

3 Q. I understand that, and I'm not taking that away
4 from you. But that's what drew your attention?

5 A. That's right.

6 Q. Okay, and you notice people on the street for 7 various different reasons; right?

8 A. Yeah, and that's why I may have seen a whole bunch
9 of people that day I never noticed because, you know.

10 Q. I understand. But my only question at this point
11 so I can go to the next question is that seeing somebody who 12 you thought may have been arguing was not an exciting event
13 for you?

14 A. No, it just made me notice them.

15 Q. Okay. And actually all you did was glimpse in that 16 direction; is that correct?

17 A. That's correct.

18 Q. And you only got a glimpse of one man; is that
19 correct?

20 A. That's correct.

21 Q. The other person, you didn't even see his face?

22 A. No, I did not.

23 Q. Okay. And it would be safe to say that you only
24 got a glimpse on one occasion. That was as you were passing
25 them going south; is that correct?

26 A. That's correct.

27 Q. You then turned around and went north, and you
28 didn't see that person's face at all?

29 A. No, I did not.

1 Q. Okay, and it would be safe to say, would it not,
2 that at least as far-- and you had no reason to believe that
3 that person that you got that glimpse of was somebody that 4 was doing anything wrong? You had no reason to believe that?

5 A. No, I did not.

6 Q. Okay, you had no reason to believe-- in fact, you
7 don't know; you never did see that person do anything wrong;
8 isn't that correct?

9 A. No, I did not.

10 Q. And you had never seen in your life before that 11 person that you got this brief glimpse at; isn't that
12 correct?

13 A. Not that I know of. As far as I know, I had not.

14 Q. Okay. And it would be safe to say, would it not,
15 that on your way back coming south-- I mean going north; you
16 were going north as you were coming; right?

17 A. That's correct.

18 Q. So that was about the second time you were going to 19 that cleaners; right?

20 A. That's correct.

21 Q. You didn't go in that time either?

22 A. No. The reason I didn't, I made the circle because 23 I was going to look and see what was going on.

24 Q. I see. So you made the circle, and then you just 25 saw two people walking away from the car; right?

26 A. That's right.

27 Q. Doing nothing; nothing eventful?

28 A. That's right.

29 Q. Nothing fantastic?

1 A. They was headed across the street.

2 Q. Right, and walking actually toward the side of the 3 street where Tardy's was; right?

4 A. That's correct.

5 Q. But actually walking away from Tardy's; right?

6 A. That's correct.

7 Q. And also walking away from the car; is that
8 correct?

9 A. That's correct.

10 Q. So that wasn't exciting to you, was it?

11 A. No.

12 Q. Okay so nothing-- you really, you didn't see any 13 faces; right?

14 A. That's correct.

15 Q. So nothing fantastic about that?

16 A. I seen one. I just got a glimpse of one man's 17 face; that's all.

18 Q. I mean you got that the first time?

19 A. That's the first time.

20 Q. You didn't get that the second time?

21 A. No, I did not.

22 Q. So the second time you didn't get anything that 23 excited you in any kind of way?

24 A. No, I did not.

25 Q. Nothing that even drew your attention really the 26 second time; right?

27 A. That's correct.

28 Q. Okay. And so once you did that, did you remember
29 to go back to the cleaners?

1           A.    I didn't go back to the cleaners then.

2           Q.    All right, sir.  Okay, now let me ask you this.
3   You at some point, and that's the only thing that you saw
4   that day concerning the two people that you have shared with 5   us here today; is that correct?

6           A.    That's correct.

7           Q.    And it would be safe to say that you never saw in 8   person-- well, let me ask you this.  At some point you talked
9   to the police; is that correct?

10          A.    It was after all this happened, yeah.

11          Q.    Yeah, and it would be safe to say this was-- you 12   gave the police a description of the two black men; is that
13   correct?

14          A.    Yes, I did.

15          Q.    Okay.  And the only thing you were able to tell
16   them-- you told them all you could tell them; isn't that
17   correct?

18          A.    That's right.

19          Q.    You didn't leave anything out?

20          A.    I wouldn't hardly think so.

21          Q.    Okay.  And the only thing you were able to tell
22   them about these two black men is that they were two black
23   men with medium complexion; isn't that correct?

24          A.    I don't think I ever said that.  I told them they 25   had the complexion of Johnny Hargrove's because he was 26   sitting there.  I don't think I ever said anything about 27   medium complexion, but that may be where that come from.

28          Q.    Oh, I see.  So you pointed to Mr. Hargrove; is that
29   right?

1           A.    That's right.

2           Q.    And you say, and Mr. Hargrove is the police chief?

3           A.    That's right.

4           Q.    He is a black man?

5           A.    That's right.

6           Q.    And so you don't remember saying two black men,
7 medium complexion?

8           A.    I don't remember saying that. I told them he had 9 the complexion of Mr. Hargrove sitting there.

10          Q.    Let me ask you this. Are you denying that you said
11 that, or you just don't remember, and I'm not trying to put 12 words in your mouth. Are you denying that you actually said 13 medium complexion, or are you saying you didn't, or you just 14 don't remember?

15          A.    I don't think I said it.

16          Q.    Okay. You don't think you said it. I'm not trying 17 to get picky with you, but we need to know for the record.
18 You don't think you said it, but could you have said it? I
19 guess that's my question.

20          A.    I guess I could have, but I said he had a
21 complexion like Mr. Hargrove's. I think that's all I said,
22 but I mean I could have said it.

23          Q.    Okay, is Mr. Hargrove to you a black man of medium
24 complexion?

25          A.    That's right.

26          Q.    Okay, now one second.

27                   (Pause while Defense Counsel confer.)

28          Q.    Okay, but in any event you remember saying that 29 there were two black men of medium complexion. You remember

1 two black men who had a complexion like Mr. Hargrove. That's 2 what you remember saying; right?

3 A. That's correct. Well, I said he looked like Mr.
4 Hargrove. Yeah, that's correct.

5 Q. Well, now let me ask you this. You didn't see
6 either one of these people that you got the glimpse at again
7 that day as far as you know; right?

8 A. As far as I know I didn't.

9 Q. You didn't see-- the police didn't show you any 10 pictures of anybody that day, did you?

11 A. No, they did not.

12 Q. And in fact, the police didn't show you any 13 pictures until sometime about August the 24th of 1996; is
14 that correct?

15 A. I don't know what date it was.

16 Q. You know it was over a month later?

17 A. I couldn't tell you that. It was some time had 18 passed. I couldn't tell you how long it had been.

19 Q. Okay, you don't know but you know a lot of time
20 had--

21 A. Some time had passed, yeah.

22 Q. Okay, all right. You wouldn't-- now just listen to 23 the question carefully. If I was to say that it was on 24 August the 24th or somebody else was to testify to that, you
25 wouldn't take issue with that? You wouldn't deny that, would
26 you?

27 A. No, because it was several, it was a time lapse
28 there. I couldn't say it was or it wasn't.

29 Q. Okay, I understand. I'm not trying to nail you

1 down, but I just wanted to make sure that that is something
2 that you didn't disagree with, and you wouldn't disagree.
3 You just wouldn't know for sure?

4 A. That's right.

5 Q. Okay. Now would it also be true that when you saw
6 these pictures, you had not seen as far as you know this 7 person -- I am focusing now on this person that you got this 8 glimpse at; right?

9 A. Right, okay.

10 Q. A person you had never seen before in your life;
11 right?

12 A. Uh-huh.

13 Q. A person you had only seen when you were moving
14 down the street driving; right?

15 A. Okay.

16 Q. A person you couldn't see his face when you came 17 back; right?

18 A. Right.

19 Q. You never saw that person when you got this brief
20 glimpse at again prior to the time that you saw the pictures
21 as far as you know; is that correct?

22 A. As far as I know.

23 Q. And so when you looked at those pictures, your 24 identification, you were looking, you were basing, when you
25 looked at the pictures, on nothing but this brief glimpse
26 that you got at this person for the first time in your life
27 as far as you know?

28 A. That's correct.

29 Q. Okay. Now would it be safe to say also--

1 (Pause while Mr. Lumumba confers with Mr.
2 Evans.)

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Could I see that?

4 BY MR. EVANS: I don't know that I want this
5 one introduced into evidence today.

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, my problem here is we 7 never got a copy of the actual pictures. We just 8 got a xeroxed copy. They have a much better copy
9 than I have. They are concerned about their copy
10 being introduced into evidence. I'm not concerned
11 about marking it up or whatever. I just want to 12 use it, and if they want to introduce this in 13 evidence and let me use that to show you and the 14 witness, I have no problem.

15 BY THE COURT: Let me see what you have got.

16 BY MR. EVANS: I have no problem with doing
17 that, Your Honor, but this is his motion. He 18 should have had the Supreme Court petitioned for 19 the original. This is a copy which I do not want
20 marked up because it's the only copy we have got.
21 And if we don't get the one back from the Supreme 22 Court, that's the one we will have to use in the 23 trial.

24 BY THE COURT: How about this? You will agree
25 that that copy he has got is a copy of this?

26 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

27 BY THE COURT: Okay. I'm going to let him
28 look at this and testify from this, but if you want
29 to introduce anything, it'll have to be that copy.

1 Well, I'm going to allow this or something like
2 this to go to the Supreme Court if that becomes
3 necessary. The original will have to go. At this 4 point in time I don't want it marked up as far as 5 evidence goes. We will put this in for that 6 purpose. My ruling is that if it is necessary that
7 this record go to the Supreme Court, that this go
8 or the original to this go.

9 BY MR. EVANS: We can stipulate that the copy
10 that he has got is a true and correct copy of it
11 and introduce that one as far as the Motion as far
12 as I am concerned and use this one just for 13 demonstration purposes.

14 BY THE COURT: Right, but I think if it goes,
15 I think the originals are better evidence for what
16 this is about than the copies are. So if it goes--
17 I have looked at the original. He is going to look
18 at the originals. If it goes to the Supreme Court,
19 they need to look at the originals rather than a
20 copy. So my ruling is I will grant your objection
21 to this point, but if it comes down to it-- unless 22 they already have this.

23 BY MR. EVANS: They have got the original.

24 BY THE COURT: Okay, well, if they--

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Who?

26 BY THE COURT: The Supreme Court.

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

28 BY THE COURT: If they have got the originals,
29 then we won't have to even do that. But for the

1                   purposes of this hearing, I want to use it where he
2                   can see. Let the record reflect that Mr. Lumumba
3                   is going to show the witness the original lineup
4                   pictures. There are six of them; is that correct?

5                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: That's correct.

6                   BY THE COURT: Okay, they will not be, this 7                   particular document will not be marked into
8                   evidence. There will be a true and correct copy 9                   entered into evidence for the purpose of this 10                  hearing. If necessary, the originals will go to 11                  the Supreme Court.

12                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can we have another copy?

13                  BY MR. EVANS: You have got it. How many do
14                  you want?

15                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: He was shown two photographic 16                  displays that day and picked people out of both of 17                  them. I would like to be able to show him both if 18                  I can.

19                  BY MR. EVANS: Petition the Supreme Court and 20                  get it. That's the one I have got here.

21                  BY THE COURT: Wait a minute; wait a minute.

22                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: You don't have the other
23                  copy?

24                  BY MR. EVANS: No, I don't. It's in the 25                  Supreme Court.

26                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Isn't that it?

27                  BY MR. EVANS: No, that's the same thing you
28                  are holding in your hand.

29                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, I'm sorry. Okay.

1 Thank you. That was all that question.

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

3 Q. Now you recall, don't you, Mr. Collins, that you
4 showed, you were shown two different sets of photos; is that
5 correct?

6 A. I was shown some photos. I think it was two sets.
7 It may have been; I don't know.

8 Q. And it would be safe to say that when you were 9 shown the first set of photos, you pointed to one or two 10 different persons in that array; isn't that correct?

11 A. I remember saying one of them looked like him. I
12 don't remember pointing to two. I remember saying one of 13 them may have, looked like him.

14 Q. What you remember is that the first set of photos
15 that you looked at you said that one of the people looked 16 like the person; is that correct?

17 A. I don't remember exactly what I said. I am trying 18 to remember exactly what I said.

19 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, if he is going to 20 ask him questions about different documents, I
21 would like for him to be shown these documents and 22 asked about specific documents.

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, let me say this.
24 First of all, the documents that we have are 25 documents where the police officers took notes in 26 their own hands. There is no reason why he should 27 need those to testify as to what he remembers.

28 BY MR. EVANS: He specifically--

29 BY THE COURT: --Wait a minute; wait a minute,

1 Mr. Evans. One at a time.

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: That is my comment.

3 BY THE COURT: Okay, Mr. Evans--

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: So there is no reason why he
5 should need the police officers' documents. I want
6 to see what he said, not what the police officers
7 say he said.

8 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, he is making
9 reference with this witness to two different
10 lineups. He is attempting to confuse him. If he 11 wants to ask him about each lineup, I ask that he 12 show him the lineups and ask him specific questions
13 about each lineup so that he knows which one he is 14 talking about.

15 BY THE COURT: The objection is overruled.

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

18 Q. Now, Mr. Collins, you realize that you were shown
19 two different lineups. Now I want you to do the best you
20 can. Now if you can't remember something, just tell me. I
21 don't have any problem with that; you understand? Okay?

22 A. Yeah, I understand what you are talking about.

23 Q. And okay, now the first lineup, I want you to focus
24 on the first one you were shown. Now by the way, were you
25 ever shown color photos, or were all the photos you saw black
26 and white?

27 A. Some of them were black and white, and the best I
28 can remember some of them... (Pause) They were, some of them
29 were colored, I think.

1 Q. All right, so some of them were black and white?

2 A. Uh-hum.

3 Q. Now the, were-- in the first lineup, first group of 4 pictures you saw, how many was it? About 6, if you can--

5 A. --I would say so. I don't remember exactly how 6 many was in there.

7 Q. Okay. Were all the pictures shown at that time
8 black and white, or were some of those in colors, or do you
9 remember?

10 A. If I'm not mistaken, I believe they were all black 11 and white; I'm not sure. I believe they were all black and 12 white.

13 Q. When you pointed to somebody and said something
14 about them-- strike that for a moment. Let me just ask you a
15 few questions about what you were told when you appeared
16 there. First of all, actually between the time that you
17 talked to the police on July the 16th when the, and the time
18 that you were pointing to different photos, you actually
19 talked to the police on several different days before you saw
20 any photos; isn't that correct?

21 A. Well, I talked to several different-- I talked to 22 the Sheriff's Department. I talked to the Police Department,
23 and I talked to the District Attorney's Office, yes.

24 Q. Okay, and you talked to the District Attorney's 25 Office on several different times before you actually were 26 shown any photos; isn't that correct?

27 A. I talked to them a couple of times. I don't 28 remember just how many times it was.

29 Q. A couple of times, okay. And then after a while,

1 not immediately, but after a while, you did get shown some 2 photos after some time as you have described it. Isn't that
3 correct?

4 A. Uh-hum. That's correct.

5 Q. And you believe that the first set you saw, if I'm 6 not mistaken, I think you just told me that they were all
7 black and white; isn't that correct?

8 A. I think so.

9 Q. And in any event, did you, when pointing to a
10 person in the first photo, did you indicate that a hairline
11 like this may have appeared, a little darker, but it looks 12 like him. Did you indicate that?

13 A. I may have said something similar to that. I may 14 have.

15 Q. Okay, and I think you indicated that the face was 16 shaped the same way; right?

17 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, again I object.
18 This particular lineup that he is referring to had 19 nothing to do with this Defendant. It was the 20 other person that he had looked at out there that 21 day, and again, it has nothing to do with this 22 motion that we are here on.

23 BY THE COURT: Well, I am here and I'm going--

24 BY MR. EVANS: --We were not noticed of that.
25 If he wanted to attack them, he at least should 26 have noticed us so that we would have known what he 27 was going to raise today.

28 BY THE COURT: Well, you should have
29 anticipated he was going to raise this. I'm going

1                   to hear this. Go ahead.

2                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

3           Q.     Just to reflect to make sure I am right, you only
4 saw the face of one person out there; isn't that right?

5           A.     That's correct.

6           Q.     I see. And you had told the police that; right?

7           A.     That's correct.

8           Q.     Now the-- you indicated in this first lineup that 9 the face was the same shape; isn't that correct?

10          A.     I think so and I think I also told them, I think he 11 has got more of a receding hairline. I believe that's what I
12 told them.

13          Q.     Okay. And of course, and then when you-- you
14 looked at the second lineup. You pointed to a person again;
15 right? You pointed to another person?

16          A.     (No immediate response.)

17          Q.     Well, let me ask you this. Did you point to one of 18 the pictures in the second lineup? Or first of all, I guess
19 I should ask you, you saw a second lineup; is that correct?

20          A.     That's correct.

21          Q.     Was it color or black and white?

22          A.     It may have been colored. I don't know. I don't 23 remember that part of it. I saw the pictures. That's all I
24 can remember.

25          Q.     Okay. And when you saw the second lineup, did you
26 point to a person in that lineup?

27          A.     I did.

28          Q.     Okay. And would it be safe to say that at no time 29 did you ever say that you were positive that that was the

1 person that you had seen on that day for the first time in
2 your life on July the 16th of 1996?

3 A. I told them, I said, "I think that's him. I
4 believe that's him." I said, "I am sure that's him." That's 5 the words I said.

6 Q. So you said you were sure that was him?

7 A. I said, "I'm sure that's him."

8 Q. Okay. Now this is a person that you had seen for 9 one time in your life; right?

10 A. That's correct. As far as I know.

11 Q. And based upon that one glimpse -- you glimpsed at 12 him once; right?

13 A. That's correct.

14 Q. You now are telling us that you told them that you
15 were sure that was him; is that right? Is that what you want
16 to tell us now?

17 A. I may not have told them that right at first there,
18 but after I looked at it, you know, for a little bit, I said,
19 "I believe that's him. I think that's him." I know I said
20 that the first time.

21 Q. Okay. You first said, "I believe that's him"?

22 A. I said, "I think that's him. I believe that's 23 him."

24 Q. Okay, you said you think that's him?

25 A. Uh-hum.

26 Q. Okay, then you think you said you believe that's
27 him?

28 A. That's right.

29 Q. Then you think you said you were sure that was him;

1 right?

2 A. That's correct.

3 Q. Now as you were looking at him, it would be safe to 4 say-- well, let me ask you first of all; I'm going to present
5 to you what is marked as Exhibit 1, and I will get the copy
6 marked as Exhibit 1.

7 BY THE COURT: Well, let's do that so we can
8 keep it in order. Let's mark the copy now.

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, that's what I am doing
10 right now. In fact, I am going to mark both of 11 those, both copies. I'm not going to mark--

12 BY THE COURT: I understand that.

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I'm going to mark both
14 copies.

15 BY THE COURT: Of the two different lineups?

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah.

17 BY THE COURT: Okay, go ahead and let her mark
18 those. Any objection to that?

19 BY MR. EVANS: No, sir, Your Honor.

20 BY THE COURT REPORTER: Is this for 21 identification or in evidence?

22 BY THE COURT: You can mark-- do you want them
23 admitted as exhibits?

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes. I would only ask that 25 before you take them, let me run copies of the 26 copies, so I will have something still.

27 BY THE COURT: Well, you can do that before
28 you leave today.

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, but I do, I wanted them

1 admitted.

2 BY THE COURT: Okay. Another thing is 3 apparently you don't have the original of that, of 4 the other lineup.

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No.

6 BY THE COURT: So when you are referring to 7 that lineup, make sure you refer to the exhibit
8 number so it will be in the record as to where you
9 are.

10 (COPIES OF PHOTO LINEUPS WERE MARKED AND
11 RECEIVED IN EVIDENCE AS DEFENDANT'S EXHIBITS D-1 12 AND D-2 TO THE MOTION TO SUPPRESS IDENTIFICATION.)

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

14 Q. First of all, I'm going showing you those copies.
15 Do you recognize either one of those sheets as a lineup that 16 you were shown that day? If you do, let me know.

17 A. To tell you the truth, I can't tell nothing about 18 neither one of these.

19 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I thought the whole
20 purpose of him getting the original, copy of the 21 original from me was so that we could use it.

22 BY THE COURT: Now I think we can.

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, I think we can.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

25 Q. And the only other thing I want to ask you is that 26 prior to coming here today, how did you become informed that 27 you were going to be asked to come here for this hearing?

28 A. I got this thing right here from you day before
29 yesterday afternoon about 7 o'clock.

1           Q.    Okay.  Since you have been here or any time that 2           time, have you had a chance to look at any photos that are in 3           the possession of either the police, sheriff, state troopers,
4           or the District Attorney?

5           A.    They haven't showed me anything today here.

6           Q.    Okay, have they showed you any time before you came 7           here today?  Let me say, let's -- you were shown this some 8           time after July 16th; is that correct?  You were shown
9           photos?

10          A.    Yeah, I was shown some, yeah.

11          Q.    Have you been shown, have you looked at any photos
12          any time since that time that were in the possession of any 13          of these people I just named?  The police, prosecutor, 14          anybody, anybody like that?

15          A.    Not that I remember.

16          Q.    Have they ever talked to you about what you would 17          be asked here today?

18          A.    Not that I remember.

19          Q.    Oh.

20          A.    Because I didn't even know what I was being 21          summonsed down here for.

22          Q.    I see.  Have you talked to either the District
23          Attorney or anybody from the police department or anybody
24          from the DA's office?

25          A.    I have here today.

26          Q.    Okay, and when was that?

27          A.    Today.

28          Q.    When today?

29          A.    All during the day.  From the time I got here this

1 morning when I saw them up until the time when I walked back
2 in here.

3 Q. And prior to today, when is the last time you
4 talked to them?

5 A. I couldn't tell you that.

6 Q. When is the last time you have been at the DA's
7 office?

8 A. Last time I have been in the DA's office? I don't 9 think I have ever been there but one time. That has been 10 about a year or two ago.

11 Q. When is the last time the DA or anybody from his 12 office has been to your store?

13 A. I don't have a store. That is my son's store.

14 Q. When is the last time that they have come to visit
15 you at the store or in the house--

16 A. --I don't know if the DA has ever been to my son's
17 store. Now if he has ever been there, I don't know. Now
18 John has been there, but he lives-- he comes by there every 19 once in a while. But as far as discussing this, I mean, you
20 know. Now they may come in there when I'm not there because 21 I just go up there every once in a while. Like I said, the 22 store belongs to my son.

23 Q. John has never come by to discuss the photos with
24 you?

25 A. Not that I know of.

26 Q. He has never had a discussion with you since that 27 day that you identified these?

28 A. I was shown those photographs right there - I don't 29 know if they was those photographs - at Tupelo.

1 Q. Okay.

2 A. And they asked me to tell the truth, and I couldn't
3 have swore that them was the particular pictures that I
4 looked at. And I said I couldn't tell them that, and I think
5 I was shown the pictures after then and told that that-- said
6 this-- and would-- and said, you know, that that was them.
7 But now I couldn't swear that them right there is the 8 pictures I seen because them pictures could have been 9 changed. They may be copies; I don't know.

10 Q. I understand. Who told you that these were the 11 pictures you were shown after you testified?

12 A. I don't remember that.

13 Q. Was that at the Tupelo trial or afterwards?

14 A. You know, I really don't know. I really don't. I
15 really can't tell you that. I really don't know.

16 Q. Okay. Now I am showing you what is Exhibit number 17 2 and ask you if those are, in fact, the pictures you were 18 shown?

19 A. They are.

20 Q. Pardon?

21 A. They are.

22 Q. Okay. Now but when you were shown those at the 23 Tupelo trial--

24 BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, I object because 25 he was not shown that group at the Tupelo trial, so
26 that is improper.

27 BY THE COURT: Maybe you ought to ask him that
28 question.

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay; yes, sir.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

2 Q. Were you shown some pictures at the Tupelo trial?

3 A. That's correct.

4 Q. Were these the pictures you were shown?

5 A. I do not know whether these are the pictures I was 6 shown or not.

7 Q. I see. And, but the pictures you were shown at the 8 Tupelo trial you have indicated that you had never seen those 9 before; is that right?

10 A. No. They asked me if that was the pictures I was 11 shown. I told them I couldn't tell you if that was the 12 pictures I was shown. I couldn't tell you if these right
13 here are the pictures I was shown.

14 Q. Excuse me, Judge. So you can't tell me whether 15 those are the pictures you were shown?

16 A. You could walk out of this room right here and swap
17 them right out there. I couldn't tell you whether these are 18 the same pictures I was shown. These are some pictures like 19 this.

20 Q. I see. So you don't know whether those are the 21 pictures you were shown or not?

22 A. It's like I told you, these are-- I was shown
23 pictures like this.

24 Q. Okay. Can you at this time see all the persons on 25 those pictures?

26 A. Can I do what?

27 Q. Can you see all the persons, all those pictures?

28 A. Yes, I can.

29 Q. Okay, and let me get a little closer to you so you

1 can make sure you can hear me.

2 (NOTE: Counsel's voice was very hoarse.)

3 Q. On that picture as depicted, who has the biggest 4 head on that picture?

5 A. This man right here. (Witness points.)

6 Q. That is man number what?

7 A. Number four.

8 Q. Four.

9 (Pause while Mr. Lumumba drinks a cup of 10 water.)

11 Q. Can I see that again, please?

12 (After Counsel looked at the exhibit, it was 13 again handed back to the witness.)

14 Q. Who has the darkest complexion in those pictures?

15 A. Well, to me it's about three of them on there that 16 is about the same.

17 Q. And who are those three?

18 A. Be this one and this one. This one, this one, and 19 this one.

20 Q. Give the Judge the numbers; what numbers?

21 A. 1, 6 and 4.

22 Q. And would you say that although you say those are 23 about the same, number 4 is actually darker than the other
24 two people; isn't that correct?

25 A. To me what appears darker is he has got a beard
26 right there.

27 Q. Okay. So that makes him appear darker than the 28 other two people?

29 A. But you asked me what complexion. You asked me the

1 complexion.

2 Q. Does the beard make him appear darker than the
3 other two people?

4 A. Well, naturally it does.

5 Q. And you didn't tell the officers on the 16th that 6 the person that you saw had a beard, did you?

7 A. I was never asked.

8 Q. Did you ever tell them when they asked you to 9 describe him that he had a beard?

10 A. I don't think so.

11 Q. Okay.

12 A. I don't remember that. I don't think so.

13 Q. Now would it be safe to say that number 4 from this 14 picture appears to be older than number 6?

15 A. I couldn't tell you that. I couldn't tell you
16 that. My son runs the store, and I see people like this 17 every day, and I can't tell you their age. I can't even near 18 about start telling you their age.

19 Q. I'm not asking you to tell me their age. Do I
20 appear to be older than Mr. Freelon?

21 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I don't believe--

22 BY THE WITNESS:

23 A. --I don't have any idea, man--

24 BY MR. EVANS: --either one of them are on the 25 lineup--

26 BY THE WITNESS:

27 A. --I have no way of knowing. I mean I couldn't tell
28 you--

29 BY MR. EVANS: --and I object.

1                   BY THE COURT: Overruled.

2           BY MR. LUMUMBA:

3           Q.    You can't tell me whether I appear to be older than
4           Mr. Freelon?

5           A.    I sure can't. I can't tell you.

6           Q.    Do I appear to be older than this young man sitting
7           right here?

8                   (NOTE: Mr. Lumumba pointed to a man sitting 9                   in front of the jury box from the Department of 10                  Corrections.)

11          A.    Well, that is obvious there. I mean, you know, but 12          as far as that right there, I couldn't tell you that.

13          Q.    So I do appear to be older than him?

14          A.    Well, I would say so, yeah. And I may be wrong
15          too, but I would say so.

16          Q.    Okay. And number 4 in your view, you can't tell me
17          whether he appears to be older than 1 and 6?

18          A.    I sure can't.

19          Q.    Can you tell me whether he appears to be older than 20          1?

21          A.    I sure can't.

22          Q.    Okay. Does number 6 have a beard?

23          A.    No, he does not.

24          Q.    Does he have a mustache?

25          A.    It doesn't look like it.

26          Q.    Does number 1 have a beard that you can see?

27          A.    It doesn't look like it.

28          Q.    Does number 1 have a receding hairline?

29          A.    No, he does not.

1 Q. Does number 6 have a receding hairline?

2 A. He has a slight receding hairline.

3 Q. Who has the most pronounced, who has a receding
4 hairline in these pictures?

5 A. What now?

6 Q. A receding hairline.

7 A. This one sort of has a receding hairline, this one,
8 and this one right here.

9 Q. Number 4?

10 A. Number 2, number 6 and number 4.

11 Q. Okay, but number 1 does not?

12 A. No, he does not. Not to me he doesn't, from what I
13 call a receding hairline.

14 Q. I see. So number 4 has the biggest head?

15 A. In these pictures here, yes.

16 Q. Right. Number 4 is darker than everybody except 17 for 6 and 1; right?

18 A. To me, yeah.

19 Q. Number 4 and number 1, who is the only person you
20 say is as dark as number 4, does not have a receding
21 hairline; right?

22 A. I told you number 6, number 4, and all of them had 23 the same complexion. Yeah, number 1 does not have a receding
24 hairline.

25 Q. Right, and he is one of the people you said that 26 was as dark as number 4?

27 A. That's right.

28 Q. Who doesn't have a beard?

29 A. He doesn't appear to have one. Part of the chin is

1 cut off there. I don't think he has got one. He hasn't got
2 one on the side of his face.

3 Q. Who you can't tell is younger than this man?

4 A. I sure can't.

5 Q. From this picture?

6 A. I sure can't.

7 Q. All right. And I see. Now number 5 does not have 8 a receding hairline; right?

9 A. Not really.

10 Q. He also has braids in his hair?

11 A. That's correct.

12 Q. The man you saw that day, you never told the police
13 that he had braids in his hair?

14 A. No, I did not.

15 Q. By the way, you have seen a lot of people who have 16 receding hairlines; right?

17 A. Well, sure.

18 Q. There is a whole, millions of people with receding
19 hairlines?

20 A. Sure.

21 Q. A lot of dark black people; correct?

22 A. Uh-hum.

23 Q. Millions of them; right?

24 A. What now?

25 Q. Thousands of millions of dark black people?

26 A. I would say so. I don't know.

27 Q. But there is a bunch of them?

28 A. There is a bunch of them, yeah.

29 Q. All right. A lot of people with big heads?

1           A.    I would say so.

2           Q.    But the only person in this lineup-- the biggest 3 head in this lineup is number 4?

4           A.    This is a closer up picture than these right here.
5 These right here may have a big head; I don't know.

6           Q.    But at least the way they are displayed this head
7 looks much bigger than all the rest?

8           A.    That's correct. From this pictures, yeah.

9           Q.    From the way they are displayed?

10          A.    Uh-hum.

11          Q.    And that's what you were looking at is these 12 pictures; right?

13          A.    At his head? How big his head was?

14          Q.    You were looking at these pictures; right?

15          A.    Yeah, I was looking at these pictures. I guess
16 these are the pictures, yeah.

17          Q.    Yeah, and you, of course, have never seen number 1, 18 2 or 3 in life, have you?

19          A.    I don't know whether I have or not. If I have, I
20 don't know them.

21          Q.    And you have never seen number 5 and 6; right?

22          A.    If I have, I don't know them.

23          Q.    Okay. Now you were never shown a live lineup, were
24 you?

25          A.    That's correct.

26          Q.    I'm sorry. You were never shown a live lineup, a 27 bunch of men standing--

28          A.    I was not.

29          Q.    Okay. When you were testifying at trial, you never

1 said that you were sure that Mr. Flowers was the man that you
2 saw that day; right?

3 A. I told them that day in the court up there the man
4 I seen didn't have glasses on. He was not that heavy.

5 Q. And then he took his glasses off; right?

6 A. He did, and it was dark in that courtroom.

7 Q. All right, and you never said when he took his 8 glasses off that he was the man, did you?

9 A. No, sir. I don't think I actually come out and 10 said that, no. I think you are correct on that.

11 Q. All right, let me see what you did say. On page
12 435, did you indicate--

13 A. Said, I think that's him.

14 Q. You didn't say you were sure it was him; right?

15 A. That's what I just told you.

16 Q. Okay. And in fact, and then on page 436 you say
17 it looks like him; right?

18 A. Uh-hum.

19 Q. Okay, and that was the same thing you said when you
20 saw the first set of photos. You indicated that you saw a 21 man that looked like him; is that correct?

22 A. Wait a minute.

23 Q. You said hair looked like this, may have appeared
24 a little darker, but it looks like him; right?

25 A. That's correct. That's what I told you while ago.

26 Q. Okay, now that's what you said when you saw the 27 first photos?

28 A. That's what I told you while ago.

29 Q. Right, that was the photos. Okay. Now let me make

1     sure I understand what you are saying now. You said that
2     about the man that you pointed to in the first set of photos
3     that you saw that day; right? That you saw when the police
4     were showing them to you; right? You got shown two sets?

5           A.    I think that's what I said. I think I said
6     something like it has got the same, looked like the same
7     complexion. I think it looks like him. I think that is 8     basically what I said.

9           Q.    But you said at that time that the man looked a
10    little darker; right?

11          A.    I may have.

12          Q.    Okay. And in fact, that's what you said in court
13    when you looked at Mr. Flowers after he took off his 14    glasses. You indicated, in fact, that was the last thing you 15    said about him is that the man appeared to be a little 16    darker; right?

17          A.    That's what I said because like I told them up
18    there, that courtroom was dark, and I could not see very well 19    in there.

20          Q.    You couldn't see very well in a dark courtroom;
21    right?

22          A.    That's right.

23          Q.    And then you told the people that the man that you
24    saw that day looked a little darker than Mr. Flowers; right?

25          A.    I told them that the man didn't have glasses on,
26    and he looked a little darker.

27          Q.    And that is after the man, Mr. Flowers, took off
28    his glasses in the courtroom?

29          A.    I think that is right.

1 Q. Was any of your discussions-- who showed you these
2 pictures? Maybe I should ask you that first.

3 A. I think John Johnson was there. I think Wayne
4 Miller was there. It may have been somebody else there; I
5 don't remember. I know those two were there, I think.

6 Q. All right. When they showed you those pictures,
7 was your conversation being recorded?

8 A. I don't know. I don't remember. I don't remember
9 that. It could have been; I don't remember.

10 Q. When they talked to you on the 16th, was your 11 conversation being recorded?

12 A. I don't really remember. I know at times there I
13 was there and they was telling me I was being recorded. It
14 may have been; I don't know. I don't remember that.

15 Q. Do you remember how many different times you
16 actually were recorded?

17 A. I have no idea.

18 Q. Was it more than one, or do you know?

19 A. I have no idea.

20 Q. Do you remember if you were ever recorded?

21 A. Oh, I was recorded because they told me they was 22 going to record this. Now how many times, I don't know.

23 Q. Were you ever recorded before you made an 24 identification or-- strike that. Were you ever recorded
25 before you were shown the pictures, the two sets of pictures
26 that you were shown?

27 A. I don't think so, but I'm not sure. I don't think
28 so. I may have been; I'm not sure.

29 Q. Now at the time that you were shown pictures--

1 well, let me ask you this. Were you ever shown any pictures
2 of a car?

3 A. No.

4 Q. The police never showed you any pictures of a car?

5 A. No.

6 Q. Never asked you to identify a car?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. They asked you to identify a car?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And where was the car?

11 A. Behind the police department in Winona.

12 Q. Did you ever identify a car?

13 A. No, I did not.

14 Q. Okay, what kind of car did you look at? How many 15 cars did they show you?

16 A. One car.

17 Q. And what did it look like?

18 A. It was, I really don't know what kind of car it
19 was. It was a two-tone beige or two-tone brown or something;
20 I don't know.

21 Q. And you didn't identify it?

22 A. No, I did not.

23 Q. And you didn't identify it because you knew it?

24 What car were they referring to when they wanted you to make 25 an identification? In other words, what was it that they 26 were asking you to identify or to compare the car to?

27 A. The one I seen them standing beside and in front
28 of.

29 Q. Okay. And by the way, when you were saying at the

1 last trial that the man looked a little darker than him, when
2 asked if that was the man, meaning Mr. Flowers, okay; do you
3 remember at the last trial you said the man was a little
4 darker? You were telling the truth, weren't you?

5 A. Do what?

6 Q. You were telling the truth; right?

7 A. I have been telling you the truth all day, sir.

8 Q. Were you telling the truth at the trial when you
9 said the man looked a little darker?

10 A. I just told you, I have been telling you the truth
11 all day, and I just told you that just a few minutes ago.

12 Q. Okay, but I wasn't at the trial. My question,
13 listen carefully. Were you telling the truth at the trial
14 when you said the man looked darker?

15 A. Yes, I was telling the truth.

16 Q. Okay. And you were asked several times if this 17 here was the man; right? At the trial; right?

18 A. I think so.

19 Q. And at no time did you say you were certain that he 20 was the man; right?

21 A. I told them I believed that was him.

22 Q. At any time did you say you were certain that was
23 him?

24 A. All I ever told them was I believed that was him.

25 Q. Well, actually you didn't say, "I believe it was 26 him"; you said, "I think"?

27 A. Well, maybe I said, "I think it's him."

28 Q. Okay, did you ever say that you were certain it was
29 him?

1           A.    I don't think so.

2           Q.    All right. And you were telling the truth all
3 those times when you answered that question?

4           A.    I told you I been telling the truth all through
5 then and all day today, sir.

6           Q.    All right. And you told the truth back then?

7           A.    I told the truth back then.

8           Q.    Okay. Now so when you saw this car that they 9 showed you and you didn't identify it; is that right?

10          A.    I did not.

11          Q.    Did you not identify it because you weren't sure
12 that it was the car, or did you not identify it because you
13 were sure that it was not the car? Do you understand my
14 question?

15          A.    No, I don't.

16          Q.    When you saw the car, did you know whether or not 17 that was the car, the car they showed you?

18          A.    It didn't look like the car I seen.

19          Q.    Okay. So you said it wasn't, didn't look like the 20 car you saw; is that right?

21          A.    That's exactly right.

22          Q.    And what did the car that you saw look like?

23          A.    The car I saw had taillights all the way across the 24 back, and it was filthy. It was completely covered with dust
25 and mud.

26          Q.    Was it a beige brown?

27          A.    It was a brown car, a brown car.

28          Q.    Was it a beige brown looking car?

29          A.    Well, it was sort of beige brown. It was brown.

1 That's all I could tell you about it because it had a lot of
2 dust and a lot of dirt on it.

3 Q. And taillights went all the way across?

4 A. Went all the way across it.

5 Q. Now prior to the time-- when you were brought down,
6 when they brought you down to show you the pictures, did they
7 tell you you were coming down to watch, see pictures?

8 A. I don't remember whether they told me that or not.
9 They didn't bring me down. They called me and asked me to 10 come up there, and I went up there.

11 Q. Okay. You went up there?

12 A. That's right.

13 Q. Up where?

14 A. To the police department in Winona.

15 Q. Okay, and when you went down, did they tell you why
16 you were there?

17 A. Do what?

18 Q. Did they show you pictures, or did you have a 19 discussion first?

20 A. I don't remember. I think we talked a little bit
21 there, and then I think they showed me the pictures. I
22 believe that's the way it was.

23 Q. And they told you that they were going to show you
24 some pictures; is that correct?

25 A. Uh-hum.

26 Q. And they showed you some pictures?

27 A. That's correct.

28 Q. And when they were showing you the pictures, they 29 indicated that they were going to show you a picture of the

1 person that you saw out there that day; is that right?

2 A. No, that is not what they said.

3 Q. What did they say?

4 A. They said they had some pictures they wanted me to 5 look at and wanted to know if I could look at it and see if 6 one of them would be the person that I looked at. They 7 showed me some pictures.

8 Q. I see. And this was some time later; right?

9 A. It was later than after the day that this
10 happened. Yeah, it was-- I don't know how long it was. It
11 was a while after that.

12 Q. Prior to the time that you saw the pictures, had 13 there been discussion in the community about this incident
14 that occurred at Tardy's grocery store?

15 A. Well, sure. There was discussion. That is a small
16 town. Everybody in town knew it.

17 Q. And was there discussion about who the people were 18 that the police were talking to or who may have been 19 suspected?

20 A. Wait a minute. Tell me that, ask me that again.

21 Q. Was there any discussion about who the police had 22 been talking to about this case, who the suspects were?

23 A. I never heard anything about any of it.

24 Q. Okay, you never heard Doyle Simpson's name come up?

25 A. Uh, didn't even know who Doyle Simpson was up until 26 that morning that the crime happened.

27 Q. But you learned that morning?

28 A. That morning. That's when I heard that, that 29 morning.

1 Q. Okay, so did you hear about his name again prior to
2 the time you saw the pictures? Did you ever hear his name
3 mentioned again?

4 A. Yeah, when he come down to my brother-in-law's
5 place and said his gun was stolen.

6 Q. All right, I see. So you heard about his name
7 then; is that right?

8 A. That's when I heard about him. Yeah, never even 9 knew he existed in this world. Didn't even know him.

10 Q. Did you hear about him again after that day, after 11 that time?

12 A. I am sure I did.

13 Q. Okay. Did you hear Curtis Flowers' name mentioned?

14 A. No, I did not.

15 Q. You never heard that?

16 A. Not then I didn't, no.

17 Q. Did you hear after that time?

18 A. It was a while after that time, yeah, because I
19 didn't even, I didn't know this fellow.

20 Q. You heard about his name before or after you saw 21 the photos?

22 A. You know, I really don't know. If I told you one
23 way or the other, I would be lying to you, and I'm not going
24 to lie to you. I don't know.

25 Q. Okay. And so let me see. Maybe you answered this,
26 but let me make sure. Was the conversation that you had 27 prior to the time that you were shown the photos and at the 28 time you were shown the photos, was that conversation taped?

29 A. When they showed me the photos?

1 Q. (Counsel nods his head.) If you know.

2 A. I really don't know, but I am sure it was. I don't 3 know. I really don't know. I couldn't tell you if it was or 4 wasn't.

5 Q. Okay, let me ask you this. You recall some time
6 ago I came to your store to talk to you; is that correct?

7 A. I recall you coming to my son's store and asking,
8 telling me you wanted to talk to me and made an appointment
9 to talk to me, and you never showed up. I remember that.

10 Q. You were at the store when I came?

11 A. That's right. I was sitting at the table with my 12 wife and my brother and my sister and her husband.

13 Q. Okay, and did you talk to me at that time?

14 A. No, I did not. You made an appointment with me for 15 the Monday morning at 10 o'clock you wanted to talk to me,
16 and you never showed up.

17 Q. And did I ask to talk to you the day that I came?
18 I asked to talk to you then, didn't I?

19 A. When? That day?

20 Q. Yeah.

21 A. Yes, you did.

22 Q. Did you talk to me that day?

23 A. That night at the store?

24 Q. Yeah.

25 A. No, I did not.

26 Q. Okay, you refused to talk to me that day?

27 A. I did not refuse--

28 BY MR. HORAN: --Your Honor, what does this
29 have to do with the identification, Your Honor--

1 BY THE WITNESS: --to talk to you no such a
2 thing.

3 BY THE COURT: Wait a minute, Mr. Collins.
4 This really doesn't have anything to do with the 5 motion. Let's move on.

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

7 Q. Okay. Did you later on tell me that you wouldn't 8 talk to me at all?

9 BY MR. HORAN: Objection, Your Honor. Did you
10 not just sustain an objection--

11 BY THE COURT: --It just doesn't have anything
12 to do with this motion. It may be at some other
13 point in time. Anything else, Mr. Lumumba?

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have nothing at this time.

15 BY THE COURT: All right.

16 CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. EVANS:

17 Q. Mr. Collins, you live in Winona; is that correct?

18 A. That's correct.

19 Q. And the day of the Tardy murders you were downtown?

20 A. That's correct.

21 Q. And you happened to see things at that time that 22 you thought might be important to the law enforcement
23 officials; is that right?

24 A. That's correct.

25 Q. And that same day you went to different law
26 enforcement officials, and you told them what you knew in 27 case it might be important; is that right?

28 A. That's correct.

29 Q. Now the day that this happened you have given

1 detailed statements about where you traveled, who you saw,
2 what kind of clothing different people had on, like Roxanne.
3 I believe you described her clothing when you saw her going
4 back in the store; is that right?

5 A. That's correct.

6 Q. All of these things, all these details were from 7 your memory; is that right?

8 A. That's correct.

9 Q. Nobody told you what to say, did they?

10 A. No, they did not.

11 Q. And when you saw these two people that you say
12 looked like they were arguing out in front of the store, did
13 anybody try to tell you what they looked like, or are you
14 basing what you remember on your own memory of seeing that 15 person in front of the store?

16 A. No, they did not. I told the people inside the 17 place that morning exactly-- I give them a description of it 18 right inside that morning just a few minutes after all this 19 happened.

20 Q. And when you were shown the lineup, this color
21 lineup which was marked on the copy D-2, you didn't have any 22 hesitation in pointing out photograph number 4, did you?

23 A. Did not.

24 Q. And the reason you didn't have any hesitation
25 picking that out is that is the person that you saw in front
26 of the store; is that right?

27 A. I believe it is; yes.

28 Q. And you told John Johnson and Wayne Miller, That is 29 the person that I saw in front of the store, didn't you?

1 A. I think so, yes.

2 Q. And you put your initials on the back of that
3 photograph on the original copy, did you not?

4 A. That I did.

5 Q. And both Wayne Miller and John Johnson witnessed
6 you doing that, didn't they?

7 A. That's correct.

8 Q. And you have testified in a previous trial in this 9 same basic case, have you not?

10 A. That's correct.

11 Q. And in that case you told on the stand about seeing 12 the two people in front of the store, looking at one of 13 them's face and identifying him in a lineup, did you not?

14 A. That's correct.

15 Q. And you have described that the person you saw in 16 the courtroom in Tupelo had on glasses; is that right?

17 A. I said the one that I seen didn't have glasses on.

18 Q. I meant in the courtroom.

19 A. Oh, yes, sir; that's correct.

20 Q. And you had a chance to see him without his glasses
21 on; is that right?

22 A. That's correct.

23 Q. And the courtroom in Tupelo was darker in the front
24 part than this courtroom; is that correct?

25 A. That's correct.

26 Q. Do you see the Defendant sitting over here?

27 A. Yeah. He looks darker now in here than he did up
28 there that day.

29 Q. Is that the person that you saw in front of Tardy's

1 store?

2 A. I will always believe that's the man I seen.

3 Q. And you are basing that on your own memory and not
4 what someone has told you; is that right?

5 A. That's correct.

6 Q. Did anybody in any way - John Johnson, Wayne
7 Miller, or anyone attempt to point out which picture for you
8 to identify on that lineup?

9 A. It wouldn't have done any good to have done that 10 because I wouldn't have listened to you.

11 Q. And opposing counsel has indicated that one of them
12 may have somewhat of a larger picture. Did anybody tell you
13 to pick out the one with the large picture?

14 A. No, they did not.

15 Q. Did anybody tell you to pick out the one with the 16 small picture?

17 A. No, they did not.

18 Q. Nobody tried to influence you in any way?

19 A. No, they did not.

20 Q. And you wouldn't have let them if they had, would
21 you?

22 A. No, I would not have.

23 Q. And you are only identifying this Defendant because 24 he is the person that you saw there that day--

25 A. --I will always believe that's the one I saw.

26 BY MR. EVANS: Nothing further, Your Honor.

27 BY THE COURT: Okay, Mr. Collins. You are 28 excused for now. I'm going to ask you to stay
29 unless y'all-- can y'all finally excuse him?

1 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes, sir.

3 BY THE COURT: Mr. Collins, you can go home.

4 BY THE WITNESS: All right. Thank you, sir.

5 WITNESS EXCUSED.

6 BY THE COURT: Who will you have next?

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I would call John Johnson.

8 BY THE COURT: John Johnson.

9 JOHN JOHNSON,

10 upon being called to testify as a witness by the Defendant on
11 the Motion to Suppress Identification, having first been duly
12 sworn, testified as follows, to-wit:

13 BY THE COURT: Have a seat, please, and then
14 state your name for the record.

15 BY THE WITNESS: My name is John Johnson.

16 DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

17 Q. Mr. Johnson, when is the last time prior to this 18 hearing that you talked to Mr. Collins?

19 A. I spoke to him day before yesterday, I think it
20 was.

21 Q. Day before yesterday. Where was he at?

22 A. At his home.

23 Q. Okay, why were you at his home?

24 A. I stopped to check with him to see if he had been 25 subpoenaed to be here.

26 Q. Did you have a discussion with him?

27 A. Yeah.

28 Q. What did you discuss?

29 A. Just basically asked if you and your counsel had

1 asked him any questions beyond what had normally been
2 discussed, and he indicated that you had not.

3 Q. All right, so just the day before yesterday at his 4 home?

5 A. Yeah.

6 Q. Is that right?

7 A. Yeah.

8 Q. Okay. Now when you saw him there, did you tell him
9 what this hearing was going to be about?

10 A. No, I didn't know that much about it myself.

11 Q. I see; so you didn't say anything about pictures?

12 A. I know I probably mentioned to him there would be a 13 picture lineup, you know, the same picture lineup from 14 before.

15 Q. You said the same one from before. You told him
16 that; right?

17 A. I don't remember the exact wordings that were made.

18 Q. But as far as you can remember, you said something
19 like that?

20 A. I don't remember exactly what was said in that 21 regard.

22 Q. Well--

23 A. The picture lineup has to do with his testimony, I
24 know, and the picture lineup was probably mentioned, yes.

25 Q. Okay, and what you shared with me a minute ago, to 26 make sure I heard it right, you did say that you probably 27 told him it would be the same picture lineup that was there
28 before; right?

29 A. No, that is not what I said.

1 I'm--

2 BY MR. EVANS: --It's the same thing.

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: It's not the same.

4 BY THE COURT: Well, let me see it, and I will
5 clear it up whether it's the same thing.

6 BY MR. EVANS: This is getting ridiculous.

7 (Folder of photographs and Exhibits D-1 and 8 D-2 were handed to the Court.)

9 BY THE COURT: Well, it is obviously not the 10 same thing. This is clearer.

11 BY MR. EVANS: That is not the copy that I
12 gave him either.

13 BY THE COURT: Okay, well--

14 BY MR. EVANS: The copy that I gave him is 15 identical to this one.

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have never seen a copy like
17 that.

18 BY MR. EVANS: I might as well do your work on 19 this too. I have done it on everything else. And 20 I want that back too, Your Honor, because that is 21 the only copy I have got.

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, I have no problem with
23 that.

24 BY THE COURT: Okay.

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

26 Q. I am showing you a copy of Exhibit number 2 and ask
27 you if you have seen that before?

28 A. Repeat your question.

29 Q. Have you seen that before?

1 A. Yes, I have.

2 Q. And when were you shown, when did you see that?

3 A. I'm not sure. This is a photostatic copy, I would 4 assume, but I have seen one similar to this recently. I have 5 had one recently like that.

6 Q. Recently, within the last several days?

7 A. Yeah.

8 Q. And did Mr. Collins recently see it?

9 A. Yes, he did.

10 Q. And where was he at when he saw it?

11 A. At his house.

12 Q. Was that the same day you went over there?

13 A. Yes. You know, let me, if I could rephrase that.
14 I had it with me. Whether or not he actually looked at it or 15 not, I don't know, but I had it with me, and I indicated to 16 him that my initials were on there, and the date and all was 17 on there.

18 Q. Mr. Johnson?

19 A. Uh-hum.

20 Q. You took it out at the police station--at the, was 21 it in the DA's office? Where was the picture at before you
22 picked it up?

23 A. I got it from the file in the office in Grenada.

24 Q. You picked it up, and you knew where you were 25 going; is that right?

26 A. Yes.

27 Q. You knew you were going to Mr. Collins' office?

28 A. Yes.

29 Q. You knew you were going to Mr. Collins' office, and

1 that's why you got it so you could go?

2 A. In case he asked me questions, yes.

3 Q. And you went to him, and just a few minutes ago you
4 just told us that he saw the pictures; right?

5 A. He probably saw the pictures, yes. I can't swear
6 that he did.

7 Q. I mean I know you can't look through his eyes, but 8 you knew that you showed him the picture; right?

9 A. I didn't, I don't know that I actually showed him
10 the pictures, but I had the pictures in my personal
11 possession when I talked to him.

12 Q. And you had them in your possession so they could 13 be seen?

14 A. If he asked to see them, yes.

15 Q. I see. Now let me-- now we have only been talking
16 for the last ten minutes or so; right. Me and you here?

17 A. I don't know exactly how long we have been talking.

18 Q. Well, I just gave you that picture just less than 19 six or seven minutes ago; right?

20 A. Probably.

21 Q. And I didn't tell you what to say when I gave it to 22 you; right?

23 A. No.

24 Q. I just gave it to you and asked the question. One
25 of the questions was did Mr. Collins see that picture.
26 That's all I did; right?

27 A. (Witness shrugs.)

28 Q. Is that right?

29 A. May have. I don't remember exactly but something

1 on that order, yes.

2 Q. Well, you do remember that you told me that he saw
3 it. You said that; right?

4 A. I said he probably saw it.

5 Q. No, but at first you said he saw it; right?

6 A. Well, he may have seen it. I don't know that he
7 saw it or he didn't see it.

8 Q. So let me understand you. You got this picture
9 from-- was it at the DA's office? I'm sorry.

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And you went all the way over to Mr. Collins'
12 house?

13 A. I went through Winona. He lives in Winona, yes.

14 Q. And you are from Grenada?

15 A. No, I am originally from Winona. I live in Sallis
16 at this time.

17 Q. Okay, but you had to go get the picture from 18 Grenada?

19 A. I was already there.

20 Q. And you brought the picture with you from Grenada;
21 right?

22 A. I brought this with me from Grenada, yes.

23 Q. Which one? You just said this?

24 A. I had, I'm not sure if this is the same one or 25 not. It may have been a copy, but I had--

26 Q. --You had one that looked like that?

27 A. That looked like this, yes.

28 Q. Right, and for the record when we say looked like 29 this, this is a copy of Exhibit 2, and on the back of it it

1 has HWM 8/24/96; right?

2 A. Right.

3 Q. And it has-- what is this?

4 A. That is my initials.

5 Q. And what date is on it?

6 A. 8/24/96.

7 Q. And it has some spaces that appear to be blocked
8 out on the back; right?

9 A. Right.

10 Q. What is under there?

11 A. That would be the back of the picture lineup as it
12 was, or the front maybe, I don't know. The pictures of the 13 people that were involved in the lineup.

14 Q. And it has here initials "CC"; right?

15 A. That's right.

16 Q. And it has here a time and the date; right?

17 A. Right.

18 Q. And on the front of it, it actually has the same
19 pictures which are in this-- well, just for the record so we 20 can describe it, this appears to be a black and white copy;
21 is that correct?

22 A. That's right. Well, it's a photostatic copy, yes.

23 Q. Which is in black and white?

24 A. It's not in color.

25 Q. And this appears to be in color, what we have been 26 referring to as Exhibit-- is a copy, which we have been 27 referring to as the pictures which are in Exhibit 2, this 28 particular group are in color; is that correct?

29 A. Those particular pictures are in color.

1           Q.    Right, and for the purpose of the record to
2 describe it, they are in a manila folder that you can open
3 up; right?

4           A.    Yeah.

5           Q.    And when you open it up, then it appears to be 6 what-- about what size would you say that is?

7           A.    Probably 18 by 12, something like that.

8           Q.    Okay, and this other copy of Exhibit 2, this other 9 depiction of the photos in Exhibit 2, this is a copy which 10 has at the top "photographic identification"; right?

11          A.    Yeah.

12          Q.    And it not only is in black and white, but it is on 13 an eight and a half by eleven sheet?

14          A.    Yeah.

15          Q.    And these pictures are clear. You can see them
16 clearly; right?

17          A.    They are fairly clear. I don't know.

18          Q.    Okay, well, let me ask you these questions. And 19 it's that copy, the ones that is fairly clear that you told 20 me that you took with you over to Porky Collins' home?

21          A.    I'm not sure if this is the exact copy. I took a
22 copy that represented this same information.

23          Q.    To Porky Collins' home?

24          A.    I had it with me, yeah.

25          Q.    And you brought it from Grenada?

26          A.    I did.

27          Q.    And it would be safe to say that you don't normally 28 carry around evidence with you from a capital murder case on 29 a day to day basis, do you?

1           A.    I don't remember having anything that was marked
2 for evidence, but I had a copy of something similar to this,
3 yes.

4           Q.    Well, you don't carry copies around with you of 5 capital murder evidence on a day to day basis?

6           A.    (No response).

7           Q.    You seem to be having some problems with that
8 question. Let me withdraw it and make it a little simpler.

9           A.    I carry copies of a lot of things with me.

10          Q.    I understand. But you don't go to Porky Collins'
11 house all the time; right?

12          A.    No, I don't.

13          Q.    And it just so happens at this time you were 14 carrying a picture which has, or a copy of a picture which is 15 similar to what you have in front of you which has Porky
16 Collins' initials on the back of it; right?

17          A.    Yes, that's true.

18          Q.    And you happened to go over to his house. You 19 didn't happen to go. You called him and told him you were 20 coming; right?

21          A.    That's true. I think he called the DA's office,
22 and I wanted to go by and check on him.

23          Q.    And in fact, as far as you know, your phones are 24 not tapped by the Defense; right?

25          A.    Repeat the question.

26          Q.    As far as you know, your phone is not tapped by the 27 Defense in this case, is it?

28          A.    I don't have any knowledge of such.

29          Q.    But so I mean, and I don't want to be facetious,

1 but you could have talked to him on the phone and asked him
2 what he got; right?

3 A. I didn't know where Porky was. He is a friend of 4 mine. He works at a store. His home is right there. I was 5 going right through Winona, and I just stopped to check on
6 him.

7 Q. With this copy of this picture?

8 A. I did have a copy of the picture with me. I also 9 had copies of a lot of things that I carry.

10 BY THE COURT: Mr. Lumumba, let me say this.
11 If you are trying to make the point that he took 12 the picture there and showed it and wanted him to 13 look at it, you have made that point with the 14 Court.

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Thank you.

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

17 Q. How long have you been an investigator for the DA's
18 office?

19 A. About 7 years.

20 Q. And would it also be safe to say that before that,
21 you were chief of police?

22 A. I was.

23 Q. In Winona?

24 A. That's right.

25 Q. And during this period of a year, how long was that 26 for?

27 A. I was chief of police six years; assistant chief,
28 four years. I was a policeman in Grenada and Winona prior to
29 that.

1           Q.    Okay, so you have been in law enforcement for what,
2 over 20 years?

3           A.    About that.

4           Q.    And the reason I ask you that, one of the things
5 that you do in law enforcement, you learn about the 6 presentation of photo displays and lineups; is that right?
7 You learn how you are supposed to do it?

8           A.    Sure.

9           Q.    Okay. And they tell you that one of the 10 fundamental concepts is to make sure that the lineup or the 11 photo display is not what they call suggestive; right?

12          A.    True.

13          Q.    When we say suggestive, what we mean is anything
14 that makes a particular, let's say photo display; all right?
15 You are not supposed to do anything that makes a particular
16 photo stand out; is that right?

17          A.    True.

18          Q.    Because the principle is that you really don't know
19 yourself personally whether or not the person you have as a 20 suspect is actually the person that committed the crime;
21 right?

22          A.    True.

23          Q.    But they teach you that if you do anything
24 suggestive to make the picture of the suspect stand out - you
25 understand what I'm saying - that that might, in fact,
26 influence the identification by the witness; right?

27          A.    (Witness nods his head.)

28          Q.    Is that correct?

29          A.    True.

1           Q.   And if you influence the identification of the 2 witness, they teach you that you might be getting the product
3 of the influence rather than the product of what the witness
4 actually knows; right?

5           A.   True.

6           Q.   And would it be safe to say that they tell you that 7 when you do the photo display, that all of the photos should
8 be similar or look alike. I don't mean-- let's not talk
9 about the persons in the photos. But for instance, you are 10 not supposed to get a photo, a bunch of photos with dark
11 backgrounds and then put the suspect in a photo with light
12 background.

13                   BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I object. I have 14 tried not to, but this is on one particular photo 15 lineup. He needs to ask his questions about that 16 photo lineup.

17                   BY THE COURT: I think that is true.

18                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

20           Q.   Now but it's true, you are not supposed to--

21                   BY MR. EVANS: --I object again, Your Honor.
22 Apparently he didn't hear the Court's ruling.

23                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: I am going right to it.

24                   BY THE COURT: Okay, but I have ruled now.
25 Let's move on.

26                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

28           Q.   In this particular photo selection, you have one
29 man there who appears to be close up in the photo as opposed

1 to further back in the background; is that correct?

2 A. Not knowing the actual size of these other people,
3 I can't say that that is totally true, but I would admit that 4 Curtis Flowers looks a little larger in that picture if 5 that's what your question is.

6 Q. And it would be safe to say that his head is 7 definitely bigger than anybody else here; is that right?

8 A. (No response).

9 Q. In this photo spread?

10 A. Probably.

11 Q. It would also probably be safe to say that in this
12 photo display he appears to be darker than anybody else here
13 as it appears in this photo spread?

14 A. That is possibly true, but this is a photostatic
15 copy from a copy machine here. This hasn't been presented to 16 Porky Collins by me.

17 Q. Does it appear in this photo display that he 18 appears to be darker than anybody else?

19 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, again, he cannot 20 ask him and I object to him asking him about a
21 photocopy of what is darker or lighter.

22 BY THE COURT: I think you ought to refer to 23 the actual photograph.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

25 Q. What photographs did you show Porky Collins?

26 BY MR. EVANS: And again, Your Honor, for the 27 record the originals of these photographs are in 28 the Supreme Court. All we have before this Court
29 today are copies.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge--

2 BY THE COURT: --Let me ask you this because I
3 don't know. Are these photographs that we have 4 here the same photographs that the Supreme Court
5 has?

6 BY MR. EVANS: They are the same photographs
7 but--

8 BY THE COURT: What is the difference?

9 BY MR. EVANS: They are a copy that are made.
10 So whether they are the same darkness or lightness
11 or exact same size, I don't know. And I want this 12 Court to understand that this is strictly a copy.
13 The originals could have been here today, but 14 nobody got them.

15 BY THE COURT: Okay, well.

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, can I ask a couple of 17 questions? I think it'll clear it up.

18 BY THE COURT: Well. (Pause).

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: May I state this? We have 20 never, we have asked for discovery. We have asked
21 to see the exact evidence.

22 BY THE COURT: But they don't have that
23 though. It is with the Supreme Court.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: He says it could have been
25 here today.

26 BY THE COURT: Well, it could. You could have 27 filed a motion with the Supreme Court and gotten it
28 here.

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: All right, well, if you

1 recall our last discussion in your presence, they
2 said they were going to file, and they were talking
3 about this hearing.

4 BY THE COURT: But my problem right now is
5 that they are not here, so let me think just a
6 minute.

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can I ask one question?

8 BY THE COURT: Wait a minute first. Let me
9 think just a second. (Brief pause) What he needs
10 to be asked is if those photographs are 11 substantially the same as the ones that he was 12 shown, that he showed at the lineup, and that's 13 what the issue is. Then I will have to maybe make 14 a ruling after that.

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

17 Q. Which-- do we have here in front of us the photos
18 which Porky Collins was shown at the lineup?

19 A. I can't swear that these are identical in size or 20 if these are reproductions and do they actually show actual 21 size to scale individuals. You know, I don't know who took 22 the pictures or whatever. But the original photographs were 23 color pictures similar to these.

24 Q. Similar to the ones in the big exhibit?

25 A. Right.

26 Q. Those are similar to the ones that you actually
27 showed to Porky?

28 A. Right.

29 BY THE COURT: Okay, let me make this ruling.

1           Of necessity, because I don't have them, I am going
2           to have to make my ruling based on those
3           photographs here today. If this case should go to 4           the Supreme Court, I direct that the photographs
5           that were actually submitted that are now at the 6           Supreme Court be a part, they be made a part of the 7           record in this case so that the Supreme Court will
8           have the actual ones. They will have a little bit
9           more benefit than I do, but that's the best I can
10          do.

11                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Now just to be clear--

12                   BY THE COURT: And this, we are talking about 13           Exhibit 2 here.

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

15           Q. Exhibit 2 in the manila folder; right? And the 16           ones which are similar to the ones that he actually saw on 17           that day?

18           A. Correct.

19           Q. Exhibit 2, which is the 8 1/2 by 11 sheet, the 20           copy; right?

21           A. Correct.

22           Q. Is similar to what you had with you in your 23           possession when you went by to see Porky Collins?

24           A. Right. Sure.

25           Q. Looking at these two representations of Exhibit 2, 26           you have no difficulty -- first of all, the same number is 27           under Curtis Flowers in this copy of the exhibit that is 28           under him in this copy; is that correct?

29           A. Correct.

1           Q.   Everybody else here is arranged in the exact same
2 order on both of these copies?

3           A.   Correct.

4           Q.   It's no difficulty ascertaining by looking at these 5 that the persons situated in these positions on one copy are 6 the exact same persons situated in the same positions on the 7 other copy; right?

8           A.   They appear to be; yes.

9           Q.   And looking at this exhibit that was shown to Porky
10 on the day or a similar copy of it, it is also clear here
11 that the head of Curtis Flowers is a lot larger than the head
12 of Mr., than anybody else on here; right?

13          A.   Probably so.

14                   BY THE COURT: Let me ask a question. Is it
15 significant or relevant at all as to what any of 16 these witnesses think in that regard, other than 17 maybe Porky Collins, since in the ultimate long
18 run, I have got to be the one to examine the 19 photographs and make that decision regardless of 20 what his opinion is and then ultimately, if it goes
21 to the Supreme Court, they have to do the same
22 thing? So his opinion as to whether they differ,
23 does it make any difference?

24                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, I would argue in two 25 regards, Judge. Excuse me. I would argue in two 26 regards. One, it deals with the question of 27 whether objectively, they place people in the 28 lineup in a way which was suggestive to the 29 witness. That is number one.

1 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, he can simply ask
2 him--

3 BY THE COURT: --Let him finish--

4 BY MR. EVANS: --that question.

5 BY THE COURT: Let him finish, and I will let 6 you-- Go ahead.

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: And I should be allowed to 8 approach that not just by asking that directly, but 9 by breaking down the photos to show it. Secondly,
10 tests have been done and included in the appendix
11 of some of the cases which indicate that very often 12 a witness is influenced by something which is 13 different about the witness-- about the suspect
14 which is not in his conscious mind, that most 15 misidentifications are based upon subconscious
16 factors as opposed to conscious factors.

17 So any difference which appears-- and I
18 appreciate that the Court can look at it, and I
19 think that is good, and the reason it's good is 20 because if I say something, if the witness says
21 something which is obviously not true about those 22 photographs, and I'm not talking about whether the 23 Court can disagree with the witness or that kind of 24 thing. That is not what I'm trying. If he says
25 something that is obviously untrue about the way
26 that those things are depicted, then the Court can 27 take that into consideration. If he says something
28 which is different about the depiction that I bring
29 out and the Court doesn't think it's that relevant,

1           then the Court can also take that into
2           consideration. But this is my only way of pointing
3           out to the Court what dissimilarities and 4           similarities exist in a lineup which we know that 5           all the suspects must all be displayed, are 6           supposed to have similar characteristics. That is,
7           I mean that is true. Everybody should have similar
8           characteristics, or they shouldn't be in there.

9           So I don't want to belabor this, but there is 10          just a couple of other questions. This is the only 11          lineup that we are dealing with, and I would like 12          to ask this witness, and the Court can certainly 13          come to his own conclusion.

14          BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, you know, if Mr.
15          Johnson - and I'm certainly not admitting that he
16          did that, but if he intentionally put a photograph
17          in there that was suggestive, that doesn't make any 18          difference what his intent was. It's whether or 19          not when the Court looks at the photograph array
20          and when the Supreme Court looks at the photograph
21          array, whether they say that it is suggestive under 22          the existing case law. The photographic array of 23          pictures speaks for itself.

24          Mr. Johnson's display of it is done once Porky
25          Collins looks at it. And the question turns not on 26          whether or not Mr. Johnson thinks that the head is 27          bigger or that there is pony tails or one of them
28          has a mustache. That doesn't make any difference.
29          Once he makes the photographs available to Porky

1 Collins, he can't change what he has laid out in
2 front of him. All these questions don't mean
3 anything. Mr. Johnson's mind set means absolutely
4 nothing. It's whether or not the photograph array
5 of pictures, I mean the array of photographs is 6 suggestive in and of itself. And is there any 7 other inquiry that the Court has to look into when
8 they are trying to suppress an identification? I
9 don't know what it is.

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA: He had a description in his 11 possession at the time that he put these 12 photographs together. One of the things that the 13 case law talks about is whether the people in this 14 display meet that description so, and whether the 15 alleged suspect meets that description. So I think
16 all these are factors to be balanced, and I think 17 these are questions which are customarily asked on 18 a regular basis at these kind of hearings.

19 BY THE COURT: I think you have done that 20 though, Mr. Lumumba. You put Mr. Collins on, and 21 he testified as to what his preliminary report was 22 to the officers as to what their description was,
23 and then this officer has testified, I guess, that 24 these are substantially the same pictures that he
25 was presented. You have gotten those facts before
26 the Court. Now it's just-- regardless of what Mr.
27 Johnson thinks about it or you think about it or 28 Mr. Horan thinks about it, it's up to me to decide
29 whether I think it is constitutionally imperfect.

1                   So I think you have established what you are
2                   trying to establish as far as getting it before the 3                   Court. And I think you did that with Mr. Collins,
4                   and I think you have done it with Mr. Johnson.

5                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

6                   BY THE COURT: I don't want to limit you, but 7                   you have given me the information I need, I think.

8                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. Well, can I ask just a
9                   couple of other questions, and I will move on?

10                  BY THE COURT: Yes, sir. If you will keep it
11                  to two.

12                  BY MR. LUMUMBA:

13                  Q. How many people in this photo display appear to be 14                  over 30?

15                  A. I couldn't answer that. I couldn't-- by looking at 16                  that, I can't tell you their age.

17                  Q. Can you tell me--

18                  A. I would say that they are close to the same age, 19                  but I can't tell you how old they are by looking at those 20                  pictures.

21                  Q. Who appears to be the oldest person in this 22                  display?

23                  A. (Pause) I can't; I would just be guessing, and I'm 24                  not qualified to do that.

25                  Q. I just want you to understand the question.

26                  A. I understood your question.

27                  BY MR. EVANS: I think that is two questions,
28                  Your Honor.

29                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, no. You don't understand

1                   the question.

2           Q.    I'm not asking you who is the oldest.  I am asking
3 you who appears to be oldest based upon this display?

4           A.    Based on that display, I don't think I can make
5 that determination.

6           Q.    Okay, well, let's go to another question.  Do you
7 have information on the persons that you put in that
8 display?  In other words, do you know their names and other
9 information on them, about their vital statistics?

10          A.    I don't have any names or vital statistics on those 11 individuals, but I didn't put them in that display.

12          Q.    Who put them there?

13          A.    That was prepared by the Highway Patrol.

14          Q.    And do they have that information?

15          A.    I couldn't answer that question.

16          Q.    And who prepared it?

17          A.    I couldn't answer that question.  I know that Mr.
18 Miller had that in his possession.

19          Q.    Okay.  Did you show Mr. Collins a picture of Mr.
20 Doyle Simpson?

21          A.    When?

22          Q.    On the day--

23          A.    --initially?  When this lineup, a similar, the 24 original lineup was shown to Mr. Collins?  Is that what you
25 are saying?

26          Q.    On the same day that you showed these pictures to 27 him which are in Exhibit 2, did you show him a picture of Mr.
28 Collins [sic]?

29          A.    A picture of Mr. Collins?

1 Q. Or a lineup with Mr. Collins. I'm sorry--

2 A. --I don't think Mr.--

3 Q. A lineup with Mr. Doyle Simpson in it?

4 A. No.

5 Q. You never showed him a lineup with Mr. Doyle
6 Simpson in it?

7 A. I did not.

8 Q. I am showing you a sheet of paper and asking you if 9 you can identify it?

10 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, could it be marked
11 for identification purposes, please?

12 BY THE COURT: Yeah, let's do that.

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I will have to copy this too
14 later on.

15 (HANDWRITTEN NOTES CONCERNING INTERVIEW WITH 16 MR. COLLINS WERE MARKED AS DEFENDANT'S EXHIBIT D-3
17 FOR IDENTIFICATION TO THE MOTION TO SUPPRESS 18 IDENTIFICATION.)

19 (Exhibit D-3 ident. handed to the witness.)

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

21 Q. Do you recognize that exhibit which now is marked
22 as number 3?

23 A. I do.

24 Q. What is that?

25 A. This is some original notes that I had that I made
26 on the date that Mr. Collins was shown a picture lineup.
27 This is back on 8/24 of '96 looks like it is dated.

28 Q. Was he shown a lineup of Mr. Doyle Simpson?

29 A. Yes.

1 Q. And was the pictures that he was shown of Doyle
2 Simpson, were they in black and white or color?

3 A. I believe they were color like these.

4 Q. When is the last time you saw a copy of those
5 pictures?

6 A. I can't recall really. I don't remember exactly.

7 Q. Did you take a copy of those pictures with you when 8 you went over to Porky Collins' house?

9 A. No, I didn't.

10 Q. Did you take a copy of any other pictures with you?

11 A. No.

12 Q. When you went over to Porky Collins' house?

13 A. No.

14 Q. Is it true that in your experience in setting up a 15 lineup, do you attempt to get people in the lineup with 16 similar characteristics?

17 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, this has been 18 covered several times. I object.

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I haven't asked him that
20 question.

21 BY THE COURT: What question was it? State
22 that question again.

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

24 Q. Is it true that in setting up a lineup, that you
25 attempt to get people in it with similar characteristics?

26 BY THE COURT: But I have held that that is 27 not relevant. The question is whether or not that 28 was done in this case.

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: So you are saying it is not

1                   relevant to this hearing?

2                   BY THE COURT: Well, that is all that is
3                   before me is at this hearing; yes, sir. Yeah, I'm 4                   not excluding it down the road.

5                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

7                   Q. Okay, now when you brought-- or did you tape, did
8                   you audio tape or videotape Mr. Collins when you talked to 9                   him on the day that he looked at these photographs?

10                  A. On that day, 8-24-96?

11                  Q. Yeah.

12                  A. I don't believe I did. Well, wait a minute. I 13                  will have to look at the notes on that. 8-24-96; probably 14                  so.

15                  Q. What notes do you need to look at? I will be glad 16                  to show you.

17                  A. Well, in the statements that you should have a 18                  copy; if I took a statement from Porky Collins, it will be 19                  dated and timed.

20                  Q. Did you tape him more than once or just once?

21                  A. Repeat that.

22                  Q. Did you tape Mr. Collins more than once or just 23                  once in all the times that you talked to him?

24                  A. I have taped him twice.

25                                (STATEMENT OF PORKY COLLINS WAS MARKED AS 26                                DEFENDANT'S EXHIBIT D-4 FOR IDENTIFICATION TO THE 27                                MOTION TO SUPPRESS IDENTIFICATION.)

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

29                  Q. Do you recognize what has been marked as Exhibit

1 number 4?

2 A. I do.

3 Q. What is that?

4 A. It's a statement of Porky Collins made March 10,
5 '97.

6 Q. Was that taped?

7 A. Yes, it was.

8 Q. And March 10th, '97 is not the date he was shown
9 the pictures; right? He was shown the pictures on 8-24-96;
10 is that right?

11 A. 8-24-96.

12 Q. Right.

13 A. So now--

14 Q. Now do you have any other statement of Porky
15 Collins which is taped other than that statement?

16 A. Yeah, on 8-24-96. I think there may be a--

17 Q. You do?

18 A. I'm not sure. I think maybe there was one.

19 Q. Well, let me ask you this. Did you see a copy of a 20 subpoena when you came here to testify, before coming here to 21 testify?

22 A. No, I didn't look at it, but I knew you had one.

23 Q. You never looked at it?

24 A. Yeah.

25 Q. You never looked at it?

26 A. No, I never looked at it.

27 Q. So you never read here where it says to bring all
28 information related to procedures that were used by Porky
29 Collins to identify Flowers and Doyle Simpson, the photo

1 lineup?

2 A. No, I didn't read that, but I am sure it is there.

3 Q. Okay. Well, how did you know about it?

4 A. One of the girls in the office told me that it was 5 sent in there.

6 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, for the record, Mr.
7 Johnson was not served a copy of that, but out of 8 courtesy to the Court, we brought statements. But 9 Mr. Johnson was never served a copy of that.

10 BY THE COURT: Well, I assume the question is 11 was there a transcript of the second tape.

12 BY MR. EVANS: We only know of one tape that 13 was taken, Your Honor. And we have the tapes and 14 the copies here as we have sat down on two 15 different occasions--

16 BY THE COURT: --I understand all that.

17 BY MR. EVANS: --and gone over with opposing 18 counsel.

19 BY THE COURT: But as far as you know, there
20 was just this March.

21 BY MR. EVANS: Just one is the only one that 22 we are familiar with.

23 BY THE COURT: Okay.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, I certainly have never 25 seen another-- I have never seen a copy of any tape
26 other than that one.

27 BY MR. JOHNSON:

28 A. I can see here that the information that you were 29 asking about is in this statement.

1 Q. All right. Well, do you have a tape-- that was
2 taped in '97; right?

3 A. March 10, '97. Yes.

4 Q. Do you have a tape or was there a tape made of 8-24
5 of '96?

6 A. If it was, you know-- it would be, you would have
7 it if there was such a tape. I made notes here, and that may 8 be what I am referring to here, of Wayne Miller was present.
9 I made these notes. I went back and asked him to make a
10 statement in regard to the overall interest of the case, and 11 that was the purpose of this tape.

12 Q. And that was done in '97?

13 A. It was.

14 Q. So you never taped him in '96; is that right?

15 A. Apparently not.

16 Q. You talked to Mr. Collins on several occasions
17 prior to August of '96 or prior to the day that you showed 18 him the photographs; is that correct?

19 A. Repeat your question.

20 Q. Is it not a fact that you talked to Mr. Collins on 21 several occasions prior to the time that you showed him the 22 photograph?

23 A. Sure.

24 Q. All right. And when you talked to him on those 25 occasions, did you ever tape anything that he said about this
26 case?

27 A. No.

28 Q. And now when you, when he came in -- where was he 29 at when you showed him the photographs on August the 24th of 1 '96?

2 A. Inside the DA's office in the Police Department of 3 Winona, Mississippi.

4 Q. Inside of the DA's office?

5 A. Uh-hum.

6 Q. And the Police Department?

7 A. That's right.

8 Q. Is that two different places or the same place?

9 A. The same.

10 Q. All right. Did he come down on his own, or did you
11 go get him?

12 A. I don't remember that.

13 Q. How did he get down there? Did you call him, or 14 did he-- somebody else call him?

15 A. I don't know who called him. I may have called
16 him.

17 Q. So you talked to him?

18 A. I did talk to him on that day, yes.

19 Q. Before he came?

20 A. I don't know about that.

21 Q. Who notified him that you wanted him to be there?

22 A. I don't remember that.

23 Q. You don't know?

24 A. Uh-uh.

25 Q. Do you recall any conversations that you had with 26 him before he saw the photographs?

27 A. No.

28 Q. Did you indicate to him at some point that you
29 wanted him to look at the photographs in order to determine,

1 in order to see if he could pick out the person, in order
2 that he could pick out the person who committed this crime?

3 A. Just before he looked at the pictures, yes.

4 Q. So you told him to see if he could look at the 5 photograph and pick out the person who committed this crime;
6 right?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And you indicated that there were a number of 9 people in the photographs and to look at all of them; is that
10 right?

11 A. Sure.

12 Q. Thank you.

13 (Pause while Mr. Lumumba confers with Mr.
14 Freelon.)

15 Q. Did you, did you tell him at any time prior to 16 showing him the photographs that you had a suspect?

17 A. No. That wasn't discussed with him.

18 Q. Was it discussed-- who was it discussed with?

19 A. I think I can clarify that with this statement that 20 is over in the back of that statement.

21 Q. No. I am asking you.

22 A. All right, ask me.

23 Q. Who was the fact that you had a suspect discussed
24 with? Was it discussed with any civilian witness?

25 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, that is not
26 relevant who he discussed with other than Porky
27 Collins. He is the one who looked at the photo
28 lineup, and whether he talked with me or other
29 investigators or anybody else about who was a

1                   suspect is not relevant to this Motion.

2                   BY THE COURT: It's not relevant unless he
3                   made some suggestion that made Porky Collins make 4                   that identification.

5                   BY THE WITNESS:

6                   A.    There was no suggestion of anything to make him
7                   make that selection, no.

8                   Q.    There were other police officers in the room at the 9                   time; is that right?

10                  A.    No.   Well, Wayne Miller with the Highway Patrol was 11                  present.

12                  Q.    How about Mr. Matthews?

13                  A.    I don't believe he was there.

14                  Q.    Okay. Did have you a discussion with Mr. Miller
15                  about having a suspect?

16                         BY MR. EVANS: I object unless he specifies
17                         whether he is talking about in the presence of Mr.
18                         Collins.

19                         BY THE COURT: Well, yeah. You need to lay 20                         that predicate.

21                  BY MR. LUMUMBA:

22                  Q.    Did you have any discussion with Mr. Miller in the 23                  presence of Mr. Collins?

24                  A.    No.

25                  Q.    Pardon?

26                  A.    No.

27                  Q.    Did you hear Mr. Miller say anything to Mr. Collins
28                  in your presence?

29                  A.    No.

1 Q. Didn't say anything to him at all?

2 A. Not about Curtis Flowers being a suspect, no.

3 Q. I'm not asking you about Curtis Flowers being a
4 suspect. Did he say anything to him-- well, first of all,
5 did he say anything to him at all at the time of the photo
6 display? Mr. Miller.

7 A. The only conversation was made with Porky was to 8 ask him to tell us what he knew, and then we asked him to 9 look at a photo lineup and see if he could identify the man
10 that he saw in front of Tardy Furniture that morning.

11 Q. To see if he could identify the man he saw in front
12 of Tardy Furniture? Is that what you said?

13 A. We asked him that, yes.

14 Q. Okay. The man?

15 A. (Witness nods his head.)

16 Q. Okay. You have got to say yes or no.

17 BY MR. EVANS: What was the comment or 18 question, Your Honor? I didn't hear it.

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, he has to say yes or 20 no.

21 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I didn't hear the 22 question or comment that was made.

23 BY THE COURT: Well, the question--

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: It was a question.

25 BY THE COURT: It was, and I have forgotten.
26 Go ahead.

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

28 Q. The question is you asked him to identify the man
29 that he saw in front of the store; right?

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. Okay. Now you did not show Porky Collins any
3 photographs prior on any of the dates that you talked to him
4 prior to 8-24-96; was that right?

5 A. That's correct.

6 Q. Now you are aware, weren't you, that one of the 7 things that is important to identification is how soon the 8 person sees the lineup after the incident; right? You
9 understand that is important?

10 A. I understand that can be a factor, yes.

11 Q. And the longer time it takes, the more chance that 12 they can make a mistake; isn't that correct?

13 A. I think that would depend on the individual and--

14 Q. Well, I know, but you don't, you don't do your work
15 based upon individuals? You--

16 BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, this is not
17 relevant.

18 BY THE COURT: That is a jury question that 19 you are asking for.

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

21 Q. When you talked with Porky Collins on 7-16-96?

22 BY MR. HORAN: Is that an exhibit? Is that 23 marked?

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No. Do you want to mark
25 it?

26 (NOTES CONCERNING PORKY COLLINS' STATEMENT
27 WRITTEN ON 7/16/96 WERE MARKED AS DEFENDANT'S
28 EXHIBIT D-5 TO THE MOTION TO SUPPRESS
29 IDENTIFICATION.)

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

2 Q. I am showing you D-5. Tell us what that is.

3 A. The basic note I made on the day of the murders,
4 July the 17th-- 16th, '96.

5 Q. Do those notes concern a conversation with someone?

6 A. Yeah, I guess they do, yeah; Porky Collins.

7 Q. Right. And does it indicate whether or not you
8 showed him a photograph display on that day?

9 A. No, it does not.

10 Q. When did the state police become involved in the
11 case?

12 A. Almost immediately.

13 Q. And when is the first time you asked them to make
14 up a photo spread for Porky Collins?

15 A. We worked jointly involved in this investigation,
16 and I don't know that I particularly asked him to do that,
17 but it was discussed and Mr. Miller furnished one.

18 Q. Do you remember when it was first discussed about a
19 photo spread?

20 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, is that relevant to 21 anything as far as Mr. Collins' identification?
22 When they discussed when they wanted the photo
23 lineup?

24 BY THE COURT: It's really not. Let's move
25 on. I think we have pretty well covered this 26 subject with both of these witnesses.

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: All right. I don't have any
28 further questions.

29 BY THE COURT: How long are you going to be,

1 Mr. Evans?

2 BY MR. EVANS: Brief.

3 BY THE COURT: Okay. I asked Mr. Freelon
4 that, and I didn't get a straight answer.

5 BY MR. EVANS: Of course, if the Court would 6 like to take a break--

7 BY THE COURT: --I'm not going to ask him to 8 estimate time any more.

9 BY MR. EVANS: If the Court would like to take 10 a break, I am definitely ready for one.

11 BY THE COURT: Okay, let's take about ten
12 minutes.

13 (FOLLOWING THE AFTERNOON RECESS ON 1/6/99,
14 PROCEEDINGS CONTINUED IN OPEN COURT WITH THE COURT, 15 ALL COUNSEL, AND THE DEFENDANT PRESENT AND WITH MR.
16 JOHN JOHNSON STILL ON THE STAND:)

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, can I ask the witness
18 a couple of short questions?

19 BY THE COURT: Okay. All right, make it two;
20 okay?

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: All right.

22 CONTINUED DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

23 Q. One question is when you went to visit Mr. Porky
24 Collins a couple of days ago as you said, were you by 25 yourself, or was anyone else with you?

26 A. I was by myself.

27 Q. Focusing on Exhibit 5--

28 A. Do what now?

29 Q. Focusing on Exhibit 5, pointing you to the

1 description that was given by Mr. Collins--

2 BY MR. EVANS: I can't hear, Your Honor.

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I'm sorry.

4 BY THE COURT: I think that is as loud as he
5 can talk. I think he said, "Focusing on Exhibit
6 5," and in that about the description that Mr.
7 Collins gave to, I assume, Mr. Johnson; is that
8 right?

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Right. Right.

10 BY THE COURT: Okay.

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

12 Q. Did you write down precisely the description that 13 Mr. Collins gave you?

14 A. No, I don't think it was precise, but I wrote down
15 roughly what he told me.

16 Q. What was the difference?

17 A. He indicated one man was taller than the other. He 18 indicated that-- you know, that is basically all he told us
19 that day.

20 Q. Did he tell you, did he tell you both men had 21 medium, both were black men and they had medium complexions?

22 A. That is true. I wrote that down.

23 Q. And did he say that precisely?

24 A. Yes, he said that.

25 BY THE COURT: Can I see that? Is that in
26 evidence?

27 BY MR. HORAN: Identified.

28 BY THE COURT: I move to admit them.

29 BY THE WITNESS: This was a--

1                   BY THE COURT: --Wait a minute, Mr. Johnson.

2                   BY THE WITNESS: I'm sorry.

3                   BY MR. EVANS: I don't even know what it is,
4                   Your Honor.

5                   BY THE COURT: It's his notes.

6                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: I would move to admit all the 7                   exhibits that I marked. Those would be Exhibits 1
8                   through 5.

9                   BY THE COURT: Some of them are already in.
10                  Some of them are just marked for identification.

11                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Right. I would move to admit
12                  all of them for the purposes of this hearing, 1
13                  through 5.

14                  BY MR. EVANS: I don't have any objection to 15                  this one. I want to see which other ones you are 16                  talking about.

17                  BY THE COURT: Linda, hand me that one that he 18                  put on the table.

19                  (Exhibit D-5 handed to the Court.)

20                  BY THE COURT: Okay.

21                  BY MR. EVANS: All right, so we are talking 22                  about-- what number did you have?

23                  BY THE COURT: It's back down there. Those 24                  two copies are already admitted. The copies of the 25                  photographs are already admitted. Everything else
26                  is admitted for identification, I think.

27                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can I make a request?

28                  BY THE COURT: Uh-hum.

29                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Run off a copy of this.

1                   BY THE COURT: Of that one?

2                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah.

3                   BY THE COURT: Yeah. We will put--

4                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: And put that in. Is that
5 okay?

6                   BY THE COURT: Yeah, and then he can have that 7 one back.

8                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

9                   BY THE COURT: Right. That will be a good
10 deal.

11                  BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, also the back is 12 going to need to be run on this.

13                  BY THE COURT: That would be okay.

14                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: I would like to substitute
15 this or make this the exhibit.

16                  BY MR. EVANS: I don't have any objection to
17 that.

18                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: 2A, because we talked about 19 both of them. It would be kind of difficult.

20                  BY THE COURT: Okay. Will somebody go make me
21 a copy of that real quick? Let's get that done.

22                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Do you want me to do it now?

23                  BY THE COURT: If you don't mind.

24                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. Fine.

25                  (After Counsel returned from making a copy,
26 Mr. Horan looked at the copy and determined that 27 the back of it was turned wrong and needed to be 28 restapled.)

29                  BY MR. EVANS: Is the copy on the back of it?

1 BY MR. HORAN: I turned it around. Let me
2 see. That is wrong.

3 BY MR. EVANS: That is not right. Are we just 4 going to swap and put it on the correct exhibit
5 numbers, or are we going to redo the numbers?

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Maybe we can just put them
7 together as a composite Exhibit 2.

8 BY THE COURT: That will work.

9 BY MR. EVANS: And that exhibit is already in 10 evidence; is that right?

11 BY THE COURT: This?

12 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

13 BY THE COURT: It hasn't been, but he is 14 asking that it be admitted and I--

15 BY MR. EVANS: No objection. No objection to 16 D-1 being in evidence. No objection to D-4 being 17 in evidence. No objection to D-3 being in 18 evidence.

19 BY THE COURT: And they are all marked now,
20 aren't they? Linda, have you marked them all?

21 BY THE COURT REPORTER: Not those.

22 (WHEREUPON, THE NOTES CONCERNING CHARLES
23 "PORKY" COLLINS PREVIOUSLY MARKED AS DEFENDANT'S
24 EXHIBIT D-3, THE STATEMENT OF PORKY COLLINS
25 PREVIOUSLY MARKED AS DEFENDANT'S EXHIBIT D-4, AND 26 THE NOTES MADE ON 7/16/96 CONCERNING MR. COLLINS'
27 STATEMENT MARKED AS EXHIBIT D-5 WHICH WERE EACH
28 PREVIOUSLY MARKED FOR IDENTIFICATION TO THIS MOTION
29 WERE NOW RECEIVED IN EVIDENCE. THE NEW COPY OF THE

1 PHOTO LINEUP THAT WAS JUST RUN OFF WAS ATTACHED TO 2 DEFENDANT'S EXHIBIT D-2 MAKING IT A COMPOSITE
3 EXHIBIT D-2.)

4 BY THE COURT: Mr. Lumumba, are you through?

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes.

6 CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. EVANS: (SPECIFIED BY THE COURT AS 7 NOT ABLE TO ASK LEADING QUESTIONS).

8 Q. Mr. Johnson, on the day that these murders occurred
9 in Winona, I believe Mr. Collins came to law enforcement
10 officials and volunteered that he had seen something down
11 there; is that correct?

12 A. That's correct.

13 Q. I think that initial day he said he saw the face of 14 one of the two people standing in front of the store; is that
15 right?

16 A. That's true.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can I raise an objection,
18 please? I object to the leading nature of the
19 questions.

20 BY MR. EVANS: No, this is cross-examination.

21 BY THE COURT: Oh, he would have to be
22 classified as your witness.

23 BY MR. EVANS: On cross-examination? It can't 24 be my witness on cross-examination. Cross-
25 examination is clear.

26 BY THE COURT: That's right, but he is your 27 witness, and that makes him a hostile witness-- I
28 mean--

29 BY MR. EVANS: --It doesn't matter if he is

1 hostile. All that means is that they can get, use
2 direct questioning which I did not object to.

3 BY THE COURT: You can't lead him. You are 4 going to have to not lead him.

5 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, under what rule?

6 BY THE COURT: Under the rule that he is your 7 witness, regardless of whether he is up here after 8 he testifies or not. He has got him on cross. He 9 is your witness. He is called-- he would be 10 adverse to him where he could lead him with 11 questions, but you can't.

12 BY MR. EVANS: Under that theory, he could 13 call any witness he wanted to, and I couldn't 14 cross-examine--

15 BY THE COURT: --Well, that is my ruling, so
16 just ask him a question.

17 BY MR. EVANS:

18 Q. Mr. Johnson, let's just go through it step by step
19 then. Do you remember the day that you went to Tardy
20 Furniture?

21 A. The day of the murders; yes, sir.

22 Q. Do you remember approximately what time that day
23 you saw Charles "Porky" Collins?

24 A. I don't remember the exact time, but I would say,
25 I'm going to guess at approximately 12:30. It would have 26 been-- I don't remember the exact time.

27 Q. Do you remember basically what he said at that
28 time?

29 A. Basically, that he had seen two individuals in the

1 median area of Front Street, the median in front of Tardy
2 Furniture store; that one of them he indicated had rounded
3 features, his face. He estimated his height at 5 foot 10, I
4 think. He indicated they were standing near a car, but one
5 of the individuals had his head turned to him, and he didn't 6 get a good identification on him. He said he may could 7 identify one of the individuals.

8 Q. And what was that based on?

9 A. Just based on the description or the view that he
10 got of that person in front of Tardy's that morning.

11 Q. All right. We have seen two different photo line-
12 ups that were shown; is that correct?

13 A. Yes, sir.

14 Q. All right. And in evidence is the statement that 15 you took from Mr. Collins; is that correct?

16 A. There is a statement in there; yes, sir. I did 17 take that.

18 Q. Let me hand it back to you, Exhibit D-4?

19 A. (Pause while witness looks at exhibit.)

20 Q. Have you had an occasion today to go back through 21 that statement?

22 A. I haven't read it in detail, but I am basically
23 familiar with it.

24 Q. On the day that the photo lineup was shown to Mr.
25 Collins, who was present?

26 A. Myself and Wayne Miller, Captain with the Highway
27 Patrol.

28 Q. Where was this lineup shown?

29 A. In the District Attorney's Office in the rear of

1 the Winona Police Department.

2 Q. Did you or what, if anything, did you or Wayne
3 Miller or anyone else do to influence Charles "Porky" Collins
4 on who to pick out in the lineup?

5 A. There wasn't any influence, conversation to ask him
6 to pick anyone out other than we asked him to see if he could
7 identify the person he saw in front of Tardy's that morning.

8 Q. And how many different photos spreads was he shown
9 that day?

10 A. Two.

11 Q. And after he had been asked to see if he could 12 identify the person he saw, in the first photo spread did he 13 identify anybody?

14 A. No.

15 Q. In the second photo spread, did he identify 16 anybody?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. I will hand you the copy that has been made of the 19 second photo spread, which is D-1. This is the color copy.
20 I will first ask you if that is substantially the same as the 21 one that was shown to him that day?

22 A. Yes.

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: May I see that, please. I
24 haven't seen it.

25 BY THE COURT: This? Yes, sir. You have seen
26 that.

27 BY MR. EVANS: If he hasn't, something is 28 wrong.

29 BY THE COURT: You have seen all of them.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: He said D-1. Maybe he meant
2 D-2.

3 BY THE COURT: Of that?

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah.

5 BY THE COURT: You can look at it, but you
6 have seen it. You are the one got it up there.

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, I'm sorry. He used--
8 what I'm saying that is confusing me, he used the 9 number D-1. For the record, that is actually D-2.
10 Remember, Judge--

11 BY THE COURT: --Well, it was Exhibit number 12 2.

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Right.

14 BY THE COURT: It was Exhibit number 2.

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, I was just correcting
16 that; I'm sorry.

17 BY MR. EVANS:

18 Q. All right, but you have seen that exhibit; is that
19 correct?

20 A. This one or one similar, yes, sir.

21 Q. All right. And the original of that exhibit, who 22 did you say prepared it?

23 A. Wayne Miller with the Highway Patrol. He furnished
24 it; I assume he prepared it.

25 Q. Are you familiar with how long it was after this 26 crime occurred before you or Mr. Miller were able to come up
27 with a photograph of the Defendant?

28 A. I don't remember the exact time, but it was, it
29 wasn't immediate. I mean it took some days to get it.

1           Q.    Okay, to your knowledge did anyone have a
2 photograph that could be used in a lineup the day of the 3 crimes?

4           A.    Not that I'm aware of.

5           Q.    In this photo spread, I would like for you to look
6 at it. As far as the parts of the body that are shown in 7 there, are any of those any different?

8           A.    I think they have the basic facial features.

9           Q.    None of them are full body shots and some head
10 shots; is that correct?

11          A.    That's correct.

12          Q.    Are all of those people used in those photographs
13 as far as it appears basically the same age?

14          A.    They look to be approximately the same age.

15          Q.    Are all those people in those photographs black
16 males?

17          A.    They are all black males, or appear to be.

18          Q.    And is there anything that points out any 19 particular person in that lineup?

20          A.    Not that, not to me.

21          Q.    Was the Defendant used as number one?

22          A.    No.

23          Q.    What number was he in that lineup?

24                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, I would have to raise 25 the same objections that were raised to my
26 questions.

27                   BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, the Court let him
28 go deep into this. I just want to go briefly in it
29 to make sure there is a clear record.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, that is my objection.

2 BY THE COURT: Okay. Your objection is
3 overruled.

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: All right.

5 BY MR. EVANS:

6 Q. What number is the Defendant?

7 A. Four.

8 Q. When the second photo lineup that included the 9 photograph of Curtis Flowers was shown to Mr. Collins, what 10 was Mr. Collins' reaction?

11 A. Can I refer to this?

12 Q. Yes, sir.

13 A. To be-- he pointed to number four and said, "I
14 think that is him. He was about my height. I am 5 foot 10.
15 Complexion is also right. I believe that's him. It looks 16 like him." And after he made the identification, I asked him
17 the question, "Do you know Curtis Flowers?" He said, "I
18 didn't know Curtis Flowers then. I don't know Curtis Flowers
19 now." And he went on to say that the man, "The picture that 20 I picked out in that lineup right there was the man that I
21 seen in front of Tardy Furniture Company that day."

22 Q. Okay, and that is in the statement that he gave 23 you; is that correct?

24 A. It is. It's recorded.

25 Q. Did you or Wayne Miller or anyone else tell him to 26 say that?

27 A. Absolutely not.

28 Q. Did anyone in any form or fashion even hint to him
29 who he should pick out in any way?

1           A.    No, sir.

2           Q.    Was there any hesitance in him when he saw the
3 second lineup in pointing to the Defendant's picture?

4           A.    No, sir.

5           Q.    You have been asked about the date on this being
6 March 10th, '97, being some time after the initial interview
7 with Mr. Collins. Is this statement substantially the same
8 as what he told you he saw happen on that day?

9           A.    It is.

10          Q.    Do you remember approximately-- now I'm not trying 11 to be exact, but approximately how long after the call came 12 in that the people were killed before Mr. Collins told you
13 what he told?

14          A.    If I could, I don't know if-- in my notes I should 15 have the time, but it would have been a short time. As soon
16 as he heard about what had happened, he came to Tardy
17 Furniture store and volunteered that information to us on the 18 chance that it would be helpful.

19          Q.    Would you say that it would be probably more or 20 less than two hours?

21          A.    I'm going to say less.

22          Q.    Now for the record on this, I want you to describe 23 the front of Tardy Furniture and the road there in front of 24 Tardy Furniture.

25          A.    Tardy Furniture was located on the south end of 26 Front Street, downtown Winona. Like most small towns, this,
27 the store fronts face the railroad track. In the middle in 28 front of the store there was a sidewalk and a small median
29 that used to have parking meters and allowed parking both

1 diagonally in front of the store and in the median on both
2 sides, and also some parking next to the railroad when it was
3 available.

4 Q. All right. Did Mr. Collins tell you in which 5 direction he was driving when he saw this person's face?

6 A. As I remember it, Mr. Collins indicated he came 7 down south Front Street, saw the individual, and turned and 8 it got his attention, and he noticed the people as he went 9 back up the street. So to exact angles, I don't know. I
10 know that one individual he did not get a good facial view,
11 but on one he did.

12 Q. All right. I show you Exhibits D-1 and D-2.

13 A. Okay.

14 Q. How many photographs are there on those two 15 exhibits?

16 A. Six each.

17 Q. For a total of twelve?

18 A. Yes, sir.

19 Q. When you talked with Mr. Collins - and I am
20 referring to both right after the crime occurred and at the 21 time that this statement was taken - what was his abilities
22 to recall?

23 A. I thought they were extremely good to detail. You
24 know, he described Ms. Rigby's flipping of the keys--

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Objection.

26 A. --her hair.

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Objection.

28 BY MR. EVANS: Wait until the Court rules.

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Objection. I believe that it

1           would be impossible for him to sit up here, even if
2           he was an expert, to say that his ability to recall
3           is good. I don't have a problem with him asking
4           what kind of detail he gave him. But that calls
5           for a conclusion which he is not competent to make.
6           First of all, it calls for a conclusion that what
7           he was telling him is actually a recall of what Mr.
8           Collins saw, and I don't think he can make that 9           conclusion. I don't have any problem with him
10          talking about what kind of detail Mr. Collins gave 11          him, so that's my objection. I don't think-- it
12          calls for an opinion which this witness is not 13          competent to make. In fact, no witness is 14          competent to make except Mr. Collins himself.

15                BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, in response, he has 16          definitely attempted to impeach Mr. Collins on his 17          ability to remember. What I am asking specifically 18          of Mr. Johnson, and he does have the ability to 19          answer this in his opinion; he talked with the 20          witness very briefly after the crime was committed,
21          within two hours. He talked with him again and 22          took a statement on March 10th, 1997, and if these 23          facts that he gave on those two occasions are the 24          same, then his ability to recall is very good. And 25          that's what I am asking.

26                BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well--

27                BY THE COURT: Well, I am ready to rule on 28          this. I take that to be a lay opinion which he is 29          entitled to make, and he can give his opinion.

1 BY MR. EVANS: All right.

2 BY THE WITNESS:

3 A. I think he was very accurate and very descriptive.

4 Q. And Mr. Johnson, to make my question a little
5 broader, I have asked you already about whether anyone
6 attempted to influence Mr. Collins in the photo lineup. Mr.
7 Collins has testified in the previous trial too; is that
8 correct?

9 A. He has.

10 Q. And he has testified here today too; is that right?

11 A. That's correct.

12 Q. Has anybody ever tried to tell him who committed 13 this crime?

14 A. Absolutely not.

15 Q. Has anybody ever tried to tell him what person to 16 identify?

17 A. No.

18 BY MR. EVANS: One moment, Your Honor. That's 19 all, Your Honor.

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I just have a couple.

21 REDIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

22 Q. Mr. Johnson, if I understood it correctly, that 23 when you saw Mr. Collins at this time that you said his 24 recall was perfect. You did take down--

25 A. I don't--

26 Q. I'm sorry. You are shaking your head no. I don't 27 want to say anything that is incorrect?

28 A. Go ahead, sir.

29 Q. What you said, you were impressed by his ability to

1 recall?

2 A. I was.

3 Q. Now at the time that you were talking to them, you
4 were also taking down notes of what he was saying?

5 A. I was.

6 Q. And you are a trained police officer, trained in 7 the art of taking notes of what witnesses tell you?

8 A. True.

9 Q. And you know that it's important when you are a
10 police officer to take down as closely as possible precisely
11 what they tell you when they tell it to you; right?

12 A. It's important; yes, sir.

13 Q. And the reason it's important-- well, first of all,
14 this was a-- this case you were investigating couldn't be any 15 more serious. Not only was it a case that you were 16 investigating and taking down notes on witnesses, but it was 17 a capital murder case; right? Well, it was a murder case.
18 Somebody had been killed; right?

19 A. Four people, yes.

20 Q. Yes. So this was an extremely important case that 21 you were investigating; right?

22 A. Sure.

23 Q. And as an officer, you have been trained that it is 24 extremely important to take down what witnesses tell you
25 about the description of the person who could have been 26 involved with the crime; right?

27 A. Sure.

28 Q. And so if the witness tells you something about 29 that person, you write it down; right?

1 A. Not all the time.

2 Q. Well, let me understand this. If a witness tells--
3 you sometimes tape it; right?

4 A. Sometimes.

5 Q. Did you tape it on 7-16-96?

6 A. No.

7 Q. You sometimes take a videotape?

8 A. Sometimes.

9 Q. Did you take a videotape on 7-16-96?

10 A. No.

11 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, this is improper
12 redirect.

13 BY THE COURT: It really is. It is improper
14 redirect.

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

17 Q. You were asked about, you were asked about a
18 picture of Mr. -- you were asked about a picture of Mr.
19 Flowers; is that correct, by your counsel when he stood up
20 here?

21 A. There has been a lot of questions about pictures.
22 I'm not for sure which one you are talking about.

23 Q. Okay. Well, let's venture back and I'm going to 24 try to ask you a proper question. The Court can tell me if 25 I'm wrong. You have recorded a description because you just 26 were telling the Court about the recall of Mr. Collins and 27 how good it was in your opinion; right?

28 A. That's true.

29 Q. Usually when a witness has good recall, then one of

1 the things that you judge that by is whether they can recall
2 precisely the details of the description of the person they 3 saw; right?

4 A. That can be a judge--

5 BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, again, that is 6 improper redirect.

7 BY THE COURT: No, it's not. You asked him
8 specifically that question.

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

10 Q. Okay. Isn't that true?

11 A. That can be a judgment of it.

12 Q. Yeah, well, in fact, as far as a description of a
13 person who possibly committed the crime, at that time you
14 didn't know who had committed the crime; right?

15 A. That's correct.

16 Q. And so as a police officer, one of the most 17 important things that you take down details on is a 18 description that might lead you to apprehend a person you are 19 looking for; right?

20 A. It can be true.

21 Q. It was true in this case; right?

22 A. It could be.

23 Q. No, no, no. I mean I don't want to quibble with 24 you, but in this case weren't you trying to find out who had 25 committed this crime?

26 A. At the time this was going on, there were many 27 other things continuing to go on at the same time.

28 Q. No, I'm not asking--

29 A. --I knew Porky Collins. Do you want me to--

1 Q. No. Let me--

2 BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, may he answer the
3 question?

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Look, I just -- Judge, all I
5 am asking is to answer my question.

6 BY MR. EVANS: And he is trying to if he will
7 be quiet and let him answer it.

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I wish he would let me ask
9 the questions.

10 BY THE COURT: Okay.

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: All I want is an answer, and 12 then an explanation is fine. I haven't gotten the 13 answer yet.

14 BY THE COURT: Okay, well, ask him-- let him
15 answer it yes or no, and then he can explain it.

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

17 Q. Okay. The question is that it was very important
18 on this occasion to get as complete a description as possible
19 of the person who could have been connected to the incident;
20 is that correct?

21 A. At that time--

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, could--

23 BY THE COURT: --You have got to answer it yes
24 or no; then explain it.

25 BY THE WITNESS:

26 A. Repeat your question.

27 Q. It was important on this occasion as you sat there
28 talking to Porky Collins to get as complete a description as 29 possible of the people that he had saw and particularly, of

1 the man that he said he saw the face of, got a glimpse of?

2 A. No.

3 Q. That wasn't important?

4 A. It is always important, but it wasn't completely
5 important at that time. Can I explain my answer?

6 Q. Go ahead. Certainly, I think you can.

7 BY THE COURT: Yes, go ahead.

8 BY THE WITNESS:

9 A. Plenty of things were going on. I'm not even sure
10 all the bodies had been carried out of that building at that 11 time. And at that point because two men had been seen in 12 front of the store didn't mean that those two men had 13 committed any particular crime or any one of them. We were 14 talking to many witnesses, and people were coming in. I just 15 scratched down their names, how I could get up with them as 16 who I knew.

17 Q. I understand.

18 A. Well.

19 Q. I understand. Go ahead and finish.

20 A. I am finished.

21 Q. Okay. But I understand all that and, in fact, the 22 fact that two men were in front of the store doesn't mean
23 today that those two men committed any crime; right?

24 A. Not in itself.

25 Q. Okay. But you asked Porky Collins to describe
26 these people to you; right?

27 A. He gave us a rough description and, yes.

28 Q. And he gave you a description?

29 A. Yes.

1 Q. And you wrote it down?

2 A. Part of it.

3 Q. Now this description was given to you way back on
4 7-16-96; right?

5 A. Right.

6 Q. And you are going to tell us today three or four 7 years later that you can remember what you wrote down and 8 what you didn't write down about what he said? Is that your 9 testimony?

10 A. It's pretty obvious. I can remember it if I can
11 look at it.

12 Q. Well, let me show you. No, I am asking you can you
13 remember - and you can use this or anything else you need. I
14 am showing you Exhibit number 5. You are telling us you can 15 remember today what you wrote down and what you didn't write
16 down?

17 A. Yeah, because I have got what I wrote down.

18 Q. On this paper?

19 A. Yes, sir.

20 Q. Okay, this is-- okay, can you tell us what he 21 said? You can tell us what he said about the description
22 that you didn't-- you remember that today?

23 A. These were just my personal notes. Just my general
24 notes, yes.

25 Q. Can you remember today?

26 A. I can remember what I testified to.

27 Q. On these notes that you took--

28 A. Right.

29 Q. --the only thing it says about a description is a

1 black male, medium complexion.

2 A. It says two black males.

3 Q. That's all it says.

4 A. That's all that says, yeah.

5 Q. And that's the only description you got from him at 6 that time; isn't that correct?

7 A. No, it's not.

8 Q. Okay. Well, what other description did you get 9 from him at that time--

10 A. --Like I testified--

11 Q. --that you remember four years later?

12 A. Like I testified earlier, he described one man as 13 having rounded features in his face. Obviously, he mentioned
14 two with medium complexion. I wrote that down. He said one
15 looked a little taller than the other, and that's basically
16 all I remember about that.

17 Q. So that was that complete description that he gave 18 you about, that made you feel that he had good recall, and 19 the only thing that he told you was that the men were both 20 medium complexion, that one had rounded features, and that 21 one was a little taller than the other?

22 A. I didn't say that that in itself was the reason I
23 felt he had good recall.

24 Q. But as to the description, that's the only thing he 25 told you?

26 A. Basically, yes.

27 Q. And you remember today even though that you didn't 28 write it down four years ago, you can remember that he 29 actually told you at this time that the man had rounded

1 features?

2 A. Exactly.

3 Q. Well, rounded features, you have got space here;
4 you could have put that down here; right?

5 A. I have got space there, yeah.

6 Q. My final question is when you write a report of 7 what a witness is telling you, you don't know if the witness
8 is going to remember from the day that he tells you to months
9 or maybe years later when he is called upon to recall what he 10 told you that day. You can't say that, can you?

11 A. I don't think anybody can say that.

12 Q. And that is one of the reasons that they teach you
13 to write a good report and put it down; right?

14 A. When it is available, yes.

15 Q. And you don't really recall, or you may not know
16 when you write the report what you are going to remember?

17 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I object. This is 18 not relevant.

19 BY THE COURT: Well, yeah. I don't understand
20 the point you are trying to make. If you are 21 trying to make the point about his statement about 22 the fellow's recall, that point has been made
23 significant to the Court to understand where you
24 are going with it.

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA: All right, I will withdraw--

26 BY THE COURT: With a jury maybe you could go
27 ahead. With me you're just wasting your time.

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I will leave it alone. Let 29 me just make sure I have got all the exhibits.

1                   BY THE COURT: Okay.

2                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: I am making sure I don't
3 leave one of my copies up here. That's what I am
4 doing.

5                   BY THE COURT: Well, you might want to give 6 all the exhibits that are marked that you have got 7 up there back to the Court Reporter so she has got 8 them. Okay, thank you, Mr. Johnson. You can
9 step--

10                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: --I do have one question.
11 Let me admit to you, let me admit something from 12 this Court. This may be considered not to be 13 proper redirect, but it's something I forgot to 14 ask. And it is just one question, and I have no
15 objections to them standing up behind me and re-
16 asking and asking whatever they want about this 17 particular area. Let me ask the question, and then
18 the Court can decide.

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

20                  Q. The question is at any point in time did you
21 attempt, did you ask Porky if he could identify a vehicle?

22                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: That's the question. I don't 23 know if you will allow it to be asked.

24                  BY THE COURT: My response to that is it's not 25 relevant because that is not what the Motion is 26 about.

27                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: All right.

28                  BY THE COURT: All right, Mr. Johnson, thank 29 you. You can go outside. Who will you have next?

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Mr. Miller.

2 BY THE COURT: Would you send Mr. Miller in,
3 please, sir.

4 BY THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

5 MR. JOHN JOHNSON LEFT THE COURTROOM.

6 WAYNE MILLER,

7 upon being called to testify as a witness by the Defendant on
8 the Motion to Suppress Identification, having first been duly
9 sworn, testified as follows, to-wit:

10 BY THE COURT: State your name for the record.

11 BY THE WITNESS: Horace Wayne Miller.

12 M-I-L-L-E-R.

13 DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

14 Q. Good afternoon, Mr. Miller.

15 A. How do you do, sir.

16 Q. Quite possibly you won't be able to hear everything
17 I say. If you can't hear something, please just ask me to 18 repeat it.

19 A. All right.

20 Q. Okay. You work, I take it, for the state police?

21 A. I am an investigator with the Mississippi Highway
22 Patrol; that's correct.

23 Q. Okay, and you were working in that capacity back in 24 July of 1996?

25 A. That is correct.

26 Q. In fact, how long have you been working in that 27 capacity?

28 A. At the investigative level, I have been working for 29 12 years.

1 Q. Okay.

2 A. For the Mississippi Highway Patrol, I have been 3 working 32 years.

4 Q. Did there come a time when you were called in to 5 help with the investigation of this case, this case being 6 State versus Curtis Flowers?

7 A. Yes, I was.

8 Q. Okay, this was an investigation of some deaths that 9 occurred at Tardy Furniture store?

10 A. That is correct.

11 Q. And when was it that you were called in?

12 A. I probably received the call something around 11
13 o'clock on the 16th of July of '96.

14 Q. Did you become involved immediately?

15 A. Yes. I did become involved in that investigation
16 at that time.

17 Q. Did you have a chance on that day to speak with a
18 gentleman by the name of Collins, sometimes called Porky
19 Collins--

20 A. --I did not myself.

21 Q. You never saw him that day?

22 A. I did not talk to him that day.

23 Q. Okay. Did you see him at all, if you know?

24 A. I probably did see him because I know Mr. Collins
25 and I did probably see him, and I knew who he was.

26 Q. How do you know Mr. Collins?

27 A. Just, I have been in and out of Winona, you know.
28 I am originally from Winona.

29 Q. Is he a friend of yours?

1 A. No, you know, just an acquaintance.

2 Q. Okay.

3 A. Not an enemy, not a friend; just I know him.

4 Q. Okay. Now you had-- did you talk to-- first of 5 all, I'm going to jump ahead a little bit and then go back
6 just a step. At some point you showed him some pictures; is
7 that correct?

8 A. I did, the 24th day of March.

9 Q. The 24th of March?

10 A. I'm sorry. Let me correct that. 24th of August,
11 I'm sorry. 24th of August.

12 Q. Now Investigator Miller, would it be safe to say
13 that the reason you remember that is because prior to coming
14 to testify, you had a chance to look at a report to see--

15 A. I looked over the reports to verify the date and 16 all of that.

17 Q. And one of the reports referred actually to 18 something that happened in March of '97; right? That was 19 when you took a statement from him?

20 A. I was not present at that, no.

21 Q. But in any event, in reviewing your reports, you
22 realized it was on the 24th--

23 A. Of August, right.

24 Q. --of August that you showed some pictures?

25 A. That is correct.

26 Q. Now who was present besides yourself at the showing
27 of these pictures?

28 A. District Attorney Investigator John Johnson and Mr.
29 Collins.

1 Q. Okay. And where did you see Mr. Collins at?

2 A. At the Winona Police Department.

3 Q. Was he there when you arrived, or did he come after 4 your arrival, if you remember?

5 A. I can't remember. I don't know whether he was 6 already there or not. I do not know.

7 Q. Did you have any conversation with him? Let me
8 tell you what my question is directed to.

9 A. All right, sir.

10 Q. Normally - and you correct me if I am wrong -
11 normally when you show a witness any kind of photographic
12 display or live lineup, somebody has got to make contact
13 with the witness to let him know to come down and see one;
14 right?

15 A. Right.

16 Q. So this is where my inquiry is directed. Do you of 17 your own knowledge know who made contact with Mr. Collins to 18 get him to come?

19 A. I did not make contact with him.

20 Q. So it would have had to have been someone else?

21 A. Right.

22 Q. Okay, and it would be safe to say you don't know
23 what him and that somebody else talked about?

24 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, that is not
25 relevant.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: The suggestion is very
27 relevant.

28 BY MR. EVANS: No, sir. He doesn't know what 29 I was doing at that time, but it has nothing to do

1 with this case.

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, that is--

3 BY MR. EVANS: --The only thing that is 4 relevant is his knowledge about this case.

5 BY THE COURT: It's really not. His knowledge
6 about this lineup and all, anything that would
7 suggest that something had been suggested to Porky
8 Collins.

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: All right. Now, so you
10 sustained the objection?

11 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

14 Q. Okay, now so was Mr. Collins in the presence of the 15 other officer you mentioned, Mr. Johnson, at the time you
16 first saw him on the 24th of August?

17 A. I don't recall if I arrived before Mr. Collins or 18 he came in later. I don't know.

19 Q. Okay, I see. Now you do recall that you had 20 gathered some pictures to show him a display?

21 A. That is correct.

22 Q. Do you also recall-- let me back up a little bit.
23 Did you talk to Mr., did you talk to Mr. Flowers on the 16th
24 of July of 1996?

25 A. Yes. I was-- yes, I did.

26 Q. Who else was present at that discussion?

27 A. Investigator Matthews.

28 Q. Would it be safe to say - I am asking this for 29 purposes of this hearing - that he was a suspect almost

1 immediately?

2 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, that is not
3 relevant.

4 BY THE COURT: Well, it might be. It might
5 be. I will let it in.

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

7 Q. Isn't that true?

8 A. Mr. Flowers was developed as a suspect very soon
9 into the investigation. He was.

10 Q. Would it have been safe to say, if you remember,
11 that actually on the very first day?

12 A. I wouldn't say the very first day, no.

13 Q. Okay, do you remember how long it was?

14 A. The more things that started developing, the more,
15 more things that caused him to become a suspect.

16 Q. Okay, well, so you can't give me a day?

17 A. I can't give you a date that it actually, you know,
18 that he was the main suspect.

19 Q. Would it have been within the first week or two?

20 A. Pretty much so.

21 Q. And it would be safe to say when you talked to him
22 on the 16th, you allegedly read him his rights; right?

23 A. That is correct.

24 Q. And you had him sign it?

25 A. He was read his rights, and he did sign.

26 Q. Which is something that you often do for suspects?

27 A. That is correct.

28 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, that has nothing to 29 do with--

1                   BY THE COURT: --Let's move on from this
2                   point.

3                   BY MR. EVANS: --this motion.

4                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

6           Q.     Now let me ask you this. Do you recall, where was 7 Mr. Collins-- not Mr. Collins; I'm sorry, but Mr. Flowers at 8 when you saw him on the 16th?

9                   BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, what relevance does 10                  that have to whether or not the lineup is 11                  suggestive in any way?

12                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: I am leading directly to 13                  questions about pictures.

14                  BY MR. HORAN: Ask him whether or not he took 15                  a photograph on that particular day, Your Honor.
16                  That is the only relevant question.

17                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: I am the examiner here. I
18                  can ask questions--

19                  BY MR. EVANS: --only if they are relevant.

20                  BY THE COURT: I will let you ask it. Go
21                  ahead.

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

23           Q.     Okay, go ahead.

24           A.     Ask the question again.

25           Q.     Where was Mr. Flowers when you saw him on the 16th?

26           A.     There at Greenwood-- I'm sorry. There at the 27 Winona Police Department.

28           Q.     Did you ever see Mr. Collins on that day or shortly
29           thereafter in Carroll County?

1           A.    No, I did not.

2           Q.    Okay.  Are you aware of whether or not a picture
3 was taken of Mr.?

4                   BY THE COURT:  Mr. who?

5                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  I'm sorry, Mr. Flowers.

6           BY THE WITNESS:

7           A.    There was probably some photographs taken of him
8 that day or the next day, and I don't know exactly which day.

9           Q.    Either the 16th or the 17th?

10          A.    Or maybe a day after that.  I don't really know
11 exactly, but within those first two or three days.

12          Q.    Early in the investigation?

13          A.    Right.

14          Q.    Were they taken by you or were they taken by the 15 people in Montgomery County, if you know?

16          A.    I did not take the picture.

17          Q.    Do you know what department took them?

18          A.    I can't answer that.

19          Q.    Did you at some point become in possession of that 20 picture?

21          A.    Right; I did.

22          Q.    And--

23          A.    I would say that Investigator Matthews took that 24 photograph.

25          Q.    I see.

26          A.    Or some photographs.

27          Q.    Was this a picture taken on, I assume a 13
28 millimeter camera.  Was it a 13 millimeter camera?

29          A.    I can't answer that.

1 Q. But it was a camera?

2 A. It was a camera.

3 Q. Did the pictures have to be developed or were the
4 pictures--

5 BY MR. HORAN: --Your Honor. We need to know
6 whether or not this is a photograph that they
7 took. That is the only relevant question that we 8 have here. Whether or not they were developed or 9 not doesn't really--

10 BY THE COURT: --If it's the photograph in the 11 lineup, it has got relevance. If not, it doesn't.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, they have argued that 13 there was no picture available. It doesn't make 14 any difference whether it's the photographs in the 15 lineup or not. Their argument was--

16 BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, that has nothing
17 to do with this motion.

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Excuse me.

19 BY THE COURT: --Wait, wait. Let him finish
20 and I'm going to give you your chance.

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I know I am hoarse, so maybe
22 Counsel thinks he has some liberties.

23 BY THE COURT: No, wait a minute. Just talk
24 to me.

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, well, look, let me say
26 this. Judge, here is my position. They asked the 27 question of the previous witness-- can we approach
28 the bench on this? I don't want to bias his 29 testimony in any way. Can we approach the bench?

1                   BY THE COURT: Uh-hum.

2                   (COUNSEL APPROACHED THE BENCH BUT WENT BEHIND
3 THE BENCH TO CONFER WITH THE COURT:)

4                   BY THE COURT REPORTER: I'm not going to be 5 able to hear.

6                   BY THE COURT: She is not going to be able to 7 hear. (To the witness) Would you step just outside
8 that door? Let's do it that way.

9                   MR. WAYNE MILLER LEFT THE COURTROOM.

10                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: The question asked of a 11 previous witness, Mr. Johnson, was whether they had 12 any photographs available, or did it take them a 13 while to develop the photograph for this case. And 14 apparently and clearly that was raised to explain
15 why they got a man allegedly saying on the 16th of 16 July that he may be able to identify a person, and 17 they don't show him a lineup until a month later
18 and so, which has a lot to do according to the case
19 law with the reliability of the identification.
20 The question that was asked to Mr. Johnson elicited
21 response that no photograph was immediately
22 available. Now irrespective of whether or not they 23 used it, if they had one that was available, then 24 it is relevant to the inquiry. I'm not going to 25 stay on it forever, but I would just like to know
26 if they had one available. Then he can explain
27 either in my questions or through his why they 28 didn't use it if they didn't. Okay. Why they used
29 another one when it took a long time to develop.

1 Do you understand what I'm saying, Judge?

2 BY THE COURT: I do, but here is the answer to
3 it is. There are different stages, of course, in 4 the trial. There is a stage where that may be 5 relevant. But that, the reliability of the 6 identification, as you know, is a jury question
7 which is not what we are here on today. It's a
8 question of whether or not there was an 9 unconstitutional suggestive lineup and whether they 10 did anything with Mr. Collins to influence him to 11 make that. And this question, those questions in 12 relation to that photograph may very well be 13 relevant at trial, but they are not relevant here
14 today for the determination I have to make.

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: All right.

16 BY THE COURT: Okay. Y'all can get him if you
17 don't mind. So the objection is sustained.

18 WITNESS RETURNS TO THE COURTROOM.

19 CONTINUING DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

20 Q. Did you at some point put a photograph display
21 together with Mr. Flowers in it?

22 A. I did.

23 Q. And did you have a number of pictures to choose 24 from?

25 A. A number of?

26 Q. A large number of photographs of people to put in 27 the display?

28 A. I had several photographs. I don't know whether it
29 would be what you would call a large sum.

1 Q. Well, about how many?

2 A. Probably 15, 20.

3 Q. Okay, and these were all black males?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. All right. Were you given any direction as to what 6 description had been provided by the witness who was going to 7 look at the display?

8 A. Had I been given any description? No, I had not at 9 that time. No.

10 Q. Okay. When you put the display together, was it
11 your effort out of what you had to get people who were as 12 close in characteristics to Mr. Flowers as possible?

13 A. Of what I had, but I was very limited in what I
14 had.

15 Q. I understand.

16 A. I was trying to stay within the same age groups
17 and...

18 Q. Okay. The pictures that you put together, they 19 have been preserved; is that correct? They have been 20 preserved. We have them?

21 A. Yes. Yes, you do.

22 Q. And I'm going to show you what Exhibit 1, copy of 23 Exhibit 2 which is in a manila folder. Do you recognize it?

24 A. Yes, I do.

25 Q. And did you or was that the photograph display that 26 was shown to him, one of them? Is that one of the ones that 27 was shown to him?

28 A. These are copies of it.

29 Q. Okay, of the one that was shown to him?

1           A.    That's correct.

2           Q.    Okay.  Do the copies look like the originals?

3           A.    As well as I can remember, and I don't have the 4 originals to go by but.

5           Q.    All right.  It's true that in that photographic
6 display one man's head--

7                   BY MR. HORAN:  --Your Honor, I'm going to 8 object to this line of questioning on the grounds
9 it's not relevant.  We have gone over this.  The 10 Court can look at these photographs, and the 11 Supreme Court can look at these photographs.  This 12 is a question of admissibility, not credibility or 13 reliability of a particular photograph.  It's only
14 whether or not these photographs are admissible.

15                  BY MR. LUMUMBA:  If a picture is in a lineup
16 where one person is distinct amongst the rest and 17 that is the suspect, that is a constitutional
18 question.

19                  BY THE COURT:  Absolutely, it is and those 20 photographs depict that so I can determine that,
21 and this line of questioning would be cumulative
22 since you have already gone into it with two other
23 witnesses.

24                  BY MR. LUMUMBA:  All right.

25           BY MR. LUMUMBA:

26           Q.    Did you maintain, do you have a record somewhere of 27 who those people are in the lineup?

28           A.    Yes.  There should be a record in the file.

29           Q.    Oh, really?  Did you supply that?

1           A.    But I don't know. I haven't seen it. I thought it
2 was with the original.

3           Q.    Where it lists the people in the lineup; right?

4                   BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I know this is out
5 of line, but I might can clear something up. I
6 think the originals at the Supreme Court have the 7 names on the back of the original pictures.

8                   BY THE COURT: Okay.

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

10           Q.    Do you have records, the records that you are 11 speaking of, do they indicate anything about the age and the 12 height and the weight of the people in the lineup?

13           A.    I can't answer that. I don't recall. I don't have 14 that before me, and I can't answer it right now.

15           Q.    Do you have such records?

16           A.    It should be with that original file.

17           Q.    If it's not, would you have a copy of it somewhere
18 else, not necessarily here but somewhere?

19           A.    It should be in some of the files that is already
20 here.

21           Q.    So that is something that would have been supplied
22 to the investigator?

23           A.    As far as I know, yes.

24           Q.    Okay, did you tell-- who talked to the witness when 25 he came to look at the photos? Was it you or was it Mr.
26 Johnson?

27           A.    I don't know what you are asking now. I'm not 28 understanding you.

29           Q.    Was there any discussion with Mr. Collins when he

1 appeared to see the photographs?

2 A. I did not discuss anything with him other than 3 produce the photographs for him to look at.

4 Q. You didn't say a word?

5 A. No. I produced those and let him mark the one and 6 initial the one that he described as, or the one that he 7 picked out.

8 Q. How did he know what to pick out?

9 A. How did he know what to pick out?

10 Q. Yeah. Anybody--

11 A. --I mean he was told that this was a photo lineup.

12 Q. Right. And he was told to look for the person?

13 A. Yeah, but I didn't tell him that. I produced the 14 photos.

15 Q. I'm sorry, but I'm just trying to understand. Did
16 somebody tell him to look for the person that he saw out
17 there that day on the 16th?

18 A. Right. But I was not that person.

19 Q. Who was that person?

20 A. I produced the photo lineup.

21 Q. Who was that person?

22 A. Mr. Johnson was present at that time.

23 Q. And he told him that in your presence?

24 A. That this was, yes. And I produced the photo
25 lineup.

26 Q. All right. And he told him that same thing with 27 two different lineups; right?

28 A. Right. There were two different lineups produced,
29 and this is not the first one. This was the second one.

1 Q. Right. And with the first one he was told that,
2 and with the second one he was told that; right?

3 A. Yes. He understood what he was looking at these 4 photographs for, to determine if any of these people in this 5 photograph resembled the person that he had seen in front of 6 Tardy's on the 16th.

7 Q. Whether they resembled the person; right?

8 A. Yes. There was--

9 Q. And he was trying to pick out the person he had 10 saw; is that right?

11 A. The one he had seen.

12 Q. And that's what he was asked to do?

13 A. That's correct.

14 Q. Now he actually picked out somebody in both 15 lineups; right?

16 A. I'm not hearing you.

17 Q. I'm sorry.

18 A. And I'm really, I am trying to hear you.

19 Q. I understand. I understand. He picked somebody
20 out in both lineups; is that right?

21 A. That's correct.

22 Q. So in both lineups he picked a person out?

23 A. Out of the first one he picked out a possibility of 24 two.

25 Q. Right, well, okay. Go ahead.

26 A. Out of the first lineup he said, well, this one
27 looks like one of the guys, one of the guys, but he wasn't 28 sure. Then he said, but this guy looks like him, and he 29 wasn't sure about that. So he didn't identify anybody of 1 being the second person.

2 Q. Well, in the second lineup, what he initially
3 said--

4 A. --Now we are referring to this as the second line-
5 up? (Holds up exhibit.) Okay.

6 Q. Yeah. What he initially said is that--

7 BY THE COURT: --Let the record reflect that
8 Exhibit 2 is the second lineup. Is that right?

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: That's correct.

10 BY THE COURT: Okay.

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

12 Q. What he initially said, what initially came out of 13 his mouth is that the person he pointed to looked like the 14 person; isn't that right?

15 A. That's, I think that's correct.

16 Q. So he didn't say it was the person. He said it
17 looked like him?

18 A. He said that looked like him, and then he initialed
19 that as saying that was the person that he had seen out
20 front.

21 Q. So he first said it just looked like him?

22 A. That's correct.

23 Q. All right. I will show you another copy of Exhibit
24 2. Do you recognize that sheet?

25 A. I do.

26 Q. You recognize--

27 A. --Well, I recognize this as being a copy--

28 Q. I understand.

29 A. --of something.

1 Q. Does it have initials on it?

2 A. Right. It has my initial and the date on it.

3 Q. Does it have the witness' initial?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Does it say that he is sure that that is the 6 person? Is that what it says there?

7 A. No. It says, this reflects his initials, the date
8 and the time.

9 Q. All right. He initialed the first lineup he saw 10 too. Didn't he?

11 A. I don't know. I don't have the first lineup.

12 Q. We are told we don't have a copy of that here.

13 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, the copy is right
14 up there. I don't know how many times we are going
15 to have to go through this.

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We don't have the back of the 17 copy.

18 BY THE COURT: Don't have--

19 BY MR. EVANS: --Yes, sir; we do. The back
20 was blank.

21 BY THE COURT: Okay, well, okay.

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We don't have the back of
23 it.

24 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, that is the back
25 right there.

26 BY THE COURT: Is that of 1?

27 BY MR. EVANS: That is the front. The front
28 has his initials and John's initials. The back is 29 blank.

1                   BY THE COURT: Is that number 1? When I say
2                   number 1, is that the first lineup?

3                   BY THE WITNESS: It is, Your Honor.

4                   BY MR. EVANS: And I do need that copy back
5                   also, Your Honor. I keep giving him my copies, and 6                   I don't have any.

7                   BY THE COURT: Well, I think you are supposed
8                   to be getting them all back, are you not?

9                   BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir, but--

10                  BY THE COURT: --Okay, then you have got them--

11                  BY MR. EVANS: --so that this one doesn't get 12                  introduced.

13                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: This is a much clearer copy.
14                  We have never received a copy this clear.

15                  BY THE COURT: Well, whatever; I don't think 16                  it says on the back, anything on the back though.
17                  If you have got no use for it, let him have it
18                  back.

19                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: All right. Can I get a copy
20                  of this?

21                  BY THE COURT: Yeah. We will see that you get 22                  a copy.

23                  BY MR. EVANS: He has got about four of them,
24                  Your Honor. How many do I have to give him?

25                  BY THE COURT: Well, if it's--

26                  BY MR. EVANS: --He has gotten that; yes, sir.

27                  BY THE COURT: That is that good?

28                  BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

29                  BY THE COURT: Okay. Then you don't have to

1           give him any more.

2           BY MR. LUMUMBA: I don't have one that good.

3           BY THE COURT: All right.

4           BY MR. LUMUMBA: It's not true, not true.

5           There would be no reason for me not to use it.

6           BY MR. EVANS: If the Court would like, I will
7           give him another copy, but if he is going to sit up
8           there and start saying untrue, we are fixing to 9           have a battle in here--

10          BY THE COURT: --Well, no, wait a minute.
11          Wait a minute. No, we are not going to have that.
12          It's too late in the day for that. The Judge
13          doesn't want that. There is an original of that,
14          isn't it?

15          BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir; there is. It's in 16          the Supreme Court.

17          BY MR. LUMUMBA: All right.

18          BY THE COURT: Okay, let's move on. Let's
19          go.

20          BY MR. LUMUMBA:

21           Q.    When was the picture taken in Exhibit 2 of the, of 22           Mr. Flowers?

23           A.    Well, I think, as I answered while ago, I am not 24           exactly sure when it was taken because I was not the one that 25           took that photograph. But that may have been just a Polaroid
26           that was taken, and I think by one of our investigators, you 27           know, like Mr. Matthews, but I'm not positive of that.

28           Q.    But, so the same photograph that you indicated
29           could have been taken on the 16th, 17th, or the 18th is the

1 same photograph that was ultimately used in that display?

2 A. That's correct. That is correct that this was Mr.
3 Flowers at the time that we took the photograph, and I don't
4 know exactly where that was taken, and I can't tell you
5 whether it's a photograph, it's a Polaroid or not because I'm 6 not looking at the original. If I saw the original, I would
7 know.

8 Q. Did anybody make notes of what Collins said at the 9 time of the lineup?

10 A. Mr. Johnson was taking notes.

11 Q. All right, did you take any notes?

12 A. I did not.

13 Q. Was it being recorded?

14 A. With a tape recorder? I did not tape record that.

15 Q. Did he?

16 A. I can't answer that, but I don't think so.

17 Q. Did you have any other conversations with Mr.
18 Collins prior to that day?

19 A. Prior to that day?

20 Q. The 24th of August.

21 A. At some point I did talk to Mr. Collins. He had 22 told myself and Mr. Matthews where he had been prior to 23 seeing these people in front of Tardy's, and that he had gone
24 to the Wal-Mart store to buy some type of something for his 25 automobile or something. He had been by the cleaners. He 26 produced the receipt for the Wal-Mart purchase that he had 27 made, and I asked him for that to establish the time, and he 28 did produce that.

29 Q. Was this conversation prior to August the 24th of

1 the '96?

2 A. Yes, it was.

3 Q. Anyone else present?

4 A. I'm sure that probably Mr. Matthews, and I don't
5 know whether Mr. Johnson was present or not.

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No further questions.

7 CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. HORAN:

8 Q. Just a few questions, Captain Miller. You made
9 reference to August 24th. That would be 1996; correct?

10 A. That is correct.

11 Q. Some time after, a month and a half after these 12 murders; right?

13 A. That is right.

14 Q. And I believe at some point in time between the 15 16th and that particular day, y'all were attempting to get up
16 with Mr. Collins, were you not?

17 A. That is correct.

18 Q. And did he have some sickness in the family or 19 something like that where he was not available?

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Your Honor, excuse me.

21 Leading.

22 BY MR. HORAN: I will rephrase the question.

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Leading.

24 BY MR. HORAN: I will rephrase the question.

25 BY THE COURT: Okay, he is going to rephrase.

26 BY MR. HORAN:

27 Q. Was there any particular reason why y'all were not 28 able to get up with Mr. Collins?

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: It is still leading.

1 BY MR. HORAN: That is not leading.

2 BY MR. HORAN:

3 Q. Was there any particular reason they were not able 4 to get up with him?

5 BY THE COURT: Overruled. Go ahead.

6 BY THE WITNESS:

7 A. We had attempted several times to get Mr. Collins,
8 and he had a brother-in-law that was near death at one of the 9 hospitals in Jackson. He was having to travel back and forth
10 to Jackson, and we were just unable to get with him.

11 Q. Okay, and if you could have, would you have 12 presented this photo--

13 A. --We would have done that at least two and a half,
14 three weeks earlier.

15 Q. Okay, and that explains the time span?

16 A. That is correct.

17 Q. Okay. The two photograph lineups, I understand the 18 first one which is marked for identification, which is 19 actually the second photograph that was shown to him, that 20 includes the Defendant, does it not?

21 A. It does.

22 Q. Okay, and Mr. Collins identified that photograph
23 after it was presented to him; right?

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Leading. Leading, Judge.

25 BY THE COURT: Don't lead him.

26 BY MR. HORAN:

27 Q. Did he identify anybody in that?

28 A. Ask--

29 Q. --Did Mr. Collins ever identify anyone out of that

1 photo array?

2 A. Mr. Collins looked at the photo spread and picked
3 out number 4. I initialed the back of that. Mr. Johnson
4 initialed the back of that, and Mr. Collins initialed the 5 back of number 4 photograph, which is of Curtis Flowers.

6 Q. Okay, and then you testified that the first
7 photograph display or array that was given to him, he noticed
8 some characteristics that were the same?

9 A. Right.

10 Q. He never did positively identify anyone?

11 A. No, he did not.

12 Q. So the photograph lineup of the Defendant was shown 13 to him second?

14 A. That is correct.

15 Q. At any time did you or Mr. Johnson say anything or 16 point to any of the photographs or suggest that he ought to 17 identify the Defendant in any way?

18 A. No, did not.

19 Q. And was the purpose of this particular lineup for 20 Mr. Collins to look at those photographs to see if he could 21 identify the persons that he had seen outside that store?

22 A. That is correct. It was a very simple, look at 23 this photograph and.

24 Q. Procedurally, did you do anything differently on 25 this particular photographic lineup than you had done in the 26 past 12 years or 16 years that you have been a Highway Patrol
27 investigator?

28 A. No, I did not.

29 Q. And I want to clear something up. Did y'all ever

1 tell Mr. Collins that the suspects that y'all had, or if 2 y'all had any suspects, that the suspects were actually in 3 those photographs?

4 A. No, did not.

5 Q. So it wasn't a situation where y'all were saying,
6 We want you to identify the persons in the photographs that
7 were outside the store. You just showed him the photo
8 lineup?

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Leading.

10 BY THE COURT: Sustained.

11 BY MR. HORAN:

12 Q. Is that right?

13 A. That is correct.

14 BY MR. HORAN: No further questions.

15 REDIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

16 Q. I'm going to show you a copy of Exhibit D-3, the 17 second page. Have you seen that before?

18 A. I think these are some notes, I think that Mr.
19 Johnson took.

20 Q. Does your initials appear on them?

21 A. Yeah, I think my initials are on the top up here.

22 Q. All right. Now would it be safe to say that that 23 is a record of what Mr. Collins allegedly said during the 24 time of the identification or notes?

25 A. These are the notes that were taken by Mr. Johnson,
26 yes.

27 Q. At the time that you were looking, that he was 28 looking--

29 A. --that he was looking at the photographs.

1           Q.    At the photographs, okay. Is it anywhere on there
2 where it says, "Positive identification made"? Do those 3 words appear on there anywhere?

4           A.    When it says--

5           Q.    Listen to my question. Does it anywhere appear on 6 there, "Positive identification made"?

7           A.    Not the exact words of "positive," no.

8           Q.    Well, "positive" doesn't appear anywhere. Does
9 "positive" appear there anywhere?

10          A.    No, it does not.

11          Q.    Does "certain"? I'm certain that's the man. Does 12 that appear anywhere?

13          A.    "Certain" does not.

14          Q.    Okay. Now, in fact, you would agree that the first 15 words that appear there with relation to number 4 express
16 some equivocation, lack of certainty. The first words, the 17 first phrase in quotes, read that first phrase to me as it
18 relates to number 4.

19          A.    All right. "I believe that is him. It looks like
20 him"--

21          Q.    --Okay, well, let's stop there. "I believe that's 22 him." You wouldn't call that a positive identification,
23 would you, at that point?

24                   BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, again, first of 25 all, this is improper, incorrect, improper redirect
26 examination. I just asked him did they do anything
27 to suggest an answer. That's all I went into.

28                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: No.

29                   BY THE COURT: Let him finish.

1 BY MR. HORAN: That is a procedural matter.
2 Second of all, this has been covered on direct
3 examination, and whatever Mr. Miller's
4 interpretation of what that means means absolutely
5 nothing. That is things he can present to a jury.

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, Judge. They keep asking
7 Mr. Miller over my objection and Mr. Johnson if 8 they may, if he made a positive identification.
9 And at least twice we have gotten the answer yes.
10 Now if they can interpret it as a positive
11 identification, I can go into why they are making
12 that interpretation, so I can--

13 BY THE COURT: --It's not relevant to this 14 hearing. That is a jury question, and that is not 15 what is before me. So the objection is sustained.
16 It's not proper redirect either, but on the 17 substance of it, it's not relevant to this 18 hearing. It may be later.

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I don't have any further
20 questions, Judge.

21 BY THE COURT: Okay, thank you, Mr. Miller.
22 Who will you have next?

23 WITNESS STEPS DOWN.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I don't have any other
25 witnesses on this.

26 DEFENDANT RESTS ON MOTION.

27 BY THE COURT: Okay. Has the State got any?

28 BY MR. EVANS: None, Your Honor.

29 BOTH SIDES REST ON MOTION.

1                   BY THE COURT: Okay. Argument?

2                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes, sir.

3                   BY MR. MILLER: Your Honor, are we excused?

4                   BY THE COURT: Well, how about it, gentlemen?
5                   Are they excused?

6                   BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

7                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: We need to discuss time. Can 8                   we do that now?

9                   BY MR. HORAN: They need to--

10                  BY THE COURT: --Well, wait a minute. Just 11                  wait a minute, Mr. Horan. Let me see what he has 12                  got to say, and then we will go -- why do you want
13                  them here?

14                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Because we have also need to 15                  have a discovery hearing. This witness has 16                  indicated that at least one thing exists that we 17                  have never received.

18                  BY THE COURT: Have you filed a motion to 19                  compel?

20                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Filed a motion to compel?
21                  Yes, actually we argued it before the Court that we 22                  didn't get everything, and they claim we did. I
23                  didn't know we didn't have everything. I thought
24                  we had. But he has just told me, told us both that 25                  they have pictures which appear with the names and 26                  the vital information, some of it, of the people in 27                  the photographs.

28                  BY THE COURT: No, no. What he said was that 29                  he thinks that exists, and the District Attorney

1           said they are in the Supreme Court. That is what
2           he said. So they are available to you right now.

3           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, I don't know that until 4           I see them.

5           BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor--

6           BY THE COURT: --If they are not, then you can 7           file a motion to compel at that time.

8           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, Judge, let me just 9           explain. Let's not lose the sequence of this. We 10          raised to the heavens the issue at the last hearing
11          that we needed the specific photographs and the 12          information that was all used relative to the 13          identification. We were told that we were going to 14          be shown of it, and we barely saw some old copies
15          that you can hardly see. And then they said that 16          there was something with the Supreme Court, which 17          the gentleman here indicated that he was going to 18          get back from the Supreme Court.

19          BY MR. HORAN: I never indicated that.

20          BY MR. LUMUMBA: He specifically said that in 21          your presence.

22          BY THE COURT: Okay, but here is the point.
23          If they are not here and you haven't got them and 24          it's at the Supreme Court, you are entitled to get 25          them, and you are entitled to go look at them. If 26          I have to furnish an order to get that where you
27          can do that, I'm going to do that. But I can't 28          produce them today.

29          BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, no. All I'm saying, I'm

1 not asking the Court-- I hope they are not here
2 today or else they would give them to me. All I'm
3 saying is we need to get a clear statement before
4 this gentleman leaves on what the record with the 5 Supreme Court says. Does it, in fact, have names,
6 addresses, date of births, and that kind of 7 information with it?

8 BY THE COURT: He has testified that he has at 9 some place, it's either on the back of those 10 photographs or in his possession, a record
11 somewhere that he has information concerning those 12 individuals that are in the lineup. Would the 13 State agree that that is true?

14 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, whatever we have 15 got is the original photo lineups. They were 16 introduced into evidence, or they were introduced
17 at least for identification. The Supreme Court has 18 them. They were brought back to Tupelo last time.
19 We had so many days we had to get them back to the 20 Supreme Court. Whatever is on the back of them is 21 what we have got.

22 BY THE COURT: Okay, so you don't know; is 23 that your answer?

24 BY MR. EVANS: I can't remember. It seems 25 like there may have been some names on the back of 26 them, but I cannot remember.

27 BY THE COURT: If they are not on that item,
28 do you have them at all?

29 BY MR. EVANS: No, sir.

1                   BY THE COURT: Does Mr. Miller have them at 2 all?

3                   BY MR. EVANS: Not to my knowledge.

4                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, Mr. Miller has just 5 told us they exist.

6                   BY THE COURT: Okay, let's get Mr. Miller back
7 up here just a second.

8                   BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, can I say
9 something?

10                  BY THE COURT: I hate to get out of order.

11                  BY MR. HORAN: If they will look at the 12 supplemental report of Mr. Miller on the photo 13 lineup, I think in the discovery material that 14 stuff is in there in the typed report.

15                  BY THE COURT: Okay, well, that's fine. If 16 they have got it, I'm not going to make you produce
17 it again. I have just got to know what's what.

18                  BY MR. HORAN: I'm not sure.

19                  (MR. MILLER RETURNS TO THE COURTROOM.)

20                  BY THE COURT: Okay, Mr. Miller, I have got a
21 couple of questions I want to ask you.

22                  BY MR. WAYNE MILLER: All right.

23                  BY THE COURT: You have indicated that there 24 does exist a record of these people describing who 25 they are, what their physical characteristics are,
26 and stuff like that available to the people that 27 were in that lineup; is that right?

28                  BY MR. MILLER: Yes, sir.

29                  BY THE COURT: Do you know where those records

1           exist?

2           BY MR. MILLER: I thought it was on the back
3 of those photographs.

4           BY THE COURT: Do you have those records other
5 than that?

6           BY MR. MILLER: No. I do not have any records
7 with me today.

8           BY THE COURT: No, do you have those records
9 other than that?

10          BY MR. MILLER: I probably would have a copy
11 some place of that same photo spread that should 12 have that. I don't know. I will have to look.

13          BY THE COURT: Okay, you think they are on the 14 ones at the Supreme Court?

15          BY MR. MILLER: Right. I think that's
16 correct.

17          BY THE COURT: Okay. Here is what you have 18 got to do. If you need an order to this effect, I
19 will give you an order to this effect. You are to 20 check with the Supreme Court within the next week
21 and see if that exhibit is there, examine that 22 record or have somebody from your office examine 23 that record, and see if those items exist on that 24 thing. If they are not there, then you need to 25 contact the Court. I will give you an order
26 directing Mr. Miller to find those records and 27 supply them to you. Is that fair enough?

28          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes, that is good, Judge, on 29 that issue.

1                   BY THE COURT: Now.

2                   (Phone or beeper of some sort was going off in
3                   the courtroom.)

4                   BY THE COURT: You have got me. It's probably 5                   the alarm telling us we have got to go.

6                   (Laughter.)

7                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: We were told that-- and,
8                   Judge, I don't want to, I just wanted to state for 9                   the record we are getting a lot of noise from the 10                  audience. I'm not objecting to it, but I'm saying
11                  it has been going on the entire hearing. And I
12                  think I recall the Court scolding some of the 13                  Defendant's relatives at a prior hearing for that.

14                  BY THE COURT: Well, there has been nothing
15                  here to disrupt this court. Let's go ahead and 16                  argue.

17                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, I wanted to make a
18                  record in case it happens again.

19                  BY THE COURT: I understand. Okay.

20                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, now--

21                  BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, can this witness
22                  leave?

23                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Counsel-- let me just say
24                  Counsel is telling us that there was a supplemental 25                  report filed by Mr. Miller with that information in
26                  it.

27                  BY MR. HORAN: I'm not saying that, Your 28                  Honor. I said if they will look at it, I think 29                  there is a reference to the photo lineup in a

1 supplemental report, and it names the names, I
2 believe, of the individuals. I'm not positive.

3 BY THE COURT: Okay, I made a ruling that
4 ought to cover this already on that, and Mr.
5 Lumumba, it's on you if you need the order, to get
6 an order directing that. As to any other motion
7 for discovery, there is, I have granted at least
8 two orders ordering them to discover stuff to you.
9 If you have specific items that you know that they 10 have not produced and you want to file a motion to 11 compel, I will hear that at that time.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

13 BY THE COURT: But if it's not anything, if 14 there is not a motion to compel this afternoon, we 15 are not going to hear it this afternoon.

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can we have an order to 17 review their entire file and all the exhibits that 18 they have in their possession? I would like to do
19 that to make sure that we have everything. I don't 20 see why we can't do it. I'm not asking to review
21 their questions or attorney work product, but 22 everything created by the investigation itself, I
23 am asking to have an opportunity to review.

24 BY THE COURT: Well, I have got discovery
25 orders already in place on that, and if they have 26 complied with those, then they have complied with
27 them.

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We don't know, Judge, unless 29 we can see the file.

1           BY THE COURT: Well, you had opportunity to
2 see it because I have given you two orders giving
3 you the right to see anything that is 4 discoverable.

5           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

6           BY THE COURT: If you didn't see it, that is 7 not my fault. All right, you are free to go.

8           BY MR. MILLER: Thank you.

9           BY THE COURT: So are the others. Now I will 10 hear argument.

11          BY MR. MILLER: The others are free?

12          BY THE COURT: Yeah.

13          (Mr. Millers leaves the courtroom.)

14          BY MR. LUMUMBA: We have a case of Stanley Ray
15 Ellis v. State of Mississippi, which is located at 16 667 So.2d 599, Mississippi, 1995. And we also have 17 the case of, we have an en banc decision in 125-
18 96. I would have to get the actual cite as it
19 appears today, but what we have is a published
20 opinion. We don't have the actual publication. We 21 have the copy that comes from the Court before it
22 is published.

23          BY THE COURT: Well, what is the style?

24          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Slip opinion, slip opinion.
25 It is called Rodney Gray v. State of Mississippi.

26          BY THE COURT: Is that G R E or G R A?

27          BY MR. LUMUMBA: G-R-A-Y.

28          BY THE COURT: Okay.

29          BY MR. LUMUMBA: It's 96-- in the Supreme

1 Court, it's 96 DP00241SCT. It was entered--

2 BY THE COURT: Is there a hyphen in there?

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes, a hyphen, yeah.

4 BY THE COURT: After 96?

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah.

6 BY THE COURT: All right, let me see if I have 7 got it--

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --a hyphen after D P.

9 BY THE COURT: It's 96-DP-00241SCT?

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Hyphen S C T.

11 BY THE COURT: Okay, all right.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: And then you have got the 13 date of judgment is 1-25-96. The date of judgment is 14 1-25-96. In the Gray case it indicates the reliability has 15 been deemed the lynch pin of determining the admissibility of 16 identification testimony. And they cite Manson v.
17 B-R-A-T-H-W-A-I-T-E at 432 US-98 114, and it's a 1977 case.
18 They also cite a Mississippi case, Nathan v. State, 552 So.2d
19 99, a 1989 case.

20 Several things they look at in determining whether 21 an identification is reliable. Now first of all, we would 22 point out to the Court that the photo display is suggestive
23 on its face. The photo display is suggestive in looking at 24 Exhibit number 2 because Mr. Flowers is put at number four 25 spot, and in number four spot his photo makes him stand out
26 from all the other persons on this sheet. His head appears
27 to be much larger. His face seems to be closer to the front
28 of the photo, lacks the depth that the other photos have, and 29 with respect to several of the photos - I would suggest all

1 of them, with the possible exception of one - he looks older
2 than the other people displayed. His complexion is darker,
3 and that is one of the things that the witness claims he was 4 focusing on, the darkness of the complexion, than everybody
5 in this spread with the exception of maybe one other person.
6 And it's probably easier to see there than it is on this, but 7 that is the case.

8           There is no way and I would be-- that the people
9 displayed in exhibits 1, 2, or 6 are anywhere close to the 10 age of Mr. Flowers. Now when I say close, five to ten years
11 I don't think is close. I mean I guess, you know, the 12 question becomes what you consider as close. But when you
13 start getting those kind of differentiations, clearly a
14 person is going to stand out over somebody else.

15           Moreover, what we have here is people in five and 16 three are totally different than anything described,
17 allegedly described by the witness. He is looking for a 18 receding hair line. Neither one of those people have it. He 19 is looking for a dark skinned person. Neither one of those 20 five or three are dark skinned, and yet still their hair is,
21 both of them may be braided. One of them clearly is braided,
22 and here again, they are pushed to the front. He is pushed
23 to the front. They are in the back.

24           Now I don't know -- well, and so those are the 25 characteristics which make it a suggestive display. I would 26 also argue that I really don't think any of these people have 27 a round face, but since the Defendant's face is bigger in 28 this photo, it would have to look rounder than any of the 29 other people in it. Actually, to be honest, neither one of

1       them have a round face. But the Defendant's is clearly the 2       rounder than anybody else.

3               So what we look at is the questions which have to 4       do with the reliability of the identification. The case law
5       said one of the things to be considered is the opportunity to 6       view the accused at the time of the assault or the alleged,
7       person who is alleged to be the accused at the time of the 8       assault. You have cases where they have seen a person 10
9       minutes, 15 minutes, all that kind of stuff.

10              In this particular case, they saw him for 15
11       minutes in the Ellis v. State case. In this case you are 12       only talking about a glimpse is all the witness saw.
13       Degree-- and I also point out that there is no history of 14       seeing this man, and there is no history of seeing him even 15       after the incident.

16              Degree of attention. The description, the degree
17       of attention, I'm sorry; degree of attention refers to 18       whether there was a spectacular event which drew the 19       attention. It would be one thing if he testified that he saw 20       somebody running out of the place with guns. The testimony
21       here is that he saw somebody doing something which he thought
22       was an argument. When he glimpsed at them and then bothered
23       to turn around, which apparently he was trying to get a good 24       look according to him, he never saw the face again. The 25       degree of attention does not help the identification here.

26              Accuracy of prior description. I don't know how 27       accurate the description-- I mean I don't know many black men
28       there are who are medium complexion. And in fact, this is 29       one black man that is not medium complexion. He is dark.

1 But I don't know how many black men you have who are medium
2 complexion. There is an officer in here who is medium
3 complexion sitting to my right. There is other black men
4 here who are darker than I. But this man is clearly not
5 medium complexion. He is of dark skin by anybody's
6 understanding.

7 But in any event, accuracy of prior description -
8 no eyes, no bone structure, no height in the original notes,
9 no-- and then according to officer, he didn't give a height
10 in the original notes he said. One man was taller than the 11 other. If you notice, as Johnson said, one man was taller
12 than the other one. I don't know how that is supposed to 13 help. But, and no other indicia of identification, no other 14 description that really helps.

15 The round face. There has got to be at least a 16 million faces rounder than the one, than any of those 17 actually on that, including the Defendant's.

18 Level of certainty, that's a good one. "I think,"
19 "I believe"; also the duration of time between the incident,
20 the viewing and the identification, over a month. It doesn't 21 really matter why it took that long. It's still a factor to 22 consider. Like the Court has said, this is not an inquiry, 23 and we will accept that for purposes of this discussion, into 24 whether they intended to call something. It's just an 25 inquiry into whether the circumstances presented problems
26 with identification: Over a month to identify a person that 27 you have never seen before in your life, who you have got a 28 very vague description of, who you have never seen since or 29 before the incident, and it takes a month for them to show

1     you a display. And we have got allegations here that even
2     when he saw him, he didn't express certainty. He never said
3     he was certain, never said he was positive.

4             And in fact, even though the last statement which 5     is allegedly recorded, after they said that he made an
6     identification or after they put down, pointed to 4, said
7     something about do you know Curtis Flowers, a name which has 8     been bandied about by that time, but even forgetting that,
9     No, I don't know Curtis Flowers, but I know the man that I
10    saw is the man that was outside. After he had done said, "I 11    believe," "looks like," and expressed on various levels of 12    uncertainty, uncertainty which not only gripped him then, but 13    uncertainty that gripped him at the time of the initial 14    incident.

15            He said at that time, according to the officer, may 16    be able to make an identification, not that he could or that 17    it was positive or certain. And then finally, up until the 18    last trial, the man was "looked like," and even here he has 19    never said he is positive. He left here saying, I believe he 20    is the person. Asked several times whether he was positive 21    by his own, by the attorney on the other side, who he 22    pretends to be testifying to and who he will talk to out of 23    the courtroom and won't talk to me; his best response is "I 24    believe." "I will believe it," and the question is, is he 25    certain of it? He may believe it for a number of reasons.
26    It might have nothing to do with what he perceived.

27            And he didn't say that at the time of the trial,
28    and all the incidents that I quote, "look like," "man was a 29    little darker," and various other kinds of descriptions which

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF MISSISSIPPI

PAGES NUMBERED 901-1050

VOLUME 17 of 30

EXHIBIT _____

ELECTRONIC DISK _____

Case #1999-DP-01369-SCT

COURT APPEALED FROM : Circuit Court

COUNTY : Montgomery

TRIAL JUDGE : C. E. Morgan III

.....
Curtis Giovanni Flowers v. State of Mississippi

.....
Charlotte B. Williams, Clerk

.....
TRIAL COURT # : 97-372

1 did not say that he could positively identify the person.
2 This person's identification reeks with uncertainty, and just 3 because the question tries to dress it up by making it an 4 identification when virtually the same language is used in 5 the first lineup when he identifies somebody else, that 6 doesn't change the character of what actually occurred.

7 So what I would say to the Court is that this is 8 not an identification which should come before a jury.
9 Perhaps the gentleman has other things to testify to, but not
10 to identification lawfully and legally, and I don't think it
11 will pass the legal threshold of being worthy to be accepted
12 as a reliable identification. So that is my objection.

13 I would suggest this too - is that after one of the 14 things that you see used to determine whether the lineup is 15 suggestive, suggests something that wasn't there prior to the 16 time of seeing the lineup is whether the lineup makes him
17 more certain than he was before. There is absolutely no
18 certainty expressed by this gentleman, and the description
19 does not bear forth any certainty prior to the time of the 20 lineup.

21 He sees a lineup of a big headed individual, the 22 only one in the lineup; darker skin, older person. Then what 23 he does, he expressed equivocation as he is standing there,
24 and not until another question is asked him about the 25 Defendant's name at the end of the display does he express
26 anything that even says I know it is the person, still 27 without using the words "positive" or "certain." So I think 28 it is bolstered. It's-- so a degree, the degree of his 29 identification was bolstered by the lineup which was

1 suggestive.

2 BY THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Evans.

3 BY MR. EVANS: Thank you, Your Honor.

4 Your Honor, to start with, I think it is very
5 obvious that this witness attempted to make absolutely sure
6 that everything he said was exactly right. He has explained
7 in detail to both the officers and to the Court at a previous 8 trial exact details of where he was that morning, who he saw,
9 what he saw them doing. He specifically went through details
10 about all of that.

11 He has testified and give statements that at the 12 time he passed by Tardy Furniture, he saw two black males
13 standing outside arguing. That's what brought it to his 14 attention is that they appeared to be arguing, so he paid
15 attention to them. Not only did he pay attention and look
16 and see the face of the one that he has identified, but it
17 got his attention to such an extent that he made the block
18 and came back to get another look at them. He was paying 19 attention. He was looking because they had gotten his 20 attention because it appeared that they were arguing.

21 He didn't know what was fixing to happen at the 22 store. All he knew was that there were two black males out
23 there that appeared to be arguing, and he was paying 24 attention to them. He said he thought he could identify the 25 person. He wasn't coming up there saying, Oh, I know I can 26 identify somebody. He said, I think I can identify the 27 person.

28 I think it is very important that they showed him
29 two separate photo lineups. If this were a person that was

1 attempting to come in and just say I saw who did it, when
2 they showed him that first lineup, he would have picked
3 somebody out and said, that is him. He didn't do that. He
4 looked at one and said, this person has some of the same
5 characteristics. He did not say that was the person. He 6 said they had some of the same characteristics.

7 He was shown the second lineup which had this 8 Defendant's picture in it, number 4, a random number in 9 there. He wasn't put number one or anything like that to try
10 to draw attention to him. Mr. Collins went straight to that 11 picture, and he said, "I think that's him. It looks like 12 him," and he later said, "That is the person that I saw in 13 front of Tardy Furniture." And he told this Court that that 14 is the person, and he will always believe that that is the 15 person that he saw in front of Tardy Furniture. If that is 16 not positive, I don't know what could be.

17 The courts on many occasions in reference to photo
18 lineups have said that there is no such thing as a perfect
19 photo lineup. We have even had cases where we had one person
20 in a photo lineup that had initials carved in the back of his 21 hair. You can't find somebody identical to that to put in a 22 photo lineup. So as Wayne Miller attempted to do, he took 23 the photos that were available to him, attempted to get black
24 males that were similar in as much characteristics as he
25 could put them, and of basically the same age, which if there
26 is any age difference in these people, I can't tell it by 27 looking at it because I can't tell what any of the ages of 28 the people in these photographs are. It's not something
29 obvious where you have got a 20 year old and an 80 year old.

1 It's not anything that would bring attention to any one
2 person in there.

3 As a matter of fact, if you wanted to, you could
4 say that any one picture in that might could bring attention
5 to somebody else. One may be a little closer up. One may be 6 a little further away. Nobody indicated you are supposed to 7 pick out the one that is the closest. Nobody in any way
8 attempted to influence him, which John Johnson testified that 9 they never in any way attempted to do that. Wayne Miller
10 testified that they never attempted in any way to do that,
11 but what is the most important is that Porky Collins, Charles
12 "Porky" Collins testified that they never tried in any way
13 to influence him on who to pick out. As a matter of fact, as 14 he specifically said up here today, it wouldn't have done any 15 good if they had because he wasn't going to do what somebody
16 else told him to do. He was going to do what he saw, and 17 that is exactly what he did. He, as he explained today, 18 identified this Defendant from being able to see his face in 19 front of Tardy Furniture.

20 That is just one element. He is not sitting up
21 here testifying I saw him kill four people. He is saying
22 this is the person, one of the two people I saw in front of 23 Tardy Furniture, and that is all that he is testifying to.
24 He is not trying to add anything to what he saw. There is 25 absolutely nothing in this trial, either from the photo
26 lineup or the testimony, that even indicates remotely that 27 anyone tried to influence him on who to pick out of that
28 lineup.

29 Almost immediately, while the investigation was

1 still going on - and it was while the bodies were still in
2 the store - Porky Collins told law enforcement officials what
3 he had seen. They made some notes of it at that point, but 4 as Mr. Johnson testified, at that point nobody knew what was 5 relevant and what wasn't. They were trying to get bits and 6 pieces to put together a picture and see who the suspect
7 would be. Nobody was trying to point a finger at this
8 Defendant. Nobody was trying to point the finger at anybody,
9 just trying to find out what happened.

10 This was one piece of evidence that they followed
11 up on. They showed him the photo lineup as soon as they 12 could, and he identified this person. And in the courtroom
13 today he has identified this Defendant. He has said that 14 that person is the person that he saw in front of the store,
15 and he will believe that for the rest of his life. And 16 there is no indication that anybody has influenced him.
17 There is no indication that that identification is from 18 anything other than his ability to observe the Defendant and 19 see his face at that time. There was a high level of 20 certainty in that.

21 There was also an indication that he had a reason
22 to be paying attention. We are not talking about somebody
23 just driving down the road and glancing and saying, well, I
24 saw somebody out of the corner of my eye, but I didn't pay
25 any attention to what was going on. He noticed them because 26 of a specific incident. If they had not been arguing or what 27 he thought was an argument, he may have not paid enough
28 attention to be able to identify him, but he did.

29 As he clearly testified and given statements all

1 along, he did not see the face of the other person. He did
2 not identify the other person, and he is not sitting up here
3 trying to tell us who the other person was. All he is 4 telling us is what he knows.

5 I think it is very clear that as far as what we are 6 on here today, the elements of attempting to suppress a
7 statement are clear. Was this identification made because of 8 some undue influence? Did somebody, as some cases show, did
9 somebody say, that's the person right there? Did somebody
10 put a black male in a lineup with five white males? Is there
11 anything that would stand out that would point to him? And 12 this was not an in person lineup, but if it was, was one of 13 them six feet tall and the rest of them three feet tall?
14 None of this is there, and the photos, I have seen plenty of 15 photo lineups where they could not find all head shots. Some 16 of them would be full body shots. Some would be head shots.
17 That I don't think is anything that would hurt, but in this 18 case all of these are head shots. I think this was a very 19 fair photo lineup. He was shown two separate photo lineups, 20 and the key to the whole thing is his testimony that he is 21 identifying him because of his ability to observe him, that 22 that is the person that he saw.

23 Thank you, Your Honor.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Counsel made no reference to 25 any of the points that the case law indicate need
26 to be considered and satisfied. I already listed
27 those: Opportunity to view the person at the time
28 of the event, degree of attention, accuracy of 29 prior description, level of certainty, and time

1           elapsed. Now he may, time elapsed-- I don't know
2           if I mentioned time elapsed, but it makes a
3           difference.

4           BY THE COURT: Let me see that. I'm going to 5           give it back.

6           BY MR. HORAN: What is the cite on that? It's 7           the same elements. What is the cite?

8           BY THE COURT: Well, I just want to take a
9           look at it.

10          BY MR. LUMUMBA: 667 So.2d.

11          BY MR. HORAN: It's Gray?

12          BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, it's not Gray. That is 13          not the Gray case. This is Gray right here.

14          BY MR. HORAN: All right. Let me see it.

15          BY MR. LUMUMBA: May I go to the rest room?

16          BY THE COURT: Go ahead because I'm going to 17          read this real quick.

18          (Off the record while the Court read cases
19          furnished by Mr. Lumumba.)

20          BY THE COURT: Okay, Mr. Lumumba, I'm ready.

21          BY MR. LUMUMBA: That is essentially my
22          argument.

23          BY MR. HORAN: Is that all you have?

24          Your Honor, I have one thing I wanted to point
25          out to the Court's attention. Those factors that 26          he is considering and he is talking about aren't 27          factors that this Court is to consider as to 28          whether or not a photo lineup is suggestive or 29          not. Those are factors that the Court has to

1           consider if the Court were to find it was a
2           suggestive photo lineup and determine whether or 3           not the in court identification would be proper or 4           not.

5           BY THE COURT: But doesn't one lead to the
6           other?

7           BY MR. HORAN: No, not necessarily. Whether 8           or not the time, the amount of time that he had to 9           look at this individual, all of that kind of stuff
10          has absolutely nothing to do with whether or not
11          there is a constitutional problem with the photo
12          lineup. The Court could hold that it was an 13          impermissible photo lineup and still not suppress 14          the in court identification based on those five 15          factors. That's what those factors are for. In 16          fact, some courts allow jury instruction as to 17          those particular factors. That has nothing to do 18          with-- that law has something to do with an in 19          court identification.

20          BY THE COURT: You are correct in that.

21          BY MR. HORAN: Whether or not it was an 22          illegal show or something like that. That is not 23          what we are here about today.

24          BY THE COURT: Okay. The Court finds that
25          there has nothing been done by the officers
26          involved, Mr. Johnson or Mr. Miller, which are the 27          only officers who have testified. There is no
28          evidence either from them or Mr. Collins that would 29          indicate that they influenced this identification

1 at all, and so there has not been that type of 2 influence on it. Mr. Collins was presented with
3 two lineups which amounted to, I believe, a total
4 of twelve people. In that, on the first lineup
5 which did not include the Defendant, he found that 6 there was a person of, that he had said had some of 7 the characteristics. And then on the second lineup
8 he, according to the testimony, immediately
9 identified Mr. Flowers as being the person that he 10 thought was the one that was at the scene.

11 The second lineup consisted of six
12 individuals, five of which are of lighter skin
13 complexion than Mr. Flowers, so he is distinctive 14 in that regard. However, the description that was 15 given to the officers was of one of a light
16 complexion, and therefore, if there was any 17 suggestion in this lineup, it would be a lineup
18 that would suggest that Mr. Flowers was not the 19 one.

20 So there is nothing by these pictures that 21 suggests that. And therefore, I don't place any 22 credibility on that. The other things about his 23 head, the facts are just not, they are not borne
24 out by the exhibit or by the photographs that I
25 have got.

26 He obviously had an opportunity to view this 27 person as about the time the event occurred. He 28 not only viewed him once; he rounded the corner and 29 viewed him twice. His degree of attention was

1           certainly such-- when he made the second trip
2           around, that answers the degree of attention
3           question.

4           I don't know if he had any prior
5           identification. I don't think that may be relevant
6           to this hearing anyhow, but he had no prior 7           identification. His level of certainty was that he 8           immediately picked out this person when he saw the 9           second lineup as opposed to what he did when he saw
10          the first lineup. And the length of time, I don't 11          think is a factor in this particular case.

12          Based on these, on the evidence that is before
13          the Court, the Court finds that the Motion to 14          Suppress the out of court identification is not 15          well taken and should be overruled. And there is 16          certainly a question as to whether or not his 17          credibility or reliability which can be presented
18          to the jury, and that certainly will be opportunity
19          for the Defendant to do that at trial. But I
20          overrule that Motion, and the State can submit an 21          order to that effect.

22                BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have got--

23                BY MR. EVANS: Is that all?

24                BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, just a short, short.

25                BY THE COURT: Okay.

26                BY MR. LUMUMBA: I do have the jury
27          questionnaire from Hinds County.

28                BY THE COURT: Okay. Would y'all, could y'all
29          quickly look at that and see if y'all can agree on

1           that? And we will be through. Mr. Freelon, I will
2           give you that back.

3           (Counsel discussed the questionnaire with each
4           other off the record and then with the Court.
5           There were no further proceedings on the record on 6           this date of 1/6/99.)

1 (ON MARCH 22, 1999, THE PROSPECTIVE JURORS
2 WERE SEATED IN THE COURTROOM AND WITH ONLY THE CLERK, THE 3 BAILIFFS, AND THE COURT REPORTER PRESENT, THE CLERK EXPLAINED
4 TO THE JURORS HOW NAMES ARE DRAWN FROM THE VOTER REGISTRATION
5 ROLLS AND THEN TOOK UP ANY JUROR INFORMATION CARDS THAT HAD 6 NOT ALREADY BEEN TURNED IN. THEN THERE WAS THE FOLLOWING:)

7 BY THE CLERK: There are several questions I
8 have to ask you to qualify you as jurors, and I
9 don't make these questions up. They are questions
10 that have been set out by the Legislature since the 11 Constitution in the 1800's, and you will probably 12 see that some of them are outdated and need to be 13 changed. But they are questions that we have to 14 ask to qualify you. So Judge Morgan asked me to do
15 a couple of these procedures before he takes the 16 bench. The first one is I'm going to have to ask
17 you to stand and take the oath to be qualified.
18 Please raise your right hand. Do you and each of 19 you solemnly swear or affirm that you will true and 20 correct answer make to such questions that shall be 21 propounded to you by the Court touching your 22 qualifications as jurors, so help you God?

23 BY THE JURORS: I do.

24 BY THE CLERK: You may be seated. It is very 25 important that if you need to prove your attendance
26 here today that you check that, and at the end of 27 the week or in state court, in Mississippi you are 28 only summonsed for one week only. And at the end
29 of that week we will issue you a jury warrant to

1           get paid as well as your certificate if you need
2           that to prove your attendance. You are paid $25.00
3           a day, and it used to be fifteen. Some states,
4           California pays five. So I know it is not, it
5           compensates a little bit, but it is a civic duty,
6           and without you coming and participating in the 7           judicial system, we would actually have to shut the 8           doors. So you are the most important part of this 9           system. Okay.

10           Judge Morgan asked me to ask; we have had 11           several already who sent in requests and filled out
12           affidavits of citizens that, the only ones that can 13           actually claim an exemption are citizens who are 14           over 65 years of age. It used to be doctors and 15           lawyers and teachers were excused, but the 16           Legislature took that out, and the only ones that 17           can actually claim an exemption are citizens over 18           65. But the Court encourages you to serve because 19           you usually have a lot of life experiences and 20           usually make good jurors. But at this time if you
21           are over 65 years of age and you do not wish to 22           serve, please raise your hand. (No response.)
23           Okay. Thank you very much.

24           All right, and if anyone is in here that has,
25           that is under a doctor's care and is physically
26           cannot serve, you can fill out an affidavit at this 27           time. Is there anyone in that category? Yes,
28           ma'am. What we need you to do, if you are 29           physically under the doctor's care and you

1 physically cannot serve, please come up, and we
2 will give you an affidavit to fill out.

3 (Five jurors come forward.)

4 BY THE CLERK: Does anyone have any questions
5 about what is going to happen today? Okay, Judge
6 Morgan is going to come out on the bench, and he is 7 going to take the bench, and he is going to explain
8 the remaining procedure. No questions? Yes, sir.

9 BY UNIDENTIFIED JUROR: If we have other
10 questions or excuses, just hold on to it?

11 BY THE CLERK: Yes. Judge Morgan is going
12 to-- if you have-- I noticed one lady has her 13 excuse with her. A couple of them brought their 14 excuses with them, and Judge Morgan will get into 15 the remaining excuses when he takes the bench.

16 (Pause while a few jurors filled out the 17 medical excuse forms, and the Clerk left the 18 courtroom to confer with the Court. Upon the 19 Clerk's return to the courtroom, there was the 20 following:)

21 BY THE CLERK: He said you could have a
22 comfort break. Don't leave the courthouse. Just,
23 you know, there is restrooms on either end of this
24 floor, and then there is drink machines and things
25 downstairs. But report back in here and have a
26 seat where you are seated now at 9:30.

27 (UPON MR. LUMUMBA'S ARRIVAL, COURT WAS OPENED
28 WITH ALL OF THE STATE'S COUNSEL PRESENT, MR.
29 LUMUMBA PRESENT, THE DEFENDANT PRESENT, AND THE

1 JURY PANEL:)

2 BY THE COURT: Good morning. How are y'all?
3 My name is Clarence Morgan, and I am from
4 Kosciusko, and you have been called here to try a
5 case that we have had to move down here. From time
6 to time it becomes necessary that cases get moved
7 from one place to another. There will be a time
8 maybe when one from Harrison County has to be moved
9 to Attala County where I am from, and we will go
10 through that same procedure up there.

11 As I say, this is the only case that you are 12 called for so whoever serves on this case-- I mean
13 whoever does not serve on this case will be 14 through. Whoever does serve on it will be here
15 until we get through. I find in my opinion that 16 the two most important things that citizens are 17 required to do in this country are to vote and to 18 serve on juries. And because you vote, you are 19 called to serve on juries. That's why you are here
20 today. It is necessary to have juries for Circuit
21 Court to work. We can't work without it. Juries
22 get to decide the facts, and I get to decide the 23 law in a particular case. But I have to have 24 juries willing and able to serve in order for me to 25 get the business of the Court done or for any of 26 your judges down here to get the business of the 27 Court done.

28 This is a case that originated in Montgomery
29 County. It's not a case in Harrison County, but it

1 is important to everybody involved as if it was a
2 Harrison County case, and just because it is from
3 Montgomery makes it no less important to you as it
4 does the folks in Montgomery County.

5 Now we are going to go through some jury
6 qualifications here. There are certain legal
7 qualifications you must meet in order to serve on a
8 jury in this state. I'm going to go over those 9 with you, and if they apply to you, you need to 10 raise your hand, and I will recognize you. And if 11 you do not meet the qualifications, I'm going to 12 excuse you. Once we get through those 13 qualifications, then I'm going to have-- there are 14 some legal reasons that I can allow people to be 15 excused from jury service. Now you must understand
16 that these legal reasons are provided by statute,
17 and I am bound by what they say. And I will try to 18 accommodate you if I can, but if it does not-- you
19 may have a very valid reason you cannot serve, but 20 if it does not meet the legal standard, then I'm 21 not going to be able to release you or excuse you
22 from jury service because of that reason.

23 This is a capital case that we have. I
24 anticipate this case taking a week to try. Those 25 of you who serve on the jury will be sequestered
26 for the period of time that you are on that jury.
27 Being sequestered means that you will be here while 28 we are holding court sessions. You will be in the 29 charge of bailiffs when we are not. You will be

1           housed at the Holiday Inn, and you will be fed by
2           the state and taken care of that way. But you will
3           not be allowed-- it's not like when we are trying a
4           burglary case where you could go home every night.
5           It will be necessary that you stay.

6           Now I'm going to go over those qualifications
7           with you. If they apply to you, you let me know.
8           In order to serve on a jury in this state, you must 9           be at least 21 years of age. You must be able to 10          read and write. In this case you must be a
11          registered voter of Harrison County. You must not 12          have been convicted of a felony. You cannot have
13          been convicted of the unlawful sale of intoxicating
14          liquors within the last five years. You cannot be 15          a common gambler nor a habitual drunkard. You must 16          not have served on a jury within the last two 17          years, and you must not have a case pending in this 18          court. Obviously, since you are here just for this 19          one case, the case pending in this court would mean
20          if you had any connection to this case at all.

21          Do any of those apply to anybody? Yes, sir.
22          What is your name, sir?

23                 BY JUROR JAMES M. OVERSTREET: James M.
24          Overstreet, and I do frequent the casinos here.

25                 (Laughter.)

26                 BY THE COURT: All right. You know that is 27          one of those questions that I think they ought to 28          eliminate. It used to be relevant, but it's not.
29          Thank you, sir.

1 Yes, ma'am.

2 BY JUROR: I served last year at this time on
3 a burglary, but it was, he decided to plead guilty
4 during the middle of it. Does that count?

5 BY THE COURT: Okay, were you actually sitting
6 in the jury box?

7 BY JUROR: Yes sir.

8 BY THE COURT: Okay, what is your name, ma'am?

9 BY JUROR: Brenda Hedrick.

10 BY THE COURT: All right, Ms. Hedrick, you are
11 excused.

12 I think this has already been done, but I'm 13 going to ask it again. If there is anybody over 14 65, they can claim that as an exemption from jury
15 service. I think y'all have already gone through
16 that.

17 If you work for the Department of Corrections,
18 you can claim that as an excuse from jury service.
19 Yes, sir.

20 BY JUROR: Rupert Lacy. I run a regional 21 county facility, and I have got 250 state inmates
22 in it.

23 BY THE COURT: All right, you want to claim
24 that exemption?

25 BY JUROR: Yes, sir.

26 BY THE COURT: All right, you are excused.

27 (Rupert H. Lacy was excused.)

28 BY THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.

29 BY JUROR: I work at the County Jail. Can I

1                   be excused?

2                   BY THE COURT: That does not disqualify you.
3                   You have to be a member of the Department of 4                   Corrections. That may get you out though.

5                   Okay, I believe we have also gone through
6                   this, but let me go through it again. Is anybody,
7                   everybody that had a doctor's excuse, I assume has 8                   given that to Ms. Parker now; is that correct?

9                   Is there anybody who has somebody in their
10                  family who is so sick that it is necessary for you 11                  to take care of them, and there is nobody else to 12                  take care of them. (Several hands go up.) Okay,
13                  let's start over here. Yes, ma'am.

14                  BY A JUROR: My mother just got out of the 15                  hospital with a bypass, and there is nobody else to 16                  take care of her.

17                  BY THE COURT: Okay, and your name, ma'am?

18                  BY A JUROR: Kathy Shavers.

19                  BY THE COURT: Okay, Ms. Shavers. Who is 20                  taking care of her now?

21                  BY MS. SHAVERS: She is home in bed right
22                  now. The kids are in school, you know, but they 23                  would be there after school.

24                  BY THE COURT: Okay, I'm going to excuse you.

25                  BY MS. SHAVERS: Okay, thank you.

26                  BY THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.

27                  BY A JUROR: My son is a diabetic.

28                  BY THE COURT: Okay, I understand about that 29                  because mine is too. Is there any particular

1 reason though that he has to have care all the
2 time? I mean he takes his own shots and stuff,
3 doesn't he?

4 BY A JUROR: Sometimes.

5 BY THE COURT: Okay. Is there anybody else to 6 take care of him?

7 BY A JUROR: Well, his dad be in and out.

8 BY THE COURT: Okay, I'm going to ask you to 9 stay, ma'am.

10 BY A JUROR: My name is Jamie Alexander. My 11 husband is on the heart transplant list at Ochsner
12 Hospital. I have got a letter from Ochsner's
13 saying we could be called at any time.

14 BY THE COURT: Okay. And you don't know
15 whether that will be this week or next week?

16 BY JUROR MS. ALEXANDER: Oh, no. We have, I
17 mean spur of the moment. We have only minutes to 18 get to Ochsner's.

19 BY THE COURT: And your name, ma'am?

20 BY JUROR MS. ALEXANDER: Jamie Alexander.

21 BY THE COURT: All right, Ms. Alexander, you
22 are excused.

23 (Juror Jamie Alexander was excused.)

24 BY THE COURT: Yes?

25 BY A JUROR: My name is George Jackson. My 26 wife is a diabetic, and she is on peritoneal
27 dialysis at home. She is legally blind, and I have 28 got no one else at home to take care of her.

29 BY THE COURT: All right, you are excused.

1 (Juror George Jackson was excused.)

2 BY THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.

3 BY A JUROR: My mom is a dialysis patient.
4 She goes three times a week, and I take care of 5 her. And my son is also under a lot of medical 6 treatment, and we have a very important doctor's
7 appointment tomorrow.

8 BY THE COURT: He has got an important
9 doctor's appointment tomorrow?

10 BY A JUROR: Uh-huh.

11 BY THE COURT: Is there anybody else to take 12 your mother to dialysis?

13 BY A JUROR: No. I'm the one-- she lives
14 with me, and I have been taking her every morning.

15 BY THE COURT: Okay. All right, ma'am. Your
16 name?

17 BY A JUROR: Dorothy Harper.

18 BY THE COURT: Okay, you are excused.

19 (Juror Dorothy Harper was excused.)

20 BY A JUROR: My mother has dialysis three 21 times a week, and I feed her every night because 22 she is not able to cook.

23 BY THE COURT: She is not able to cook?

24 BY A JUROR: No, I try to take care of 25 everybody.

26 BY THE COURT: Okay, and you feed her every 27 night, go feed, cook for her?

28 BY A JUROR: Yes.

29 BY THE COURT: What is your name, ma'am?

1 BY A JUROR: Betty Jo Bishop.

2 BY THE COURT: You are excused.

3 (Juror Betty Jo Bishop was excused.)

4 BY THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.

5 BY A JUROR: My grandmother is in intensive
6 care in the hospital, and I have been sitting with 7 her taking turns with my mom. They don't expect
8 her to make it much longer.

9 BY THE COURT: Okay. What is your name,
10 ma'am?

11 BY A JUROR: Elizabeth Douglas.

12 BY THE COURT: Okay, Ms. Douglas. You are
13 excused.

14 (Juror Elizabeth Douglas was excused.)

15 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

16 BY A JUROR, EUGENE CROCKETT, JR.: Judge, I
17 don't know if you consider this a member of my 18 family, but I have a German Shepherd that is so
19 big, and everybody is afraid of it. And I am the 20 only one that can feed him and take care of him.

21 BY THE COURT: Well, I have had that come up
22 before. The fact is I had a lady in Hattiesburg
23 one time that had a dog with diabetes. And I
24 couldn't let her go, and I'm afraid I can't let you
25 go for the dog.

26 Yes, ma'am.

27 BY A JUROR: You said it would take a week.
28 This would be only if it dragged on. I am care-
29 taker for my mother who is in assisted living

1 retirement community in New Orleans. I do her
2 medications, and they are done for two weeks. But
3 after that point, someone would have to do them.
4 And I am really the only one to take a lot of them,
5 to go in and set them up for the daily.

6 BY THE COURT: Okay. Well, I am fairly
7 confident this will not take two weeks.

8 BY A JUROR: What if you have small kids and 9 you don't have anyone to take care of them if you
10 have to stay overnight?

11 BY THE COURT: That would be something; you 12 have got nobody that can take care of them at 13 night?

14 BY A JUROR: Right.

15 BY THE COURT: All right. What is your name,
16 ma'am?

17 BY A JUROR: Angela Cook.

18 BY THE COURT: Okay, Ms. Cook, you are
19 excused.

20 (Juror Angela Cook was excused. Several more
21 hands go up. Laughter.)

22 BY THE COURT: Now let me say before all the 23 hands go up, I understand this is going to be 24 inconvenient to everybody. I mean there is nobody
25 sitting here at all that this is going to be a
26 convenient thing to including the lawyers and the 27 Judge. But if there is somebody that can take care
28 of your children and all like that, they just need
29 to do that while we do this. So you need to take

1           that into account before you raise your hand. Yes,
2           ma'am.

3           BY A JUROR: My husband is self-employed. And 4           if he is taking care of my children, he is not
5           working, so it would be a financial hardship on us
6           if he doesn't work.

7           BY THE COURT: Okay. His business would shut
8           down if you are here?

9           BY A JUROR: He is his only employee. He 10          starts a new contract at Treasure Bay. I can have 11          someone watch my children today, but I won't after
12          today.

13          BY THE COURT: Okay, what is your name, ma'am?

14          BY A JUROR: Donna Broussard.

15          BY THE COURT: Okay, Ms. Broussard.

16          (Juror Donna Broussard was excused.)

17          BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

18          BY A JUROR: My wife is a full time student at 19          South Alabama, and she don't get home until 8:00 or 20          9:00 at night, and I have nobody to pick up my son
21          from school and watch him at night.

22          BY THE COURT: Okay. Who is keeping the child
23          now? Is he in school?

24          BY A JUROR: He is in school right now.

25          BY THE COURT: Okay. Your name, sir?

26          BY A JUROR: Glynn Maulden.

27          BY THE COURT: Okay, Mr. Maulden, you are
28          excused.

29          (Juror Darrell Glynn Maulden was excused.)

1                   BY THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.

2                   BY A JUROR: My husband is also
3 self-employed. He is a patrolling land manager,
4 works out of town every Monday through Friday. I
5 have got a 3 year old and a one year old right
6 here, and I--

7                   BY THE COURT: You have got them with you?

8                   BY A JUROR: I have got my one year old with 9 me. My three year old--

10                  BY THE COURT: --That excuse works every 11 time. (Laughter.) Your name, ma'am?

12                  BY A JUROR: Michelle Cooper.

13                  BY THE COURT: Okay, Ms. Cooper, you are
14 excused.

15                  (Juror Myra Michelle Cooper was excused.)

16                  BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

17                  BY A JUROR: I am self-employed, and I own my 18 own business. If I am not there--

19                  BY THE COURT: It closes down?

20                  BY A JUROR: It sho' does.

21                  BY THE COURT: That is one of the excuses I
22 can-- I'm not to that, but I can excuse you for 23 that. What is your name, sir?

24                  BY A JUROR: William Barr.

25                  BY THE COURT: Barr?

26                  BY JUROR BARR: B A R R.

27                  BY THE COURT: Thank you, sir. You are
28 excused.

29                  (Juror William Barr was excused.)

1                   BY THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.

2                   BY A JUROR: I have two children that are in 3 school right now, but when they get home this
4 afternoon, there won't be anyone there to take care
5 of them. My husband is a fireman for the City of 6 Gulfport. He has a meeting today. He works 24
7 hour shifts and then 48 off. And I have a son that 8 is going to be graduating from fire fighting school
9 this Friday.

10                  BY THE COURT: So it is nobody to take care of 11 them?

12                  BY A JUROR: No, sir. My parents are elderly, 13 and they have been ill. I have a sister and my 14 brother-in-law; they both work at night, and my 15 brother is on call from his job.

16                  BY THE COURT: Okay, your name?

17                  BY A JUROR: Nancy Lopez.

18                  BY THE COURT: Okay, you are excused, ma'am.

19                  (Juror Nancy Lopez was excused.)

20                  BY THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.

21                  BY A JUROR: My name is Carrie McGhee. I am a
22 dental hygienist, and I just started this job. We 23 are having to cancel all my patients. This is how 24 I make my living is by seeing the patients I see,
25 so it's going to be a financial hardship.

26                  BY THE COURT: Are you paid by the patient?

27                  BY JUROR MS. MCGHEE: Right.

28                  BY THE COURT: Let me come back to that. I
29 will come back to that in a minute.

1 BY JUROR MS. MCGHEE: Okay.

2 BY THE COURT: Okay, anybody. Whichever one
3 has got your hand up. I can't see that far back.
4 Yes, ma'am.

5 BY A JUROR: My name is Michelle Funderburg.
6 I have two small children at home, no one to take
7 care of them.

8 BY THE COURT: Okay. Who is taking care of 9 them now?

10 BY JUROR MS. FUNDERBURG: My husband is off
11 today, but he works at the Sheriff's Department, so
12 he will work--

13 BY THE COURT: Okay, your name, ma'am?

14 BY JUROR MS. FUNDERBURG: Michelle Funderburg.

15 BY THE COURT: Okay, I'm sorry. You are
16 excused.

17 (Juror Anne Michelle Funderburg was excused.)

18 BY THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.

19 BY A JUROR: I have two children who are also 20 in school, but when they get home, there is nobody
21 there for them. My son is learning disabled, so it
22 is not like he can tell time or get up in the 23 morning to go to school by himself.

24 BY THE COURT: Okay, and there is nobody else
25 to do that?

26 BY A JUROR: No, sir. My father lives down
27 the road, but I am also his transportation. I cook
28 his meals at night too.

29 BY THE COURT: Okay. I'm sorry; did I get

1                   your name?

2                   BY A JUROR: Jo Lena Seay.

3                   BY THE COURT: Okay, you are excused.

4                   BY THE COURT REPORTER: What was her name?

5                   BY THE COURT: I'm sorry; they did not get
6 your last name, ma'am.

7                   BY JUROR MS. SEAY: Seay, S E A Y.

8                   BY THE COURT: Thank you.

9                   (Juror Jo Lena Seay was excused.)

10                  BY A JUROR: My name is Tammy Garner. I have 11 a 9 month old at home. I have a baby sitter that 12 keeps her full time while I work, but I don't have 13 anybody to keep her at night.

14                  BY THE COURT: There is nobody to keep the 15 child at night?

16                  BY JUROR MS. GARNER: I am a single mother.

17                  BY THE COURT: Okay, your name, ma'am?

18                  BY JUROR MS. GARNER: Tammy Garner.

19                  BY THE COURT: Thank you, ma'am. You are
20 excused.

21                  (Juror Tammy Garner was excused.)

22                  BY THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.

23                  BY A JUROR: I have my 3 year old twins with 24 me, and I have no one to keep them.

25                  BY THE COURT: Like I said, that one works.
26 Your name?

27                  BY A JUROR: Mary Martha Glenn Shank. Y'all
28 have got Glenn on my voter thing.

29                  BY THE COURT: Y'all don't go out and spread

1           the word now that anytime you want out of jury
2           service, bring your children with you. Judge
3           Walker will be on me.

4           (Laughter. Juror Mary Martha Glenn was
5           excused.)

6           BY THE COURT: Yes.

7           BY A JUROR: My name is Clarence McDaniel. I
8           am self-employed, and I am my only employee, so
9           it's a financial hardship if I have to serve.

10          BY THE COURT: Okay, I'm going to come back to 11          that in just a minute.

12          All right, yes, ma'am.

13          BY A JUROR: My name is Shirley Valdez. I'm a
14          Civil Court Administrator for the four Circuit
15          Judges here, and I have a small child, and my 16          husband is also an officer with the Sheriff's 17          Department.

18          BY THE COURT: Okay, I'm going to excuse you.

19          (Juror Shirley Valdez was excused.)

20          BY THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.

21          BY A JUROR: My name is Susan Pearson, and I
22          have three small children. They are in school
23          today, but my husband is self-employed, and if he 24          is not working, there is nobody there.

25          BY THE COURT: Does he keep them if you are 26          not, if you are here; is that right?

27          BY JUROR MS. PEARSON: No, they are in school.

28          BY THE COURT: They are in school?

29          BY JUROR MS. PEARSON: Yes, sir.

1                   BY THE COURT: Who keeps them after school?

2                   BY JUROR MS. PEARSON: Me.

3                   BY THE COURT: Okay, there is nobody else to 4 do that?

5                   BY JUROR MS. PEARSON: No, sir.

6                   BY THE COURT: Okay, your name; I'm sorry?

7                   BY JUROR MS. PEARSON: Susan Pearson.

8                   BY THE COURT: You are excused.

9                   (Juror Susan Pearson was excused.)

10                  BY THE COURT: Let's go over here. Yes, sir.

11                  BY A JUROR: My name is Joe Paola. I am
12 self-employed, and if I'm not out in the field

15                  BY JUROR MR. PAOLA: I'm in the fence

26                  BY THE COURT: Okay, you are excused. Yes,
27 ma'am. Did y'all get-- I'm sorry; I thought y'all
28 got it. Mr. Meehan, give them your name.

29                  BY JUROR MR. MEEHAN: Meehan, M E E H A N.

1 (Juror John W. Meehan, III was excused.)

2 BY THE COURT: Yes, ma'am. You.

3 BY A JUROR: My name is Janelle Anderson. I
4 have three small children, two at school, and one
5 is at home right now. My fiance had to come home
6 on his lunch break to watch them, and he is also a
7 police officer. I don't know if that matters.

8 BY THE COURT: Okay. There is nobody else to 9 keep the children?

10 BY JUROR MS. ANDERSON: No. He works days and 11 I work nights so.

12 BY THE COURT: Okay. And your name; I'm 13 sorry?

14 BY JUROR MS. ANDERSON: Janelle Anderson.

15 BY THE COURT: Okay, Ms. Anderson, you are
16 excused.

17 (Juror Janelle M. Anderson was excused.)

18 BY THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.

19 BY A JUROR: My name is Zenobia Holt, and I
20 own my own business, and when the doors are closed,

21 when my husband is not working so he can keep 22 them. We don't have any family here locally to 25 after school.

26                  BY THE COURT: And your name, ma'am?

27                  BY JUROR MS. MARTIN: My name is Deborah

24 May I be excused?

25                  BY THE COURT: How old are they?

26                  BY JUROR MS. WINBURN: They are, one just 27 turned 11, and one is 15.

28                  BY THE COURT: And one is how old?

29                  BY JUROR MS. WINBURN: One is 15.

1                   BY THE COURT: Okay, the 15 year old can't 2                   take care of the 11 year old until--

3                   BY JUROR MS. WINBURN: I would not, I would 4                   not want her to be responsible for the 11 year
5                   old. She just turned 11.

6                   BY THE COURT: There is nobody else that can 7                   keep these children?

8                   BY JUROR MS. WINBURN: No. I have no family

20                  BY A JUROR: If I am chosen today, I have a
21                  panic disorder, and I take Pancet and Trazodone.
22                  If I am chosen today, will I be able to go home and 23                  get my medicine or do they--

24                  BY THE COURT: --We will get that for you.

25                  BY A JUROR: You will get it for me?

26                  BY THE COURT: Yeah, I will make arrangements
27                  that you have that.

28                  BY A JUROR: Okay, then. Thank you.

29                  (Juror leaves from the bench.)

1                   BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

2                   BY A JUROR: I am single. I live on 20
3 acres. I have got four Rotweilers, a bunch of 4 chickens, peacocks. No one that can take care of 5 the dogs.

6                   BY THE COURT: There is nobody else to take
7 care of them?

8                   BY A JUROR: Nobody.

9                   BY THE COURT: Okay, and you live by 10 yourself?

11                  BY A JUROR: Yes, I do.

12                  BY THE COURT: All right. Your name, sir?

13                  BY A JUROR: Gary Sergeant.

14                  BY THE COURT: All right, you are excused.
15 (Juror Gary Sergeant was excused.)

16                  BY THE COURT: Yes, ma'am?

17                  BY A JUROR: Yes, sir. I have a son disabled
18 that is 12, and I have a husband that is 65 who is 19 epileptic. And I need to be home with my son. I
20 have to read to him every night in order for him to 21 get the knowledge that he needs.

22                  BY THE COURT: Your name, ma'am?

23                  BY A JUROR: Hazel Brown. It could be under 24 McDowell.

25                  BY THE COURT: Okay, you are excused.
26 (Juror Hazel McDowell was excused.)

27                  BY THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.

28                  BY A JUROR: My name is Jamie Hatcher, and I
29 have a 1 year old that is nursing, so I need to be

1                   there to feed her every night. (Laughter).

2                   BY THE COURT: That is not unusual, but that
3                   is the first time I have had that. And your name
4                   again, ma'am?

5                   BY JUROR MS. HATCHER: Jamie Hatcher.

6                   BY THE COURT: Okay, you are excused.
7                   (Juror Jamie Hatcher was excused.)

14                  me pain right now, and the doctor told me to come 15                  back if it was giving me problems. If I am not 16                  excused, is there any way I can call and get, order
17                  me some medicine for pain?

18                  BY THE COURT: Sure. Yeah, I will make sure
19                  that you get whatever you need.
20                  (Juror leaves the bench.)

26                  of my parents are deceased.

27                  BY THE COURT: Okay, give me your name again.

28                  BY JUROR MS. MITCHELL: Angela Mitchell.

29                  BY THE COURT: Okay, Ms. Mitchell, you are

1                   excused.

2                   (Juror Angela Mitchell was excused.)

3                   BY THE COURT: There was one other hand back
4 here. Yes, ma'am.

5                   BY A JUROR: My name is Jeanne Helling. I am
6 self-employed, a one person business. If I'm not 7 there, the doors are closed.

8                   BY THE COURT: What type of business is it,
9 ma'am?

10                  BY JUROR MS. HELLING: Sales business.

11                  BY THE COURT: Your name again?

12                  BY JUROR MS. HELLING: Jeanne Helling.

13                  BY THE COURT: Okay, you are excused.

14                  (Juror Jeanne Helling was excused.)

15                  BY THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.

16                  BY A JUROR: I'm a special ed case manager at 17 LaZanta Elementary, and we only have two special ed
18 teachers, and the other will be gone Tuesday
19 through Thursday of this week. And we have 20 children with emotional disabilities. If neither
21 one of us are there, we kind of run into problems.

22                  BY THE COURT: Is there nobody that can take 23 your place?

24                  BY A JUROR: We do not use subs. They do not 25 get a sub for our classroom. It's a resource 26 room. We have a pull out program. So the 27 principal is not able to get subs for our classes.

28                  BY THE COURT: Okay. And you are the only one
29 that can do that this week?

1 BY A JUROR: The other one will be gone
2 Tuesday through Thursday; yes, sir.

3 BY THE COURT: Your name, ma'am?

4 BY A JUROR: Katherine Ladner.

5 BY THE COURT: You are excused, Ms. Ladner.
6 (Juror Katherine Ladner was excused.)

7 BY THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.

8 BY A JUROR: My name is Susan Wilson. I just 9 gained employment. I have been employed for four 10 days in a full time job. I have been trying to 11 gain employment and been working as an independent
12 contractor and as a temp for the past two years
13 since my husband passed away. I have two teenage
14 children, and I am the sole provider, although I do
15 receive a little social security pension.

16 BY THE COURT: How old are your children?

17 BY JUROR MS. WILSON: 16 and 19.

18 BY THE COURT: Okay. Well, they can take care
19 of themselves.

20 BY JUROR MS. WILSON: Yeah, that is not my 21 problem. My problem is I have only been working
22 four days, and because it is in show situation, I
23 have to be there for rehearsals. You know, it's a
24 brand new job.

25 BY THE COURT: Okay. Your name again, ma'am?

26 BY JUROR MS. WILSON: Susan Wilson.

27 BY THE COURT: Okay, Ms. Wilson, you are
28 excused.

29 (Juror Susan Wilson was excused.)

1                   BY THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.

2                   BY A JUROR: I am on medication that makes me
3 sleepy, so I don't know if that is.

4                   BY THE COURT: No, ma'am. That wouldn't
5 necessarily disqualify you. And we are going-- I
6 mean we are not going to work five or six hours at 7 a time. I will take breaks and stuff. I can't 8 hold out either.

9                   Yes, ma'am.

10                  BY A JUROR: My name is Renee Jenkins, and I
11 am self-employed, and I also work a part time job,
12 and I have two small children.

13                  BY THE COURT: Okay, what kind of job do you
14 have, ma'am?

15                  BY JUROR MS. JENKINS: A trophy and plaque
16 business, and I'm the only one that can run the 17 machines. It's my husband and myself. He does the 18 sales, and I actually put together the trophies and 19 plaques.

20                  BY THE COURT: Okay. And your name again?

21                  BY JUROR MS. JENKINS: Renee Jenkins.

22                  BY THE COURT: Okay, Ms. Jenkins.

23                  (Juror Renee Jenkins was excused.)

24                  BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

25                  BY A JUROR: Danny Blackmon from Blackmon
26 Trailer Sales. I am a sole proprietor also in a
27 business.

28                  BY JUROR MS. JENKINS: Am I excused?

29                  BY THE COURT: Yes, ma'am; you are excused.

1           It's a trailer--

2           BY JUROR MR. BLACKMON: It's truck trailer
3 distributorship. I just put in seven months ago in 4 the Poplarville area. I am closed by being here.

5           BY THE COURT: You are closed today?

6           BY JUROR MR. BLACKMON: Yes, sir.

7           BY THE COURT: All right, your name?

8           BY JUROR MR. BLACKMON: Danny Blackmon.

9           BY THE COURT: Okay, you are excused.

10          (Juror Danny Blackmon was excused.)

11          BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

12          BY A FEMALE JUROR: May I approach the bench,
13 please?

14          BY A MALE JUROR: I am Sheldon Detwiler. I am
15 self-employed, one employee. The business is shut
16 down today.

17          BY THE COURT: You are shut down?

18          BY MALE JUROR: Yes, sir.

19          BY THE COURT: Your name, sir?

20          BY JUROR MR. DETWILER: Sheldon Detwiler.

21          BY THE COURT: Okay, you are excused.

22          (Female juror approached the bench.)

23          BY A JUROR: My employer asked me that I give 24 this to you.

25          (Pause while the Court reads a letter.)

26          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can we approach?

27          BY THE COURT: Sure.

28          (Mr. Lumumba and Mr. Evans approached the 29 bench.)

1 BY A JUROR: I don't mind serving but--

2 BY THE COURT: Is there nobody else that can
3 do this job but you?

4 BY A JUROR: There is other people, but we are 5 just short of staff.

6 BY THE COURT: Okay. I can't excuse you for
7 that.

8 BY A JUROR: Okay. Thank you, sir.

9 (That female juror left the bench.)

10 BY THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.

11 BY A JUROR: May I approach the bench?

12 BY THE COURT: You may. Y'all can come back
13 if you want to.

14 (Juror Teresa M. Finch approached the bench.)

15 BY JUROR MS. FINCH: I didn't want to seem 16 like I had a flimsy excuse. I have children; one
17 of them is 17, so she can watch my children in the 18 afternoon. They do have a problem getting home and 19 that type of thing, but I am sure I have plenty of 20 people who will, you know, help me in that area.

21 BY THE COURT: All right.

22 BY JUROR MS. FINCH: But I had sent you a
23 letter in regard to this week, and I am sure you
24 have already read my letter, but I do volunteer
25 work at my children's school which is like a
26 christian academy, and I teach 17 students music,
27 and I am their only teacher. We have a convention;
28 it's usually held in Kosciusko. I have been in 29 Kosciusko every year for the past several years for

1           this convention. It is through the Christian
2           School Association, and anyway we are having it
3           here locally this year. And that is in two weeks,
4           and I am just, I am up to my ears in trying to get
5           these kids prepared. And I am their only teacher,
6           their only source for this, and it is on a
7           volunteer basis.

8           BY THE COURT: All right. Well, let me ask
9           you about this. This is piano?

10          BY JUROR MS. FINCH: No, sir. It involves 11          everything from academics to sports, but my end is 12          music. And what it is, is I have an ensemble. I
13          have a solo ensemble; I have trios; I have duets
14          and soloists, and I teach music to them, and I am
15          preparing them for this competition.

16          BY THE COURT: And there is nobody else to do
17          that at all?

18          BY JUROR MS. FINCH: No, sir. I am their 19          teacher. I do have-- I'm not going to lie to you.
20          I do have a minister of music locally who I took 21          all the music to, and I asked him to please come
22          in, you know, and meet with the children this week
23          in case I was sequestered. And he said he would do
24          that. And you know, if it is only going to be the 25          week, maybe I can handle it. But the problem is 26          you have got students who have never worked with 27          anybody else but me, and they just get all 28          flustered, and it is just really important to 29          them. So it's in your hands.

1                   BY THE COURT: I realize it is going to be
2                   inconvenient, but I need for you to be here. I'm 3                   going to ask you to stay if you will, Ms. Finch.

4                   BY JUROR MS. FINCH: Well, I prayed about it
5                   so--

6                   BY THE COURT: Another type of case or 7                   something like that I might could do it, but I'm 8                   going to ask you to stay. You may get lucky and 9                   not get picked. I'm sorry. Okay.

10                  (Ms. Finch leaves the bench.)

11                  BY THE COURT: Yes.

12                  BY A JUROR: I just need to ask you. I have a 13                  loan closing this afternoon at 3 o'clock on some 14                  land that we are buying. The man is coming from 15                  out of town that we are buying. Is there any way I
16                  can-- it's like right around the corner at 3
17                  o'clock-- go close a loan?

18                  BY THE COURT: How long do you think it is 19                  going to take?

20                  BY A JUROR: Probably about 30 minutes.

21                  BY THE COURT: Yeah, we can probably do that.
22                  I think we can probably do that. I don't think we 23                  will be through with what we have got to do by 24                  then, but we will try to take a break about 3
25                  o'clock, and that way that will let you go do
26                  that. Okay?

27                  BY A JUROR: Okay. Thank you.

28                  BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

29                  BY A JUROR: My name is Andrew Hurst. I am

1 self-employed as a mechanic. My business is shut
2 down right now because I am here.

3 BY THE COURT: All right, did y'all get his
4 name?

5 BY THE CLERK: No, sir.

6 BY JUROR MR. HURST: Andrew Hurst.

7 BY THE COURT: You are excused.

8 (Juror Andrew Hurst was excused.)

9 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

10 BY A JUROR: Can I approach the bench?

11 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

12 (Male juror approached the bench.)

13 BY JUROR: I have a letter from my employer.
14 I work for a local financial institution. I am a
15 technology manager for a 13 million dollar project,
16 and part of my duties involve getting the bank
17 prepared for Year 2K readiness. An extended
18 absence could create a problem for the bank. In 19 addition to that, I have a house under construction
20 that requires my daily visit to that.

21 BY THE COURT: Do you have a contract?

22 BY A JUROR: For the house?

23 BY THE COURT: Yeah.

24 BY A JUROR: It's under construction right
25 now.

26 BY THE COURT: I mean do you have a contractor
27 building it?

28 BY A JUROR: Yes, but you have to oversee the 29 contractor to make sure that--

1 (Pause while the Court reads the letter from 2 the juror.)

3 BY THE COURT: Mr. Lumumba, do you want to see
4 this?

5 (Pause while Mr. Lumumba reads the letter.)

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No objection.

7 BY THE COURT: I'm going to excuse Mr.
8 Louque. All right.

9 BY JUROR MR. LOUQUE: Thank you, Your Honor.

10 (Juror Mr. Dalton Judge Louque was excused.
11 Mr. Louque left the bench, and another man
12 approaches.)

13 BY A JUROR: Your Honor, I have no personal
14 problems, but I do have some neighbors who are 15 elderly and both overweight. I am called on 16 regularly for times when they fall. The elderly
17 lady, she is very weak. She gets up to go to bed;
18 her husband helps her. Her knees buckle a lot of 19 times, and I am called on a regular basis.

20 BY THE COURT: I can't excuse you for that 21 though. They are not family members, so I can't do
22 that.

23 (Male juror leaves the bench.)

24 BY ANOTHER MALE JUROR: Judge.

25 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

26 (Another male juror approaches.)

27 BY A MALE JUROR: Judge, I am a self-employed
28 attorney, and I have many cases I--

29 BY THE COURT: I have been there and done

1           that.

2           BY JUROR: But I don't think I could be death
3 qualified, so you are going to have to let me go
4 for cause later anyway.

5           BY THE COURT: Okay. Your name, sir?

6           BY A JUROR: Mack Bethea.

7           BY THE COURT: Okay, you are excused.

8           BY MR. LUMUMBA: What was that name?

9           BY THE COURT: He is an attorney,
10 self-employed attorney. Mr. McVae, I think.

11           (Juror Mack Bethea leaves the bench, and 12 another male juror approaches.)

13           BY A JUROR: Your Honor, about 6 months ago I
14 had a 26 year old black man attempted to murder my 15 father-in-law, and he robbed him. And I just don't 16 feel comfortable on a trial like this.

17           BY THE COURT: Okay. When we get into the 18 voir dire, I'm going to ask that particular 19 question, and you can tell me about it then. That 20 will probably have that effect, but I can't do it
21 at this point. Okay?

22           (Male juror leaves the bench.)

23           BY THE COURT: Anybody else got the, where 24 they have got their own business? Okay. Yes,
25 sir.

26           BY A JUROR: My name is James Mace. I am a 27 physician, solo practitioner. There is no one to 28 take care of my patients.

29           BY THE COURT: All right. Did you get his

1 name?

2 BY THE CLERK: Mace?

3 BY JUROR DR. MACE: M A C E.

4 BY THE COURT: All right, you are excused.

5 (Juror James Mace was excused.)

6 BY THE COURT: Where is the dental hygienist?

7 Okay. Give me your name again.

8 BY A JUROR: Carrie McGhee.

9 BY THE COURT: Okay, Ms. McGhee, you are
10 excused.

11 (Juror Carrie McGhee was excused.)

12 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

13 BY A JUROR: I am self-employed, and I seem to 14 be the only one that you didn't let out.

15 BY THE COURT: Have we talked?

16 BY A JUROR: Yeah, we have.

17 BY THE COURT: Okay, what is your job?

18 BY A JUROR: I have a pest control business.

19 BY THE COURT: And there is nobody to do it
20 but you?

21 BY A JUROR: I'm it.

22 BY THE COURT: Okay. Your name, sir?

23 BY A JUROR: Clarence McDaniel.

24 BY THE COURT: Yeah. Okay, Mr. McDaniel. I
25 must have just misunderstood you. I'm sorry. You
26 are excused. Okay.

27 (Juror Mr. C. A. McDaniel was excused.)

28 BY THE COURT: Anybody else got any reason
29 they cannot serve? Yes, sir.

1 BY A JUROR: I am an offshore worker. I have
2 to leave out Thursday to go work on oil rigs. I
3 work for two weeks in, two weeks out.

4 BY THE COURT: All right, and your name, sir?

5 BY A JUROR: Daniel Morgan.

6 BY THE COURT: You are excused.

7 (Juror Mr. Daniel Lee Morgan was excused.)

8 BY A JUROR: Yes, sir. I am a driver. I am
9 the only one that supports myself at all, and if I
10 serve, it is definitely going to put me in a pinch
11 money wise.

12 BY THE COURT: All right, who do you drive
13 for?

14 BY A JUROR: Cardinal Flower Shop.

15 BY THE COURT: You deliver for them?

16 BY A JUROR: Yes, sir.

17 BY THE COURT: Are you paid based on your 18 deliveries?

19 BY A JUROR: I am paid by the hour.

20 BY THE COURT: Okay. Is there anybody else to 21 do that job?

22 BY A JUROR: We have a part time guy, but I
23 have no one else that supports me or gives me any 24 kind of money. I mean I am it.

25 BY THE COURT: All right, and your name?

26 BY A JUROR: Trent Brown.

27 BY THE COURT: You are excused.

28 (Juror Trent Brown was excused.)

29 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

1           BY A JUROR: My name is David Dobson. I got a
2 speeding ticket in Hattiesburg about a month ago,
3 and I have court on Friday.

4           BY THE COURT: Okay. They will have to 5 continue that for you, and we will get word to them
6 why you won't be there if you are chosen.
7 Yes, sir.

8           BY A JUROR: My name is Robert Maynard. I
9 work as a dealer in a casino. The basis of my 10 income is on tips. If I am not there to work at 11 all, I make basically less than minimum wage is 12 what the casino pays me.

13           BY THE COURT: Okay. I can't excuse you for 14 that though.

15           Yes, sir.

16           BY A JUROR: My name is Bobby McLeod. I have 17 got a wife and two children at home, and I am the 18 only means of income. I am paid on commission. I
19 paint cars for a living.

20           BY THE COURT: You are paid on commission?

21           BY JUROR MR. McLEOD: And if I don't paint, I
22 don't make no money.

23           BY THE COURT: Okay, you are excused. What is 24 your name?

25           BY JUROR MR. McLEOD: Bobby McLeod, Robert
26 McLeod. Thank you.

27           BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

28           BY A JUROR: May I approach, sir?

29           (Juror approaches the bench.)

1 BY A JUROR: My sister is having heart surgery
2 in Jackson, Mississippi, tomorrow morning.

3 BY THE COURT: Tomorrow morning?

4 BY A JUROR: Now I'm not going up there, but 5 what is going on is me and my wife are going to be 6 watching her child down here. My wife has night
7 classes on Wednesday and Thursday nights. We have 8 someone else to watch them during the day, but not 9 at night.

10 BY THE COURT: You have nobody to watch those 11 children at night?

12 BY A JUROR: No, sir.

13 BY THE COURT: Your name, sir?

14 BY A JUROR: Jason Serpas.

15 BY THE COURT: Jason Serpas, I'm going to 16 excuse.

17 BY JUROR MR. SERPAS: Thank you, sir.

18 (Juror Jason Serpas was excused.)

19 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

20 BY A JUROR: May I approach?

21 (Juror approached the bench.)

22 BY JUROR MR. THOMAS L. FRANKLIN: My question
23 is a little different. I feel it is my duty to 24 serve, and I want to serve. I own five businesses,
25 and I still want to serve. But my wife and I have 26 been together for over 20 years. My only question
27 is do I get conjugal visitations?

28 BY THE COURT: No. I can't. John Grisham
29 would let you, but I can't. No, sir. It would not

1                   be, you would not be able to. You are not going to 2                   have any contact with anybody but the other
3                   jurors. All right.

4                   (Juror Mr. Franklin leaves the bench.)

5                   BY THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.

6                   (Juror Anita Young approaches the bench.)

7                   BY THE COURT: (To the attorneys) You might 8                   as well stay up here.

9                   BY JUROR ANITA YOUNG: Can I please go to my 10                  dentist's office and then come back?

11                  BY THE COURT: How long is that going to 12                  take?

13                  BY JUROR MS. YOUNG: At Courthouse Road and he 14                  will see me, I am sure, if I walk in.

15                  BY THE COURT: Well, how long do you think it
16                  is going to take?

17                  BY JUROR MS. YOUNG: An hour.

18                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: What is that?

19                  BY THE COURT: She has had a root canal, and 20                  she needs some medication for it.

21                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. How long do you
22                  normally take?

23                  BY THE COURT: To get the list together?

24                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah.

25                  BY THE COURT: She told me probably about 15
26                  minutes or so.

27                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Oh. Can she go at lunch?

28                  BY THE COURT: Yeah, can you go at lunch? Can 29                  you make arrangements to go at lunch?

1 BY JUROR MS. YOUNG: He probably won't be
2 there.

3 BY THE COURT: I'm going to try to accommodate
4 you. Let me--

5 BY JUROR MS. YOUNG: --I will be back. I will 6 be back; okay.

7 BY THE COURT: I know you will be back, but I
8 have got to get started on some other stuff.
9 That's what I am trying to look at. Are you in 10 pain now?

11 BY JUROR MS. YOUNG: Uh-hum.

12 BY MR. EVANS: Do you think you are going to 13 be able to sit through the trial if there is a
14 trial?

15 BY JUROR MS. YOUNG: If it stops hurting. If 16 not, uh-uh.

17 BY MR. EVANS: If she is already in that much 18 pain, it worries me that she is going to be able to 19 stay anyway.

20 BY THE COURT: Well, we are going to see if
21 her dentist can fix her. I tell you what let's
22 do. How about if I break about 11:30?

23 BY JUROR MS. YOUNG: Oh, man. Can't I just go
24 and come back?

25 BY THE COURT: I tell you what let's do. I'm 26 going to let her go and then let her get this 27 tended to and come back and make a report to me.
28 If we have to, we will individually voir dire her.
29 How about that?

1 BY MR. EVANS: That will be fine.

2 BY JUROR MS. YOUNG: Thank you.

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: What was her name?

4 BY THE CLERK: Anita Young.

5 (Juror Anita Young left the courtroom.)

6 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

7 BY THE CLERK: Judge, did you--

8 BY THE COURT: --She is coming back. She has 9 got to see a dentist about some pain medicine.

10 (A male juror approaches the bench.)

11 BY A JUROR: I have got a couple of reasons.
12 I have got a doctor's appointment that has been 13 scheduled for the past month at Keesler Medical 14 Center.

15 (Hands a document to the Court.)

16 It's a hernia, and it ain't getting any better.

17 BY THE COURT: When is it?

18 BY A JUROR: It's tomorrow morning at 9:30,
19 and Friday my car got totaled. So I am driving a 20 rental car, and it is twenty-four bucks a day, and 21 I have got to make permanent arrangements and see
22 people about getting something done that's 23 permanent, you know, get something more permanent
24 than what I've got for driving.

25 BY THE COURT: Okay.

26 BY A JUROR: That is my name; that is the 27 driver. I'm the owner, and the guy driving--

28 BY THE COURT: --What is your name?

29 BY A JUROR: Robert Ross.

1                   BY THE COURT: I'm going to excuse Mr. Ross,
2 Robert Ross for medical reasons.

3                   BY JUROR MR. ROSS: Thank you, sir.

4                   (Juror Robert Ross was excused.)

5                   BY THE COURT: Have they been sworn to answer
6 questions?

7                   BY THE CLERK: Yes, sir, but not to try the
8 case.

9                   BY THE COURT: Not to try the case, but they 10 have been sworn to answer questions?

11                   BY THE CLERK: Yes, sir.

12                   BY THE COURT: All right, what we are going to 13 have to do now is the Clerk is going to have to 14 make up a list of those of you who have qualified
15 for jury service. And we are going to get you
16 seated, and we are going to give you some numbers.
17 The numbers are for the purpose of me and the 18 attorneys being able to identify you because we are 19 going to do a voir dire examination in a minute,
20 and I'm going to tell you more about that when we 21 get to it. But it is where we ask some questions
22 of you in an effort to get a fair and impartial
23 jury in this case. And I need to make a record of 24 who answers what, and that's the reason you will
25 get numbers, and we will seat you in that order.
26 Now it will take us a little bit of time to do
27 that, but we are going to get started at it right
28 now.

29                   Let me see the lawyers up here just a second.

1 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
2 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

3 BY THE COURT: Here is the procedure that they
4 do down here. When they pull the venire, the 5 computer pulls it randomly, but it prints it out,
6 as you know, alphabetically. Their procedure down
7 here is then to take all of the cards from 8 everybody that is here, put them in a box, and 9 shuffle them up, and then pull them out randomly
10 which I think is appropriate because I think the 11 other way excludes folks with names with "W" and 12 "T." Any objection to that at all by either
13 side?

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, sir.

15 BY MR. EVANS: No, sir.

16 BY THE COURT: Okay. That's what she is going
17 to do right now. All right.

18 BY THE CLERK: Okay, are you ready?

19 BY THE COURT: Uh-hum.

20 BY THE BAILIFF: Your Honor, this juror wants
21 to talk to you.

22 (Juror Mr. Eugene Crockett, Jr. approaches
23 the bench.)

24 BY JUROR MR. CROCKETT: I am the one that--

25 BY THE COURT: About the dog?

26 BY JUROR MR. CROCKETT: Yes. And the dog is 27 kind of large, you know, and everybody is afraid of 28 him. So I can't let nobody else feed him.

29 BY THE COURT: Isn't there somebody can feed

1                   this dog? I need you to stay.

2                   BY JUROR MR. CROCKETT: My wife might be able
3                   to.

4                   BY THE COURT: Okay.

5                   (Juror leaves the bench. Another juror
6                   approaches.

7                   BY A JUROR: I have a question. Mine is not
8                   hard, I promise.

9                   BY THE COURT: All right.

10                  BY A JUROR: Until Wednesday I am in care of a
11                  smaller child who is 14 who is pretty much capable 12                  of taking care of himself. He could live one night 13                  alone if he had to. Would we would be allowed to 14                  at least call him? My mother will be back
15                  Wednesday. Will I be able to call him tomorrow at 16                  all?

17                  BY THE COURT: I can probably make 18                  arrangements for that.

19                  BY A JUROR: That's all I need to do. He is 20                  14, but I'm going to make sure he gets up and goes
21                  to school and make sure he makes it home.

22                  BY THE COURT: I can make arrangements for
23                  that.

24                  BY A JUROR: I just wanted to make sure I
25                  could do that. Thank you.

26                  (Juror leaves the bench.)

27                  BY THE COURT: Okay.

28                  BY THE CLERK: As your name is called, please
29                  come forward and have your juror information card

1           available, and the bailiffs will show you where to
2           have a seat. John Cuevas.

3           (THE CLERK HAD THE JURORS' NAMES ON SLIPS OF 4           PAPER IN A BOX WHICH SHE DREW OUT AND CALLED, AND
5           THE JURORS WERE THEN SEATED IN THAT ORDER AND GIVEN
6           A NUMBERED FAN NUMBERING 1 THROUGH 74. ANITA
7           YOUNG'S NAME WAS CALLED AS NUMBER 50, AND A PLACE
8           WAS SAVED FOR HER WHEN SHE RETURNED FROM THE 9           DENTIST. AT THE CONCLUSION OF THE CALL OF NAMES,
10          THERE WAS THE FOLLOWING:)

11          BY THE CLERK: Okay. Your Honor, the box is 12          exhausted.

13          BY THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, what we 14          have to do now, we have to now make a list of you 15          in the order that you have been called so that the 16          attorneys will have one, and I will have one and 17          the Court Reporter will have one. That will take a
18          few minutes for us to do. I'm going to give you a 19          break for about 15 or 20 minutes while that is 20          being done, and don't lose your number, but you
21          don't have to stay in your seats. You can take a 22          break until we come back and get started with the 23          voir dire examination in this case.

24          BY THE BAILIFF: One just came in to be 25          qualified.

26          BY THE COURT: All right. Bring him up here.
27          I have got one more who has not been qualified at 28          all, so I'm going to qualify him, and then we will 29          make him the last one if he qualifies.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

2 BY THE COURT: If you will raise your right
3 hand, she is going to give you an oath.

4 (While the Clerk was swearing that juror to 5 answer questions, another juror who had been 6 through the qualification approached the bench and 7 addressed the Court as follows:)

8 BY A JUROR: I have a question. I have an 9 appointment at 11:30 to remove whatever is embedded
10 in my finger that has been there for two months.
11 Do I need to cancel?

12 BY THE COURT: Yeah, you do. I wish you
13 didn't but--

14 BY A JUROR: --and my finger may fall off and 15 then you will feel real bad.

16 BY THE COURT: I promise you I feel bad. I
17 will send you a card. What number are you?

18 BY JUROR MS. SHILSTONE: 42.

19 BY THE COURT: Well, you may not get picked 20 anyhow.

21 BY JUROR MS. SHILSTONE: That's true. And 22 maybe you will lunch at that time.

23 BY THE COURT: Right.

24 (New juror that was just sworn to answer the 25 questions approached the bench.)

26 BY THE COURT: All right, sir. In order to 27 serve on a jury in this state, there are certain
28 qualifications you have to meet. I'm going to go
29 over those with you and ask if any of those apply

1 to you. You have got to be 21. You have got to be
2 a registered voter in Harrison County. You have 3 got to be able to read and write, and you cannot
4 have been convicted of a felony. You cannot have
5 been convicted of the unlawful sale of intoxicating
6 liquors within the last five years. You can't be a
7 common gambler nor habitual drunkard. You must not 8 have served on a jury in this county within the 9 last two years and not have a case pending in this 10 court. This will be the only case. Any of that 11 apply to you?

12 BY A JUROR: No, sir.

13 BY THE COURT: Okay, you are not over 65
14 obviously. Do you work for the Department of 15 Corrections?

16 BY A JUROR: No.

17 BY THE COURT: Do you have a medical excuse
18 why you could not serve?

19 BY A JUROR: No.

20 BY THE COURT: Do you have anybody in your 21 family who is so ill that you have to take care of 22 them, and there is nobody else to take care of 23 them?

24 BY A JUROR: No.

25 BY THE COURT: Do you run your own business?

26 BY A JUROR: No.

27 BY THE COURT: Okay, you work for somebody
28 else. Is there any reason that you know you can't 29 serve?

1 BY A JUROR: No, sir.

2 BY THE COURT: All right. Mr. Collins, is
3 it?

4 BY A JUROR: Yes, sir.

5 BY THE COURT: All right, Mr. Collins is
6 qualified. Give him the last number.

7 (Juror Mr. William E. Collins was given number 8 75.)

9 (FOLLOWING A RECESS FOR THE LIST TO BE TYPED,
10 THE JURORS WERE BROUGHT BACK INTO THE COURTROOM,
11 AND WITH ALL COUNSEL PRESENT EXCEPT MR. FREELON AND 12 WITH THE DEFENDANT PRESENT, THERE WAS THE
13 FOLLOWING:)

14 BY THE COURT: Okay, ladies and gentlemen, we 15 have gotten the list made, and there is a matter
16 that I'm going to have to hear outside y'all's
17 presence. It'll take a little while. By the time
18 I do that, it is going to take us up to the lunch
19 break. I'm going to let you have a lunch break
20 from now until 1 o'clock and ask you to be back in 21 your seat at 1 o'clock, and we will start with the 22 voir dire at that time.

23 Now of course, y'all have heard nothing about 24 this case, and it would make it hard to talk about 25 it to begin with, but you can't talk about this 26 case at all. You cannot allow anybody to talk to 27 you about it, and I cannot allow anybody to talk
28 about it in your presence while you are on any 29 break. If you should run into any type of media

1 coverage in relation to this case, then you should
2 not listen to it and get to where you cannot hear
3 it or not read it or whatever.

4 Any other instructions from either lawyer?

5 BY MR. EVANS: None from the State, Your
6 Honor.

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, sir.

8 BY THE COURT: Okay, I will see y'all at 1
9 o'clock.

10 (AS THE JURORS STARTED TO LEAVE THE ROOM, 11 JUROR NUMBER 29, JASON L. SMITH, APPROACHED THE 12 BENCH FOR THE FOLLOWING:)

13 BY THE COURT: Mr. Lumumba.

14 BY JUROR MR. JASON SMITH: Sir, I think I
15 already know a little bit about this case.

16 BY THE COURT: Okay.

17 BY JUROR MR. SMITH: I have got friends.

18 BY THE COURT: Okay, I'm going to ask-- that
19 will be part of the voir dire examination, and I
20 will ask you. Now when I ask you that question, I
21 do not want you to tell me what you know. You can 22 just acknowledge that you do know something about 23 it. Okay?

24 BY JUROR MR. SMITH: But you do want me to 25 come back?

26 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir. I will need you.

27 (Juror Jason Smith leaves the courtroom.)

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: What did he say, Judge?

29 BY THE COURT: He said that he thought he knew

1 something about this case.

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

3 (A female juror approaches the bench.)

4 BY A JUROR: Hi. Your Honor, could you
5 clarify something for me?

6 BY THE COURT: Uh-hum.

7 BY A JUROR: I work in an office where I am
8 the only person, but it's not my business, and I am
9 not self-employed. My employer is from Atlanta. I
10 am a property manager, and if he needed to, he 11 could have another manager come in and take my 12 place. Does the law compel him to pay me because I
13 am not a salaried employee?

14 BY THE COURT: No, it does not. But for what 15 it is worth, you will be paid something while you
16 are here.

17 BY A JUROR: Okay, so that is not a good
18 reason to ask to be excused?

19 BY THE COURT: No, ma'am. Thank you.

20 (Female juror leaves the courtroom.)

21 BY THE COURT: No more jurors in the room, are
22 there?

23 BY THE BAILIFF: No, sir.

24 BY THE COURT: There is filed in this cause a
25 Motion to Quash the Jury Venire by the Defendant.
26 The Court will hear that at this time.

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Thank you. Judge, my motion
28 was brought after I had an opportunity to see some 29 of the questionnaires which were returned to us. I

1 haven't had the chance to do an updated count as to 2 what the venire was before we excluded -- we
3 excluded some of the people. People were excluded
4 based upon reasons that they had for hardships.
5 But prior to that exclusion, there were -- the 6 questionnaires that I had when I arrived here - and
7 I understand some of them have been given to me
8 since then - had about 154 names on it, 147 juror
9 questionnaires wherein the race was designated as 10 either white or black, Caucasian or Afro-American 11 or whatever designation the jurors chose to use,
12 and then there were several which, for between 147
13 and 154, there were some jurors who didn't put a
14 race in. And then there was an Oriental and I
15 think at least one Latino.

16 But in any event, using 147 as a figure to 17 work from, we come up with only about, less than 14
18 percent of the jurors are black. Harrison County,
19 according to census figures which I read and which 20 basically are published by the United States
21 Census, is approximately 21 percent black. So what 22 we have here is a disparity in numbers of over 6
23 percent in terms of at least the count we were able 24 to make at the time that we got, had the 25 questionnaires. We were given some other
26 questionnaires when we arrived. I don't think
27 those were substantially different than the ones
28 that we had already. I'm not sure there was any 29 blacks in them, but if there were, there were not a

1 great deal.

2 So my problem is with the disparity between 3 the population and the number of blacks on the 4 jury. And what the law requires - I think we have 5 presented this motion before in relationship to the 6 Lee County jury - is that there is some reason for 7 constitutional concern any time there is a
8 statistical disparity varying from the population
9 and the number of persons on the venire. So I
10 think that kind of concern exists here. And if I'm 11 not mistaken, although I don't have statistics to 12 back this up, I believe the Second or the First 13 District, which is where we are, of this county is 14 actually, has a heavier black population than the 15 other district which would lead me to believe that 16 the population should be heavier than 21 percent.
17 And I attempted from some lawyer friends I knew to 18 try to get some statistics to back that up.

19 And I think I even called the Clerk's office,
20 and I think they said that they don't keep race
21 with their jurors, so they don't know. But in any 22 event, if we just use 21 percent and realizing we 23 have to go up from there, then we have a problem.

24 So what I am raising here is that especially 25 in a case where we have a black defendant who is 26 accused of killing a white person who was killed at 27 the Tardy store, then I think that is a problem.
28 So that is why we would respectfully move to quash
29 this venire and to choose another one which would

1 be more representative of the population.

2 BY MR. HORAN: First, Judge, the
3 questionnaires that we have got now that are 4 relevant are the ones that are the 75 that are 5 presented to the Counsel for the Defendant. And if
6 the Court would -- I may be incorrect. I have 15
7 out of the 75 are black. Is that correct? Is that 8 what you have?

9 BY THE COURT: That is what I see.

10 BY MR. HORAN: That is 20 percent of the 11 panel, and that is certainly representative of the 12 population as a whole. And if you add two of Cuban
13 descent and one Oriental, that increases it above
14 the 20 percent. We have already addressed this 15 motion once before down here as well as in Tupelo,
16 and I think the law is clear as to what has to be 17 done. There is no allegation in the Motion that 18 the Clerk's Office pulled the jury improperly, that 19 it was not done according to the dictates of the 20 applicable Code Section. There is nothing in that 21 Motion that he has filed today that alleges that.
22 And therefore, the State requests that the Motion
23 be denied.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I don't have anything else to 25 add to what we have already presented other than I
26 think that the Motion is, I would presume to be 27 based upon the statistics of persons initially
28 called to jury service, not based upon what occurs
29 after there has been disqualifications. That, of

1 course, has nothing to do with whether
2 statistically we have a proper jury as a result of
3 the selection process. And I think what the case
4 law says is that when there is a certain amount of 5 disparity between the statistics and the number in 6 the population-- I mean the statistics of the 7 population and the people that appear on the jury
8 of a particular race, and for that purposes we 9 don't add Cubans and Orientals to the blacks.
10 Blacks are a group in and of themselves, I think 11 recognized certainly under the Batson case and 12 whatever cases, and even before that under the 13 Swain case out of Alabama and various other cases
14 that talk about systematic discrimination.

15 So my concern is that when we came in here,
16 that was the numbers. I'm not necessarily agreeing
17 with counsel that that's what we have now. I
18 haven't had a chance to complete my list. I don't 19 know if you have, Judge. You said-- what did you 20 get?

21 BY THE COURT: There are 15 blacks on the, out
22 of the 75.

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. But my concern would 24 be-- and I don't concede that nor do I deny that 25 because I haven't had a chance to complete it.

26 BY THE COURT: Well, I didn't come out and 27 count either, but that is my information. The 28 Court Reporter did, and that is my information that 29 she gave.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, very good. So that is
2 basically my presentation.

3 BY THE COURT: Okay. The Court finds that
4 this jury was drawn back in January. I forget
5 exactly the date. I believe it was the 5th of 6 January. At the time everybody was present,
7 lawyers for both sides and the Defendant. No
8 objection was made at that time as to how the jury
9 was selected. It was selected at random off the 10 computer. There were 350 names originally pulled 11 from the computer which contains the jury list, and 12 the Court about two weeks ago felt like that might 13 not be enough, so we issued an order for an 14 additional 40 jurors. Those were pulled in the 15 same manner from the computer. I do not know how 16 many of those were served or how many of those 17 showed up. They were at the bottom of the list
18 initially.

19 After the Court met today after the jurors
20 asked to be excused, we resulted with a panel of 21 75. Of that 75, fifteen are African-Americans.
22 That is 20 percent of the panel. Of that 15, the 23 Court notes that seven are within the first 28
24 names on the jury list. So they would be 25 representative not only to the panel as a whole,
26 but as to the order in which the Court intends to 27 draw this panel. So the Motion is overruled.

28 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, would you also 29 state for the record that there is listed two

1 Cubans and one Oriental for the purpose of the 2 record? Mr. Lumumba, in all of his motions, made
3 allegations that the victim-- and it is true that 4 the victim is white. So any non-whites would still 5 fall into the minority class.

6 BY THE COURT: I don't know that. If y'all
7 are willing to agree to that, then I can put that 8 in the record. If not, I will have to make that 9 determination when they come back and put it in the 10 record. I don't know. I did see one Oriental 11 gentleman. I know there is one, and I don't 12 remember what his name is.

13 BY MR. HORAN: That is Mr. Lackey, number 36.

14 BY THE COURT: Okay.

15 BY MR. HORAN: Mr. DiSalvo, I think he listed
16 on his questionnaire as of Cuban descent, and I
17 believe Mr. Cuevas did, even though I'm not sure
18 about that, on his questionnaire he represented
19 himself.

20 BY THE COURT: He would be number 1, but I
21 don't remember him.

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: There is clearly an Oriental 23 in the group, and I know that at the time that I
24 looked through the questionnaires, I noticed the 25 person listed himself as Latino. I don't know if 26 that person is still with us or not, and there was 27 a person that listed himself as Cuban. Those are 28 the three that I can recall. I don't know if one
29 of those persons have not been excused. You know,

1 I would have to look back.

2 BY THE COURT: Okay. Well, I note the
3 Oriental gentleman is here.

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, he is here.

5 BY THE COURT: He is on it. The other two--

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I'm not sure.

7 BY THE COURT: You know, Cuevas would be a
8 Latin name.

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Right. Correct.

10 BY THE COURT: Whether he is or not, I don't
11 know.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, yeah and then again--

13 BY THE COURT: --Wait a minute--

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --everybody who has Latin
15 names don't consider--

16 BY THE COURT: --I understand. We are not 17 going to get into that. I understand that.

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, but let me-- Judge, I
19 have one other matter to bring to your attention.
20 We filed a long time ago -- we never got a decision
21 on it or an answer to it really. We had a Motion
22 for Discovery of Brady material. What we asked for 23 was any information, materials, reports, statements
24 and other matters which implicates or suggesting an 25 involvement of Marcus E. Gambell and Lasamuel
26 Gambell in the killings at Tardy store, on the ones
27 that occurred in this case that we are here about 28 on July the 16th, 1996. We saw information which-- 29 well, actually, I think we read information

1            somewhere in the newspaper or something which would
2            suggest that these persons were suspects at one
3            time or that they were being investigated. And if 4            there is such information that exists which we have
5            not been given in discovery, we would ask that it
6            be presented. Now whether there is something else
7            that exists, I don't know.

8            BY THE COURT: I don't know either, and I have 9            entered an order for them to give you everything
10           that is discoverable, and I am assuming that they 11           have. It seems like at one hearing that they made 12           the statement at the hearing that they did not have 13           anything. I don't know whether that is true, but 14           you have got an order saying if it is discoverable,
15           they have got to give it to you.

16           BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, for the record I
17           know of nothing other than what we have furnished.
18           In addition to having furnished all of the 19           discovery, some of it numerous times on this case,
20           since the last time we were down here in Gulfport
21           on the motion, Harvey Freelon, one of the attorneys
22           for the Defense, has gone to Greenwood. He has 23           gone through the entire files of the Highway Patrol
24           investigators to make sure there was nothing in 25           there that they didn't have. He has come to 26           Grenada. He has gone through our files. There is 27           nothing else. We have gone through this same
28           motion about fifteen times. And I just want to 29           make it clear that we have cooperated fully.

1           BY THE COURT: Well, my understanding was that
2           you had earlier said that you did not have that
3           information to furnish them. But once again, I say
4           there is an order there. If you do, you have got 5           to furnish it.

6           BY MR. EVANS: Okay.

7           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Did the Court want to 8           entertain the motions in the nature of limine at 9           this time or--

10          BY THE COURT: Let's go ahead and see if we 11          can get this jury picked, and then I can get them
12          situated, and then we will tend to that. How about
13          that?

14          BY MR. HORAN: We haven't been served any 15          motions, any additional in limine motions. Are 16          they going to be oral?

17          BY MR. LUMUMBA: They are going to be in oral
18          nature. They basically have to do with evidence
19          which was presented at the last trial. I think we 20          are all familiar with them. But the second thing
21          is, Judge, the other thing that we have not 22          resolved, and I just wanted to bring this to your 23          attention. Remember, if I read your orders right
24          which came in response to our most recent of 25          motions, is that we still have the question of the 26          motion of the Defendant's statement.

27          BY THE COURT: We do, and let me tell you how 28          I want to proceed on that. At the time - and I
29          will ask the State to do this. At the time that

1           you put on a witness or when you call the witness
2           that is going to testify to that.

3           BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

4           BY THE COURT: If you will tell the Court
5           that, then I will excuse the jury, and we will hear
6           that Motion to Suppress outside the presence of the 7           jury.

8           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

9           BY THE COURT: Okay. I'm going to need y'all
10          to help me on that and you too because you will 11          know who it is too. All right?

12          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Right. Okay.

13          BY THE COURT: Okay, gentlemen, let's break
14          until 1 o'clock. All right?

15          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, we will do that.

1                   BY THE COURT: The Court calls cause number
2                   B2401-98-00960, State of Mississippi versus Curtis
3                   Giovanni Flowers. What says the State?

4                   BY MR. EVANS: The State is ready for trial,
5                   Your Honor.

6                   BY THE COURT: What says the Defendant?

7                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: We are prepared to proceed,
8                   Judge.

9                   BY THE COURT: All right. Ladies and 10                  gentlemen.

11                  (Pause while the Court confers with the 12                  Clerk.)

13                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: May we approach?

14                  BY THE COURT: Uh-hum.

15                  (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
16                  THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

17                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, last time, you know, of 18                  course, you know our motion for in camera
19                  individual voir dire, you know, has already been 20                  made. And I think your ruling on that was that you 21                  would give anybody who heard about the case is 22                  what, and then they would be individually voir
23                  dired. That's what we had ruled on.

24                  BY THE COURT: Yeah. That is pretty much it.
25                  It depends on how many there are. Now there is one
26                  gentleman, let me tell you, that has already 27                  indicated that he knew something. I'm probably 28                  just going to ask him if it would affect him. If 29                  it will, then we won't have to do it on him.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

2 BY THE COURT: Unless you want to. Because he
3 has indicated already--

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --No, if you are going to 5 exclude him, that is fine. Okay, but you know, and 6 that is one thing. Now I feel that you can get a
7 better voir dire on the death penalty stuff if we
8 do it individually on that alone. I mean I know
9 you have denied the motion to do everything
10 individually, but I really think you would get a
11 better voir dire and it would be a little more
12 friendly and stuff like that. So my motion in the 13 alternative to doing each of them individually on 14 everything is to do it individually on the death
15 penalty thing at least.

16 BY THE COURT: Well, let me see where we get 17 when we get to that point. Let me see what kind of 18 responses we get.

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, all right.

20 END BENCH CONFERENCE

21 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION BY THE COURT:

22 Ladies and gentlemen, what we are going to do now
23 is called the voir dire examination. That is going to be 24 where I ask you a bunch of questions. And when I get 25 through, each lawyer or a lawyer for each side will be able 26 to ask you some questions too. The questions will not, I
27 will not-- I won't nor will I allow the attorneys to 28 unnecessarily pry into your personal affairs nor to ask you
29 questions that would unnecessarily embarrass you in any way.

1 The sole and only purpose that we go through this procedure
2 is so that we can find a jury of twelve people that will be
3 fair and impartial to both sides in this case.

4 I want you to understand that there are no wrong
5 answers. You can't give me a wrong answer unless I ask you a
6 question that applies to you, and you do not answer it.
7 Other than that, I need to know how you feel. I need to know
8 about some relationships I'm going to ask you about, some 9 things that have happened to you in the past, and I need full 10 answers to those things. If you will do that, then you will 11 have done what I expect of you.

12 Now if during this procedure you can't hear me for 13 any reason and you need me to speak louder or something or 14 I'm not seeing you, raise up your hand. You make sure you
15 get hold of me. You make sure you let me know because I want
16 you to understand exactly what we are doing in this process.

17 The State of Mississippi in this case is 18 represented by Doug Evans of Grenada, Kevin Horan of Grenada, 19 and Walter Bleck of Grenada. The Defendant is represented by 20 Chokwe Lumumba from Jackson and is also represented by Harvey
21 Freelon, who is not here right now but will be here during 22 this trial. Are any of you related by blood or marriage to 23 any of the lawyers in this case? How many of you know any 24 of the lawyers in this case? (No response.)

25 I take it if you don't know them, then none of you
26 have ever been represented by any of the lawyers in this 27 case? (No response) Okay.

28 The Defendant in this case is Curtis Giovanni
29 Flowers. Mr. Flowers, if you would stand up. Thank you,

1 sir.

2 Are any of you related by blood or marriage to Mr.
3 Flowers? Now Mr. Flowers is from Winona, Mississippi, if
4 that will help you any. (No response.) Okay.

5 The next question I'm going to ask you is, concerns
6 your relation to people in law enforcement. Now this is a
7 very important question, and I want you to think about it.

8 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, we have got a
9 juror, I believe.

10 BY THE COURT: Okay. I'm sorry; I should have 11 inquired if everybody was here.

12 (Juror number 54 just walked in.)

13 BY THE COURT: What is your name, ma'am?

14 BY JUROR 54, DEBRA HODA: Debra Hoda.

15 BY THE COURT: Okay, let me ask you a couple
16 of questions. The State is represented by Doug Evans, Kevin 17 Horan, and Walter Bleck of Grenada, Mississippi. Do you know 18 any of them?

19 A. (By Ms. Hoda) No, sir.

20 Q. You have never been represented by them or been 21 anywhere where they are; is that right?

22 A. No, sir.

23 Q. Okay. And the Defendant is represented by Mr.
24 Lumumba, Chokwe Lumumba from Jackson, and Harvey Freelon from 25 Jackson. Do you know either of them?

26 A. No, sir.

27 Q. Okay. One other question that I need to ask you:
28 Have any of these lawyers ever been on a case on the other
29 side from you where they represented somebody on a case?

1           A.    No, sir.

2                       BY THE COURT: All right. I need to know how 3 many of you are now or have ever been in law enforcement?
4 Okay, let's start over here with number 7.

5           A.    (BY JUROR 7, L. A. DiSALVO) Mr. DiSalvo, sir.

6           Q.    DiSalvo, okay. Where were you in law enforcement?

7           A.    Right here in Gulfport. I retired in 1992.

8           Q.    Were you with the Sheriff's Department or the 9 Police Department?

10          A.    Police Department.

11          Q.    All right, and you retired when?

12          A.    1992.

13          Q.    Okay.

14          A.    Currently I'm working for the U.S. Marshal Service
15 in Biloxi at the federal courthouse.

16          Q.    Are you a marshal?

17          A.    Yes.

18          Q.    Mr. DiSalvo, would the fact that you have been in 19 law enforcement or are now in law enforcement affect you in 20 this case at all and keep you from being a fair and impartial
21 juror?

22          A.    Yes, sir. I believe so.

23          Q.    All right. Thank you, Mr. DiSalvo. I appreciate
24 that.

25                       Okay, number 14, Mr. Powell. Are you presently in 26 law enforcement?

27          A.    (BY JUROR 14, STEPHEN E. POWELL) No, sir. In the 28 past.

29          Q.    All right, how long ago was that, Mr. Powell?

1 A. 1992 is when I left.

2 Q. Where were you?

3 A. Lafayette Parish.

4 Q. Were you with the Sheriff's Department?

5 A. Yes, sir.

6 Q. Okay. Have you been in law enforcement since then?

7 A. I did about 6 months with the Long Beach Police
8 Department also.

9 Q. Okay, is anything about that fact, Mr. Powell, that 10 would affect you in this case at all and keep you from being 11 a fair and impartial juror?

12 A. Yes, sir. I believe it would.

13 Q. All right. Thank you, sir.

14 Yes, sir. Number 59, Mr.-- I'm sorry; Ms.
15 Trotter.

16 A. (BY JUROR 59, KARRIE L. TROTTER) I don't know if 17 this really counts, but when I was in college, I worked with 18 the Delta State University Police. I posted tickets and did 19 dispatch.

20 Q. Okay. How long ago was that, Ms. Trotter?

21 A. '95.

22 Q. Would that affect you in this case at all and keep 23 you from being a fair and impartial juror?

24 A. No, sir.

25 Q. You could set-- did you just write tickets, parking
26 tickets?

27 A. No. I posted the tickets and filed them.

28 Q. Oh, you worked in the office then?

29 A. Yeah.

1 Q. Okay, you were not a uniformed officer?

2 A. No.

3 Q. Okay. Thank you, ma'am.

4 Okay, number 58 is Ms. Barnes?

5 A. (BY JUROR 58, ROSE M. BARNES) Yes, sir.

6 Q. Okay, where-- who did you work for?

7 A. Gulfport PD.

8 Q. And how long ago was that?

9 A. That was back in '92.

10 Q. In '92. Have you worked with any law enforcement
11 since then?

12 A. No.

13 Q. Were you a uniformed officer?

14 A. No.

15 Q. You worked in the administration. Is that correct?

16 A. Special officer.

17 Q. I'm sorry?

18 A. Special officer.

19 Q. Okay. Would that affect you at all in this case
20 and keep you from being a fair and impartial juror?

21 A. No.

22 Q. Thank you, ma'am.

23 Number 62. Mr. Dedeaux; is that right?

24 A. (BY JUROR 62, JULIAN C. DEDEAUX) Yes. I worked at 25 the Adult Detention Facility back in '95 here in Harrison
26 County.

27 Q. Okay, more commonly known as the jail, I guess?

28 A. Yeah.

29 Q. All right. How long did you work there?

1 A. About a year.

2 Q. Have you worked in law enforcement since that time?

3 A. Currently I am a corporate investigator for 4 Imperial Palace Casino.

5 Q. You are an investigator for a casino?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. So you are involved with security there, I guess;
8 is that right?

9 A. Yes, sir, in investigations ongoing.

10 Q. Okay. Is there anything about that, those 11 employment things that you have had that would affect you at 12 all in this case?

13 A. No, sir.

14 Q. You could set that aside and be a fair and 15 impartial juror?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Thank you.

18 Yes. Number 24. That is Ms. Bailey?

19 A. (BY JUROR 24, LORRIE J. BAILEY) Yeah, I used to be 20 a deputy for the Harrison County Jail and back in '92 for a 21 year.

22 Q. Okay. Would that affect you at all?

23 A. I believe so.

24 Q. Okay. You don't think you could set that aside and 25 be a fair and impartial juror?

26 A. No.

27 Q. Thank you, ma'am.

28 Number 22 is Ms. Andrews.

29 A. (BY JUROR 22, MS. ROSE M. ANDREWS) Yes.

1 Q. You obviously are in law enforcement? (NOTE:
2 Juror has on a uniform.)

3 A. Yes. I work for the Harrison County Detention
4 Center.

5 Q. You work at the jail too?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Okay. Would that affect you at all in this case
8 and keep you from being a fair and impartial juror?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Thank you, ma'am.

11 Number 47. Mr. Campassi?

12 A. (BY JUROR 47, MR. MICHAEL CAMPASSI) Yes, sir. I
13 started in '73 with the Coahoma County Sheriff's Department
14 in Clarksdale. When I graduated-- I was there for four 15 years, graduated from Delta State, and went with the State
16 Alcoholic Beverage Control in the enforcement division for 17 eight years. I was agent in charge here on the Gulf Coast.
18 I left there and went to Mississippi Power Company in 19 corporate security, stayed there ten years. I have always 20 held a Harrison County Sheriff commission.

21 Q. Would that affect you at all in this case?

22 A. I believe it would.

23 Q. All right, sir. You are 47; is that correct?

24 A. Yes, sir.

25 Q. Thank you.

26 Yes, ma'am. Number 64?

27 A. (BY JUROR 64, MS. WANDA G. MELVIN) I worked for 15
28 years for the Federal Probation and Parole Office in Biloxi.

29 Q. You worked for the Federal Parole Office?

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. Were you an officer or just--

3 A. No, data analyst.

4 Q. Okay. Would that affect you in this case at all
5 and keep you from being a fair and impartial juror?

6 A. No, sir.

7 Q. No? Ma'am? Is that what you said?

8 A. No, sir.

9 Q. Okay, thank you.

10 Anybody else? Now let me make sure I covered all
11 that. That was those of you who have been in law
12 enforcement. How many of y'all have had relatives in law
13 enforcement? Let's start over here with number 9. Number 9
14 -- well, before I do that, let me explain to you what I mean
15 by that. I tell this story over and over again so I
16 apologize to my people who have heard this before. But I
17 asked this question in Grenada, and I told them; I said this 18 means anybody's fifth cousin removed. If you have got 19 anybody you are related to, you need to tell me about it.
20 One lady held up her hand. She said, "My great great 21 granddaddy was Sheriff of Grenada County in 1860. Does that 22 count?" And it does even though she didn't know him. So
23 that's what I am looking for.

24 All right, number 9, Ms. O'Neal. Who have you got?

25 A. (BY JUROR 9, MS. REBECCA I. O'NEAL) I had a brother
26 who was a Gulfport police auxiliary officer, and I have a
27 cousin who is a Gulfport policeman.

28 Q. Okay. Would that fact affect you in this case at 29 all and keep you from being a fair and impartial juror?

1 A. No, I wouldn't think so.

2 Q. Okay, thank you, ma'am.

3 While I am over here, let's see who I have got on 4 this side. How about number 10 is Ms. Cook?

5 A. (BY JUROR 10, MS. KAREN J. COOK) Yeah. I had a
6 cousin used to be training for a Gulfport Police Department,
7 but he is no longer there. He is up in Maryland, and he is 8 in the fire department up there. And no, it wouldn't affect 9 me in my decision or anything.

10 Q. Thank you, Ms. Cook.

11 Number 11, Mr. Warden?

12 A. (BY JUROR 11, MR. WINSTON O. WARDEN) Yes, I had 13 two cousins, one on the Long Beach Police Department and one
14 on the Harrison County Sheriff's Office.

15 Q. Would that affect you at all in this case?

16 A. No.

17 Q. You could set that aside, Mr. Warden?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Okay.

20 Number 18, Ms. Weiss; is that right?

21 A. (BY JUROR 18, MS. RAYANNE M. WEISS) Yes, sir; it
22 is. I had an uncle who is now deceased in the 70's who was a
23 volunteer Sheriff's deputy in Franklin Parish, and I have an 24 uncle that is currently a volunteer Sheriff's deputy in 25 Franklin Parish, Louisiana, and it wouldn't affect me.

26 Q. Okay, thank you, ma'am.

27 Number 37 is Mr. Hall-- I'm sorry; Ms. Hall. I am
28 getting old, and I can't see that far. I apologize.

29 A. (BY JUROR 37, MS. GWYNNE F. HALL) My ex-husband was

1 Chief of Police in West Columbia, South Carolina. We have 2 been divorced 14 years, and it would not affect my decision.

3 Q. Thank you, ma'am.

4 Number-- let's go back to number 16. Mr. Dobson?

5 A. (BY JUROR 16, MR. DAVID JOEL DOBSON) Uncle is a
6 federal, works for a federal prison.

7 Q. He does work for a federal prison?

8 A. Yes, sir.

9 Q. He is correctional officer, I guess, for them; is
10 that right?

11 A. No, sir. He is in investigations.

12 Q. He is in investigations. Would that affect you at 13 all in this case?

14 A. No, sir.

15 Q. Thank you.

16 Number 57, Ms. Hilton?

17 A. (BY JUROR 57, MS. JENNIFER D. HILTON) My uncle is 18 deceased. He was a Mississippi State Highway Patrolman, but 19 that would not affect my decision.

20 Q. Thank you.

21 Let's go to number 1, Mr. Cuevas.

22 A. (BY JUROR 1, MR. JOHN W. CUEVAS) My dad was a Pass
23 Christian Police Department-- well, 15 years ago.

24 Q. Okay, would that affect you in this case?

25 A. No.

26 Q. Okay.

27 Number 4, Ms. Necaise?

28 A. (BY JUROR 4, MS. DIANE NECAISE) I had two cousins
29 on Pascagoula Police Force. They are no longer there.

1 Q. Okay.

2 A. And it wouldn't affect me.

3 Q. Ma'am?

4 A. It wouldn't affect me.

5 Q. Okay, it would not affect you at all?

6 A. No.

7 Q. Are you any kin to Albert Necaise who was the 8 District Attorney here?

9 A. He is my husband's cousin.

10 Q. Would the fact that he had been a District Attorney
11 here affect you in any way in this case?

12 A. No, sir.

13 Q. Okay.

14 Number 6, Ms. Ladner.

15 A. (BY JUROR 6, MS. BETTY E. LADNER) I have a nephew
16 that works in the Sheriff's Department in Harrison County.

17 Q. Would that affect you in this case at all?

18 A. No, sir.

19 Q. Thank you, ma'am.

20 Let's go to 25. That is Ms. Pell?

21 A. (BY JUROR 25, MS. EMMA J. PELL) My father was 22 Chief of Police of Long Beach. He is retired.

23 Q. Okay. Would that affect you in this case?

24 A. I don't believe so.

25 Q. Okay, I need for you to be a little bit more
26 definite than that. I need to know one way or another.

27 A. No. No.

28 Q. It would not? Okay.

29 Yes, sir. What is your number, sir?

1 A. (BY JUROR 28, MR. EUGENE CROCKETT, JR.) 28.

2 Q. Okay.

3 A. Presently, I got a son that is a sergeant detective
4 in Newark, New Jersey.

5 Q. Would that affect you in this case, Mr. Crockett?

6 A. No, sir.

7 Q. You could set that aside and be a fair and
8 impartial juror?

9 A. Yes, sir.

10 Q. Thank you, sir.

11 Number 48 is Ms. Connie Ladner.

12 A. (BY JUROR 48, MS. CONNIE L. LADNER) I don't know
13 if it would apply or not, but both of my daughters at one
14 time have been involved in Gulfport Police Explorer, and my 15 uncle over 25 years ago was an MP in the army. But no, that 16 would not affect my judgment.

17 Q. Okay, thank you, ma'am.

18 Number 53, Ms. Smith.

19 A. (BY JUROR 53, MS. DONNA M. SMITH) Yeah, my dad
20 worked for Harrison County Sheriff's Department back in the 21 70's, and I don't think that would affect my decision.

22 Q. Your daughter?

23 A. My dad.

24 Q. Your dad. In the 70's; is that correct?

25 A. Yes.

26 Q. And you don't think that would affect you at all?

27 A. No, sir.

28 Q. Okay, thank you, ma'am.

29 Number 65. Mr. Leonard?

1           A.    (BY JUROR 65, MR. CASIMER J. LEONARD)   Yes, sir.   I
2   have a cousin--

3           Q.    --Could you stand up, Mr. Leonard.   My court
4   reporter probably can't hear you.

5           A.    My cousin is a state trooper in Florida, Florida
6   state trooper, and it would affect my impartiality up here.

7           Q.    I'm sorry; I couldn't hear you.

8           A.    I said I think it will affect my judgment in being 9   a juror.

10          Q.    You think it would?

11          A.    Yes, sir.

12          Q.    Okay.   Thank you, Mr. Leonard.

13          A.    You're welcome.

14          Q.    Number 68.   Mr. Bradley?

15          A.    (BY JUROR 68, MR. JOHN W. BRADLEY)   Yes, sir.   Your 16   Honor, I have a son who is a Louisiana state trooper and also 17   served as a police officer for the New Orleans Police
18   Department and the Gulfport Police Department.   I have a
19   brother who is an agent with the U.S. Customs Service, a 20   narcotics agent with them, and I do think that would affect 21   my judgment in this case.

22          Q.    All right, Mr. Bradley.   Thank you, sir.

23                   Number 66, Mr. Webb?

24          A.    (BY JUROR 66, MR. NATHAN O. WEBB)   Yes, sir.   I
25   have two cousins up there in Memphis and also Shelby County
26   Sheriff's Department that served honorably there.

27          Q.    Would that affect you in this case at all?

28          A.    Yes, sir.

29          Q.    You think it would.   All right, thank you, sir.

1 Let me go a little bit further, Mr. Webb. You think that
2 would keep you from being a fair and impartial juror in this
3 case is what you're telling me?

4 A. Yes, sir.

5 Q. Okay.

6 Number 51. Mr. Howe?

7 A. (BY JUROR 51, MR. DONALD E. HOWE) Yes. I was 8 raised up by an uncle who was in the Sheriff's Department,
9 and during that time I developed a pretty much of a distrust
10 for law enforcement.

11 Q. Well, you think that would affect you in this case?

12 A. I sure do.

13 Q. Okay.

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: What number was that?

15 BY THE COURT: 51.

16 Q. Number 61. Ms. Walker?

17 A. (BY JUROR 61, MS. SYLVIA J. WALKER) I have an aunt
18 that works for the City of Gulfport, and I have a cousin that 19 works for the jail, Gary Moore.

20 Q. Would that affect you in this case at all?

21 A. No.

22 Q. Okay. Thank you, ma'am.

23 Anybody else? (No further response.)

24 The way a case gets to court is that a matter is 25 presented to a grand jury, which is made up generally of 26 twenty people, twelve of whom must vote for the indictment 27 for there to be an indictment. Generally, almost always at 28 the grand jury stage, the only side of a case that is 29 presented is the State's case, and the only thing that must

1 be decided by the grand jury is whether or not they think a
2 crime has been committed and whether or not they think there
3 is enough evidence for the case to come to trial. They do
4 not hear any defense testimony whatsoever, and they do not
5 decide the guilt or innocence of any person presented to 6 them. They are just the step that we go through in order to 7 get to this point in the matter.

8 Therefore, an indictment is nothing but a piece of 9 paper. There is absolutely no evidence of guilt or innocence
10 one way or another-- there is no evidence of guilt at all in 11 this case, and you must not consider it as evidence of 12 guilt. Is there anybody here that feels like just because 13 the Defendant was indicted, therefore he must be guilty of 14 something? (No response.) Okay.

15 In this case Mr. Flowers is charged with on the 16 16th day of July, 1996, in Montgomery County, Mississippi, of 17 killing and murdering one Derrick Stewart. Have any of you
18 ever heard of that case at all? (Juror number 68 stands
19 up.) Okay, that is number--

20 A. (BY JUROR 68, MR. JOHN W. BRADLEY) --Your Honor,
21 I'm not absolutely certain, but I think that my son--

22 Q. --Okay, you have already indicated to me -- Mr.
23 Bradley?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. You have indicated you could not be fair and 26 impartial, so that is fine. Thank you though for the 27 response.

28 A. Yes, sir.

29 Q. And Ms. Weiss?

1           A.     (BY JUROR 18, MS. RAYANNE M. WEISS)   I'm not a
2     hundred percent sure.

3           Q.     Now let me tell you where I am.

4           A.     Okay.

5           Q.     I don't want to know what you know.

6           A.     Can I tell you what I do for a living, and that
7     will -- I'm a journalist, so I read the state wire. And I
8     may have read the case. I don't recall it offhand, but it
9     may come to me.

10          Q.     Okay, that is fine. I will go into that in just a 11     minute. I'm not trying to cut you off but--

12          A.     That's all I was going to tell you.

13          Q.     I don't want everybody to know what you know, if
14     anything.

15                 Number 29, Mr. Smith?

16          A.     (BY JUROR 29, MR. JASON L. SMITH)   Yes, sir.

17          Q.     Mr. Smith, you had earlier indicated to me and the 18     other lawyers that you thought you knew something too.
19     Okay. Anybody else? Now this incident occurred in Winona
20     at Tardy Furniture Store. Does that bring back any memories
21     to any of you? Ms. Finch, isn't it?

22          Q.     (BY JUROR 17, MS. TERESA M. FINCH)   Yeah, I'm
23     sorry.

24          Q.     Okay, Ms. Finch, thank you. I will come back to
25     that.

26                 Okay, anybody else?   Okay.

27                 Let me ask you this. Other than those who have 28     just raised their hand, are any of you related by blood or 29     marriage to Derrick Stewart or know him or acquainted with

1 him or were? (No response).

2 The burden of proof in this case is on the State.
3 The Defendant is presumed innocent until such time as the 4 State proves his guilt beyond a reasonable doubt, and you are
5 required to presume that he is innocent until the State meets
6 that burden. Does anybody on the panel disagree with that
7 rule of law? Anybody think the burden ought to be something
8 else or that there ought to be another requirement?

9 One thing I'm telling you is the Defendant doesn't
10 have to prove anything. He is presumed innocent. Y'all
11 understand that? Is there anybody that does not understand
12 that? Okay.

13 Have any of you-- and I don't really want to know
14 the facts about this unless I ask specifically of them. I
15 want to know how many of you may have been victims of a
16 violent crime or really for any crime at all, any felony
17 crime - burglary or any kind of assault?

18 (Several hands go up.) Okay, let's start over here
19 with number 7, Mr. DiSalvo. You have already told me that 20 you could not be fair and impartial, so I--

21 A. (BY JUROR 7, MR. L. A. DiSALVO) I will just leave
22 it then.

23 Q. Number 17, Ms. Finch?

24 A. (BY JUROR 17, MS. TERESA M. FINCH) (Juror nods her 25 head.)

26 Q. What type of crime was it?

27 A. I was, I guess you would call it assaulted, and my 28 purse was stolen.

29 Q. Okay, how long ago--

1           A.    I was probably-- let's see; I had a child with me.
2   He was born in '83. It was probably about eighty-- somewhere
3   like '84, I would think. He was at least a good year old.

4           Q.    Okay. Is there anything about that fact that would 5   affect you in this case at all?

6           A.    I don't think it would. I mean it's a shame when 7   someone does something like that to you, and it makes you
8   feel horrible.

9           Q.    Yes, ma'am. But of course, that didn't have 10   anything to do with this case or this Defendant or anybody
11   else.

12          A.    No.

13          Q.    So would that affect you in your decision in this 14   case at all?

15          A.    I don't believe so.

16          Q.    Okay. I--

17          A.    No, sir.

18          Q.    Okay, thank you.

19          A.    I got you.

20          Q.    I hate to have to pin you down, but that is just 21   what I have to do.

22                Number 23, Ms. McClelland.

23          A.    (BY JUROR 23, MS. LUCILLE W. MCCLELLAND)
24   Burglarized my house and home.

25          Q.    How long ago was that, Ms. McClelland?

26          A.    '95, '96, something like that.

27          Q.    Okay, would that fact affect you in this case at 28   all and keep you from being a fair and impartial juror?

29          A.    No, it wouldn't.

1 Q. Number 44, Mr. Cooper?

2 A. (BY JUROR 44, MR. DAVID COOPER) My car was
3 burglarized about in '85.

4 Q. Would that fact affect you in this case at all?

5 A. No.

6 Q. Thank you, sir.

7 Number 26, Ms. Lee?

8 A. (BY JUROR 26, MS. STEPHANIE B. LEE) Yes. I had my 9 car and my husband's car burglarized.

10 Q. Would that affect you at all in this case?

11 A. No, sir.

12 Q. Thank you.

13 Number 48, Ms. Ladner?

14 A. (BY JUROR 48, CONNIE L. LADNER) Victim of domestic 15 violence, and also I was robbed as a cashier in a convenience
16 store.

17 Q. And how long ago were those things, Ms. Ladner?

18 A. Two years ago on the domestic violence and 1987 on 19 the robbery.

20 Q. Would either one of those things affect you in this
21 case at all?

22 A. No, sir.

23 Q. Thank you, ma'am.

24 Number 54.

25 A. (BY JUROR 54, MS. DEBRA HODA) My house was 26 burglarized last year, but it would not affect my verdict.

27 Q. Okay, that is Ms. Hoda?

28 A. Yes, sir.

29 Q. Ms. Hoda, that would not affect you at all in this

1 case?

2 A. No, sir.

3 Q. Thank you, ma'am.

4 Number 51. Mr. Howe.

5 A. (BY JUROR 51, MR. DONALD E. HOWE) My business was 6 burglarized, and the case was never solved.

7 Q. Okay, you have already said that you could not be 8 fair and impartial; is that right, Mr. Howe?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Okay. Number 50, Ms. Young.

11 A. (BY JUROR 50, MS. ANITA YOUNG) Car was stolen and.

12 Q. (Pause) I'm sorry. I didn't know you were 13 through. Your car was stolen? How long ago was that?

14 A. '84. And a victim of domestic violence.

15 Q. All right. How long ago was that, ma'am?

16 A. '89.

17 Q. Would any of that affect you at all in this case
18 and keep you from being a fair and impartial juror?

19 A. (No audible response).

20 Q. Could you stand up, ma'am, so we can see you.
21 Would that affect you?

22 A. I can't be sure.

23 Q. Okay. Well, that is fair enough, and I might have 24 to answer that the same way. I need for you to stand up
25 because I have got a couple more questions for you. But in 26 this particular situation I need for you to tell me one way
27 or another. There is no wrong answer. I just need to know 28 how you feel.

29 A. Okay, if the person is a female, I would have a

1 problem.

2 Q. Okay.

3 A. Well, the person would be Derrick Stewart, and that 4 would be a male.

5 A. Okay, no problem.

6 Q. Yes, sir. Mr. Cuevas.

7 A. (BY JUROR 1, MR. JOHN W. CUEVAS) I had a four
8 wheeler and a motor bike stolen from my house.

9 Q. Okay. Mr. Cuevas, would that affect you in this
10 case?

11 A. I wouldn't think so.

12 Q. Okay, there again, I have got to get a definite 13 answer from you?

14 A. No.

15 Q. It would not; okay.

16 Number 73. Ms. Beeson.

17 A. (BY JUROR 73, MS. MARCIA W. BEESON) Yes. Our 18 house was broken into in '81. Everything was hauled off in a
19 van, but it has nothing to do with this case. I am fine.

20 Q. Would it affect you at all?

21 A. No, sir.

22 Q. Thank you.

23 Number 74, Mr. Gray.

24 A. (BY JUROR 74, MR. CHARLES A. GRAY) Our house was 25 burglarized in, I think, '93 or '92, and was held at gunpoint
26 twice.

27 Q. During that--

28 A. --different time periods. Held up in the first one 29 was in '93, I think. And the other one, the last one was in

1 '97.

2 Q. Would those incidents occur, would it affect you in 3 this case and keep--

4 A. --I believe so, yes.

5 Q. You think they would?

6 A. Yes, sir.

7 Q. All right. Give me your number again. Number 74?
8 Is that right?

9 A. Right.

10 Q. All right, thank you, Mr. Gray.

11 Anybody else? Number 15. That is Mr. Overstreet?

12 A. (BY JUROR 15, MR. JAMES M. OVERSTREET) I was held
13 up at gunpoint down in New Orleans a long, long time ago.
14 And I had a business here in Gulfport, and I was burglarized
15 I don't know how many times, and had probably, probably as 16 many as 15 cars stolen off the lot. But I put that aside.

17 Q. You don't think that would affect you?

18 A. It wouldn't affect me.

19 Q. Thank you, Mr. Overstreet.

20 Number 59 is Ms. Trotter.

21 A. (BY JUROR 59, MS. KARRIE L. TROTTER) My parents'
22 house was burglarized in '97 when I was visiting with them
23 for a while.

24 Q. Would that affect you in this case at all?

25 A. No.

26 Q. Thank you, Ms. Trotter.

27 There was another card over here. 43 is Ms.
28 Henson.

29 A. (BY JUROR 43, MS. NELENNE L. HENSON) Yes, sir. A

1 young woman under my care and myself were stopped out on the 2 beach in Long Beach about four years ago.

3 Q. Would that affect you in this case at all?

4 A. No, sir.

5 Q. Thank you.

6 Number 66? Mr. Webb?

7 A. (BY JUROR 66, MR. NATHAN O. WEBB) Yes, sir.

8 Q. Mr. Webb, you have already indicated you didn't 9 think you could be fair and impartial; is that right?

10 A. Yes, sir.

11 Q. Okay, thank you.

12 Now that gets, covers y'all. Now how many of you
13 other than-- well, how many of you have had family members
14 who have had those same problems? (More hands go up.) Okay,
15 let me start over, Mr. Cuevas.

16 A. (BY JUROR 1, MR. JOHN W. CUEVAS) About eight 17 months ago a young man went in my father-in-law's store and 18 robbed him, hit him in the back of the head, and told my 19 father-in-law he was going to kill him if he didn't open the 20 cash register. He stayed in the hospital for two weeks,
21 had--

22 Q. --Do you think that would affect you, Mr. Cuevas,
23 in this case?

24 A. Yes, it would.

25 Q. You think it would keep you from being a fair and 26 impartial juror?

27 A. Yes.

28 Q. Thank you.

29 Number 26 is Ms. Lee.

1           A.     (BY JUROR 26, MS. STEPHANIE B. LEE) I have had a
2 couple of family members molested in my family, but I don't
3 believe that has anything to do with this case, and I can be
4 impartial.

5           Q.     Okay, thank you, Ms. Lee.

6                     All right, there was another one back there.
7 Number 44, Mr. Cooper.

8           A.     (BY JUROR 44, MR. DAVID COOPER) My brother had a 9 car stolen, and my grandmother's house was broken into,

12          A.     No.

13          Q.     Thank you.

14                     Number 45, Ms. Anderson.

15          A.     (BY JUROR 45, MS. PHYLLIS D. ANDERSON) Yes. My 16 sister's children, two of her children were hit by a drunk
17 driver, DUI. One of them was killed. But that doesn't 18 really seem like it is what, you know, to this type of case,
19 but if it was that type of a case, I would have a problem
20 with it.

21          Q.     Okay. This won't be that type of case. Would this 22 affect you at all in this case?

23          A.     I don't think so.

24          Q.     Okay, thank you.

25                     Number 73, Ms. Beeson?

26          A.     (BY JUROR 73, MS. MARCIA W. BEESON) Yes. My son's
27 house was burglarized in Hattiesburg this past year. I don't 28 think-- it would not bother me in this case.

29          Q.     Thank you, ma'am.

1 And number 71, Ms. Pickich?

2 A. (BY JUROR 71, MS. LAURA M. PICKICH) Yes. My
3 sister's car was robbed at gunpoint, but I don't think-- it
4 will not have any effect.

5 Q. Thank you, ma'am.

6 Number 32 is Mr. Davis?

7 A. (BY JUROR 32, MR. CURTIS H. DAVIS) My wife before
8 we were married was assaulted.

9 Q. Would that affect you in this case at all?

10 A. No, sir.

11 Q. Thank you, sir.

12 Number 37 is Ms. Hall.

13 A. (BY JUROR 37, MS. GWYNNE F. HALL) My [REDACTED] was 14 beaten and raped in '91, but it would not have any effect on 15 this case.

16 Q. Thank you.

17 Number 57, Ms. Hilton.

18 A. (BY JUROR 57, MS. JENNIFER D. HILTON) My [REDACTED]
19 was beaten and raped, but it would not affect my decision in 20 this case.

21 Q. Okay.

22 And number 61, Ms. Walker.

23 A. (BY JUROR 61, MS. SYLVIA J. WALKER) My father's 24 home was burglarized and someone jumped on him, but they 25 didn't catch him.

26 Q. Would that affect you in this case, Ms. Walker?

27 A. No, sir.

28 Q. I couldn't hear you, ma'am?

29 A. No.

1 Q. Thank you.

2 Number 50, Ms. Young.

3 A. (BY JUROR 50, MS. ANITA YOUNG) My uncle was 4 murdered in--

5 Q. --Would you stand up, Ms. Young. I can't hear
6 you.

7 A. My uncle was murdered in the 70's.

8 Q. Would that affect you in this case at all?

9 A. No.

10 Q. Would it keep you from being a fair and impartial
11 juror?

12 A. No.

13 Q. Thank you.

14 Number 69. Mr. Hamilton?

15 A. (BY JUROR 69, MR. RHETT D. HAMITER) Hamiter.

16 Q. Hamiter. Okay.

17 A. My family home was burglarized back in the 80's
18 several times.

19 Q. Would that affect you in this case at all?

20 A. No, sir. I don't think so.

21 Q. All right. Well, I will ask you to be definite if 22 you can.

23 A. No, sir.

24 Q. Okay, thank you.

25 All right. Now how many of you-- I'm sorry.

26 Number 48. Ms. Ladner.

27 A. (BY JUROR 48, MS. CONNIE L. LADNER) My 28 was raped and molested in '87. That would not affect my 29 judgment.

1 Q. Okay. Thank you, ma'am.

2 I may have already said this, but let me say it
3 again if I didn't. If we get on down through these questions
4 and all of a sudden it dawns on you that some of these things
5 we have already asked relate to you, if you will let me know,
6 and we will go back and talk about it a little bit.

7 How many of you ever served on a jury? (Many hands
8 go up.) Okay, let's start over here with number 9, Ms.
9 O'Neal. Ms. O'Neal, was it a--

10 A. (BY JUROR 9, MS. REBECCA I. O'NEAL) --drug
11 trafficking.

12 Q. It was a criminal case then?

13 A. Uh-hum.

14 Q. Okay. Did y'all reach a verdict?

15 A. No, we never saw it. He came out and looked at the 16 jury and then they did a plea, and we left.

17 Q. Okay, so you never have gotten to the point where 18 y'all deliberated? Is that right?

19 A. No.

20 Q. Okay. Would that fact that you had served on that 21 jury affect you in this case at all?

22 A. No.

23 Q. Okay.

24 Number 15, Ms. Overstreet?

25 A. (BY JUROR 15, MR. JAMES M. OVERSTREET) Yes, sir.
26 I was on a federal jury in a criminal case.

27 Q. Federal jury, did you say?

28 A. Yes, sir.

29 Q. Did that go to completion?

1 A. Yes, sir.

2 Q. All right, and how did it come out?

3 A. Guilty.

4 Q. All right, sir. Thank you. How long ago was that,
5 Mr. Overstreet?

6 A. 6 or 7 years probably.

7 Q. And what type of case was it?

8 A. Drug dealer.

9 Q. Okay. Would that affect you at all in this case?

10 A. No.

11 Q. Thank you, sir.

12 All right. Let's stay on this side right now.

13 Number 42 is Ms., is it Shilstone?

14 A. (BY JUROR 42, MS. DENISE SHILSTONE) Shilstone. I
15 have been on four juries.

16 Q. Four?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. You are a veteran.

19 A. I know. And would it affect my decision? Probably 20 not. They keep asking me back.

21 (Laughter).

22 Q. I hear that. Were they all criminal cases?

23 A. No. One was eminent domain.

24 Q. All right.

25 A. One was fraud. One was a child abuse case, and one
26 was a murder.

27 Q. Okay, I'm not too worried about the eminent domain,
28 but on the criminal cases did all of those go to the point
29 where the jury made a decision?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Okay, and what was the outcome of those three?

3 A. On one I was just an alternate.

4 Q. So you did not deliberate?

5 A. I didn't sit on the decision making, but on the 6 other two the verdict was guilty.

7 Q. Okay. Thank you, ma'am.

8 All right, number 64. Ms. Melvin?

9 A. (BY JUROR 64, MS. WANDA G. MELVIN) I have served
10 on two grand juries.

11 Q. Two grand juries?

12 A. Yes, sir.

13 Q. Okay, you have never served on a jury where the 14 case has been decided?

15 A. No.

16 Q. Is that correct?

17 A. Right. Correct.

18 Q. Let me go back to Ms. Shilstone. Would that 19 experience on those juries affect you in this case at all?

20 A. (BY JUROR 42, MS. DENISE SHILSTONE) No, sir. It 21 would not.

22 Q. Do you think you could decide this case based on 23 the-- as you know having been there, you have got to decide
24 it on the evidence from the witness stand--

25 A. Absolutely.

26 Q. And the instructions that I give you.

27 A. Yes.

28 Q. Could you do that?

29 A. Yes, sir.

1 Q. Thank you, ma'am.

2 And Ms. Melvin?

3 A. (BY JUROR 64, MS. WANDA G. MELVIN) Yes, sir.

4 Q. Would the fact that you have been on a grand jury
5 affect you at all in this case?

6 A. No, sir.

7 Q. Okay.

8 And number 41. Ms. Kreeger?

9 A. (BY JUROR 41, MS. CHARLENE S. KREEGER) Yes, sir.

10 Q. All right.

11 A. I was an alternate on a federal jury in Biloxi 12 probably about ten years ago. It was a drug case, but I was 13 the alternate.

14 Q. Okay, you did not end up deliberating?

15 A. No.

16 Q. Would that experience affect you in this case at 17 all?

18 A. No, sir.

19 Q. Okay.

20 Number 56. Mr.-- Ms. Blakely?

21 A. (BY JUROR 56, MS. CATHERINE BLAKELY) Yes, sir. I
22 just served on a petit jury about ten years ago.

23 Q. Was it here?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Okay. What kind of case was it, Ms. Blakely?

26 A. Uh, he had fallen. Someone had gotten hurt on 27 somebody else's property.

28 Q. So it was a civil case, and they were suing for 29 money; is that right?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Okay. Did you do the deliberations and return a
3 verdict on that?

4 A. Yes, we did.

5 Q. Okay. Is there anything about that case that would
6 affect you at all in this case?

7 A. No.

8 Q. Okay. Thank you, ma'am.

9 Number 20, Ms. Ballman.

10 A. (BY JUROR 20, MS. CINDY S. BALLMAN) I served on a
11 rape case in Stone County. We did reach a verdict, and it 12 was not guilty. And no, it would have nothing to do with my 13 decision here.

14 Q. It would not have anything to do with it?

15 A. No.

16 Q. How long ago was that?

17 A. About 15 years ago.

18 Q. Thank you, ma'am.

19 Number 46, Mr. Taylor.

20 A. (BY JUROR 46, MR. PERRY J. TAYLOR) Yes, sir. I
21 served on a jury, and no, this case would not have anything
22 to do with it.

23 Q. Okay, where was that that you served?

24 A. Here.

25 Q. What kind of case was it?

26 A. It was a drug case.

27 Q. And that would not affect you at all?

28 A. No, sir.

29 Q. What kind of verdict was there in that case?

1 A. Guilty.

2 Q. Thank you, sir.

3 Number 22.

4 A. (BY JUROR 22, MS. ROSE M. ANDREWS) I served on two
5 murder trials. The verdict was guilty.

6 Q. Okay, Ms. Andrews. Thank you.

7 Number, well, let's go to 54.

8 A. (BY JUROR 54, MS. DEBRA HODA) I served on a civil 9 case four years ago.

10 Q. A civil case?

11 A. Uh-huh.

12 Q. Did you reach a verdict in this case?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Was there anything about that case that would 15 affect you at all in this case or your jury service affect
16 you?

17 A. No.

18 Q. Okay. Mr. Crockett?

19 A. (BY JUROR 28, MR. EUGENE CROCKETT, JR.) I served
20 on two juries. One was a criminal, but they dismissed the 21 jury because he, you know, he confessed.

22 Q. He ended up pleading guilty?

23 A. Pleading guilty.

24 Q. Okay. So y'all didn't ever have to reach a
25 determination on that; is that right?

26 A. No, sir.

27 Q. The other one was a civil case?

28 A. Civil case.

29 Q. How long ago were these cases, Mr. Crockett?

1           A.    Oh, about fifteen-- the civil case was about
2 fifteen years ago.

3           Q.    How long ago was the criminal case?

4           A.    Oh, about twelve years.

5           Q.    Would that affect you, either of those experiences
6 affect you at all in this case and keep you from being a fair
7 and impartial juror?

8           A.    Absolutely not.

9           Q.    Thank you, sir.

10                  Number 70, Ms. Shook?

11           A.    (BY JUROR 70, MS. WILLIE M. SHOOK) I served on a 12 eminent domain case about five years ago.

13           Q.    Okay, which, of course, would be a civil case. Did 14 you reach a verdict in that case?

15           A.    Uh-hum.

16           Q.    Is there anything about that fact that would affect 17 you at all in this case and keep you from being a fair and 18 impartial juror?

19           A.    No, sir.

20           Q.    Thank you.

21                  Number 72, Ms. Abernathy?

22           A.    (BY JUROR 72, MS. BARBARA ABERNATHY) Yes, sir.
23 Two cases. One was a drug case, and it was guilty. And the 24 other one was a murder, and it was guilty.

25           Q.    And how long ago was that, Ms. Abernathy?

26           A.    Four years for the drug case and '77 for the 27 murder.

28           Q.    Would anything about that affect you?

29           A.    No, sir.

1 Q. In this case at all?

2 A. No, sir.

3 Q. I'm sorry; I missed a hand. Number 36, Mr. Lackey?

4 A. (BY JUROR 36, MR. JOHNNY F. LACKEY, II) About six
5 or seven years ago I served on a civil case with insurance
6 fraud with attempted arson and found guilty, and it wouldn't 7 have any bearing on this case.

8 Q. It would not affect you at all; is that right? Is 9 that what you said, Mr. Ladner?

10 A. No.

11 Q. Okay, thank you, sir.

12 Number 69. Mr. Hamiter.

13 A. (BY JUROR 69, MR. RHETT D. HAMITER) Yes. I served
14 on a criminal jury about ten years ago.

15 Q. Did you reach a verdict in that case?

16 A. Yes, sir. It was not guilty.

17 Q. What kind of case was it?

18 A. A drug case.

19 Q. Okay. Would that experience affect you at all in 20 this case and keep you from being a fair and impartial juror?

21 A. No, sir.

22 Q. Okay.

23 (Mr. Freelon enters the courtroom for the 24 first time on this date.)

25 BY THE COURT: Now I'm going to get to 26 introduce Mr. Freelon. This is Mr. Harvey Freelon. He is 27 one of the Defense Counsel. So let me go back to that 28 question. Any of you related by blood or marriage to Mr.
29 Freelon now that you can see him? Any of you ever been

1 represented by him or know him in any way? (No response.)

2 Now this is another one of those questions where I
3 don't need to know any details, but I need to know the answer
4 to the question as I ask it. Have any of you ever been
5 charged with a felony? And I know that-- like I say, I don't 6 want to know any facts. I just need to know if you have ever
7 been charged.

8 All right, number 39, Mr. Franklin?

9 A. (BY JUROR 39, MR. THOMAS L. FRANKLIN) Yes.

10 Q. How long ago was that, Mr. Franklin?

11 A. 1989.

12 Q. Okay, has that matter -- I assume it's over and 13 done with?

14 A. Yes, sir.

15 Q. Okay. Did it go any further than you just being 16 charged?

17 A. We went to trial.

18 Q. Okay. Well, what was the result of the trial?

19 A. Not guilty.

20 Q. Okay. Would that experience affect you at all in 21 this case and keep you from being a fair and impartial juror?

22 A. Not at all.

23 Q. Okay. Anybody else?

24 Number 10. Ms. Cook.

25 A. (BY JUROR 10, MS. KAREN J. COOK) Back in '81 I was 26 charged with drug offense. There was more to it, but it was 27 dropped because it was, what you call it? Caffeine
28 substance.

29 Q. Okay. It turned out not to be a controlled

1 substance?

2 A. Right. It was all dropped.

3 Q. So it never got to trial; is that right?

4 A. No. Right.

5 Q. Is there anything about that fact or that
6 experience that would affect you at all in this case--

7 A. No, sir.

8 Q. --and keep you from being a fair and impartial
9 juror?

10 A. No, sir.

11 Q. All right, anybody else?

12 Okay, have any of you had any members of your 13 family who have been charged with a felony? (Several hands go 14 up.)

15 Okay, number 16, Mr. Dobson. What was the 16 relationship?

17 A. (BY JUROR 16, MR. DAVID JOEL DOBSON) My cousin.

18 Q. How close?

19 A. First cousin.

20 Q. What was the nature of the charge?

21 A. Murder.

22 Q. How long ago was that?

23 A. '92. Around '92.

24 Q. That matter is completed by now, I assume; is that
25 right?

26 A. Sir?

27 Q. It's over with, isn't it?

28 A. Yes, sir.

29 Q. Is there anything about that fact that would affect

1 you in this case at all, keep you from being a fair and
2 impartial juror?

3 A. No, sir.

4 Q. Thank you.

5 All right, let's go back to Ms. Cook.

6 A. (BY JUROR 10, MS. KAREN J. COOK) My son when he 7 turned 18, he committed a robbery back in California, and he 8 was sentenced for a year. I don't know all the details to 9 it. I don't even know what he told me. So it wouldn't 10 affect any, you know, decision--

11 Q. --The fact that that happened would not affect you?

12 A. No. No, sir.

13 Q. Thank you, ma'am.

14 Number 31. Mr. Maynard?

15 A. (BY JUROR 31, MR. ROBERT A. MAYNARD) My brother
16 was charged with drug possession and I believe felony DUI
17 back in the late 80's.

18 Q. Okay. Those matters are complete, I assume, by 19 now?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Would that experience or that fact affect you in 22 this case at all?

23 A. No.

24 Q. Thank you.

25 If you would hold the fan up just a little bit
26 further. Okay, number 41, Ms. Kreeger.

27 A. (BY JUROR 41, MS. CHARLENE S. KREEGER) I have a
28 nephew that was convicted of manslaughter. He has served his 29 time, been paroled, and is doing fine.

1 Q. Would that affect you in this case?

2 A. No, sir.

3 Q. Okay. Number 56. Ms. Blakely.

4 A. (BY JUROR 56, MS. CATHERINE BLAKELY) I have a son
5 that was charged with a felony.

6 Q. How long ago was that, Ms. Blakely?

7 A. It was this year.

8 Q. Okay, is it still pending?

9 A. No.

10 Q. That case still pending?

11 A. No.

12 Q. All right. Is there anything about that experience
13 that would affect you in this case at all?

14 A. No.

15 Q. Okay. Thank you, Ms. Blakely.

16 Number 58. Ms. Barnes?

17 A. (BY JUROR 58, MS. ROSE M. BARNES) Yes, sir. I had 18 - how shall I say? - I have two brothers that both went to 19 the penitentiary.

20 Q. I'm sorry; I did not hear you.

21 A. They both went to the penitentiary.

22 Q. Okay. How long ago was that, Ms. Barnes?

23 A. Actually, I was very young on one of them, and I
24 was in college for the other one.

25 Q. Would that fact affect you at all in this case?

26 A. No, sir.

27 Q. It would not keep you from-- you could still be a
28 fair and impartial juror?

29 A. Yes, sir.

1 Q. Is that right? Thank you.

2 Were there any more on this side? Yeah, 61 is Ms.
3 Walker.

4 A. (BY JUROR 61, MS. SYLVIA J. WALKER) I have a
5 brother that had a DUI ticket.

6 Q. A DUI ticket?

7 A. I mean had DUI.

8 Q. Would that affect you at all in this case?

9 A. No.

10 Q. Okay. Thank you, ma'am.

11 Number 12.

14 Q. Ms. Lott, how long ago was that?

15 A. One was like four years and one was like seven
16 years.

17 Q. Okay. Would that affect you at all in this case?

18 A. No.

19 Q. Okay. Thank you.

20 Number 18, Ms. Weiss.

21 A. (BY JUROR 18, MS. RAYANNE M. WEISS) I have a
22 cousin who is very distant in the last three or four years
23 that killed someone while intoxicated in New Orleans and 24 served his sentence.

25 Q. Would that affect you at all in this case?

26 A. No.

27 Q. Thank you, ma'am.

28 Number 60. Mr. Seymour.

29 A. (BY JUROR 60, MR. DONALD G. SEYMOUR) Just family

2 wouldn't affect me.

3 Q. Thank you, Mr. Seymour.

4 Number 26, Ms. Lee.

5 A. (BY JUROR 26, MS. STEPHANIE B. LEE) I actually have 6 three instances. I have a great uncle who hired someone to 7 kill his wife in probably the late 70's or early 80's. He 8 has been paroled since. I have another great uncle who was 9 charged with food stamp fraud, and he died a year ago. Then
10 I have a second cousin who is in line for multiple robberies.

11 Q. Would any of that affect you in this case?

12 A. No, sir.

13 Q. You think you could set that aside and be a fair
14 and impartial juror?

15 A. Yes, sir.

16 Q. Thank you.

17 Number 23, Ms. McClelland.

18 A. (BY JUROR 23, MS. LUCILLE W. MCCLELLAND) I have a 19 brother and a nephew both charged with felonies. My brother

25 Number 28; is that right?

26 A. (BY JUROR 28, MR. EUGENE CROCKETT, JR.) Yes, sir.

27 Q. Yeah, Mr. Crockett. Sorry, Mr. Crockett; I
28 couldn't see you.

29 A. I have a stepson that is serving time in Eastwood

1 for burglary right now.

2 Q. Would that affect you at all in this case?

3 A. No, sir.

4 Q. Thank you.

5 Number 53.

6 A. (BY JUROR 53, MS. DONNA M. SMITH) I have an uncle
7 who is serving time for capital rape.

8 Q. How long ago did that happen, Ms. Smith?

9 A. '95.

10 Q. Would that affect you in this case at all?

11 A. No, sir.

12 Q. Thank you.

13 Number 48.

14 A. (BY JUROR 48, MS. CONNIE L. LADNER) I have an 15 ex-husband who was charged with rape, sodomy, and molestation
16 of [REDACTED] in '87. And no, that would not affect me in 17 this case.

18 Q. Thank you, ma'am.

19 Number 70, Ms. Shook.

20 A. (BY JUROR 70, MS. WILLIE M. SHOOK) I have a nephew
21 who was charged with a felony.

23 A. No, he was charged.

24 Q. Okay. How long ago was that, Ms. Shook?

25 A. About 5 years ago.

26 Q. Would that affect you in this case at all?

28 Q. Okay. Number 54?

29 A. (BY JUROR 54, MS. DEBRA HODA) I have a brother

1 that was charged with a felony, but it has been over 20 years
2 ago.

3 Q. Would that affect you, Ms. Hoda?

4 A. No.

5 Q. Thank you.

6 Anybody else? Number 73.

7 A. (BY JUROR 73, MS. MARCIA W. BEESON) I just 8 remembered something.

9 Q. All right. That is good.

10 A. In the early 70's my husband's cousins were robbed
11 and murdered in Long Beach, and the guys who did it were 12 arrested and are in jail at this time. But that would not 13 affect me in any way in this case.

14 Q. Thank you, ma'am.

15 Now let me see. Ms. Green, did you hold up yours?

16 A. (BY JUROR 2, MS. EVA M. GREEN) Yes. I have a
17 nephew charged with arson.

18 Q. Has been or is now?

19 A. Has been.

20 Q. Okay. Is there anything about that fact that would
21 affect you at all in this case and keep you from being a fair
22 and impartial juror?

23 A. No, it wouldn't.

24 BY THE COURT: Okay. At the end of the case,
25 I'm going to instruct you on what the law is. Now the way
26 this works is I get to decide what the law is in this case,
27 and it's the law whether you agree with it, whether you think 28 it ought to be the law or whatever. You are required by your 29 oath to follow my instructions on the law. Now that is half

1 of it. The other half is you get to decide the facts. All
2 you have to do is listen to the facts and decide them from 3 the witness stand, decide this case on the evidence that you
4 hear from the witness stand, and apply my law to those facts,
5 and then make your decision. Now will everybody do that?
6 Is there anybody here that feels they will not follow my 7 instructions on the law or will consider things other than 8 what comes from the witness stand?

9 Okay. There are certain people who have religious 10 or philosophical beliefs that prevent them from passing
11 judgment on another human being regardless, they just can't 12 do that. And there is absolutely nothing wrong with that.
13 That is-- I get affirmative responses to that all the time.
14 However, it is our purpose here in this trial to reach some 15 decision, and if you can't make up, if you can't make a 16 decision before you go in there, obviously, you can't do what 17 we are here to do. So I need to know if anybody has such a
18 religious or philosophical belief? Okay.

19 Gentlemen, let me see y'all up here just a second.

20 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
21 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

22 BY THE COURT: Let me tell you what I'm going
23 to do now. I am about down, we are just about down
24 to the death part of it. I have got these three 25 ladies, these three people that said they knew
26 something about it. I am thinking about giving 27 them a break, and let's individual them. And then
28 we will bring the jury back and go from there.
29 Okay?

1 (Counsel nod their heads.)

2 END BENCH CONFERENCE.

3 BY THE COURT: What we are going to do, ladies
4 and gentlemen, right now I am going to give y'all
5 about a 15 minute break. During that time I have
6 got three of you I have got to talk to a little bit
7 more in relation to some of the responses. Nobody
8 has done anything wrong. I just, these people that 9 think they might know something about this case, I
10 have to do that individually. So I'm going to give 11 you a break while I do that, and then we will come
12 back, and we will continue on.

13 Y'all should not discuss this matter amongst
14 yourselves. You should not let anybody discuss it
15 with you. If anybody tries to discuss it with you
16 or in your presence, you are to let me know when 17 you come back in here. Okay. I will see you back
18 in about 15 minutes.

19 (Most prospective jurors leave the courtroom.)

20 BY THE COURT: Even if you don't want a break,
21 I have got to ask you to step outside while I do
22 this.

23 (All jurors leave the courtroom.)

24 BY THE COURT: Let's start with Ms. Finch.

25 (Bailiff left the courtroom with a list of the 26 three jurors to be questioned and then returned.)

27 BY THE BAILIFF: I can't find any of them.

28 BY THE COURT: Boy, they escaped quick, didn't 29 they?

1 (Brief recess while the Bailiff located the
2 three jurors. Juror 17, MS. TERESA M. FINCH,
3 entered the courtroom first.)

4 BY THE COURT: Ms. Finch, come up here just a
5 minute.

6 INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE BY THE COURT:

7 Q. Ms. Finch, you had indicated that you might know
8 something about this case; is that right?

9 A. Yes, sir. I just said I might know a little. It
10 is very, very little.

11 Q. Okay, well, tell me what it is that you think you
12 know.

13 A. Okay. I was just at a dinner on Saturday evening,
14 and someone just asked me about doing something this week,
15 and I said I couldn't make any plans because I had, you know,
16 been summonsed for jury duty. And it so happened that this 17 person-- he is not related. I don't even know him, but he is 18 a police officer. And so anyway, he said, "Oh, really? What 19 case are you going to?" And I said, "I have no idea. I
20 don't know anything about it. I just know it's a sequestered
21 trial." And so anyway, all he said was, "I bet it's that 22 case" -- he said that there was a furniture store. I thought
23 it was in Kosciusko. So I really don't know anything about 24 it, but he said that the employees and all were burned in the 25 furniture store and that it was a matter of being 26 disgruntled. And that's all I know.

27 Q. Okay. That's all you have ever heard about it?

28 A. So far as I know. I do read the newspaper here,
29 but I don't recall reading anything about it or anything like

1 that.

2 Q. Okay, and have you ever seen any television
3 coverage or anything like that of it?

4 A. Not that I could remember; no, sir.

5 Q. Based on what this fellow told you, did you form
6 any opinion as to the guilt or innocence of Mr. Flowers?

7 A. No, because I didn't know who it was or anything.
8 I just thought how horrible, you know, for something like-- I
9 mean that would be horrible for anybody to be burned up in a
10 store.

11 Q. Right, but and, right; so in general, it was 12 horrible for the crime; is that what you're telling me?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Did you form any opinion as to whether Mr. Flowers
15 did it at all?

16 A. No, sir, because I didn't know anything about it.

17 Q. Okay. Could you set aside what you heard Saturday
18 night and be a fair and impartial juror and base your 19 decision on the evidence as it comes from the witness stand
20 and the instructions on the law that I give you?

21 A. Yes, sir.

22 Q. All right.

23 BY THE COURT: Mr. Evans, do you have any
24 questions of Ms. Finch?

25 BY MR. EVANS: No, sir, not at this point.

26 BY THE COURT: Mr. Lumumba, do you?

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Just a couple of questions.

28 INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE BY MR. LUMUMBA:

29 Q. Good afternoon.

1           A.    Good afternoon.

2           Q.    Good afternoon.  I didn't hear everything you said,
3 but you indicated there was a police, there was a police
4 officer that you were speaking to?

5           A.    Yes.  He was not in uniform.  I didn't know him.
6 He was an acquaintance of someone that my husband and I were 7 having dinner with.  He came over and joined our table, and 8 the people that we were with was asking me about doing
9 something this week.  And I just had to say no, that I didn't 10 think that I could because I didn't know what this week would 11 hold because I had been summonsed for this case.  And I just 12 in essence said, it's a sequestered trial.  If I get chosen,
13 I will be, you know, I could be tied up for the week.  And 14 that's when the person just, you know, made a statement.

15          Q.    About the case, thought it was a case and they
16 said--

17          A.    --he just said, "Hmm.  I wonder if it's about that 18 furniture store."  And that's all I heard.

19          Q.    Okay, so--

20          A.    I don't know anything about it other than that.

21          Q.    Where did he say the furniture store was at?

22          A.    I thought it was in Kosciusko because as I told
23 you, I go to Kosciusko every year, you know, for the student
24 convention that I am involved in.

25                BY THE COURT:  Yes, ma'am.

26          A.    And that is the reason it rang a bell to me because 27 I love y'all's town square that is there, and I just--

28          Q.    Okay, well, I just had a couple of other 29 questions.  One is in terms of being a sequestered jury, was

1 that information supplied to you?

2 A. Yes, sir. It was on the questionnaire that I
3 received because I had to fill it out and mail it back in 4 within 5 days of the time that I received it.

5 Q. Okay. And the second thing is with the-- did, when 6 you heard that, did it ring any kind of bell to you as to 7 about anything you had heard a while ago or anything like
8 that?

9 A. No.

10 Q. It didn't? Okay.

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have no further questions.

12 BY THE COURT: All right. Thank you, Ms.
13 Finch. You may go out and take a break. Ms.
14 Weiss.

15 (Ms. Rayanne M. Weiss enters the courtroom.)

16 BY THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.

17 BY JUROR 18, MS. RAYANNE M. WEISS: I am Ms.
18 Weiss.

19 BY THE COURT: Yeah, I'm sorry. My mind is 20 going two ways.

21 BY MS. WEISS: That is all right.

22 INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE BY THE COURT:

23 Q. Ms. Weiss, you are in journalism?

24 A. Yes, sir. I'm in news management at WLOX TV here
25 at the TV station, and I'm not sure if I am familiar with the 26 case or not. I am just being real honest with you. I read
27 the associated press wire every day, and right now, you know,
28 it sounds like any other that has come across the wire, but I
29 don't know that along the way--

1 Q. --Okay. Well, tell me what you think you know.

2 A. Well, I know it's a capital murder trial, and y'all
3 have said it's a furniture store in a small town. I know,
4 you know-- I don't know any specifics.

5 Q. Would you have ever heard anything from anybody who 6 purported to know the facts of this case?

7 A. No, sir.

8 Q. Do you recall any specific news items that you have 9 seen other than maybe the Associated Press coming over the 10 wire service?

11 A. No, sir.

12 Q. Have you ever seen any television coverage of this 13 whatsoever?

14 A. No, sir.

15 Q. Do you recall ever reading in the Clarion Ledger or 16 the Sun Herald anything about this?

17 A. I read those papers every day just like the wire.
18 So I really-- it doesn't stand out, but I probably if it was 19 reported in there, have read it.

20 Q. Okay. If in fact you did, have you formed any 21 opinion--

22 A. No.

23 Q. --on the guilt or innocence of Mr. Flowers in this
24 case?

25 A. No, sir.

26 Q. Do you think you could set aside whatever it is 27 that you might have heard and give him a fair and impartial
28 trial--

29 A. --yes, sir--

1 Q. --based on the evidence as it comes from the
2 witness stand and the instructions on the law that the Court
3 gives you?

4 A. Yes, sir.

5 BY THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Evans?

6 BY MR. EVANS: No questions, Your Honor.

7 BY THE COURT: Mr. Lumumba?

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes.

9 INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE BY MR. LUMUMBA:

10 Q. Is it Ms. Weiss?

11 A. Weiss.

12 Q. And you are in journalism?

13 A. Yes, sir.

14 Q. So you read the papers and the wire all the time?

15 A. Uh-hum.

16 Q. Now this is my -- you said you know it was 17 involving a furniture store?

18 A. That's what I believe that they said.

19 Q. Believe that they said, okay.

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Okay, you don't know what happened in the furniture
22 store?

23 A. No, sir. I don't.

24 Q. You don't have -- okay. Now if this is something
25 that during the course of the trial there may be some 26 statements or something that is made prior to trial starting 27 like in questioning, vivid memories of what has, you know,
28 been, begin to come back into your mind, do you think there 29 is a danger that you may be biased or prejudiced by those

1 kind of things?

2 A. No, sir. I don't think so. I think that if I read
3 about it, it was just like any one of y'all reading it. It's 4 part of my daily work that came across the desk.

5 Q. Okay, so you feel or you know that you could be
6 fair and impartial?

7 A. I believe I could; yes, sir.

8 Q. Okay. It's hard and it is a difficult question to 9 ask you because, you know, at this point we don't know that 10 anything is going to resurrect in your mind, but like the 11 Judge said, there is a difference between "I think" and "I 12 know"; right?

13 A. Uh-hum.

14 Q. Okay. So have you been confronted with-- you have 15 never served on a jury before?

16 A. No, sir. I have covered trials before, but I have 17 never served on a jury.

18 Q. Okay, what kind-- are you covering like criminal
19 trials?

20 A. I come in, and I'm on the Sherry trials. I have 21 sat on the verdicts in both of those cases.

22 Q. Okay. Is there anything about that work you think
23 might in any way--

24 A. No, sir.

25 Q. Okay.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have no further questions
27 at this time.

28 BY THE COURT: Thank you, Ms. Weiss. You may 29 go outside. Mr. Smith.

1 (Ms. Weiss leaves courtroom, and juror number
2 29, MR. JASON L. SMITH, enters the courtroom.)

3 BY THE COURT: Just come around here, Mr.
4 Smith, if you will.

5 INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE BY THE COURT:

6 Q. Mr. Smith, you have indicated to the Court earlier 7 that you thought you knew something about this case; is that
8 right?

9 A. That is correct.

10 Q. What is it that you know, Mr. Smith?

11 A. I duck hunt and deer hunt with friends from Winona,
12 the Sproles.

13 Q. The Sproles?

14 A. Mr. Charles--

15 Q. S P R O L E S, isn't it?

16 A. Yes. Mr. Charles works in Greenwood at Norris Book
17 Binding, and they own a little store, Winona Printing, right
18 there in Winona. And I heard--

19 Q. --in downtown Winona?

20 A. Yes, sir. For what it is of downtown Winona.

21 Q. Okay.

22 A. But I have heard--

23 A. They have told you about this case?

24 A. Yes, sir.

25 Q. They have talked to you?

26 A. Yes, sir.

27 Q. Have you talked to them about it a bunch or often?

28 A. No. It is just, I kind of have heard the towns-
29 people speak.

1 Q. Okay. Based on what you heard, Mr. Smith, have you
2 formed an opinion as to the guilt or innocence of Mr.
3 Flowers?

4 A. Honestly, from what I have heard so far, yes.

5 Q. Okay.

6 A. I mean you take a small town like that and 7 something like that happened, a lot of people talk and--

8 Q. Well, that is a fair answer, Mr. Smith, and that's 9 what I needed to know.

10 BY THE COURT: Mr. Evans, do you have any
11 questions?

12 BY MR. EVANS: No.

13 BY THE COURT: How about you, Mr. Lumumba?

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Just one quick one.

15 INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE BY MR. LUMUMBA:

16 Q. Mr. Smith, since when you first came, you had to 17 wait a little while, I guess, until we got kind of organized 18 here with the clerk getting names and all that kind of 19 stuff. During that period of time, did you have a chance to 20 talk to anybody about this?

21 A. No, sir. I really, I put it together last night
22 when I got the recording and they said the name, and I
23 realized what the case was. But from what I knew, I knew
24 better than to say anything to anybody here because I felt
25 like I knew too much.

26 Q. Right. And you haven't heard anybody else talking
27 about the case?

28 A. No. Everybody-- I have kept my mouth shut, and 29 everybody is guessing where it's at, and I haven't heard

1 anybody hit it on the spot yet.

2 Q. Right. Right. Thank you.

3 BY THE COURT: Okay, Mr. Smith, I'm going to 4 ask you, if you will, just keep it in that posture
5 too. Don't say anything about what you know.
6 Okay?

7 BY MR. SMITH: Yes, sir.

8 BY THE COURT: Thank you, sir. Okay, the 9 Court Reporter and I are going to take a break
10 right now.

11 (FOLLOWING A RECESS ON MARCH 22, 1999, COURT
12 WAS AGAIN CONVENED WITH ALL COUNSEL, THE DEFENDANT, 13 AND THE JURY PANEL PRESENT:)

14 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
15 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: There is two things I wanted
17 to bring to the Court's attention. One is I think 18 it may be good if the Court doesn't disagree to let 19 Mr. Smith go so he won't, you know, have any chance
20 of tainting the rest of the jury. That is just a 21 concern I have.

22 BY THE COURT: The trouble is-- I agree with 23 you, but I don't want to let him go -- I might 24 should have done it beforehand. I don't want to 25 let him go right in the middle of this. We may 26 start a stampede.

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

28 BY THE COURT: At the next break I will.

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

1                   BY THE COURT: I don't really think he is
2 going to say anything, or he would already have.

3                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. The second thing is 4 the--

5                   BY THE COURT: And I tell you what; you remind 6 me if I forget. At the end of voir dire after 7 everybody is through, I will ask them specifically
8 if anybody has said anything to them about this
9 case. Will that work?

10                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, that is important. The 11 other thing, Judge, is that we-- one of our motions
12 in limine was to exclude any testimony on the three 13 acts that occurred or three deaths that occurred at 14 the time that Stewart's death occurred. Now I know
15 that is a motion you entertained before. Prior 16 counsel raised that in relationship to the other
17 case. In fact, that is one of the issues, I guess,
18 they are raising for appeal, and I don't know if 19 they have to send you a copy of the brief. Have 20 you seen a copy of the brief?

21                  BY THE COURT: They have sent me a copy, but I
22 haven't read it.

23                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: You have not read it. Okay.
24 Okay, but in any event, we want to make that 25 motion. The only reason I am raising it now is 26 because if it's not going to be granted, then I
27 think it is important, and hopefully it will. I'm 28 not trying to say it shouldn't be.

29                  BY THE COURT: I understand.

1           BY MR. LUMUMBA: But I think that we need to 2           be in a position where we can voir dire on that 3           kind of openly because see, a lot of people are 4           going to remember this case. If they are going to 5           remember it at all, they are going to remember it
6           when they hear something about four people supposed
7           to have died, and that is not a contested issue
8           with us. You know, we are not contesting that four 9           people died. So it really does us no good not to 10          raise it. You know what I'm saying? If it is 11          coming out. Now if it's not coming out, then, of 12          course, we don't want to raise it.

13                 So my motion in limine would be to exclude
14          that because we think that it's more prejudicial
15          than probative, and we feel that since Counsel has 16          chosen to try the cases separately, then the same
17          law applies about bad acts under their prior to or 18          whatever, they cannot be used against a defendant
19          in a particular case. And that goes, and as long
20          as I am raising it as to those acts that occurred
21          on that same day, I will also raise it as it
22          relates to burglary. There was supposed to have 23          been a burglary. For some reason evidence came out
24          of that at the last trial.

25                 BY THE COURT: Did it? I didn't recall that.

26                 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah.

27                 BY MR. EVANS: I don't recall it either.

28                 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, but anyway--

29                 BY MR. EVANS: --There is some evidence he

1 committed one, but it didn't come out in the trial.

2 BY THE COURT: Right. And I'm not going to,
3 we are not going to get into that.

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

5 BY THE COURT: But now as to the other three,
6 the law, as I understand it, is that because of the 7 way the facts are in this case and the way the 8 facts rolled out the first time and the nature of 9 things, that they are so intertwined that there is 10 no way to separate them out. So I think of 11 necessity they have, it has got to come out for the 12 jury to get the complete story of what happened.
13 And with that in mind, you are going to be entitled
14 to ask them those things in relation to that. I'm 15 going to let you do it rather than me do it.

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

17 BY THE COURT: And I think you are entitled to 18 go into that. But I also think having, looking at 19 the facts and then looking at the law that I read
20 on it, there is just no way to separate it out.
21 And for the jury to get the complete story of what 22 went on, I think they have got to know that these 23 other folks died.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, so--

25 BY THE COURT: So I am overruling the Motion.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Overruling the motion.

27 BY THE COURT: Now let me say this. I don't
28 see at this time any necessity for sequestered,
29 individual sequestered voir dire of all these

1 people in relation to the death penalty. So I'm 2 going to go on into my voir dire on it. As those
3 things develop, I may change my mind on that as I
4 see what it is. But at least at this point in 5 time-- I don't even know how many of them are going
6 to have any scruples about it, and we will see
7 where we go on that.

8 But my inclination-- well, my ruling at this
9 time is I'm not going to do it right now.

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA: All right.

11 END BENCH CONFERENCE.

12 BY THE COURT: Okay, is everybody back? Make 13 sure I have got everybody here.

14 CONTINUED VOIR DIRE BY THE COURT:

15 This case is a capital case. That means that 16 it could ultimately, depending on what happens, result in the 17 death penalty. What has to happen first is that we have to 18 have a trial to determine the guilt or innocence of Mr.
19 Flowers. If the jury should then find that Mr. Flowers is 20 guilty, then we will have another trial, and that trial will 21 determine what the penalty would be. In this case the jury
22 determines the penalty in this matter, and death is one of 23 those options.

24 The first trial, you will have to decide that first 25 trial as to his guilt or innocence solely on the evidence as 26 you hear it from the witness stand and using my instructions
27 on the law like I told you while ago. You must hear the 28 evidence up here, what the people say and what I admit into 29 evidence. You go back and determine what that evidence

1 shows. You find those facts. You must apply the law that I
2 give you to those facts and determine the guilt or
3 innocence.

4 If you, in fact, find Mr. Flowers guilty, then we
5 have another trial, and you will have additional evidence
6 that will come from the witness stand from both sides in all
7 likelihood for you, to give you some evidence to determine
8 whether in your opinion based on those facts that you have,
9 that you can decide what punishment based on those facts and 10 the instructions on the law that I give you at that time.
11 What you are not entitled to do is base either one of those 12 decisions on anything other than the evidence that you hear
13 in this courtroom or is presented to you by way of documents
14 or evidentiary physical evidence that I give to you or 15 anything on the law other than what I tell you is the law.
16 Now is there anybody here that will not do that? Is there
17 anybody that will not do that?

18 Okay, now I need to know if there are any members
19 of the jury panel who cannot, cannot impose the death penalty
20 if the facts warrant it and I tell you the law allows it, and 21 not only that, that that would affect you as to whether you
22 could determine the guilt or innocence if the facts warranted
23 that or if the law allowed it? How many of you have any 24 religious or philosophical scruples that would prevent you
25 from imposing the death penalty? (Several hands go up.)

26 Okay, let's start over here. Ms. McClelland, I
27 think it is. You raised your hand, didn't you, Ms.
28 McClelland?

29 A. (BY JUROR 23, MS. LUCILLE W. MCCLELLAND) Right.

1 Q. Okay, would you mind standing up, please, ma'am?
2 That way I can hear you a little bit better.

3 Q. After you have heard this case, after it got to the 4 point where you one, had to determine the guilt or innocence
5 or maybe at such time as later that you had to determine the 6 penalty in this case and you found that the evidence
7 warranted a conviction or warranted the death penalty and I
8 told you that the law would allow both of those, that it was 9 possible under the law for that to happen, could you still 10 not impose the death penalty?

11 A. I don't think I could.

12 Q. You could not under any circumstances; is that
13 right?

14 A. No, sir.

15 Q. Thank you, Ms. McClelland. What is your number, 16 Ms. McClelland?

17 BY MR. HORAN: 23.

18 A. (BY JUROR MS. McCLELLAND) 23.

19 BY THE COURT: Okay. Number 2, Ms. Green?

20 A. (BY JUROR 2, MS. EVA M. GREEN) I don't think I
21 could either.

22 Q. Okay, Ms. Green, let me just go through it with you
23 and say again if the evidence from the stand, if you found
24 from the evidence from the stand that it warranted a finding 25 of guilt or that the death penalty was warranted based on 26 those facts, and I told you that the law allowed you to 27 impose the death penalty, do you think you could do that 28 under any circumstances?

29 A. No.

1 Q. You could not do it?

2 A. No.

3 Q. Thank you, ma'am.

4 All right, number 4, Ms. Necaise.

5 A. (BY JUROR 4, MS. DIANE NECAISE) No, I don't think
6 I could do that.

7 Q. Regardless of what the evidence is and what I told 8 you the law was?

9 A. (Juror Ms. Necaise nods her head.)

10 Q. You could not do it under any situation?

11 A. No, sir.

12 Q. Thank you, ma'am.

13 Anybody else on this side? Number 5. Ms.
14 Yarbrough.

15 A. (BY JUROR 5, MS. LINDA YARBROUGH) Yes, sir. I
16 could not.

17 Q. Even if the evidence warranted it and I told you
18 the law allowed it, you could not do it; is that correct?

19 A. Not with a true conscience, no.

20 Q. Thank you, ma'am.

21 Number 43. Ms. Henson. Ms. Henson, I'm going to 22 be repetitive because I have to be. Even if the evidence
23 warranted it and I instructed you that the law allowed it,
24 could you, are you telling me that you could not impose the 25 death penalty? Is that what you're saying?

26 A. (BY JUROR 43, MS. NELENNE L. HENSON) That's what 27 I'm telling you.

28 Q. Are you telling me you could not under any 29 circumstances?

1 A. Never, Your Honor.

2 Q. Okay, thank you, ma'am.

3 Number 49, is Ms. Rishel?

4 A. (BY JUROR 49, MS. DOROTHY DICKSON RISHEL) Yes,
5 sir. I am opposed to the death penalty on religious grounds.

6 Q. You are? And you could not impose it under any 7 circumstances? Is that correct?

8 A. Right.

9 Q. All right, I'm sorry; I missed somebody over here.
10 Number 71, Ms. Pickich?

11 A. (BY JUROR 71, MS. LAURA M. PICKICH) Yes.

12 Q. Ms. Pickich, could you impose it if the evidence
13 warranted it and I told you the law allowed it?

14 A. No, sir. I could not on religious grounds.

15 Q. On religious grounds?

16 A. No, sir. Right.

17 Q. You could not impose it under any circumstances?
18 Is that what you're telling me?

19 A. Right.

20 Q. Okay.

21 All right, let's go over here. Number 15, Mr.
22 Overstreet.

23 A. (BY JUROR 15, MR. JAMES M. OVERSTREET) Yes. I
24 would have problems with it.

25 Q. Okay. And that would be a difficult decision for 26 anybody. But the law is if after hearing the evidence, you
27 heard that evidence and you found that the evidence warranted
28 first, you finding of a guilty verdict and second, then at 29 the second stage you found that it warranted the death

1 penalty, and I told you or gave you an instruction on the law
2 and said that it was allowable in this case, do you feel that
3 you still could not impose the death penalty?

4 A. I wouldn't say I could not, but I have a problem
5 with it.

6 Q. Okay. There again, Mr. Overstreet, I hate to have 7 to tie you out, but I need to know one way or another. And 8 it is okay, whichever way you can.

9 A. I just can't give you a definite answer.

10 Q. Okay. Thank you, Mr. Overstreet.

11 Number 18, Ms. Weiss?

12 A. (BY JUROR 18, MS. RAYANNE M. WEISS) I believe in 13 the death penalty. I just don't know as a person that I
14 could vote to have someone--

15 Q. --Would you stand up, please, ma'am? I can't hear
16 you.

17 A. I said I believe in the death penalty, but I don't 18 know if as a person I could, my conscience would allow me to 19 vote for it. So if you push me, I am uncertain just like 20 this gentleman. If you pushed me, I would say no.

21 Q. You would say no?

22 A. That I do not believe I could vote the death
23 penalty. But I am uncertain.

24 Q. Y'all understand I have to push you some?

25 A. I am very uncertain, but I believe in the death
26 penalty.

27 Q. Thank you, Ms. Weiss.

28 Number 61 is Ms. Walker. Ms. Walker, if the 29 evidence warranted it and I told you the law allowed it,

1 first could you, would that, because the death penalty is
2 involved, would that affect whether or not you could find
3 somebody guilty? And then secondly, if it was guilty, would 4 it affect whether or not you could give the death penalty?

5 A. (BY JUROR 61, MS. SYLVIA J. WALKER) Yes.

6 Q. Do you think that you could not under any 7 circumstances?

8 A. No.

9 Q. Thank you, Ms. Walker.

10 Number 56, Ms. Sallis?

11 A. (BY JUROR 56, MS. CATHERINE BLAKELY) Blakely.

12 Q. I'm sorry. I got that-- Ms. Blakely. I apologize,
13 Ms. Blakely. I did not hear your answer?

14 A. Well, I don't think I could impose the death
15 penalty if I didn't know if he was really guilty.

16 Q. Okay, and that goes back to what I'm asking you,
17 Ms. Blakely. You are going-- if you sit on this jury, you
18 are going to hear all the evidence in this case.

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And you are going to get everything that I allow to 21 be admitted into evidence to go back to the jury room and 22 look at. If after looking at all that, you find that the 23 evidence warrants first, a determination that he is guilty,
24 and then if that determination is made, then a determination
25 that the death penalty would apply in this case and I told
26 you that the law said in this case you could do that if you
27 found that's what had to be done. Could you still not impose
28 the death penalty in this case?

29 A. No.

1 Q. You could not?

2 A. No.

3 Q. Ms. Blakely, could you impose the death penalty
4 under any circumstances?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. You could. What would that take, ma'am?

7 A. If I really knew somebody was guilty.

8 Q. Okay.

9 A. I would have to just--

10 Q. Okay. Well, let me take it another way then. The 11 first thing you would have to do before the death penalty
12 ever came into play; there have got to be two trials.

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. For the death penalty to even be a factor. It is 15 not even something really to be considered totally until such 16 time as the jury has determined that the person is guilty.
17 So if you were on the jury, you would have to be convinced
18 beyond a reasonable doubt that that person was guilty. Let's 19 say if you did that and you returned a verdict of guilty, and 20 then there were facts presented to you about whether or not 21 the death penalty ought to be imposed or some other penalty
22 imposed, and I told you that in this case under the facts
23 that it was an allowable thing for the death penalty to be 24 imposed if the jury found that's what they ought to do, could 25 you still not impose the death penalty even if you had found 26 him guilty?

27 A. No.

28 Q. Thank you, ma'am.

29 Okay, anybody else? Number 28.

1           A.     (BY JUROR 28, MR. EUGENE CROCKETT, JR.) Sir.

2           Q.     Yes, sir, Mr. Crockett.

3           A.     I think I would have problems too with deciding 4 whether a person lived or died.

5           Q.     Okay, like I say, Mr. Crockett, most everybody here
6 would have that problem. These are not easy cases for 7 anybody to sit on, but here is the test. The test is first
8 you have to determine from the facts as you determine them
9 whether or not this man is guilty, and you have to determine
10 that based on the facts as you see them and the instructions
11 on the law as I give them to you. Nothing else happens until 12 that is done. Once the jury has determined that the person
13 is guilty, then there is a second phase to this trial where 14 we have another trial to determine whether he gets death or 15 not or some other penalty, and the jury decides. And the 16 jury then must take the evidence presented at that second 17 portion of the trial, and they must apply my instructions on 18 the law to that as to whether or not the death penalty can 19 even be given in that particular case. And based on that, my 20 question to you is if you found, and let's say at the first 21 phase you had found him guilty; at the second phase if you
22 found that the evidence warranted him getting the death
23 penalty, could you impose the death penalty?

24          A.     Well, sir, I would like to say yes, I do. But 25 first I have to feel that it's, it's important for me being a
26 citizen, you know. Do you see what I mean?

27          Q.     Yes, sir. I do understand.

28          A.     And if it is necessary for me as an American
29 citizen, you know, I would probably say yeah.

1 Q. Well, Mr. Crockett, it is only necessary if, in
2 fact, you determine that the evidence warrants it and the law
3 allows it, and I will tell you whether the law allows it. So
4 it will be up to you, and if you found that it was necessary,
5 could you impose it?

6 A. Well, in the sake of good citizenship, I would 7 probably say yeah.

8 Q. Thank you, Mr. Crockett.

9 Anybody else? (No further response.)

10 Okay, there is a reverse to that question. And the 11 reverse is, is there anybody on this jury panel who would 12 automatically impose the death penalty if they found the 13 Defendant guilty, then would they automatically impose the 14 death penalty? Now automatically is not really the correct
15 word. That is not the right phrase. Would you, regardless 16 of what the evidence showed or what the instructions on the 17 law said, if you found him guilty, would you then feel that 18 you had to impose the death penalty regardless of what I told 19 you the law was or what the evidence was that you found?

20 All right, that is number 40, Mr. Connor. You
21 would, Mr. Connor?

22 A. (BY JUROR 40, MR. PATRICK E. CONNOR) Yes, I would,
23 Your Honor.

24 Q. Okay. Thank you, sir.

25 All right, number 31, Mr. Maynard.

26 A. (BY JUROR 31, MR. ROBERT A. MAYNARD) Yes, sir.

27 Q. You would, Mr. Maynard?

28 A. If the law allows it, it would be my first choice.

29 Q. Okay, well--

1           A.    --If he were found, if the gentleman were found
2 guilty and it were prescribed under law that that would be an
3 option, that would be my first choice.

4           Q.    Okay, but the question really is, Mr. Maynard, is 5 would you listen to the evidence at the sentencing portion of 6 the trial, the second trial; would you listen to that 7 evidence and base your decision on that evidence as it came
8 from the witness stand and then make your decision?

9           A.    I can't say that I would.

10          Q.    Okay, thank you, Mr. Maynard.

11                   Did I see somebody over here?    (No further 12 response) .

13                   Other than those of you who have told me that for 14 one reason or another you could not be a fair and impartial
15 juror or for those who have just answered the questions about 16 the death penalty where you said you could not impose it
17 under any circumstances, is there anybody else on the jury
18 panel for any reason whatsoever, knows any reason why they 19 cannot be fair and impartial in this case?

20                   Okay, the panel is tendered to the State for voir
21 dire.

22                   BY MR. EVANS:  Thank you, Your Honor.

23                   VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION BY MR. EVANS:

24                   Ladies and gentlemen, I am Doug Evans, and I am the 25 District Attorney from the Fifth Circuit Court District.
26 That is the district where this crime occurred.  This is 27 Kevin Horan.  He is one of the assistants that work with me.
28 This is Walter Bleck.  The three of us will be presenting the 29 case to you for the State of Mississippi.

1           Now the first thing that I want to point out is
2           that this crime did not occur down here on the coast. And I
3           know that some of these questions may sound kind of silly to 4           some of you, but the reason we ask these questions is because 5           of responses we have gotten in the past when we ask questions
6           to other jury panels. And if it only applies to one person,
7           it is important to us. If it doesn't apply to anybody, we 8           need to know it. But the question is just because this case 9           did not occur here in your county, is there anybody here on 10          this panel that would feel well, I just don't care. I don't 11          care that a murder may have happened somewhere else. They 12          should be trying that somewhere else. We didn't have 13          anything to do with it.

14                 Is anybody here that would have that feeling? If 15          you do, please raise your hand and let us know.

16                 As the Judge told you, the case that we will be 17          trying is a capital murder. It is a murder that occurred 18          during the commission of an armed robbery. In that 19          particular murder there were four people killed. This 20          particular case that y'all will be looking at only deals with 21          one of those deaths. The other cases are separate. Do each 22          of y'all understand that this particular case only deals with 23          one victim?

24                 I'm going to be fairly short. I don't have a whole
25          lot to go over with y'all, but I do have a few things I need
26          to go over. I am going to cover a couple of things, and then 27          I'm going to go into the death penalty part. But as the 28          Judge has told y'all, and I'm going to try not to repeat the 29          things that he told you for the benefit of speed, but there

1 are a few things I need to go over a little bit more.

2 As the Judge has told you, at this point in this
3 trial in any criminal trial this Defendant sitting over here
4 or any defendant that sits in the courtroom at this phase of 5 a trial is presumed innocent. That is a very important fact
6 of law. That fact of law is there for one basic reason.
7 Nobody can be found guilty unless they have been proven
8 guilty in a court of law. So at this particular point in 9 this trial or any other trial, any jury panel, y'all or 10 anybody else that is sitting out there, if you were asked to 11 vote whether this Defendant was guilty at this point, under 12 your oath to do what the Judge told you, each of you would 13 have to vote not guilty because you have heard no evidence.

14 Is there anyone here that has any problem with that
15 theory of law?

16 All right, now the reverse of that theory of law is 17 that the burden of proof is on us, the State of Mississippi
18 to prove to you that this Defendant is guilty. Once we have 19 proven to you that he is guilty beyond a reasonable doubt,
20 then that burden of proof changes, or then that presumption
21 changes. It no longer is there to protect him; it
22 disappears. Do any of y'all have any problem with that
23 theory of law?

24 Another question that I always go into again and 25 the reason I do is because this is a question that most 26 people sitting on the jury panel have never thought about,
27 and that is what the Judge asked about religious or personal
28 beliefs. At this point I'm not even talking about the death
29 penalty. I am just talking about sitting in trial of

1 someone. There are people that because of religious or 2 personal beliefs, feel that they should not judge anyone
3 else, and it's fine to have that belief, but it is not fine
4 to pick someone on a jury with that belief.

5 And the reason for that, if you were picked as a
6 juror and you had the belief, even though you had the belief
7 that you could not sit in judgment of someone and decide
8 whether they were guilty or innocent, we could possibly go
9 through a week of trial. The jury could go out and 10 deliberate on guilt or innocence, and one out of the group
11 that is back there deliberating might just throw up their 12 hands and say, "I'm sorry; I just don't think it is right for 13 me to judge someone else." It would be all right for that 14 juror to have that belief, but that juror would have wasted
15 everybody's time because they would be back there. The rest
16 of the jury would be trying to do what the Judge told them
17 and deliberate on the evidence, and that juror would keep 18 them from doing that.

19 So if there is anyone here today that even thinks 20 that they could not sit in judgment of someone and listen to 21 the evidence, please raise your hand and let us know. (Juror 22 number 4 raised her hand.)

23 BY THE COURT: That was Ms. Necaise raised her
24 hand.

25 BY MR. EVANS: Number 4, Ms. Necaise.

26 Q. Okay, you believe that you could not do that; is
27 that correct?

28 A. (BY JUROR 4, MS. DIANE NECAISE) I believe that I
29 could not.

1 Q. Okay. Anyone else? Yes ma'am, number 61?

2 A. (JUROR 61, MS SYLVIA J. WALKER gave an inaudible
3 response.)

4 Q. I'm sorry; I couldn't hear you. What was your 5 response, please?

6 A. It would be against my religion.

7 Q. Okay, it would be against your religion.

8 Anyone else? (No further response.)

9 BY MR. EVANS: All right, I want to go for a
10 minute into what the Judge covered on the death penalty. I
11 know a lot of y'all have already answered this, and most of 12 those we will not need to go back into. But is there anyone
13 on this panel that has not previously answered that because 14 of their beliefs, feel that they could not even consider the 15 death penalty as a proper punishment regardless of the facts
16 of the case and regardless of what the law is? Anyone that 17 has not already answered to that? (No response.)

18 A death penalty trial is different than any other
19 case. If this were a burglary or a case like that, the jury
20 would hear the evidence one time. They would go back and 21 deliberate and vote guilty or not guilty, and that would be 22 the end of it. In a capital case where the death penalty is 23 a proper punishment to consider, the jury does that exact
24 thing on what is called the first phase of the trial. You
25 will hear evidence. After you have heard evidence, the Judge
26 will read you instructions and tell you what law applies to 27 this particular case. Once you have listened to the evidence
28 and heard the instructions, you will go back in the jury
29 room. You will deliberate on only guilt or innocence. At

1 that point you cannot even consider what proper penalty, what
2 penalty is proper.

3 Is there anyone here that has any problem with that
4 theory of law or disagrees with it?

5 The way that works then is that if a jury returns a
6 guilty verdict of capital murder back into the courtroom to 7 the Judge, then we go into a separate phase. In that phase
8 both sides can put on evidence for you to hear, and the Judge
9 will give you complete different instructions. I'm not going 10 to sit here and go through all those instructions because the 11 Judge hasn't given them yet, but in those instructions the 12 Judge will tell you step by step what you must consider. And 13 you have to find certain elements before you can determine
14 which penalty is proper. And if you follow the instructions
15 as the Court has given them to you, it will explain to you
16 what you must find in that phase before the Defendant can be 17 sentenced.

18 Now I think we had two jurors that said they would 19 automatically consider the death penalty. Which two were 20 those? (Jurors number 40 and 31 raised their hands.)

21 All right, number 31.

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: May we approach, Judge?

23 BY THE COURT: Yes.

24 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
25 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, I have got two things
27 I wanted to raise at this time. I believe that the 28 most effective way to attempt a rehabilitation
29 would--

1           BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, if this is an
2           objection, he needs to state it. I'm in the middle
3           of voir dire.

4           BY THE COURT: He is stating it right now.
5           Let him state it.

6           BY MR. LUMUMBA: My objection goes to 7           continuing to ask questions on the voir dire at 8           this point to jurors who have taken a position
9           other than in individual voir dire. I think that 10          they needed to be addressed individually. So we 11          don't want their position to prejudice anybody
12          else, and we wanted to be able to get inside of 13          their heads. And I think that the law requires 14          that we do be able to rehabilitate, and there are 15          several people we need to rehabilitate. So that is 16          the first issue I would like to raise.

17          BY MR. EVANS: In response to that, the State
18          Supreme Court has clearly said that it is never the 19          law that individual voir dire is necessary in the 20          State of Mississippi. We have gone into this; all
21          I'm attempting to do is to attempt to rehabilitate
22          these two jurors.

23          BY THE COURT: Well, yeah, but he has got nine
24          that he is going to try to rehabilitate.

25          BY MR. EVANS: If he wants to, he has got that 26          choice.

27          BY THE COURT: Well, I know. I expect him
28          to. Eleven is not too many, and I'm going to do
29          individual on those eleven. I will do individual

5                   BY THE COURT: Yes, ma'am. Number 8, excuse

12                   (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
13           THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

14                  BY THE COURT: Are you about through?

15                  BY MR. EVANS: It would probably be better to 16           go ahead and break and let her go if you want to 17           let her go.

18                  BY MR. HORAN: We could do the individual and 19           start back up after she gets back.

20                  BY THE COURT: Yeah. Would that, how does 21           that suit y'all to do the individual while we take 22           the break?

23                  BY MR. EVANS: Will be fine with me.

24                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: The only problem I have with 25           that, Judge, we may find out once like, for 26           instance, I'm going to ask questions, and we may 27           find out there needs to be some other individual.
28           And I kind of hate to break at this point when 29           nobody has spoken except the DA. I mean I hate

1 to-- that is my concern. And the main concern is
2 that we don't know whether there is other
3 individuals that we are going to need--

4 BY MR. EVANS: I thought the Court said we
5 couldn't go any more into the death penalty.

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: He didn't say we couldn't go
7 anywhere; he said we couldn't try to rehabilitate--

8 BY MR. EVANS: --I need to know because I may 9 have a lot of other questions on just the death
10 penalty.

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: He said we can't try to 12 rehabilitate people.

13 BY THE COURT: That's what I said.

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, yeah.

15 BY MR. EVANS: Okay.

16 BY MR. HORAN: Are you going to break and do
17 these eleven?

18 BY THE COURT: Well, we need to keep as many 19 jurors as we can. So why don't we break until 20 3:30?

21 BY MR. EVANS: Will be fine with me. She said
22 it would take her about 20 or 30 minutes.

23 BY MR. HORAN: You don't want to do the 24 individual? Just guessing on whether or not there
25 is going to be any more. We know there is going to 26 be the eleven.

27 BY THE COURT: Why don't, why can't we do the 28 individual of the ones we know, and then we will do
29 individual if you produce any more. Would that be

1 all right?

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: All right, we are going to do
3 that.

4 BY THE COURT: Okay, all right.

5 END BENCH CONFERENCE.

6 BY THE COURT: Ms. Turner. Okay. We are
7 going to do-- I'm going to try to accommodate Ms.
8 Turner. We are going to do a little bit
9 different. We are going to still be doing some 10 stuff, but we are going to give most of y'all a 11 break for about 30 minutes. Ms. Turner, you think 12 you will be back by 3:30?

13 BY JUROR 8, MS. PATRICIA TURNER: Yes.

14 BY THE COURT: Okay. We will start back with 15 everybody in here at 3:30. There are certain of 16 you that we will need to have in here individually
17 while the rest of you are on break, or while all of 18 y'all are on break, we are going to have some of 19 you in here. We have some questions for some of 20 you in relation to some of this. So we will be 21 working during that period of time, but I'm going
22 to give you a break until 3:30.

23 If y'all will, before you go to the rest room
24 or wherever, when you get out in the hall, if you
25 will just stand there a minute, the bailiff will 26 come tell you the ones that need to be available
27 for us.

28 (The Court gave a list of numbers to the 29 Bailiff. THE JURY LEFT THE COURTROOM.)

1                   BY THE COURT: Gentlemen, y'all want to come
2 up here and compare notes with me just a second;
3 make sure I have got everybody.

4                   BY MR. HORAN: Judge, I didn't know if you
5 wanted to just name the ones that we were going to 6 need and let the rest of the jurors go because they 7 can stay out there until you get through if you are 8 going to do them one at a time.

9                   BY THE COURT: That's what I said. I have 10 already told the bailiff that. Okay, here is the 11 ones I have. I have number 2; I have number 4; I
12 have number 5. Number 15, Mr. Overstreet is 13 undecided, so I'm counting him. Number 18, number
14 23, number 31, number 40, number 43, number 49,
15 number 56, number 61, and number 72.

16                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: 72?

17                   BY THE COURT: Uh-hum.

18                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: You said 71; right?

19                   BY THE COURT: No, I did not say 71. I said
20 72.

21                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: I must have wrote down--

22                   BY MR. EVANS: --I have got 71.

23                   BY MR. HORAN: It's 71.

24                   BY THE COURT: Was it 71? Then I wrote it
25 down wrong. Okay.

26                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, I don't think I wrote
27 72 down.

28                   BY THE COURT: Okay.

29                   BY MR. HORAN: You said 31 and 40, didn't

1                   you?

2                   BY THE COURT: 31, I said and 40.

3                   BY MR. HORAN: 56 and 61.

4                   BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, and I don't want to 5 waste time, but you may want to consider sticking
6 28 on there while we are doing them anyway. It
7 just, it doesn't matter. It is fine.

8                   BY THE COURT: He means Mr. Crockett who said
9 that if-- he said he could do it.

10                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, right. I think he said
11 he did.

12                  BY THE COURT: Let's take Ms. Green.

13                  (JUROR NUMBER 2, MS. EVA M. GREEN was brought 14 into the courtroom for individual voir dire.)

15                  BY THE COURT: Ms. Green, if you would come 16 around and take a seat up here, please, ma'am. The 17 lawyers have a couple of questions for you.

18                  (NOTE: THE REST OF THE JURY PANEL WAS NOT 19 PRESENT EXCEPT THE JUROR BEING QUESTIONED ON ANY OF 20 THIS INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE.)

21 INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE BY MR. EVANS: (Juror 2, Ms. Green).

22                  Q. Hi, Ms. Green. How are you doing?

23                  A. Fine. You?

24                  Q. Doing fine. We've just got a couple of questions
25 we need to ask just to try to follow up on some questions
26 that the Judge had asked you. This is just on the part about 27 the death penalty. It doesn't have anything to do with any 28 of the other questions. On the death penalty issue, you 29 understand the law as the Judge has given you, that you would

1 have to be able to consider the death penalty as a possible
2 penalty in this type case?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And if I understood right, what you are telling the 5 Court and you are telling the lawyers here is that you do not
6 believe in the death penalty. Is that correct?

7 A. That's true.

8 Q. And in this case or any other case, regardless of 9 what the facts were, you could not consider the death penalty
10 as a possible punishment. Is that correct?

11 A. Yeah, I couldn't live with it.

12 Q. And you could not give the death penalty or even 13 consider the death penalty as a possible punishment in any 14 case; is that right?

15 A. True.

16 BY MR. EVANS: Nothing further, Your Honor.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: May I proceed?

18 BY THE COURT: Uh-hum.

19 INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE BY MR. LUMUMBA: (Juror 2, Ms. Green).

20 Q. Good afternoon, Ms. Green.

21 A. Good evening.

22 Q. Good evening. Good evening to you. My name is 23 Chokwe Lumumba, and I am, of course, representing Mr. Curtis
24 Flowers along with my partner, Harvey Freelon, and we are 25 being aided in this trial by Mr. Ervin Bradley. And so I
26 would like to just ask you a few questions. Okay?

27 A. Yes, sir.

28 Q. And my questions are geared more or less to explore
29 and see if you, you know, that you thoroughly understand what

1 we are asking and are responding to it in that way. Now
2 first of all, the Judge said something that is very
3 important, okay. And a lot of times when we talk about the 4 death penalty, people just, that's all they think about.

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And they lose focus of the fact that this man, as 7 he sits here, is not guilty. All right, he is presumed 8 innocent. Do you understand what I'm saying?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And you're willing to follow that instruction as 11 far as the Judge is concerned; right? When the Judge gave 12 you that instruction that he was presumed innocent, you still 13 follow that instruction; right?

14 A. I understand just what he said.

15 Q. Okay, and I appreciate that.

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. So what that means, of course, and our view is he 18 has pled not guilty, and our view is there will never come a 19 time, at least that's what we submit--

20 A. Right.

21 Q. That there will never come a time when the death
22 penalty will be an issue because he will never be found
23 guilty. That's our--

24 BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, I object. That
25 is not proper for what we are back here on.

26 BY THE COURT: I'm going allow a full voir
27 dire on this now.

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

29 Q. Okay, so that is the Defense's view, right. And we

1 will, and so that there will never be a time to even consider
2 this. Do you understand what I'm saying?

3 A. But suppose it does.

4 Q. And that's what I'm going to get to. Okay?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. But that's our view, okay. Secondly, you
7 understand that there is different people with different
8 views about the death penalty. Some believe in it, and some 9 don't; right?

10 A. Right.

11 Q. Okay, and we are all in one society; right?

12 A. Right.

13 Q. And the law, as I understand it, and the Judge can,
14 of course, correct me if I am wrong; it attempts a balancing
15 act. It attempts to balance those views. Do you understand
16 what I'm saying?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. To some degree. What it says now in this 19 particular society, there is-- and in any case, since we 20 don't believe that there is going to be any reason to 21 consider it here, what I am really asking you is kind of like
22 I'm just asking you what you can do in any case. Do you
23 understand what I'm saying?

24 A. Uh-hum.

25 Q. I'm not asking you necessarily about this man. I'm 26 just asking you about any case.

27 A. Any man, anybody.

28 Q. Okay. So now what I'm asking you is this here.

29 Because of the views, or there is views of people who believe

1 in it and views of people who don't believe in it. The law
2 does not preclude people who don't believe in it from sitting
3 on juries. Do you understand what I'm saying?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. They don't preclude them from sitting on juries
6 where there is capital murders; right.

7 A. But I would be just wasting your time just like you
8 said.

9 Q. Okay, but that's what I want to ask you. And if 10 you would, then I would like to know. But let me, because 11 see if everybody who didn't believe in it couldn't sit on a 12 jury, then we would only have one point of view there; isn't
13 that right?

14 A. I understand, yes.

15 Q. Now this is what the law says. First of all, the 16 law and concern for our belief in life says first of all, you
17 have to find a person guilty before you even think about a
18 death penalty.

19 A. That is true. I understand.

20 Q. Okay. Secondly, the Judge was telling you in a 21 short way that once you get in the death penalty phase, if 22 you ever get there, there is different hurdles you have got 23 to jump. Do you understand what I'm saying? You can't-- and 24 first of all, you can't just automatically-- well, he will 25 give you instructions on the law is that there are certain 26 things that the prosecution has got to show even after the 27 man has been found guilty. They have got to show certain
28 things before you can even consider the death penalty. Do
29 you understand what I'm saying?

1           A.     (Ms. Brown nods her head.)

2           Q.     If they don't show those things, and I think the 3 Judge will call them aggravating factors, but you know, he
4 will have to explain them to you, you know; things, reasons
5 why maybe the death penalty should be appropriate. Do you
6 understand that I'm saying?

7           A.     I understand.

8           Q.     They have got to show those. If they don't show
9 those, then you still can't even consider the death penalty.
10 Do you understand what I'm saying? Under the law. Okay, if 11 they do show those, then we have an opportunity, if we want
12 to, we don't have to do anything. But we have an opportunity
13 if we want to, to show what they call mitigating 14 circumstances, reasons why the death penalty should not be 15 imposed. Do you understand what I'm saying?

16          A.     I understand. I do.

17          Q.     Okay. If the aggravating circumstances don't 18 outweigh, if they are not greater than the mitigating
19 circumstances, then you still can't consider the death
20 penalty. Do you understand what I'm saying?

21          A.     Yeah, I understand.

22          Q.     So this is the law trying to deal with these 23 different beliefs, bring them together into a community, and 24 giving everybody a chance to chip in. Do you see what I'm
25 saying?

26          A.     Yes.

27          Q.     Okay. Now if they can jump that hurdle, then I
28 believe, then you are in a position where you can consider
29 the death penalty. Do you understand what I'm saying?

1           A.    I understand.

2           Q.    Okay. And only one person can decide that the
3 death penalty is warranted in a case where you sit as a
4 jury. Okay, if you are in a case where you sit as a juror,
5 there is only one person that can decide that the death
6 penalty should be given in this case. Do you understand what
7 I'm saying?

8           A.    (Juror Ms. Green nods her head.)

9           Q.    Under the law if you get to that point, then the 10 law says you have to be able to consider the options. One is 11 death; one is life. But only one person can decide that it
12 has to be death, that the circumstances warrant death. The 13 Judge will never instruct you, nor nobody else can instruct 14 you that you have to give a death penalty. Do you understand
15 what I'm saying?

16                   BY THE COURT: And you're right except that 17 she-- it must be after consulting, consultation
18 with her fellow jurors.

19                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Right. Right. Right.

20           Q.    Do you understand what I'm saying?

21           A.    I understand.

22           Q.    Okay, so the question is, is that the juror
23 themselves must decide after consultation - that's what the 24 Judge was saying - the jurors themselves must after 25 consultation with their other people that they are going to 26 have on the jury, that juror has to make an individual
27 decision that the death penalty is warranted. Do you
28 understand what I'm saying?

29           A.    Yeah, I do.

1           Q.    Okay.  So and Ms. Green, what I'm asking you, you
2 know, understanding that that is the process, and you know,
3 that is the process we have, you know, I am asking you that
4 if you understand that the law is trying to protect people,
5 just like I am sure you are trying to protect people from 6 loss of life, you know, and all of us do; right?  That can 7 you under that circumstance follow the instructions that the 8 Judge gives you and consider the options if you ever jump
9 those hurdles and come to that where he says you can consider
10 this?  Do you understand what I'm saying?

11           A.    I don't want to.

12           Q.    Well, okay, I know you don't want to, and I
13 understand that.  But I guess the reason that we ask jurors
14 to come out is because we need people who will make some 15 sacrifices, you know, if under the circumstances or else
16 people won't have the benefit of a community of jurors.  Do
17 you understand what I'm saying?

18           A.    I understand.

19           Q.    They will be denied certain jurors; right?  And I'm 20 not trying to tell you to change your religious beliefs.  I'm 21 not trying to tell you to change any beliefs.  The only 22 question I'm asking-- and could you hold on one second?  Just 23 one second.

24                       (Pause while Mr. Lumumba gets a document.)

25           Q.    Okay, you didn't get a chance to finish filling out
26 your whole questionnaire; is that right?

27           A.    No.

28           Q.    Okay, but the only thing that I am just asking you,
29 can you follow the law?  Can you, if the Judge gets to-- if

1 the Judge gives you the instructions and you have got to, of 2 course, follow-- there has to be a trial. In any case you
3 are involved in there has to be a guilty finding. Then you
4 have got to talk about those hurdles. Do you understand what
5 I'm saying?

6 A. Uh-hum.

7 Q. If you get to a point where the Judge says you can 8 consider it, can you consider both life and death? That is 9 the first question.

10 A. And that's what I said. No.

11 Q. Okay. Thank you, Ms. Brown.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have no further questions.

13 BY THE COURT: Ms. Green, you can go out, Ms.
14 Green. And I would ask you, don't discuss what we 15 have discussed in here out there. Okay?

16 BY JUROR MS. GREEN: Okay.

17 BY THE COURT: Thank you, ma'am. Okay. Now
18 let me ask you-- well, just a second.

19 (Pause while Ms. Green leaves the courtroom.)

20 BY MR. EVANS: Are you going to go ahead and 21 do the cause ones on the ones we are doing
22 individual on and take them out of the panel or?

23 BY THE COURT: Yeah. I'm going to go through
24 them all, and then we will do it. Number 4, Ms.
25 Necaise. Wait just a minute, Ron. Number 4, Ms.
26 Necaise, in addition to saying that she would 27 oppose the death penalty, she said on religious or 28 philosophical grounds she could not decide this 29 case one way or another, and she couldn't make a

1 decision. Is there any necessity in individualizing
2 her?

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: This is number 4?

4 BY THE COURT: Four.

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Diane Necaise. Yes, Judge.
6 I would like to.

7 BY THE COURT: Okay. Number 4, Ms. Necaise.

8 (JUROR NUMBER 4, MS. DIANE NECAISE enters the
9 courtroom.)

10 BY THE COURT: Ms. Necaise, if you would have 11 a seat up here, please.

12 BY JUROR MS. NECAISE: Oh, right there?

13 BY THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.

14 INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE BY MR. EVANS: (Of Ms. Diane Necaise).

15 Q. How are you doing, Ms. Necaise?

16 A. Doing fine.

17 Q. What the Judge is doing now, he is doing some 18 individual voir dire on some jurors that answered certain 19 questions on the death penalty, and that's why you are in 20 here.

21 A. Yes, sir.

22 Q. It's not that you are being singled out or
23 anything.

24 A. Oh, I didn't think so.

25 Q. But as far as the death penalty, let me make sure
26 that I understand what you are saying. First, you understand
27 that the law in this case is that there would be a two phase
28 trial on the death penalty. The first phase would strictly 29 be guilt or innocence, and in the second phase you would be

1 asked to consider two different penalties. One of those
2 would be the death penalty.

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, I have a slight
4 objection. There is no law that there will be two 5 phases. There is a law that there could be.

6 BY THE COURT: Okay. Well, there could be.
7 There won't be any death penalty consideration at 8 all if the jury finds him not guilty. You
9 understand that, Ms. Necaise?

10 BY JUROR MS. NECAISE: Uh-hum.

11 BY MR. EVANS: I hope she does.

12 BY MR. EVANS:

13 Q. When we go through the first phase, if the jury
14 finds him guilty, we automatically go into a second phase.
15 In that phase, you will be asked to consider a couple of 16 different penalties. One of those penalties will be the 17 death penalty. The death penalty in this particular type of 18 case because of the crime is a penalty the jury can be asked
19 to consider. But before it can get to that point, the Judge
20 has to advise the jury of what law applies in the case, and 21 the jury looks at the evidence and makes a decision of what 22 penalty is proper because of the facts in the case and 23 because of the law that the Judge gives. What I understand
24 that you have said is because of your beliefs, you cannot 25 consider the death penalty as a possible penalty even because 26 of your beliefs. Is that correct?

27 A. Yes, sir.

28 Q. And this case or any other case, you could not
29 consider, even consider the death penalty as a possible

1 penalty because of those beliefs; is that right?

2 A. I just don't think I could.

3 Q. All right.

4 A. And as you were saying while ago, you wouldn't want
5 to go through the whole process and then have somebody that 6 just couldn't, couldn't do it.

7 Q. Right, and if we get to that point, the Judge will 8 tell you in the instructions whether or not you can consider 9 the death penalty. But basically, what you are telling the 10 Court is that regardless of what law the Judge gave you, you
11 could not consider the death penalty as a possible
12 punishment?

13 A. That is true.

14 Q. Okay, and also I believe you also stated that you 15 had personal or religious beliefs that would keep you from 16 even judging someone else regardless of the penalty; is that
17 right?

18 A. Yes, sir. I did say that.

19 BY MR. EVANS: Thank you.

20 INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE BY MR. LUMUMBA: (Ms. Diane Necaise).

21 Q. Good afternoon.

22 A. Hi.

23 Q. How are you doing? And I'm going to ask a few
24 questions, and I'm going to try to make them short.

25 A. Okay.

26 Q. Is it Necaise?

27 A. Yes, sir.

28 Q. And Ms. Necaise, my name is Lumumba, and probably 29 as many people mispronounce my name as mispronounce your

1 name; right?

2 A. That happens, yeah.

3 Q. Okay, but let me say this. This is where we are at 4 here. I just read your questionnaire, and I noticed in the 5 questionnaire on question number 38 that they were asking you
6 about your opinion on the death penalty, and you said no
7 opinion; right? And at the time that you filled out the 8 questionnaire, you also said that "To have an opinion on the 9 death penalty, I would have to know the circumstances of the 10 person on trial." Okay, that was what you expressed at the 11 time?

12 A. Uh-hum.

13 Q. Okay, boom. Here you are in trial. I mean here
14 you are at a voir dire. This heavy weight falls; right?
15 Boom. You know, death penalty, can you do it? Right? And 16 once that is asked to you in that way, then I see that you
17 have expressed an opinion which is slightly different than 18 the one here, and it's nothing wrong with that. I am not 19 criticizing that, but I'm going to ask a few other questions
20 to see because you are obviously thinking about this; is that
21 right?

22 A. (Juror Ms. Necaise nods her head.)

23 Q. This is something you have to say yes or no, or she 24 can't get it down.

25 A. Oh, I have to-- I'm sorry. I forget. Yes, I am
26 thinking about this.

27 Q. You are thinking, and really some of the thinking
28 has been going on since you have been in this courtroom;
29 right?

1           A.    True.   True.

2           Q.    So you know, just out of caution that the thinking
3 is not just a hasty response to the heavy weight of the 4 possibility of the death penalty, I am asking these questions
5 to see if the thought process has considered all the options.
6 Do you see what I'm saying?

7           A.    (No response.)

8           Q.    Do you understand my question or maybe not, huh?

9           A.    (No response.)

10          Q.    I'm just laying out the basis of my questions.
11 Okay?

12          A.    Well, when I did answer that, yes, it does, the 13 circumstances. But when I'm here and I'm really thinking
14 about it, it is just like no, I just can't do it.

15          Q.    Okay, well, let me tell you this. Let me ask you 16 this. You understand, of course, that you haven't heard any 17 circumstances yet?

18          A.    True.   True.

19          Q.    Okay, you understand, of course, that this is a man
20 who has pled not guilty to this crime?

21          A.    Yes, I do.

22          Q.    And you understand that it is our position as a
23 defense that you will never get there in this case because 24 there will never be a conviction?

25          A.    I understand that, yeah.

26          Q.    Okay. But setting that aside, let's assume where 27 in any case where the death penalty is a question - do you
28 understand what I'm saying? - and that's where we really are 29 when we ask these questions because the Judge has told you to

1 presume the man innocent; right?

2 A. Uh-hum.

3 Q. So what he is really asking you when he asks you
4 about death penalty questions is what can you really do in 5 any death penalty case; right?

6 A. (No audible response.)

7 Q. So understanding that Ms. Necaise, the law has in 8 it certain rules, and what the Judge is really asking is can 9 you follow the rules. Do you understand what I'm saying?
10 And he has got to ask these questions because it is important
11 that jurors do follow the rules, okay. And if you could, it
12 would be true that you would give Mr.-- you would give any 13 defendant a presumption of innocence. Is that correct?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Okay. And the law is saying that you can't even 16 think about a death penalty until the first part of the trial
17 is over. Do you understand what I'm saying?

18 A. Uh-hum.

19 Q. And you would be willing to follow that; right?
20 Not to even think about it until the first part of the trial
21 is over?

22 A. Well, I think you are going to think about it,
23 aren't you?

24 Q. Well, I know that is human nature, and I think that 25 is an honest response. It's human nature that it's in the 26 back of your mind; right?

27 A. Uh-hum.

28 Q. But I guess what the law is asking you is that even 29 though you have to be asked these questions at this time, can

1 you lay it aside when you hear the evidence because we don't
2 want the question of a death penalty prejudicing a man's 3 right because anybody has a right to be found not guilty if 4 they are not guilty; right?

5 A. True.

6 Q. Okay. And if the evidence doesn't prove them
7 guilty; is that right? Would that be true?

8 A. True.

9 Q. Okay, so what I'm saying would you be willing to,
10 if you were to sit on a jury, to lay aside a question of a
11 death penalty, I think as the law asks you to do, long enough
12 to concentrate on the evidence to see if there is guilt or 13 innocence, you know, to keep your mind clear on that 14 question? Would you be willing to do that?

15 A. The way I understand it though is that it is going 16 to come around sooner or later if--

17 Q. It doesn't come around sooner or later
18 necessarily. It only-- in fact, the presumption of innocence
19 is with the man now. So the presumption is it will never 20 come. Do you understand what I'm saying?

21 A. Well, I understand that.

22 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I object. That is 23 not correct.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: That is absolutely--

25 BY MR. EVANS: --There is a presumption of 26 innocence at this point, and that is all. We have 27 not gotten to the death penalty. There is no
28 presumption there.

29 BY THE COURT: Here is where we have got to

1           get back with Ms. Necaise. Now with the others it
2           may be different. Ms. Necaise has said she can't,
3           has a philosophy that keeps her from making the 4           first decision, so you never get to the second
5           decision.

6           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

7           BY THE COURT: So you are going to have to get 8           her past that first one before we can talk about 9           the second one.

10          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

12          Q. Ms. Necaise.

13          A. Uh-huh.

14          Q. Are you able to -- let's forget about the death
15 penalty - that's what the Judge is saying - right now. Are 16 you able to sit in the trial or any trial and -- did you tell
17 me you served on a jury before?

18          A. No.

19          Q. Okay, never have?

20          A. No.

21          Q. Okay. Would you be willing and would you be able 22 to sit in a trial and make a judgment on whether the 23 evidence, the prosecution has proven its case as to whether 24 there is innocence or guilt in a particular case? Would you
25 be willing to do that?

26          A. I could do that.

27          Q. Okay, okay.

28          A. I just can't, I just don't want to take--

29          Q. --Okay, that is the question. That is the first--

1                   BY THE COURT: Let her finish her answer so I
2                   can hear all of it.

3                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Go ahead; I'm sorry.

4                   BY THE COURT: What was the rest of your
5                   answer?

6                   A. Well, I could do the first part of it, but when you
7                   are-- if there was a second part to it, that is the part that 8                   I am having trouble with. Just sitting here listening to 9                   everyone and then I am thinking, I just don't think.

10                  Q. Right. And you are, and that is true. You are 11                  sitting here and listening, but you really haven't heard from 12                  everyone. This is the first time I have asked you any 13                  questions; right?

14                  A. Well, true.

15                  Q. All right, so you haven't heard from everyone. You 16                  have heard-- and so each one of us asks the question with a
17                  little bit different perspective. Do you understand what I'm 18                  saying?

19                  A. Uh-hum.

20                  Q. So but anyway, what I'm saying is this, or what I'm 21                  asking you is this. Understanding that it's the second part 22                  that you are having trouble with; right?

23                  A. (Juror Ms. Necaise nods her head.)

24                  Q. And understanding also that when you wrote your 25                  questionnaire, you said that your opinion or your belief was 26                  at that time that you really didn't have a position on the 27                  death penalty other than it would depend on the 28                  circumstances. Isn't that true?

29                  A. And-- that is true.

1 Q. Okay, well--

2 A. But being here and being confronted with it, that
3 is when I'm saying that I would really have very difficult
4 time saying that somebody deserved the death penalty.

5 Q. All right. Even if you understood that the law was 6 telling you that first of all, you don't have to consider a
7 death penalty even if a person is found guilty. You cannot 8 consider the death penalty unless the prosecution first
9 proves to you circumstance which warrant it. In other words,
10 they would have to prove to you that under the law that there
11 were aggravated circumstances which warranted the death
12 penalty before you could begin to think about it. Do you
13 understand that?

14 A. I understand that.

15 Q. Okay, secondly, even if they did that, you still 16 couldn't consider if the Defense was able to show you
17 mitigating factors which outweighed the aggravating factors.
18 Do you understand what I'm saying?

19 A. (Juror Ms. Necaise nods her head.)

20 Q. So those are at least two hurdles the prosecution
21 has still got to jump; right?

22 A. Uh-hum.

23 Q. Really three because first of all, you have got to 24 prove somebody guilty, and then once they get in the death
25 penalty phase, they have got to prove aggravating
26 circumstances, and then they have got to prove that the 27 aggravating circumstances outweigh the mitigating factors;
28 right?

29 BY MR. EVANS: No, sir. That is not the law.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: That is the law.

2 BY MR. EVANS: No, sir. The law is that the 3 defense puts on mitigating, and the law is if the 4 jury finds there are aggravators, that unless they 5 find that the mitigating factors outweigh the 6 aggravating factors, they can impose the death
7 penalty.

8 BY THE COURT: That is correct. That's what
9 the law is.

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

12 Q. Basically, what the law is going to tell you is 13 that, according to what the Judge just indicated, is that the 14 mitigating, if the mitigating factors outweigh the 15 aggravating factors, then you still can't consider the death
16 penalty. Do you understand what I'm saying?

17 A. (No response.)

18 Q. Okay, you can't even consider it. No one ever
19 tells you as a juror or the group of jurors, say they jump
20 all these hurdles. No one is still going to tell you that at 21 this point you have got to give a death penalty. Do you
22 understand what I'm saying? The final decision is always 23 left to the jurors, and it is left to each individual juror
24 as they consult with the other jurors. Do you understand
25 what I'm saying?

26 A. Yes.

27 BY THE COURT: Answer out.

28 A. Yes.

29 Q. Okay, yeah. And so if they jump three hurdles, all

1 those hurdles we just talked about, then they are in a
2 situation where that the law will say, you should-- at that
3 point you are free to consider the options. Okay, and the 4 options are two. There is life, and then there is death.
5 All right, okay, as far as the death penalty is concerned,
6 and the question becomes then at that time can you, because 7 you are the only one that can decide that the case warrants a
8 death penalty; right?

9 A. (No audible response.)

10 Q. Okay. Can you consider the options? That's what 11 it says, if they ever even get to that point?

12 A. I thought that is what I was saying, that I didn't 13 want to consider the death penalty. Is that what you're 14 asking me?

15 Q. Yeah, I am asking you, yeah, but you were saying
16 it, but did you know that they had to prove aggravating
17 circumstances? Did you know that?

18 A. I'm sorry?

19 Q. Did you know that they had to prove aggravating
20 circumstances? Did you know that before we had this 21 discussion here?

22 A. I'm not sure if I am following--

23 Q. I said did you know that once we got in the death
24 penalty phase, if it ever happened in any case, that the 25 prosecution still has to prove things in that phase? Were 26 you aware of that?

27 A. Well, I know they would have to prove whether he 28 is, whether he is guilty or not.

29 Q. Right, but that is not all they have got to prove

1 in order to get the death penalty. Do you understand that?

2 A. Well, all I'm saying is, is that I'm having a hard
3 time wanting to give anybody the death penalty.

4 Q. Okay, well, you are not required to want to give
5 anybody the death penalty.

6 A. Well, I am just-- the question was asked did I have
7 a hard time with the death penalty, and I do.

8 Q. Okay, you have a hard time with it. The question
9 becomes--

10 A. --and no, I can't give it to him. I can't give 11 it. I just can't do it.

12 Q. And even though your opinion at the time was it
13 depended upon the circumstances?

14 A. That is true. It is. I did say that, but once I
15 am here, I just feel that I can't give someone the death
16 penalty.

17 Q. Okay. Thank you.

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have no further questions.

19 BY THE COURT: Okay. Thank you, Ms. Necaie.
20 You can step back out. Number 5, Ms. Yarbrough.

21 (JUROR NUMBER 5, MS. LINDA YARBROUGH, enters
22 the courtroom.)

23 BY THE COURT: Right there; yes, ma'am. Ms.
24 Yarbrough, you know I have asked you some questions
25 concerning the death penalty. Both of these 26 attorneys are going to want to ask you some also.

27 INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE BY MR. EVANS: (Ms. Linda Yarbrough).

28 Q. Hi, Ms. Yarbrough, how are you doing?

29 A. Okay. A little nervous, but all right.

1           Q.   Well, don't be nervous because all we are going to 2 do is just ask you a few questions.

3           A.   Okay.

4           Q.   All this is is just a little follow up on what we
5 had asked earlier, and some of the stuff the Judge didn't 6 want us to ask it in front of the other jurors, things that,
7 you know, don't want to influence any other jurors by 8 different comments that might come out. Now this part, what 9 we are going to ask you about is just on the death penalty.

10          A.   All right.

11          Q.   Now you understand that in a capital murder case it
12 is a two phase trial. The first part will just be deciding 13 guilt or innocence of the Defendant. If the jury finds the 14 Defendant guilty, then we go into what is called the second
15 phase where the jury considers what penalty is appropriate.
16 That would be either a life sentence or the death penalty.
17 Do you understand that part?

18          A.   Okay.

19          Q.   Once we get to that part, we are going to put on 20 evidence to show you what the penalty should be. It's our 21 opinion in this case that the facts are there to justify a
22 guilty verdict, and we will go into the second phase. Once 23 we get to that second phase and we put on our proof, the 24 Judge is going to read you what is called instructions of 25 law. Those instructions tell you step by step what the jury
26 has to do. The first phase of those instructions say that we 27 have to prove to you certify elements. In those elements one
28 is the jury must find that the Defendant killed, intended to 29 kill, or certain factors like that.

1           That step has to be done first. If the jury finds
2           that that step has been met, then we go on into the second
3           step of the instructions. The jury would do this in 4           deliberations. In that second step of instructions the next 5           thing that the jury must determine are what is called the 6           aggravating factors, and basically all that means is the bad
7           things. There are certain factors that will be listed in the 8           instruction, and the Judge is going to ask y'all when you go 9           back in and deliberate, will you look and see if you find 10          that these are there.

11           If the jury determines that the aggravating factors
12          are present, then it goes on to the next phase of 13          instructions. And the next phase of instructions the Judge
14          will read you a group of what is called mitigating factors.
15          That is certain good things that you may possibly find in 16          favor of the Defendant. If the jury finds that any of those 17          mitigating factors are there, the Judge in the instructions
18          will tell the jury that if you find the aggravating factors
19          are present, the bad things, and that the mitigating or good 20          things don't outweigh the aggravating factors, then the jury
21          can consider the death penalty.

22           At that point the jury would have to decide still 23          is the death penalty appropriate or life. And what we are 24          asking you, and I'm trying to go through all this to get to a
25          simple question. What I understand your answer was earlier, 26          it was because of your beliefs that you could not consider 27          the death penalty as a possible punishment on any case. Is 28          that correct?

29          A. Not on any case, no. I guess after hearing or

1     seeing the evidence, I could honestly, I would still have in
2     me thinking that I am responsible for somebody else's life,
3     and that is going to be hard on me to deal with later on.

4           Q.     And that point you will be. And that is why it is 5     so important that we know whether or not you can consider
6     that as a possible penalty because that is what the Court
7     needs to know. When you go back in there at that level, can 8     you consider the death penalty as one of the two options that 9     you might give?

10          A.     One of the two.

11          Q.     One of the two. Or are you telling the Court that 12     I can't even consider that as a possible penalty?

13          A.     I could consider it one of the two.

14          Q.     Okay.

15          A.     I couldn't go back and just say death penalty, no.

16          Q.     All right. Could you consider the death penalty?
17     Are you telling us that under the right set of facts, in this 18     case if we proved our case to you that this Defendant was 19     guilty and we showed you the facts of this case and the Judge
20     told you that in this particular case the death penalty was 21     an appropriate penalty, are you telling me that you--

22                 BY THE COURT:   --Now wait a minute-- is a
23                 possible penalty. I'm not going to tell her it's 24                 an appropriate penalty one way or another.

25                 BY MR. EVANS:   Okay.

26          Q.     If the Court tells you that this is a possible
27     penalty in this case, are you telling us that you could go
28     back there and consider whether or not he should get the 29     death penalty for this crime? Or are you telling us that you

1 would completely rule out the death penalty and just
2 automatically go to some other penalty?

3 A. (No response.)

4 Q. I know it's a tough question.

5 A. It is very tough. (Pause) I would go to some other
6 penalty.

7 Q. So you would not even consider the death penalty?

8 A. No, I'm not saying I-- you are trying to confuse
9 me.

10 Q. No, ma'am; I am not. All of this is kind of 11 confusing on all of us, but we are trying to get down to some 12 definite answers. Basically what I'm asking you, is your 13 belief of the death penalty such that if you were picked, and 14 you were back there on the second phase where the death
15 penalty was being considered, that you would not even 16 consider the death penalty? You would just automatically--

17 A. --No, sir--

18 Q. --go with a life sentence?

19 A. No, sir.

20 Q. Then you are telling us you could consider the
21 death penalty--

22 A. --I could consider it, yes.

23 Q. And if the facts justified it and the law in this
24 case authorized it, you could give the death penalty if you
25 felt it was appropriate?

26 A. I could consider it, yes.

27 BY MR. EVANS: Okay, thank you.

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I just have a couple of real
29 short questions.

1 INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE BY MR. LUMUMBA: (Ms. Linda Yarbrough.)

2 Q. I just want to a quick-- Ms., uh.

3 A. Yarbrough.

4 Q. Yarbrough, I'm sorry.

5 A. That's okay.

6 Q. The only thing I wanted to say is this, just remind
7 you of this. You understand that even though we are doing
8 all this talking about the death penalty, there is nobody
9 been found guilty here? You understand that--

10 A. Right.

11 Q. Okay, and sometimes people might lose a little 12 focus, and, you know, the Judge is doing what is necessary
13 under the law in terms of asking these questions, and you
14 know, all of this. But the focus is on whether or not the 15 prosecution can prove its case even to get there. Do you
16 understand what I'm saying?

17 A. Yes, sir.

18 Q. There is no assumption here that anybody is ever
19 going to get to that in this case. Do you understand what 20 I'm saying?

21 A. Yes, sir.

22 Q. Okay, and you have already spoken your mind as it
23 relates to what you could do. Is that correct?

24 A. Yes, sir.

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, I have no further
26 questions.

27 BY THE COURT: Okay, Ms. Yarbrough, thank
28 you. You can step out please, ma'am. Number 15.
29 (Ms. Linda Yarbrough left the courtroom, and

1 JUROR NUMBER 15, JAMES M. OVERSTREET entered the
2 courtroom.)

3 BY THE COURT: Mr. Overstreet, the lawyers
4 have some follow up questions they want to ask you
5 about the death penalty.

6 INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE BY MR. EVANS: (Mr. James Overstreet).

7 Q. How are you doing, Mr. Overstreet?

8 A. All right.

9 Q. This will just be a few questions. We will be 10 through. On your opinion of the death penalty, you had made
11 a comment while you were out with the panel that you had a 12 problem with it. I want to follow up just a little bit on 13 that. Of course, you understand that this is a capital
14 murder case?

15 A. (Juror Mr. Overstreet nods his head.)

16 Q. And in this case it is possible that at some point
17 the jury may have to consider the death penalty. But to get 18 to that point we have got to overcome several hurdles. The 19 first hurdle would be that there will be a-- the first phase
20 of the trial where the jury would decide strictly on the 21 guilt or innocence of the Defendant. We believe that at this 22 point the evidence is going to be there where the jury is 23 going to convict, and we are going to go into a second
24 phase.

25 Once we get into that second phase, there is a long
26 jury instructions that the Judge is going to give. That jury
27 instruction is going to tell the jury step by step what to 28 do. There are certain steps that must be done, certain 29 things that the jury must find to go forward. One is the

1 jury has got to determine that this Defendant killed or 2 intended to kill the victim that is involved in the case.

3 If the jury finds that that is there, then we will
4 go into the next part, and the jury determines at that point
5 whether or not certain aggravating factors are present. Now
6 the Court is going to instruct the jury what those 7 aggravating factors are, and the jury is going to determine
8 whether or not they are present in this case. If they are 9 present in this case, then the Judge is going to tell the 10 jury that there are certain mitigating factors that the jury
11 may consider.

12 Now those factors will be laid out in the 13 instructions, and the Court is going to tell the jury in the 14 instructions if the jury finds that the aggravating
15 circumstances are present, unless the mitigating
16 circumstances or the good things outweigh the aggravating
17 circumstances, that the jury can consider the death penalty
18 as a possible penalty.

19 To try to sum it up, basically the main question
20 that we need to know the answer to, if you are picked as a
21 juror in this case and if you are asked in the second phase
22 to consider the death penalty, will you be able to consider
23 the death penalty as a possible penalty?

24 A. Yes, I would.

25 Q. Okay. And you would be able to listen to the 26 evidence and base your decision of whether the death penalty
27 was appropriate based upon the facts of the case and the law
28 that the Judge gives you?

29 A. I think I understand what you are saying, yes.

1 BY MR. EVANS: Okay, thank you, sir.

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Very briefly, Judge.

3 INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE BY MR. LUMUMBA: (Juror Mr. James M.
4 Overstreet).

5 Q. Good afternoon, Mr. Overstreet.

6 A. Good afternoon.

7 Q. Mr. Overstreet, once again, I am Chokwe Lumumba,
8 and I am representing Mr. Flowers along with my partner, Mr.
9 Freelon. The only thing I have, understanding your responses
10 at this point, the only thing that I would like to say or to 11 ask you is this: Is that you understand that these questions
12 are only being asked because this is what is called a capital
13 murder case? Do you understand what I'm saying? That's what 14 the charges are.

15 A. (Juror Mr. Overstreet nods his head.)

16 Q. You have to say yes or no, or she won't be able to 17 get it down.

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Okay, and the only other thing is that you
20 understand that Mr. Flowers there is presumed to be 21 innocent. There is no, there is nothing about this 22 discussion which suggests in any way that there is any 23 guilt. Do you understand that?

24 A. Right. Yes.

25 Q. So the questions as they are being asked are really 26 projected to you as to any case, as a capital murder case as 27 opposed to any assumption that this case will ever get to 28 that point. Okay. Do you agree with that?

29 A. I understand. I understand that.

1           Q.    And the only reason I have asked all that is to say
2   are you still fully prepared after being hit with these 3   barrage of questions to sit and require the prosecution to 4   prove beyond a reasonable doubt that this man is guilty of 5   something?

6           A.    Yes.   Yes.

7           Q.    And you understand he has pled not guilty, and we 8   submit - I don't think it is proper for me to say we believe
9   - but we submit that that will never happen. Do you
10 understand that?

11          A.    Yes.

12          Q.    Okay, and so you are fully open minded as far as 13 the evidence?

14          A.    Right.   Yes.

15          Q.    Okay, that was my question.

16                   BY THE COURT: Let me make sure I understood
17 you, Mr. Overstreet. You said you would wait and 18 let them present the evidence, and after they 19 presented the evidence, that you would be able to 20 consider the death penalty based on the evidence
21 and the instructions on the law that I gave you.
22 Is that what you are telling me?

23                   BY JUROR MR. OVERSTREET: Yes, I would.

24                   BY THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Overstreet. You
25 may step outside.

26                   (Juror Mr. Overstreet left the courtroom.)

27                   BY THE COURT: Ms. Weiss, number 18.

28                   (JUROR RAYANNE M. WEISS, Number 18, entered
29 the courtroom.)

1                   BY THE COURT: Ms. Weiss, if you would come
2                   have a seat up here, please, ma'am. The lawyers
3                   are going to ask you some follow up questions
4                   concerning the death penalty.

5                   INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE BY MR. EVANS: (Juror Ms. Rayanne Weiss.)

6                   Q.    How are you doing, Ms. Weiss?

7                   A.    Fine. Thank you.

8                   Q.    All right. I'm going to try to be brief and just 9                   ask you a few questions. The main thing that we are trying 10                  to get to is how you feel about the death penalty. And if I 11                  understand what you are saying earlier, you are really not 12                  sure; is that right?

13                  A.    Well, I believe in the death penalty, but I am 14                  unsure whether I personally with my conscience could vote to 15                  have someone put to death.

16                  Q.    Of course, you realize at this point you are one of 17                  the ones that is going to be in the possible jury seat, not 18                  someone outside looking at the case?

19                  A.    Right.

20                  Q.    So you would be the one that would have to decide 21                  whether you could consider it or not. Now what we are 22                  looking at, the death penalty will be a two phase trial. We 23                  submit that we are going to go through the first part of the 24                  trial. In that part the jury will determine guilt or 25                  innocence. If we prove our case beyond a reasonable doubt,
26                  then the jury should vote guilty in this case. If we don't,
27                  they should vote not guilty. But that gets us past the first 28                  part. Once we have proven our case beyond a reasonable doubt 29                  and we go on to the second phase, then the jury is going to

1 have instructions that the Judge gives them to consider, and 2 they are going to have facts that we put on in front of the
3 jury.

4 At that point you will be asked to consider what
5 penalty is appropriate, and basically what I need to know at 6 this point can you consider the death penalty?

7 A. I would listen, but it is like I said when the 8 Judge was talking, if I were pushed, I am really uncertain
9 because I think that it is wrong to kill. I understand and I
10 am glad that we have the death penalty, but I personally
11 think that the death penalty is also a form of killing too.
12 And so I know you don't want to hear that.

13 Q. Well, no, everybody has their--

14 A. --but I would listen and I really, you know, don't 15 know. I mean my tendency now would be to say no, I probably 16 wouldn't. But I don't know what the facts are, but I would 17 listen.

18 Q. What you are telling us is you do not believe
19 that--

20 A. --that I personally, it's a personal thing. It's 21 not -- I'm glad that it exists in society because I think we 22 need it.

23 Q. But because of your personal beliefs, you don't 24 think that it would be right to give somebody the death
25 penalty because you think that is just a form of killing?

26 A. Right.

27 Q. So we get back to the other question. If you're 28 back in there at that point, are your beliefs against the 29 death penalty such that you could not consider the death

1 theory and practice. Right; I understand that. I
2 understand. But I guess also the question becomes is that 3 it's not easy to do these things for anybody; isn't that
4 right?

5 A. That's correct.

6 Q. Okay, and I'm not going to belabor the question. I
7 guess the question just comes understanding it's not easy to 8 do so, understanding that I really believe that you believe,
9 like the Judge has said, in the presumption of innocence, and 10 you are going to abide by that; correct?

11 A. Yes, sir.

12 Q. Which means that you don't even have to get to the 13 consideration of that unless there is proof of guilt. Do you
14 understand what I'm saying?

15 A. That's correct.

16 Q. I understand that we submit that he is not guilty
17 and it's not going to happen. Do you understand?

18 A. Yes, sir. You are the defense.

19 Q. Pardon?

20 A. I said, yes, sir; you are the defense. I
21 understand that.

22 Q. Of course. That's our view. And you understand we 23 really as we stand here, don't have to really prove anything;
24 right?

25 A. Correct.

26 Q. Okay, but then understanding also that the law
27 shows a certain respect for life even in the death penalty
28 phase, in other words, the law requires, you know, some of 29 the things counsel -- you know, they have got to come in and

1 show some reason why it is legally sufficient that the death
2 penalty can even be considered; right?

3 A. Right.

4 Q. And then there is a possibility that the defense,
5 if it wants to, can come up with legally sufficient, come up
6 with reasons which the jury can determine outweigh the 7 reasons for the death penalty and come up with reasons that 8 the jury might say well, that is outweighed by this reasons
9 for life. Do you understand what I'm saying?

10 A. Yes, sir.

11 Q. And then even if you get beyond all that, it's just 12 a question of whether you can consider the death penalty.
13 And, you know, if you consider it, you have to be able to say
14 I can consider it, and if I find in my mind with my fellow
15 jurors discussing with them, if I come out and then make an 16 individual decision after I discuss it with them that the 17 death penalty should be imposed, I am able to do it. So the 18 question is just to you, I guess the same question we started
19 with. Can you do it?

20 A. And I am uncertain.

21 Q. You are still--

22 A. I would consider it, but I am uncertain about what 23 I would do.

24 Q. Okay, but in any event, if you did sit on this 25 jury, you would certainly abide by the presumption of 26 innocence. Is that correct?

27 A. Yes, sir.

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, thank you.

29 BY THE COURT: Thank you, Ms. Weiss. You may

1 step out.

2 (Juror Ms. Rayanne M. Weiss left the
3 courtroom.)

4 BY THE COURT: Number 23, Ms. McClelland.

5 (JUROR NUMBER 23, MS. LUCILLE W. MCCLELLAND
6 entered the courtroom.)

7 BY THE COURT: Ms. McClelland, if you will 8 have a seat up here, please.

9 (Both Counsel approached the bench.)

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I don't have a
11 questionnaire. I don't know whether there was one
12 produced or not. A questionnaire on her.

13 BY THE COURT: I can ask her.

14 BY MR. EVANS: Yeah, I have got a copy.

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, I just wanted to know.

16 BY THE COURT: I don't know but I can--

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can I use your copy when you
18 get finished?

19 BY THE COURT: The clerk--

20 BY MR. EVANS: --Do you want to take a short
21 break before so you can get a copy?

22 BY THE COURT: Do you want that before you
23 voir dire?

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes. Let us look for it. We 25 might have just misplaced it. She can go ahead.

26 END BENCH CONFERENCE.

27 BY THE COURT: Okay. Ms. McClelland, they 28 want to ask you some follow up questions concerning
29 the death penalty.

1 INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE BY MR. EVANS: (Ms. Lucille W.
2 McClelland.)

3 Q. How are you doing?

4 A. Fine.

5 Q. I have just got a few questions for you. We are 6 trying to pin down different people's beliefs and opinions.
7 In this particular case I think you have basically stated
8 that you do not believe in the death penalty. Is that
9 correct?

10 A. I guess maybe I believe in the death penalty, but 11 for me to impose it, no, I couldn't do that.

12 Q. And what we are looking at, I think what you are 13 telling the Court is in no circumstances could you consider 14 the death penalty as far as you yourself giving it. Is that
15 correct?

16 A. I don't think I could, no.

17 Q. Now you understand that the trial on a capital case
18 will be in two parts?

19 A. Right.

20 Q. The first part, as I have told you and the Judge
21 has told you, the Defendant is presumed innocent.

22 A. Right.

23 Q. Once we have proven that he is guilty, then we can
24 go into the second phase. In that second phase of the trial
25 that is when the death penalty comes in. And just to sum
26 things up, I think what you're saying is that you could not
27 consider the death penalty as a possible penalty, that you
28 just do not believe in it, and you could not do it. Is that
29 correct?

1                   questions.

2       BY MR. LUMUMBA:

3           Q.    Ms. McClelland. First of all, you know, this is an 4       inquiry we make when there is a capital murder case; right?

5           A.    Yes.

6           Q.    And it doesn't have anything to do with whether or 7       not Mr. Flowers, whether there has been any proof against 8       him. You understand that?

9           A.    Right. I understand that.

10          Q.    So in other words, he still sits there presumed 11       innocent?

12          A.    Right.

13          Q.    And you are willing to abide by that if you were 14       ever to sit on the jury; is that correct?

15          A.    Exactly.

16          Q.    Okay. Understanding that, and understanding what 17       you're saying is that it would be - and you correct me
18       whenever I am wrong.

19          A.    Okay, sure will.

20          Q.    Okay, is that first of all, I don't think and I
21       don't have your form, so I don't know what you said on the 22       form, but I take it from what you're saying now, that as you
23       sit here now, you have a problem with the death penalty;
24       right?

25          A.    Yes. Somewhat.

26          Q.    Somewhat, okay, somewhat. And I notice you keep 27       saying, "Somewhat, "I think," and that is okay because we do
28       think and we do--

29          A.    --No, I think that there may be cases of

1 circumstances where, but it would have to be really-- and
2 again, I am saying that I don't know if I could impose that 3 on someone.

4 Q. And would it be safe to say that you don't know any 5 circumstances about this case or--

6 A. --oh, absolutely not.

7 Q. --any other case right now? You don't know
8 anything?

9 A. No.

10 Q. Okay. Now I think that the law in talking about 11 the death penalty in cases takes in consideration
12 circumstances; right? Let me tell you, let me ask you if you 13 could follow these kind of instructions if they were given to 14 you. Okay, let's go along with the scenario and see if you
15 can follow. Okay, first of all, you have already said that 16 you could follow the scenario that first of all, you don't 17 convict a person unless the prosecution proves that he is 18 guilty. Is that correct?

19 A. I agree.

20 Q. And you are going to hold him to that; right?

21 A. Exactly.

22 Q. And we submit, of course, that they will never get 23 there; right? Okay, that is our position as the defense.

24 A. Yeah.

25 Q. And you will listen to our position?

26 A. Exactly.

27 Q. Okay. Secondly--

28 BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, I oppose about 29 her listening to their position. She is going to

1           have to decide what she listens to and what she
2           bases it on. We are getting way outside the death
3           penalty issue here.

4                       BY THE COURT: Overruled.

5           BY MR. LUMUMBA:

6           Q.    Okay. Secondly, the law says - and I'm going to 7           see if you can follow this; if the Judge winds up telling you
8           this, and I think he has, you know, already really - is that 9           even in a case where somebody might get convicted, right, of 10          a capital murder, the law, as I see it, has a certain respect 11          for life; right, because it doesn't say that you can 12          automatically give the death penalty? Even in that 13          situation, you can't even think about it just because they 14          are convicted. Do you understand what I'm saying?

15          A.    Yes, I understand.

16          Q.    Okay, what has to happen is that the prosecution
17          then-- if there is a second phase, they have got to come 18          through and show some proof that there is some reason, some 19          circumstances which legally justify you considering the death
20          penalty. Do you understand what I'm saying?

21          A.    Right. I understand.

22          Q.    Okay. Then the defense still is in a position that 23          he can come forth if he wanted to and show you some, what 24          they call circumstances which say no, there shouldn't be a
25          death penalty even in this case. Do you understand what I'm 26          saying?

27          A.    Yes.

28          Q.    Maybe they want to talk about the kind of person it
29          is, the kind of life, you know, whatever; okay?

1           A.    Right.

2           Q.    You know, but they can offer what is called
3 mitigating circumstances. That is what that means, reasons
4 for not giving death; okay?

5           A.    Okay.

6           Q.    So the law is showing a kind of respect for life
7 there because they-- it is saying if the aggravating
8 circumstances don't-- I mean, excuse me; if the mitigating 9 circumstances outweigh the aggravating circumstances, if they 10 are more, stronger than, then you still can't consider the 11 death penalty. Do you understand what I'm saying?

12          A.    Yes.

13          Q.    Okay. Only if you get over all those hurdles, and 14 that is all dealing with circumstances; right, because those 15 hurdles are based upon circumstances. What kind of 16 circumstances exist in this particular case or that 17 particular case which will allow you to go past that, you
18 know. And the Judge will never tell you what you have to,
19 have to decide. He would only tell you what the law is, and 20 then you as the jury have to decide things consistent. In 21 other words, you have got to analyze the facts and see if the 22 facts are that serious. Do you understand what I'm saying?

23          A.    Yes.

24          Q.    Okay, that is up to you to decide; right?

25          A.    I understand.

26          Q.    And then the final stage is all up to you. When I
27 say up to you, it is up to each individual juror to 28 determine-- of course, you have got to talk to each other;
29 right?

1           A.    (No audible response.)

2           Q.    But each individual juror has got to determine
3 whether or not in the final stage, if it gets to the final
4 stage, if it ever gets past the aggravating circumstances
5 outweigh the mitigating or if the mitigating don't outweigh
6 the aggravating as I understand, then what happens is the 7 Judge says you can consider the options, two options; right.
8 One is life and one is death. Do you understand what I'm
9 saying?

10          A.    Okay.

11          Q.    And only if the juror decides, nobody is going to 12 say that the death penalty is the punishment to give. The 13 only thing that can be said by the Court is that the death
14 penalty is one of two options that you can consider and that 15 under certain circumstances if you believe it should be 16 given; you know what I'm saying?

17          A.    I understand.

18          Q.    Because the decision still-- then you have to 19 decide to give it; right?

20          A.    (No audible response.)

21          Q.    The only thing that they are saying is that when 22 they ask these questions is that the law is saying well, we 23 can't have folks that come in from the beginning and say that 24 they are not even going to think about it, and they are not 25 going to consider the circumstances. Do you understand what 26 I'm saying? And consider whether in their own mind they 27 should impose the death penalty. Do you understand what I'm
28 saying?

29          A.    Yes.

1           Q.    So what the law is saying, can you in your mind
2   consider the circumstances and consider whether or not the
3   circumstances are serious enough for the death penalty. Do
4   you understand what I'm saying?

5           A.    Yes, I understand.

6           Q.    Okay, and some people might think the standard is 7   higher than other people, you know, jurors. Do you see what
8   I'm saying?

9           A.    Yes.

10          Q.    See, in one juror's mind it may be that they will 11   require more, and in another juror's mind they may require 12   less. But no juror can require less than what the law will 13   allow you to-- no juror can require less than what the law
14   requires for you to consider the death penalty. Do you
15   understand what I'm saying?

16          A.    Yeah.

17          Q.    In other words, no juror can say, Well, I'm just 18   going to automatically impose it. Every juror has to listen
19   to the circumstances and determine if the law will even allow 20   them to give it; right?

21          A.    Right.

22          Q.    But then no juror can say, Well, I just won't 23   consider it at all; right? If the law does allow you to 24   consider it, but then the law is up to you to make a
25   decision. And my question is merely - and I'm sorry; you
26   know, I got kind of complicated here; I was doing myself but 27   - is this: Can you because-- let me just take a peek here.
28   (Pause while Mr. Lumumba looks at Ms. McClelland's 29   questionnaire.) Well, you said exactly in your form what you

1 are saying now; right? What you said, you said, "I believe
2 that it is wrong to kill, but I also believe there may be
3 extenuating circumstances where it may be justifiable."

4 Right? That's what you said?

5 A. Right.

6 Q. So given what you said here, you are not absolutely
7 opposed. In other words, there are circumstances--

8 A. --No, I'm not completely opposed to the death
9 penalty.

10 Q. And being opposed or for it is not the standard.
11 That's not what it is.

12 A. Right.

13 Q. The question is can you follow the law, and if you
14 are given instructions, do all those steps that the Judge
15 tells you to do and then at the end make your own decision?
16 Can you do that?

17 A. I could not even consider the death penalty. That 18 would be one of the things that would be--

19 Q. --You wouldn't even be able to consider it?

20 A. No. Like I say, I believe there are times when it
21 should be applied to people, but I don't think that I could 22 be the one that--

23 Q. --that you could do it?

24 A. --could judge someone and say okay, you need to 25 die. No. I couldn't do that.

26 Q. All right. I understand it's a tough job for 27 anybody.

28 A. I know.

29 Q. Right. Yeah, I mean I am serious.

1           A.    Yeah, I am serious.

2           Q.    It is tough job for everybody?

3           A.    I could listen and take in everything that was said
4 and consider, but again I am saying I don't think that I
5 could be the one to say okay, you need, this person need to 6 die, or this is a case where you need to-- I don't think I
7 could do that. I really don't.

8           Q.    You don't think you can do it?

9           A.    No, I don't think I could. I have never be in a--

10          Q.    --position?

11          A.    Right.

12          Q.    Right. But you do think that it is good for all of 13 us to contribute to the process if our beliefs will allow us
14 to do it; right?

15          A.    Oh, exactly. Yes, I believe that.

16          Q.    And your beliefs will allow you to do it because 17 you believe under certain circumstances that it should 18 happen; right?

19          A.    Yeah, there are circumstances that I believe that.

20          Q.    And you know it's tough on anybody?

21          A.    Oh, yes. Definitely so.

22          Q.    Okay. So my final question is understanding that 23 it's tough on anybody and that your beliefs would allow it,
24 could you, you know, make that particular sacrifice to sit 25 and to go according to the law and, you know, consider it if 26 it gets to that? If it ever gets to that?

27          A.    Well, when you put it could I consider it if it
28 gets to that, I could, yeah, think about it and consider it.
29 But, and like I say, I don't--

1 Q. --Will be true--

2 A. I have never been put in that position.

3 Q. Will you be true to your beliefs?

4 A. Oh, definitely so; always.

5 Q. As you stated them here on the form?

6 A. Always.

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, thank you very much.

8 BY THE COURT: Let me ask you this, Ms.
9 McClelland. Of course, you are entitled to have
10 conscientious scruples against the death penalty,
11 and a lot of folks have scruples against the death
12 penalty as a whole or, I mean or believe in it as 13 you do, in the overall scheme of things. But what 14 we are looking at is not in the overall scheme of 15 things. It's when it comes down to where you have 16 to make a decision, and after you have heard the 17 evidence and you have heard my instructions on the 18 law as to whether and under what circumstances you
19 could possibly impose the death penalty, then could 20 you yourself impose the death penalty?

21 BY MS. McCLELLAND: No. I don't think I
22 could.

23 BY THE COURT: Okay. Thank you, ma'am.
24 Number 31, Mr. Maynard.

25 (Juror 23, Ms. Lucille McClelland leaves the 26 courtroom. JUROR NUMBER 31, MR. ROBERT A. MAYNARD,
27 enters the courtroom.)

28 BY THE COURT: Mr. Maynard, they have some 29 follow up questions they wanted to ask you about

1           the death penalty.

2    INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE BY MR. EVANS: (Mr. Robert Maynard.)

3           Q.    Good evening, Mr. Maynard. You had answered some 4 questions about your beliefs as far as the death penalty, and 5 I need to follow that up just a little bit. Of course, as 6 the Judge has told you and what we are trying to tell you now
7 is that in a death penalty trial there are two phases. The 8 first phase of that trial is strictly guilt or innocence. At 9 this phase, like I told you earlier, this Defendant or any 10 other defendant is presumed innocent. We must prove to the 11 jury that he is guilty, and once we have convinced the jury
12 that he is guilty, then we go into the second phase and only 13 then. In the first phase you don't even consider the death
14 penalty. It would come in in the second phase.

15               In the second phase the law is clear in Mississippi
16 that the jury cannot just automatically say I think the death
17 penalty is an appropriate punishment. The Judge will tell
18 you what the law is. The Judge will tell you in certain 19 circumstances you can give the death penalty as one of two 20 options. In other cases you cannot, but the Judge will 21 inform you of that.

22               In the second phase we will put on proof that will 23 justify the death penalty. That is what our job is to put on 24 that proof to the jury. If we put on proof to the jury and 25 the jury believes that because of that proof and because of 26 following the steps that the Judge gives, the death penalty
27 is an appropriate punishment. Then that can be a
28 consideration. The jury at that point can give whichever
29 penalty they think is appropriate.

1           In the instructions that the Judge gives you, what
2 I expect them to be is a long, detailed list, just a kind of 3 follow up list that the jury has to do. The first part of 4 that instruction tells the jury that there are one of several 5 elements the jury must find for the jury to even consider the 6 death penalty. One of those factors the jury would have to 7 determine is did the Defendant kill the victim in this case;
8 did the Defendant intend to kill; did the Defendant attempt 9 to kill. The jury will be asked to look -- it will be four 10 of them. The jury will be asked to look at those.

11           If the jury finds that any of those are present
12 from the elements of the facts of the case, the jury will 13 write those in. If none of those four can be found, the jury
14 can't go any further at that point. The verdict would have 15 to be life. The Judge will instruct you that. If the jury
16 finds that any one of those factors are present, the jury
17 continues down through that long instruction.

18           The next thing the jury will get to is called 19 aggravating factors. That is bad things that the Defendant
20 did just to kind of sum it up. The Judge will have them
21 listed out. In this case there will probably be one or two 22 aggravating factors for the jury to look at. The jury will 23 look at those aggravating factors, bring the facts in and 24 determine did the State prove this aggravating factor. If 25 the State, if we do not prove that aggravating factor, you
26 can't go any further; it has to be a life sentence.

27           If we did prove that aggravating factor, then you
28 can go further. The next thing that is in that instruction
29 tells you that you can consider certain mitigating factors,

1 and that is anything good that is in that instruction to
2 consider. But again, there will be a list that the Judge
3 gives you of things that you can consider.

4 If you determine that those mitigating factors
5 outweighed the bad things that he did, then you would not 6 return a death penalty. If you determine that those 7 mitigating factors did not outweigh it, then it is up to the 8 jury to determine whether they should give life or death, and 9 whichever your verdict would be at that point would be up to 10 you. Do you understand how the process would go?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. All right. If you were called as a juror, would 13 you listen to the law that the Judge gave you, go through 14 that long instruction and follow it and base your decision of 15 the penalty on what the law was and what the facts of the 16 case were?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Okay. And kind of in contrast because it may have 19 got confusing earlier, you would not just automatically go to 20 the death penalty? You would listen to the evidence, and you
21 would follow the Court's instructions?

22 A. Based on the law, I would consider the death
23 penalty.

24 BY MR. EVANS: All right, thank you.

25 INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE BY MR. LUMUMBA: (Mr. Robert Maynard.)

26 Q. Good afternoon, Mr. Maynard. How are you doing?
27 Okay, I am Chokwe Lumumba, and I am representing Mr. Flowers
28 in this case, and I would just like to ask you a few 29 questions if I could. Okay? Okay, Mr. Maynard, I read your

1 form. You know, the form that they asked you to fill out?

2 A. Yeah.

3 Q. And I noticed that it said, you said in here under 4 one question that you strongly favored the death penalty;
5 correct?

6 A. Uh-hum.

7 Q. So that would be a safe thing to say that you are a
8 person who strongly favors the death penalty?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And it also says here, you know, in a situation
11 with violent crimes; is that correct?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Okay, of course, somebody's death, you know, is a 14 violent crime. Is that correct?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Okay, now I also thought I heard when you were 17 being interviewed or asked questions when you were sitting in 18 the audience, the question was put to you if a person was--
19 well, let me put a question to you because I can't remember
20 exactly how the question was put to you. But a person is 21 convicted of killing somebody. Okay, right. Now based upon 22 your responses previous, I would-- what I understood you to 23 be saying is that in that circumstances you strongly believe
24 a person should have the death penalty. Is that correct?

25 A. Yes.

26 Q. And really, without more, you would be willing to 27 give that person the death penalty; is that right?

28 A. Based on the evidence and the law, the evidence
29 that the gentleman described, I would be willing to consider

1 the death penalty.

2 Q. Okay, but if a person is convicted of killing
3 somebody, from what you have just told me, you are prepared--
4 I mean apparently he has put some evidence in if the person
5 got convicted; is that right?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Okay. And I'm not trying to ask any tricky
8 questions here. I just really want to know because you
9 understand that you are not required to have any belief one 10 way or the other. Do you understand that?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. You have every bit of a right to be strongly in 13 favor of the death penalty if you want to be. Do you
14 understand what I'm saying?

15 A. Uh-hum.

16 Q. That is not the question here. The question here
17 is how strong, well, whether or not the strength in that,
18 and you are entitled to have a belief which says well, I
19 think that a person should be convicted or should be 20 sentenced to death if he is convicted of murder. Do you
21 understand that?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Okay, nobody here is going to tell you you can't 24 have that belief. The Judge is not telling you you can't 25 have that belief. The question is in this particular trial,
26 in this trial would you lean toward the death penalty before
27 any kind of proof is shown to you in the death penalty
28 stage? Say a person is convicted of murder; would you
29 automatically say, well, without more, then that person

1 should be sentenced to death?

2 A. In the sentencing phase I would, if the evidence
3 were given that warranted the death penalty, I would vote for
4 it.

5 Q. Okay, and--

6 A. Through the steps that he described, mitigating
7 circumstances, everything weighed out. If I felt in good
8 conscience that it warranted it, I would vote for it.

9 Q. Okay, and would you-- okay, but you understand also 10 that, you know, just like when you play-- I know you have 11 played basketball or football or something like that? Or you
12 have seen it played before; right?

13 A. Uh-hum.

14 Q. And you know how important it is when a referee is 15 refereeing the game so to speak?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. One side has a strong position; the other side has 18 a strong position; right? Do you understand what I'm saying?

19 A. (No response.)

20 Q. Now if the referee is already leaning in one
21 direction, do you understand?

22 A. Uh-hum.

23 Q. Well, then that creates a problem for the game; is
24 that right?

25 A. (Juror Mr. Maynard nods his head.)

26 Q. Now in your case or in any persons' case, any 27 citizen's case you have a right to lean in one direction as 28 far as whether you believe that the death penalty should be 29 given if a person is convicted of murder. Do you understand?

1 You have the absolute right to believe that. The question is 2 here in a trial setting it becomes a little bit unbalanced if
3 the person who comes into the process ready to automatically
4 give the death penalty unless somebody proves to them they
5 shouldn't give it. Do you understand what I'm saying?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Now would that be your position that you would be 8 willing to give it if a person is convicted of murder unless 9 somebody proves to you that it shouldn't be given?

10 A. Honestly, I believe I would have to be convinced
11 that it were not warranted.

12 Q. Okay, and if you were, and that is right at the 13 beginning of the sentencing phase. That would be your view
14 if a person got convicted of murder; is that correct?

15 A. Right.

16 Q. Okay, and that is all we need is honesty; right.
17 Because you understand that this is not a test of your 18 character. Your character is sterling as far as, you know;
19 you understand that?

20 A. (Juror Mr. Maynard nods his head.)

21 Q. This is not-- and what your belief is on the death
22 penalty does not say the character is good or bad. Do you
23 understand that?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And this is not a test to you. And I'm sorry that 26 there is no other way that we can do this other than ask 27 people questions and sometimes make them think there is 28 something wrong with them. Do you understand what I'm
29 saying?

1           A.    Yes, sir.

2           Q.    So the thing, but that is not even the question
3 here. The question is just evaluating who would be 4 appropriate for this trial; right?

5           A.    Yes.

6           Q.    So would I be safe in saying that going in the 7 sentencing phase, then you would kind of be leaning one way?

8           A.    Yes.

9           Q.    And in fact, given what you have told us before,
10 you would be leaning strongly toward the death penalty. Is 11 that correct?

12          A.    Yes.

13          Q.    Okay, and the only way that somebody could get you
14 not to give it is by giving some strong, strong proof that it
15 shouldn't be given. Is that right?

16          A.    Yes.

17          Q.    Okay. And if, and even though the law might say
18 something different, that is still your personal belief.
19 Isn't that right?

20          A.    Yes.

21          Q.    And in all honesty, it would be very difficult for 22 you to follow any law that went against that belief. Isn't 23 that true?

24          A.    I would follow the letter of the law in that 25 instance, but I would still have a bias. If it were not 26 specific in the law, I would be biased.

27          Q.    Okay. You would have a bias. Do you think that 28 that bias might influence your, either consciously or 29 subconsciously influence what you do?

1 A. Possibly.

2 Q. And you couldn't promise that it wouldn't?

3 A. No, sir. I couldn't.

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have no further questions
5 of this witness.

6 BY THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Maynard. You
7 may step up out. Mr. Connor.

8 (Juror Mr. Robert Maynard left the courtroom.
9 JUROR NUMBER 40, MR. PATRICK E. CONNOR, entered the
10 courtroom.)

11 BY THE COURT: Mr. Connor?

12 BY JUROR MR. CONNOR: Yes, sir.

13 BY THE COURT: Both lawyers want to ask you
14 some questions, some follow up questions about the 15 death penalty.

16 BY MR. CONNOR: Yes, sir.

17 INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE BY MR. HORAN: (Mr. Patrick E. Connor.)

18 Q. Mr. Connor, you had answered the question a few 19 moments ago that in a death case when someone is charged with 20 committing a murder and the death penalty is an option, that 21 you felt like you would automatically give that. Is that 22 your response, Mr. Connor?

23 A. Yes, sir.

24 Q. All right, let me explain something to you. We 25 have two phases. We have a guilt phase, and we have a
26 sentencing phase. After you have decided guilt, only until 27 you have decided the guilt or innocence of the Defendant,
28 only at that point in time are you to consider the death
29 penalty. Do you understand that?

1           A.    Oh, yes, okay.

2           Q.    Okay, would you follow that particular instruction
3 if the Court so--

4           A.    --oh, yes.

5           Q.    --instructed you?

6           A.    Yeah.

7           Q.    I anticipate should we get to that point that we 8 will enter into a second phase called a sentencing phase.
9 And at that phase I anticipate that we would put on evidence
10 in support of what is called aggravating circumstances.
11 Those are things that tend to or it is proof that is to 12 persuade you. We are trying to persuade you to impose the 13 death penalty. Now I anticipate that the Defendant through 14 counsel would put on what is called mitigating factors.
15 Those are things that they would want to show that would be,
16 show to you why you should not impose a death penalty. Now
17 the law in Mississippi is that before you can consider the 18 death penalty, you are to balance the aggravating
19 circumstances against the mitigating circumstances. And if 20 the mitigating circumstances do not outweigh the aggravating
21 circumstances, the law in Mississippi says that you may 22 impose the death penalty. If Judge Morgan gave you an 23 instruction to that effect, that you are to consider those 24 particular factors and consider them in that particular way,
25 would you follow that law?

26          A.    I would follow the law. Yes.

27          Q.    Okay, so when you say automatically--

28          A.    --but excuse me. If he said I may, I have the 29 option to do the death penalty.

1 Q. Right.

2 A. Well, yeah, I would follow it, but if I had the 3 option, that means I could vote for the death penalty.

4 Q. That's right, and you have that option, but you are 5 not duty bound to do that until you consider the aggravating
6 factors--

7 A. --well, yes, I guess--

8 Q. --against the mitigating factors. Would you do
9 that?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. There is a long instruction that is about five 12 pages long--

13 A. I would follow the law.

14 Q. I anticipate-- would you follow the law?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. So your statement earlier about automatically
17 following the death penalty is not necessarily true?

18 A. I guess; no, sir.

19 Q. That doesn't mean you are not in favor of the death
20 penalty.

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. I mean it's a lot of people that are in favor of 23 the--

24 A. --I have been up all night. I'm a--

25 Q. Sir?

26 A. I am a casino bartender, and I have been up since--
27 I haven't been to bed for a long time.

28 Q. I understand.

29 A. I just, I got off work at 7 o'clock, and I come

1 right here.

2 Q. I understand.

3 A. But I knew what I was talking about. I shouldn't
4 have been so radical maybe.

5 Q. Right, but you could follow the law?

6 A. Yes, I could follow the law.

7 Q. And if the Court instructed you-- I mean you may 8 find that the mitigating, if you find that the mitigating
9 factors outweigh the aggravating factors, you wouldn't have a
10 problem with not imposing the death penalty, would you?

11 A. No. No.

12 BY MR. HORAN: No further questions.

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, unfortunately, that is 14 another one of the forms that we are missing.
15 Number 40.

16 BY THE COURT: Okay. Connie, if you would see
17 if you can find that. Number 40.

18 INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE BY MR. LUMUMBA:

19 Q. Good afternoon. I am Chokwe Lumumba, and I am
20 representing Mr. Flowers in this case along with Harvey
21 Freelon. Mr. Connor, you know, this is just another part of 22 what the Judge told you, voir dire, right. And voir dire is 23 that-- I don't know; some people say it's a French word. I
24 have heard some people say it's an Italian word. I don't 25 know what it is, but it's supposed to mean "to tell the 26 truth." Okay.

27 A. Yes.

28 Q. And I think that the Judge said there can be no
29 wrong answers. All right, the only thing we need to know is

1 what you really feel coming from you, okay?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And this is why I am saying that. There is no law
4 that requires you not to want to automatically give the 5 person the death penalty. Do you understand that?

6 A. That does not require?

7 Q. There is no law that requires you to--

8 A. Automatic.

9 Q. No, it's no law which requires you to have a
10 belief, which says that you are forbidden to have the belief
11 that a person should automatically get the death penalty if 12 they are convicted of murder. Do you understand that? There
13 is no law that prevents you from feeling that way. Do you
14 understand what I'm saying?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Okay. No law that prevents you from having the 17 views that you expressed out there if those are your real 18 views. Do you understand that?

19 A. Uh-hum.

20 Q. I mean, you know, when you formed those views, you
21 had no idea you would be sitting here in this case, did you?

22 A. No.

23 Q. Okay, now we-- and you realize that you are 24 entitled to have whatever views that you have as an 25 individual and a citizen. You understand that?

26 A. Yes.

27 Q. Okay. Now we are hearing the case and now that we 28 are hearing the case, there are certain questions we ask, and 29 we don't ask these questions to judge people. We ask these

1 questions to see if a particular person might be the best for
2 this case. Do you know what I'm saying?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. A person might be great for a different case,
5 right, but that doesn't mean that the person is not a good
6 jury or whatever. You know what I'm saying? So what we are 7 trying to ascertain, because there seems to be a little
8 different from what you said out there to what you are saying
9 up here, and that's the only reason I am pointing it out,
10 okay?

11 A. Uh-hum.

12 Q. And sometimes when people say well, the law says
13 that. Well, then, you know, people feel boom; I better jump
14 with the law. And you are required to follow the law if you
15 get on the jury. Do you understand what I'm saying?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. But this is all about people who feel that that is 18 a law that they may not be able to follow in good
19 conscience. Do you understand what I'm saying?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. This is about the time for people to say well,
22 look, Judge. This is not my cup of tea. Right; you know
23 what I'm saying? If it's not, do you see what I'm saying?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And so the question I'm asking you, if I understood
26 you correctly, what you were saying is that if a person,
27 because you raised your hand. You were the first one to 28 raise your hand, you know, when the Judge asked you that 29 question. The question was put to you, do you feel that if a

1 person is convicted of murder-- I mean they have already been
2 convicted now. They have been convicted; they are found
3 guilty. Boom, boom. Do you feel that that person who is 4 convicted of murder should get the death penalty, you know,
5 if they are convicted of murder?

6 A. Yes, sir. I do.

7 Q. Okay, and that is your view; right?

8 A. Yes, if they, if it is okay, if I have that 9 option.

10 Q. Yeah, yeah, well--

11 A. I mean, well, yeah, we are getting--

12 Q. Yeah, I understand. You have that option.

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. But then the question goes a little further. The 15 question goes a little further. The question goes this:
16 Having that view, what that means that if a person got to the 17 death penalty phase, it would be very -- in order for you not 18 to give them death, they would have to convince you by some 19 strong proof not to give them death. Isn't that right, if 20 they had already been convicted of murder?

21 A. Yeah, something. Yeah.

22 Q. Would that mean that actually it would be very 23 difficult for you not to give a person death if they were 24 convicted of killing somebody else if you were on a jury?

25 A. Repeat that, sir.

26 Q. Would it be very difficult for you not to give a
27 person the death penalty--

28 A. --Oh, not to give it?

29 Q. Yeah.

1           A.    No.

2           Q.    Okay.  Would it be difficult for you not to give
3 the death penalty if a person was convicted of killing
4 somebody?

5           A.    It would be hard for me not to give it, yes.

6           Q.    If a person was convicted of killing somebody.
7 Would you be inclined to give it to them if they were 8 convicted of killing?

9           A.    Yes.  Yes.

10          Q.    You would?

11          A.    Yes.

12          Q.    And that would be your strong inclination?

13          A.    Yes.

14          Q.    And you would want to stick with that inclination;
15 right?

16          A.    Yes.

17          Q.    Regardless of whatever else was said?

18          A.    Yes.

19          Q.    Because whatever else is said, they are still 20 convicted of killing somebody; right?

21          A.    Yes, if you took a life.

22          Q.    And your view is that they should get the death--

23          A.    --Yes.

24          Q.    And you would follow that; right?

25          A.    Yes.

26          Q.    Okay.  And even if the Judge says well, look, at 27 this point you consider life or death, the truth of the 28 matter is that as long as they have been convicted of killing
29 somebody, because of your views, if you got the option of 1 death, that's what you are going to give them?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Is that right?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Okay. Regardless of whatever?

6 A. Yes, sir.

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. I have no further
8 questions.

9 BY THE COURT: Okay. Thank you, Mr. Connor.
10 You may go out.

11 (Juror Mr. Patrick Connor leaves the
12 courtroom.)

13 BY THE COURT: We are going to take a minute,
14 gentlemen, and let the Court Reporter have a break.
15 We will be just a few minutes. Let me see the 16 lawyers up here before you go.

17 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH WITH THE JURY OUT AS 18 FOLLOWS:)

19 BY THE COURT: We have got five more of these 20 which will at least take us to 5 o'clock if we go
21 like we have been going, and I have to let the 22 hotel know something about this. I don't think we 23 will be able to finish the jury thing. I don't 24 mind us working past 5:00 and getting further into 25 this, but I don't think -- y'all don't see any way
26 for us to get the jury today, do you?

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No. I don't think so.

28 BY THE COURT: You haven't started, and he is 29 not through.

1 BY MR. EVANS: I don't see how we could.

2 BY THE COURT: Okay, well, I'm going to-- we
3 are going to do that now. Before I release them
4 for the day, we are going to go over some of these 5 that are for cause, and I think we will wind up we 6 are going to agree on some folks that say they 7 can't be fair and impartial, and we won't have to 8 bring them back. We won't bring them back
9 tomorrow, but I'm not going to do that right now.
10 I am just telling you that's what I anticipate
11 doing.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

13 BY THE COURT: Okay, we are all on the same
14 program. Let's take about five minutes.

15 (FOLLOWING A BRIEF RECESS, THERE WAS THE 16 FOLLOWING IN THE COURTROOM CONCERNING JUROR NUMBER
17 27, TYRON D. COLE, WHO HAD ORIGINALLY BEEN CALLED 18 AS A JUROR FOR A CIRCUIT COURT CASE DOWN THE HALL.
19 THE JURY PANEL WAS OUTSIDE THE COURTROOM, AND ALL
20 COUNSEL AND THE DEFENDANT WERE PRESENT:)

21 BY THE COURT: Let me see y'all. Well, I
22 don't know that I have to see you up here. I don't
23 know whether that is, what I have been told is true
24 or not, but have y'all got any objection to whoever
25 it is staying?

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I don't. No. Actually I--

27 BY MR. EVANS: --I don't know that he--

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: At this point he has done
29 took the oath.

1                   BY THE COURT: That is what I think too. If 2                   you have got no objection, we can keep him.

3                   BY MR. HORAN: We need him to fill out a
4                   questionnaire if that is okay, Judge.

5                   BY THE COURT: Yeah, we will do that. We 6                   won't be through today anyhow. He can fill out the 7                   questionnaire, and if that raises any questions
8                   that you need to go into further, we will. But as 9                   far as I know, he has been here during all voir
10                  dire and everything else so. It is always 11                  something.

12                  BY MR. EVANS: His bad luck, isn't it?

13                  BY THE COURT: We won't tell him that now, you
14                  understand. Okay, Ms. Henson, number 43.

15                  (JUROR NUMBER 43, MS. NELENNE L. HENSON enters
16                  the courtroom.)

17                  BY THE COURT: Ms. Henson, you can have a seat
18                  up here, please, ma'am. Ms. Henson, the attorneys
19                  have some follow up questions they want to ask you
20                  concerning the death penalty.

21                  INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE BY MR. HORAN:

22                  Q. Ms. Henson, you had indicated through the Court's 23                  questioning and some of Mr. Evans' questions that you were 24                  against the death penalty. Is that what your position is?

25                  A. Yes, sir.

26                  Q. Under no circumstances, regardless of the proof and 27                  regardless of what the instructions from the Court would be,
28                  would you be willing to impose the death penalty?

29                  A. No, sir.

1 Q. Under absolutely no circumstances?

2 A. No, sir.

3 Q. Okay. Regardless, and I think in your
4 questionnaire you explained your answer. You stated that you
5 would "never vote to execute another human being no matter
6 how much they deserved it. God will sort all that out in His 7 own way." And basically, your objection to the death penalty
8 is on religious grounds; is that correct?

9 A. Yes, sir.

10 Q. Okay. All right, and there is absolutely no amount
11 of proof that would sway you, make you decide to impose a 12 death penalty at all?

13 A. No, sir.

14 BY MR. HORAN: Thank you.

15 BY JUROR MS. HENSON: You're welcome.

16 INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE BY MR. LUMUMBA: (Ms. Nelenne L. Henson.)

17 Q. Good afternoon, Ms. Henson. How are you doing?

18 A. Okay.

19 Q. I am Chokwe Lumumba, and I am representing Mr.
20 Flowers, and I have just a few questions. You have never sat
21 in a jury trial before?

22 A. No, sir.

23 Q. Okay, so obviously you have never sat in a capital
24 case before?

25 A. No, sir.

26 Q. Right. Okay. I have noted your strong opposition,
27 and basically, what I'm doing is I am coming up to ask you
28 some questions to see if what, in the law they call it
29 rehabilitate your view. What that means is, what that means,

1 we are real presumptuous as lawyers, but what that really
2 means is that I am trying to see if there is any way that 3 there may have been some things you haven't thought about
4 which would reflect slightly different view on your behalf;
5 okay?

6 A. Okay.

7 Q. And this is what I'm going to ask you, this here.
8 First of all, you are aware of the fact that there is many 9 people in the community, and many of them have different
10 views on the death penalty; right?

11 A. (Juror Ms. Henson nods her head.)

12 BY THE COURT: Ms. Henson, you will need to 13 answer out loud because she has to take down your 14 answer.

15 BY THE JUROR:

16 A. Yes, sir.

17 Q. Okay, some of them oppose it, and some of them
18 support it; right?

19 A. Yes, sir.

20 Q. And some of them have strong opposition like you
21 do, and some have strong support for it; right?

22 A. Yes, sir.

23 Q. Okay, what the law does, you know, and believe me,
24 I'm not trying to change your views. I wouldn't be doing
25 what I do if, you know, that was the case, but let me-- what
26 I am asking you is this: Is that you, the law and the Judge
27 hasn't charged you this and he will never charge you that 28 because of your views, you cannot sit in a case like this.
29 You understand what I'm saying?

1           A.    Uh-hum.

2           Q.    That is not the standard as far as I understand the 3 law. The standard is given whatever views you have because 4 you are in a community and you have a right to have them, can
5 you work with the law and come out with a decision? You make
6 the decision. The law doesn't make the decision. The law
7 doesn't make a decision as to whether a person is guilty or 8 innocent. The law doesn't make a decision as to whether the 9 death penalty should be imposed or shouldn't be imposed. It
10 just gives you some rules that you have got to go by, and 11 then you make the decision. Do you understand what I'm 12 saying? And the rules are presumably designed to put it in 13 the way which is best for you to have the total opportunity
14 to make a decision. Do you understand what I'm saying?

15          A.    Yes, sir.

16          Q.    So let me just say this to get right to the point.
17 The law, I think, shows some compromise or some sensitivity
18 to the different views in the community. The first thing it
19 says that you can't give a death penalty. You can't even 20 think about a sentence or any kind of penalty period until 21 you get, unless somebody is convicted; right?

22          A.    (Juror Ms. Henson nods her head.)

23          Q.    Okay, and it says at the very beginning a person is 24 presumed innocent.

25          A.    (Juror Ms. Henson nods her head.)

26          Q.    You have to say yes or no.

27          A.    Oh, yes. Yes, sir.

28          Q.    Okay, and when you walk into the court, the Judge
29 tells you right off is that this man is presumed innocent.

1 He is presumed innocent, and he has pled not guilty; right?

2 A. Yes, sir.

3 Q. Okay, and it is up to the prosecution to prove
4 before you can go any further; right?

5 A. Uh-hum.

6 Q. So the law, I think, shows some sensitivity. Now
7 you don't have any problem with that, do you?

8 A. Oh, no, sir.

9 Q. Okay. Second, say somebody in some case because,
10 of course, we submit in this one it will never get there.
11 That is our submission. You know, we submit that they are a 12 long way. They have got a long way to go, and they will 13 never get there. But say in some case, any case you sit and 14 there is a proof of guilt, okay. Then the next thing that 15 happens is then you have to go to a sentencing hearing;
16 right? Having jumped that first hurdle, the second hurdle
17 becomes-- the Judge will tell you you can't even consider
18 the death penalty in the sentencing hearing unless the State
19 comes up and says, with what they call some sufficient
20 aggravating circumstances; right?

21 A. (Juror Ms. Henson nods her head.)

22 Q. That means reasons for death, you know, reasons why
23 there should be death. The State has to prove some reasons
24 why there should be death. Now the Judge will tell you, the 25 Judge will tell you what those reasons, what, you know, the 26 death-- he will define what those reasons can be. He will 27 say these can be, the State has to prove aggravating
28 circumstances. He is not going to tell you whether the State
29 has proved them. You have got to determine that. You

1 understand what I'm saying?

2 A. Yes, sir.

3 Q. And then after that, if they get past that hurdle,
4 which they may not, right, because it is up to each juror
5 talking together to make a decision whether they get past
6 that hurdle; right?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Still you can't be sentenced to the death penalty
9 if the defense shows mitigating circumstances, in other
10 words, reason for life which outweigh the reasons for death.
11 Do you understand what I'm saying?

12 A. Yes, sir.

13 Q. So here is this law which allows a death penalty
14 still showing the sensitivity to life. Do you understand
15 what I'm saying?

16 A. Yes, sir.

17 Q. Okay, so and probably showing sensitivity, I would 18 guess, to the different fact that different people in this
19 community believe different things; right? Do you understand
20 what I'm saying?

21 A. Yes, sir.

22 Q. So then we get down to if they jump one, two, three
23 hurdles, if they jump all those hurdles, then they get down
24 to the point where the Judge, if I understood his instruction
25 and I think I did, is that there may be a point where he is 26 saying that you, that, you know, that if you find that they 27 have jumped these hurdles, then you should consider both 28 options. You understand what I'm saying?

29 A. Uh-hum.

1           Q.    You should consider life and you should consider
2 death. You are not going to say and I don't think the law
3 says you have got to give life, and the law is not going to 4 say you have got to give death. Do you see what I'm saying?

5           A.    Yes, sir.

6           Q.    The law is going to say, you know, those are the 7 options, and each individual juror here again has to come to 8 a conclusion in their mind that death is the option before
9 death can ever-- I mean, of course, like the Judge has 10 reminded me, each individual juror in consultation with the 11 other jurors. In other words, you can't just sit in the jury 12 room and say, you know, and then just, you know, you have to 13 talk to each other, you know, and you talk to each other.
14 But ultimately it's an individual decision for each
15 individual juror. And each individual juror has to say that 16 they feel under the circumstances after thoroughly
17 considering the case that the circumstances justify and 18 warrant the death penalty before a death penalty can ever be 19 given; right? Because if each individual juror doesn't agree
20 on it, it can't be given; right?

21          A.    Correct.

22          Q.    Okay, it can't be given. If any one person doesn't 23 agree on it after consultation, it can't be given. Do you
24 understand what I'm saying?

25          A.    Yes, sir.

26          Q.    Okay. So having described what I think and I'm not 27 trying to be tricky or anything and not being so arrogant to 28 think that we can rehabilitate you or bring you in any 29 direction, having just, you know, having that process

1 explained to you in that way about what I think is the law's
2 appreciation for the view on life, you know, okay, even
3 though it may not be what you want it to be. It may not be
4 what I want it to be, but it's at least there. The question
5 I would ask you that given that, can you follow that law and 6 can you get to-- could you follow that law and tell this 7 Court that you would follow that law and mean it and make the 8 prosecution jump all the hurdles if they can, you know, in 9 your judgment; right?

10 A. Uh-hum.

11 Q. And then if they ever do jump all the hurdles, can 12 you tell the Court that you would consider both options and 13 give the one that you felt was warranted? That's the
14 question.

15 A. So there is a difference in me saying I would 16 consider the two options and there is a difference in me
17 saying under no circumstances I would give the death
18 penalty? I mean are those two separate--

19 Q. Well, the issue is now-- and I don't think that it
20 is, I think that there is a difference in saying, first of 21 all, I think the way it is explained is because they want you
22 to understand is that what they are asking you to do is to 23 consider. And then but, of course, you really aren't 24 considering it if--

25 A. --I wouldn't be considering.

26 Q. --Okay, excuse me. You wouldn't be considering it
27 if you say well, look -- and I am just throwing out an 28 example here. If somebody who had just murdered six million
29 people were in the courtroom, you know what I'm saying?

1           A.    Yes.

2           Q.    Even under that circumstance, I would never give
3 it. If that was-- I mean I wouldn't even consider it
4 really. You know, I would just be sitting there waiting for 5 my chance to say life; right? You see what I'm saying? I
6 was just waiting there. That is not really--

7           A.    That would be me.

8           Q.    That is you?

9           A.    That would be me.

10          Q.    That is you, huh? You are sure that is you?

11          A.    Just waiting to say life.

12          Q.    Is that right?

13          A.    Sorry.

14          Q.    Okay, so I understand.

15                BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have no further questions.

16                BY THE COURT: Let me make sure I understand
17 and I think I do. You are saying that you would 18 consider it, but even after you considered it and 19 heard all the evidence and everything, you could 20 not impose the death penalty? Is that what you are 21 telling me?

22                BY MS. NELENNE HENSON: If I told you I was 23 actually considering the death penalty, I would be 24 telling you a story.

25                BY THE COURT: Okay, Ms. Henson, that is fair
26 enough. Thank you, ma'am.

27                BY MS. HENSON: You're welcome.

28                (Juror Ms. Nelenne Henson leaves the
29 courtroom.)

1                   BY THE COURT: Number 49, Ms. Rishel.

2                   (JUROR NUMBER 49, MS. DOROTHY DICKSON RISHEL
3 enters the courtroom.)

4                   BY MR. HORAN: May I proceed, Your Honor?

5                   BY THE COURT: Yes, sir. They are going to 6 ask you some follow up questions to what I asked
7 about the death penalty.

8                   BY JUROR MS. RISHEL: Yes, sir. Thank you.

9                   INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE BY MR. HORAN:

10                  Q. Mr. Rishel, as I recall, it has been a few hours
11 ago since you responded to the Court's question regarding the 12 death penalty. I believe you stated, and correct me if I am
13 wrong, but based on religious reasons that you were opposed
14 to the death penalty; is that correct?

15                  A. Correct. Yes, sir.

16                  Q. Okay, and that is not based on anything that has 17 happened to you in the past or anything like that, but as 18 your Christian belief prohibits you from imposing the death
19 penalty under any circumstances. Is that right, Ms. Rishel?

20                  A. Yes, sir. Correct.

21                  Q. And regardless of what the Court instructed you, if 22 you were selected to hear this case and if you got past the 23 guilt phase and got to the sentencing phase; you understand
24 that's what we are here for?

25                  A. Yes, sir.

26                  Q. Regardless of what the Court instructed you and 27 regardless of what other jurors, after consulting with them
28 and applying the facts to the jury instructions, absolutely
29 under no circumstances based on your response could you

1 impose the death penalty? Is that your answer here under 2 oath here today?

3 A. Correct. Yes, sir.

4 Q. And there is no instruction of law that could make 5 you change that?

6 A. No, sir.

7 BY MR. HORAN: No further questions.

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I just have a few questions.

9 INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE BY MR. LUMUMBA: (Ms. Dorothy Rishel.)

10 Q. Good afternoon.

11 A. Hi.

12 Q. Good afternoon. Brishel?

13 A. Rishel.

14 Q. Rishel, Rishel, right. And I am Chokwe Lumumba,
15 and I am representing Mr. Flowers. He is here helping us
16 along with my partner, Harvey Freelon, and our investigator,
17 Ervin Bradley. The only thing I guess I want to ask is 18 this. See, this is a period of time, this is why we bring 19 you in here to see if there is anything, any light can be 20 shed on anything that you didn't understand - and perhaps you
21 understand everything quite clearly - which would lead you to 22 say that you could be a juror; you could comply with the law
23 in the case; right?

24 A. (Juror Ms. Rishel nods her head.)

25 Q. And the only thing I guess I really want to 26 emphasize, and I can be corrected if I am wrong. But the law
27 never says that you have to impose the death penalty. Do you
28 understand? There is no law--

29 A. --Yes, sir. I understand that.

1           Q.    Okay, okay, all right. It basically and secondly,
2 the law does not even allow you to consider it unless several
3 things happen; right? One is there has to be a conviction
4 which overcomes the presumption of innocence; right?

5           A.    Right.

6           Q.    Secondly, even in the sentencing phase, if it ever
7 gets there, and we submit that it will never happen in this 8 case. But if it ever gets there, they have to show, they 9 have to prove a reason why there should be a death penalty.
10 That's what they call aggravating circumstances; right?

11          A.    Right.

12          Q.    Okay, and they have to prove that to you and other
13 jurors; right? And every juror has to agree on that, and I'm 14 not suggesting in any way that you are being less than 15 forthright about whether you can, whether it is possible for 16 them to prove that. But I just want you to know that they do
17 have to prove it to you and to other jurors. It's not 18 somebody else that they are proving it to, okay. The second
19 thing is that even if they do prove that there is some reason
20 for death, if the defense comes forth and shows reason for 21 life in any case which ever winds up considering this kind of 22 stuff and those reasons outweigh what they call the 23 aggravating circumstances, then you still can't consider
24 death. You can't even consider it?

25          A.    Right.

26          Q.    Only when you get past those two hurdles, three 27 hurdles - a conviction, aggravating circumstances, and the 28 mitigating circumstance issue will then the law turn to you
29 and say if you, the jury, carry yourself beyond those

1 hurdles, then you, the jury, have the right to give the death
2 penalty or life, whichever one that you determine is 3 warranted; right?

4 A. (No audible response).

5 Q. So I understand very well a person who has strong
6 opposition to the death penalty, and believe me, we are not
7 trying to change that opposition. But the question that I
8 have is this. I think that the law is built that way, and 9 the law even allows us to ask you these questions at this 10 time because its statement is that we are not trying to just 11 get people in here who believe in the death penalty; right?
12 Okay, but we have to have people regardless of what their 13 beliefs that are willing to comply with the procedures and go
14 through those procedures and make honest decisions. Do you
15 see what I'm saying?

16 A. (Juror Ms. Rishel nods her head.)

17 Q. So given all that, is your position that you cannot 18 consider the death penalty, or if given, if you made it
19 through all those hurdles, could you consider it and reach
20 the decision which you felt the evidence warranted? You know
21 what I'm saying? The evidence which you don't know anything
22 about at this point.

23 A. Right. My belief is that there would never be 24 circumstances that would warrant the death penalty in my 25 opinion. I don't believe the law is right. So I could never 26 vote for that.

27 Q. Okay, all right. And that's a religious belief?

28 A. Yes, sir.

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. Thank you. I have no

1 further questions.

2 BY THE COURT: Thank you, Ms. Rishel. You
3 need to step out, please. Number 56, Ms. Blakely.

4 (Juror Ms. Dorothy Rishel left the courtroom,
5 and JUROR NUMBER 56, MS. CATHERINE BLAKELY, entered
6 the courtroom.)

7 BY THE COURT: Have a seat up here, Ms.
8 Blakely. Ms. Blakely, the lawyers want to ask you
9 a few other questions about the death penalty.
10 Okay?

11 BY JUROR MS. BLAKELY: Yes, sir.

12 INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE BY MR. HORAN: (Ms. Catherine Blakely.)

13 Q. Ms. Blakely, how are you doing this afternoon?

14 A. I am fine.

15 Q. I recall your answer to the Judge's question that 16 you felt like you could impose the death penalty but only--
17 first you were hesitant to say that you could, and then you
18 said if the State proved that he was really guilty. Does
19 that--

20 A. No, I said if I.

21 Q. If we proved our case beyond a reasonable doubt,
22 but then you said, I believe -- our burden is to prove our 23 case beyond a reasonable doubt.

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. But I think your response was that if they proved 26 that he was really guilty.

27 A. Yes.

28 Q. What did you mean by that, Ms. Blakely?

29 A. (No immediate response.)

1           Q.    Would you apply a different standard of proof to a
2 death penalty case than you would any other case?    Would you
3 require the State to prove its case something other than 4 beyond a reasonable doubt simply because the death penalty
5 was an issue?

6           A.    No.

7                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:   Uh.

8                   BY MR. HORAN:   That is a proper question.

9                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:   Well, my objection is this.
10 Counsel's question is unclear.   I guess that is my 11 question.   I don't have a problem if he is talking
12 about the, what you call--

13                  BY MR. HORAN:   --I will rephrase it.

14                  BY THE COURT:   Rephrase it if you will.

15 BY MR. HORAN:

16           Q.    Ms. Blakely, would you apply a different standard 17 of proof to this case just because the death penalty is 18 involved?

19           A.    No.

20           Q.    You wouldn't hold us to a higher burden than you
21 would any other case?

22           A.    No.

23           Q.    The burden of proof.   And now I want you to 24 understand that I think the Court is going to instruct you
25 that the State has to prove its case beyond a reasonable
26 doubt.   I can't define that for you.   You have to decide that 27 on your own.

28           A.    Yes.

29           Q.    Counsel for the Defendant cannot decide that, and

1 the Court can't tell you what that means. That has to be
2 something in your own mind that you decide. Do you
3 understand that, Ms. Blakely?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And based on what the Court has asked you and what
6 I have asked you and what Mr. Evans has asked you, do you
7 feel like that you can impose the death penalty, or do you
8 have any scruples against the death penalty one way or the 9 other?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Do you have scruples against the death penalty, or 12 do you have an objection to the death--

13 A. --I have an objection maybe to the death penalty
14 concerning-- maybe it is me.

15 Q. Okay, well, explain that to me. I mean you explain
16 that to me what you mean by that.

17 A. Well, maybe I wouldn't want to, if I didn't know
18 somebody was, if I didn't know that they really was guilty, I
19 wouldn't want to be the one that sentenced them to death
20 maybe.

21 Q. Okay, that's what I was kind of asking you while 22 ago, Ms. Blakely. Do you understand that before you get to 23 the death question, you have to determine whether or not he 24 is guilty or not?

25 A. Yes.

26 Q. The first phase is called the guilt phase?

27 A. Yes.

28 Q. You don't even consider the death penalty. You are 29 not going to be instructed on the death penalty until after

1 the jury decides whether or not he is guilty or not?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Are you telling me, the Court, and Counsel for the 4 Defendant that you won't consider the death penalty until you
5 have made a decision on guilt or innocence?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Okay. Would you let your decision or the burden of 8 proof that we have as to his guilt or innocence be affected
9 by whether or not you will be charged with the responsibility
10 of deciding the death penalty?

11 A. (No response.)

12 Q. Do you understand my question? Would you let that 13 interfere with your decision on the first phase, whether or 14 not you have to make a decision at some point in time on the 15 death penalty? Would that change your opinion, your ability 16 to determine the guilt phase?

17 A. The death penalty, no, the death penalty would not 18 change my opinion to determine whether you are guilty.

19 Q. Okay, all right. That is fine. You would not let 20 that interfere with you one way or the other?

21 A. No.

22 BY MR. HORAN: I have no further questions.

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I just have a couple of short 24 ones really.

25 INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE BY MR. LUMUMBA: (Juror Catherine
26 Blakely).

27 Q. On your form I noticed that you indicated that you
28 were strongly in favor of the death penalty; right?

29 A. (Juror Ms. Blakely laughs.)

1 Q. Did you not?

2 A. Yes, I did say that.

3 Q. Okay, I understand. And secondly, I just want to 4 say this. You know, we asked a lot of questions about the
5 death penalty?

6 A. Uh-hum.

7 Q. Because this is a capital case and the Court is 8 required to ask some of these questions. Do you understand
9 what I'm saying? But one thing that I am concerned about,
10 and that's why I ask this question, is that we don't lose
11 focus. In other words, nobody here is eligible for the death
12 penalty as we sit here. Do you understand that?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Okay, in other words, they have got a long way to 15 go before they get any proof that will prove that. Do you
16 understand what I'm saying?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. So the question that is before us right now, and I
19 want to know if you can keep the focus on the fact that if 20 you are selected for the jury, that they would have to prove 21 Mr. Flowers did something, you know, did what was charged 22 before you could even get anywhere near considering any 23 sentence?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And would you be willing to afford him the 26 presumption of innocence and keep your focus on that?

27 A. Yes.

28 Q. During the trial, okay.

29 A. Yes.

1 Q. And we submit--

2 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, I object to that.
3 He can't say we submit anything. That is improper
4 for him to do that during voir dire or closing
5 arguments, what his opinion is, and he has been 6 doing it on every juror, and I object to it. It's 7 not proper.

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Actually, what is improper,
9 Judge, is to say "I believe" like Counsel did. I
10 say "We submit" because we submit it's the proper
11 form that they say. You can submit what you--

12 BY THE COURT: --All right, go ahead.

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

14 Q. We submit that you will never have to consider the 15 death penalty because he will never be convicted. Do you
16 understand?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Okay, but that is for the jury which is picked to 19 decide. Do you see what I'm saying?

20 A. (Juror Ms. Blakely nods her head.)

21 Q. Okay, and you would have no problem with being part
22 of a fair decision?

23 A. No.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, I have no further
25 questions.

26 BY THE COURT: Ms. Blakely, you have just said
27 that you would not let the fact that the death
28 penalty could be involved in this case affect how 29 you would vote as far as guilt or innocence; is

1                   that right? Isn't that what you said?

2                   BY JUROR MS. BLAKELY: Yes.

3                   BY THE COURT: Okay. Well, let's say it got 4                   to the point where there was a guilty verdict. And 5                   you will hear additional facts on what kind of 6                   sentence ought to be imposed in this case. And 7                   then I'm going to give you some instructions on the 8                   law that will tell you under what circumstances
9                   that you could even consider the death penalty.
10                  And at some point in time at that second phase of 11                  the trial it would be necessary that you consider 12                  either death or life. Can you consider both of 13                  those options? Can you look at the evidence and 14                  follow my instructions on the law, and if the 15                  evidence warrants it and the law says that you can 16                  do it, could you impose the death penalty?

17                  BY JUROR MS. BLAKELY: (Pause) Could I impose
18                  the death penalty if he was given a sentence of 19                  death or life? Is that what you--

20                  BY THE COURT: Your two options will be death
21                  or life if it gets to that point.

22                  BY JUROR MS. BLAKELY: Uh-huh.

23                  BY THE COURT: At that point, in other words,
24                  the first thing that happens is the jury goes back
25                  and they decide whether or not he is guilty or 26                  innocent. Obviously, if he is innocent or not 27                  guilty, we don't go any further. If the jury finds 28                  him guilty, then the jury must determine what the 29                  sentence is. They are going to have two options.

1           They are going to have an option of death, and they
2           are going to have the option of life, or life
3           without parole. At that second phase we are going
4           to do essentially what we did in the first phase.
5           The State is going to put on some evidence, and I
6           expect the Defendant to put on some evidence.
7           After they have done that, then I'm going to give 8           you some instructions that tell you what the law is 9           and tell you whether or not you can consider the 10          death penalty at all. If I give you that 11          instruction that says that you can, in fact,
12          consider the death penalty, then when you and the 13          other jurors go back there to determine what is 14          going to happen, you will have two options. You
15          will have the death penalty, or you will have life
16          without parole. Can you consider both of those 17          options and base your decision on the evidence as 18          you see it from the witness stand and the 19          instructions on the law that I give you?

20                BY JUROR MS. BLAKELY: (No response.)

21                BY THE COURT: Or can you not under any 22          circumstances give the death penalty?

23                BY JUROR MS. BLAKELY: No.

24                BY THE COURT: You cannot?

25                BY JUROR MS. BLAKELY: No.

26                BY THE COURT: Okay. Thank you, Ms. Blakely.
27          Number 61, Ms. Walker.

28                (Juror Ms. Catherine Blakely leaves the 29          courtroom, and JUROR NUMBER 61, MS. SYLVIA J.

1                   WALKER, enters the courtroom.)

2                   BY THE COURT: Ms. Walker, the attorneys want
3                   to ask you some further questions about the death
4                   penalty.

5                   INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE BY MR. HORAN: (Ms. Sylvia Walker.)

6                   Q.    Hello, Ms. Walker.  How are you doing?

7                   A.    Fine.

8                   Q.    You correct me if I am wrong, okay, Ms. Walker, but 9                   I recall that you responded to the Court's questions and I
10                  think one of Mr. Evans' questions that you had religious 11                  objections to judging anyone period; is that right?

12                  A.    Uh-hum.  Yes.

13                  Q.    As to guilt or innocence; right?

14                  A.    Yes.

15                  Q.    And I assume that that is something that-- that is 16                  your religious belief?

17                  A.    Yes.

18                  Q.    There is absolutely nothing wrong with that.  Now I
19                  want to ask you a second question.  Is there any instruction
20                  that the Court could give you that would change your personal 21                  opinion regarding the judgment of another human being?  Any 22                  instruction whatsoever?

23                  A.    No.

24                  Q.    Thank you, Ms. Walker.  And you also said that you
25                  had an objection to the death penalty.  Is that also on 26                  religious grounds?

27                  A.    Yes.

28                  Q.    If you would, Ms. Walker, please just explain to me
29                  your opinion regarding the death penalty.

1           A.    Well, in the Bible it says vengeance is mine, and 2 he will take care.

3           Q.    Right.

4           A.    That is my belief.

5           Q.    You feel like the Bible instructs you that it's the 6 Lord's, the Lord should take care of those type of matters;
7 right?

8           A.    Right.

9           Q.    That is outside of your hands?

10          A.    (Juror Ms. Walker nods her head.)

11          Q.    Is there any instruction of law that Judge Morgan
12 could give you that would change your religious opinion
13 regarding the death penalty?

14          A.    No.

15          Q.    And if you were selected and sat over here in the 16 jury box, it wouldn't matter what me and Mr. Evans presented,
17 what type of facts we presented, and you couldn't weigh that 18 against the instructions that the Court gave you. It
19 wouldn't really make any difference; right?

20          A.    No.

21          Q.    There is nothing that he could say or do that would 22 change your opinion?

23          A.    No.

24          Q.    And you could not lay that opinion aside?

25          A.    No.

26                       BY MR. HORAN: Thank you, Ms. Walker.

27   INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE BY MR. LUMUMBA: (Ms. Sylvia J. Walker.)

28          Q.    Good afternoon, Ms. Walker.

29          A.    Oh, okay.

1 Q. You have just got one more to go, one more to go.

2 A. Okay.

3 Q. Ms. Walker, I am Chokwe Lumumba, and I would like
4 to ask you just a few other questions. You, of course,
5 understand that this is a case which first of all, right now
6 Mr. Flowers is presumed innocent of whatever he is charged
7 with. Is that correct?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Okay, and you don't have a problem with that, do
10 you?

11 A. No.

12 Q. And you understand that even all this talk about 13 the death penalty does not take us away from that, is that 14 they have to do some heavy proving to prove guilt before you
15 even think about any death penalty. Do you understand what 16 I'm saying. You understand that?

17 A. I understand that.

18 Q. Okay, and we submit that that will never happen,
19 that they will never get there; right? They will never be 20 able to prove a case to the point where that will happen. Do
21 you understand that that's--

22 A. --yes.

23 Q. --our position, and that's why we are here. That is 24 why he has pled not guilty. Do you understand that?

25 A. (No response.)

26 Q. Do you understand that?

27 A. Yes.

28 Q. Okay. Now this is what the questions, now in any 29 case that has a capital murder, not just this one, so you can

1 even put this one aside. But in any case, you know, we ask
2 these questions about the death penalty to see whether jurors
3 can go along with what the law says. All right? You
4 understand that?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Okay. The law never says somebody has got to give 7 the death penalty; right? There is no law that says you have 8 got to give the death penalty. Do you understand that?

9 A. Yes. I guess.

10 Q. The law says that jurors, there are certain 11 circumstances after you get over a number of hurdles, if the 12 prosecution can clear all those hurdles, first of all, they 13 have got to prove that somebody is guilty; right?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. One hurdle; right? It's a big hurdle because it
16 has got to be beyond a reasonable doubt; right?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. The second thing is they have got to prove if they 19 go into the sentencing phase if they get there, they have got 20 to prove that there is some reason beyond just the 21 conviction. The conviction is not enough. They have got to 22 prove that there is an aggravating circumstance is what they 23 call it; prove that there is some reason for you to even 24 consider the death penalty. Do you understand what I'm
25 saying?

26 A. Uh-hum. Yes.

27 Q. And if they don't get past that, you can't even 28 consider the death penalty; right? The law will tell you
29 you can't consider it. The next thing is that even if they

1 get past that, then if there is mitigating circumstances, if
2 there is reasons that the defense offers which shows more
3 reason for life than for death, then you still can't consider
4 the death penalty. Do you understand what I'm saying?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Okay. Only if they get past those three areas,
7 they do all that jumping; right. Okay, if it gets past --
8 and each time they get to a hurdle it's the jurors that 9 determine whether they get past it. Do you understand what
10 I'm saying?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And you as a juror have, you know, you have to make 13 up your individual mind after you consult with the other
14 jurors. You know, they are going to say their opinion to you
15 and you say your opinion to them. But you have to make up
16 your individual mind, can't anybody tell you how to vote. Do
17 you understand what I'm saying?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Okay. But finally, even if you get to the point
20 where death is a possibility, where the Judge will say, look,
21 if you get past this, this and that, then you can consider
22 death. Nobody is saying you have got to give it. It's a
23 question that you have got to honestly consider. Do you
24 understand what I'm saying? Along with life. You have got 25 to consider death, and you have to consider life.

26 A. Yes.

27 Q. Now I'm not putting it like that to say well, you
28 know, be slick and hang back and, you know, just say you can
29 go along with the program. That's not what I'm doing. I am

1 just presenting it to you like that to let you know that the 2 law has some appreciation for the fact that some people don't 3 agree with the death penalty, and some people do agree with 4 the death penalty; right?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And even though the people who don't agree with it
7 might not be satisfied with what the law's position is at 8 this point and have every bit of right to go out and raise 9 some noise to try to get the law changed; right. The law is 10 still saying that we have some sensitivity to that position;
11 right?

12 A. Right.

13 Q. That life is valuable. Because the law is saying
14 that you have got to jump this hurdle and that hurdle and 15 that hurdle; right, okay, before you can even get there. Do
16 you see what I'm saying? And then even when you get there,
17 it is up to each individual juror to determine in these 18 circumstances it should be given. Do you understand what I'm 19 saying?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And if the juror says, if one juror says after 22 consulting with the other jurors that it shouldn't be given,
23 then it can't be given; right? Do you understand?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. So what I'm asking you because you have never sat
26 on a jury or had anything to do with capital--

27 A. No.

28 Q. Have you sat on a jury before at all?

29 A. No.

1           Q.    So I guess what I'm asking you, the law is not just
2 trying to get one type of people here. They want, you know,
3 anybody here that can participate in the process honestly;
4 right?

5           A.    Yes.

6           Q.    Okay. So what we are asking you is that can you,
7 understanding what your religious beliefs is and perhaps
8 understanding that the law has some sensitivity toward it,
9 also it has sensitivity toward the people that read the Bible
10 a different way; right?

11          A.    Yes.

12          Q.    Because there are people who do that; right?

13          A.    Yes. They interpret it differently.

14          Q.    Okay, and so understanding that it has sensitivity
15 to both positions, would you be able to come in and to follow
16 the law and make a decision at every level? Do you know what 17 I'm saying? If you felt it was, first of all, they have got 18 to prove before-- it's not up to you to make a case for 19 them. They have to make a case for themselves; right? Okay,
20 for you to sit there and see, is the case there; right?

21          A.    Yes.

22          Q.    And then get to every level and then if any case
23 you should ever wind up getting past all those hurdles, can 24 you sit there and consider both options, death and life and 25 then make a decision which the case warrants based on your 26 own mind and conscience and your view most importantly of the 27 evidence?

28          A.    I would still be against it.

29          Q.    You would be against it, but could you do it and

1 could you vote your conscience, and if it was warranted, vote
2 for it?

3 A. No.

4 Q. You couldn't do that.

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, thank you.

6 BY THE COURT: Thank you, Ms. Walker. You may
7 go outside. And that gets us to 71, Ms. Pickich.

8 (Juror Ms. Sylvia J. Walker leaves the
9 courtroom, and JUROR NUMBER 71, MS. LAURA M.
10 PICKICH, enters the courtroom.)

11 BY MR. HORAN: May I proceed, Your Honor?

12 BY THE COURT: Uh-hum.

13 INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE BY MR. HORAN: (Ms. Laura M. Pickich.)

14 Q. It Ms. Pickich; is that right?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Ms. Pickich, you indicated through the Court's 17 questioning process that you could not vote for the death
18 penalty under any circumstances; is that right?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Is there any instruction of law that the Court
21 could give you that would allow you to set aside your 22 conscientious scruples against the death penalty?

23 A. I have thought about it, and I just don't feel like 24 I could. I just don't think I can do that.

25 Q. Okay. I notice on your jury questionnaire that you
26 stated in your explanation that you don't think you could 27 vote yes for a death penalty for anyone because of my 28 religious beliefs. Is that why?

29 A. Yes, that is really.

1           Q.    Okay, there is nothing based on anything that has 2 happened to you in the past other than your religious 3 training?

4           A.    No.   Strictly religious training.

5           Q.    Okay.  Is there any, anything that the Court could 6 tell you or any instruction of law that would make you change
7 your opinion on the death penalty and whether or not you
8 could impose it if you thought the facts warranted it?

9           A.    No.

10                       BY MR. HORAN:  Thank you.

11                       BY MR. LUMUMBA:  Just a couple of questions.

12           INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE BY MR. LUMUMBA: (Ms. Laura Pickich.)

13           Q.    Ms., is it Pickett?

14           A.    Pickich.

15           Q.    Pickich, Pickich.  Okay, thank you, Ms. Pickich.  I 16 notice that when asked whether you, what your view was on the 17 death penalty, in your form you put generally opposed?

18           A.    I did.  I should have said strongly opposed.  I
19 guess I have never been faced with that question.

20           Q.    Right, never been faced with the question.  Really,
21 I mean you have never been faced with being put in a
22 situation.

23           A.    Right.  That's right.

24           Q.    But sometimes-- well, all I would like to do in my 25 questions is separate--

26           A.    Okay.

27           Q.    --what may be awesome weight of the possibility of 28 a death penalty, okay, from what you really and truly
29 believe.  You understand what I'm saying?

1           A.    Uh-hum.

2           Q.    In other words, what and, you know, it is always
3 very imposing when somebody comes in here and says can you
4 give the death penalty, you know. And sometimes you forget
5 that the man sitting over there hasn't been convicted of a
6 single thing. You know.

7           A.    Right.

8           Q.    You wouldn't do that, would you?

9           A.    No.

10          Q.    Okay, and you wouldn't shift your focus from the 11 fact that they have to prove their case and we have come in 12 here and pled not guilty, so our position is, our submission
13 is that they are not going to be able to do that; right? Do
14 you see what I'm saying? That is the first thing you have 15 got to get past; right?

16          A.    Yes.

17          Q.    Is the guilt or innocence?

18          A.    Right.

19          Q.    Okay, and you don't have any problem with that?

20          A.    No. No, I don't, not when--

21          Q.    --And even talking about death penalty doesn't give 22 you a problem with that?

23          A.    No.

24          Q.    Okay. Now the only other thing I'm going to say is 25 that if you were only opposed as opposed to strongly opposed
26 when you sat down calmly and thought about it, you know,
27 without the weight on you, is it possible - and this is what
28 I am raising - is that maybe understanding the law's
29 appreciation for life, I mean maybe it might not be as good

1 as you would want it to be or as good as I would want it to
2 be, but its appreciation for life is somewhat built into the 3 way that the case is tried. And this is what I mean. First
4 of all, before you can even think about a death penalty,
5 there has to be a conviction; right?

6 A. Right.

7 Q. But that is not enough. That is not enough.

8 A. Right.

9 Q. Even if you go on to the sentencing phase, they 10 have got to prove something before they can-- they have to 11 prove that there is reasons for death; right, before you can 12 even consider the death penalty?

13 A. Right.

14 Q. Okay. Say they do, which is a hurdle, a big 15 hurdle, because each individual juror has to make that 16 decision. The Judge is not going to tell you what they have 17 proved. He is going to just tell you what they are required
18 to prove, and then you have got to decide whether they have 19 proved it; right?

20 A. Right.

21 Q. Okay. Then even if they do, then if there is 22 mitigating factors that the defense presents, in other words,
23 reason for life and those factors outweigh the reasons for 24 death, you still can't consider death. Do you see what I'm
25 saying?

26 A. Right.

27 Q. Okay. So only if you get past those three hurdles,
28 A) somebody gets convicted, and our position is it won't 29 happen here. But if somebody gets convicted, secondly, they

1 prove an aggravating circumstance, and thirdly, they are 2 out-- you know, if the mitigating factors don't overcome the 3 aggravating factors; okay, in that particular situation, then
4 the focus becomes the jury can consider death; right? Not,
5 the law is not that the jury has got to give death; right?
6 Do you see what I'm saying? But it is just becomes the jury
7 can consider death at that point. And only if the jurors in 8 their own conscience focused mainly on-- I mean each person
9 has his own meter; right? Okay. But you have to be focused
10 mainly on the circumstances of the case; right? In other 11 words, they want you to be driven by the circumstances,
12 whether those circumstances, you think, justify it. And I am 13 asking you given all of that, can you go along with it and 14 make that decision?

15 A. Are you saying depending on the circumstances?

16 Q. Yes.

17 A. And maybe some other circumstance?

18 Q. Yeah. Yeah.

19 A. Might I decide, could I decide a death penalty?

20 Q. Yeah.

21 A. No. I don't, I am very strongly opposed to it, and 22 I should have changed that. But the more I sat and filled 23 out that questionnaire and thought about that, I should have 24 changed that.

25 Q. Okay, thank you.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have no further
27 questions.

28 BY THE COURT: Thank you, ma'am.

29 (Juror Ms. Laura Pickich left the courtroom.)

1                   BY THE COURT: Okay. Let's bring the jury
2 back, and I'm going to ask the spectators now, I
3 have got to have room for my jury to sit. I don't 4 mind you being in here, but you can't sit where the 5 jury is.

6                   BY MR. EVANS: How about the cause ones? Are 7 we going to do them before?

8                   BY THE COURT: No. I'm going to let you
9 finish your voir dire. Y'all come on.

10                   (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH WHILE THE JURY WAS 11 COMING IN BUT OUT OF THEIR HEARING AS FOLLOWS:)

12                   BY MR. EVANS: I just thought it might cut 13 some of mine.

14                   BY THE COURT: No, I'm going to cut y'all out
15 right now on that. These that we have talked, that 16 have now been individual voir died, that have been 17 individual voir dired on the death, there is no
18 point in going back into that at this point in
19 time.

20                   BY MR. EVANS: With them.

21                   BY THE COURT: Well, with them; right. If you
22 can raise some more. Now here is what my intention
23 is because of the hour. When y'all finish your 24 voir dire, then I was going to stop for the day. I
25 was going to-- then we will go over who we know we 26 are going to excuse for cause now. I'm going to 27 take, get them put back in this jury room. I will 28 bring the others jurors in here, give them their 29 instructions, and turn them loose for the night.

1                   How about that? That work for everybody?

2                   BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

3                   BY MR. FREELON: I don't understand that.

4                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: He is going to let them
5 finish their voir dire, and we will start tomorrow.

6                   BY THE COURT: Give y'all a fresh start.

7                                   END BENCH CONFERENCE

8                                   JURY IS PRESENT.

9                   BY THE COURT: Now y'all know what I mean by a
10 short break. (Laughter.) We won't go too much 11 longer today, but we have some further questions at 12 this time; the State does. And Mr. Evans, you can 13 proceed.

14                   BY MR. EVANS: Thank you, Your Honor.

15                   BY THE COURT: Oh, I'm sorry. Have we got 16 everybody? Okay, let's wait until we get them.

17                                   (Another juror enters the courtroom.)

18                   BY THE COURT: All right, Mr. Evans.

19                   BY MR. EVANS: The only problem is I may not 20 remember where I was.

21                   BY UNIDENTIFIED JUROR IN AUDIENCE: Uh-uh.

22                   BY JUROR MS. DENISE SHILSTONE: We will remind
23 you. You were just about to say we could go home.

24                                   (Laughter.)

25                   BY MR. EVANS: I don't have many more
26 questions, but I do have a few that I want to go
27 into, and I don't think these will take long.

28                   FURTHER VOIR DIRE BY MR. EVANS:

29                   In your questionnaires and in some of the questions

1     today several of y'all have made comments about having family
2     members or close personal friends that have been charged or 3     possibly convicted of crimes. I'm not going to go into those 4     because it really doesn't matter other than one question that 5     I want to ask. Is there anyone here today that because of 6     that feels that they could not be a fair and impartial
7     juror? Is there anyone that has a family member that 8     because of the fact that they may have been convicted, feels 9     well, you know, my family member went to the penitentiary,
10    and I don't like that and because of that, I'm not going to 11    be fair and impartial. I'm just going to automatically go in 12    there and do one thing or the other. Anyone at all? (No
13    response.)

14                 Okay. As the Judge has kind of gone into with you,
15    he is going to be the one that makes the decision of what law
16    applies in both phases of the trial, both in the guilt phase
17    and in the sentencing phase. But you, the jury--

18                 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Judge, I would object to 19    that. The statement assumes that there will be a 20    sentencing phase which is far, far from reality
21    right now.

22                 BY MR. EVANS: May I proceed, Your Honor?

23                 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I am objecting to the way it
24    has been stated. I think that it is prejudicial.

25                 BY THE COURT: Restate your question, Mr.
26    Evans.

27                 BY MR. EVANS: I think it's a straight, exact
28    comment of the law. The judge--

29                 BY THE COURT: --It may be. I just didn't

1                   hear it.

2       BY MR. EVANS:

3                   What the law is in the guilt phase and if we go
4 forward into the sentencing phase, the Judge will instruct
5 you as to what the law is. Does anybody have any problem
6 with that theory of law?

7                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: I don't have objection to 8 that. That was not what was said. He said "if."

9                   BY THE COURT: Did everybody understand that 10 question? Okay.

11       BY MR. EVANS:

12                   Of course, it's our contention that we will go
13 through the first phase, and we will put on our proof. Once
14 we have done that, we feel that we will go into the second
15 phase, but in either phase regardless, what I'm trying to 16 make sure that y'all understand is the Judge is the one that 17 determines what law you must follow. Anybody have any 18 problem with that? Other-- now I know that there are some 19 of you in this panel that have stated different reasons that 20 you don't feel that you could be fair and impartial already,
21 and I'm really not addressing my questions to those jurors.
22 It's the rest of the panel.

23                   Is there anyone here other than ones of you who 24 have already said there is some reason that you couldn't be 25 fair and impartial that would not follow the Judge's
26 instructions on either phase?

27                   Okay, that is what the Judge does. You as jurors, 28 the ones of you that are picked on this jury, you are the 29 ones that determine the facts. And you do that by listening

1 to the evidence and viewing physical evidence. Do each of 2 y'all understand that? Anyone have any problem with it?

3 We will put witnesses on this witness chair right
4 up here. Through those witnesses we will introduce evidence,
5 and that is what you make your decisions on. That will be 6 what you make your decision on as far as guilt or innocence,
7 nothing outside this courtroom but on the evidence that you
8 hear. Does everyone understand that? Okay.

9 Once we have put that on in the first phase, if the 10 jury convicts, then we go into the second phase. We will put 11 more evidence on. Once we have put that evidence on, then
12 the Judge again will instruct y'all on what the law is. Now
13 this is going to be kind of repetitious for some of you that 14 were in here on individual voir dire, but I'm going to go
15 through it as fast as I can.

16 Once we get to that point, the Judge will have a
17 long instruction that he is going to give to the jury. The 18 jury at that point will go down through that instruction. Of 19 course, at that point he will have already been convicted.
20 You will only be considering what the appropriate penalty
21 would be at that point. So the jury will follow that 22 instruction step by step to determine what the appropriate 23 penalty should be. In that instruction it is several 24 different sections in it. If you don't get past one section,
25 you can't go on to another, so you take it one section at a
26 time.

27 The first part of that instruction will tell the 28 jury that the State must prove one particular element for it
29 to go forward. That particular part that we must prove has

1 four separate parts to it: That the Defendant killed
2 someone; that the Defendant attempted to kill someone; that
3 the Defendant anticipated lethal force would be used. There
4 are four of them. The jury at that point will have to make a
5 determination. You stop everything else at that point and 6 decide that. Did the State prove one or all of these? We 7 have to prove at least one of those to you or the jury can't 8 go any further.

9 If we prove those to you, you write them in. The 10 Judge is going to tell you what to do with them, how to 11 write the verdict out. But you just take it step by step.
12 It is real simple. It is complicated in the fact that you
13 have to go through steps, but it's not that hard to do. The 14 jury foreman will write out which of those we have proven.
15 Once we have proven any of those, you go on to the next
16 phase.

17 In the next phase the Court will tell you what the 18 law in Mississippi considers aggravating circumstances. It
19 will be a little clearer when you get to that point and read
20 the instruction, but aggravating circumstances are the 21 reasons that the State of Mississippi authorizes the death
22 penalty as a possible punishment. You will look at that.
23 There will be one or two there. Again, the jury stops
24 everything they are doing at that point and looks at those.
25 Did the State prove these? The jury will make that 26 decision. The jury determines that we have proven the 27 aggravating factor or factors. Then you write that in where 28 the Judge tells you to write it in, and you go on to the next
29 step.

1           The next step - and you will have all this in front
2 of you to read. The next step is mitigating factors. That
3 is any reason that the defense may want to put on for a life
4 sentence as opposed to the death penalty. Those will be
5 listed for you, what to consider. The jury at that point
6 will stop everything again and go through those that the 7 Judge gives them. You will look at those.

8           Then you have a kind of a balancing test you have 9 to do. If the mitigating factors or reasons not to give the 10 death penalty outweigh the aggravating factors or reasons to 11 give the death penalty, then you just return a life
12 sentence. If the mitigating factors do not outweigh the 13 aggravating factors, you may go forward and consider the 14 death penalty.

15           Then at that point by that instruction and by your 16 deliberations, the Court is telling you that the death
17 penalty is a possible penalty that you can reach. Then you 18 just simply make a decision of which one to give.

19           Do each of y'all understand though, as we kind of 20 went into a little bit earlier, this is not a situation where 21 at this point anybody could automatically say, yeah, I could 22 do this or I could not do that because you have to follow the 23 law. And the law specifically tells you step by step how to 24 go through these things. Is there anyone here that would not 25 follow the Court's instructions and would not go through 26 those steps? (No response).

27           This is another question that we usually, I think
28 sometimes the Judge goes into it. I don't believe he did
29 this time. It really doesn't make any difference unless it

1 would affect a juror. How many of y'all are related to other
2 prospective jurors that are sitting out here on the panel?
3 Anyone?

4 Okay, number 46 and number 55. Are y'all related
5 to each other?

6 A. (BY JUROR 46, MR. PERRY J. TAYLOR) Father-in-law.

7 Q. Your father-in-law is number 55?

8 A. Right.

9 Q. All right, is there anything about that that would 10 affect either one of you?

11 A. (Both Jurors 46, Mr. Taylor, and 55, Mr. Sallis, 12 shake their heads.)

13 Q. And the way I hear this question asked a lot, if 14 y'all were both picked on the jury, and I will start with 15 you; you are number 46?

16 A. (BY JUROR 46, MR. PERRY J. TAYLOR) Yes.

17 Q. If you were back there, would you make up your own
18 mind as to what the evidence is and not be influenced by a
19 relative?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Okay, and number 56?

22 BY THE COURT: 55.

23 BY MR. EVANS: 55.

24 Q. Mr. Sallis, I will ask you basically the same
25 question. Since y'all are relatives, if y'all both ended up
26 on this jury panel, are you telling us that you would make 27 your decision based on the evidence as you saw it and not let 28 your relative influence you?

29 A. (BY JUROR 55, MR. OTHA BELL SALLIS) Correct.

1           Q.    Now again, and this-- I don't want to sound like
2   I'm contradicting myself, but this is the law. The law is
3   that each of you if picked as jurors will make your own
4   decision as to guilt or innocence, and if we go into the 5   second phase, as to what penalty is proper. But the law says
6   that you should consult with other jurors before making that
7   decision.

8                   Is there anyone here today and again, I know some 9   of you have already stated different reasons that you
10  shouldn't serve, but other than those, is there anyone else
11  here today that feels that they could not listen to the 12  evidence and make a decision based on the evidence in the 13  case? Anyone at all? (No response.)

14                  Now again, I am not asking any of the death penalty
15  questions, I'm not asking any of them to the ones that came 16  in on individual voir dire. These are for the rest of the 17  panel. Is there anyone other than the ones that have 18  answered that have any close friends or relatives that are 19  definitely opposed to the death penalty? (No response).

20                  The burden of proof is always on the State of 21  Mississippi. We accept that burden. That is what the law
22  is, and that's the way it should be. Is there anyone here
23  today though that would put a higher burden of proof on us
24  just because this is a capital case that could possibly carry
25  the death penalty?

26                  The reason I ask it like that, the burden of proof
27  is the same on a capital case as it would be on a grand 28  larceny or burglary or anything else. The burden is not any 29  higher on us in a capital murder case just because it is

1 capital murder. Is there anyone here that would require of 2 us a higher burden because this is a capital case?

3 When we go through these, I think it is for you to 4 know that if we go into the sentencing phase, the Judge will
5 instruct you that you must select from the ones that are back
6 there, the twelve jurors that are back there, a foreman.
7 That foreman by law will be required to sign the form of the 8 verdict. Is there anyone here today that feels that, well,
9 if I had to actually put my signature down there to it, I
10 couldn't do it; I couldn't serve? Anyone here that that 11 would affect? (No response.)

12 And as kind of a follow up, is there anyone here
13 other than the ones that have already stated reasons that 14 know of any reason that they could not be a fair and 15 impartial juror? (No response.)

16 BY MR. EVANS: Tender the panel, Your Honor.

17 BY THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, the State
18 has done their voir dire, and because of the hour
19 and all, we are going to start with the Defense
20 part of the voir dire in the morning. I have got a
21 couple of things I have got to do before I let you
22 go. If y'all will bear with me just a few more
23 minutes, then I'm going to let you go for the 24 night. I have some instructions for you concerning 25 that when I bring you back in here. I'm going to 26 ask if the jurors would step out of the room for 27 just a few minutes.

28 (OFF THE RECORD WHILE THE JURORS LEFT THE
29 COURTROOM.)

1                   BY THE COURT: Okay, gentlemen. I'm going to 2                   give you the ones that I have got for cause first
3                   that said that they could not be fair and 4                   impartial. If you have any disagreement with the 5                   ones I say, you let me know; okay?

6                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: If you will wait just one
7                   second, Judge. Let me find my sheet. (Pause)
8                   Okay, Judge.

9                   BY THE COURT: Okay, I have number 1; I have 10                  number 7; I have number 14; I have number 22,
11                  number 24, number 29, number 47.

12                  BY MR. EVANS: One second, Judge, if you don't 13                  mind. (Pause) Okay, Judge, I'm sorry.

14                  BY THE COURT: Okay. Number 51, number 65, 15                  number 66, number 68, and number 74. All of those 16                  people stated subject to my questions that they 17                  could not be fair and impartial. They had 18                  different reasons, some of them did, but they said
19                  that. Any objection to those for cause?

20                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have no objection.

21                  BY MR. HORAN: Judge, what was the reasoning
22                  behind number 24, Ms. Bailey?

23                  BY THE COURT: Mr. Horan, I will be honest
24                  with you. I would have to just go back and pull 25                  the record on it. All of them that said that they 26                  could not be fair and impartial I marked at that 27                  time with a "C" by them.

28                  BY MR. EVANS: That is all right. I have a
29                  "C" by her too.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: She did say she couldn't be
2 fair and impartial.

3 BY THE COURT: Okay. Now before we get into 4 the death part of it, any of y'all have any for 5 cause other than the death qualification?

6 BY MR. EVANS: Just one second, Your Honor.

7 BY THE COURT: Well, wait a minute. I don't
8 want to do it that way because he has not had a
9 chance to voir dire.

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Right, right.

11 BY THE COURT: That wouldn't be right.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Right, right.

13 BY MR. HORAN: Did you say 43?

14 BY MR. EVANS: You want to do just the death
15 penalty?

16 BY THE COURT: Let's do the ones that we have,
17 the eleven that have been voir dired.

18 BY MR. EVANS: All right, sir.

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah.

20 BY MR. EVANS: Do you want to go ahead and 21 give us yours on those?

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I think the appropriate thing
23 would be to do the ones, in my view, would be to do
24 the ones that we can agree on since I haven't had a
25 chance to voir dire.

26 BY THE COURT: Oh, absolutely. We are going
27 to do that--

28 BY MR. EVANS: --He voir dired the ones on the 29 death penalty.

1                   BY THE COURT: Yeah, that's what we are
2 talking about. We are talking about the eleven
3 that we voir dired.

4                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, yeah. I think I can
5 agree on some of those, but what I'm saying--

6                   BY MR. EVANS: --That is the only ones we are 7 doing right now.

8                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: All right, okay. But anyway, 9 so we are agreeing on the ones that you just called
10 before.

11                   BY THE COURT: Right.

12                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

13                   BY THE COURT: Now.

14                   BY MR. EVANS: Do you want to go ahead and 15 give us the ones that you have got for cause on--

16                   BY THE COURT: --Well, I think really to tell 17 you the truth, I think the appropriate way would be 18 for y'all to tell me which ones you have for cause,
19 and then they will have some.

20                   BY MR. EVANS: All right, sir. We have number 21 2.

22                   BY THE COURT: All right, let's just go one at 23 a time. All right. What is your response to 24 that?

25                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Number 2 is Eva Green.
26 Judge, I am going to agree that she had a strong
27 position against the death penalty. I am fighting
28 this eternal battle against that being sufficient
29 cause to exclude a juror. So I, you know--

1                   BY THE COURT: --I think you made your record
2 on it.

3                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, I made my record, so
4 I'm not, I don't want to be put in a position I
5 have got to agree she should be excluded, but I'm 6 not arguing with the facts that is on the record.

7                   BY THE COURT: Okay. I'm going to excuse her
8 for cause then. And I understand where you're 9 coming from on the others, Mr. Lumumba.

10                  BY MR. EVANS: Number 4.

11                  BY THE COURT: Same position?

12                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, she had basically the 13 same position if I remember right.

14                  BY THE COURT: Okay.

15                  BY MR. EVANS: Number 5.

16                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Wait, hold it, hold it. My 17 partner had something else.

18                  (Pause while Defendant's Counsel confer
19 briefly.)

20                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, our position on her is 21 we would voice a position on her because I am told 22 that she kept using the term "don't think," "don't 23 think," and she never really committed herself to 24 the position. She didn't seem to be as firm. So
25 that would be our objection to her.

26                  BY THE COURT: I think she met the test. I'm 27 not going to excuse her for cause. Okay.

28                  BY MR. EVANS: Which one?

29                  BY THE COURT: 5.

1 BY MR. EVANS: Oh, okay. I thought they were
2 still talking about 4.

3 BY THE COURT: No. 4 I have excused for
4 cause.

5 BY MR. EVANS: All right.

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: But 5 you are not going to 7 excuse. Okay.

8 BY MR. EVANS: Number 23.

9 BY THE COURT: Same position, Mr Lumumba?

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA: 23. Is that the next one?

11 BY THE COURT: Ms. McClelland.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Ms. McClelland, yeah, I would 13 take the same position with Ms. McClelland I have 14 taken on the other ones.

15 BY THE COURT: Okay. I think at the end she 16 became definite on her answer, and I excuse her for 17 cause.

18 BY MR. EVANS: Number 43.

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: If you can refresh my 20 recollection.

21 BY THE COURT: She was the lady up here, I
22 believe she had on a blue top, and she was very 23 definite in her opinion.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Oh, yeah.

25 BY THE COURT: Same position?

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, same position. She is 27 not the one that changed from her form? She is not 28 the one that changed from her form.

29 BY THE COURT: No. The one that wanted to go

1 from general to strong?

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Right.

3 BY THE COURT: She is later.

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. Okay.

5 BY THE COURT: But this lady was very adamant
6 about--

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Well, I would have the same
8 position as to why she shouldn't be excused.

9 BY THE COURT: Okay. I'm going to excuse her
10 for cause.

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: That is number 43?

12 BY THE COURT: Uh-huh.

13 BY MR. EVANS: The next one would be number
14 49.

15 BY THE COURT: This was the lady that had 16 religious scruples - long hair, pony tail.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, I remember. The same
18 position.

19 BY THE COURT: Okay, I think she had a
20 definite position too. She is excused for cause.

21 BY MR. EVANS: 56 is next.

22 BY MR. HORAN: She is the one that stated
23 affirmatively, at the very end the Court asked her
24 affirmatively, and she said no, she could not 25 impose the death penalty.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, Judge, I would have to 27 voice a stronger objection to that one because she 28 did go back and forth on it. But in her position
29 on the form is that she strongly supported it. I

1 don't think she is settled yet, you know, where she
2 is, and I think that we should at least have until
3 the end of the voir dire at least until I finish
4 asking questions. I would have more of an
5 objection with her because she did at one point
6 actually said she could go with the law. She at 7 another point said, and actually her point wasn't
8 really clear coming out of the stands, I mean
9 coming out of the seats.

10 BY THE COURT: My opinion is she was very 11 definite in what she did, but I will retain her
12 until we get completely through with the voir dire,
13 and you can renew your objection.

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

15 BY THE COURT: Did I say voir dire? You got 16 me doing it.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: What is it, Judge?

18 BY THE COURT: I don't know. I just always 19 called it voir dire. You are probably right.

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I don't know.

21 BY THE CLERK: I think either way is correct.

22 BY THE COURT: Yeah, I have heard it both 23 ways.

24 BY MR. EVANS: The next one will be number
25 61.

26 BY THE COURT: Okay, that is Ms. Walker. Ms.
27 Walker never did get to the death penalty thing.
28 She said that she had a religious belief that would 29 prohibit her from passing judgment in any case.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah. Well, that is the same
2 position as I had on the other ones.

3 BY THE COURT: Okay. I'm going to excuse 61
4 for cause.

5 BY MR. EVANS: The next one will be number 71.

6 BY THE COURT: And that was the last lady who
7 I believe also had religious beliefs.

8 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, is that the last one
10 that was up here?

11 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, same position.

13 BY THE COURT: Okay. I'm going to excuse her
14 for cause. Okay.

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can we go back over?

16 BY THE COURT: Yeah, I know you have got a
17 couple at least.

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Oh, yeah. The gentleman,
19 Mr., 31-- I'm not necessarily taking these in 20 order, but 31 is Maynard.

21 BY THE COURT: Right.

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I would ask that he be 23 excused for cause. He clearly showed that he does
24 not really-- he is not ready to follow the burden
25 of proof which is that we would have to prove that
26 the death penalty should not be imposed as opposed
27 to them proving it should be.

28 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, that is basically 29 the instruction is going to tell them that. The

1 mitigating--

2 BY MR. EVANS: --He said he could follow the 3 Court's instructions.

4 BY THE COURT: Yeah, but I listened to him and
5 listened to him and listened to him, and Mr.
6 Maynard is predisposed, and I'm going to excuse
7 him.

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA: And on the death penalty
9 question I would also raise it as to Mr., the other 10 gentleman that we brought in here. What was his 11 name?

12 BY MR. HORAN: Patrick Connor, number 40.

13 BY THE COURT: Number 40.

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Number 40. I think he was 15 very clear in the audience, and Counsel did a good
16 job of working with him, but then in the final
17 analysis I think he basically pretty much admitted
18 that he would give the death penalty under any 19 circumstances.

20 BY THE COURT: I'm going to excuse him for 21 cause. Okay.

22 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, just for the record
23 I would like to object to that because I think he 24 stated he could follow the Court's instructions,
25 and I think under the law in Mississippi if anybody
26 follows the law, then they consider the death
27 penalty as an appropriate punishment.

28 BY THE COURT: I agree with that, but that is 29 not all of what he said.

1 BY MR. HORAN: We would object to Mr. 31 too,
2 Mr. Maynard, for the record.

3 BY THE COURT: The objection is noted.

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, can we go back over--
5 now those are the only ones we really covered. Can
6 we go back over the ones that have been excluded
7 and make sure I have got it right?

8 BY THE COURT: Yeah. I am going to go by 9 number, okay?

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

11 BY THE COURT: 1, 2, 4, 7, 14, 22, 23, 24, 29,
12 31, 40--

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Hold it, Judge.

14 BY MR. EVANS: I can't keep up either.

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: You are going fast there.
16 I'm not a clerk.

17 BY THE COURT: And it's getting late, boys.

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: The last one I got was 22,
19 right?

20 BY THE COURT: Okay, then 23, 24.

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, I got that.

22 BY THE COURT: 29, 31, 40, 43, 47, 49, 51, 61,
23 65, 66, 68, 71, and 75 [sic]. That conform to 24 y'all's list?

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA: 74.

26 BY THE CLERK: I have 74.

27 BY THE COURT: I thought I said 74, did I not?
28 What did I say? 75? I'm sorry; I have got 74.
29 That's right. Okay. Ron-- are y'all in agreement

1 with what I just said as far as being the numbers?

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes.

3 BY THE COURT: If you will, take my list; I
4 have marked them on here. You may have too, but I
5 have got them marked here. Take those jurors and 6 take them back to the jury room for me and tell
7 them we will be right with them. You can bring the 8 rest of them in.

9 JURORS ENTER THE COURTROOM except for the 10 numbers stated previously.

11 BY THE COURT: Have we got everybody? I'm 12 going to call the names off-- I mean call some 13 numbers off. If I call your number off, hold up
14 your hand. Number 1, number 2, number 4, number 7,
15 number 14, number 22, number 23, number 24, number
16 29, number 31, number 40, number 43, number 47,
17 number 49, number 51, number 61, number 65, number
18 66, number 68 -- which is that? Number 66?

19 BY JUROR 66, MR. NATHAN O. WEBB: Yes, sir.

20 BY THE COURT: Mr. Webb, you need to come up
21 here and go with the constable-- I mean the 22 bailiff, excuse me.

23 (Juror 66, Mr. Webb leaves the courtroom.)

24 BY THE COURT: Number 68, number 71, and
25 number 74. All right, now that I have got y'all
26 seated again, I'm going to get you to stand up, and 27 we have got an oath we want to give you, and the 28 important part of this is it's what I get you paid
29 with. So if y'all will stand up and let her give

1           you one more oath.

2           BY THE CLERK: Raise your right hands. Do you
3           and each of you solemnly swear or affirm you will
4           well and truly try all issues and execute all writs
5           of inquiry that may be submitted to you by the 6           Court during the present week and true verdicts
7           render according to the law and the evidence so
8           help you God?

9           BY ALL JURORS: I do.

10          BY THE COURT: You may be seated. I am
11          getting ready to release you until 9 o'clock in the 12          morning, and I need for you to all be here at 9:00
13          so we can try to get started promptly. You have 14          still heard nothing about this case from the 15          witness stand, so you are not to form any opinions
16          about this case whatsoever nor are you to discuss
17          it with anybody, including amongst yourselves. You
18          are not even to talk about it.

19          When you get home tonight, some of you are 20          going to have your family, and they are going to 21          say, "Well, what have you been doing all day?" And 22          you say, "I have been up at the courthouse, but 23          Judge Morgan said I couldn't tell you anything
24          else." When you get through with this, you can 25          tell them anything you want to, but you can't talk
26          to them about it now. You can't allow anybody to 27          come up to you and talk to you about it.

28          If anybody should try to contact you overnight
29          about this case, I want to know that the first

1           thing in the morning, and I will deal with it. If
2           they do do that, you do not listen to them. You
3           hang up the phone or get away from them if they are 4           around you. I don't think that is going to happen,
5           but if it does, I have got to know about it.

6           You should not watch news coverage of this 7           event nor should you read news coverage of this 8           event. There again, I do not think from just my 9           observation of what has gone on in the courthouse,
10          I do not think you are going to see that, but if 11          you do, you are not to pay any attention to it.

12          Do either of lawyers have any further
13          instructions for the jury?

14          BY MR. EVANS: None from the State, Your
15          Honor.

16          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Your Honor, can we approach?

17          BY THE COURT: Sure.

18          (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
19          THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

20          BY MR. LUMUMBA: There was a reporter in here
21          today.

22          BY THE COURT: She is from Winona, and that 23          paper will not come out until Wednesday.

24          BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, I'm not talking about 25          her. There was a gentleman that came in and talked
26          to Mr.--

27          BY MR. EVANS: --Yeah. Somebody came in right
28          after lunch and asked both of us how to get in 29          touch with us.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah.

2 BY MR. EVANS: I don't know who he is with.

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: So I am just telling you
4 that--

5 BY THE COURT: --There might be some, okay.
6 Do you want any further instructions other than 7 what I have given?

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, I think you did all you
9 can, but I am just making you aware.

10 BY THE COURT: Okay.

11 BY MR. EVANS: Did you tell them not to read 12 or--

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Not to read. I think he--

14 BY THE COURT: Yeah. I will say it again.

15 END BENCH CONFERENCE.

16 BY THE COURT: My understanding is that there
17 might have been some news media here from the 18 coast. If they did, I didn't know about it. I'm 19 going to ask, if you will, not to read any 20 newspaper until we get through with this voir dire,
21 and we will be through with it tomorrow, I am
22 confident. And I just as soon you did not listen
23 to or watch any television although I didn't see 24 any cameras, so I don't think anybody is going to 25 be on television. But just do not expose yourself
26 to any media coverage of this because you have to 27 remain fair and impartial. You have to be in a
28 position to decide this case from this witness
29 stand, from those, that evidence and those facts

1           that come from that witness stand.

2           Now the final instruction I have got is before
3           you had gotten a number to call in to see whether 4           you had to be here and all like that. If you have 5           still got that number, whatever you do, do not call
6           that number tonight. There are instructions on 7           there, but they are for other jurors in other
8           cases. My instructions to you is that we will 9           begin in the morning promptly at 9 o'clock.

10          With those instructions, I will see you then,
11          and I appreciate y'all's patience today.

12          BY A JUROR IN AUDIENCE: Do we take our 13          numbers?

14          BY THE COURT: No, just leave them in your 15          seats. That will be fine.

16          JURY LEFT THE COURTROOM. MR. FREELON AND THE 17          DEFENDANT BOTH LEFT THE COURTROOM.

18          BY THE COURT: Wait a minute. Let's make sure 19          I don't have any jurors in here. Okay, and the 20          Defendant is not in here.

21          BY MR. LUMUMBA: What is it you wanted to talk
22          about?

23          BY MR. HORAN: About the motion in limine.
24          Are you going to put on any evidence in the morning
25          on these motions in limine? Is there anybody that 26          we need to have any rebuttal witnesses, or are we 27          just going to take off in the morning or what?

28          BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, I think the motion in 29          limine that we have I think is based upon the

1 transcripts of the last trial which you all should
2 be fairly well familiar with.

3 BY THE COURT: Of course, I'm not going to 4 tell either one of you how to put your case on one
5 way or another. Mr. Lumumba indicated to me that 6 the primary purpose of it was to make his record on
7 that.

8 BY MR. HORAN: So we are not--

9 BY THE COURT: But I'm not committing one way
10 or another now. I just sit up here.

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I understand.

12 BY MR. HORAN: That is it then.

13 BY THE COURT: Okay. All right, gentlemen.

14 BY MR. HORAN: What time we got to be here in 15 the morning?

16 BY THE COURT: We have got to be here at 9
17 o'clock. Everybody is on the coast, aren't they,
18 Mr. Lumumba?

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, we are here.

20 BY THE COURT: Okay. I will see y'all at 9:00
21 then.

22 COURT WAS ADJOURNED ON MARCH 22, 1999, AT
23 APPROXIMATELY 6:15 P.M.

1 (COURT WAS REOPENED ON TUESDAY, MARCH 23,
2 1999, AND WITH THE COURT, ALL COUNSEL, THE DEFENDANT, AND THE 3 JURY PANEL ALL PRESENT, THERE WAS THE FOLLOWING:)

4 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
5 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

6 BY MR. HORAN: Mr. Cole is supposed to have
7 his questionnaire with him.

8 BY THE COURT: The one that didn't have a
9 questionnaire that--

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Oh.

11 BY THE COURT: --got here maybe by mistake.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

13 BY MR. HORAN: See if we can get that 14 questionnaire before we start.

15 BY THE COURT: Okay.

16 END BENCH CONFERENCE.

17 BY THE COURT: Mr. Cole, Mr. Tyron Cole. Have 18 you got your questionnaire with you?

19 (Juror 27, Mr. Tyron D. Cole, holds up his 20 questionnaire.)

21 BY THE COURT: All right. Will one of y'all
22 get it for me, please.

8 (MR. LUMUMBA APPROACHED THE BENCH.)

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, I'm going to run to 10 the back. I don't have these. She may not have 11 done number 50, but I don't have questionnaires.

12 BY THE COURT: You are talking about 13 questionnaire? Okay, looks like we are going to 14 have a minute. Go ahead.

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, so I will just go on?

16 BY THE COURT: Sure.

17 END BENCH CONFERENCE.

18 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir. Yeah, you can. You
19 can come up here.

20 (A juror approaches the bench.)

21 BY THE COURT: Mr. Evans, Mr. Freelon. Juror
22 number 11 wants to see me just a second.

23 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH WITH JUROR 11, MR.
24 WINSTON O. WARDEN, PRESENT:)

25 BY JUROR 11, MR. WARDEN: I don't know how you
26 feel about having somebody on the jury with the 27 flu. I thought I could shake this joker last 28 night, but it didn't shake too swift.

29 BY THE COURT: Well, hang on a little bit and

1                   let me see where I am, okay?

2                   BY JUROR MR. WARDEN: All right.

3                   END BENCH CONFERENCE.

4                   (Off the record briefly while waiting on the 5 two absent jurors until Mr. Horan approached the 6 bench for the following:)

7                   BY MR. HORAN: They have got jurors across the 8 hall. They have had three show up.

9                   BY THE COURT: That were supposed to be here
10 yesterday?

11                  BY MR. HORAN: That's what she is telling me.

12                  BY THE COURT: No, I need for them to stay
13 because I don't know whether or not we are going to 14 have enough jurors.

15                  BY MR. HORAN: I will go tell her. They sent 16 them across over here to this office.

17                  BY THE COURT: Okay, who are you talking to?

18                  BY MR. HORAN: One of the deputies. I walked
19 in to make copies. She said they had three 20 jurors--

21                  BY THE COURT: --Okay, let me ask whoever it
22 was that you talked to to come see me just a
23 second.

24                  END BENCH CONFERENCE.

25                  BY THE COURT: Okay. Ms. Young came in?

26                  BY JUROR MS. YOUNG: Yes.

27                  BY THE COURT: Okay. And how about Ms.
28 Smith?

29                  BY JUROR MS. SMITH: Yes.

1           BY THE COURT: All right, we are set. Bear
2 with me just a minute. I have got to talk to one
3 of the clerks.

4           (The Court left the bench briefly and went
5 into the Clerk's office. Upon his return, there
6 was the following in open court with all Counsel,
7 the Defendant, and the jury present:)

8           BY THE COURT: All right, Mr. Lumumba.

9           BY MR. LUMUMBA: We ready, Judge?

10          BY THE COURT: You can turn it around if you
11 want to.

12          (NOTE: Referring to the podium.)

13          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Good morning, everybody.

14          BY THE JURORS: Morning.

15          VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

16                 Good to see you fresh. You have got one big loud
17 Good Morning today. I am Chokwe Lumumba. My name is like 18 some of yours. People mispronounce it all the time; right?
19 So say that with me. Chokwe.

20                 BY THE JURORS: Chokwe.

21                 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Lumumba.

22                 BY THE JURORS: Lumumba.

23          BY MR. LUMUMBA:

24                 Okay. But anyway, I appreciate it. What we are 25 going to do now is ask you some questions that we think we 26 would like to ask. Everyone understands this is a very 27 serious trial; is that correct?

28                 So we would like to ask some questions because 29 these questions are not meant to intrude, to embarrass you in

1 any way, and if any question by the way that you want to 2 answer and you prefer to answer it at the bench rather than 3 in the audience, feel free. You know, just let me know, and 4 if you have any questions for the Judge, I am sure that he
5 will entertain it as long as we do it in that manner.

6 So I'm going to ask you questions, and one of the 7 questions I wanted to ask; it came to my attention that juror
8 number 11, Mr. Winston Warden, someone said that you are not 9 feeling good? You have the flu?

10 A. (BY JUROR 11, MR. WINSTON O. WARDEN) Yeah. I
11 think so.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. Can we approach the 13 bench on that?

14 BY THE COURT: Sure.

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, can you move?

16 BY THE COURT: He has already talked to me.
17 I know what he is going to say.

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Oh, I'm sorry. I'm sorry.
19 Oh, I'm sorry. No, I don't need to approach. I
20 thought you didn't know.

21 BY THE COURT: No, he has talked to me.

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, I'm sorry. All right.

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

24 Now Mr. Warden, as long as I have asked that 25 question, you are feeling quite badly? Is that--

26 A. (BY JUROR 11, MR. WARDEN) Oh, yeah. Knocks the 27 hell out of me.

28 Q. Okay, you feel that you need some relief; is that
29 correct?

1           A.    True.

2           Q.    Okay, would that--

3           A.    I believe I can get somebody to shoot me.

4                   (Laughter.)

5                   BY UNIDENTIFIED JUROR IN THE BACK:  Wrong
6           answer.

7                   (Laughter.)

8  BY MR. LUMUMBA:

9           Q.    We can't do that, but in any event, if you are 10   feeling the way you are feeling now, it would be difficult
11   for you to concentrate on the case and things of that nature.
12   Is that true?

13          A.    (BY JUROR 11, MR. WARDEN)  Yes.

14          Q.    Okay.  I am sure the Judge will get back to that.
15   Okay, now let me say something to all of you.  Okay, first of 16   all, this is, because of the nature of this case, does 17   everybody understand that all you have heard about here is 18   today the Judge-- and the Judge did what I thought was very 19   good indicating to you that what this is, this comes up in an 20   indictment.  And that is all that is, is a charge.  Do you
21   understand what I'm saying?  And sometimes people are 22   charged with things that they did not do.  Does everybody
23   agree with that?  Anybody that does not agree with that, give 24   me a hand raise.  (No response.)

25                And Mr. Flowers here has pled not guilty.  No, no,
26   no is our position; right.  He has pled not guilty saying
27   that what is charged as to him now is not true.  Does 28   everyone understand that?  And this is a case where because 29   of the burden of proof, these folks sitting at this table,

1 they bring the charge here. And this is kind of like, the
2 law is kind of like the State of Missouri, show me, all
3 right. So if you bring it, then you have got to prove it.
4 You know, that's what it is; right? And if it is not proven,
5 then the proper verdict would be what?

6 BY JURORS: Not guilty.

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Not guilty, okay. So we
8 submit that that will be the case here. And the only reason
9 I raise that at this time is because see, this is a difficult
10 thing we have here in our society and in any society where it
11 comes up. We have got to talk about this thing they call the 12 death penalty; right? We talk about it because in a capital
13 case if there is a conviction, all right, that is a
14 possibility. Does everyone understand that; right?

15 But the one thing that I try to let people know
16 because sometimes we lose focus, right. We are thinking oh,
17 the death penalty; should I give him the death penalty?
18 Should I give him life, you know? You know, as far as we are 19 concerned, you ain't going to have the choice because see,
20 the situation is that if the jury looks at the evidence and 21 says not guilty, you understand that the sentencing phase
22 will never occur. Does everyone understand that?

23 BY SOME OF THE JURORS: Yes.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. So that is an 25 important thing, and can everyone promise me that during the 26 course of the trial if they are selected as a juror is that 27 will be their focus as to whether or not this evidence or 28 lack of evidence proves guilt in any way. Does everyone 29 agree to that?

1 BY JURORS: Yes.

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, now let me say this
3 here. Trials are not like on TV. Everybody seen Matlock?
4 (Laughter.) Everybody seen Matlock? I do. My wife is
5 always on me to turn that stuff off, but I have been watching
6 Matlock. I don't know why I watch Matlock. Seems like I
7 would get enough of this; right? So I watch Matlock, you
8 know. But see, this is not Matlock. Everybody understand
9 that? So see, in these trials-- and everybody remember Perry
10 Mason?

11 BY SOME JURORS: Yes.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: If you remember Perry Mason,
13 raise your hand. (Many hands go up.) Oh, you are telling on 14 yourself, age. Okay, you know, but Perry Mason, I used to 15 love Perry Mason too, but see this is not TV.

16 So two things to remember between Matlock and Perry
17 Mason and here in court. First of all, the Court says that 18 the burden of truth is on the prosecution. I think you will 19 hear evidence and you will hear evidence that, you know from,
20 you will hear evidence that will suggest and we will get this
21 evidence or we will have many witnesses, but you will hear
22 evidence that raises questions as to whether Mr. Curtis
23 Flowers was anywhere around at the time that this incident
24 occurred. Do you understand what I'm saying?

25 And so the law does not require him to prove what
26 happened at the scene of where the crime is charged. The law
27 is wise. They say if you bring the charge, you prove it. Do
28 you understand what I'm saying? So unlike Matlock, we don't 29 have to prove who committed it; right? You know, if we

1 weren't there, we don't know who committed it. Do you
2 understand what I'm saying? And so he doesn't have the 3 police force and the Sheriff's Department and a whole lot of 4 people to go out and do a lot of investigating. Do everyone
5 understand?

6 And so what we do here is the Judge says the burden
7 of proof is on the prosecution to prove their case. We don't 8 have a case to prove, and if you watch Matlock, you need to 9 understand that; right? Because Matlock is always proving 10 everything; right? (Laughter.) Okay, but you understand
11 that we have no burden to prove a case. Does everyone
12 understand? If you disagree with that, please raise your 13 hand. (No response).

14 Now for instance, juror in seat number 3, Mr.
15 Moleta?

16 A. (BY JUROR 3, MR. JOSEPH MOLETA) Yes, sir.

17 Q. Is that your name? You know, we have these 18 questionnaires and we read the questionnaires. And if I'm 19 not mistaken, I think that you were born in England; is that
20 correct?

21 A. Middle Sex.

22 Q. Middle Sex. Is that in the British Empire?

23 A. My dad was in the Air Force.

24 Q. In the Air Force. Oh, okay. You were just over
25 there?

26 A. I was just over there.

27 Q. Okay. (Laughter.) I just thought I would ask you
28 that, make a point here. But in any event, like some 29 countries, they may do it the other way.

1           A.     Right.

2           Q.     They may say that you are presumed guilty, and then
3 you have to prove you're innocent; right? But in this 4 country you are presumed innocent, and then there has to be 5 proof of guilt. And I don't want to repeat that again, but
6 everybody, because I think it is so important, if you
7 understand that, please raise your right hand.

8                     (Jurors' hands go up.)

9           Thank you very much. Okay, now and the other thing
10 is that in a trial there is real witnesses, and in a trial
11 you have to judge the credibility of witnesses. You have to 12 see whether what they say is consistent with what they said
13 yesterday - do you understand? - or the day before or the 14 year before or whatever. You have to see if what they say is 15 consistent with the physical evidence; right? You have to 16 see if the evidence actually proves. You look at the 17 physical evidence and see if it actually proves it. That's 18 what you do in a trial.

19           Now in Perry Mason you really, the jury really
20 didn't have to do a whole lot of work in Perry Mason; right?
21 Because in Perry Mason somebody would always jump up in the 22 back of the courtroom and say, "He didn't do it. I did it."
23 Right? So we don't expect anybody, it's not TV, and we don't 24 expect anybody to jump up in the back of the room. But that 25 is the way that real trials work is based upon the 26 consideration of evidence. Is everybody with me on that?

27           Now look at the person next to you, right and 28 left. Look at the person next to you. All right. A
29 beautiful person there, but in any event, if I was to tell

1 you -- I mean the person next to you looks like a pretty nice
2 person; right?

3 (Inaudible response by a juror.)

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. Go ahead. Take a look
5 for me. (Laughter.) But if I was to tell you that that 6 person next to you yesterday hit me over my head, shot at me
7 and stole my wallet, would that change your opinion of that
8 person next to you? Everybody who would have a changed
9 opinion raise your hand. (No response.)

10 Y'all all know about presumption of innocence;
11 right? You were trying to raise your hand, weren't you?
12 Uh-huh, okay. Okay, it's a natural human reaction. If I
13 come up to you and tell you that stuff, unless I am a little 14 shaky myself; do you see what I'm saying? It's a natural
15 human reaction to say that person is being charged with a 16 serious thing, and that occupies your mind, and it begins to 17 color your vision of that person.

18 That is why the law has this powerful thing called 19 presumption of innocence. Does everybody see what I'm 20 saying? It's fighting against that human tendency to believe 21 it's true just because they say it. Do you understand what 22 I'm saying? So what the law says is that you not only have 23 to say it, you have to prove it, and you have to prove it
24 with evidence which convinces the jury beyond a reasonable
25 doubt. Does everyone agree to that?

26 And so I think the Court will invite you to 27 consider the evidence. You will have an opportunity to 28 consider the physical evidence. Are there things at the 29 scene which point to Curtis Flowers? Are there fingerprints

1     that he was at the scene?   Are there no fingerprints?   Are 2     there any evidence that suggests that he ever at any point in 3     time shot a gun?   Is there any evidence to suggest that he
4     shot a gun at that scene?   That he shot the gun-- is there
5     evidence beyond a reasonable doubt to prove that he shot the 6     gun that day at that scene or that he was even there at that
7     scene?   Is there anything that puts his foot there, his foot,
8     not just anybody's foot?   Not just one of two hundred
9     thousand people, but his foot there.   Does everybody
10    understand what I'm saying?

11                So all these things will be things that you will be 12    allowed to deal with.   Did anybody say that they saw him
13    shoot anybody?   All these will be things that you will have 14    a chance to evaluate.   So, and we are all up to that; right?
15    We are ready, okay.

16                Now I have got to ask you a few questions.   Now
17    before we asked people about publicity, okay.   And only a
18    couple of people indicated that they had any possible notion 19    of what this was, had heard anything prior to this.   Now let 20    me just say this to you.

21                First of all, there is nothing wrong with you
22    having heard about the case.   I mean that is not against the 23    law.   Everybody understand that; right?   I mean if you heard
24    about it, and I am just saying this as a preliminary; if you
25    heard about it, you didn't know you were going to be a juror
26    at the time you heard about it; right?   So it would have been 27    perfectly okay.   But the question is I ask you to examine 28    your minds because we need to know if anybody has any 29    misapprehensions of what they are.

1           But, okay, now there is one thing that the District
2 Attorney said in his questions to you yesterday which, you
3 know, which I want to repeat to see if this jogs anybody's
4 memory. Now this is a case where the District Attorney is 5 charging that someone went into a place and killed four
6 different people in a place called Tardy Furniture Store.
7 This is what the charges are. And this Tardy Furniture Store
8 is in a little town called Winona; right, that this occurred
9 and that it was four deaths that occurred and that one of 10 these deaths was a gentleman by the name of Mr. Stewart.
11 Does everyone hear what I just said?

12           Now having said that, and this was supposed to have 13 occurred back in July of 1996. That is all the evidence that 14 you are going to hear, and I think you will find out that we 15 are not disputing any of that, that some people were killed
16 that was at Tardy's, and it happened in July of 1996. I
17 think that is what you will hear from the defense is that we 18 don't know who did it, and we will get to that in the 19 evidence.

20           But what I would like to ask you, now having said
21 that, has anybody read or heard about it or know anything
22 about this case? Okay. Good. (Jurors number 73 and 44
23 raise their hands.) All right, and like I said, you know,
24 you can be candid. It's not a problem. Number 73 and-- I'm 25 going to get your names eventually. I might have to say the 26 numbers to start off with.

27           Number 73 is Ms. Beeson, and I think number 44
28 raised his hand, and that is Mr. Cooper. And number 64, and 29 that is Ms. Melvin.

1                   BY THE COURT: Mr. Lumumba.

2                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes.

3                   BY THE COURT: Can I see you just a second,
4 both of y'all just a second?

5                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, sure.

7 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

8                   BY THE COURT: If you would just get their 9 names, and then we will do individual on them.

10                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

11                                 END BENCH CONFERENCE

12                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: All we are taking right now
13 is just the names. So I'm just asking the question. I saw
14 the sign go up. I don't know--

15                  BY UNIDENTIFIED JUROR: --No.

16                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

17                  BY THE COURT: How about number 60?

18                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, number 60. Were you
19 raising your sign or just loosening up?

20                  BY JUROR 60, MR. DONALD G. SEYMOUR: Yes.

21                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: You were raising your sign?
22 Okay. Number 60 is Mr. Seymour, okay. And I just want to 23 repeat: Ms. Beeson, Mr. Cooper, Mr. Melvin, and Mr.
24 Seymour. Was there anybody else? Okay, all right.

25                  Now we went through an analysis of-- I want to ask
26 people something about crimes generally if I may. But let me
27 just say one other thing, you know, about credibility of 28 witnesses. I think that credibility of witnesses also have 29 to be judged when it comes to a question of eye witness

1 identification or the individuals that make eye witness
2 identification. And the Judge will probably charge you with
3 respect to that. Now everyone feel they can follow the law
4 or whatever the law is on those charges? Right. And the 5 law always allows you to make the decision. The law is just 6 a guide to, you know, things that sometimes that must be 7 considered. Sometimes it should be considered; right?

8 Let me say this, is that have all of you been in a
9 situation - and if you have, you know, show me a nod of your 10 head - where sometimes you see people that you thought were 11 somebody, and then later on it turns out were somebody else?
12 (Several hands go up.) You have had that experience?
13 Okay. And if you haven't had that experience, you have heard
14 of people that had experience; right?

15 And you note that sometimes what it is, the longer
16 you have to see a person then the more certain you can be of 17 who it is; right? But if you see a person a short period of 18 time, very short, you know, then it is more difficult
19 sometimes to be accurate. Would you generally agree with 20 that? Well, that may be a consideration in the case, and you
21 may want to consider that. But you can wait until, you know,
22 the proof comes up and until the Judge gives you the 23 instructions.

24 Now there was quite a few people, if I could 25 recall, who indicated that they were actually victims of 26 crime. A little later on I'm going to have to ask some of 27 you very specific questions on this. But to start off with,
28 I think we would all agree is that we don't like crimes. Is 29 there anybody here that likes crime? Raise your hand. I

Case #1999-DP-01369-SCT

COURT APPEALED FROM : Circuit Court

COUNTY : Montgomery

TRIAL JUDGE : C. E. Morgan III

.....
Curtis Giovanni Flowers v. State of Mississippi

.....
Charlotte B. Williams, Clerk

.....
TRIAL COURT # : 97-372

1     promise you won't be arrested, okay. (Laughter.) But
2     anybody want to raise their hand? (No response.) So it is 3     something that people have a problem with.

4             What we ask is if any of that, and sometimes it is
5     stronger with people who have personally been affected,
6     right, than it is with people who have not been affected.
7     Sometimes people just philosophically have a problem, but do
8     you understand that this is not the place to air one's 9     philosophical views? Everyone understand because it is also 10    an-- and I don't know if you call it a crime, but it
11    certainly is also tragic, the deaths of people. Four people
12    certainly is tragic; we would agree. But it is also tragic 13    to convict someone of a crime who is not responsible for that 14    crime. Would we agree to that?

15            So what we want to do is to not put the burden of 16    what is happening in society on any one individual. Okay,
17    people at this table, you don't think they are responsible
18    for the crime, do you? People at this table, you don't 19    think are responsible for the crime, okay. So what it is is 20    that we don't have to put that burden on any particular
21    person.

22            Now I'm going to ask a few questions to 23    individuals, and then we are going to move on. My first
24    question was to Mr. Moleta?

25            A.     (BY JUROR 3, MR. JOSEPH MOLETA) Moleta.

26            Q.     Actually Mr. Moleta, you already indicated that you
27    weren't born, you were just born over there?

28            A.     I was born there.

29            Q.     You really are from here; is that correct?

1 A. I am from here.

2 Q. Okay, are you from Mississippi?

3 A. Yes, sir.

4 Q. Okay, and were your parents essentially from 5 Mississippi?

6 A. Keesler.

7 Q. Keesler. Okay.

8 And then we have Ms. Turner?

9 A. (BY JUROR 8, MS. PATRICIA A. TURNER) Yes.

10 Q. Okay, Ms. Turner. I think you are juror number 8?

11 A. Uh-hum.

12 Q. I was just looking at your form, and you indicated
13 that you-- and I'm going to ask you a few questions because I
14 have to too, you know, about the death penalty. And the way
15 I ask the questions is for any case; right, because our 16 position is you will never get to it here. Did you put down
17 that you strongly support the death penalty; is that correct?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Now you didn't fill out the section of why you feel 20 that way.

21 A. Uh-hum.

22 Q. And it may very well be that that was missing from 23 your form because the last part of your form also had the 24 signature on it, and you didn't sign it; right?

25 A. Oh.

26 Q. You just kind of left it off, but do you have a
27 position? I don't want to ask you what it is, but do you
28 have a position or do you have a reason why you feel that 29 way?

1 A. Yeah.

2 Q. Okay. We will get back to that.

3 A. Okay.

4 Q. That is Ms. Turner.

5 And then we will go to Ms. Cook. Ms. Cook, you are 6 number 10; right?

7 A. (BY JUROR 10, MS. KAREN J. COOK) Right.

8 Q. How are you doing?

9 A. Okay. How about yourself?

10 Q. I am doing good. And Ms. Cook, I think that you
11 have indicated that you had strong death penalty views; is 12 that correct?

13 A. No, I really believe in whatever the crime is,
14 punishment should suit the crime.

15 Q. Okay.

16 A. That's the way I feel. I don't, I'm not strong on 17 death or strong for it, but I'm not.

18 Q. Okay, but several people put on their form like an 19 eye for an eye; a tooth for a tooth. People that believe 20 that, please raise your hand. An eye for an eye; tooth for a 21 tooth?

22 A. (BY JUROR MS. COOK) In some cases, yes.

23 Q. Okay, I mean and this is, like remember, there is 24 no wrong answers. But if you believe that, raise your hand
25 for a moment because there are some questions I want to ask 26 you. Eye for an eye; tooth for a tooth. Okay. (Several 27 hands go up.)

28 And I think that juror in seat number 44 - who I
29 promised I would remember his name, and I am still looking

1 for it - is Mr. Cooper. Okay, Mr. Cooper. And you believe
2 that and, of course, that is a belief you formed, and a lot
3 of people form; is that correct?

4 A. (BY JUROR 44, MR. DAVID COOPER) Yes.

5 Q. Okay, in fact, I think there is some place in the 6 Old Testament that is where that is quoted from. Is that
7 correct?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Okay, but in any event, what my question is to you,
10 do you believe that if a person is convicted of killing a
11 person, you know, in any way where the evidence is; if a 12 person is convicted of killing another individual, that that 13 person should get the death penalty?

14 A. I think if it is premeditated, yes.

15 Q. Okay, say a person meant to, intended to kill
16 somebody. They should get the death penalty?

17 A. Right.

18 Q. Okay, now let me ask you this question. Do you
19 feel that if you were ever in a position where you were in a
20 trial where somebody was actually was convicted, do you feel 21 that then in order for that person who was convicted of 22 premeditated killing or killing intentionally not to get the 23 death penalty, they would have to prove to you some reason
24 why they shouldn't get it?

25 A. Yes. I think they (inaudible).

26 BY THE COURT REPORTER: I can't hear him.

27 BY THE COURT: You need to speak up, Mr.
28 Cooper, so she can hear you.

29 A. (BY JUROR 44, MR. COOPER) Yes. I think if they

1 are convicted of intentionally killing somebody, then they
2 should get the death penalty.

3 BY THE COURT: Mr. Lumumba, you need to put
4 that in the context of Witherspoon or reverse
5 Witherspoon.

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah. Do you want me to do
7 it now or do you want to do that--

8 BY THE COURT: Well, I think if you don't do
9 it now, you are liable to mislead them some.

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, let me do that, okay.

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

12 And just, I'm going to put it in the context of 13 you, but I want to see if that is something that-- there is 14 another juror that raised your hand. What is your number?
15 I'm sorry.

16 A. (BY JUROR 48, MS. CONNIE L. LADNER) Mine? 48.

17 Q. Number 48. Do you also, is that basically how you
18 also feel?

19 A. If guilt was proven beyond a shadow of a doubt, no
20 room for doubt whatsoever and that was premeditated, then
21 yes, I agree with the death penalty.

22 Q. Okay, now when you use the term "shadow of a
23 doubt," are you using that in the same way that you would use
24 "reasonable doubt"? Is that just another word for 25 reasonable doubt as you are concerned?

26 A. Guilt has to be proven with no doubt. No doubt 27 whatsoever on guilt.

28 Q. Okay, and juror number 48, your name is?

29 A. My name is Connie Ladner.

1 Q. Okay, Ms. Ladner. Thank you.

2 Also, I think some other folks raised their hands;
3 is that correct? That is juror number 60. And juror number
4 60 is Mr. Seymour. Mr. Seymour, do you basically have the 5 same position that Mr. Cooper had?

6 A. (BY JUROR 60, MR. DONALD G. SEYMOUR) It's a little 7 on the vague side but (inaudible).

8 BY THE COURT REPORTER: --I can't hear him.

9 BY THE COURT: You have to stand up, please.

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

11 Q. Could you stand up, please. I'm sorry.

12 A. It seems like the question is a little bit vague as 13 far as an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth, but yes, I
14 believe--

15 Q. --Okay, and I'm going to fill it in a little 16 better.

17 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I object also 18 because this is misleading. I think he has got to 19 ask the jury if they will follow the Court's 20 instructions, and he is not covering that part of 21 it because the question is will they listen to the
22 evidence--

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Excuse me, Judge--

24 BY MR. EVANS: --and follow the Court's-- I am
25 doing an objection right now.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Excuse me. Can we approach
27 the bench?

28 BY MR. EVANS: The question is--

29 BY THE COURT: --Why don't y'all approach the

1 bench.

2 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
3 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

4 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, he is purposely not 5 asking the correct form of the question which is
6 the law in an attempt to mislead the jury, and I
7 would ask-- I don't care what he asks, but I would
8 ask that either the Court or him one ask the proper
9 questions so that the jury knows what is going on.

10 BY THE COURT: The test is Witherspoon and 11 reverse Witherspoon, and all the other is--

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I'm going to ask that
13 question. I am just trying to identify the jurors
14 that needed to be asked so I can ask them all at 15 once rather than going through all of them and 16 saying the same thing over and over again. Now if 17 you want me to do it that way--

18 BY THE COURT: --No, I'm going to give you
19 some latitude on it.

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

21 BY THE COURT: But then I want you to, as soon
22 as you get them identified, let's go back and put 23 it to them the way the reverse is; okay?

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No problem. I have no
25 problem.

26 END BENCH CONFERENCE

27 CONTINUED VOIR DIRE BY MR. LUMUMBA:

28 Is there anybody else - and I do have some other
29 questions to put to you folks on that - but I wanted to see

1 first of all, is there anyone else that has that view, an eye
2 for an eye and a tooth for a tooth. And that is juror number
3 73, and the name there is?

4 A. (BY JUROR 73, MS. MARCIA W. BEESON) Beeson.

5 Q. Beeson, Ms. Beeson. Anybody else?

6 Okay, now let me just ask you this. First of all,
7 as I begin to ask you these questions, all I would like to do
8 is know how you feel, okay. And some of you may be just 9 discovering how you feel, okay. You may not actually know
10 because you may not have ever actually been in this situation
11 before. But I just want to know the truth. So don't let me
12 tell you how to answer the question, right, and don't let 13 anybody tell you how to answer the question. There is no
14 special way to answer the question other than what you feel 15 is true.

16 Now the question is-- now the other question was 17 put to you is that if you feel an eye for an eye and a tooth
18 for a tooth, that would suggest, like Mr. Cooper said at 19 first, is that your at least initial feeling is that if a 20 person killed somebody, they should get the death penalty; is 21 that correct?

22 A. (By unidentified juror) Yes.

23 Q. But now if you got charged by the Judge, he is 24 going to tell you that in a trial there is another-- you
25 know, there is a stage out there; right? Okay, there is a
26 stage where you have what you call the sentencing phase. Do
27 you understand what I'm saying? And in the sentencing phase
28 they are supposed to prove aggravating circumstances. Do you
29 see what I'm saying? And even if it is a so-called

1 premeditated murder, intentional murder, what the law says is
2 that there is a chance to prove that the prosecution, before
3 you can even consider that - Do you understand what I'm 4 saying? - before you can even consider that, the prosecution
5 has to prove that there are some reasons for death beyond the 6 fact that it was an intentional or premeditated killing.
7 Does everyone understand?

8           So my question to you now, Mr. Cooper, Ms. Ladner,
9 Ms. Beeson, and Mr. Seymour, is that - and I will ask Mr.
10 Cooper first, and then I will go to the other folks - that 11 given that, given your feelings on it as far as an eye for an 12 eye and a tooth for a tooth and about premeditated killing
13 should be punished with death, that is not what the law
14 says. So the question is if the Judge tells you that there
15 has to be proof of an aggravating circumstances, something 16 beyond the fact that you think it's intentional and it has to 17 be proved beyond a reasonable doubt, right, in the sentencing
18 phase -- regardless of what they have done in the trial, they 19 have got to prove it in the sentencing phase; right? If he 20 tells you that, the question I ask you, is that something
21 that you can easily follow, or is that something that runs
22 against the grain to the point that you have a problem with
23 it?

24           A.     (BY JUROR 44, MR. DAVID COOPER) I have difficulty
25 in understanding that. You know, if they are proven beyond a
26 reasonable doubt of intentionally killing somebody, what else
27 could be offered that would mitigate?

28           Q.     Well, let me just give you an example. Somebody
29 might try, they might have to try to prove that there was a

1 robbery, okay, because it may very well be that the law
2 says - and I don't want to speak for the law, but the Judge
3 will. It may very well be that the law says that you can't,
4 in a capital murder case you can't impose the death penalty
5 unless there is a plus like a robbery. Do you see what I'm 6 saying? It has to be a robbery. In other words, intention
7 is not enough. You know what I'm saying? There has to be a
8 robbery.

9 So if the Judge said that, that there had to be 10 something proved beyond a reasonable doubt, a robbery or 11 maybe some other aggravating circumstances, could you follow
12 that law, or would you have a problem with it?

13 A. I could follow the law.

14 Q. Okay. And that answers one of my questions, that 15 you would follow the law. The other question is would you
16 have a problem with it?

17 A. I wouldn't necessarily agree with the law. I mean
18 it may bother me, but I would follow the Judge's
19 instructions.

20 Q. Okay, would you, and this is, like I said, this is 21 just to get an honest answer. Would you kind of be leaning
22 in a direction of giving the death penalty anyway, and so it
23 would kind of have to be that the defense would have to prove 24 to you it shouldn't be given and that would you be leaning
25 toward finding the robbery just because you felt that there
26 should be an execution?

27 A. Well, I would say if they were found guilty, I
28 would be leaning towards the death penalty. This is just my 29 personal thinking.

1           Q.    Okay. But you understand that what I think the law
2 is asking you to do is to come into the sentencing phase with 3 an open mind and not lean in any direction. Would that be 4 difficult for you to do that?

5           A.    I think it would be difficult, but I think--

6           Q.    --You would try to do it?

7           A.    Right.

8           Q.    Couldn't tell us for certain?

9           A.    Right. I haven't been there, so I don't know.

10          Q.    And the same question to you, Ms. Ladner. Did you
11 understand what I was saying?

12          A.    (BY JUROR 48, MS. CONNIE L. LADNER) Yes, sir. My 13 opinions are my own opinions, and I don't like somebody
14 trying to impose their opinions on me. As far as the laws go
15 and the structure of the system, yes, I could follow that 16 structure.

17          Q.    Okay, would you, and you would be able to like if 18 the Judge told you something in the sentencing phase, the 19 Judge said look, you know, that is not enough. You know, if 20 somebody in any case that you happened to be at, and you guys
21 might not even be in that case together; right. Okay, but in 22 any case that you were asked if somebody was proven guilty of 23 killing someone intentionally or premeditated or whatever,
24 would you be a person who would--

25          A.    --Could I set aside my opinions and look at it all 26 objectively?

27          Q.    Yeah, without anybody, without leaning one way?

28          A.    Yes.

29          Q.    Okay.

1           And that is the same question to you, Ms. Beeson.

2           A.    (BY JUROR 73, MS. MARCIA W. BEESON) I would not
3   have a problem--

4           BY THE COURT: --Ms. Beeson, could you stand
5   up, please, ma'am. Thank you.

6   BY JUROR MS. BEESON:

7           A.    I would not have a problem following the Judge's
8   instructions, and I could put aside what I feel personally
9   after listening to the evidence.

10          Q.    You wouldn't tend to lean one way or the other?

11          A.    I wouldn't; no.

12          Q.    How about you, Mr. Seymour?

13          A.    (BY JUROR 60, MR. DONALD G. SEYMOUR) I have 14   problems with several things involved in the judicial 15   system. I could do my best to follow exactly what I am asked
16   to do. I believe I could, but until I am put in that 17   position I can't tell you for certain that I can. But I feel 18   like I could be, lean towards what I am told to do as far as 19   the judicial system says.

20          BY THE COURT: Mr. Seymour, I apologize. I
21   couldn't hear you. Did you-- the question, the end
22   result of the question was would you follow my 23   instructions on the law in this case?

24          A.    (BY JUROR MR. SEYMOUR) I would like to believe
25   that I would, yes.

26          BY THE COURT: Okay, I have got to know.

27          A.    Like you stated a minute ago, until you are put in 28   that position, you really don't know. But as far
29   as I feel, yes, sir; I can.

1                   BY THE COURT: Well, of course, what I am
2                   telling you is and then what I have said earlier in 3                   this case is that you have taken an oath as jurors,
4                   and a part of that oath is that you will follow my 5                   instructions on the law whether you think that is 6                   the law, whether you believe it ought to be the law
7                   or anything else. You are required by your oath as 8                   jurors to follow that instruction on the law. My 9                   question to you is will you do that?

10                  A.   And my answer was yes, sir; I believe I can.

11                   BY THE COURT: Thank you, sir.

12                  BY MR. LUMUMBA:

13                  Q.   And I'm not trying to belabor it, but you believe 14                  you can, but I think like you told me before, you really 15                  won't know until you are in a situation. Is that your 16                  answer?

17                  A.   (By Mr. Seymour) I feel like I could be as straight 18                  and honest as I could. If you want an answer other than what 19                  I gave you--

20                   BY THE COURT: Well--

21                  BY MR. LUMUMBA:

22                  Q.   No, I don't want an answer other than what you
23                  gave. Let me tell--

24                  A.   --What I was getting at is the answer would be if 25                  you are not satisfied with what I just gave as an honest
26                  answer, then I will have to protect myself and yourself by 27                  saying no.

28                  Q.   No what?

29                  A.   That I can't follow it. Because I have given you

1 as straight an answer as I possibly could.

2 Q. Mr. Seymour, I understand that, but let me see if I
3 can just put it into focus. I think that we all have a
4 responsibility up here. You see, I know we ask questions
5 which are tough to answer, okay, and we ask questions of 6 people who may have never considered these questions. You
7 understand what I'm saying? But see, put yourself a little
8 bit up here too. I am up here and I am representing this 9 gentleman, Mr. Flowers, who I believe, okay. And we have a
10 position, and if you had someone up here in the same
11 position, you would want the attorney to ask those questions,
12 wouldn't you?

13 A. Yes, sir.

14 Q. Would you not?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. So we would want to know as certain as we could,
17 even if a person couldn't be certain, we would just want the 18 person to say clearly, no, I can't be certain. When the 19 Judge asked you, I have got to have an answer, he is not 20 telling you, you have got to say, I am certain. He is just 21 telling you he has got to have an answer. If you can't give 22 him one, you tell him that, and then we will just move from 23 there. He has to make up his mind from there. Do you
24 understand what I'm saying?

25 A. I stated in my heart I believe that I could follow
26 the direction of the law.

27 Q. Okay. And are you certain of it?

28 (Laughter.)

29 A. Are you really looking for an answer there?

1 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I object. There is
2 no sense in him just keeping on harassing this 3 witness-- this juror out here and--

4 BY THE COURT: --Well, nobody is trying to 5 harass anybody. Mr. Seymour, I hope you understand
6 that. It's just as I said at the first of this
7 voir dire, there are absolutely no wrong answers
8 here. There are none unless you just hold back
9 information that I need to know, and I don't think
10 any of y'all have done that. And so, you know, it
11 doesn't make any difference to me which way you
12 fall on this thing. I just need to know which way
13 you are going to fall. That is the whole purpose
14 of it, and I promise you nobody is trying to harass
15 you at all.

16 A. (By Mr. Seymour) Is my answer satisfactory?

17 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir. It is complete.

18 A. Thank you.

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

20 Q. Okay. Ms. Cook. I already talked to you, didn't
21 I?

22 A. (BY JUROR 10, MS. KAREN J. COOK) Yeah.

23 Q. Right, okay.

24 And Mr. Warden, I know you're kind of suffering
25 right there, but you also indicated that you had a real
26 strong opinion on the death penalty. Is that correct?

27 A. (BY JUROR 11, MR. WINSTON O. WARDEN) Yes.

28 Q. Would you basically take that attitude of an eye
29 for an eye, tooth for a tooth position?

1 A. No. It depends upon the circumstances.

2 Q. Okay, thank you very much.

3 Now Mr. Overstreet, I think that you served on a
4 jury once; is that correct?

5 A. (BY JUROR 15, MR. JAMES M. OVERSTREET) Yes, sir.

6 Q. Okay, and if I understand correctly, what kind of 7 trial was that?

8 A. Well, the last one, it was a drug case.

9 Q. Okay, the first one, sir, what was that?

10 A. It was some kind of an altercation they had at a
11 restaurant or something.

12 Q. Was it criminal or civil?

13 A. It was criminal. But it wasn't real serious, I
14 don't think. The guy told him not to come back and he came 15 back, had more trouble. His ex-wife worked there and stuff
16 like that.

17 Q. Okay.

18 A. He was found guilty too.

19 Q. Okay, did you sit on both those juries?

20 A. Yes, sir.

21 Q. Okay, those things-- I notice also that in some of 22 the questions and I'm going to ask questions about victims of 23 crime. You responded that actually you were-- was it you
24 that said that you were held at gunpoint?

25 A. That's right.

26 Q. Okay, and I imagine that was a traumatic
27 experience?

28 A. Well, I didn't get scared until it was all over
29 with. (Laughter.) It was at night and the guys got away,

1 and it was two of them, and they never were caught.

2 Q. Okay, did you or-- oh, they never were caught.
3 Were you able to give any kind of description to the police?

4 A. Some.

5 Q. Okay. And what was that description as you
6 recall?

7 A. Well, it was two males and they were black. I'm 8 not trying to be racial or anything.

9 Q. Okay, and where did this occur?

10 A. New Orleans.

11 Q. New Orleans. Was it during Mardi Gras?

12 A. No, I was over there on the produce market. I had 13 a load of watermelons down there.

14 Q. Okay. And this happened quite a while ago?

15 A. Oh, yeah, probably 30 years, a long time.

16 Q. A long time, but this question I am putting to Mr.
17 Overstreet, I really want all of you to think about it, okay,
18 because I know that there has been other folks in here that 19 have had problems with criminal activity. Mr. Overstreet,
20 and like you said, I mean nobody, you know, you didn't ask
21 anybody to point a gun at you; right?

22 A. No.

23 Q. Okay, I am sure you didn't, and it's bad when 24 somebody does that. But it's an experience which you have in 25 your history at this time; is that correct? I mean something
26 that has happened to you?

27 A. Uh-hum.

28 Q. So what I want you to do is just to let me know is 29 there anything about that experience that, you know, here

1 sitting in judgment of another person who may be charged with 2 something that, rightfully or wrongfully may be charged with 3 something that involves a gun being pointed at and shot at 4 other people, is there anything about your experience which 5 would make you in any bit the slightest lean toward the 6 prosecution's case to accept the testimony that--

7 A. --No.

8 Q. Okay, and I appreciate that. Okay. And it's not 9 racial; right?

10 A. Oh, no.

11 Q. Okay, and it's not racial at all but sometimes 12 those--

13 A. --You asked me the description and that--

14 Q. --and that is why I asked it. I will be honest
15 with you, but I just wanted, does anybody have any problems
16 with that? Regardless of what your history is, that this
17 case is a case where everybody is the same? Does anybody
18 have a problem with that? If you agree with that, please put 19 your hands up. Okay, thank you.

20 Mr. Dobson, I think it is?

21 A. (BY JUROR 16, MR. DAVID JOEL DOBSON) Yes, sir.

22 Q. Okay, I think you said you had a cousin that was 23 charged with murder?

24 A. Yes, sir.

25 Q. Okay, and what happened with that case?

26 A. I think he was sentenced to life.

27 Q. Okay. And was that somebody close to you?

28 A. Uh, not really.

29 Q. And my question to you is there anything about that

1 experience-- did you have enough knowledge of the case to 2 know whether that was good or bad in terms of the kind of 3 verdict?

4 A. Well, when it happened, I was young. I was in the 5 Marine Corps.

6 Q. Young. Okay, anything about that experience going
7 to at all affect you in terms of your jury service?

8 A. No, sir.

9 Q. Now Ms. Finch, juror number 17, Ms. Finch?

10 A. (JUROR 17, MS. TERESA M. FINCH, raised her hand.)

11 Q. Okay, right there. We had, I think you indicated 12 before that you had heard something about the case. Is that
13 correct?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Okay, and I don't want to ask you what you heard or 16 anything. But has anything been said to you in questioning
17 by either one of us now which has made you remember any more
18 than you remembered the last time you talked to us?

19 A. No, sir, actually less. From what you said, it's 20 not even remotely the same as what I had heard which I
21 indicated yesterday.

22 Q. Okay, all right. So you wouldn't have any problem
23 being fair and impartial?

24 A. Absolutely not.

25 Q. You were also a victim of an assault. Somebody
26 stole your purse?

27 A. Yes.

28 Q. Okay, and is that somebody which you think would 29 affect you at all?

1 A. Absolutely not.

2 BY THE COURT: Mr. Lumumba, could you talk up
3 a little bit? She has trouble hearing you.

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Oh, I'm sorry. I'm sorry.

5 Q. That is something that you don't think would 6 interfere with you at all?

7 A. No, sir.

8 Q. Did that occur here in this area?

9 A. No, sir. It did not.

10 Q. Where did that occur?

11 A. In South Carolina.

12 Q. Ms. Weiss, I noticed that your cousin, something
13 about your cousin being sentenced. Is that--

14 A. (BY JUROR 18, MS. RAYANNE M. WEISS) Right. He was 15 drunk and he was-- it was manslaughter I think is what it
16 was. I'm not real sure because it was distant. He did serve
17 his sentence.

18 Q. I'm sorry?

19 A. He was convicted and he served his sentence--

20 Q. --Okay, is that--

21 A. --house arrest.

22 Q. Was that a cousin you were close to?

23 A. No. I just see him on family occasions, you know.

24 Q. Oh, okay. Now you also were a person who responded
25 the other day about having heard perhaps about--

26 A. Right.

27 Q. Is there anything that we have said at this point--

28 A. --No, sir.

29 Q. In any way jogged?

1           A.    No, sir.

2           Q.    Okay.  Now Mr.-- or Ms. Ballman.  Ms. Ballman, I
3 think, is juror number 20.  Okay, your form doesn't have 4 answers to certain questions, and I would just like to ask
5 you these questions to make sure.  Have you at any point in 6 time-- actually, I can see probably why it didn't reflect
7 that.  They gave you a form that was out of order.  One page
8 was--

9           A.    (BY SEVERAL UNIDENTIFIED JURORS)  Everybody's was 10 like that.

11          Q.    Every form?  That is no excuse then.  (Laughter.)
12 But anyway then, everybody's form was out of order.  All
13 right.  I think they may have gave you two of the same
14 pages.  Okay.  Have you ever appeared as a witness before the 15 grand jury?

16          A.    (BY JUROR 20, MS. CINDY S. BALLMAN)  No, sir.

17          Q.    Have you ever appeared as a witness in a criminal 18 prosecution?

19          A.    No, sir.

20          Q.    In a civil case, have you ever appeared as a
21 witness?

22          A.    No, sir.

23          Q.    Have you ever served on a jury before?

24          A.    Yes, I have.

25          Q.    And what kind of case?

26          A.    It was a rape case.

27          Q.    That was a criminal matter.  And did you serve to 28 the end?

29          A.    Yes, sir.

1 Q. Okay, was there a verdict?

2 A. Yes, there was.

3 Q. What was it?

4 A. Not guilty.

5 Q. Was that here or somewhere else?

6 A. It was in Stone County.

7 Q. Stone County. Stone County, Mississippi?

8 A. Mississippi.

9 Q. Okay. Have you ever been a party personally to any 10 legal action where you have been sued or somebody sued you?

11 A. No, sir.

12 Q. Okay, and you never been involved personally with 13 any kind of criminal charges?

14 A. No, sir.

15 Q. Thank you very much.

16 And Ms. Partridge, I understand you are a legal 17 assistant? That is juror number 21?

18 A. (BY JUROR 21, MS. SUSAN C. PATRIDGE) Yes, sir.

19 Q. Okay. And what kind of law-- do you work for a law
20 firm?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. What kind of law firm do you work for?

23 A. Plaintiff's.

24 Q. Plaintiff's lawyers. They sue people; right?

25 A. Uh-hum.

26 Q. Okay, all right. Good. But no, but now what I
27 would like to know is how long have you worked there?

28 A. About two years.

29 Q. Two years. Do you do any, do they do any criminal

1 work?

2 A. No.

3 Q. Okay, in your job do you come into contact with 4 criminal law where it might affect you in terms of any bias
5 one way or another?

6 A. No, sir.

7 Q. Okay. And you work for lawyers?

8 A. (Juror Ms. Patridge nods her head.)

9 Q. Your bosses are not going to try to tell you how to 10 decide the case?

11 A. No, sir.

12 Q. You wouldn't let them do that anyway?

13 A. No, sir.

14 Q. Okay. And it is nothing about that going to 15 interfere with you?

16 A. No.

17 Q. Okay.

18 I think that we have a number of people whose 19 relatives served in law enforcement. I know one juror
20 number, was it Ms. Pell?

21 A. (BY JUROR 25, MS. EMMA J. PELL) Pell.

22 Q. Right here, okay. Ms. Pell, your father was in law
23 enforcement in Long Beach?

24 A. Uh-hum.

25 Q. What does he do?

26 A. He is retired now. He was Chief of Police.

27 Q. Okay, he was Chief of Police for a number of years?

28 A. My whole life.

29 Q. Your whole life. Did he come home sometimes and

1 talk to you about different cases he was involved in?

2 A. Not really.

3 Q. You pick up on conversations between him and your 4 mother and stuff like that?

5 A. Just, I mean no more than any other child would.

6 Q. Okay, but was anything ever said that you think 7 that would influence you in any way as far as the case is 8 concerned?

9 A. Not, not really. I mean no. Probably no.

10 Q. Okay, you said not really and you said no. Nobody 11 knows--

12 A. --Well, I mean I was brought up with a father that 13 was a police officer. So I mean I am sure I am biased to the 14 way they think.

15 Q. Okay. Well, let me just ask you this because 16 really what we are interested in is how you feel. And of 17 course, it is good that your father was a police officer.

18 A. Right.

19 Q. It's good that we have got some, okay, but what we 20 need to do is just ask you these questions. Now there is 21 nothing from what you have told me, there is nothing that 22 actually happened with him in any case that would make you
23 feel you would lean one way or another in this particular 24 case; is that correct?

25 A. Not that I can recall.

26 Q. Okay. As it relates to police officers generally,
27 see, this is a trial where different people testify. Some 28 may be police officers; some may not be police officers. And 29 if-- so one of the questions that I have to ask and will ask

1 is do you tend to favor police officers because of your
2 experience in such a way is that you would think a police
3 officer's word would be better than somebody else's word just 4 because they are police officers?

5 A. Not just because they are a police officer, but I
6 probably would tend to listen more to what they say.

7 Q. And--

8 A. I have been around them my whole life, I guess.

9 Q. Okay, you would tend to listen more to police
10 officers than to non-police officers?

11 A. Right.

12 Q. If you had a fellow who was a total stranger who 13 got up and testified who was not a police officer.

14 A. I would listen, but I mean, you know, it's just --
15 I am sure I would favor more to a police officer.

16 Q. Okay, and that is just because?

17 A. That is just because the way I was raised.

18 BY THE COURT: What is your number, ma'am?
19 I'm sorry.

20 BY JUROR MS. PELL: 25.

21 BY THE COURT: Thank you.

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Pardon? May we approach for 23 a minute?

24 BY THE COURT: Uh-hum.

25 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
26 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I think that needs to be
28 pursued a little more, but I don't know if you want
29 us to pursue her here or individually. I don't

1           have any problem with it either way.

2           BY THE COURT: I don't think, I think there
3           will be individual responses in relation to folks,
4           and I don't think it'll taint the rest of the 5           panel.

6           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

7                               END BENCH CONFERENCE.

8                               (The Bailiff approached the Court.)

9           BY MR. LUMUMBA:

10          Q.    Ms. Pell.

11          A.    (BY JUROR 25, MS. EMMA J. PELL) Uh-huh.

12          Q.    Okay, and your number is 25.

13          A.    Yes.

14               BY THE COURT: Wait just a minute, Mr.
15               Lumumba. Who was that?

16               BY THE BAILIFF: It was a female. I don't 17               know. She was on this side.

18               BY MR. LUMUMBA: Oh, somebody left?

19               BY THE COURT: Yeah. Let's wait until they 20               get back. If y'all need a break, y'all raise your 21               hand and I will let you go, but I have got to know 22               when anybody is gone because everybody has got to 23               be here for all the questions because I never know
24               when it is going to apply to you. So don't just 25               walk out.

26               (Pause while waiting for a juror to return who 27               went to the bathroom.)

28               BY THE COURT: All right. Mr. Lumumba, you
29               may proceed.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: All right. Thank you.

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

3 Q. Okay, Ms. Pell, just to follow up a little bit. So
4 if you were in a situation where say one witness was not a
5 police officer and got up there and said well, this happened,
6 and then the police officer got up there and said well, that
7 is not the way this happened; right? There is a conflict,
8 and if I understand you, and you correct me where I am wrong,
9 you would tend to more favor the police officer's testimony
10 than the other person's testimony?

11 A. (BY JUROR 25, MS. PELL) That is probably true.

12 Q. Now if the Judge gave you an instruction even 13 though, and remember about these instructions. Instructions, 14 what we are asking you if you feel you could follow the 15 instructions; right? We are not telling you that the law
16 says that you have to say you can follow the instructions.
17 That is why we are asking the questions. If you don't think 18 you can follow the question, it might be another case that 19 would be better for you. Do you understand what I'm saying?
20 That doesn't have anything to do with you as a person.

21 A. Right.

22 Q. And the question that I would have is that do you
23 feel that even if the Judge tells you that everybody's 24 testimony has to be evaluated the same--

25 BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, I object. That
26 is not the law. The jurors are entitled to listen
27 to the testimony of all the witnesses, and then the 28 jurors decide what weight and credibility to give 29 each witness. That is the correct law.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

2 Q. And they cannot tell. I agree with that except
3 they cannot use because a person is a police officer, I'm 4 going to believe them; right. I think the Judge will tell
5 you that. If he told you that, could you follow that 6 instruction?

7 A. I could follow that instruction.

8 Q. Okay, even though your natural tendency would not 9 be to--

10 A. --that I would be biased, yes. Natural tendency
11 would be the other way. I would probably have a conflict
12 with it.

13 Q. Would it be a conflict that would cause enough
14 problems that would make you wonder whether you could 15 actually follow the instructions?

16 A. I would follow the instructions that I was told to 17 follow.

18 Q. I'm a little bit confused.

19 A. Okay, I would follow the instructions if I was told 20 to follow the instructions.

21 Q. And you are telling me you could do that?

22 A. Sure. Yes.

23 Q. Thank you very much, Ms. Pell. I appreciate it.
24 Is Ms. Lee?

25 A. (BY JUROR 26, MS. STEPHANIE B. LEE) Yes.

26 Q. Okay, Ms. Lee, I think that you said that you
27 worked as a-- you work in court personnel. Where do you
28 work? For the Circuit Court?

29 A. Circuit Clerk's office. I do voter registration

1 and marriage licenses.

2 Q. Are there people-- do you know the Clerk and
3 various different court personnel that work--

4 A. --I know Gayle Parker and Connie Ladner and yes, I
5 know them.

6 Q. Connie, okay. And do you know other-- Connie, I
7 think, was or she was a prospective juror?

8 A. No. That is a different Connie Ladner. The one
9 that was sitting up there earlier.

10 Q. Oh, okay. I'm sorry.

11 A. Shirley Valdez was a prospective juror.

12 Q. Okay. Anything about those relationships that make 13 you feel uncomfortable about serving?

14 A. No, sir.

15 Q. You also had a family member that was a victim of a 16 crime. I think you said burglary; is that correct?

17 A. Well, our cars. My car and my husband's car were 18 burglarized.

19 Q. Any other member of your family been a victim of a 20 crime?

21 A. No.

22 Q. Your uncle had someone or you had a problem because 23 your uncle had hired someone to kill--

24 A. Yes, sir.

25 Q. --his wife. Okay, was he convicted of that?

26 A. He was convicted. He served his time. He is out
27 now. In fact, he speaks to his ex-wife. They have a good
28 relationship.

29 (Laughter.)

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

2 Q. Is there anything about that that would--

3 (Inaudible because of more laughter.)

4 A. Some people are more forgiving than others, I guess
5 you can say.

6 Q. Well, certainly, it wouldn't affect you in any way
7 and make you biased in any way?

8 A. No.

9 Q. And you don't think because your uncle may have 10 been guilty in that case that anybody is guilty here?

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. Okay, we have Mr. Davis, juror number 32. Mr.
13 Davis, you said your [REDACTED] was a victim of some kind of crime?

14 A. (BY JUROR 32, MR. CURTIS H. DAVIS) [REDACTED]
15 [REDACTED]
16 [REDACTED]

17 Q. Okay, was it a crime you can tell us about?

18 A. I would rather not.

19 Q. Okay, all right. Can you approach the bench,
20 please.

21 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH WITH JUROR NUMBER 32, 22 MR. CURTIS DAVIS, PRESENT BUT OUT OF THE HEARING OF 23 THE REST OF THE JURY PANEL:)

24 BY THE COURT: What's your number, sir?

25 BY JUROR MR. DAVIS: 32.

26 BY THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Davis.

27 BY JUROR MR. DAVIS: I simply don't want to 28 say it because it's [REDACTED] personal life. It was a
29 rape, and it has nothing to do with my--

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --It wouldn't affect you?

2 BY JUROR MR. DAVIS: Not at all.

3 BY THE COURT: Would it affect you at all in
4 this case?

5 BY JUROR MR. DAVIS: No, because I have no
6 personal feelings because it happened before [REDACTED]
7 [REDACTED] and I don't know the guy. I didn't 8 know anything. I just don't like saying it for 9 her, for her personal--

10 BY THE COURT: I understand.

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I understand. Thank you very 12 much.

13 BY THE COURT: Thank you.

14 END BENCH CONFERENCE

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

16 Q. You watch TV and you watch "The Cops" and 17 "Practice"?

18 A. (BY JUROR 32, MR. DAVIS) Yes, sir.

19 Q. All right. Now "Cops," what is that about?

20 A. It's a show where they show the cops arresting,
21 going in and doing all that stuff.

22 Q. And then the other show "The Practice," that's one
23 where they have the guys that run a law firm?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Okay, and they go in and they represent people in 26 different kinds of cases?

27 A. Right.

28 Q. Anything about those experiences because I
29 imagine-- I don't really watch "Cops" so I don't know what it

1 deals with, but anything about any of those experiences that
2 would prejudice you?

3 A. No. We enjoy law shows and medical shows.

4 Q. Stop watching "Cops." But no, I am just kidding.
5 Okay, now Mr. Davis, I think that you indicated on your form
6 that you kind of generally favored the death penalty?

7 A. If the circumstances warrant it.

8 Q. Okay, so you are not, you wouldn't say like eye for 9 an eye and tooth for a tooth; right?

10 A. No.

11 Q. Okay. So what you are saying is that you could 12 follow the instructions as it relates to, first of all,
13 putting it out of your mind until you get to the point of 14 seeing if it's, if there is any proof here, okay, of 15 sufficient for a verdict? Do you see what I'm saying?

16 A. Yeah.

17 Q. And then if it got beyond that point in anything,
18 then what would happen is you would follow the Judge's
19 instructions related to what you had to prove?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Okay, understanding that there are several hurdles
22 that has to be jumped before you can even consider that, you
23 could do that; right?

24 A. Exactly.

25 Q. And you know that in no situation does anybody ever
26 tell you that you have got to give somebody the death
27 penalty; you understand that; right?

28 A. (Juror 32 nods his head.)

29 Q. And there is no situation where the law tells you

1 you have got to give somebody the death penalty. Do you
2 understand what I'm saying?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. So even when you jump the hurdles, after that point
5 then it is up to you to decide with your individual jurors
6 what the decision should be. Do you understand?

7 A. I do.

8 Q. Could you follow that?

9 A. I can.

10 Q. Okay, and at no point can even the individual 11 jurors tell you what you have got to decide. Your vote is 12 your vote.

13 A. Exactly.

14 Q. Okay, and I am really talking to everybody. I am
15 using you as the person I am asking the questions. But does 16 everybody understand?

17 A. (BY MANY JURORS) Yes.

18 Q. Now I am having a little problem with this name.
19 This may be the one-- (Laughter.) Number 35.

20 A. (BY JUROR 35, MR. ANDRES ECHAVARRIA) Echavarria.

21 Q. Me and you got these names, you know, okay. Say
22 your name.

23 A. Echavarria.

24 Q. Echavarria, right. Did I do it right?

25 A. Without the Spanish accent but-- (Laughter.)

26 Q. Well, excuse me.

27 (Laughter.)

28 Q. We all come from different places. But in any 29 event, Mr. Echavarria -- I had that problem in Germany too.

1 But in any event, on the question that you raised, you had a
2 pretty strong position on this death penalty. Do you
3 remember?

4 A. Uh-hum.

5 Q. Okay, and you indicated that-- well, you indicated
6 a number of things. But it would be safe to say that you,
7 your opinion even had to do with the use of tax dollars and 8 things of that nature. Is that correct?

9 A. Uh-hum.

10 Q. And you pretty much feel because of that why you
11 are strongly in support of the death penalty. Is that
12 correct?

13 A. Well, just because someone is being charged with a 14 crime and it is a serious offense, I'm not going to say give 15 them the death penalty.

16 Q. Right.

17 A. I am more towards people who are repeated
18 offenders, who have been convicted repeatedly of a serious
19 crime.

20 Q. Okay, I understand that.

21 A. But as far as I am concerned, you know, this 22 gentleman from what I understand is being charged for the 23 first time, and I have no biases just to impose the death
24 penalty on him.

25 Q. Well, do you have any biases to try to find him
26 guilty just because he is charged with something that carries
27 the death penalty?

28 A. No, sir.

29 Q. Okay, so you can be totally open minded about it?

1 A. Yes, sir.

2 Q. And I see here that you are very, seem to be very
3 clear on what you think, and I appreciate that. Are you a
4 student or been a student?

5 A. I have been a student.

6 Q. Okay, and what kind of degree do you have?

7 A. Psychology.

8 Q. Oh, psychologist. And what is that, a bachelor's?

9 A. Associates.

10 Q. Associates, okay. And are you intending on 11 continuing school?

12 A. Yes, sir.

13 Q. Okay, thank you. How long have you lived here in 14 this area?

15 A. I have been in Mississippi for about eight years.

16 Q. And if I understand correctly, you came from New 17 York City; is that correct?

18 A. That's right.

19 Q. And you have never served on a jury before?

20 A. No, sir.

21 Q. Okay.

22 Mr. Lackey.

23 A. (JUROR 36, MR. JOHNNY F. LACKEY, II, stands up.)

24 Q. Okay, good morning?

25 A. Morning.

26 Q. And you also indicated on your form a strong
27 support for the death penalty; is that correct?

28 A. Yes, sir. I did.

29 Q. Okay, and you probably have heard the discussion

1       that we have had to this point. Is that correct?

2           A. Yes, sir.

3           Q. And I guess the critical issue is, you know,
4       feeling that way personally and deep down in your own
5       consciousness, do you feel that in any case where there might 6       be a question that you can be totally open minded and say
7       well, I will listen to everything? Or do you think that you
8       would be leaning right from the beginning, if it ever came to 9       that, toward giving somebody the death penalty?

10          A. No. First I would have to hear all the facts that 11       are involved in the case.

12          Q. Okay, and you can--

13          A. --If it is warranted, then I would say yes, give
14       the death penalty.

15          Q. Okay, if it's warranted.

16          A. If that is what is warranted. I even believe they 17       ought to bring back public executions, hang them out here in 18       front of the courthouse for everybody to see. That way you 19       would have a very good deterrent. But nowadays it is just 20       slap your hands and let you go.

21          Q. Okay, you think that they should do that?

22          A. Yeah. Sure. It would bring down the crime rate, I
23       believe.

24          Q. Okay, thank you, Mr. Lackey. Mr. Lackey, and I
25       take it you have never served on a jury before?

26          A. Yes, sir. I have served on a jury before.

27          Q. Okay, and what kind of case was that, civil or 28       criminal?

29          A. It was a civil, insurance fraud, attempted arson.

1 Q. Okay. And you found for the plaintiff; is that
2 correct?

3 A. That's correct.

4 Q. Well, what I would like to ask you, and this really
5 goes to everybody who may have served on a civil jury
6 before. You understand in a civil case, Mr. Lackey, the 7 burden of proof is different than a criminal case. Do you
8 understand that?

9 A. Sure.

10 Q. Okay, in a civil case they tell you something about 11 like preponderance of evidence which means one side has to 12 just make you feel that it is a little more likely that their 13 position is correct. In other words, the plaintiff has to 14 prove that it is a little more likely that he is right than 15 it is that the defendant is right. Do you understand what
16 I'm saying?

17 A. Sure, whichever side, you know, has got more what I
18 would call truthful, whatever each side is representing.

19 Q. Okay, but now you understand in a criminal case
20 that that is not what it is like?

21 A. Right.

22 Q. First of all, we don't have to prove anything. Do
23 you understand that?

24 A. Right.

25 Q. Can you follow that instruction?

26 A. I can.

27 Q. And then secondly, the prosecution has to prove not 28 just a little more proof, but it has to go beyond a 29 reasonable doubt. Do you understand?

1           A.    Right.

2           Q.    So in a criminal case there is only one side that 3 has to prove anything. Do you understand that?

4           A.    Right.

5           Q.    Can you, having been through a civil jury
6 experience - and I'm not suggesting you can't; I'm just 7 asking you - can you follow that instruction?

8           A.    I can follow it.

9           Q.    And is there anything about your strong belief,
10 your whole public execution and all that--

11          A.    --No. Like I said, I would have to hear all the 12 facts to the case, whether it deserves it or not.

13          Q.    Okay. And please don't take this personally
14 because, you know, you are kind of strong. I mean obviously,
15 I would like to inquire. But, you know, sometimes you have a
16 favorite. Do you understand what I'm saying?

17          A.    Oh, yeah.

18          Q.    Like for instance, even if a basketball game is 19 being played; right? You look at the game and you may have a 20 favorite, and you are kind of hoping that that team comes out
21 on top. Do you understand what I'm saying?

22          A.    Correct.

23          Q.    Now this is a trial; right?

24          A.    Oh, yeah.

25          Q.    And you are not supposed to have any favorites;
26 right?

27          A.    Right.

28          Q.    Okay, so what I'm trying to ask you and I would 29 like a sincere answer to it. Because of your strong view and

1 because it is a case in which somebody is charged with a
2 terrible crime, one which you believe a public execution
3 should occur in if that person is guilty of it and all that 4 kind of stuff, if the criteria is there, would you kind of 5 like have a favorite from the beginning and be rooting for 6 the prosecution?

7 A. No, sir.

8 Q. Would you root for us?

9 A. No, sir. I wouldn't root for you either. I would
10 have to hear all the facts. That is what I already stated.

11 Q. I appreciate that. Thank you very much.

12 Does everybody understand what I am trying to say?
13 Now people talk about harassing jurors and stuff like that.
14 But you understand that we don't have any personal animosity
15 towards anybody. Do you understand that? And that what we 16 do, we do if you were sitting up here. Understand what I'm 17 saying? And we do it because it ought to be done because the 18 law says based on its wisdom that there is a presumption of 19 innocence, and if there are people for whatever reason can't 20 walk with us, then this may not be the trial for them. Does 21 everyone understand what I'm saying? Okay.

22 And I know that you are ready for me to sit down.
23 Okay. And you are ready to go on and do something else, but 24 bear with me for a moment because you would appreciate, would 25 you not, that this is a very serious case. And we need to be 26 very serious about it; right? And I think that you will.

27 Now juror number 37, and that is Ms. Hall. Ms.
28 Hall, you have indicated that your [REDACTED] was a victim of a
29 very tragic situation; is that correct?

1 A. (BY JUROR 37, MS. GWYNNE F. HALL) Yes, sir.

2 Q. And is that something recent or a while ago?

3 A. About nine years ago, eight or nine years ago.

4 Q. How old is your [REDACTED] now?

5 A. [REDACTED]

6 Q. [REDACTED] okay. Was there any resolution to that? Was 7 anybody arrested because of the crime?

8 A. No, sir.

9 Q. Okay. Was it a stranger or somebody else?

10 A. We know the person.

11 Q. Somebody in the family?

12 A. No, sir.

13 Q. Okay. Is that situation and there is even a
14 certain amount of tension as I ask you the question, and I
15 can appreciate that. It would be for me too. We are here in 16 a very delicate kind of situation with a very serious charge;
17 right?

18 A. Yes, sir.

19 Q. And that is a serious situation; right?

20 A. Yes, sir.

21 Q. Is there anything about that in terms of being the 22 person that has been the victim of that kind of situation in 23 your family, right, that would make you feel a little bit
24 like you should lean in one direction here?

25 A. No, sir.

26 Q. Okay, you could be totally objective and up front
27 with the evidence?

28 A. Yes, sir.

29 Q. And you would do that?

1 A. Yes, sir.

2 Q. Okay, I appreciate it. Thank you very much.

3 Mr. Thurston, you are juror number 38. Okay, right
4 next to her, okay. I noticed that on your form you indicated
5 that you really didn't have an opinion on the death penalty;
6 is that correct?

7 A. (BY JUROR 38, MR. DANIEL D. THURSTON) No, I don't.

8 Q. Okay, that is still basically how you feel?

9 A. That's how I feel.

10 Q. So obviously, there is nothing that would affect or 11 make you lean one way or another?

12 A. No.

13 Q. Okay, you are going to be totally-- you would 14 answer affirmatively to all the questions that we asked about 15 the burden of proof and presumption of innocence; is that
16 right?

17 A. Right. That's correct.

18 Q. Thank you very much.

19 This is Mr. Franklin, juror number 39. You were 20 found not guilty in a situation, a case that was--

21 A. That's correct.

22 Q. Okay, and that was quite a while ago; is that
23 correct?

24 A. Eleven years.

25 Q. Eleven years. Okay, now is there anything about 26 that experience that would have you lean one way or the 27 other?

28 A. It would have me leaning, no. It just makes me
29 believe in the system.

1 Q. Okay, okay. I appreciate that, and you would
2 appreciate what the jurors put into your trial?

3 A. Absolutely.

4 Q. And you would be willing to put that in the trial
5 of anybody else?

6 A. I definitely would.

7 Q. And one final question. I want to ask you what the 8 charge was, but if you don't want to say, you can come up
9 here and we will--

10 A. The charge was theft.

11 Q. Huh?

12 A. Theft.

13 Q. Okay. But that happened about 11 years ago; is 14 that correct?

15 A. Correct.

16 Q. Okay, we appreciate that. Thank you very much.
17 Ms. Kreeger. I understand that your nephew was 18 convicted of manslaughter?

19 A. (BY JUROR 41, MS. CHARLENE S. KREEGER) Yes, sir.

20 Q. Okay. Anything about that experience that 21 disturbs you to the point where you have a bias one way or 22 the other?

23 A. No. He has served his time. He is out. He grew
24 up over there.

25 Q. He grew up, okay. And you also have the situation
26 here where I think you served on a jury before?

27 A. I have. I was an alternate on a criminal case, and 28 then I have served on a civil jury in federal court, but it
29 settled before it went to the jury.

1 Q. Okay, so in the criminal case you really never sat
2 on the real jury?

3 A. They dismissed me when the jury went back for 4 deliberations.

5 Q. And they only dismissed you, of course, because you
6 were an alternate?

7 A. Right.

8 Q. Okay. And you also had a situation with-- did I,
9 oh, okay. You have a pretty strong feeling on the death
10 penalty too. Is that true?

11 A. Yes. I am very strongly in favor of the death
12 penalty. I agree with what you said and that they have to 13 prove it, and it goes through the appeal process and 14 everything like that.

15 Q. And in any case because as I have indicated to you,
16 our position is it will never get there here; correct? But 17 in any case where you get to the point where the Judge gives 18 you an instruction which lets you know it's appropriate to 19 consider the whole question of death, could you give honest
20 consideration to both options, life and death, or would you
21 basically because of your--

22 A. --No, I would give it honest consideration if the 23 facts warranted it.

24 Q. Okay, appreciate it.

25 Now we also have Ms. Denise Shilstone?

26 A. (BY JUROR 42, MS. DENISE SHILSTONE) Shilstone.

27 Q. Shilstone. Ms. Shilstone, you have this very nice
28 typed out, which I appreciate. You also served on a jury
29 before?

1 A. Yes, sir. I have.

2 Q. And one or two?

3 A. Four.

4 Q. Oh, that's right. You are the veteran?

5 A. Yeah, I am the veteran.

6 Q. Okay. And one of them was a death penalty case?

7 A. Yes, it was.

8 Q. And did you serve on a jury in any other criminal 9 cases? Were all four criminal cases?

10 A. No. Two were criminal, and two were civil.

11 Q. Okay. Now given the kind of death situation that 12 you were in, you were serving on a jury, and so you really,
13 all this-- you know more about this than other folks who have 14 never been in this situation; correct?

15 A. (Juror Ms. Shilstone nods her head.)

16 Q. This is my question. Do you think that that 17 experience in any way would make you lean one way or the 18 other because, you know, you have been through it? At 19 certain points in the trial it's not academic any more; is 20 that right? In other words, there is different influences
21 working on your mind; right?

22 A. Absolutely.

23 Q. And even if you try to put things out of your mind,
24 they keep trying to creep back in; right?

25 A. Yes, but your judge's instructions help
26 tremendously at the end. If you are going to vacillate any 27 way, one way or the other, you get the instructions, and it
28 keeps you right on the right track.

29 Q. Okay, and you can be kept on the right track?

1           A.    Absolutely.

2           Q.    Okay, but there is and the reason he gives those
3 instructions is because people tend to wander?

4           A.    Uh-hum.

5           Q.    Is that correct? So is there anything about that 6 experience that would in any way affect you in this trial?

7           A.    No, sir.

8           Q.    Okay. Now Mr. Cooper. I think that you were the 9 victim of a car burglary?

10          A.    (BY JUROR 44, MR. DAVID COOPER) Correct.

11          Q.    And certainly that is not involved here?

12          A.    No.

13          Q.    And you don't think anybody here is responsible?

14          A.    No. That was in '85.

15          Q.    Huh?

16          A.    That was a long time.

17          Q.    '85. You don't think the prosecution did it?

18          A.    No.

19          Q.    And you don't think we did it?

20          A.    No.

21          Q.    And so that is not going to be a problem. Also,
22 your brother's car was stolen, and that is not going to be a
23 problem?

24          A.    No.

25          Q.    Okay. And the other thing is you also had a very 26 strong opinion as it related to the death penalty. Is that
27 correct?

28          A.    That's correct.

29          Q.    Okay, and I characterize it that way, but is it

1 strong? I don't know. Is it a strong view? I don't want to 2 put words in your mouth.

3 A. Well, like I said before, if it's a premeditated or 4 willful murder--

5 Q. --Okay, I'm sorry. You already responded. I'm 6 sorry. You refreshed my memory. Okay, now, thank you.
7 Thank you.

8 And Ms. Anderson is juror number 45. Ms. Anderson,
9 I think that you, and I'm not quite sure, but was there a
10 death in the family?

11 A. (BY JUROR 45, MS. PHYLLIS D. ANDERSON) Yes, sir.

12 Q. Okay, that was as a result of something. What was
13 that?

14 A. Drunk driving.

15 Q. What driving?

16 A. Drunk.

17 Q. Drunk driving, okay. And I think I recall now you 18 were saying that if this was that kind of case, you might 19 have a problem?

20 A. Definitely, if it was.

21 Q. Okay, and I can appreciate that, and I can 22 appreciate that distinction. In all cases, regardless of 23 what kind of cases they are, at some point we have to make
24 very delicate decisions. Do you understand what I'm saying?
25 Do you think that anything about that experience would 26 disturb you or help you, tilt you in the least way or the 27 other in this trial because of that?

28 A. Not at all.

29 Q. Thank you very much.

1                   Ms. Ladner, Connie Ladner. You just have the same
2 name as somebody else?

3           A.     (JUROR NUMBER 48, MS. CONNIE L. LADNER nods her
4 head.)

5           Q.     All right, I think we have got you on the death
6 penalty question, and you said you were a victim of a
7 domestic violence situation; right?

8           A.     Right. Yes.

9           Q.     And you also indicated that someone in your family
10 was convicted as it related to your [REDACTED] is that right?

11          A.     Yes.

12          Q.     Okay. How long ago did that happen?

13          A.     That has been about 14 years ago.

14          Q.     And it had to be a difficult experience?

15          A.     Yes. It certainly was.

16          Q.     Okay, do you think there is any, you know,
17 psychological leftovers from that that would affect you here
18 at all?

19          A.     No, sir.

20          Q.     Okay, how about the robbery situation? Were you a 21 victim of a robbery?

22          A.     Yes.

23          Q.     And how did that-- I mean I don't want you to give 24 me the whole description of it, but somebody robbed you, put 25 a gun at you or what?

26          A.     No, they had a crowbar. I was working in a small 27 convenience store just off a highway, and they just, it was 28 just drive by robbers more or less. It was just a small
29 incident.

1 Q. How long ago was that?

2 A. 1987.

3 Q. Was that person ever arrested as far as you know?

4 A. Not that I know of.

5 Q. Okay, so even though that happened, they never 6 really found that person?

7 A. As far as I know, they didn't.

8 Q. That was not someone you knew?

9 A. No, sir.

10 Q. And that is not a case that would affect you in any 11 way. Say the prosecution-- by the way, in all cases whatever
12 the prosecution charges they have to prove; you understand,
13 right? So it is really not correct to say at this point that 14 any, that in this case this is a case where a robbery will be 15 proven; right? We don't know what is going to be proven at 16 this point, and we really don't know because we weren't 17 there. Mr. Flowers, our position is going to be, wasn't
18 there, so he doesn't know either. But what I'm saying is you
19 understand that is something that they would have to prove.
20 You understand? And they would have to prove with good 21 evidence from people who either were there or people who 22 know. You understand?

23 But what I would like to ask you about is the 24 robbery situation. If this is a case where someone is trying 25 to prove robbery, would you be more likely to find robbery
26 just because of your experience?

27 A. No, sir.

28 Q. Okay, I think Ms. Young. Ms. Young?

29 A. (BY JUROR 50, MS. ANITA YOUNG) Yes.

1           Q.    How are you doing?   Okay, I think your uncle was 2   killed; is that correct?

3           A.    Right.

4           Q.    Is he someone that was here, or was it somewhere
5   else?

6           A.    He was in Waynesboro where I lived at the time.

7           Q.    Okay, were you-- was this recently or a while ago?

8           A.    A while ago in the 70's.

9           Q.    In the 70's?

10          A.    Uh-hum.

11          Q.    Okay, now is that something that you have any 12   psychological, what they call it, they call it baggage now.
13   Is there anything that you have remaining that might affect 14   you in any kind of way?

15          A.    No.

16          Q.    Okay, well, let me ask you this here.   I notice
17   very clearly you had indicated that if it was, if it were a
18   case where there was-- the allegation is that somebody killed
19   Mr. Stewart, who was a male.   Do you see what I'm saying?
20   Okay, at the same time I think that you will hear evidence
21   that suggests that some other people were killed on the same
22   day.   Do you understand what I'm saying?   A couple of those 23   folks were females.   Is that going to make you biased in this 24   case understanding that our position is that we voted not 25   guilty-- we entered a not guilty plea, and that's where we 26   are at.   Is that going to make you biased toward Mr.
27   Flowers?

28          A.    I don't know.

29          Q.    Okay.   I would like to pursue that a little bit.

1                   BY THE COURT: Ms. Young, if you would stand
2                   up. My Court Reporter can't hear your answer.

3           BY MR. LUMUMBA:

4           Q.    Okay, you said, I asked you if that was going to 5           make you biased toward Mr. Flowers; is that correct?

6           A.    (BY JUROR 50, MS. YOUNG) Right.

7           Q.    And you said, "I don't know."

8           A.    Right.

9           Q.    And I said that I would like to pursue that later.
10          Okay, that's what I said.

11                   BY THE COURT: Yeah, that is fine.

12                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

13                   BY THE COURT: Oh, you didn't want to pursue
14                   it then?

15                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, can we approach for a
16                   minute?

17                   BY THE COURT: Sure.

18                   (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
19                   THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

20                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: I would like, she expressed a 21                   real strong view. I would like-- I'm going to make 22                   a motion to pursue that in individual voir dire.

23                   BY THE COURT: Okay. I don't have any problem
24                   with that.

25                                   END BENCH CONFERENCE

26          CONTINUED VOIR DIRE BY MR. LUMUMBA:

27           Q.    Okay, we have here Ms. Neil, Shelly Neil?

28           A.    (BY JUROR 52, MS. SHELLY R. NEIL) That would be
29           me.

1           Q.    Good, Ms. Neal. That's the way to spark out. We
2   are getting a little tired. Okay, thank you very much.
3   Okay, Ms. Neal, what I had here is a little star near your 4   job, and you work-- is that a bank?

5           A.    Yes, that's correct.

6           Q.    You were describing what you do. What is it that 7   you do; I'm sorry?

8           A.    I am a local area network specialist. I work for a
9   technical services department at the bank.

10          Q.    Okay, thank you very much. And you have never been 11   a victim of any kind of crime at that bank?

12          A.    I am not in an area where that-- I'm not located in 13   a branch. I am in the main building. I would never even be 14   around that actually.

15          Q.    Okay, thank you very much.

16                   And Ms. Smith, juror number 53?

17          A.    (BY JUROR 53, MS. DONNA M. SMITH) Yes.

18          Q.    I think that your forms may be one of the ones that 19   we just recently acquired. What is your occupation? I'm 20   sorry.

21          A.    I'm a supervisor at a grocery store.

22          Q.    Okay. And have you ever been the victim of any 23   kind of crime or anything like that?

24          A.    No.

25          Q.    Oh, okay. On number 39 you said that, they were 26   asking if you have any religious or personal biases against 27   anything, and you indicated you had biases against folks who 28   worship-- oh, I'm sorry. You said folks that worship the 29   devil; right?

1 A. Yeah, things like that.

2 Q. Or trying to manipulate people; is that right?

3 A. (Juror Ms. Donna Smith nods her head.)

4 Q. Okay, I didn't get the devil part in the first time
5 I read it.

6 A. Okay.

7 Q. Okay, that is the only kind of bias?

8 A. They were mixed up.

9 Q. Okay, and it certainly wouldn't affect you?

10 A. No.

11 Q. Thank you.

12 Juror number 55, I did just receive your form, and 13 that is Mr. Sallis. Is that correct?

14 A. (BY JUROR 55, MR. OTHA BELL SALLIS) That is me.

15 Q. Okay, how are you doing?

16 A. Fine. How about you?

17 Q. Okay, good. You did know somebody here. That was 18 Mr.?

19 A. Mr. Taylor.

20 Q. Okay, and I think that is why I marked you. Is 21 that going to influence you in any way?

22 A. No, it wouldn't.

23 Q. And I want to ask this question to everybody. Is 24 there anybody here who-- I mean this situation is where 25 actually somebody is related to each other as far as a
26 stepfather and stepson. No, no, no. Father-in-law.

27 A. (By Mr. Sallis) Right.

28 Q. Father-in-law and son-in-law. But as to the rest
29 of you, is there any jurors here that knows someone else that

1 is on the jury panel, even though you may not be related to
2 them? Is there other people here that you know? Anybody
3 that fits that description? (Many hands go up.)

4 No, let me just clarify that. I'm not talking
5 about knowing somebody else because you were here with them
6 and you have been talking in the hall since you came; right.
7 But you knew them before you got here. And if you could, I'm 8 going to ask you to raise your cards, and we will take down
9 the numbers. (Many cards go up.)

10 Juror number 5, juror number 21, number 20. As I
11 call your card, you can lay it down. 25, juror number 45 and 12 44, juror number 52. I think I said 21. Did I say 21?
13 Okay, juror number 70, juror number 72, juror number 8,
14 number 9, number 16, number 14, number 32, number 34, number
15 36, number 42, number 13?

16 A. (BY JUROR 13, MS. CAROL C. YOUNG) Number 13. I
17 took the other guy's that is not here any more.

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

19 Q. You raised the wrong card? Number 13, number 58,
20 59, 56, 62, 63, 64 and 60. Maybe the easier question would 21 be is there anybody that doesn't know anybody. (Several 22 cards go up.) No, I don't want to ask that. But let me
23 see.

24 Juror number 5. That is juror right up front here,
25 and that is-- who, juror number 5, what is your--

26 A. (BY JUROR 5, MS. LINDA YARBROUGH) 5. I'm Linda
27 Yarbrough. I know of a lady that I see that comes in and out
28 of my business where I work, but as far as personally knowing
29 her, I don't know her.

1 Q. Okay. So which juror is that? Do you remember?

2 A. Barnes, back in the back, Rose. I just know of 3 her. She worked at a place where I worked some years back,
4 and I just see her in and out. But as far as personally
5 knowing her, I can't say I personally know her.

6 Q. Okay, juror number 5 does not really--

7 A. --I don't really know her. I just know of her, I
8 would say.

9 Q. Doesn't really know Ms. Barnes, but she sees her
10 coming in and out of the business. And Ms. Barnes is over 11 here. What is your number, Ms. Barnes?

12 A. (BY JUROR 58, MS. ROSE M. BARNES) Number 58.

13 Q. Number 58, okay, all right. Okay, now we got, is 14 there anything about that relationship -- the real question
15 here, let me ask everybody the real question, and then I just 16 would like to know who, kind of like who you know. But the 17 real question here is that going to affect you in any way?
18 Say you and Ms. Barnes get in the jury room together. You
19 guys are not going to hook up together?

20 A. (BY JUROR 5, MS. LINDA YARBROUGH) No, because we 21 haven't hooked up with me seeing her at my business, so no.

22 Q. Okay, so you will be your own independent woman?

23 A. I am.

24 Q. Juror number 21, that is Juror Susan Partridge.
25 Okay, 21, who is it you know, Ms. Partridge?

26 A. (BY JUROR 21, MS. SUSAN C. PARTRIDGE) I know Pat
27 Turner and Curtis Davis.

28 Q. Pat Turner? And Pat Turner is juror number 8. I
29 can't see-- that is yours; right?

1           A.     (BY JUROR 8, MS. PATRICIA A. TURNER)   That is 2     mine.

3           Q.     And who is the other person?

4           A.     (BY JUROR 21, MS. PARTRIDGE)   Curtis Davis.

5           Q.     Number 32, okay.   And I'm going to ask both of you,
6     that was the person you were going to say you knew?

7           A.     (BY JUROR 8, MS. TURNER)   Yes.

8           Q.     Was that the person you were going to say you knew?

9           A.     (BY JUROR 32, MR. CURTIS H. DAVIS)   Yes.

10          Q.     So we can have them all at the same time.   Okay, is 11     it true that that would not affect you at all?

12          A.     (BY JUROR 8, MS. TURNER)   No.

13          Q.     You can be independent?   Now how close are you?

14          A.     (BY JUROR 8, MS. TURNER)   Curtis and I are pretty 15     close because we work with the youth at our church together.

16          Q.     Okay, and how about you?

17          A.     (BY JUROR 21, MS. PARTRIDGE)   I know them through 18     my parents.

19          Q.     Through your parents, okay.   All right.   Is 20     anybody-- Curtis, how about you?   You going to be 21     independent?

22          A.     (BY JUROR 32, MR. CURTIS DAVIS)   Sure.

23          Q.     Will you tend to listen to her more than other
24     people?

25          A.     No.

26                     (Laughter.)

27          Q.     Definitely not, huh?   Well, let me ask you this.
28     Would you tend to listen to her less?   You wouldn't tend to 29     listen to her less; right?

1 A. (Juror Mr. Davis shakes his head.)

2 Q. Okay. How about you?

3 A. (Juror number 21, Ms. Partridge shakes her head.)

4 No.

5 Q. Okay. That is number 32; that is number 8 and
6 number 21. Okay.

7 Okay, now juror number 20, I believe, raised your
8 card, and that is Ms. Ballman?

9 A. (BY JUROR 20, MS. CINDY S. BALLMAN) Yes.

10 Q. Okay, Ms. Ballman, who is it you know?

11 A. Number?

12 A. (BY JUROR 42, MS. DENISE SHILSTONE) 42.

13 A. (BY JUROR 20, MS. BALLMAN) 42. 42 and Shelly. 52
14 and 42.

15 Q. Okay, juror number 20 knows--

16 A. 52 and 42.

17 Q. 52 and 42. Do all three of you know each other?

18 A. (BY JUROR 42, MS. DENISE SHILSTONE) I know Cindy.

19 A. (BY JUROR 20, MS. BALLMAN) Just from work.

20 A. (BY JUROR 52, MS. SHELLY R. NEIL) I know her. I
21 don't know her.

22 Q. Okay, how do you know, how do you know--

23 A. I know her because she calls me on breaks.

24 A. (BY JUROR 20, MS. BALLMAN) That's right.

25 Q. You work at the same place?

26 A. (BY JUROR 52, MS. NEIL) Yes. We work for the same
27 place. We don't work in--

28 A. (BY JUROR 20, MS. BALLMAN) --We work in the same--
29 none of us work in the same area.

1           A.    (BY JUROR 52, MS. NEIL) We all work in the same
2 building.

3           A.    (BY JUROR 42, MS. SHILSTONE) Not on the same
4 floor, not in the same department, just the same building.

5           Q.    Okay. For the purposes of the Court Reporter,
6 juror number 20, number 52 and number 42 all work for the 7 same company?

8           A.    (BY JUROR 20, MS. BALLMAN) Correct.

9           Q.    Not necessarily in the same building.

10          A.    (BY JUROR 42, MS. SHILSTONE) Right.

11          Q.    And is there anything about that relationship that 12 would-- you know the questions. You know the question. Is 13 that going to affect you at all?

14          A.    (JURORS 20, 42, AND 52 ALL SAY NO.)

15          Q.    You are not going to lean toward each other any 16 more than anybody else? Or any less than any anybody else?

17          A.    (BY JURORS 20, 42, AND 52) No.

18          Q.    Now we go with juror number 25?

19          A.    (BY JUROR 25, MS. EMMA J. PELL) I know 59.

20          Q.    You know number 59. And number 59's name is?

21          A.    (BY JUROR 59, MS. KARRIE L. TROTTER) Karrie
22 Trotter.

23          Q.    Trotter, Ms. Trotter. And is it through a work
24 relationship or social relationship?

25          A.    (BY JUROR 25, MS. PELL) We went to high school
26 together. We barely remember each other, but we met each
27 other.

28          Q.    You said barely remember each other?

29          A.    Yeah. We didn't know each other too well.

1 Q. All right. So that is not going to affect you--

2 A. No.

3 Q. --in terms of being independent?

4 A. (BY BOTH JURORS 25 AND 59) No.

5 Q. We ask these questions because you understand,
6 don't you, Ms. Trotter, that we are concerned about 7 independence as far as your independent thinking? Although 8 you talk to the other jurors, nobody-- we need a decision
9 from each person on the jury. That is all right too, Ms.
10 Pell?

11 A. (BY JUROR 25, MS. PELL) Fine.

12 Q. Then we have juror number 45. And juror number 45,
13 could you identify yourself, please?

14 A. (BY JUROR 45, MS. PHYLLIS D. ANDERSON) Right here.

15 Q. Okay, and who is it that you know?

16 A. The man in the front row over there used to work
17 for my husband.

18 Q. Okay.

19 A. No relationship at all; just know the face.

20 Q. Okay, that is juror number 11. That is juror
21 number 11, and his name is Winston Warden. Okay, Mr. Warden,
22 I didn't want to surprise you with that, but all we were 23 doing is juror number 45 was just indicating - and juror
24 number 45 for your information is Ms. Anderson - was just 25 saying that she knew you. That's all.

26 A. (JUROR 11, MR. WINSTON WARDEN turned around to 27 look.) (Laughter.) I didn't see her.

28 Q. Okay, how is it that you know him?

29 A. (BY JUROR 45, MS. ANDERSON) He used to work with

1 my husband.

2 Q. Worked with your husband, okay. So do you know him
3 well or just--

4 A. I just know the face because I saw him in there
5 with a bunch of other guys working with my husband.

6 Q. Okay. And there is certainly nothing about that 7 that would affect you?

8 A. Not at all.

9 Q. Okay.

10 If you remember that you remember her, that is not
11 going to influence you in the jury room, is it?

12 A. (BY JUROR 11, MR. WARDEN) I would have to find out 13 who her husband is.

14 (Laughter.)

15 Q. What is your husband's name?

16 A. (BY JUROR 45, MS. ANDERSON) Jerry.

17 A. (BY JUROR 11, MR. WARDEN) Jerry Anderson. Oh,
18 yeah.

19 Q. Is that going to cause a problem for you?

20 A. No.

21 Q. What we are asking is this: Are you going to be 22 more inclined to listen to her or less inclined to listen to 23 her if you are on the same jury together than you would 24 anybody else?

25 A. No. I go by the facts and that's it.

26 Q. Okay, very good.

27 Then we would ask the same question of juror number
28 44.

29 A. (BY JUROR 44, MR. DAVID COOPER) Juror number 60

1 was my son's soccer coach a couple of years ago.

2 Q. Juror number 60. Did he give your son a lot of 3 playing time?

4 A. Yeah, he played.

5 Q. So the same question to you?

6 A. No. It won't influence.

7 Q. Was that the only relationship? A soccer coach?

8 A. Right.

9 Q. Okay, thank you.

10 Same question to you. Do you remember him?

11 A. (BY JUROR 60, MR. DONALD G. SEYMOUR) Yes.

12 Q. His son a good player?

13 A. (By several unidentified jurors) Oohh.

14 A. (BY JUROR 60, MR. SEYMOUR) Yes.

15 A. (By unidentified juror) Put him on the spot.

16 Q. Okay, but really what I'm saying, is that something
17 that is going to affect you at all?

18 A. (BY JUROR 60, MR. SEYMOUR) No.

19 Q. Okay, good. And that is juror number 60 is Mr.
20 Seymour.

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And juror number 44.

23 Okay. Okay, we have got number 52.

24 A. (BY JUROR 52, MS. SHELLY R. NEIL) Well, you
25 already did me once.

26 Q. I'm sorry.

27 Juror number 70.

28 A. (BY JUROR 70, MS. WILLIE M. SHOOK) I know Pat
29 Turner and Wanda Melvin.

1 Q. Juror number 70 knows Ms. Turner who has already
2 responded.

3 A. (JUROR 8, MS. PATRICIA TURNER) I didn't
4 (inaudible).

5 Q. And then you know who else?

6 A. (BY JUROR 70, MS. SHOOK) Ms. Melvin.

7 Q. Ms. Melvin. Ms. Melvin, what is your number? 64,
8 okay. And what is your relationship to both of them?

9 A. (BY JUROR 70, MS. SHOOK) I know them socially, and 10 Ms. Turner's husband built my house.

11 Q. And you have known them both for quite a while,
12 have you?

13 A. Several years.

14 Q. Several years. Any problem exercising
15 independence?

16 A. No, sir.

17 Q. Friendship wouldn't affect you?

18 A. No, sir.

19 Q. And friendship, you wouldn't lose a friendship,
20 would you? I mean what I'm saying is you would do what you
21 had to do to be a good juror?

22 A. Right.

23 Q. Okay. Is that the same, Ms. Turner?

24 A. (BY JUROR 8, MS. PATRICIA TURNER) Yes.

25 Q. Same with you, Ms. Melvin?

26 A. (BY JUROR 64, MS. WANDA G. MELVIN) Yes.

27 Q. Okay, the other people who knew each other was 72.
28 Juror number 72. And that's--

29 A. (BY JUROR 72, MS. BARBARA ABERNATHY) And I know

1 number 13.

2 Q. Okay, juror number 13 by the way is Ms. Carol
3 Young, and juror number 72 for the record is Barbara
4 Abernathy. Is that correct?

5 A. Yes, sir.

6 Q. And Ms. Abernathy, how is it that you know Miss
7 Carol?

8 A. Well, I have known her so long I don't know.

9 Q. --Carol Young, Carol Young, right.

10 A. I have just known her for about 20 years.

11 Q. Only 20 years, okay. What relationship do you know
12 her in? Friends?

13 A. Through a friend.

14 Q. Okay. You guys talk a lot or socialize a lot
15 together?

16 A. The first time I have seen her in about four or 17 five years.

18 Q. Oh, okay. So that relationship wouldn't affect you
19 at all?

20 A. No.

21 Q. Same with you?

22 A. (BY JUROR 13, MS. CAROL YOUNG) No.

23 Q. Okay, Ms. Young answered the same with her, that 24 that is not a relationship that would affect her. Okay.
25 That was 72 and number 13.

26 Have we spoken to 8 yet? Juror number 8. Yeah, we 27 have done spoke to 8 a bunch of times.

28 A. (By Unidentified Juror) 8 knows everybody.

29 Q. Juror number 9. And who is it that you know?

1           A.    (BY JUROR 9, MS. REBECCA I. O'NEAL) I went to high
2 school with Shelly Slocums. I don't know her name now.

3           A.    (BY JUROR 52, MS. SHELLEY R. NEIL) That is the 4 infamous number 52 back here.

5           Q.    Oh.

6           A.    (BY JUROR 9, MS. O'NEAL) I haven't seen her since 7 graduation. I just--

8           A.    (BY JUROR 52, MS. NEIL) --Apparently I was boring
9 is all I can figure.

10          Q.    That's a reasonable assumption. Okay, number 52
11 you knew her in high school?

12          A.    (BY JUROR 9, MS. O'NEAL) Yes.

13          Q.    Is that going to affect you at all?

14          A.    (BY JUROR 52, MS. NEIL) No.

15          Q.    How about you?

16          A.    (BY JUROR 9, MS. O'NEAL) No.

17          Q.    Were you guys close?

18          A.    (BY JUROR MS. O'NEAL) No.

19          Q.    Okay, high school.

20                Then we have got, we are going to move on here, and 21 we have got juror number 16. Who is it you know?

22          A.    (BY JUROR 16, MR. DAVID JOEL DOBSON) Clay
23 Dedeaux.

24          Q.    That is number 62? Okay, juror number 16 knows Mr.
25 Dedeaux. Was that a school situation?

26          A.    Yes.

27          Q.    And it has been a while since you have been in 28 school; right?

29          A.    Yes.

1 Q. Okay, have you guys socialized since then?

2 A. No.

3 Q. No, okay. Is there anything about that
4 relationship that would affect you?

5 A. No, sir.

6 Q. Mr. Dedeaux, do you know anyone else other than Mr.
7 Dobson?

8 A. (BY JUROR 62, MR. JULIAN C. DEDEAUX) No, sir.

9 Q. Mr. Dobson, what was your number again? I'm sorry.

10 A. (BY JUROR 16, MR. DOBSON) 16.

11 Q. Okay. Juror number 14, we may have spoken to 12 already?

13 A. (BY JUROR 13, MS. CAROL C. YOUNG) 13, I am 13. 14
14 is not really here. There is no 14.

15 Q. Oh, is it? (Laughter.) 14 is really 13?

16 A. Correct.

17 Q. Okay. Number 32. 34, I'm sorry. We have already 18 spoken to 32. 34.

19 A. (BY JUROR 34, MR. DANIEL L. DAVIS) Right here.
20 Mrs. Shilstone as a customer.

21 Q. Okay, Ms. Shilstone. Okay, she is a customer?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And what was your number again? I'm sorry.

24 A. 34.

25 Q. And Ms. Shilstone, what was your number?

26 A. (BY JUROR 42, MS. DENISE SHILSTONE) 42.

27 Q. 42, okay. And you just know him as a business
28 friend?

29 A. Uh-hum.

1 Q. It wouldn't affect you?

2 A. No.

3 Q. Okay, we need to know about juror number 36. Have 4 we asked 36 yet?

5 A. (BY JUROR 36, MR. JOHNNY F. LACKEY, II) No. I
6 know Mr. Seymour.

7 Q. You know Mr. Seymour. How is it that you know Mr.
8 Seymour?

9 A. Through IBW.

10 Q. Oh, okay. You both do electrical work?

11 A. Right.

12 Q. Both electricians?

13 A. Right.

14 Q. In the brotherhood?

15 A. Right.

16 Q. Okay, and do you see each other a lot, on a regular 17 basis?

18 A. No. Just occasionally.

19 Q. Would that affect your independence?

20 A. No, it wouldn't.

21 Q. So you could argue with Mr. Seymour if it came time
22 to it?

23 A. Oh, yes. I have done it before.

24 Q. Same with you, Mr. Seymour; is that right?

25 A. (BY JUROR 60, MR. DONALD G. SEYMOUR) Yes.

26 Q. Okay, it wouldn't affect you?

27 A. No.

28 Q. Okay, so that is 36 and 60.

29 Mr. Seymour, I might as well ask you this. There

1 are several people have said they know you. Do you know
2 anybody else in here other than the two that have already 3 mentioned--

4 A. (BY JUROR 60, MR. SEYMOUR) I think that covers it.

5 Q. That covers it? Okay. Okay, that will do it.

6 56?

7 A. (BY JUROR 56, MS. CATHERINE BLAKELY) Yes.

8 Q. Yes, that is Ms. Blakely. Are you Ms. Blakely?

9 A. Blakely. I know 63.

10 Q. You know number 63?

11 A. Yes. He lives in the neighborhood with, used to 12 live in the neighborhood with my daughter.

13 Q. And number 63 is Mr. James. Will it affect you, 14 Mr. James?

15 A. (BY JUROR 63, MR. RON JAMES) No.

16 Q. Okay. So you think you can argue with Ms. Blakely
17 if it came down to it, huh?

18 A. Huh?

19 (Laughter.)

20 Q. Okay, do you think you could be independent as a
21 juror?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Regardless of who else-- is that true of you too,
24 Ms. Blakely?

25 A. (BY JUROR 56, MS. CATHERINE BLAKELY) Yes.

26 Q. Okay, very good. How long have you known each
27 other?

28 A. How long have I known him? About 5 years.

29 Q. About 5 years.

1                   Okay, I know that takes care of 60 and it takes
2                   care of 63. Anybody else you know, Mr. Blakely-- I mean, I'm 3                   sorry, not Mr. Blakely. Mr. James?

4                   A.     (BY JUROR 63, MR. RON JAMES) James. No, but I
5                   have a question though.

6                   Q.     What is that?

7                   A.     My mom got killed by a drunk driver about 5 years
8                   ago. They gave the dude 25 years which I don't think was 9                   right, you know.

10                  Q.     Okay. So this is, Mr. Blakely [sic], you are 11                  number 63. And you are bringing to our attention that your 12                  mother was killed--

13                  A.     (By unidentified person) --James.

14                  Q.     James, Mr. James, I'm sorry. Mr. James, you are 15                  bringing it to our attention that some time ago your mother
16                  was killed by a drunk driver?

17                  A.     (BY JUROR 63, MR. JAMES) Yes.

18                  Q.     Okay, and that was one of the questions we had 19                  asked before. And they gave him some time in jail; is that
20                  right?

21                  A.     Yeah, but (inaudible).

22                               BY THE COURT: Would you stand up, Mr. James.
23                               I can't hear you.

24                  A.     I think he spent about two years in jail, and they 25                  let him out on probation.

26                  Q.     Oh, is that what happened? Okay. Is there
27                  something about your experience that is going to make you 28                  prejudiced against this case here?

29                  A.     No, it ain't. Not with him, no.

1 Q. Okay. But you have a problem with that. You
2 thought you had a problem with that?

3 A. Yeah.

4 Q. Do you know anybody else here other than Ms.
5 Blakely?

6 A. No.

7 Q. Okay.

8 Anybody-- some people we crossed off the list
9 because people have identified you as knowing people. Is 10 there any people who raised their sign that said that they 11 knew other people that knows somebody other than we have 12 already talked about? (No response).

13 BY JUROR 39, MR. THOMAS FRANKLIN: Your Honor,
14 I would like to request a comfort break.

15 BY THE COURT: Okay. We will take about 10
16 minutes. How about that?

17 (FOLLOWING A MORNING RECESS ON MARCH 23, 1999,
18 VOIR DIRE CONTINUED IN OPEN COURT WITH ALL COUNSEL, 19 THE DEFENDANT AND THE JURY PANEL PRESENT:)

20 BY THE COURT: Everybody back?

21 BY SEVERAL JURORS: No.

22 BY A JUROR: Number 11 ain't back.

23 BY THE COURT: There he is. All right, sir.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Should I proceed, Judge?

25 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Thank you very much.

27 CONTINUED VOIR DIRE BY MR. LUMUMBA:

28 Q. Ms. Hilton is juror number 57. Ms. Hilton?

29 A. (BY JUROR 57, MS. JENNIFER D. HILTON) Right here.

1 Q. Okay, Ms. Hilton, you have also indicated that you
2 were actually the victim of a crime. Is that correct?

3 A. No, my [REDACTED] was.

4 Q. Your [REDACTED] was a victim of a crime?

5 A. Yes, sir.

6 Q. And thank you for clarifying that. And that was a
7 serious crime, the crime of rape?

8 A. Yes, sir.

9 Q. Okay, how long ago did that happen?

10 A. About four or five years ago, but the family was 11 not told until after the crime had been committed and he went 12 to trial, so we didn't know anything about him being 13 convicted or anything. So we weren't really involved in the 14 emotional part of it until after the trial.

15 Q. So you don't think there is any, really any kind of 16 traumatic experiences which would affect you from that 17 decision?

18 A. No, sir.

19 Q. And in no way are you going to let anything from 20 that carry over to this?

21 A. No, sir.

22 Q. Death penalty is another question which you have 23 indicated a very, kind of like a strong view. I think you
24 said you strongly support the death penalty. Is that
25 correct?

26 A. If warranted, yes, sir.

27 Q. If warranted. You have heard all that discussion
28 about different circumstances and all that kind of stuff;
29 right?

1           A.    Yes.

2           Q.    Okay, and you know more now probably from those
3 instructions about the way it is supposed to happen than you
4 did when you first filled out the form; right?

5           A.    Right.

6           Q.    Do you feel that and remembering at all times just 7 because you know how it is supposed to happen in court, that
8 doesn't mean that you as an individual have got to compel
9 your behavior to it. It just means that if you don't feel
10 you can, you have got to let us know; right? Do you
11 understand what I'm saying? Then we can make a choice or the 12 Judge can make a choice whether you can sit. Do you
13 understand what I'm saying?

14          A.    (Juror 57, Ms. Hilton nods her head.)

15          Q.    So that understanding all that, would it be your 16 representation to us that you can follow the law in all 17 reports?

18          A.    Yes, I can follow the law.

19          Q.    Okay, and you would not go into the things of any 20 case-- here again, I'm not talking about this one, but any 21 case you would not go into the death penalty saying or 22 leaning toward death?

23          A.    No.

24          Q.    Just because someone had been killed?

25          A.    No.

26          Q.    Okay, thank you very much. I appreciate that
27 answer.

28                And I think that Ms. Trotter -- there just is an 29 indication here that you were victim of a crime or somebody

1 in your family was? That is Trotter, seat number 59?

2 A. (BY JUROR 59, MS. KARRIE L. TROTTER) Oh. Well, my 3 parents were robbed. They weren't home. The house was
4 burglarized.

5 Q. But they actually were not there?

6 A. No. Nobody was there.

7 Q. And certainly you told the Judge that you wouldn't 8 have any problems because of that, and you won't, will you?

9 A. No. I don't have any problems.

10 Q. Okay, and I don't want to repeat all the questions,
11 but you also expressed a strong view in favor of the death
12 penalty. Is that correct?

13 A. That's correct.

14 Q. And you also had some concerns about tax dollars.
15 Is that right?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And.

18 A. Well, actually my views have changed since I have 19 been here. I didn't know much about it, and I still support
20 the death penalty, but I didn't realize there was so many 21 steps and everything involved. I would have to follow those 22 steps.

23 Q. Okay, but not only would you have to, would you
24 want to?

25 A. Oh, yes. Definitely.

26 Q. Okay, you say your views have changed, huh? Okay, 27 and understanding those steps are put in place because the 28 law has a respect for life; right?

29 A. Right. Right.

1           Q.    And it is very careful about people's lives. So
2   that is why the only way it works is if jurors are very
3   careful about people's right not to be convicted for crimes
4   they didn't commit; right?

5           A.    Right.

6           Q.    And jurors are very careful about life; right? And 7   you are willing to do that?

8           A.    Yes.

9           Q.    Thank you very much. Your tax dollars statement
10   notwithstanding; right?

11          A.    Excuse me?

12          Q.    Your tax dollars statement notwithstanding, you
13   still want to do it?

14          A.    Right. Right.

15          Q.    Okay. And juror number 60 -- we will move on and 16   go ahead. We have already talked. We have already talked,
17   juror number 60, and you have already expressed your views on 18   the death penalty. You are not a victim of any kind of crime
19   or anything, are you?

20          A.    (BY JUROR 60, MR. DONALD G. SEYMOUR) Huh?

21          Q.    You are not a victim of any kind of crime?

22          A.    No.

23          Q.    Okay. And actually, what you indicated in your 24   questionnaire was that actually-- this is before you knew
25   anything about the procedures; is that correct?

26          A.    (No response.)

27          Q.    When you filled out the questionnaire, you didn't 28   know anything about the procedures here at court?

29          A.    No. What does that, what it states on the

1 questionnaire?

2 Q. Well, it just states that you believe that the 3 penalty should only be in effect for someone caught in the 4 act of a crime. That's what you put; is that correct?

5 A. I was more specifically, that is the death
6 penalty.

7 Q. That is what you believe?

8 A. A specific statement, yes.

9 Q. That is what you believe. And the crime is not 10 just-- and not just for a situation where a person, where it
11 just may be surmised from other factors. Well, anyway you 12 said for a person caught in the act of a crime. That was 13 your view; is that correct?

14 A. True. That was my question--view as far as being 15 specific about what you were asking me.

16 Q. Okay, so you-- and I appreciate that. Excuse me,
17 because what you were saying to me all along: Could you be a
18 little more specific? Is that what you're saying?

19 A. Exactly.

20 Q. Because you were very specific in your response in
21 that.

22 A. Yeah, I don't feel like just because there is a
23 death that has happened, that a person should be put to death
24 if convicted for it.

25 Q. Thank you very much.

26 There are a number of people who indicated they
27 have been in law enforcement, and I noticed that Mr. Dedeaux
28 -- is that how you pronounce your name?

29 A. (BY JUROR 62, MR. JULIAN C. DEDEAUX) Yes.

1           Q.    Okay, Mr. Dedeaux, juror number 62. Are you still
2 in law enforcement? You are still doing security?

3           A.    Yeah, I do corporate security for a local casino.

4           Q.    And Mr. Dedeaux, before that, you were actually a
5 Harrison County Sheriff's Deputy; is that correct?

6           A.    That's correct.

7           Q.    Do you have any kind of meeting in Mississippi
8 where Sheriff's people from all over different counties come
9 together? Do you have that?

10          A.    I have not been a part of it. I'm not aware of 11 any.

12          Q.    Okay, I'm not saying there is. I am just trying to 13 see. Okay, but in any event, sheriffs -- this case
14 originated in Montgomery County; right? And it may turn
15 out-- well, actually I'm not sure. But other law enforcement
16 officials - they may be state law enforcement officials; they 17 may be from other parts of the system - will come and 18 testify. And it is kind of like the same question I put to 19 Ms. Pell, you know, while ago. You are a brother in law
20 enforcement; is that correct?

21          A.    Yeah.

22          Q.    Well, at least you used to be, and you are still 23 doing security?

24          A.    Right.

25          Q.    Would you tend to believe a law enforcement person
26 before you believe anyone else?

27          A.    No, sir.

28          Q.    Okay. Having been law enforcement, you know they 29 are human like everybody else?

1           A.    That's exactly-- I have seen law enforcement
2   personnel put in jail just as much as citizens or criminals,
3   so I have no sides on that.

4           Q.    Okay, so and when you say criminal, you mean
5   somebody that has been convicted?

6           A.    Right.

7           Q.    You wouldn't assume somebody is a criminal just 8   because they are here in court?

9           A.    Exactly.

10          Q.    Okay, and I appreciate that.  So basically what we 11   are saying, they are human and they make mistakes like 12   everybody else?

13          A.    That's right.

14          Q.    Sometimes they are right; sometimes they are wrong?

15          A.    Right.

16          Q.    You wouldn't have any problem with that statement?

17          A.    No.

18          Q.    Okay.  I appreciate that, and I don't have any 19   other questions, Mr. Dedeaux.  So there is nothing about that 20   would make you uncomfortable?

21          A.    No.

22          Q.    And the next thing just by-- is there anyone else
23   here still working in law enforcement or security?  Anybody
24   else?  Anybody else that actually was a law enforcement
25   officer still here?

26                Okay, now I noticed several people, if you can show
27   me by a raise of hands, who had relatives -- Ms. Pell, you
28   don't have to raise yours.  Who had relatives that were in 29   law enforcement; just raise your cards.

1 (Several numbers go up.)

2 And I'm just going to ask you this question. I
3 think you have already been asked this, but the same
4 questions that I -- you can show by nodding your head. The 5 same questions I just put to the gentleman, Mr. Dedeaux,
6 would be the ones that I would put to you. Anybody feel that
7 they would favor the testimony of a law enforcement officer
8 merely because they -- I don't know that has ever actually
9 been put to you exactly like that. We are talking about live
10 testimony now. We are not just saying well, because that 11 person was a law enforcement officer. You have already told 12 us you are not going to come in here and just be 13 pro-prosecution because they are a law enforcement officer.
14 But now the question becomes and that is the question we put 15 to Ms. Pell for the first time: Would you tend to - and we 16 can start off with juror in seat number 9. That is Ms.
17 Neal.

18 A. (BY JUROR 9, MS. REBECCA I. O'NEAL) O'Neal.

19 Q. Is it O'Neal?

20 A. O'Neal.

21 Q. Okay. Would you tend to believe a law enforcement
22 officer's testimony just because they are a law enforcement
23 officer?

24 A. No.

25 Q. Would you tend to believe it more than another
26 person who is not, whatever they are?

27 A. No.

28 Q. Okay. And I think you had raised your sign also,
29 Ms. Ladner. That is Ms. Betty Ladner. We have a Connie

1 Ladner, a Betty Ladner, and another kind of Ladner. You guys
2 are not related, are you?

3 A. (BY JUROR 6, MS. BETTY E. LADNER) No.

4 Q. Okay.

5 A. Actually I am related to the Connie Ladner that was
6 here.

7 Q. You are related to her?

8 A. Yeah.

9 Q. Oh, okay. That is not going to affect you?

10 A. No.

11 Q. Go ahead and tell me about the response to my 12 question about police officers. Are you going to tend to 13 believe another police officer?

14 A. No.

15 Q. Thank you. You think you can follow the 16 instructions on whatever that is; right?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Okay. Someone else back here had their sign up.
19 How about you, Mr. Crockett?

20 A. (BY JUROR 28, MR. EUGENE CROCKETT, JR.) No, sir.
21 People are human to me.

22 Q. Okay, the next row back there.

23 A. (BY JUROR 53, MS. DONNA M. SMITH) No, sir. I--

24 Q. Could you hold up your sign one more time, please?

25 A. 53.

26 Q. And that is number 53?

27 A. I would just listen. I mean I wouldn't say just 28 because they are a police officer, I will listen to them more
29 than somebody else.

1 Q. And Ms. Smith, who was it in your -- your father
2 is--

3 A. My father. He worked for Harrison County Sheriff's
4 Department.

5 Q. He was with the Sheriff's Department?

6 A. Uh-hum.

7 Q. He worked as a deputy?

8 A. Uh-huh.

9 Q. What was his rank?

10 A. I really don't know. I didn't even know he was in 11 it until his death.

12 Q. Okay, and right next to you somebody raised their 13 sign. You didn't raise your sign?

14 A. (BY JUROR 52, MS. SHELLY NEIL) No sign raising
15 here.

16 Q. Okay. Anybody else back there raise their sign?
17 Okay. Over here we have number 18 which is Ms. Weiss.

18 A. (BY JUROR 18, MS. RAYANNE M. WEISS) My uncle is 19 currently a volunteer sheriff, and that wouldn't affect me,
20 but you know, as y'all were sitting here talking, I don't 21 think it would affect me either, but, you know, my job every 22 day I have to get releases from the police and from the 23 courts and I report that, and I understand how the legal 24 system works. But to me, a law enforcement or a court
25 person, they are human, but they are also officials who 26 release what they consider to be the facts. So I might tend 27 to listen to them a little bit more.

28 Q. Okay. Hold that thought just a second.

29 (Pause while Mr. Lumumba confers with

1 co-counsel.)

2 Q. That had nothing to do with the question, okay. So
3 basically what you are telling us, because of your job and 4 what you do all the time-- folks who don't know, you are a
5 journalist; right?

6 A. (BY JUROR MS. WEISS) Right.

7 Q. And you are saying that you get facts from law
8 enforcement officers?

9 A. Right.

10 Q. And you may tend to pay more attention to what they 11 are saying and give it -- I guess the term would be give it a 12 little more credibility?

13 A. Right.

14 Q. Because of your job, you give them credibility?

15 A. Right. I have to wait to complete the story until 16 I--

17 Q. --All right, well, that may be a problem. I just 18 want to explore it just a little bit. I want to explore it
19 because, you know, the average citizen doesn't have a chance
20 to give you information all the time. But are you telling us 21 that because they are police officers, it may creep into your 22 consciousness if two people are on the stand and you may tend 23 to believe the one that is a police officer a little more 24 because of your--

25 A. Right, what I do every day.

26 Q. Because of what you do every day. And would it be 27 safe to say that that is, that has been made so relevant that 28 you felt it was necessary to raise it; correct?

29 A. Right.

1 Q. Okay, and is one of those things-- I know you have
2 told us before about something else. Is it one of those
3 things that you really couldn't make an absolute commitment
4 on as to what would happen?

5 A. Right.

6 Q. You would try to follow the rules?

7 A. I would; oh, yes.

8 Q. But you may not?

9 A. I couldn't say, but I would say more than the 10 average person I would have a tendency to listen to someone 11 considered to be an expert, legal person.

12 Q. Is there a chance that you may not be able to 13 follow that rule in terms of weighing in terms of it?

14 A. I didn't follow you. I would try to follow the 15 rules that were set out on that sort of person.

16 Q. Okay, I understand that. I don't want to be 17 accused of harassing you, but I am just trying to get a
18 little bit clearer. But you did raise it?

19 A. Right.

20 Q. Is my point. Do you, is it possible that it could 21 affect your opinion?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. It is? That's why you raised it?

24 A. Uh-hum.

25 Q. Okay. Thank you very much. Okay, and that is Ms.
26 Weiss.

27 Somebody else on that row raised their number.
28 Number 16, Mr. Dobson. Who did you say was an officer?

29 A. (BY JUROR 16, MR. DAVID JOEL DOBSON) My uncle.

1 Q. Your uncle. How long has he been an officer?

2 A. I will say 14 years. He is in investigations.

3 Q. He is in investigations for the federal?

4 A. Federal prison.

5 Q. For the federal prison system?

6 A. Yes, sir.

7 Q. Does he work here in Mississippi?

8 A. No, he works in Houston.

9 Q. Oh, in Houston. Do you talk to him very often?

10 A. Yes, sir.

11 Q. Okay, does he talk to you about things that you
12 think would affect you in this case?

13 A. No. No, he-- nothing I would think. He has told 14 me about some of the cases, and like he has told me there is 15 some people in the federal prison that work there that is 16 just as wrong as the criminals.

17 Q. Oh, okay, so people in the federal prison system
18 are just as wrong as the people that is in criminal system 19 sometimes?

20 A. Yes, sir.

21 Q. But in any event, so based upon that, you would be 22 able to sit there and give no more credit to a person's 23 testimony just because of their position?

24 A. No, sir.

25 Q. Is that true?

26 A. Yes, sir.

27 Q. Okay. I appreciate it.

28 A. I have another question. When I was in the Marine
29 Corps, I was qualified as a chaser.

1 Q. Chaser?

2 A. Yes, sir. That is, the prisoners were put in our
3 custody (inaudible).

4 BY THE COURT REPORTER: I can't hear.

5 BY THE COURT: Could you speak up, Mr.

6 Dobson. She can't hear you, and I can't either.

7 A. (BY JUROR 16, MR. DOBSON) When I was in the Marine
8 Corps, I was qualified as a chaser, and that was one of the-- 9 prisoners were put in our custody. And I was just going to 10 let him know that. I didn't know if that was considered as 11 law enforcement or not.

12 BY THE COURT: I think for the purposes of 13 this it would be. Thank you, Mr. Dobson.

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

15 Q. Okay, Mr. Dobson, did you have any kind of 16 experiences in there which might prejudice you against a
17 person accused of a crime?

18 A. No, sir.

19 Q. Okay. Thank you for raising it.

20 A. Thank you, sir.

21 Q. And you have already answered the other questions.
22 Okay.

23 Someone else on this row or the next row? Number
24 37, juror number 37. And that juror's name is Hall.

25 A. (BY JUROR 37, MS. GWYNNE F. HALL) My ex-husband is 26 a police chief in West Columbus, South Carolina.

27 Q. And do you understand the question I have been 28 asking everyone else?

29 A. Yes, sir. Police officers are just like everybody

1 else. Some are honest and some are not.

2 Q. Okay, so that is not going to affect your 3 evaluation?

4 A. No, sir.

5 Q. Very good.

6 Number 57, and that is the young juror who I just
7 talked to, and that is Ms. Hilton; right?

8 A. (BY JUROR 57, MS. JENNIFER D. HILTON) Yes, sir.

9 Q. Could you stand up so the Court Reporter can hear
10 you, Ms. Hilton.

11 A. My uncle was a state trooper, but he is a retired
12 trooper for here, so that would not affect my decision.

13 Q. And you don't think that police officers are 14 necessarily going to tell the truth more than anybody else?

15 A. No.

16 Q. Thank you.

17 Anyone else? And it's not just a question of 18 telling the truth because we have got a whole lot of things
19 about accuracy and everything else. Everybody understand?
20 Okay, I think we have covered everybody on that question.

21 Thank you, Mr. Dedeaux.

22 Okay, now Ms. Melvin? You had answered your 23 questionnaire and I think you indicated -- Ms. Melvin, by the 24 way, is juror number 64.

25 A. (BY JUROR 64, MS. WANDA G. MELVIN) Uh-hum.

26 Q. You said in most murder cases, here again, we asked
27 these academic questions, you understand, but in most murder
28 cases the death penalty should be imposed. That was what you
29 put on your form?

1           A.    I think I put on there it depends on the
2   circumstances.

3           Q.    Okay. Well, in any event -- no, you didn't.

4           A.    I didn't?

5           Q.    But that is okay; that doesn't make any
6   difference. That doesn't make any difference because, you
7   know, basically--

8           A.    --Well, it depends on the case.

9           Q.    Yeah. Okay. That is what you believe, isn't it?

10          A.    That's what I believe.

11          Q.    Okay, that is fine. So thank you very much,
12   appreciate it. You don't have any biases really for or 13   against?

14          A.    No.

15          Q.    Okay. And juror number 67 is Mr. Bradley. Mr.
16   Bradley. Oh, 67.

17          A.    (By Unidentified Juror) 67 is a Ms.

18          Q.    I'm sorry. Who is 67?

19          A.    (BY JUROR 67, MS. ROBIN D. SWANIER) I am.

20          Q.    Okay, I have got it down as William Bradley.

21                   BY MR. EVANS: That was 68.

22          A.    (BY JUROR 67, MS. SWANIER) Well, you call him. I
23   will leave.

24                   (Laughter.)

25          Q.    Okay, that is juror number 68. Is he here?

26                   BY MR. EVANS: He was excused.

27                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Oh, he was excused, okay. I
28   don't have a questionnaire for 67.

29          A.    (BY JUROR MS. SWANIER) I send it in a month in

1 advance.

2 Q. Okay. I'm not suggesting you didn't send it in. I
3 am just saying I don't have it. I didn't have quite a few of 4 them. Thank you. We will come back.

5 Mr. Hamiter. I just got your questionnaire just a
6 little while ago. The last page is missing from my
7 questionnaire. Did you have a space on it when you filled it
8 out which asked questions of express your views on the death
9 penalty?

10 A. (BY JUROR 69, MR. RHETT D. HAMITER) Yes, I did.

11 Q. Did you fill it out?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. I will have to catch up with that. But is your 14 views anything that will stop you from doing what you said
15 you had to do?

16 A. No, sir.

17 Q. Okay. And that is true even though you strongly
18 favor the death penalty; is that correct?

19 A. Yes, sir.

20 Q. And you understand, we have said this a million
21 times. You don't have any problem with it. I remember you
22 rose earlier to tell us about something. Was that about a
23 relationship to law enforcement officer or what was it?

24 A. No, sir. It was in response to a question about 25 something happened in the past like well, my family's house
26 was burglarized several times.

27 Q. Okay. Thank you very much. Okay, and I think you
28 also indicated you served on a jury trial before?

29 A. Yes, sir.

1 Q. And the verdict was-- what was the verdict in that
2 trial?

3 A. Not guilty.

4 Q. Okay, and you know, actually I found out I have two
5 copies of a questionnaire of you. One of them does have a
6 back on it. And what you indicated is that in most cases the 7 death penalty should be applied if there was murder, and that 8 was your view expressed before you were here; right?

9 A. Yes, sir.

10 Q. At this particular point in time is that, you know,
11 you understand that that is not necessarily what the law
12 says?

13 A. Yes, sir.

14 Q. Okay, and you are willing to comply with what the 15 law says?

16 A. Yes, sir.

17 Q. And Ms.-- and I remember asking you questions
18 earlier. Ms. Shook, is it?

19 A. (BY JUROR 70, MS. WILLIE M. SHOOK) Yes.

20 Q. That is number 70. Yours is another questionnaire
21 I just received not too long ago. But in any event, your 22 view is it just depends on the case?

23 A. Depends on the case.

24 Q. So you wouldn't have any problems finding the 25 things that the Court said that you should follow?

26 A. No, sir.

27 Q. In any case and particularly on what we are talking
28 about here as to prosecution proving its case even to start
29 off with; correct?

1 A. Yes, sir.

2 Q. Okay, thank you, Ms. Shook. And you are not a
3 victim of a crime or anything like that?

4 A. No.

5 Q. Ms. Shook, I noticed that you went to the 6 University of Mississippi?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And to the University of Southern Mississippi. You
9 received degrees from these institutions?

10 A. Yes, sir.

11 Q. What kind of degrees did you get?

12 A. I have a bachelor of fine arts degree from the 13 University of Mississippi. I have a certification degree to 14 teach mathematics and art and gifted-- no, from USM and then 15 gifted education from Ole Miss. And then I have a Master's 16 Degree in Administration and Curriculum from USM.

17 Q. Okay, what school-- do you teach or do you--

18 A. I teach.

19 Q. Okay, and what grades do you teach?

20 A. 7th and 8th grade.

21 Q. What school?

22 A. Hancock High School.

23 Q. Hancock High School. And excuse me; where is that
24 located?

25 A. It's at Stennis Airport, north of Bay Saint Louis.

26 Q. Okay.

27 A. It's a little bit, about a mile north of I-10,
28 (Word inaudible) Pass Christian.

29 Q. Okay, and you have been doing that for how long?

1 A. 14 years.

2 Q. 14 years. Thank you very much.

3 Ms. Abernathy, I think we have talked already, and 4 you didn't fill out the back of your form as it related to-- 5 it indicated something about fully explain your position on
6 the death penalty.

7 A. (BY JUROR 72, MS. BARBARA ABERNATHY) Did I not
8 fill it out?

9 Q. Well, actually it's not signed either so possibly
10 you didn't see it, or it may not have even been attached; I
11 don't know. But is there anything about your view that would 12 stop you from doing what is required in terms of--

13 A. No, sir.

14 Q. Okay. Thank you.

15 Ms. Beeson?

16 A. (BY JUROR 73, MS. MARCIA W. BEESON) Yes.

17 Q. I don't know if we discussed this already, but I
18 understand your husband's cousin was robbed and murdered?

19 A. No.

20 Q. That is not right?

21 A. No. Not unless it happened this morning.

22 (Laughter.)

23 Q. Well, excuse me. Strike that.

24 A. Do you know something I don't know?

25 Q. No.

26 A. Oh, my husband's cousin?

27 Q. Oh, no, yeah, that's what I said. Your husband's 28 cousin. Is that true?

29 A. Yes.

1 Q. Oh, okay. You thought I was saying your husband.
2 Oh, okay. No, no. Okay, the only thing is that person, was 3 that a cousin that you dealt with frequently?

4 A. I barely knew him. We had just gotten married.

5 Q. Okay, and was anything-- did you get involved with 6 the case in any way, going to the trial or anything else?

7 A. No.

8 Q. Okay, and is there anything about that that would 9 have a problem, cause a problem for you?

10 A. No.

11 Q. And I think already-- thank you very much.

12 Mr. Collins, number 75, how are you doing?

13 A. (BY JUROR 75, MR. WILLIAM E. COLLINS) Great.

14 Q. Okay, hasn't anybody asked you any questions, have 15 they?

16 A. I just lead a charmed life, I guess.

17 (Laughter.)

18 Q. Okay, did any of these issues that we have raised
19 really affect you in terms of, you know, raise another
20 question?

21 A. No, sir.

22 Q. Okay, thank you. I notice that you also have gone
23 to college. You went to Wallace State Junior College?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Okay, and you right now have a degree in 26 electronics technology; is that correct?

27 A. Yes.

28 Q. And who is your employer?

29 A. I work for (inaudible).

1 BY THE COURT REPORTER: I couldn't hear him.

2 BY THE COURT: Could you stand up, Mr.
3 Collins, so she can hear you.

4 A. (BY MR. COLLINS) I work for the Sun Herald.

5 Q. Okay. It is actually right here?

6 A. That's correct.

7 Q. And you seem to be in some kind of specialty
8 position?

9 A. I'm a systems specialist. We take care of the 10 computer and the building.

11 Q. Okay, so you don't really get involved in the 12 reporting of the news?

13 A. No.

14 Q. And are you kind of like, are you a supervisor, or 15 do you have a specific job yourself?

16 A. I am all over the building. It is kind of hard to 17 describe really.

18 Q. Okay, thank you very much.

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, we deal and we are 20 coming into this phase of the case here. I just have a
21 couple of other questions I would like to ask, and then I
22 will move on. In any given case one might come into 23 confrontation or hear evidence, you know; people might get to 24 the stand or otherwise, and you may see things which are 25 relatively emotional. Does everyone understand what I'm 26 saying? And for instance we, you know, sometimes you may see
27 pictures which raise emotions. Do you understand what I'm 28 saying? Like for instance, there may be pictures with some 29 bleeding on it or other things which are not happy things to

1 see. Does everyone understand where I'm at? And the issue
2 is, and sometimes it is hard for people to emotionally
3 divorce themselves from that, and that's what this question
4 is directed to. The issue here is not whether the picture is 5 gruesome really, okay. The issue is did Mr. Flowers, and our 6 contention is that we submit that he is not guilty of this 7 crime. Do you understand? It's not a question of the 8 pictures. It's a question of the incident and who, if 9 anyone, caused the incident. Will everybody agree with
10 that?

11 Okay, so does everyone feel, does anybody feel you
12 are going to have a problem with that? Is anybody going to 13 see a picture or something like that and have an emotional
14 reaction to the point that they will cease to be objective?
15 If you feel that that is a problem, please raise your hand.

16 And that might also happen in terms of witnesses.
17 Do you understand what I'm saying? Someone may be reliving, 18 you know, when they found out about something, right, and 19 about the loss of a loved one or whatever. And it may be-- 20 I'm not even sure that is going to happen here, but if that 21 happens, are you going to believe the person because they are 22 more emotional about it? Is that something that is going to 23 happen?

24 Is there anybody that feels they have a problem
25 judging testimony because of any level of emotion displayed
26 by the witness? Okay, I appreciate it.

27 From time to time and this is a case which, of 28 course, is coming to you from another county. And it's a
29 distance from the place where a number of the people live,

1 but you know, depending upon the people's ability to get here
2 and stuff, from time to time there may be a number of people
3 attending the trial. Do you understand what I'm saying? And 4 these people, you will have some people come in and sit down,
5 and they will be the relatives or friends and supporters of 6 the Defendant, and you will have people come in here because 7 they are concerned about what happened to the people who died
8 in this case. Do you understand what I'm saying?

9 Now these are not people -- they are sitting in the 10 audience, so they are people who are not involved in the 11 case. So they don't know what happened. They may have 12 different feelings; they may have heard things and all that 13 kind of stuff, but they don't know anything to help you
14 decide this case. Do you understand what I'm saying?

15 So we are not, so no one is going to be influenced 16 by who has the most number of people on their side and who 17 could afford the most to get down here; right? Okay. Does 18 anybody have any problem with that?

19 And the case is whoever is selected on the jury,
20 it's their case to decide and not the case of anybody else
21 who may be attending the trial including us up here. Does 22 everyone agree with that?

23 (Pause while Defense Counsel confer.)

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Did everybody notice that in 25 their questionnaire there was a part in there right at the 26 end, and it asked questions about if anyone had any kind of 27 biases that would affect them, religious bias or anything.
28 Did everyone see that? And even though your questionnaire
29 was out of order, did you still see that question? Okay, and

1     that is my, that is the last question. Are there any kind of 2     biases that anybody feels even, you know, like we have been 3     up here asking you questions, and if you are mad at me for 4     asking you more questions than the other guy did, let me know
5     now, all right? I mean, you know, and that kind of thing.
6     Is there anybody that has any of that kind of problem that
7     would disturb them? And there is no racial bias. I mean
8     this is a case unfortunately where the victim here who has 9     died is a gentleman who is white, okay, and the person who is 10    on trial here is a gentleman who is not white. He is what we 11    call nowadays an African-American. Does everyone understand
12    that?

13               So is there anybody here who has any kind of views
14    that is going to make you lean one way or the other, either
15    towards the Defendant or towards the victim or towards the 16    prosecution --I want to correct myself-- in this case?

17               And let me tell you why I corrected myself. See,
18    this is a question too because see, the victim unfortunately 19    is not here. Do we understand that? So the assumption of 20    the prosecution in bringing a case is that they are 21    prosecuting someone, and we say that they are prosecuting.
22    We submit he is not the person. You understand that? The 23    victim has not said that this person did anything to him.
24    You understand? So even though the tragic situation comes 25    because of the victim, we cannot assume that anyone is 26    speaking for the victim here. We can only listen to the 27    testimony that comes from the people who either saw or 28    didn't see things and try to figure out what the situation is
29    here.

1           Is everyone prepared to do that; right? And you
2 know, one of the things that you do in evaluating his
3 credibility, I think the Judge is going to ask you that you
4 weigh credibility and weigh testimony and evidence, and then
5 at some point you try to make a decision if there is a
6 conflict in the testimony; right? If there is a conflict in 7 the testimony, one person says one thing and one person says
8 the other one thing.

9           How many of you have children? (Most of the jurors
10 raise their hands.) Okay, all of you have got children. So
11 you are experts on testimony of credibility. I mean, you
12 know, you have got one child, and the old cookie jar example
13 comes in. The cookie jar is broke. One of them comes in and 14 say, well, I did it-- I mean I didn't do it, and the other
15 one says, you know, there is an argument.

16           So sometimes you have got to evaluate the 17 credibility to see who is telling the truth. So you listen
18 to them both. If one person comes in with cookies all over 19 their mouth, you know, you look at the physical evidence.
20 Right? Okay, you look at the physical evidence. But at some 21 time, so sometimes you can tell and you make a decision; is 22 that correct? Sometimes you can't tell; right?

23           A. (By unidentified juror) That's true.

24           Q. And if in this case-- now I'm not going to say you
25 are not going to know, but we feel quite confident and we 26 submit to you that this is a case where we feel he is not 27 guilty and shouldn't be here. But in any event, if you get 28 to that point and you don't know, does everyone know what 29 their verdict should be? What should it be? If you don't

1 know, the proper verdict is not guilty because the State has
2 the burden of proving beyond a reasonable doubt. Would that
3 be correct, Mr. -- what is your name?

4 A. (BY JUROR 3, MR. JOSEPH MOLETA) Moleta.

5 Q. Moleta. Would that be correct?

6 A. Yes, sir.

7 Q. Okay, would everybody be prepared to follow those 8 instructions if those are the instructions the Judge gives?

9 All right, now one final question. One final
10 question. Does everybody want me to stop asking questions?

11 A. (By Several Jurors) Yes.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Thank you. I am going to do
13 that. The only thing I have got here now is 14 (inaudible) (Laughter.) Okay.

15 BY THE COURT: Okay, unfortunately I have got
16 just a couple. (Laughter.)

17 FURTHER VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION BY THE COURT:

18 I know y'all are glad to hear that. Y'all can 19 get mad at me. I'm going to direct this question to Mr.
20 Cooper, Ms. Connie Ladner, Mr. Seymour and Ms. Beeson. I
21 want to go back to the question that was presented to you
22 about the death penalty, and I want to cut to the chase. The 23 test is this. It's not whether or not you have strong
24 feelings one way or another. The test is that if you get to 25 the sentencing phase, would you automatically impose the 26 death penalty regardless of what the evidence was? Do any of 27 y'all feel that way?

28 A. (Response by several jurors) No.

29 Q. How about Mr. Cooper, do you feel that way? Would

1 you consider both options?

2 A. (BY JUROR 44, MR. DAVID COOPER) I mean if I was a
3 sworn juror, I would follow your instructions.

4 Q. Okay, and then you would consider both options; is
5 that correct?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Okay, and Ms. Ladner, how about you?

8 A. (BY JUROR 48, MS. CONNIE L. LADNER) Yes, sir. I
9 would consider all options.

10 Q. Mr. Seymour, would you?

11 A. (BY JUROR 60, MR. DONALD G. SEYMOUR) Yes, I would.

12 Q. Okay, and Ms. Beeson, would you?

13 A. (BY JUROR 73, MS. MARCIA W. BEESON) I would 14 consider all options.

15 Q. I can't hear you?

16 A. I would consider all options.

17 Q. Okay, thank you, ma'am.

18 Okay, there are five of you that we need to -- I'm 19 sorry?

20 BY MR. HORAN: We are going to have another
21 one, Your Honor. We just got a questionnaire in of 22 one of the jurors that may need some individual
23 voir dire.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Which number is that?

25 BY MR. HORAN: 19.

26 BY THE COURT: Okay. I have six people that 27 we must do some individual voir dire on like we 28 have done in the past. As soon as we get through 29 with that, then this procedure will be complete,

1                   and we will get to the point of selecting the 2                   jury. Let me see y'all up here just a minute.

4                   THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

5                   BY THE COURT: How long are y'all going to 6                   want to confer?

7                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, let me just tell you
8                   what I think. Let me-- can I ask them right
9                   quick?

10                  (Mr. Lumumba stepped away from the bench.)

11                  BY THE COURT: How long do y'all think y'all
12                  are going to need?

13                  BY MR. HORAN: 30 minutes.

14                  BY MR. EVANS: At least.

15                  BY THE COURT: Okay, well, what I'm thinking
16                  about doing is releasing the jurors, all but these 17                  six, for lunch now, have them back at 1:30 at the 18                  time when I think we can be ready to tell them who 19                  the jury is. And then we will voir dire these six
20                  right now.

21                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: This is what we think, okay.
22                  See, we not only want to talk to each other, but 23                  not knowing anything about this area, and there is 24                  other attorneys here who have volunteered to offer
25                  us information as to whether, you know, other, as 26                  to jurors and what they know about them, okay, if 27                  they know anything. Like some of them may have sat
28                  in on trials and all that kind of stuff. What I 29                  would like to do-- and we are about to go into the

1 lunch period, so it is going to be kind of hard to
2 talk to these folks. I would like to have at least
3 an hour, an hour and a half.

4 BY THE COURT: Okay, my intention is to do
5 this-- and we can do that. My intention is this:
6 To release all the jurors but these six. This 7 individual voir dire of these six is not going to 8 take but just a minute and then have them all
9 come-- well, I don't think it will. It won't take 10 but about-- how about 1:30? Have them back at 11 1:30? And they have agreed. Is that all right
12 with y'all?

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: 1:30? We are not going to 14 eat?

15 BY THE COURT: No, you don't need nothing to 16 eat. I might eat. I'm going to make y'all work.
17 Let's try to get this jury seated. We are going to 18 have to-- after we get the jury picked, they are 19 going to have to have, we are going to have to make 20 some arrangements about them getting their 21 clothes. According to what the bailiffs have told 22 me, that is going to take a while, and I am just 23 kind of pushed for time. If y'all want something
24 to eat--

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Well, let me ask you this.
26 So do you anticipate-- you said get them picked and 27 all that. So what will happen then as far as the
28 case?

29 BY THE COURT: Well, if we can get the jury

1           here with their clothes and everything in time, we
2           will take some testimony. I mean if they have all
3           got their clothes, as soon as we get them picked,
4           we will start taking some testimony.

5           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

6           BY THE COURT: I don't know that they don't 7           have them but I have been told--

8           BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Okay, well, look. Here is 9           my only problem, my only problem. I don't know
10          that that gives me the time because it if was at a
11          different time of the day--

12          BY THE COURT: All right. How about 2
13          o'clock?

14          BY MR. LUMUMBA: 2 o'clock, yeah. So you are 15          saying we are going to get these six people right
16          now?

17          BY THE COURT: Yeah. And then I'm going to 18          have them all come back at 2 o'clock.

19          BY MR. HORAN: Judge, as a matter of-- if we 20          voir dire this six and don't let them go, if they 21          are selected, they haven't eaten anything either.

22          BY THE COURT: They are going to get to go.
23          They don't have to be back until 2 o'clock.

24          BY MR. HORAN: Oh, you are going to let them
25          go and then come back at 2:00?

26          BY THE COURT: Sure. No.

27          BY MR. EVANS: We are going to voir dire them
28          and then let them go--

29          BY THE COURT: --That's what I say. I have

1 got that covered. Don't worry. That's what we are 2 going to do.

3 BY MR. HORAN: You are going to voir dire, let 4 them go, and then let them come back at 2:00.
5 Okay.

6 END BENCH CONFERENCE.

7 BY THE COURT: Let me call out these names.
8 Here is what I'm going to do. I'm going to let 9 most of you go to lunch right now. I have got six
10 of you I need to talk to before I let you go to 11 lunch, and I'm going to ask those six to stay. I'm 12 going to want, when I get through, I need everybody
13 back at 2 o'clock, and I hope at 2 o'clock we will 14 be able to tell you who is on this jury and who is 15 not. I anticipate that we will. We are going to 16 work through lunch. I'm going to let y'all go so
17 you don't have to sit around waiting on us.

18 So here is who I want to stay for just a few
19 minutes. Number 44, Mr. Cooper; number 60, Mr.
20 Seymour; number 64, Ms. Melvin; number 73, Ms.
21 Beeson; and number 50, Ms. Young, and y'all
22 indicated there was one more, Mr. Horan.

23 BY MR. HORAN: Number 19, Ms. Gray.

24 BY THE COURT: Number 19, Ms. Gray.

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Could we approach on one of 26 them?

27 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
28 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Why are we doing Ms. Gray?

1 BY MR. HORAN: Have you read the
2 questionnaire?

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, I haven't.

4 BY MR. HORAN: Well, it says she is not in 5 favor of the death penalty.

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, I'm sorry. I didn't
7 know that. Okay, but this is another one, Judge,
8 number 17. There was something about number 17
9 that I felt should be dealt with individually.

10 BY THE COURT: We have already done her
11 individually?

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We did number 17
13 individually?

14 BY THE COURT: Uh-huh. Sure did.

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. How about-- what is 16 the numbers you gave me, all you just said?

17 BY THE COURT: Okay. 44, 50, 60, 64, 73 and 18 19.

19 BY MR. FREELON: Number 17 said she heard
20 about the trial.

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: That's what we-- you were 22 going to bring her back because she said, remember
23 I asked--

24 BY THE COURT: She did. She was individually
25 on what she knew about the trial. We did an 26 individual on her.

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, and she said she 28 doesn't know any more; right?

29 BY MR. FREELON: I don't think that was this

1 morning.

2 BY THE COURT: Yeah, but she said yesterday
3 she knew something about it, and we did the 4 individual voir dire on her yesterday.

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Right. But I think that
6 since I asked them today if there was anybody else
7 that had been jogged memory, and two other people
8 raised their hand.

9 BY THE COURT: That knew something about it?

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, knew more about it. Is 11 that the people you just called out?

12 BY THE COURT: Yeah. That's who I have.

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. I have 36 down here
14 and 46. I don't remember what the reason is. Let 15 me see. 36.

16 BY THE COURT: Mr. Lackey is the one.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: 36, Lackey, okay. My 18 position is, my position is that Lackey needs some 19 individual voir dire. He has an extreme position
20 on it.

21 BY THE COURT: I think you covered that.

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, then the other one is,
23 who is it? Lackey is 46 or 36?

24 BY THE COURT: 36.

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, well, 46. Who was 46?

26 BY THE COURT: 46 is Mr. Taylor. I don't have 27 him answering to anything.

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: 46 is Mr. Taylor? He has 29 been excluded; right?

1                   BY THE COURT: No. He is here.

2                   BY MR. FREELON: Who believes in public
3 execution?

4                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: That was Lackey.

5                   BY THE COURT: That was Lackey.

6                   BY MR. FREELON: That was number 36?

7                   BY MR. HORAN: Taylor was kin to Mr. Sallis.

8                   BY MR. FREELON: Number 44 is the one who said
9 he heard about the case.

10                  BY THE COURT: He is coming.

11                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: He is coming, okay. All
12 right.

13                  BY THE COURT: Yeah, 44, right.

14                               END BENCH CONFERENCE.

15                  BY THE COURT: Okay, except for those people I
16 have just called off, I'm going to excuse the rest
17 of you until 2 o'clock.

18                               (While the jurors were leaving the courtroom, 19 one juror approached the bench where there was the 20 following:)

21                   BY JUROR 30, MS. REBECCA J. GALLE: My mom
22 went to a doctor's appointment yesterday, and she 23 has got like 80 to 90 percent blockage in the 24 vein. The doctor doesn't want her driving. So 25 therefore, my little girl wouldn't have a way to 26 get to school in the morning. We don't have a bus
27 that comes down our road.

28                   BY THE COURT: Okay, what is your name,
29 ma'am?

1 BY JUROR MS. GALLE: Rebecca Galle.

2 BY THE COURT: What is your number?

3 BY JUROR MS. GALLE: Number 30.

4 BY THE COURT: Okay, let me discuss that with
5 the lawyers. Can you come back at 2:00?

6 BY JUROR MS. GALLE: Yes, sir.

7 (ALL OF JURY WAS NOW GONE EXCEPT FOR THE SIX TOLD 8 TO REMAIN.)

9 BY THE COURT: What I'm going to ask y'all to 10 do, the ones I said to stay, if y'all will step
11 out, everybody except Mr. Cooper. And I will just 12 take you first, Mr. Cooper. If you would come up
13 here.

14 (THE OTHER FIVE JURORS GO OUTSIDE THE
15 COURTROOM.)

16 INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE BY THE COURT: (Juror 44, Mr. David 17 Cooper.)

18 Q. Mr. Cooper, you had indicated this morning, I
19 assume after reflection and seeing more of what was going on 20 here, that you had some knowledge of this case?

21 A. When he mentioned the furniture store, it seemed 22 like I remember a news report back when it happened that 23 somebody had broke into a furniture store, seemed like 24 several employees were, seemed like they were bound in some 25 manner and killed in an execution style. I don't know if 26 that is the same case or not, but that's what I remember
27 about it.

28 Q. All right, what you learned, did you learn that 29 from the news account?

1 A. Yeah, when it happened.

2 Q. Did you--

3 A. --not recently or I haven't talked to--

4 Q. Have you ever had anybody talk to you about this
5 case at all?

6 A. No.

7 Q. After you read that opinion, did you form an 8 opinion as to the guilt or innocence of Mr. Flowers in this
9 case?

10 A. No. I didn't associate the Flowers' name with the 11 case at all.

12 Q. All right, can you set aside what you read in this 13 case, about this case and try this case on the evidence that 14 comes from the witness stand and applying the law as I give 15 you at the end of the case?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Okay.

18 BY THE COURT: Has the State got any
19 questions?

20 BY MR. EVANS: No, sir.

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Just a couple.

22 INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE BY MR. LUMUMBA:

23 Q. Mr. Cooper, once you read what you read, you just 24 read the newspaper; is that right?

25 A. Well, actually it was probably on like the evening
26 news on TV or something like that.

27 Q. Did you express an opinion about it to anybody when 28 you saw it?

29 A. Well, my wife and I were watching it, and we

1 thought it was kind of a horrible thing to happen.

2 Q. Okay, and did your wife express or both of you
3 thought the same thing; is that right?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Okay, and understandable. And at that time
6 obviously, you had no, you had no idea you would be sitting
7 here today?

8 A. No.

9 Q. And I am just asking you this. Having that occur,
10 you know, back then and now you are sitting here today with 11 Mr. Flowers who is for whatever reason charged for it, okay,
12 is there anything about this unpleasant experience and maybe
13 perhaps somewhat unfortunate experience in terms of seeing,
14 you know, on TV that you think might affect your 15 consciousness in terms of either willingly or unwillingly--
16 do you understand what I'm saying?

17 A. No.

18 Q. No, okay. Okay.

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I don't have any other
20 questions on that. Okay. And on the death penalty
21 thing, have we finished that or what?

22 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir. I think that was 23 sufficient. That has been into sufficiently. Mr.
24 Cooper, you can go to lunch.

25 BY JUROR MR. DAVID COOPER: Thank you.

26 BY THE COURT: Let's have Mr. Seymour.

27 (Mr. David Cooper leaves the courtroom, and 28 JUROR MR. DONALD G. SEYMOUR enters the courtroom.)

29 BY THE COURT: I am going to do the publicity

1                   ones first, and then we will come back to the other
2                   one.

3                   Mr. Seymour, if you would, come up here, and 4                   I'm going to put you on the hot seat.

5                   BY JUROR MR. SEYMOUR: I thought that back
6                   there was hot enough.

7                   INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE BY THE COURT: (Juror 60, Mr. Seymour).

8                   Q. Mr. Seymour, as we have gotten into this case, I 9                   think it became apparent to you or you indicated it became 10                  apparent to you that you did have some knowledge about this 11                  case. Could you tell me what you know?

12                  A. Less than what I was told by the gentleman this 13                  morning, that there was an incident that happened at a 14                  furniture store--

15                  Q. --Did you ever know, on that information before you 16                  got here, did you ever know who was charged with it or 17                  anything?

18                  A. No. I do recall, it may have been when I was 19                  filling out the form that the question came up that a Flowers
20                  or Fowler, you know. That is it.

21                  Q. Did what you know about this case come out of the 22                  newspaper or news media?

23                  A. To be honest with you, I don't even know. I don't 24                  think it was.

25                  Q. Did you form any opinion as to the guilt or 26                  innocence of Mr. Flowers based on what you knew about this
27                  case?

28                  A. No.

29                  Q. Could you make your decision in this case on the

1 evidence as it comes from the witness stand and the
2 instructions of law that I give you?

3 A. I believe I can. Yes, sir.

4 Q. All right, sir.

5 BY THE COURT: Has the State got any
6 questions?

7 BY MR. EVANS: No questions, Your Honor.

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have no questions.

9 BY THE COURT: Okay, Mr. Seymour. You are 10 free to go to lunch.

11 BY MR. SEYMOUR: Goodness.

12 BY THE COURT: Ms. Melvin.

13 BY MR. SEYMOUR: That seat was hotter back
14 there.

15 (Mr. Seymour left the courtroom, and JUROR 64, 16 MS. WANDA MELVIN entered the courtroom.)

17 BY THE COURT: Ms. Melvin, if you would have a
18 seat up here, please.

19 INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE BY THE COURT:

20 Q. Ms. Melvin, you indicated this morning that having 21 been here now over a day, that you think you might have known
22 something about this case prior to being here. Is that
23 correct?

24 A. Yes, sir.

25 Q. What is it that you know?

26 A. What I, if it's the case that I remember reading
27 about, it was a furniture store where the store was burned.
28 It was a family owned business, and it was a disgruntled
29 employee that they linked it too.

1 Q. Okay. Did you know who that was?

2 A. No, sir.

3 Q. Okay, how did you get that information?

4 A. I read it in the Sun Herald.

5 Q. Okay, so that would have been about when it
6 occurred that you read it?

7 A. It could have been; yes, sir. It had to have been.

8 Q. It has not recently, has it?

9 A. No, sir.

10 Q. Do you know anything about this case since what you
11 read?

12 A. No, sir.

13 Q. Okay, did you form any opinion as to the guilt or 14 innocence of Mr. Flowers because of what you knew about that
15 case?

16 A. Not giving a name, no, sir. No, sir.

17 Q. Have you now formed an opinion based on what you
18 have heard?

19 A. No, sir.

20 Q. Okay, can you make your decision in this case based 21 on the evidence as it comes from the witness stand and on the 22 instructions of law that I give you?

23 A. Yes, sir.

24 Q. Okay.

25 BY THE COURT: The State?

26 BY MR. EVANS: No questions from the State.

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes, I have a few, Judge.

28 INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE BY MR. LUMUMBA:

29 Q. Good afternoon again, Ms. Melvin. It is barely

1 good afternoon?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Okay, my understanding is that you knew something
4 about a furniture store, some people being -- was it revealed
5 to you in that news article that some people may have been 6 killed?

7 A. Right, and I do believe, if I remember correctly
8 when I read this, that one person didn't necessarily die at 9 the scene. He may have died a little later.

10 Q. He may have died what?

11 A. A little later.

12 Q. Okay, and do you recall from the news article-- you
13 said it was about-- when was it, if you remember?

14 A. I couldn't put a time on it.

15 Q. Did you discuss it with someone when you read it?

16 A. No. Not that I remember.

17 Q. Anybody discuss it with you?

18 A. Not that I remember.

19 Q. I noticed when the Judge asked you a question about 20 forming an opinion, your response was that you didn't form an 21 opinion linked to any, to Mr. Flowers?

22 A. Right.

23 Q. Okay, what kind of opinion did you form that was 24 not linked to Mr. Flowers?

25 A. Um, I didn't really form an opinion. I could 26 visualize it happening with an employer, former employee
27 being upset and going in and doing it. I could visualize
28 that happening.

29 Q. Okay, and by the way, when you were forming

1       whatever opinion you were forming, of course, you had no idea
2       you would be here?

3             A.     Right. Exactly.

4             Q.     So there was certainly nothing wrong with you doing
5       it, but the question I really had was now, you know, now the 6       question in this case is not whether or not Mr. Flowers is a
7       former employee. Okay, the question in this case is whether 8       or not Mr. Flowers had anything to do with this event. Do
9       you understand what I'm saying?

10            A.     Correct.

11            Q.     So now say that in the course of the proof, it came 12       up undisputed that Mr. Flowers is a former employee. Do you
13       understand what I'm saying?

14            A.     Yes, sir.

15            Q.     Okay, and that's all; right?

16            A.     Right.

17            Q.     I mean, you know, it may very well be disputed
18       whether he was a disgruntled employee. Do you see what I'm 19       saying?

20            A.     Yes, sir.

21            Q.     So do you think that the opinion that you formed
22       back then, and this is just an honest question. Do you think 23       that your opinion that you formed about you could see how an 24       employee would do that and all that kind of stuff, would that 25       in any way bias you and, you know, like kind of like
26       influence your view coming into the trial?

27            A.     It could.

28            Q.     It could?

29            A.     It could.

1 Q. And of course, it's a view formed long before you
2 had any reason to know you could be here?

3 A. Right.

4 Q. And do you feel that because of that, you may be a
5 little less than comfortable sitting in a case like this?

6 A. I would.

7 Q. Okay. You feel it would be difficult for you to 8 just throw that aside completely?

9 A. I think it might. It might. I couldn't honestly
10 say that it would or it wouldn't, but there is a doubt.

11 Q. There is a doubt there?

12 A. There is a doubt.

13 Q. And that is a doubt, a doubt as to whether you
14 could perform under those circumstances given the background
15 and the situation?

16 A. Right.

17 Q. Okay, and given the experience that you had which 18 you had no reason to believe would bring you here; right?

19 A. Right.

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. I thank you very
21 much.

22 BY THE COURT: Ms. Melvin. You can go. Why
23 don't you wait just right outside just for a few
24 minutes.

25 (Juror 64, Ms. Wanda G. Melvin, leaves the 26 courtroom.)

27 BY THE COURT: In light of that answer, I'm 28 going to excuse her for cause. Any objection to
29 that?

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I don't have any objection,
2 Judge.

3 BY MR. EVANS: No.

4 BY THE COURT: You can tell Ms. Melvin --
5 well, let Ms. Melvin come back in here just a
6 second.

7 (Juror Ms. Wanda Melvin reenters the
8 courtroom.)

9 BY THE COURT: You can come up here.

10 BY MS. MELVIN: Thank you.

11 BY THE COURT: In light of your feelings on 12 that which are very honest and I appreciate that,
13 I'm going to excuse you, and you are excused from 14 this jury. But I appreciate very much your 15 willingness to be here and help us in picking this
16 jury.

17 BY MS. MELVIN: Thank you.

18 BY THE COURT: You should check with the 19 Clerk's Office though before you go. You don't 20 have to be back at 2 o'clock. You can go right
21 across the hall and check with Ms. Parker. She 22 said she wanted to check with any jurors that were 23 excused. It had something to do with maybe a form
24 or getting you paid.

25 BY MS. MELVIN: Thank you, sir.

26 BY THE COURT: Okay, I will take Ms. Beeson
27 now.

28 (JUROR NUMBER 73, MS. MARCIA W. BEESON, enters
29 the courtroom.)

1                   BY THE COURT: Ms. Beeson, you can come up
2                   here, please ma'am.

3                   INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE BY THE COURT:

4                   Q. Ms. Beeson, you had indicated this morning that you
5                   had some prior knowledge of this case. Could you tell me
6                   what you know?

7                   A. I didn't realize that I had known anything until 8                   the attorney stated the facts, and then I realized that in 9                   the back of my mind I had read something about it years ago,
10                  but that's all I remember.

11                  Q. Do you even remember who was charged--

12                  A. No.

13                  Q. --before you got here?

14                  A. No.

15                  Q. How did you get that information?

16                  A. I guess I read it in the newspaper. I really don't 17                  remember. I just remember hearing about it, and I didn't 18                  remember until you said something today.

19                  Q. Did you form any opinions based on what you read at 20                  that time?

21                  A. No.

22                  Q. Did you especially form any opinions as to the 23                  guilt or innocence of Mr. Flowers?

24                  A. No, sir.

25                  Q. If you were selected on this case, could you set 26                  what you know aside and decide this case on the evidence that 27                  comes from the witness stand and the instructions on the law
28                  that I give you?

29                  A. Yes, sir.

1 Q. Okay. All I know is what I heard this morning.

2 BY THE COURT: Okay.

3 BY MR. EVANS: No questions, Your Honor.

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, just a couple of
5 questions.

6 INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE BY MR. LUMUMBA:

7 Q. Good afternoon, Ms. Beeson, again. Okay, you
8 probably read it in the newspaper or saw it on TV or 9 something?

10 A. I don't remember where I heard it. In fact, until 11 I heard you say something this morning, I didn't realize that 12 I knew.

13 Q. Right, and let me just say that. You understand,
14 of course, the reason we ask questions like that is because 15 we don't want you to get in the middle of trial and say, oh,
16 I heard something about it and start going according to what 17 you heard as opposed to what is coming to you on the stand.
18 Can you appreciate that?

19 A. Yes, sir.

20 Q. So your consciousness having been perked a little 21 bit, do you know whether or not you had any discussions with 22 anybody about it, the case, you know, expressing your opinion
23 or them expressing their opinion?

24 A. I don't recall any discussions whatsoever.

25 Q. Okay. Having heard whatever you heard, did you
26 form any opinions at all?

27 A. No, sir.

28 Q. You didn't? Okay. And what, can you recall what 29 you heard now? Can you recall what you heard?

A. Just what you said this morning is all I recall. I mean just a flash that I had read something or seen it on TV. I don't even remember where I heard it.

Q. Well, I know I said something this morning, but can you tell me in your own words what you do recall?

A. Just that there had been a robbery and some people had been murdered. That's it.

Q. So now you know that that is the newspaper; right?

A. Either the newspaper or TV. I don't know which one.

Q. But whatever it was, it was news media?

A. Right. It was media.

Q. Okay, so in this case there has been no proof that even a robbery occurred?

A. Correct.

Q. And that is not to say that we, that we have a position on that at all. But there has been no proof, and the prosecution does have to prove whatever he is charged. Do you think that that kind of media publicity, saying that there was a robbery, is something which would bias you or prejudice you if the Judge put you to question that you have to decide, you know, from these facts that there was a robbery or there wasn't a robbery. Do you think that having heard that in the newspaper, you would already be somewhat inclined to decide that there was--

A. --No, sir.

Q. Okay. That wouldn't affect you in any way?

A. No, sir.

BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, I have no further

1 questions.

2 BY THE COURT: Thank you, Ms. Beeson. I will
3 see you at 2 o'clock. Okay. Anita Young.

4 (Juror Ms. Beeson left the courtroom, and 5 JUROR 50, MS. ANITA YOUNG, entered the courtroom.)

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Ms. Young is 50?

7 BY THE COURT: Yes. Ms. Young, if you would 8 have a seat up here.

9 (Ms. Young takes the witness stand.)

10 BY THE COURT: Mr. Lumumba, you are the one
11 that wanted to voir dire her, so I will let you go
12 first.

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

14 INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE BY MR. LUMUMBA: (Juror 50, Ms. Young).

15 Q. Good afternoon, Ms. Young. How are you doing?
16 Okay, good afternoon. Okay, this is what we asked you about 17 before. We want to ask you again. Now you know that in this 18 case, and you have had some experiences which, where people
19 involved in domestic violence. Is that basically it?

20 A. Right.

21 Q. Now you know that here there is no charge or basic 22 charge of domestic violence or anything like that as far as 23 Mr. Flowers is concerned? Is that-- you understand that;
24 right?

25 A. I understand.

26 Q. But there is still a concern, and we just want to 27 ask you about it. Now as far as Mr. Flowers is concerned, he 28 is here, has pled not guilty, and he has been charged with 29 some offenses. You understand that; right?

1           A.    Uh-hum.   Yes.

2           Q.    And the offenses are some which have to do with 3 some people that the charge is that somebody dealt, you know,
4 I have to make it clearly, but somebody committed capital
5 murder, that they killed some people at a furniture store in 6 Tardy. That's the charge; right? Do you see what I'm
7 saying?

8           A.    Right.

9           Q.    And there is a whole set of proofs. We have, you
10 know, we certainly intend to interview witnesses as they get 11 to the stand. Do you understand what I'm saying?

12          A.    Uh-hum.

13          Q.    And we have a feeling that at the end of the trial
14 people will agree with us; right? Do you see what I'm
15 saying?

16          A.    (Juror Ms. Young nods her head.)

17          Q.    That Mr. Flowers is not guilty; right?

18          A.    (Juror Ms. Young nods her head.)

19          Q.    However, the problem, what I wanted to inquire in 20 you in, is there anything about your background, the problem
21 you had that would cause you to feel he is guilty just 22 because of the problem that you had?

23          A.    No, I wouldn't think he was guilty because of the 24 problems that I have had, but I have, I have a problem with 25 crimes that are committed against women.

26          Q.    I see. I see. I see.

27          A.    Women are the weaker sex.

28          Q.    Right.

29          A.    I have a problem with that.

1           Q.    And I can appreciate that. I can appreciate that.
2   And it's not, it is nothing wrong with you having that
3   position. In fact, I think a lot of people do, don't they?

4           A.    (Juror Ms. Young nods her head.)

5           Q.    Maybe not enough. Maybe not enough, but there are 6   some people who have that problem; is that correct?

7           A.    Right.

8           Q.    Okay, what the law is asking you - and I am just 9   trying to find out because you need to tell us - is that 10   having that problem with crime against women, okay, if there
11   is a situation that occurred, the question here is not 12   whether or not somebody should be severely judged because 13   they committed a crime against a woman. The question here is 14   whether he actually committed a crime against anybody. Do
15   you understand what I'm saying?

16          A.    Right.

17          Q.    So that being the question and anybody that is 18   involved really in this particular case, there is only one
19   person, which is the charge involves a guy named, a young
20   man, you know, you will find out, a young man named Stewart.
21   Do you understand what I'm saying? That he died in this 22   incident, okay? But in the same incident some other people
23   died, you know. So the question is not so much whether 24   anybody should commit a crime against a woman, but the 25   question in this case is going to be whether or not Mr.
26   Flowers did any of it? Do you see what I'm saying?

27          A.    I understand.

28          Q.    Okay, in that situation, can you be fair and can 29   you be impartial, and can you sit and judge the evidence and

1 make that determination; right?

2 A. (Pause) I would rather not.

3 Q. Okay. You are not sure you can?

4 A. Right.

5 Q. Okay. And so and you have problems which may 6 interfere with your ability to be fair and impartial in the 7 case?

8 A. Right.

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I don't have any other
10 questions.

11 BY THE COURT: Any questions from the State?

12 BY MR. EVANS: No, sir.

13 BY THE COURT: Ms. Young, if you would stand
14 outside for just a second.

15 (Juror Mr. Young leaves the courtroom.)

16 BY THE COURT: In light of that answer, I'm
17 going to excuse her for cause.

18 BY MR. EVANS: And that is juror number 50?

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have no objection.

20 BY THE COURT: That is number 50. Tell Ms.
21 Young to come back just a second, and I'm going to
22 let her go.

23 (Juror 50, Ms. Anita Young, reenters the
24 courtroom.)

25 BY THE COURT: That's okay; you can come up
26 here, Ms. Young. In light of your response to that 27 last question, which I think was a fair response
28 and exactly the way I want folks to answer the 29 question, but in light of your answer to that, I'm

1           going to excuse you and tell you how much I
2           appreciate you helping us go through this process.
3           I hope your tooth is better.

4           BY JUROR MS. YOUNG: Thank you.

5           BY THE COURT: You are free to go. You don't 6           have to come back.

7           BY THE COURT: Okay. That leaves number 19,
8           Ms. Gail?

9           BY MR. HORAN: Ms. Gray.

10          BY THE COURT: Ms. Gray.

11          (JUROR 19, MS. GANIA K. GRAY, enters the 12          courtroom.)

13          BY THE COURT: Would you come around up here,
14          please, ma'am.

15          BY MR. HORAN: May I proceed, Your Honor?

16          INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE BY MR. HORAN:

17           Q. Ms. Gray, how are you doing?

18           A. I am all right.

19           Q. I noticed on your questionnaire that you indicated
20           on the death penalty that you stated that you believe they 21           should be punished, but not to death. "I would go for life
22           without parole." Do you still feel that way, Ms. Gray?

23           A. What has been explained to me then, it all goes on 24           the majority, don't it? You know, like if I sit on a jury
25           and I don't just say go for the majority, don't the majority 26           wins out?

27           Q. No, ma'am. You would have to -- before the death
28           penalty could be imposed, assuming we get to that particular 29           stage, the Judge is going to give you an instruction. The

1 first part of that instruction tells you certain factors that
2 you have to find before you consider the death penalty;
3 okay? And then after the jury unanimously-- every one of you
4 have to find that those exist before you can-- it's not a
5 majority.

6 A. And you don't have to be the same ones.

7 Q. That's right.

8 A. Okay, I understand.

9 Q. Now after that, then you consider what is, like Mr.
10 Lumumba and Mr. Evans discussed with you, whether or not 11 there are certain aggravating factors, those things, those 12 things in the Defendant's history or things in the case that 13 tend to support the death penalty; okay?

14 A. All right.

15 Q. Then you consider those things, and you consider 16 the mitigating factors, those things that they would put 17 before you that they say tend to support the other option;
18 that would be life without parole. All right, then you weigh 19 those two, those two, the aggravating factors and the 20 mitigating factors. And then the jury has to unanimously
21 find beyond a reasonable doubt that the mitigating factors do
22 not outweigh the aggravating factors. Would you do that?

23 A. Yes, I can do that.

24 Q. Would you not automatically vote for life without 25 parole like you said on your questionnaire?

26 A. No, I said--

27 Q. --Has your view changed?

28 A. I said I believe that, but that wouldn't be what I
29 would vote for.

1 Q. Okay, you are saying you could set that aside?

2 A. Yeah.

3 Q. And if the facts warranted it and the law
4 authorized it?

5 A. Right.

6 Q. And the circumstances were that you thought it was 7 justified, you could impose the death penalty?

8 A. Yes, I could.

9 BY MR. HORAN: Thank you, Ms. Gray.

10 BY THE COURT: Do you have any questions?

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, sir.

12 BY THE COURT: Okay. Thank you, Ms. Gray.

13 You may go to lunch. I will see you at 2 o'clock.

14 BY JUROR MS. GRAY: All right, thank you.

15 (Juror Ms. Gray leaves the courtroom.)

16 BY THE COURT: Okay, let me tell y'all two 17 things that I think we need to consider before we 18 break right now. Mr. Warden has got the flu, and I
19 can question him again about it, but I don't think 20 that somebody that has got the flu and that kind of 21 sick and taking medicine is to the point where they 22 can try a case that is going to take a week. What 23 do y'all think?

24 BY MR. FREELON: Ain't no way.

25 BY MR. EVANS: I would like for the Court to 26 talk to him again and see how he is feeling because 27 as short as we are on jurors, I wouldn't want to 28 agree to him being struck if he said he felt like 29 sitting it out.

1           BY THE COURT: Well, I will ask him that, if
2 he feels like-- if he feels like he can do it, I
3 will allow him to do it. But if he tells me he 4 can't, I'm not going to do it. He told me this 5 morning he didn't think he could.

6           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, let me just say this,
7 Judge. I probably-- you know, my view is that
8 actually if you noticed, that when I was talking
9 about Mr. Warden and the lady that said she knew
10 him.

11           BY THE COURT: I know. He didn't even hear
12 her talking.

13           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, he had stone gone to 14 sleep. He was out; he was out cold, and he woke up
15 and then he responded.

16           BY THE COURT: Well, I understand the 17 situation.

18           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

19           BY THE COURT: The other one is I have a lady
20 named Rebecca Galle.

21           BY MR. FREELON: What number?

22           BY THE COURT: She is number 30. She came up
23 to me just a minute ago while I was at the bench
24 and said she thought she would have somebody to 25 take care of her child. Her mother was going to do
26 that, but her mother has been determined to have 80
27 percent of carotid artery blocked by a doctor
28 yesterday, and she has got nobody to keep that 29 child. So I'm in all likelihood going to have to 1 release her.

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: If that is the circumstance,
3 I have no objection.

4 BY THE COURT: Well, that's what she told me.
5 I have got no reason to think otherwise.

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Right. I have no objection.

7 BY THE COURT: All right, gentlemen.

8 BY MR. HORAN: What time you want us back?

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: So Rebecca is excluded. She 10 is excused?

11 BY THE COURT: I'm going to excuse her, yeah.

12 BY MR. EVANS: We have got until 2 o'clock?

13 BY THE COURT: Well, the jury is coming back
14 at 2:00. If y'all can beat that, it would help.
15 I don't know. When can y'all be ready?

16 BY MR. EVANS: If we go eat anything, it will 17 take at least that long.

18 BY THE COURT: I haven't said anything about 19 y'all eating.

20 BY MR. HORAN: We are going to eat.

21 BY THE COURT: Order out.

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, hold it. Judge, let 23 me be honest with you. I never eat so--

24 BY THE COURT: I know; I can tell. You see
25 that I do.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, no. But--

27 BY THE COURT: Do you want this on the 28 record?

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: It doesn't have to be on the

1 record. You know, we are just talking.

2 (PROCEEDINGS BEFORE LUNCH ON MARCH 23, 1999,
3 WERE CONCLUDED. FOLLOWING THE NOON RECESS, DEFENSE
4 COUNSEL REQUESTED MORE TIME AT 2 O'CLOCK, SO
5 SHORTLY AFTER 2:00 THE COURT WENT INTO OPEN COURT
6 WITH THE JURY PANEL PRESENT BUT WITHOUT ANY 7 ATTORNEYS OR THE DEFENDANT PRESENT FOR THE
8 FOLLOWING:)

9 BY THE COURT: Some of the lawyers have had 10 questions that they have a few more minutes to 11 consult with themselves, and then they have got to 12 get with me. So that's what we are going to be 13 doing. We are going to be taking a little bit of 14 time to do that, and it should be just very 15 shortly, ten or fifteen minutes, and then they will 16 get with me, and we will be picking the jury. I
17 just wanted to come back and let you know what the 18 situation was. You don't have to stay in your seat
19 pending that time. If you want to, you can go to 20 the jury room, or you can go out in the hall. And 21 just make sure the bailiffs can find you when we 22 need to get you back in here, and we will call you
23 in here and see who got picked and who didn't.

24 (FOLLOWING ANOTHER RECESS, COURT WAS AGAIN
25 CALLED TO ORDER WITH THE JURY PANEL, ALL COUNSEL, 26 AND THE DEFENDANT PRESENT:)

27 BY THE COURT: Mr. Warden, could I see you?

28 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF 29 THE JURY AND WITH COUNSEL NOT PRESENT AS FOLLOWS:)

1                   BY THE COURT: You don't look like you feel
2 any better?

3                   BY JUROR 11, MR. WINSTON O. WARDEN: I don't.

4                   BY THE COURT: Are you worse?

5                   BY JUROR MR. WARDEN: Well, I don't know about
6 worse. I don't feel no better.

7                   BY THE COURT: Okay, do you think you are 8 physically unable to do this?

9                   BY JUROR MR. WARDEN: Yes, sir. The way I
10 feel right now.

11                  BY THE COURT: Okay.

12                  Gentlemen, y'all want to come up here?

13                  BY MR. EVANS: No, sir.

14                  BY THE COURT: Okay.

15                  (MR. LUMUMBA APPROACHES THE BENCH.)

16                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Pardon?

17                  BY THE COURT: Mr. Warden tells me he doesn't 18 think he is physically able to participate. Mr.
19 Warden, I'm going to excuse you, and I hope you
20 feel better.

21                  BY JUROR MR. WARDEN: I tell you what; I
22 don't know if I could feel any better if I just 23 rolled over and died.

24                  BY THE COURT: Don't do that.

25                  BY MR. WARDEN: Y'all need this?

26                  BY THE COURT: No. You need to go check with 27 the Clerk's Office.

28                  BY MR. WARDEN: Down the hall?

29                  BY THE COURT: Right across the hall.

1 (Mr. Warden was excused and left the
2 courtroom. JUROR 30, MS. REBECCA J. GALLE
3 approached the bench.)

4 BY THE COURT: You gentlemen want to be up
5 here on this?

6 BY MR. EVANS: No, sir, don't need to be.

7 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH WITH ONLY THE COURT
8 AND JUROR MS. GALLE PRESENT:)

9 BY THE COURT: Ms. Galle, I am going to excuse
10 you because of that situation.

11 BY MS. GALLE: Can I go now?

12 BY THE COURT: Huh?

13 BY MS. GALLE: Do I have to go down or do I
14 wait or?

15 BY THE COURT: No, you can go across the hall
16 and check with the Clerk. They want to see you
17 before you go.

18 BY MS. GALLE: Okay.

19 BY THE COURT: Thank you.

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: What was your number?

21 BY MS. GALLE: 30.

22 END BENCH CONFERENCE.

23 BY THE COURT: Now y'all are going to be tired
24 of me saying this, but most of you are about to 25 get, not have to fool with me any more. I have got 26 to ask those of you remaining jurors, if you will,
27 I need for you to leave the courtroom, and we are 28 going to go ahead proceed to picking this jury.
29 But I need y'all to you step out while we are doing

1                   that.

2                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, wait one second. I'm
3                   sorry.

4                   (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
5                   THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

6                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Juror number 6, who is one of 7                   the questionnaires that I got kind of late, in her
8                   answer on the race and bias issue, she said that 9                   she tolerates interracial marriages, but she does
10                  not approve of them. That is kind of something I 11                  would like to individually voir dire her on.

12                 BY THE COURT: Well, you have already done
13                 them. You have already asked them about their 14                 biases, and that does not indicate that she is 15                 racially biased. The fact is it would indicate
16                 otherwise to me, and you have already asked them
17                 that question in voir dire. So we are not going to 18                 individually voir dire.

19                         END BENCH CONFERENCE.

20                 BY THE COURT: Now y'all can go out.

21                         JURY LEAVES THE COURTROOM.

22                 BY THE COURT: Has the State got any further
23                 for cause?

24                 BY MR. EVANS: One second, Your Honor.

25                   (Pause) Your Honor, the only other one that I think 26                   we need to raise for cause at this point is juror
27                   number 18. I think you have already heard all the 28                   reasons. I just bring that juror back to your 29                   attention.

1                   BY THE COURT: She is the one that said, she
2                   is the journalist. Do you remember, Mr. Lumumba?
3                   You remember what her response was?

4                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Mr. 18?

5                   BY THE COURT: Ms. 18.

6                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: He challenged her for cause?

7                   BY THE COURT: Yes.

8                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: I don't have an objection to
9                   that.

10                  BY THE COURT: Okay.

11                  BY THE COURT: Any further from the State?

12                  BY MR. EVANS: Not for cause, Your Honor.
13                  That's all for cause.

14                  BY THE COURT: Okay. The Defendant?

15                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, we would challenge
16                  juror number, here again we challenge juror number
17                  6 for cause. I just want to put into the record
18                  the statement on the juror's questionnaire. The 19                  juror indicated that - I think it was juror number
20                  6. Betty Ladner. "I tolerate interracial marriages 21                  and homosexuality, but I do not condone it." That 22                  would suggest to me a point of view which doesn't 23                  necessarily have to be on the jury. So in fact, it 24                  suggests to me some kind of racism that one would 25                  tolerate interracial marriages but not condone
26                  them. So I would suggest that she should be 27                  excluded for cause.

28                  BY THE COURT: That is overruled.

29                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. I'm going to challenge

1           for cause Mr., Ms. Pell. Pell is number 25. She
2           basically said the same thing Ms. Weiss said, and
3           that is she would tend to give more credit to a
4           police officer's testimony. And although she did
5           repeat the magic words, I think that she really had 6           never really relented on that position that she
7           would tend to give more favor to a police officer's
8           testimony. She is, I think, a child of a police
9           officer if I remember correctly.

10           BY THE COURT: Her father was a police
11           officer.

12           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Right, and she indicated she 13           had a bias for police officers.

14           BY MR. EVANS: And the proper question was 15           asked to her. She said that she would listen to 16           the evidence and weigh her opinion on the 17           evidence.

18           BY THE COURT: She said she would follow the 19           instructions on the law, so I'm not going to excuse
20           her for cause.

21           BY MR. LUMUMBA: We would challenge Stephanie 22           Lee for cause. Ms. Lee knows court personnel, and 23           I don't think it is necessary under our present
24           circumstances that we have anybody with those 25           kinds of relationships on the jury. We have got 26           plenty of jurors, so I would challenge Ms. Lee for 27           cause.

28           BY THE COURT: Other than-- her only response
29           that I know of was she said she knew of them. She

1           didn't indicate any bias whatsoever because of
2           that, and I won't excuse her for cause.

3           BY MR. LUMUMBA: We are challenging,
4           challenging Mr. Houston for cause. Mr. Houston is 5           not one who responded when we asked him on oral
6           voir dire those who had the eye to eye view, eye
7           for an eye view to the death penalty, that they 8           automatically thought that the death penalty should 9           be given. But in his questionnaire he straight out
10          said, "I feel very strongly that an eye for an 11          eye," and he quotes that. So that is the reason I
12          would challenge Mr. Houston.

13          BY THE COURT: That might be subject to a
14          peremptory challenge, but it's not for cause. It
15          is overruled.

16          BY MR. LUMUMBA: We would challenge Mr., juror
17          number 35 - we have problems pronouncing his name -
18          for cause. I would note two things. Number one is 19          that we have someone who saw him talking in the 20          hall about the case. What they were able to hear -
21          and they would be willing to present this - is him
22          saying that he was in here dealing with a case that 23          had to do with four homicides. Is that basically 24          what he said? And that four counts of homicide and 25          that he was hoping that he would get on the jury.
26          Other discussion took place, but I'm not sure the 27          person who heard it, overheard it heard the rest of 28          that discussion.

29          So my first thing would be just to give him a

1 challenge for the cause, and if the Court would
2 reject that, because I think that is good enough to
3 exclude him since he is not supposed to be talking
4 about the case, but if that is not enough, then I
5 would ask that he be subjected to further voir
6 dire.

7 BY MR. EVANS: That is not--

8 BY THE COURT: --That is not before the Court.
9 Whatever he did is not before the Court at this
10 time, so I can't do it for cause. I will reserve
11 my ruling on the extra voir dire when we get 12 through. Let's go ahead.

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, in terms of-- okay. We 14 would also--

15 BY THE COURT: --I am saying I will come back 16 to that.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Come back to that. I would 18 challenge Mr. Lackey for cause. I think his views
19 on the death penalty were just too extreme - public
20 executions and everything else. I don't think
21 there is any way he could be objective in this kind
22 of a case, and I would challenge him for cause.

23 BY THE COURT: That is overruled.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We challenge David Cooper for 25 cause because of the analogy of the case as well as 26 because of his views on the death penalty where at 27 least once he indicated he would automatically tend 28 to give the death penalty.

29 BY THE COURT: No, I never did hear him say

1           that. The question was put, the way the question
2           was put to him he said he was strongly in favor,
3           but he never said that he would automatically
4           impose it, and he specifically did not say that on 5           the individual voir dire. So that, the objection
6           is overruled.

7           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Connie Ladner, the eye for an 8           eye and tooth for a tooth view was also expressed,
9           and I would challenge her for cause.

10          BY THE COURT: She was very definite that she 11          would be a fair and impartial juror. So therefore,
12          that objection is overruled.

13          BY MR. LUMUMBA: We would challenge for cause
14          Mr. Donald Seymour for the same reasons as relates 15          to his view on the death penalty. And we would 16          challenge for cause Marcia Beeson.

17          BY THE COURT: I'm sorry?

18          BY MR. LUMUMBA: First of all, the first one
19          is Mr. Seymour--

20          BY THE COURT: --The first one is Mr. Seymour?

21          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, Mr. Seymour.

22          BY THE COURT: Mr. Seymour, once to your 23          question and then second when he was individually
24          voir dired, said that he would follow the law, and 25          he would consider both options in this case.
26          Therefore, he is not challengeable for cause. And 27          the other one you had was Ms. Beeson?

28          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah.

29          BY THE COURT: She stated and she stated very

1 clearly that she would follow the law and consider
2 both options. Therefore, she is not challengeable
3 for cause. In relation to that-- that was all of 4 them that you had for cause; is that right?

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Uh-hum.

6 BY THE COURT: I think, and this is going to
7 be very short what we are going to do, but I need
8 Mr. Echavarria in here to see if there is any 9 substance to the fact that he has talked about this
10 case.

11 (JUROR NUMBER 35, MR. ANDRES ECHAVARRIA enters
12 the courtroom.)

13 BY THE COURT: Mr. Echavarria, if you would,
14 have a seat right up there, please.

15 BY MR. ECHAVARRIA: Right up there?

16 BY THE COURT: Right up here.

17 BY MR. ECHAVARRIA: Oh, okay.

18 INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE BY THE COURT:

19 Q. Mr. Echavarria, have you had any conversations
20 about this case at all with anybody?

21 A. No, sir.

22 Q. Has anybody talked to you about it at all?

23 A. No, sir.

24 Q. Okay, have you made any comments as to whether or 25 not you wanted to be on this jury or not?

26 A. I may have been joking around with some friends out
27 there.

28 Q. All right, what is it exactly that you said? It's 29 okay. I mean I have just got to know.

1           A.    Well, one of two things. I would like for this
2 ordeal to end, either be on the jury or go home.

3           Q.    I appreciate that. Was there anything else in your
4 conversation?

5           A.    No.

6           Q.    So what exactly did you say?

7           A.    I would like to either be on the jury or go home.

8           Q.    Okay.

9                    BY THE COURT: Either one of y'all got any 10 questions for Mr. Echavarria?

11                   BY MR. EVANS: The State doesn't.

12                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: I just have one, Mr.
13 Echavarria.

14           INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE BY MR. LUMUMBA:

15           Q.    Did you mention to the person that this was a case
16 involving four homicides or something and four counts?

17           A.    No, sir. I didn't mention any details of this case
18 to anybody.

19           Q.    Okay. And you were near the-- when you made that 20 statement at one point, were you in the hall?

21           A.    Oh, we were downstairs.

22           Q.    Downstairs. Going in and out of a door or 23 something like that? Where were you at downstairs?

24           A.    Smoking out in the front.

25           Q.    Out in the front, okay. So did you make any 26 statements in the hall, either going into the rest room or 27 coming out of the rest room?

28           A.    About the case?

29           Q.    Right.

1           A.    No, sir.

2           Q.    You know, basically to the nature that you have
3 already indicated. The kind of statements that you have said
4 that you made about you wanted to be on the jury or off the
5 jury?

6           A.    That was outside downstairs.

7           Q.    You didn't say anything like that inside?

8           A.    No, sir.

9           Q.    And you never said anything about four, about four 10 homicides, four victims of people who were supposed to have 11 been-- four counts of homicide. You didn't say that to 12 anybody?

13          A.    No, sir.

14                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: All right. I have no further
15 questions.

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

17          Q.    But you were, you have been in the hall and down at 18 different times; is that correct?

19          A.    Yes, sir.

20                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, I have no further
21 questions.

22                   BY THE COURT: I have got one more question for
23 you.

24 FURTHER INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE BY THE COURT:

25          Q.    Is there anything about this matter or anything at 26 all that would keep you from being a fair and impartial juror
27 where you could give each side a fair and impartial jury-- 28 trial based on the evidence from that witness stand and the 29 law that I give you? Can you do that?

1           A.    Yes, sir.

2                   BY THE COURT:   You can go out.

3                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:   Thank you.

4                   (Juror 35, Mr. Andres Echavarria leaves the
5 courtroom.)

6                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:   For the record Judge, I would 7 like to call Cora Flowers and let her just put on 8 the record what she heard because it wasn't 9 something I heard. I think it is important for the 10 record. I mean of course, you know, depending upon 11 what she says, the Court may or may not decide to 12 believe the potential juror. But I would ask to 13 call Cora Hall just to put on the record what she 14 heard-- Cora Flowers, I'm sorry.

15                  BY THE COURT:   Okay, I'm going to let her
16 testify for that limited purpose only and no other.

17                  BY MR. LUMUMBA:   Oh, no. Ms. Flowers.

18                  BY THE COURT:   Raise your right hand, please,
19 ma'am.

20                               CORA FLOWERS,
21 a black female called by the Defendant concerning her
22 observations of a prospective juror, having first been duly
23 sworn by the Court, testified as follows, to-wit:

24                   BY THE COURT:   Have a seat up there. State
25 your name for the record.

26                   BY THE WITNESS:   Cora Flowers.

27                   DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

28                   Q.    Okay, Ms. Flowers, have you been present in the 29 building during the course of jury selection in this case?

1 A. Yes, sitting out in the hallway.

2 Q. Okay. Did you see the gentleman who was just up
3 here on the stand?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Had you seen him at any point in time making any 6 comments in the hall?

7 A. Yes, when I was going to the bathroom.

8 Q. Just explain it all to the Judge, okay, whatever
9 you saw?

10 A. Okay. When I was going to the bathroom, he was 11 coming out. And it was a man he was talking to with a light
12 blue T-- shirt, excuse me. He told the man that he wanted
13 to be on this case because it was-- well, I heard the end
14 part, I guess, because he ran back in afterwards. He said it
15 was a four count murder that Curtis was charged, but he 16 didn't say his name. He just said somebody four counts -- I
17 am so nervous. Excuse me.

18 BY THE COURT: It is all right. Take your
19 time.

20 BY THE WITNESS:

21 A. Okay. He said the person was charged with four 22 counts of murder and that he would like to be on the case,
23 and that's all I heard.

24 Q. Where was he at?

25 A. At the bathroom.

26 Q. Up here on this floor?

27 A. Uh-huh, at the rest room right down on the end.

28 Q. Was there more conversation that you could not 29 hear?

1           A.    Well, that's all I heard because I was going in the 2 ladies' room.

3           Q.    You were going in the ladies' room.

4           A.    Uh-hum.

5           Q.    I'm not asking you what, if you heard -- I know you
6 didn't hear anything else. You didn't know what, if 7 anything, else was said.

8           A.    No.

9           Q.    I am saying could you hear whether there were words
10 being spoken other than you didn't hear or you don't know
11 whether that was the only thing that was said?

12          A.    No. That's all I heard.

13                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. I have no further
14 questions.

15                   BY THE COURT: Thank you, ma'am. Y'all have 16 any questions?

17                   BY MR. EVANS: No questions.

18                               WITNESS STEPS DOWN.

19                   BY THE COURT: Okay, wanting to be on the case
20 doesn't disqualify you. It is unusual, but it
21 doesn't disqualify you. So I'm going to overrule
22 that for cause.

23                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Just for the record, Judge,
24 that is not the reason I'm making it. I am making
25 it because he talked about the case. He talked
26 about a four count indictment--

27                   BY MR. EVANS: --That is not talking about the
28 case.

29                   BY THE COURT: Wait a minute. You can't talk

1 at the same time.

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: He talked about a four count
3 indictment or four count charge against the 4 person. That is talking about the case.

5 BY THE COURT: Well, I mean, yeah, but that 6 was stuff that y'all all told him. I mean he is 7 not talking about it from his own personal
8 knowledge other than what y'all told him. Okay.
9 Y'all ready?

10 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can we get five minutes,
12 Judge? Five minutes.

13 BY THE COURT: Well, it has only been one
14 excused for cause. It ought not to change much on 15 what y'all have done.

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, it might change a
17 little. Give us 5 minutes.

18 BY THE COURT: Okay.

19 (FOLLOWING A BRIEF RECESS, PROCEEDINGS
20 CONTINUED IN THE COURTROOM WITH ALL THE JURY PANEL
21 OUT BUT WITH ALL COUNSEL AND THE DEFENDANT
22 PRESENT:)

23 BY THE COURT: Ready? Wait just a second.
24 Has anybody got an extra jury list? If you don't,
25 that is okay.

26 (The Clerk hands a list to the Court.)

27 BY THE COURT: Okay.

28 BY MR. EVANS: The State will tender juror
29 number 3. Your Honor, my list is so marked up; if

1 I pass by any, if you will, let me know.

2 BY THE COURT: Okay.

3 BY MR. EVANS: Juror number 5 will be S-1.

4 BY MR. EVANS: The State will tender number
5 6. State will tender number 8. State will tender
6 number 9. Number 10 will be S-2. Number 12 will 7 be S-3.

8 BY THE COURT: Wait-- that's right. Mr.
9 Warden is gone. Number 12 will be S-3? Is that 10 what you said?

11 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir. We tender number
12 13. Tender number 15. Tender number 16. Tender
13 number 17. 18 will be S-4.

14 BY THE COURT: Well, she has been excused for 15 cause.

16 BY MR. EVANS: Oh, that's right. Saved me a
17 strike. 19 will be S-4. Tender number 20. Tender
18 number 21. Tender number 25. Tender number 26.
19 I have got twelve.

20 BY THE COURT: (Pause) I have got fourteen.
21 What am I doing wrong?

22 BY MR. EVANS: Do you want me to run back
23 through them?

24 BY THE COURT: Yeah.

25 BY MR. EVANS: Tender 3, tender--

26 BY THE COURT: --Hold on. Hold on. Okay, 3.

27 BY MR. EVANS: 6, tendered 8, tendered 9,
28 tendered 13, tendered 15, tendered 16, tendered 17,
29 tendered 20, tendered 21, tendered 25, and tendered

1                   26.

2                   BY THE COURT: Okay, hold on just a second.
3 Okay, what do you say to number 3?

4                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, Judge, is that twelve?

5                   BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

6                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: That is twelve, okay. We 7 would accept number 3. No, wait a minute; first of 8 all, before we do anything, we make a Batson
9 challenge. The State has excluded every black
10 juror that it has come upon. They excluded juror
11 number, Linda Yarbrough, juror number 5. That was 12 their first challenge. They excluded juror number
13 12 which was Shirley Lott, the second challenge.

14                  BY MR. HORAN: No, incorrect.

15                  BY MR. EVANS: The second challenges was S-2, 16 number 10 which is a white juror.

17                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, but--

18                  BY THE COURT: S-3 was Ms. Lott.

19                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: S-3 was Ms. Lott. Okay, and 20 of course, they excluded Ms. Cook, but just for the 21 record--

22                  BY THE COURT: S-4 was Ms. Gray.

23                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, then S-4 they got rid 24 of which was a black juror. So that is three, all
25 three, I mean three challenges out of the four were 26 used on blacks, and those are the only three blacks
27 that they were confronted with at that time. So
28 that is my Batson challenge.

29                  BY THE COURT: Okay, I hold that that

1 establishes a prima facie case.

2 BY MR. EVANS: All right, Your Honor, as far
3 as juror number 5, who is S-1, I think the Court
4 will remember that she had very strong feelings
5 toward the death penalty. She had them both in her
6 questionnaire, and she had them in the courtroom
7 during voir dire.

8 BY THE COURT: Okay. In relation to Ms.
9 Yarbrough, I think that is valid and a race neutral
10 reason, and therefore, I sustain that peremptory.

11 BY MR. EVANS: Juror number 10, which is S-2,
12 even though this was a white juror, and I state
13 this for the purpose of showing that we are 14 striking both white and black jurors for the same
15 reason. Juror number 10 has a son that was 16 convicted of a robbery and served time for it. We 17 struck her for that reason.

18 Juror number 12, who is a black juror, was 19 S-3. We struck her for two reasons. One is that 20 she has two brothers that committed burglaries, and 21 both served time for them. Not only was this 22 family members, but this was very close family
23 members. Also, her comments in her questionnaire
24 about the death penalty is that she thought the 25 death penalty was only appropriate when there were 26 children involved.

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: That is an untrue statement
28 about her comment.

29 BY THE COURT: Okay, wait a minute. Let me, I

1           want to go back because in relation to Ms.
2           Yarbrough, do you have any rebuttal to what he said
3           about Ms. Yarbrough?    I ruled before I gave you
4           that chance.

5           BY MR. LUMUMBA:   Yeah.   I think Ms. Yarbrough
6           was fully rehabilitated when she got on the stand
7           here.   Nobody really had to rehabilitate her.   She 8           on her own pointed out very clearly that she could 9           give the death penalty and her-- actually her form
10          was the one where she expressed no opinion on the 11          death penalty, and once the law was explained to 12          her, she was in total compliance with the law.   She 13          apparently was under the impression during the voir
14          dire which was put to her initially that she didn't 15          have a choice.   And whenever, and she kept asking,
16          You mean you have a choice?   You have a choice.
17          You know, in other words, understanding that there
18          was a choice and she also pointed out that it was 19          very difficult for her to make that kind of 20          decision without any facts before her.   I do not 21          think that any reservations she expressed to the 22          death penalty were sufficient to justify a
23          challenge once one understands that she clarified
24          it very well on the stand and was very strong on 25          it.   So that is my reasons why I oppose that
26          challenge.

27          BY THE COURT:   Of course, I agree with you,
28          Mr. Lumumba.   You did rehabilitate her, and that is 29          the reason she was not excused for cause.   But on a

1 peremptory, the showing must be whether it was race
2 neutral, and that would be a reason that it would
3 be race neutral. And therefore, I sustain that
4 challenge.

5 Now he has stated his reasons for Ms. Lott.
6 Do you have any rebuttal to that? I guess you do
7 because you just told me you did.

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes.

9 BY MR. HORAN: Are you saying that is not the 10 questionnaire that you have?

11 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I have the
12 questionnaire--

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --No, I--

14 BY THE COURT: --Let him state his side of it,
15 and then we will get to your side--

16 BY MR. HORAN: --I wanted to make sure he had 17 the questionnaire--

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --There is no statement in 19 this questionnaire where the only reason that she 20 would give the death penalty is because of, because 21 of a child being killed. It says, "I think the 22 death penalty should be used only in violent
23 crimes," and then she goes on to state an example.
24 "For example, rape and murder of a child." If I
25 understand my English language since first grade,
26 when you give an example, that is not an exhaustive
27 reasoning as to why you think a death penalty
28 should be given. She said that she felt that in 29 violent crimes and she didn't put any limitations

1 on that. She just put an example, so that--

2 BY THE COURT: --May I see that?

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes.

4 (Questionnaire handed to the Court.)

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: And I would also point out
6 that they passed over certain white persons who had
7 a lot more reservations about giving the death
8 penalty than that, and I can point those out if you
9 like.

10 (Pause while the Court reads.)

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I do have, Judge, I would
12 just like to add to this. A juror who they left
13 on, number 3, in different words said just about 14 the same thing. "I believe it depends on the 15 crime, the individual committing the crime, and the 16 severity of the crime, the past record of the 17 individual committing the crime." That was Mr.
18 Moleta. Juror number, I think it is juror number
19 6, Ms. Ladner, she says, "The position I hold it 20 would depend on the person, what the person was 21 guilty of." She is a person who generally favors--
22 you have my questionnaire. I don't know what-- 23 what did--

24 BY THE COURT: Here, you can have it back.

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, would you get that,
26 please.

27 (Questionnaire was handed back to Mr.
28 Lumumba.)

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: So that was, those are

1           responses and much different than-- then the other
2           responses go on and on. Another juror who they 3           accepted says, "Depends on the circumstances of the 4           situation." That is Rebecca Anderson, and in fact,
5           Ms. Sherry Lott circled "Generally support." She
6           supports, she said she generally supported. Ms.
7           Rebecca Anderson, who I believe they left on --
8           that is juror number 9 if I am not mistaken. Her
9           name is also O'Neal, I think. Probably one of them
10          is a married name. She states no opinion on the 11          death penalty; right? And they left her on. Then 12          she says also it depends on the situation, and that 13          is what she said in her comments on it.

14                 Number 11 was gone, so that wasn't a juror
15          where we had any chance of doing anything with.
16          And they left, didn't they leave Ms. Young on the 17          jury?

18                 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

19                 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Ms. Young is number 13. Ms.
20          Young says - she is a white woman - "I do not 21          believe that society has the right to impose the 22          death penalty. I believe only God has the right to 23          impose the death penalty. I could not impose the 24          death penalty."

25                 BY MR. HORAN: We may want to challenge her.

26                 BY MR. EVANS: We may need to go back--

27                 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Hold it, excuse me, excuse
28          me. Too late for that. Ms. Young, it is 29          interesting that--

1                   BY THE COURT:  --Let me shorten what you are
2                   saying.

3                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  Ms. Young is number 5.

4                   BY THE COURT:  Let me shorten what you are
5                   saying, Mr. Lumumba.  I sustain your objection.

6                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  All right, thank you.

7                   BY MR. EVANS:  Your Honor?

8                   BY THE COURT:  Yes, sir.

9                   BY MR. EVANS:  You are saying you sustain his 10                  objection to a peremptory challenge on that juror--

11                  BY THE COURT:  --That's exactly what I said,
12                  Mr. Evans--

13                  BY MR. EVANS:  --that has two convicted
14                  brothers in the penitentiary?

15                  BY THE COURT:  No.

16                  BY MR. LUMUMBA:  No, that's not--

17                  BY THE COURT:  On Ms. Lott, you objected to 18                  her on the basis of--

19                  BY MR. EVANS:  --No, sir.  No, sir.  No, sir.
20                  I did not.  I objected to her on two reasons.  One 21                  is that she has two brothers that are in the 22                  penitentiary for burglary that is close relatives, 23                  and the other reason was that, was her opinions on 24                  the death penalty.

25                  BY THE COURT:  Okay, as far as her opinions on 26                  the death penalty, I would sustain it to that.  As 27                  far as her having two brothers in the penitentiary,
28                  that has been accepted by the Court--

29                  BY MR. LUMUMBA:  --Well, Judge, let me point

1 out here though.

2 BY THE COURT: Unless you can point out to me
3 that is incorrect.

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, what I am pointing out
5 is that number 17, somebody they accepted, it is 6 pointed out that they, I would point out that she
7 had a brother convicted of manslaughter-- a cousin
8 convicted of manslaughter and who is in jail.

9 BY MR. EVANS: That is not near as close a
10 relative.

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, we don't know that, and 12 you didn't ask--

13 BY MR. EVANS: --And I don't have enough
14 strikes.

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: And neither one of them said
16 anything that would-- and then there is number 18.
17 Number 18 is gone? Oh, Ms. Weiss is gone. But 17
18 indicated that she had someone serving time also,
19 Judge. So I don't think that that is consistent
20 reason, and I would, I would say that that is not a
21 strike that should be upheld. That is Sherry Lott
22 that I am speaking of.

23 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, in response if I
24 understand what Ms. Finch said, this was a relative
25 that she only saw very infrequently. On Sherry
26 Lott, we are talking about two brothers. It's the 27 same situation as Ms. Cook, number 10, who was 28 white. She had a son; that is a very close
29 relationship, and I'm not going to agree ever to

Case #1999-DP-01369-SCT

COURT APPEALED FROM : Circuit Court

COUNTY : Montgomery

TRIAL JUDGE : C. E. Morgan III

Curtis Giovanni Flowers v. State of Mississippi

.....
Charlotte B. Williams, Clerk

.....
TRIAL COURT # : 97-372

1 leave somebody on a jury that has that close of
2 family members that are in the penitentiary.

3 BY THE COURT: On that basis the objection to 4 the strike is overruled.

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, I also raise the 6 objection to number 19, Judge.

7 BY THE COURT: Ms. Gray?

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes.

9 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, number 19 we have 10 misdemeanor convictions on her. We also have the 11 fact that she made the comment she does not think 12 people should be put to death, and she also put in 13 her questionnaire that she has panic attacks. And 14 I do not want somebody sitting on a jury that may 15 be suffering panic attacks. So there is three 16 separate reasons on her.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Uh.

18 BY THE COURT: Let me say this. Ms. Gray came 19 to the bench and told me about the panic attacks
20 thing at the qualification period when she was 21 qualifying. You may have been up here when she 22 said that Mr. Lumumba. She did say it. I left her
23 on. She did make that aware to the Court.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, I wasn't at the bench.
25 I didn't hear that, Judge, but if she said it, I
26 don't take, I don't have any reason to take issue
27 with that. I don't think I was actually there when 28 she said it. But there are several jurors who have 29 indicated that they are under some kind of

1 psychological counseling for various different
2 reasons. And I would indicate to the Court that I
3 don't think that is a sufficient reason to exclude
4 her. There was no questions put to her by the 5 State to inquire into her health of whether that
6 would interfere with her. And you have a person
7 here, Betty Earl Ladner-- by the way.

8 BY MR. HORAN: What number, please?

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Number 6. She has indicated
10 that somebody is under treatment. This may not be 11 her. It might be her son is under treatment for a 12 drug problem. If I'm not mistaken, Ms. Ladner may 13 have said that same son had a problem with some 14 kind of conviction, and she is still on the jury.

15 BY THE COURT: Okay, I have some experience
16 with panic disorders. My uncle suffered from them,
17 and when you get them, you are not functional and 18 it would, and that is for valid reason not to have 19 somebody on the jury. She wouldn't be functional
20 for either one of you if she had one.

21 Now having done that, let's go back. Let's
22 start back with number 3. I think that got them
23 all.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Start back with number 3?

25 BY THE COURT: Yeah, as to whether y'all
26 accept number 3 or not.

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We accept number 3.

28 BY THE COURT: Okay. How about number 6?

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We accept number 6 only

1 because we have no other choice really, to be
2 honest with you, given the makeup of the jury.

3 BY THE COURT: Okay, how about number 8?

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We would challenge number 8.

5 BY THE COURT: All right, number 8 is D-1.

6 How about number 9?

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Number 9, we would accept.

8 BY THE COURT: 13?

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Number 13, we would accept.

10 BY THE COURT: 15?

11 (Pause while Defense Counsel confer.)

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Which number are we on,
13 Judge?

14 BY THE COURT: 15, Mr. Overstreet.

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We would challenge Mr.
16 Overstreet.

17 BY THE COURT: Okay, he is D-2. What do you
18 say to number 16, Mr. Dobson?

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We have no challenge on Mr.
20 Dobson.

21 BY THE COURT: Okay. Number 17, Ms. Finch.

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We are challenging Ms.
23 Finch.

24 BY THE COURT: Okay. That would be D-3.
25 Number 20, Ms. Ballman?

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We have no challenge to Ms.
27 Ballman.

28 BY THE COURT: Number 21, Ms. Partridge?

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We have no challenge to Ms.

1 Partridge. And Judge, just to interrupt you just
2 for a second, just for the record I also want to 3 point out that Mr. Dobson is someone else that we
4 have taken because we don't feel we have much
5 choice here, but go ahead.

6 BY THE COURT: Okay.

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I just wanted to put that on 8 the record. Go ahead.

9 BY THE COURT: All right. Number 25, Ms.
10 Pell?

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: And Ms. Pell is definitely 12 someone we are taking because we don't feel we have 13 another choice. We are not challenging Ms. Pell.

14 BY THE COURT: You are not? Is that correct?

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, we are not.

16 BY THE COURT: Number 26, Ms. Lee?

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We are also not challenging
18 Ms. Lee for the same reason.

19 BY THE COURT: Okay, I need three more.

20 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Three from the State?

22 BY MR. EVANS: Juror number 27 will be S-5.
23 Your Honor, do you want to do, go ahead since we 24 are at this point and do the Batson reasons as we 25 do the strikes?

26 BY THE COURT: No, I want you to tender me.
27 Go ahead and tender me and let's see what we have 28 got.

29 BY MR. EVANS: Juror number 28 will be S-6.

1 Tender 32, tender 33--

2 BY THE COURT: --Wait a minute. Hold up.

3 (Pause) 32 and what?

4 BY MR. EVANS: Tender 32, 33, and 34. I think
5 I have got to give you three, haven't I?

6 BY THE COURT: Yes. Okay. My position is he 7 has raised the Batson. Now you need to go back to 8 Mr. Cole.

9 BY MR. EVANS: Juror number 27, Mr. Cole, who
10 is S-5, we are striking for really three different
11 reasons, Your Honor. The first which I think is by 12 itself a very important reason is the fact that he 13 was on the wrong jury. There is a particular case
14 -- is this the right one? Thorne v. State that 15 basically states that the jury must come from folks
16 that are summonsed and in attendance. He was not 17 summonsed for this cause.

18 BY THE COURT: Wasn't he summonsed for the 19 venire?

20 BY MR. EVANS: No, sir, not for this venire.
21 He was--

22 BY THE COURT: --Well, they are using jurors
23 from this venire in the other Circuit Court case
24 down the hall. So it's not a special venire.

25 BY MR. EVANS: Well, it was a special jury
26 that was drawn for this case.

27 BY THE COURT: It was 350 names drawn from the 28 pool. It was not a special venire. No motion was 29 ever made for a special venire.

1 BY MR. EVANS: That is one reason. The second
2 reason was he acted like he was sleeping during 3 part of the voir dire, and according to members of 4 the District Attorney's Office here he is a gang
5 member being a member of the BGD gang.

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I would ask -- I am sorry.
7 Is that all of it?

8 BY MR. EVANS: That information the District
9 Attorney's Office here furnished us from 10 confidential informant that keeps them informed as 11 to who gang members are in this area.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. I would challenge him
13 on those reasons. I think they are all pretexts,
14 Judge, and I would ask on the last reason given
15 about the gang member. I also had an opportunity
16 to talk about this juror to an attorney, two 17 attorneys in this community. One is by the name of 18 Hudson, who knew him well, said he was an okay
19 young man, felt he would make a good juror, had no
20 indications that there was anything of bad
21 character about him. He has never been convicted
22 of a crime apparently, or else he wouldn't be up
23 here.

24 The other one was attorney Mr. Conway, Warren
25 Conway, who is the President of the Magnolia Bar
26 Association, well known in the community. He said
27 the same thing. If they have some proof that he is 28 a member of a gang, I would ask for a hearing. I
29 think we have to stop at this point. They have to

1 bring in some proof on it, give us a chance to
2 cross-examine it, and see if it's valid
3 information. I think it is pretext. I mean there
4 is nothing, there is no indication in his record,
5 criminal record or anything else that any of those 6 things are true.

7 BY THE COURT: Could I see that case that you
8 have got?

9 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

10 (Pause while the Court reads.)

11 BY THE COURT: I need to find out. Let me get 12 the Clerk in here. Let me find out whether he was 13 served period.

14 (Pause while the Court conferred with a deputy 15 clerk who then left the courtroom.)

16 BY THE COURT: I am waiting on the Clerk. If 17 he just wandered in off the street, I think he is 18 probably here.

19 BY MR. HORAN: I think he was summonsed.

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can I make one other--

21 BY THE COURT: I know you think that, but 22 I'm--

23 BY MR. HORAN: --What I mean is they told me he 24 just reported to the wrong courtroom.

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can I just make this comment,
26 Judge? This also is part of our argument. If they 27 never made a motion to exclude him prior to now, I
28 know they inquired to the Court, but they never 29 made a motion to exclude him. If they were

1 interested in excluding him for reasons other than
2 being black, they should have made it previously.
3 And I think they waived the opportunity to exclude
4 him for that reason at that time. So that's my 5 position.

6 BY THE COURT: But like I say, if he has never 7 been summonsed, he can't serve.

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Oh, no.

9 BY MR. EVANS: And Your Honor, we are not 10 asking for cause. We are asking for a peremptory.

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can I use a stapler?

12 BY MR. EVANS: I think it's a major
13 difference.

14 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, I would like for 15 the record to reflect that I did represent to the 16 Court at the bench at least on two occasions I was 17 concerned whether or not he could properly sit on
18 this case.

19 BY MR. EVANS: Our concern is if he is not 20 attentive enough to show up in the right courtroom,
21 we don't want him serving on the jury.

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I think that is not a valid
23 reason to be excused. I think that he is black.
24 See, one of the things we have got here--

25 BY THE COURT: --Y'all are wasting your time
26 arguing to me right now. I'm going to wait until I
27 see what happens when she comes back.

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Right. They have excluded
29 every black person we have.

1                   (After a pause, the deputy clerk returned to 2                   the courtroom and whispered something to the
3                   Court.)

4                   BY THE COURT: He was not served for any
5                   venire?

6                   BY THE DEPUTY CLERK: Not for yours.

7                   BY THE COURT: No, I know that. Has he been 8                   served for any venire that is here today?

9                   BY THE DEPUTY CLERK: I will have to check.

10                  BY THE COURT: Here is the information they 11                  give me. We know he was not served for this one,
12                  that he came to the wrong courtroom. My question
13                  is did he have a summons to be here for any other 14                  jury? In other words, did he walk in off the 15                  street, or did he have somebody tell him to be
16                  here?

17                  BY THE DEPUTY CLERK: Okay. I will make 18                  sure.

19                  (The deputy clerk left the courtroom again, 20                  and upon her return, there was the following:)

21                  BY DEPUTY CLERK: He was a County Court juror
22                  for this week.

23                  BY THE COURT: Thank you, ma'am.

24                  BY MR. EVANS: Wasn't it Circuit Court?

25                  BY THE COURT: County Court. Wait a minute.
26                  Let me get her back real quick.

27                  (Deputy clerk re-enters the courtroom.)

28                  BY THE COURT: Do they co-mingle the pools?

29                  BY THE DEPUTY CLERK: Sir?

1                   BY THE COURT: In other words, if he was
2                   summonsed to County Court and let's say Circuit
3                   Court needed extra jurors. Do they co-mingle
4                   sometimes where they--

5                   BY THE DEPUTY CLERK: --I have never heard of 6                   it, but I can ask.

7                   BY THE COURT: Can you find out for me?

8                   BY THE DEPUTY CLERK: Yes, sir.

9                   (The Deputy Clerk left the courtroom briefly
10                  and then returned.)

11                  BY THE DEPUTY CLERK: County Court has used
12                  our jurors and we have used theirs.

13                  BY THE COURT: So they have co-mingled them?

14                  BY THE DEPUTY CLERK: Yes.

15                  BY THE COURT: Okay.

16                  (The Deputy Clerk leaves the courtroom again.)

17                  BY THE COURT: Let me ask you this, Mr.
18                  Lumumba. Do you have any objection since that 19                  juror was summonsed for County Court? The Clerk's 20                  Office tells me that they co-mingle those panels
21                  from time to time. If County Court needs some 22                  Circuit Court jurors, they take them or vice 23                  versa. So he would have been available for any, if 24                  there are four trials going on here, he would have 25                  been available for any one of them. Now he 26                  happened to appear at this one by mistake when he 27                  was actually summonsed for County Court. He has 28                  gone through all the voir dire, all the 29                  qualifications, and he has made it thus far. Do

1           you have any objection to his sitting on the
2           panel?

3           BY MR. LUMUMBA: None.

4           BY THE COURT: Okay, now.

5           BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, let me bring one
6           thing to the Court's attention. As you saw, the 7           investigator for the District Attorney's Office
8           came in and spoke with Mr. Bleck a few minutes
9           ago. He had-- and that investigator's name is 10          James Render. He was the one that had told Mr.
11          Bleck that he was a BGD. He has further checked
12          and found out who his mother is and said he is not 13          a BGD member or is not the one he thought at 14          least. So the reasons we are sticking on at this 15          point is the fact that he appeared on the wrong
16          jury.

17          My reasoning for that is two. One is that he
18          was not attentive enough to show up in the right
19          courtroom, and I think this Court is going to be 20          making reversible error that I want to avoid.
21          There is no sense in having any possible reasons
22          for reversal in it, and I will use one of my 23          strikes to keep it from being that. Also, the 24          fact which follows up on him not being attentive is 25          the fact that he slept through part of the voir
26          dire.

27          BY MR. LUMUMBA: That is absolutely untrue,
28          the last statement. That is absolutely untrue. I
29          was looking at that portion of the courtroom during

1 my entire -- he never slept. He never slept. He
2 was very attentive. As far as that, we absolutely
3 waive any objection to him, and we make no
4 objection and waive any irregularity as it relates
5 to which jury he showed up on, if he showed up for 6 the wrong jury, and I would have to take whatever
7 the Court's representation on that is. But I also
8 highlight the fact, as the Court just found out,
9 that apparently people sit in the same room or 10 something like that, and they co-mingle juries and 11 sometimes they use ones from others. They use the 12 same jurors.

13 BY THE COURT: Well, to give you an example,
14 there were three of the jurors that were summonsed
15 for this case that didn't show up until today. I
16 don't know who they are. I haven't seen them. It
17 was just reported to me, and the Clerk's Office
18 sent them down to one of the other Circuit Judges
19 to serve on that panel down there. Let me make 20 this note for the record. There was no motion for 21 a special venire in this case. There was no order
22 granting a special venire. There were 350 jurors,
23 additional jurors called for the pool. This is a
24 term of court in Harrison County, and there were 25 350 extra jurors called for the purpose of having 26 enough jurors for this case, but there has been no
27 special venire. And had we run out here, I think I
28 can go down and get some from the other panel from 29 Judge Terry.

1                   So if that is reversible error after Mr.
2                   Lumumba has waived it and after what I have put in 3                   the record, it will just have to be reversible
4                   error. I don't think it is, and I do not think the 5                   Thorne case applies.

6                   BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, is the Court ruling
7                   that that is not a race neutral reason, that he was 8                   inattentive, that he was seen my Mr. Horan nodding
9                   off several times back there?

10                  BY THE COURT: No, because I watched him and 11                  he answered questions during voir dire, and I did
12                  not notice that he did that, and I am ruling that 13                  you cannot strike him.

14                  BY MR. EVANS: Well, you will probably be 15                  reversed on it.

16                  BY THE COURT: Well, it won't be the first
17                  time.

18                  BY MR. EVANS: No, but I hate to waste a
19                  trial.

20                  BY THE COURT: Well, that is enough, Mr.
21                  Evans. That tenders 27.

22                  BY MR. EVANS: Juror number 28, Eugene
23                  Crockett, Jr., has a stepson that is serving time
24                  at this time. He also is the juror that on voir
25                  dire told the Court yesterday morning that he 26                  needed to go because he was the only one that could 27                  take care of his dog. He has other things that are 28                  getting his attention, and also his comments that 29                  he made about the death penalty.

1                   BY THE COURT: Rebuttal to that?

2                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: I still suspect that given
3 the fact that everybody they have challenged has 4 been black, I still suspect that that is not
5 legitimate reason and is basically a pretext, and 6 that would be my argument, Judge. And in support
7 of my argument, I would also like to, on him and 8 all the other black jurors who they have either
9 struck or attempted to strike, I would like to make
10 sure that in the record we have their, what you
11 call it, questionnaires. I would like to make them
12 exhibits for purposes of this.

13                   BY THE COURT: Okay, will you gather them up
14 and put them in there?

15                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, that is not a problem.

16                   BY THE COURT: Ms. Burchfield -- you want
17 them as exhibits?

18                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, as exhibits.

19                   (QUESTIONNAIRES OF THE BLACK JURORS WERE LATER
20 GIVEN TO THE COURT REPORTER BY MR. LUMUMBA AND WERE 21 MARKED COLLECTIVELY IN EVIDENCE AS DEFENDANT'S 22 EXHIBIT "A" TO THE MOTION DURING JURY SELECTION BUT
